'Eartha-quake' Shows Signs Of Subsiding

"It was one of the most delightful evenings we have ever spent," declared King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece, when queried Monday about last Saturday night's banquet in Los Angeles.

"It was lovely," smiled the gracious Queen. Asked if he thought the show in "bad taste," the King replied, with obvious amusement, "Not at all."

Not Dainty Dish

The royal pair were questioned on board their train in New Mexico by reporters after Los Angeles' city fathers had rushed into print, loudly proclaiming that the performance at the banquet was not a "dainty dish to set before a King."

Mayor Norris Poulson and

Cabaret Songs Not Proper Dish for King

Councilman Gordon Hahn told the Eagle Tuesday that he thought the wrong slant had been placed on his comments regarding the Eartha Kitt show Saturday night before the King and Queen of Greece.

"The performance should have been formal," he said. "They shouldn't have gotten a cabaret or night club program. They should have had someone like Marian Anderson, Lily Pons or a string quartet.

"Comments I heard were that it was 'disgusting' and that this 'certainly was not the place for that kind of a performance'."

He added that the "entertainers were tops in their fields," and that the performers certainly were not to blame since, of course, they had to accept the invitations to appear before the King and Queen.

Jury Frees Knife Killer In Pasadena

A jury composed of ten women and two men in Judge Benjamin Scheinman's Superior Court in Pasadena, last Tuesday found Clinton Perry not guilty of murdering Floyd Lofton of Monrovia.

Perry, 42, father of three, was charged with murdering Floyd Lofton on a dark night last September in Monrovia. Perry, Lofton and others were attending a party at the home of J. B. Jones in Monrovia. At some time, between midnight and 1:30 a.m., Lofton was found dead in Jones' front yard. His throat had been cut from ear to ear and he had suffered more than a dozen deep and fatal cuts about his head, body and arms. The Los Angeles County autopsy surgeon testified that Lofton's carotid artery and his jugular [illegible] and his collar bone [illegible] by the

B'nai B'rith Opens Capitol Freedom Forum

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Prominent Negro leaders and celebrities are featured among a group of more than 100 distinguished Americans—including President Eisenhower—who are participating in a three-day Freedom Forum that opens here Saturday, Nov. 21, commemorating the 40th anniversary of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Climax of the program is a one-hour, all-networks television program Monday evening, a Rodgers and Hammerstein production dramatizing American progress in human relations during the past 40 years, that will conclude with the President's acceptance of the annual America's Democratic Legacy medallion which ADL awards each year. An estimated audience of 40,000,000 will view the coast-to-coast program.

Noted Stars

Jackie Robinson and baritone William Warfield are principals in the special telecast that also stars Ethel Merman, Jane Frohman, Rex Harrison, Lilli Palmer, Helen Hayes and the entire "I Love Lucy" cast.

Judge William H. Hastie of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, leading Negro jurist in America, is a principal speaker at a forum session Sunday, Nov. 22, devoted to race relations in the United States.

Trickery Said Real Cause of Current Daily News Crisis

Burden of the editorial was that Fire Chief John H. Alderson is a poor, misunderstood public official who is being persecuted by anti-public housing forces which have misled "anti-discrimination groups" (meaning the NAACP), to join in a "cheap political trick which masquerades as a drive to eliminate segregation and discrimination in the Fire Department and the blocking of promotions for Negro firemen."

We've got news for the News. The campaign to end segregation in the fire department was begun by the Los Angeles Urban League away back in 1949. On February 6, 1950, representatives of the Urban League met with Mr. Alderson who told them in no uncertain terms that he was going to stick with his Jim Crow policy. On February 27, 1950, he wrote the League a letter and reiterated that stand.

After the Urban League's campaign of persuasion failed to move the chief, the NAACP took up the campaign. It initiated its present campaign before last spring's mayoralty election but decided to delay action so that nobody could charge it with politics.

On October 8, 1953, the NAACP laid its petition before the Fire Commission. Chief Alderson appeared, reiterated his gobbledy-gook about the "best interests of the department" and failed to answer any questions as to the ramifications of his Jim Crow policy.

Apparently when he went whining to the Daily News about how he was being persecuted, Chief Alderson didn't tell the whole story.

For example, the News says that "every Negro who has been certified as eligible to become a fireman has been appointed and every Negro who has passed the examinations has been appointed." That is not true. In 1944 Chief Alderson forced three Negro firemen who had passed examinations for engineer, and who were Numbers One, Two and Three on the eligible list,

Willowbrook Reception Fetes Congressman Doyle

More than 125 guests from the Watts-Willowbrook area attended a Welcome Home Reception honoring Congressman Doyle of the 3rd District last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Branch Ray of Willowbrook.

Sponsored by the Watts Area Democratic club, the reception featured a buffet supper, followed by brief, informal remarks by Congressman Doyle.

Others Present

Accompanying Congressman and Mrs. Doyle was their daughter, Miss Lydia Doyle. Also present was the congressman's field secretary, Miss Ida Reynolds, as well as Mrs. Fannie Leonard, Watts - Willowbrook Area field secretary.

Congressman Doyle was introduced by Attorney Ed Hardwick, president of the Watts Democratic Club, who was also over-all chairman of the occasion.

Assisting in the arrangements were Mrs. Cora Johnson of Watts; Mrs. Ed Hardwick of Watts; Mrs. Nola Ewing, Willowbrook; Mrs. Blanch Alonzo, Watts; Mrs. Hattie Davis, Los Angeles; Mrs. Fannie Leonard, Watts; Misses Ann Mason, Margaret Leonard; Patsy Ryan and Diane Hardwick; and John Gilbert of Watts.

Hostesses included Mrs. Kira Walker, Watts; Mrs. Laura Ray, Willowbrook, and Mrs. Esther Pope, Watts.

Also assisting in the overall arrangements was Mr. Edward Blow of Watts, a member of the 55th District Democratic County Committee.

Representatives from local newspapers included Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Alexander, owner and publisher of the Los Angeles Herald-Dispatch; Mr. and Mrs. R. Milner, Herald-Dispatch; Mrs. Cora Ball Moten and Mrs. Violet Moten Brown, editor of the California Eagle.

Among those in attendance to honor Congressman Doyle were Ray Clark of the Central CIO Council; Roy Brooks, Enterprise school board; Dr. Wm. Smith, president of the Willowbrook school board; Attorney Erskine Ragland, member of the Willowbrook school board; Gilbert Lindsey, field deputy for Supervisor Kenneth Hahn; Harry Laughran, field deputy for Supervisor Burton Chace; Harold Markham, chairman of the 55th Assembly District Democratic County Committee, and "Doc" Reeseburg, also of the County Committee.

FANNING AND FAMILY—Ousted Los Angeles Postmaster Michael Fanning receives assurance of the loyalty of his wife and daughter while he fights charges of inefficiency and favoritism. Support for Fanning is echoed by all community organizations and individuals.

Push Fight Against Pasadena Schools

Still meeting opposition from the Pasadena Board of Education, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is continuing to press its fight against the segregated school system that exists in the nearby city.

Atty. Charles Johnson, together with other lawyers representing the association, is preparing a complaint against the school authorities seeking to get a court order restraining the Board of Education from spending $15,000 of taxpayers' money for three additional school rooms at the near-white Arroyo Seco school.

Attack "Neutral" Zones

The briefs, which will be filed in the near future, will also attack the free transfer and "neutral" zone system, the means by which white students are permitted to attend the Arroyo Seco school while available space remains vacant at the nearby Garfield school, attended largely by Negroes, Mexican-Americans and Orientals.

Last Tuesday the Board of Education, at a meeting presided over by Dr. Raymond Unterlener, president, reaffirmed the stand they had taken previously for increasing the facilities at the Arroyo Seco school. It was learned authoritatively, however, that while this was the majority opinion, some members of the committee were in opposition.

High Court Awaits School Bias Cases

WASHINGTON — The Fourteenth Amendment forbids racial segregation in public schools, attorneys for NAACP told the Supreme Court in briefs filed here Monday. The schools segregation cases will be argued Dec. 7.

Furthermore, they said, it was the intent and understanding of Congress in submitting the Fourteenth Amendment, and of the states in ratifying it, that it would abolish racial segregatoin in every form.

The Fourteenth Amendment was submitted to the states by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and was declared ratified on July 28, 1868. It provides that "no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of any citizen of the United States, . . . nor deny to any persons within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

On June 2, the high court, in postponing until the fall term a decision in the segregation cases, asked both sides to discuss specific phases of the cases.

The first three dealt with whether Congress or the states understood that the Fourteenth Amendment would abolish school segregation, and whether it would be within the judicial power, "in the light of future considerations," to construe the amendment as abolishing segregation "of its own force."

The remaining questions dealt with procedure that might be followed in the event that the court declared racial segregation to be unconstitutional.

Groups of Negro parents in South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas and the District of Columbia, carried to the Supreme Court appeals from lower rulings that sustained the constitutionality of school segregation. Delaware appealed from a rulnig of its own Supreme Court that segregation laws in that state were unconstitutional.

The cases were briefed and

Cites Racial Angle As a Vital Factor

By VIOLET MOTEN BROWN

Contrasting strangely with the charges which brought about the dismissal Wednesday of Los Angeles Postmaster Michael Fanning is his official statement. In answer to the accusations made by Republican Assistant Postmaster General, A. R. Abrams, the locally respected Fanning included in his answer the following paragraphs:

"When I became postmaster in 1945, there were 3000 Negro employees in our post office. There were but three Negro foremen. I corrected this. I recognized the merits of all races and colors. I promoted to foremen (supervisors) a total of 39 Negroes. They are good citizens and honest, efficient, courteous employees.

"To illustrate the pettiness of the charges, I will cite a few instances:

"I promoted Mr. Walker, a Negro, on Nov. 16, 1952. I am charged with mismanagement because Mr. Walker was arrested in Shreveport, La., in 1928 for possession of liquor. My investigation convinced me that Mr. Walker was arrested because he was a Negro in posession of liquor. The Civil Service Commission, with full knowledge of this charge against Mr. Walker, certified him to the post office.

"I promoted Mr. Wilson in 1949. I am charged with mismanagement because four years later he was arrested for drunk driving. I regret that in 1949 I could not foresee what Mr. Wilson would do in 1953.

"Another instance: On Jan. 16, 1953, I promoted a Negro who in 1927 had been charged with poor attendance and had a bad debt charge in 1930.

No Hearing on Charges

"I was never permitted to have a hearing to prove the falsity of the charges being made against me.

"Could there be more clear proof that the Postmaster General makes a mockery of Civil Service? He scuttles the high ideals of the President. He disregards the protests of California's Republican Senators. His action is without precedent. It is a return to the old spoils system—'To the victor belongs the spoils.'

"Since I have been certified by the Civil Service Commission as postmaster, I have handled and accounted for over a quarter of a billion dollars. Every year since I have been postmaster, the Los Angeles Office has returned approximately $8,000,000 in profit.

"Los Angeles was the first post office to inaugurate the use of the helicopter in the rapid collection and delivery of mail. I gave the people of Los Angeles an honest, efficient administration of their post office. I am grateful to the people of our great city."

ELLIS BARTEE, popular drummer man with the Sonny Gibson Red Caps, currently appearing at the Tiffany Club, died during the band's intermission Wednesday night, November 18, at 1:20 a.m. Bates joined the group five months ago when he left Lionel Hampton's band following a seven year stay. He was 34 years old and born in Kansas City, Kans. Funeral services will be conducted from the Angelus Funeral Home. His remains may be sent to his home in Kansas. He leaves a wife, Walter Mae Bartee, 2007 E. 24th St. of this city. His father and other relatives live in Kansas City, Kansas.

Dr. Charles S. Johnson, President of Fisk University, will also address the forum on this subject, Dr. Percy Julian, famed Negro chemist and research director of the Glidden Corporation, will be one of the speakers at a panel on the problems of anti-Semitism. A third session will take up civil rights issues in the United States.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, discussing the international impact of prejudice, and Archibald MacLeish, Pulitzer Prize poet and former Librarian of Congress, speaking on "The Meaning of Freedom," will keynote the series of public forums.

Protests Bias

The Anti-Defamation League is the outgrowth of one man's abhorrence of the dialect, race-stereotype comedy that pervaded vaudeville before World War I. Sigmund Livingston, a Bloomington, Ill., lawyer, walked out of a Chicago theater one afternoon in silent protest against the antics of a comedy team whose act caricatured Jews.

The League has joined with Negro organizations in campaigns to eliminate racial prejudice and has fought for equality of opportunity in housing, education, employment, recreation and other areas of American life. Its brief amicus to the U. S. Supreme Court helped establish the unconstitutionality of restrictive covenants in housing. With other national organizations, it has conducted educational programs stressing the need for fair employment practices.

In the South the League has played an important role in mobilizing public opinion against the once-powerful Ku Klux Klan. A model anti-mask law was prepared by the League and several Southern states and over 50 Southern cities have adopted anti-Klan laws similar in many respects to the League's model bill.

Two Women Report Rape To Police

By EDDIE LEE KING

Charges of rape made by two college girls landed one youth in jail and set off an all points-bulletin ofr another by the police.

Jeanne Armanda Rayford, 19, 1411 E. 21st street, reported to Newton street police station that her boyfriend, Harvey Polee, 21, laborer, of 1559 E. 47th street, raped her early Sunday morning in her parents' car.

Around 8 p.m. Saturday Polee took Miss Rayford and Alma Shaw of 1012 E. 55th street, out for an evening of bowling in Mr. and Mrs. Rayford's 1948 Plymouth sedan.

The three spent the evening bowling on West Jefferson. After taking Miss Shaw home, they drove to 29th and Central where they parked to "pet."

About a half hour later Miss Rayford asked Polee to take her home, he complied, but upon arriving at her home, refused to let her leave the car. When she opened the car door he grabbed her around the neck and pulled her back to the seat.

Suspect Polee then drove her to his house, stopping for some whiskey at Vernon and Long Beach. He parked in the driveway of his house and she again asked him to take her home. After refusing he told her to get in the back seat and she refused.

Polee grabbed her and she jumped out of the car. He caught her, opened the rear door of the car and pushed her in, striking the victim on the left side of the face with his fist; she screamed but one one heard her.

The man draged her in the back seat and said, "If you don't keep quiet, I'll hit you some more!" He pushed her into a prone position and told her to disrobe. When she was slow in doing so Poles began removing her clothing. Once again she let out a loud cry for help and slapped at the suspect.

Polee slapped her several times and when she cried out he struck her with his closed fist and threatened more beating if she did not assist him, Miss Rayford told the police.

After they half undressed the suspect criminally assaulted the victim, she said.

After the attack Miss Rayford jumped from the car and ran West on 47th St., to Compton Ave. where Polee caught her and returned her to the vehicle. She then ran up on the porch, knocked on the door and when the suspect's mother answered she told her to "take me home" as suspect would not leave her alone. Mrs. Polee told her son to take the girl home. When he promised his mother he would, Miss Rayford got back into the car.

On the way home Polee asked his victim if she intended to keep the date they had for Sunday evening. She said, "No!" she never wanted to see him again and she was going to tel her mother as soon as she got home. He said that in that case he would not take her home, and turned the car in another direction. She jumped out, Miss Rayford reported. He caught her, then drove to the Rayford home.

Upon reaching home Miss Rayford took the keys from the ignition and ran into her house. Her mother called the police at about 5:45 a.m.

The suspect was arrested at home and confirmed the victim's story but said it was not against her will. When asked what he was doing with the underthings in bed with him he said he kept them as a souvenier.

Second Incident

Ingeborg E. Schwantes, 24, 847 Exposition boulevard, reported to police Saturday evening that she got off the bus from San Pedro at Santa Barbara and Hoover around 10:30 p.m. and cut across Exposition Park to her home.

When she got in front of the Rose Garden a man came up from behind and hit her over the head with his fist, knocking her down, told her not to cry or he would kill her. After he knocked her down he jumped on her, partially disrobed her, and ravished her.

Miss Schwantes told the police that he held a knife to her against her forehead and beat her about the face and body, in the process of attacking her.

A passing car scared off the rapist. The motorist took her home, she bathed, changed clothes and took a cab to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital, she said.

The suspect, who made clean his escape, was described as being about 25, 5 ft. 8 in. tall, 150 pounds, with black hair, brown eyes, dark complextion and wearing a leather jacket.

Eartha Kitt Controversy

two city councilmen termed parts of the show staged by the Hollywood Coordinating committee for the visiting royalty "very offensive" and "repugnant."

City Hall critics singled out songs sung by the current national sensation, sultry songstress Eartha Kitt as especially shocking to their sensibilities. Eartha's smash hit tunes, "I Wanna Be Evil, I Wanna Be Bad," and the French teaser "C'est Si Bon," were part of the program which the mayor thought required an apology to the King and Queen.

Famed for Shows

The Hollywood Coordinating Committee is one of the most noted in the entire country for arranging and assembling shows for soldiers in the United States and abroad and for visiting dignitaries from all over the world.

The committee has been singled out for awards and laudatory comments from scores of organizations during recent years for the excellence of their productions. They are currently arranging a show for the entertainment of GIs in Korea to bring them cheer during the Christmas holidays.

$1,000 a Night

The singularly attractive Eartha Kitt is now appearing at Charles Morrison's Mocambo, on the Sunset Strip, at a reported salary of $1000 a night. Her pulsating, teasing songs are on everyone's lips. From all appearances King Paul and Queen Frederika enjoyed Miss Kitt's singing as much as practically everyone else, with the exception of the mayor and the councilmen, at the black-tie, $15-a-plate affair in the Ambassador's Cocoanut Grove.

Said the mayor: "There were some off-color songs, and I didn't like it." In a written statement he suggested that the Hollywood Coordinating committee should apologize to the King and Queen "as well as to every other guest at the banquet."

Councilman Hahn thought the "entertainment was repugnant to all good, decent citizens" . . . and was "at a very low level."

Councilman Don Allen also joined the group of critics. "The low point," he said, "was when that girl sang a song called 'I Wanna Be Evil.'"

Miss Kitt said she was "shocked and hurt" by all the furor. "It's inconceivable that anyone would question the ingenuous poetry of these songs," she said, adding, "I put them on as timidly as a mouse."

She said further that she was "thrilled and honored to appear before Their Majesties —gratis."

Segregation Cases Pending

argued during the last term of the court, but because of the importance of the issue, the justices asked the additional questions and ordered the new briefs and oral arguments.

The Justice Department also was asked to file a brief and is expected to do so soon. It is understood, however, that the department will not participate in the oral argument.

The brief filed today by the lawyers for the Negro parents covered only the South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas and Delaware cases. Probably the District of Columbia these will be dealt with in a later brief.

"The substantive question common to all (the cases) is whether a state can, consently with the Constitution, exclude children solely on the ground that they are Negroes from the public school which otherwise they could be qualified to attend," the brief said, adding:

"The answer is: The Fourteenth Amendment prevents the states from acording differential treatment to American children on the basis of their color or race."

The brief denied the argument of the states involved that constitutional requirements were met if separate, but equal facilities were provided.

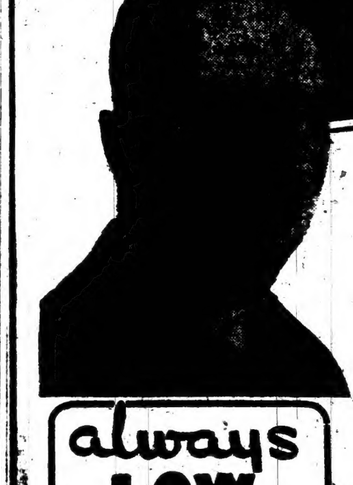
"Whatever other purposes the Fourteenth Amendment may have had," the brief declared, "it is indisputable that its primary purpose was to complete the Thirteenth Amendment by ensuring to the Negro egality before the law."

The Thirteenth Amendment which was declared ratified Dec. 18, 1865, abolished slavery and involuntary servitude throughout the United States.

As for the high court's questions, the brief asserted that the debates in the Thirty-ninth Congress and succeeding ones "clarly reveal" the intention that the Fourteenth Amendment would prohibit all state action predicated on race or color. Evidence that the states, in ratifying the amendment, understood that that was its purpose "is convincing," the brief asserted.

Eleven Southern states that ratified the amendment, it was said, adopted Constitutions that did not require or specifically authorized segregated schools. Twenty-two of the twenty-six Northern states that ratified "acted with an understanding that it prohibited racially segregated schools, the brief declared.

The lawyers for the Negro parents also took the position that the amendment was "self executing," and that the judiciary could enforce its provisions without Congressional implementation.



They found no reason why segregation should not be ended immediately without a "gradual adjustment from segregated to non-segregated school systems." The Supreme Court had asked whether, in the exercise of its equity powers, it could decree such a gradual adjustment.

man could be. At that time he had his knife in his hand.

Reeves testified that the defendant called Lofton from the Jones home where the party was in progress. Five minutes after Lofton went out with the defendant, Reeves went out into the yard in response to a call from Lofton. When he went outside he saw the defendant leaving in his car. He stumbled over Lofton who was lying in a pool of blood on the ground.

On cross examination, Defense Attorney Earl C. Broady confronted Reeves with statements he had previousll made which were inconsistent with the testimony given at the trial. Reeves contended he had not made the statements. A long wrangle started between the Deputy District Attorney prosecuting the case and Broady. Because of the fight between the lawyers, the judge called a recess and excused the jurors for more than an hour.

The defendant took the witness stand and in response to Attorney Broady's careful questioning told a story of being attacked with a club in the hands of Lofton. He only pulled his knife to defend himself. He explained the eight or ten wounds on Lofton by saying that he continued to wield the knife until Lofton dropped the club.

In a spirited argument to the jury, Broady accused the district attorney of misconduct, accused the prosecution star witness, Reeves, or being untruthful and painted a rather black picture of everyone connected with the case, except his client ,the defendant. He told the jury that the defendant was innocent of any wrong doing and was the victim of a diabolical scheme to remove him fso mhis home, his wife and his three children.

The jury deliberated more than five hours and returned a verdict of not guilty.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first heard of your treatments I was a very sick man. My disease had been diagnosed by medical doctor as epilepsy. When epileptic attacks would strike me I would be totally unconscious for three days. After the second treatment in your institution, I had an attack but never lost consciousness and was back for my next treatment the following day.

"When I began your treatments my stomach was completely 'shot.' It had become so bad I could hardly put anything into it any more. It was in very bad shape. I had been taking sedatives for seven years. I was in and out of hospitals for the last two years. However, I was afraid to come here because I thought the nurses would be as mean as those in the other hospitals where I had been a patient. If I asked for water I almost got a beating—but far from it, these nurses have been like angels to me. I never received nicer treatment in my life.

"I feel so deeply grateful to you because your treatments have saved my life. After only nine treatments I feel like a new man 100% better in every way. My stomach trouble has completely left me and I have done away with sedatives forever. My gratitude is boundless and I can only say 'God bless you!'

"I have—and again am offering you—a gift of $500.00 which you still refuse to accept. Words seem inadequate to express my deep and sincere gratitude. I sincerely and truly feel that your treatments have saved my life, and I want everybody to know it. I only wish I were gifted with the ability to put into words what I really feel, but all I can say is 'God bless you' for saving my life. I can never thank you for what you have done for me. Sincerely and gratefully, Signature left out purposely. Witness: Mrs. Lucy A. Rubalcava, Dr. S. M. Sassone, D.C., Mrs. E. H. Berghof, Mrs. B. Lamont."

Heart Trouble

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I wish to thank you, Dr. Brinkley, and your staff of very capable doctors and nurses. In 1947, I had a severe heart attack hospitalized—oxygen for several weeks. Have had two severe attacks since that time.

When I came for a trial treatment, I had a severe pressure in back of my head, eyes ached, pains in my heart so bad I could not lie down. Was short of breath and could not walk any distance without stopping to rest. After eating had severe gas attacks. After my first treatment, the pain in my head and eyes was completely gone, pains in chest gone and I went home and had a good night's rest. Could eat without distress. After fourth treatment I feel like a new man. Swelling in legs and ankles completely gone and I can walk and do some work that I haven't been able to do without puffing. Warland Stringham."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For about three years I was troubled with intestinal gas. After each meal I felt so distressed and bloated that I was afraid to eat my meal because of the palpitation of the heart. When I read about the New Yorker Technique I took the treatments. The stomach is now flat and I can eat without trace of gas or distress. Nina L. Lewis."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first became a patient at your institution I was quite ill. I was suffering from a heart and liver ailment.

Under the very fine care of your staff I have improved one hundred per cent and as an expatient I can and do recommend your great work to be satisfactory. M. V. Glass."

Blood Pressure

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I am glad I read of your treatments in the newspapers and I would like to add my testimonial to your list of grateful patients. I was in distress with pains on my back from arthritis, high blood pressure, heart trouble, and believe me that is enough for one person. With treatments that I received, I feel wonderful and even more so, because you have cured me . . . when I am seventy-three — an old woman. I shall be very, very grateful for the kind attention received. I want it known that I am very grateful. Edna E. LeBlanc."

"My dear Sir: It was April and May, 1948, that I took a course of treatments for arthritis, high blood pressure and constipation, all of which I had suffered with for the past 20 years. Since taking your treatments, I am perfectly well and am feeling fine. My health is the very best. Mrs. John E. Johnson."

"When I went to Dr. Brinkley on August 17, 1948, my blood pressure was high and I was suffering from headaches and dizziness. Upon examination my blood pressure was found to be 180. After taking treatments the discomfiture from which I had suffered was gone and my blood pressure returned to normal. Pauline Breakman."

Stomach Gas

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering with a nervous stomach and gas for 5 years, and having had two operations with no results, I can truthfully and honestly say that after taking treatments from you for 9 days I feel better than I have in the past 20 years or more. Mrs. Etoy Edwards."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I came to your office in Sept. 1948, I was suffering with gas and pains in my chest, auto-intoxication and constipation. I could not sleep at night and was not able to turn over in bed. I am glad to say to you and let the world know that after taking your treatment I sleep and eat well and do my work with pleasure. W. M. Jenkins."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For over 5 years I suffered from gas and other stomach and intestinal disorders. But with your treatments I felt immediate relief. Mrs. J. Nietzschmann."

"Dr. L. A. Brinkley: I place your treatments among the Greatest Blessings of Mankind. After suffering many years with 'gastric disturbances' that kept me awake nightly, and 'hayfever' in its worst form, I cannot praise you enough for your wonderful work. F. V. Crooksie."

CONSTIPATION

"Dear Doctor: I have suffered chronic colitis, constipation, eleven years, was in the hospital and a clinic but got no relief. I came to realize that all diseases originate in the stomach or colon and came to you. Your treatments are wonderful. The pains have vanished and now I enjoy life again. I thanked you once, now I thank you more substantially. G. H. Freeman."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For a period of 6 years I suffered with constipation. I tried every remedy available but nothing gave me relief. But now through your treatments I have restored my health. I express my most sincere gratitude. J. Colon."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had been suffering for 15 years from constipation and extreme dizzy spells. I came to your office in August 1948. My very first treatment helped me. After receiving the full quota of treatments my eliminations were normal and I felt better physically and mentally. Mrs. Sudie F. Rowton."

"Dear Sir: After being constipated and sick for seven years I heard of the New Yorker Technique. I started your treatments and right away I felt like a different person. It has been more than one year that I took the last one and I still feel in perfect health, younger, full of energy. Joe Urias."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had liver trouble, constipation and over weight. Your treatments helped me so very much and I lost 14½ pounds in less than 2 weeks. I am feeling so much better in every way. It also helped my eyes. Mrs. J. P. Byrnes."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering for many years with constipation and several years extreme dizziness and severe headaches I came to your office for treatments. Am glad to say that dizziness and headaches disappeared at completion of treatments, my constipation was corrected and I enjoy much better health. Sleep much better also. I'm very grateful. Mrs. Carrie M. Reimer."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have suffered for years from chronic constipation, and all the complications that go with it. Now I feel well, happy and I am very active. Thanks to your treatments, that were a great pleasure to me. Now I never have to take a laxative and my stomach is in perfect condition. Y. Alegria."

to waive their places on the civil service list because there were no vacancies at "Negro" fire stations. Whites were named to existing vacancies but not one of those men has ever been promoted.

Promotional examinations are a farce because the oral board is composed of high ranking firemen all of whom know and approve Alderson's policies. A Negro fireman who gets a high grade in a written promotional examination can always be eliminated at the oral test. This oral board knows when there are vacancies at "Negro" stations and when there are vacancies at "white" stations and Negroes get good grades in oral examinations only when there is a "Negro" vacancy.

Chief Alderson, or some of his stooges, told the News that Negro firemen got no training prior to his appointment. That is not true. The truth is that Negro and white firemen alike used to get training after appointment. Chief Alderson changed the policy to give training before appointments. After he made that change he established the rule that Negro trainees could not sleep at the training center. The first Negro trainee was told he could not stay at the center at nights. He refused to accede to this humiliating treatment and he never got any training! Chief Alderson later changed that rule and now all trainees do stay and sleep at the training center during the training period. In other words, Alderson first instituted Jim Crow and then changed his own policy. Now he wants credit for doing what the law required him to do in the first place.

Under Alderson's regime, Negroes were formerly barred from the Fire Prevention detail. When there was trouble filling positions on that detail, Negroes were admitted. Now he wants credit for changing a discriminatory rule that he followed and for which he was once chief apologist.

The News says that there were no requests for transfers before the campaign against segregation and discrimination was instituted. That is not true. Records in Alderson's office will show that there were such requests. No such transfer from Negro fire stations has ever been honored. The short of that matter is that white firemen have a right to transfers and that Negro firemen do not. What justification is there for this discriminatory treatment?

The News finally winds up with the assertion that "there are five Negro fire companies located in two stations in the Central Ave. district." That is precisely what Negroes are complaining about through the NAACP. We don't want Jim Crow fire companies any more than we want Jim Crow schools, or Jim Crow parks, or Jim Crow public housing. And we don't want it because discrimination inevitably follows racial segregation. The Daily News has said many times that it, too, is opposed to Jim Crow. What we don't understand is how the News can condone and apologize for Jim Crow in this instance.

And the talk that the opponents of a Jim Crow fire department are pulling chestnuts out of the fire for anti-public housing forces is so much tommy rot. The record will show that Geo. A. Beavers was chairman of the Urban League board when the first interviews were had with Alderson. Dr. E. I. Robinson is now president of the local NAACP. Both are distinguished proponents of public housing. The Eagle has led local newspapers in this campaign and its record on public housing is on a par with that of any newspaper in this city.

We hope that the Daily News will withdraw its astounding and unwarranted support of racial segregation in this case and return to the principles it has previously proclaimed. It has no business being found in company with John H. Alderson who has made himself the exponent of racial segregation and discrimination.

Why Not, Mr. Biscailuz?

There has been and still is a lot of racial tension in the Watts-Willowbrook-Compton area. It breaks out in various spots: whenever a Negro family moves into a house that whites designate sacrosanct Caucasian territory, or a few Negro children enter a neighborhood school where none have gone before. The Firestone Sheriff's Office administers the law for the greater part of this area.

The population has more than doubled in the last three years. Law enforcement must deal with a great increase in juvenile delinquency. A lot of girls and women are involved. Statistics show that two out of every five girls arrested in this area are Negro. There is one woman deputy at Firestone. She's a sergeant. She is white. There are seven or eight Negro women deputies in the downtown office. Some of them have been there a long time.

Every three years, examinations are held among these deputies. Upon the result of these examinations depend promotions that lead to sergeant-rating. The Negro women deputies take these examinations. Sometimes they pass them with high ratings, yet there are no Negro women sergeants. Wonder why? They are very badly needed out in the Firestone District. This one white woman has a big load to carry and a big overload of minority group people to deal with.

We heard of one Negro woman deputy who after twelve years and three examinations with passing rate decided there just wasn't any future with Mr. Biscailuz and quit before old age got the ups on her. Surely, you've got some sergeant material among your Negro women deputies, Mr. Biscailuz. They're needed out in Firestone Station. Why don't you send one out, sir?

Prof. Hahn, Art Critic

We haven't been out in the Eighth councilmanic district lately but things must be pretty dull out there the Eartha Kitt's songs at the reception for the King and Queen of Greece to have sent Councilman Hahn's blood pressure up to the point it reached this week.

Eartha, you'll remember, gave with "C'est Si Bon" and "I Wanna Be Bad" at the shindig for royalty and Gordon ran to the Council chambers and crying that everything is going to pot and to the dogs and that something Ought To Be Done. The way he told it the King and Queen had been done wrong by took the matter in stride and said they enjoyed it at all. In fact, thought the entertainment was good.

is a man of right by his was just as one time songs had been sung elsewhere the joint would have been raided.

We hate to tell Gordon but the city seems to be just filled with Sin and Eartha. She is on every juke box in the city, she's on the air and she's on TV and—guess what—she sings "C'est Si Bon" and "I Wanna Be Bad" and nobody gets arrested and nobody's place gets raided.

So far as we are able to judge, everybody but our city councilmen and our mayor seems to be able to take Eartha's singing or just leave it alone. Frankly, we don't know how many like her and how many prefer such old-fashioned classics as "Shake That Thing." Confidentially, we dont' care either.

We like Prof. Hahn and we incline to the opinion that he's a pretty good public servant but we think that he would be better advised to keep his eye on such matters as taxation, pavements and governmental economy. When it comes to singing we'll take Eartha over Gordon any day.

Battleaxe and Bread

It seems that the boys won't learn. A few days ago the New York Times carried a news-item from Washington, D.C., reporting an announcement by the Republican National Committee that a New York City lawyer has been appointed as "Consultant on Minority Relation" to the GOP. It is not important to name the new appointment, for his name would mean nothing to 999 out of 1,000 readers of the Amsterdam News. At the same time, it is extremely doubtful that the gentleman in question knows any more than one out of a thousand Amsterdam News' readers, if that many. And there tis the irony that lies in the appointment.

In onnouncing the appointment, Leonard W. Hall, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, declared that his choice had been "an outstanding Republican leader for a quarter-of-a-century, and has a splendid record of education and understanding in American minority problems." The new "consultant" was described as an official of the Council Against Intolerance in America, and of the Federation for Jewish Philanthropies.

The Republican Chairman seized the occasion to point out that the GOP has performed the achievement of making "the Bill of Rights a livini reality," while the Democrats have made speeches but little progress in proving the status of minorities. And to all of this, Amsterdam News' readers will probably reply loudly and bitterly, "HOGWASH!"

Both the action of the Republican National Committee and the statement of the GOP Chairman are disappointing. Certainly they are disappointing to me as a Republican voter who has been hoping that the long term of GOP exile from power in Washington would have produced a sober second thought among the Party's leadership on this whole question of "the status of minorities." In the first place, it is simply not true that the Democrats made only speeches, but produced little progress in improving the status of the largest minority in this country—16,000,000 Negro Americans. Anyone who compares the racial situation today with what it was in 1932 is immediately struck with tremendous economic, social and political progress that the Negro group has made, and Harold Stassen, a well-known Republican leader, was most effusive in recounting these gains last summer for the benefit of the NAACP Convention in Philadelphia. We can say, if we wish, that many of the gains were incidental to, rather than the direct result of, Democratic planning, but the fact is that gains were made while the Democrats were in power and partly as a result of Democratic Party policies. For the Republicans to claim otherwise is to insult the intelligence of the Negro public.

In the second place, the whole concept of a consultant great political party is assininely outmoded on today's political scene. There was a time, forty years ago, when Negroes had so little political experience and influence that they were ready to view with equanimity some member of their race snuggling up close to the white powers-that-be and whispering words of advice into their usually indifferent ears. That day has gone forever. If the GOP wants any advice on "minority problems" it had better get that advice directly from the persons affected. Negro voters, through their own established organization and leaders, and not through some hand-picked consultant, whether colored or white.

And in the third place, many Negroes will take it as an affront that because an individual has served in the field of Jewish interest that he automatically qualifies as an expert on the problems faced by Negroes in American life—or can advise the GOP on how to win Negro votes. That feeling of affront will be justified, just as Jews will have a right to feel outraged if a Negro were chosen to advise the GOP on how to make friends and influence people, and "solve the problems" of five or six million Jewish Americans. It is amazing that simple commonsense has not operated within the Republican National Committee far enough for its leaders to understand these basic facts. It is disappointing, I repeat, to all of those who are still hoping for a more enlightened vision and a more energetic disposition among Republican politicians toward racial aspects of our national political problems.

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

DRAMA OF A POLICEMAN OFF-DUTY

Cornered and captured in a barber shop he had just burglarized, stood Wayman Morris of 321 East 37th Street.

As Officer Oscar Marin of University Division confronted him, Morris snarled, "I'd rather die first than go to jail." He grabbed an umbrella and began to violently beat Officer Marin who warded off the blows with upraised gun and forearm — Morris bolted out the door and started over the fence — as he reached the top, the crash of pistol shots rang out—Morris dropped to the ground, fatally wounded—his reward for his night of crime . . . two fruit cakes, two packages of donuts, and a handful of barber's razors which lay near his now still body.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

This was the blazing finish for what started out as a peaceful night off for Officer Marin.

He and his wife were sitting in their apartment above 3607 S. San Pedro when they heard the crash of glass. "Call the police," said Marin to his wife as he grabbed his flashlight and gun. "I think there's a burglar downstairs."

As he looked through the window of the barber shop, he saw Morris ransacking the drawers—the window of the barber shop had been shattered — later investigation showed the bakery next door also the subject of this burglar.

After cornering the suspect inside, Marin sent his wife outside to direct the radio car to the location.

It was at this point that Morris objected to going to jail and fought his way to momentary freedom—it was also at this moment that officers J. R. Hopson, H. E. Seret and G. Serenbepe, Newton Radio Car unit, arrived on the scene in time to fire at the frantic suspect.

Joe Johnson, detective from Newton Street who directed the follow-up investigation, said, "You sometime can't account for a man's behaviour. This man has been to jail several times before, but tonight he looked down the barrel of a gun and defiantly said, I'd rather die first!"

Record Clerk Retires

Uvelda Range, clerk at Newton Street Record Bureau for the past ten years, has done what many of us only dream about—last Friday she gathered up her personal affects and said goodbye to her many friends at Newton Street—Val has a small ranch near Victorville, California and she plans to go up there and leisurely whip the place into shape—most of all tho, she is just going to relax and fish a little—we'll all miss Val, and we wish her well!

New Addition for Public Information Division

Officer Julio Gonzales has just been transferred to Public Information Division and will serve as liaison between the Police Department and the Mexican-American community.

Gonzales comes to this new position with a wealth of talent and a rich background of work with welfare and civic groups.

He has served as Counselor at inter-cultural camp, "Anytown, U.S.A.," organized Mexican youth in the vicinity of the Police Academy for leisure time activities, and has served with several Community Coordinating Councils.

We Are Ready, Sir!

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Federation of Community Coordinating Councils, I want to extend to the press our sincere appreciation for the fine cooperation, assistance, and coverage you provided our 22nd annual conference at El Camino College.

The 95 Community Coordinating Councils in our County provide a process for coordinating citizen interest, concern, and efforts with representatives of public and private agencies, civic, religious, fraternal, business, labor, service, and other groups in developing delinquency prevention programs at the community level. Mobilizing citizen alertness and assistance in meeting youth needs is aided materially by good communications such as the press provides.

For this reason we are sincerely grateful for your cooperation and assistance and are enclosing a condensed digest of the conference sessions as our report back to you.

NORT SANDERS,
Executive Secretary

Dear Editor:

M. Earl Grant, president of Watts Savings and Loan Association, Mrs. Grant, and Mrs. Cordelia F. Martin, secretary of the association, are leaving with the Southern California group to attend the United States Savings and Loan League Convention in Chicago which opens November 20.

Leslie N. Shaw, vice president, will be in charge of the association until the president and secretary return.

Grant will call to the attention of the Savings and Loan League the fact that the four institutions controlled by our group in California have total assets in excess of $24 million, add to that the Golden State Insurance company assets and they will have to give us an economic voice above a whisper.

President Grant is going on to Baltimore and Washington, D.C. where he will ask the powers that be to let the State of Georgia secede and leave the country if they will not approve of the Supreme Court's decision on segregated schools and try to find out why the governor of Mississippi is just now requesting them to float a bond to make the segregated schools equal. I was informed that the Jim Crow law read separate but equal accommodations eighty years ago and Mississippi is evidently a little slow in recognizing that fact.

There will always be race prejudice, but those who continue to try and keep pushing will always survive.

If the average person were to give a commensurtae kick to the one responsible for most of his troubles he could not sit down for a week.

M. EARL GRANT, President
Watts Savings and Loan Association

THE SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS
By Charles A. Lindberg

Who, among those who remember the 'twenties, does not recall the breath-taking news of Lindbergh's flight across the Atlantic and the world-wide excitement over that landmark in scientific progress? For a number of years the great aviator has been preparing his reminiscences of this flight and the events that led up to it, and his book, while lacking the poetic grandeur and philosophic range of the late Antoine de Saint Exupery's classics of flying, is nevertheless a masterpiece of restrainedly vivid writing. Lindbergh's earlier experiences as an air mail pilot are almost as absorbing as the flight to Paris itself.

PERSIAN ADVENTURE
By Anne Mehdevi

A candid account of the author's visit to Persia to undergo the ordeal of meeting for the first time her husband's family, which centered about a patriarchal and extremely tyrannical father-in-law. One gathers that Mrs. Mehdevi was more than a match for the old man, though many customs of an alien and still feudal society baffled her. The Moslem wedding ceremony, which her husband's family insisted upon, proved to be most unglamorous. Some of the material in this book appeared first in the New Yorker.

THE STORY OF ESTHER COSTELLO
By Nicholas Monsarrat

This is certainly an unexpected change from an author who last wrote of the Cruel Sea. In this story of a group of people who exploit for their own ends a horribly handicapped girl, Monsarrat pulls no punches in depicting selfish and calculating human beings. The Community Chest might do well to recommend this book as an example of how charity should not be given and a warning of how sympathy for the unfortunate may be exploited by unscrupulous promoters until even the supposed beneficiary of the charity is nearly destroyed in the process.

THE NARROWS
By Ann Petry

A sincere and searching novel that deals with the problems faced by a well educated Negro in Connecticut, a college graduate, all-around athlete and Phi Beta Kappa, who falls in love with a white girl. Avoiding the sensational elements that might have been present in this theme, the author has constructed a novel of dignity and understanding.

PERIOD PIECE
By Gwendolen Raverat

Reminiscences of a time that seems more and more remote from the modern world—the late Victorian era in England, when the comforts, stability, and solid values of life seemed firmly anchored and destined to last forever. Mrs. Raverat, who is Darwin's granddaughter, is an artist with an artist's eye and visual memory; hence we have a vivid picture, in words and illustrations, of stuffy Victorian drawing rooms in the age of the corset, the whatnot, and the antimacassar. The witty and often tart prose is a continual delight and at a time when family reminiscences are a glut on the market, this is one that stands out as not to be missed.

HOPE FOR THE TROUBLED
By Lucy Freeman

Despite the pressures of our age and the serious rise in mental illness, more and more help is becoming available for the mentally or nervously disturbed, and it is a message of hope that the author of the very popular "Fight Against Fears" brings in her new book. She discusses the role of psychiatrists, psychoanalysts, lay analysts, social workers, and others in this important work.

Hospitalization For Veterans

The Veterans' Administration Monday announced that veterans seeking hospital treatment for non-service-connected ailments will be asked to provide information concerning their financial status.

The VA emphasized that the additional information, which will be furnished in the answers to five questions, is designed to protect applicants and veterans generally from charges of "chiseling" on the government by signing a false statement of inability to defray the necessary expenses of hospitalization or domiciliary care.

—The intellect is not merely something to guess with.—

Does that tell-tale look on your face say change of life?

A great many women suffer "change of life" after forty. They tire easily, have "nerves", sleep poorly, are hard to live with. Their eyes and face get that "change" look. Cardui has helped thousands of women to lose that "change" look. Cardui acts to (1) improve appetite, (2) thus build strength and resistance, (3) ease tension and nervousness—sleep better. Let triple-action Cardui help you feel better, look better and be your normal, cheerful self again. Get Cardui today. (Say: "card-you-eye").

CARDUI MONTHLY CRAMPS CHANGE OF LIFE

Dr. Wayne Howard Gives Report on Clinic Progress

Records on the disposition of 72 hearing disorder cases as recommended in writing by Dr. Wayne C. Howard, prominent eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, whose services were sponsored by the Los Angeles Physically Handicapped Children's bureau, show that out of 44 young children receiving surgery and treatment, 36 now have normal hearing.

More than 2,700 young children received free tests for hearing as a result of the survey.

At the November meeting of the Metropolitan Los Angeles Hearing Center board of trustees, Dr. Robert F. Kolts, health officer, Watts district Surgical operations in short-health center, told the board that he felt the pre-school and kindergarten children hearing test program should not only be continued, but expanded.

This question was posed after Dr. Kolts had reported on the recent community-wide hearing test survey conducted in the Watts district.

"The Conscience and War," a statement recently released by the Church Peace Union, is signed by two eminent theologians, Dr. Georgia Harkness and Dr. Mary Ely Lyman.

REV. B. F. HARDY A BIBLE COLLEGE GRAD.

The Rev. Benjamin Franklin Hardy, native of Cleveland, Ohio, who is founder and pastor of the Rock of Ages Baptist Church at 2212 South Naomi St., Los Angeles, found himself among the five hundred graduates of the Glendale Bible College. On October 26, 1953, Rev. Hardy was awarded a diploma of graduation. And from start to finish, the outstanding minister held first place in his class. His grade was excellent. The Rev. Hardy became highly honored by the heads of this great school. This young minister's very first start was with the St. Paul Baptist Church of Los Angeles, of which Dr. John L. Branham is pastor. Having served faithfully in this great church, and affiliated himself with the different departments of the B.T.U., having made known to the church his call to the gospel ministry, and upon the preaching of his trial sermon, the church and its pastor saw fit to license him. This meeting was held at St. Paul on the sixth day of July, 1949.

It was in St. Paul where Hardy met his wife "Nell" who has stood by his side in all circumstances. Mrs. Hardy is a graduate of Baptist College of Little Rock, Ark. Rev. Hardy wants Dr. Branham and the entire membership of St. Paul to know that he is grateful to them for the spirit of love which was shown him during the four years of his stay at St. Paul. Without hesitance, the minister states that, his basic years in preparation as minister were spent at St. Paul. From the sermons of Dr. Branham, Rev. Hardy as student, took a number of sermon notes which were highly accepted by his school. He thanks God for men like this pastor of St. Paul. And he continues thanks to others who have been quite an assist to him during his ministry. Yead 1950, the Rev. Hardy met with the late Dr. A. C. Capers. And, on the third day of September, 1950, he was ordained to the gospel ministry by this great statesman. Rev. Hardy extends thanks to many, many other friends of his. He feels that he owes the Minister's Union of Los Angeles of which Dr. H. B. Charles is president. To Dr. Horace N. Mays, the dean of Christian Education of the Weston, Baptist State Convention, Rev. Hardy says, thanks. Last but not least, it's the Kingdom Baptist Church of which Dr. A. Wendell Ross is pastor, that shall ever live in the heart and mind of Rev. Hardy. He says that Dr. Ross knows the story of "good news and glad tidings" well, and he tells it well, and he believes it well. And he with outstretched arms, turns many thanks to Dr. Ross for opening up his heart and pulpit to him during his stay with him. To Rev. L. A. Relix and Rev. A. A. Peters "live on for God and the cause," when the battle is over, We shall wear the crown in that New eJrusalem land. Rev. Hardy, the pastor of Rock of Ages, graduated from the John H. Francis Polytechnic High School of Los Angeles. After which he entered the La France Business College of Los Angeles, where he majored in public speaking. On September 14, 1950, he entered the Los Angeles City College, graduated in June, 1952. Rev. Hardy says: To graduate more than three times in a lifetime, plants the seed of assurance, and deep-seated joy in one's soul.

Call for New Clergy Education

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Two of the nation's leading religious educators have called upon today's clergymen to re-educate themselves in the science of man in order that they may be able to meet the emotional needs of their fellow men.

The advice came from Dr. Carroll A. Wise of Chicago and Dr. David D. Eitzen of Los Angeles. The two educators were the principal speakers at the 37th annual religious convocation which ended at Howard University on Thursday, November 5.

Donegan Plays At Church of Divine Guidance

An outstanding program will be featured during the regular 10:30 a.m. services at the new Church of Divine Guidance, West Pico at Norton, Sunday, November 22, it was announced by Ivan Harold Browning, director of program of music.

Guest artists will include Miss Rena Lang, operatic mezzo soprano. Miss Lang is a language major of Howard University and will sing in several languages. She has remarkable range and velvet warmth of tone.

Dorothy Donegan, who has not been heard lately as a concert pianist wil guest the program in that department. Miss Donegan, is one of the nation's topflight pianists in the popular field. Tenor singer Charles Owens will round out the star studded presentation on the church's musical agenda.

Rev. Dr. Clayton D. Russell, pastor of the Church of Divine Guidance will preach the main pre - Thanksgiving sermon, which will also be heard on the radio over station KFVD. The pastor invites the congregation and friends to bring a 'special offering' of cans and food packages which can be distributed among the needy during the Thanksgiving week. Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thanksgiving morning.

Regular music is supplied the church program by Ivan Harold Browning, soloist, Robert Cowans at the Hammond organ and Netta Paulyn Garner, pianist. All are welcome at the Church of Divine Guidance.

"I love to play; I find music is the greatest happiness, and I am a privileged being because I have music in me. I was born for music." —From "Wanda Landowska at Home" on NBC-TV's Distinguished Persons series.

Completion of School Building Projects Near

Since the approval of the $130,000,00 bond issue by voters last year, the Los Angeles City Schools have either completed or made progress on some 300 building projects throughout the sprawling City School System.

According to the latest progress report as published by the Building Branch of the City Schools, work has been completed on 102 individual school projects since bond money became available September 22, 1952.

Nearly two dozen additional building projects have reached 50 percent completion and contracts have been awarded for 16 more schools and buildings. Bids have been advertised for four schools.

GOT WONDERFUL RELIEF FOR FEET

Gerald Meade, 526 W. 143 St. New York, N. Y.:
"I work in a steel mill and perspire heavily due to the heat. My feet got irritated and burn. A friend told me about the relief he got from Resinol and White Ointment. I used it and got wonderful relief, too. It relieves the discomfort quick, leaves feet refreshed. I keep it in the house all the time."

Broadway Federal Savings Buys Larger Headquarters

Broadyway Federal Savings and Loan Association has purchased the large building at the corner of 45th and Broadway, to serve as new business quarters, it was announced by Dr. H. Claude Hudson, president of the Association. He added that Paul Williams has been retained to completely remodel the building.

At the present time the Woolworth Company is the occupant of the building which is a 43 foot wide and 120 foot long structure. As soon as this lease expires, Broadway Federal Savings will be moved into their new offices. Williams will redesign the building so that the latest banking facilities will be featured. This move has been necessitated by the tremendous growth of Broadway Federal Savings.

Dr. Hudson pointed out that during the past eighteen months the total assets of the Association have more than doubled. He believes that this is due to a greater understanding of the Savings and Loan industry by the general public, and, an increasing knowledge of the extra services offered by Broadway Federal Savings.

These include a high return on insured savings, consistent with safety and a sound conservative loan policy. Broadway Federal Savings now pays 3½% a year on all savings.

Total assets of Broadway Federal Savings are now $7,872,159.44, Dr. Hudson said.

The president concluded that the move to the new quarters will take place in mid-1954 when gala open house ceremonies will be held.

Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association is now located at 4329 South Broadway in Los Angeles.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Find Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as, "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. *Trade Mark.

90,000 To Watch Bruins, Trojans

Sports Roundup

By BRAD PYE, JR.
(California Eagle Exclusive)

THIS IS THE WEEK OF THE BIG 'UNS—

BERKELEY.—The California-Stanford battle in Palo Alto and the USC-UCLA match in the L.A. Coliseum—the traditional PCC big 'uns—will virtually write a dynamic nerve racking story book finish to this topsy-turvy grid campaign. . . . Stanford and the Bruins must win to keep their Rose Bowl alive. . . . Cal and USC will 've the spoilers roles. USC is ineligible because they're there this year. . . . Cal's season record isn't that good even if they should beat Bobby Garrett & Company. . . . Addison Hawthorne — the controversial USC back—will write finis to his collegiate grid career against the UCLA eleven. . . . Milton Davis—the Bruins' star defensive back will do likewise. . . . Here goes, we pick wins for both Stanford and UCLA. . . . Which one will go to the Bowl if they should wind up in a tie. . . . Your guess is as good as ours. . . .

BRAD PYE, JR.

PYE'S PICKS—

Errol oJnes, a lightweight boxer on the '23 Cal squad and Walter Gordon — Chairman of the California Adult Authority, will be among old Blues taking part in the reunion of boxers and wrestlers of that University in the Palace Hotel in SF tomorrow night. . . . Jones will act as co-chairman of the affair. . . . Gordon was also a grid star in the '20's for the Bears. . . . Eddie Macon the ex-COP star had perhaps his greatest day against Washington since he has been with the Chicago Bears — the fleet-footed Macon scored on a 76-yarder which was called back and then romped 70 yards with a kick-off to set up another score. . . .

Is Joe Louis and Greta Starks married or not? . . .

Emery Barnes the Captain of the Oregon U grid team didn't play one seconds against Cal here Sat. . . . He undoubtedly is the only non-playing Capt in the country. . . . He started when the Webfoots came down to play Stanford at the beginning of the season. . . . In passing we'd like to go on record in saying that under the fine tutorship of Coach Len Casanova, Oregon is definitely back in the conference. . . . The sophomore and junior laden Oregon squad is going to be tough to handle next fall. . . . We're quite sure USC and Cal will agree. . . . Jasper McGee, one of the stars of the North-South Prep game via Kerkeley HS is slated to be running in the No. 1 fullback slot for the Oregon eleven next fall. . . .

It says here Randy Turpin, the foreign boxer, married Gwyneth Price, a farmer's daughter, last week. . . . Nino Valdes scored his first KO since turning pro five years ago over the English heavyweight champ and according to reports stands a good chance to get an opportunity to throw his Sunday punches at Champ Rocky Marciano. . . . Joe Louis tabs Kid Gavlin as the best fighter in the business pound for pound. . . . What about a bout between Lightweight Champ Jimmy Carter and the defeated Johnny Bratton. . . . No! . . . Just a thought .

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Wantha Davis, demonstrated her superiority over the next two best girl jockeys on the North American continent before a crowd of more than 6000 lovers of the Sport of Kings to retain the annual national feminine championship. Mrs. Davis had the mount of the 6-year-old Compotten, Pat North on Callado and Wanda Souza rode Ginger Quill. It was Pat North that took the lead at the break with Callado to open up a two length lead, but the cool Wanda Davis took her mount back and riding like a Johnny Longden until the head of the stretch where she whacked Compotten two or three times and the son of no competition—Flo Bratten, past the pace setting Callado to win by a half length; altho Miss North the eastern champion was whipping desperately her mount was no match for the winner. Ginger Quill with Miss Souza made a bold move at the head of the stretch but tired near the finish, Miss Souza had won the last three Powder Puff Derbys and the public backed her mount heavy but the best she could do was to finish third and the three horse race. The winner paid $3.00 as the public choice. The time over a muddy track was 1:13 4-5.

The backers of Mrs. C. R. Armstrong's Lankersham got a big thrill when the son of Heelfly-Valdina Mary, took the lead at the break and just coasted to a fifteen length victory and paid off with a lush mutuel of $11.00. Finding the off track to his liking Lankersham won like Tom Fool. The books took a bad beating when Ohsodry, a former Californai stake horse scored an easy win to pay $6.20. A big coupe was scored by the wise ones. Another big daily-double paid off for the lucky holder of Hasty Time, winner of the fourth race and Zeni victor of the fifth, the payoff was $272.80.

Jefferson, Manual Arts Tangle For Southern Loop Grid Crown

Five big grid battles looms in the prep ranks Friday afternoon and they will decide the league championship in the five various loops. In the Southern League powerful Jefferson Democrats once beaten test Manual Arts unbeaten and the winner of this could easily emerge city champs. In the Eastern circuit Polytechnic leading their loop with a 3 and 1 record will attempt to short-circuit Belmont wit ha record of 1 and 3. In the Western league L.A. High and Hamilton tosses socks for their blue ribbon battle and in the Valley unbeaten San Fernando goes against Hollywood. In the Marine lead-leaguing Banning faces strong Gardena.

Peacock vs. Torres At So. Gate Monday

Billy Peacock, ruler of the Northern American lightweight title will battle Oscar Torres in the 10-round feature event Monday night at South Gate Area.

Peacock, well known boxer, returns to the California rings after a brief rest. He ran a string of 13 victories without facing a defeat. Torres and Peacock have met in three perilous bouts and all have been action pack. Peacock holds the best two out of three wins.

Turner vs. Servin

Petey Servin and Earl Turner, veteran middleweights boxers will square off Saturday night at the Hollywood Legion. Servin fought Turner before and the slugfest was so even that that only in the final round did Servin gain the edge with a knockdown. The winner of this bout seeks a bout with Charlie Green the state's title holder.

Ben Bowie Post Team Get Gold Baseballs for Winning Ball Title

'COACH' ELIHU McGEE

Members of the Bowie Post Junior American Legion baseball team and winners of the 23rd District title was awarded gold baseball at the regular meeting of the Southern California district.

Manager Benny Ayers was gifted the manager trophy and Elhiu McGhee who coach the team was also awarded a trophy while Ramon Ramize was handed a naward for the most improved player of the team.

The Ben Bowie Post team swept through the 23rd District Junior American Legion during their regular season racking up 10 out of 12 victories. This mark the first time that a Ben Bowie Post team grabbed off such an important title.

Coach Elhiu McGee stated that next season he'll be back with a much stronger team and that he hopes to bring the east-side Post their first State title and a right to represent the west in the annual Junior American Legion world baseball series held yearly in New Jersey. The awards were presented by the Junior Baseball Commissioner Commander Monday night November 17.

18th HOLE

By "SHOELESS JOE" JACO

The Cosmopolitan Golf club held their final monthly sweepstakes tourney of the year, on Armistice Day, at Griffith Park's Harding course. This said Harding layout is, supposedly several strokes easier than its big brother the Wilson, but when the keepers utilize the elasticity that the archi tects had in mind, in designing the Harding, it is as tough, or an even tougher patch than Wilson, what with its extremely narrow fairways, and its heavily wooded fairway borders, and itc fickle and chameleonic greens it presents a fair test of golf to any and all who attempt to conquer it.

The day was ideal for the greatest of outdoor pastimes, but Mr. Harding had all of its tricks working that day, for out of 52 top flight amateur golfers, none even got a halve with par; in fact the best round of the day was Hobert Rockymore's three over par 74. Rockymore, however, was shooting to a 10 handicap which put him in the B flight, and since there is only winner and runnerup trophys in each flight, no tourney low gross nor net, Rockymore could only get the B flight winner's hardware.

The A flight was won by Milan Qualls, who is rapidly becoming recognized as one of Cosmo's most dependable shotmakers, Qualls' 40-35—75 was enough to slip by Lavelle Mayfield's 29-37—76. Qualls had to birdie the 18th hole to win and that he did.

Al Christman, a regular contender, struck pay dirt for the first time this season by finishing with a 78 to gain runner-up honors in B flight.

Honors in C flight were won by two new Cosmos. Jesse Lee Brown, shooting to a 15 handicap (please take notice, Thop) had an 83 to edge out his Major Domo Jack Sheppherd, who got around in 91 blows with a 22 handicap.

U.C.L.A. Eleven Needs Victory to Rate Great Rose Bowl Date

The big one is on tap for Coach Red Sanders and his once-beaten UCLA's Bruins when they face their arch rival, the Trojans. A victory over the Bruins will certainly push them out of the Rose Bowl contention.

The Trojans would like nothing better than to overhaul their cross-town buddies. SC's Jess Hill is building some secret weapons for the game and indicated that the Trojans will be at full strength this Saturday at the Coliseum. Those Trojans working out in sweat suits are: George Timberlake, No. ? lineman and Mario Da Re, top tackle; Hal (The Tank) Han, George Bozanic, quarterback; Ends Leon Clarke and Tom Nickoloff.

Aramis Dandoy sparked both the running and passing department in drill during SC's session and Jim Sears, Trojan All-American last season, ran the SC redshirts from the Sanders' style single-wing against the Troy defenses. Sears played the part of Paul Cameron. Hill was highly impressed with his air-tight defense and repeated an earlier statement, "We don't fear UCLA, but I have nothing but respect for the Bruins' fine team."

Pitching Paul Cameron, who will carry the bulk of the Bruins big load in the game Saturday is one of the leading candidates for All-America honors according to the United Press ballot last week.

Coach Red Sanders said his Bruins are going at it hot and heavy and should be up to playing par around game time.

The betting gentry has installed the Bruins an early 6 point favorite. Barring last minutes scrimmage injuries, both teams should be in near perfect physical condition for the game that could decide the PCC's Rose Bowl representative on Jan. 1.

Sepia players among the Bruins that will see action are: Hardiman Cureton, Milt Davis, Sam Brown, Rommie Loudd, and for S.C. Addison Hawthorn.

PARTICIPANTS above are models lending charm and beauty to the Pyramid Pledge Club's recent fashion show held at the Pacific Town Club namely: Billy Delpit, in white formal, Dorothy Wynn, Sandra Barker, taffeta dress, Lonnie Eberhardt, Zeresh Eberhardt program chairman, Harriet Higgs, Little Mistress Tawn Christan, Myra Dickinson, Pat Prescott and Theresa Matthews. (see story).

Sorors Show Fashion Best At 'Pacific'

Glimpsed at Pyramid Pledge Club of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority are these fashionable models and Pacific Town club member, Lonnie Eberhardt. The occasion was a fashion show and tea held at modernistic Pacific Town club and which was attended by hundreds of guests who partook of refreshments around the pool. They were entertained by leading fashions featuring the Andre male models and entertainment by the most talented in the city. Jay Loft-Lynn, Shirley Higgenbatham, Betty Martina dancers are only a few of the names. From left to right they are as follows: Billy Delpit, Pyramid member who modeled a gorgeous white formal. Dorothy Wynn, Pyramid, wore a black and white bloomer-girl bathing suit; Sandra Barker, Pyramid, Acquamarine sequinned taffeta dress; Lonnie Eberhardt, Zeresh Eberhardt program chairman. Harriet Higgs, who modeled authentic Mandarin Chinese white silk pajamas for the purpose of lounging scent. Little Mistress Tawn Christian a candy-stripped party dress, Myra Dickinson, Delta, original designs of her own a tiered changeable taffeta cocktail dress and a white brocade short formal. Pat Prescott, professional model a black, white and red lace Balenciaga formal; Theresa Matthews, Ivy Leaf Pledge of AKA sorority, her own design of black and white ankle length formal.

"IF DON'T DIG THE BEEF"—Of course, Council-woman Rosalin Weiner and her escort, Atty. Gene Wyma, didn't say it exactly that way: but that's what they and Greece's king and queen seemed to mean by their congratulatory messages directly and indirectly to glamorous Eartha Kitt (at the microphone). Miss Weiner and Wyma are shown seated at a Mocambo table Wednesday night when they went to see Eartha's act and find out how come all the charges of impropriety before royalty.

Omega Panelists Discuss Achievement Week Topics

The local chapters of Omega Psi Phi fraternity closed their National Achievement Week observance, an annual event, with a rousing and interesting public discussion on the topic "Opportunities and Responsibilities of Integrated Citizenship in Our Democracy."

Some of the conclusions reached by the panel composed of members of the fraternity were:

American Dream

"The time has come for us to think not in terms of a Negro problem, but of the problems of American democracy. What can we do to make the American dream come true for all people in America? "It would seem that one of the basic American problems is that of the spiritual energy and insight needed to help solve some of the more tangible problems in the socio-economic religious and other worlds." commented Rev. L. L. White, pastor of Holman Methodist church.

Other Statements

"Continuing along the same line of thought, Dr. J. C. Williamson Sr., of Los Angeles State College, declared that much time, attention and thought had been directed toward the basic problems of theoretical and applied physical sciences; there is now the urgent problem of attacking social problems with the same zeal and enthusiasm."

The schools and the pulpit can help create the climate wherein the general public will come to realize that these problems may be attacked in a scientific manner, provided that those in charge have a basic philosophy of life grounded in a sense of values on the recognition of the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God."

Allen C. Woodard, real estate broker, speaking for architect Paul R. Williams, who was suddenly called to Washington, summed up his remarks with the admonition that developing and widening opportunities for full citizenship also implied certain personal and group responsibilities in preparing for the benefits of this full citizenship.

Louis A. Young, aviation engineer, expressed the opinion that in the sciences and in the field of mechanics facts might be demonstrated, measured, predicted and so forth, but not so in the field of human relations. There were no formulae or equations to tell how people might act under certain conditions, but as for the problems of minorities they were all of one general pattern an dmight be solved through the same general principles whether they concerned race, economic status, or socio-economic relationships, or any of the other means by which all of us sometimes find us part of a minority group.

Participants

Attorney Thomas G. Neuson of the NAACP staff and Twelfth District representative of the fraternity, acted as moderator. Musical selections were rendered by Claude Bass, pianist, and student at The University of Southern California; Oscar Plant, late of the cast of "Bloomer Girl," "Finian's Rainbow," "Porgy and Bess"; and Dr. Wayman G. McCoo. The latter two vocalists were accompanied by Mrs. Harriet G. Williamson, music teacher and wife of panelist Williamson.

Dr. C. W. Ozier and Robert L. Demps were co-chairmen for the graduate chapter, Lambda Omicron, whose basileus, Attorney Carl A. Earles, also spoke on the program; Bass acted as chairman of the committee for the undergraduate chapter, Lambda; Joseph Harris, basileus of the chapter, also spoke.

In response to public interest and demand expressed at the meeting, Demps announced that other public meetings would continue in the near future discussing such questions posed from the floor:

1. What are our opportunities and responsibilities of integrated citizenship in the political field?

2. What is the community's responsibility in a recreation and playground program?

2. What may be done for the family, or how the family help in realizing the American dream?

4. What are the opportunities and responbibilities of those entering marriage or becoming parents?

The occasion marked the 42nd anniversary of the fraternity founded at Howard University, November 17, 1911. The Negro History Week celebration is also an outgrowth of this program originally dedicated to the founder, the late Dr. Carter G. Woodson, a member of Omega Psi Phi.

Cavalrettes Share Honors At Fall Tea

The Cavalrette Social Club, Inc., wishes to thank each of its friends and well wishers who helped make the group's participation in the California State Federation Autumn Tea a success. The Cavalrettes won second highest honors for a village harvest scene which included the horn-of-plenty and a beautifully lighted village church.

Another Fall event which has claimed much time and careful planning is the approaching formal. To our many questioning friends we can say the invitations will be in the mail very soon.

Concert Marks Anniversary

Celebrating 20 years of service at First A.M.E. Church, the Crusaders Club will present Jules Haywood, international concert pianist, at the church on Tuesday, December 8, at 8:15 p.m. Haywood, a product of the University of Southern California School of Music and who scored thrilling successes on the European continent following extended studies in Paris and Zurich, recently won additional honors in San Francisco where he is now a temporary resident.

The Crusaders Club was organized in 1933 under the ministry of Rev. J. B. St. Felix Isaacs. During the past 20 years this all men's club has sponsored many programs enthusiastically received by the community. The club has had a special interest in advancing the careers of outstanding young artists. Among those presented in the last few years include Buell Thomas and Marvin Hayes.

Carl Lawson, charter member of the club, was re-elected for his second year as president in September. Other officers are Howard Johnson, vice-president; Philip Robinson, secretary; Arnett Duncan, corresponding secretary; George Hooker, treasurer; T. L. Jackson, assistant treasurer; Bennie Patridge, reporter; Herman Dunlap, critic; James Kennedy, sergeant at arms; Clarence Jones, chaplain. Members include George Adkins, O'Reese Corporal, James Derry, N. C. Duncan, E. E. Franklin, R. O. Herndon, E. W. Hensley, Joseph C. Ellis, W. T. Person, Jesse H. Sterling, J. W. Wilkjns, Hugh E. Welch, and Leo Williams.

Foshay Y-Teens Plan Tea Series

Mother-daughter teas are being planned for the near future by the four newly-organized Y-Teen clubs at Foshay Junior High School.

The Teen-F's, A8 club sponsored by Mrs. Cyrus Cooper, 2046 W. 31st Street, plans to hold their mother-daughter tea on Saturday, November 14, 2:00 to 4:00.

The date of Sunday, November 15, has been chosen by two clubs for their mother-daughter teas. The Cherubs, A7 Y-Teen club, will hold their tea at the home of Georgene Sanchez, 3757 S. St. Andrews, from 3:15 to 5:00. Mrs. Carrie Jones, 2136 W. 28th Street, is the Cherubs' sponsor. The B8 club, the Victorians, will entertain their mothers at the home of Brenda Joyce Austin, 2190 W. 29th Place. Co-sponsors for the Victorians are Mrs. H. L. Austin, mother of Brenda Joyce; Mrs. Celestine Thomas, 4350 S. Hooper Ave., and Mrs. Paul Poston, 3739 S. Van Ness.

The B7 Y-Teen club, the Allstars, is planning a mother-daughter tea to be given in the social hall at Foshay Junior High School on Friday evening, November 20. The Allstars have 27 members and are sponsored by Mrs. Frances Pepo, 3671 Ruthelen, and Mrs. Robert Hiromatsu, 2927 5th Avenue.

Mrs. Edna Dickson, Y-Teen program director for the Y.W.C.A., and Mrs. Esther Salmon, girls' vice-principal at Foshay Junior High School, oversee Y-Teen club activities with the help of the mother sponsors.

A Recognition Service for the four new clubs will be held Friday evening, December 4, in the auditorium at Foshay Junior High School with parents, relatives, and friends of the girls as guests.

Activians Add New Members

At a recent "GET ACQUAINTED" meeting tossed by the Activians for the sole purpose of introducing two new members to the membership, a group of spirited games and program were featured.

New members are Mesdames Ruth Lucky and Eleanor Nelson.

Activians present were Mesdames Evelyn Beatty, president; Faye Grayson, Frankie McDowell, Rose Talbert, Gertrude Eaglin and Billie Ephram.

Assisting the advisor, Mrs. Marlowe Hughes, pour punch and serve refreshments were Mrs. Beatty, whose home was used for the evening affair, and Billie Ephram, game chairman.

Autumn Tea Slated At Atkinson's Home

Mrs. Corine Gamble and popular Antoinette Atkinson's home will be the setting for an Autumn Tea, 1214 S. St. Andrews place, Sunday afternoon, November 22, 3 to 6. Dorothy Galloway is chairman of the affair which promises to be one of the top socials of the week. The funds raised will go to the Lincoln Memorial Congregational church..

Club Thanks

William and Ethel Bell, 817 East 41st Street, are still wondering who it was that sprung the surprise on them in noting their 24th wedding anniversary. Several friends gathered in the Town Tavern (formerly Garnett's) 37th and Western Sunday sang Happy Anniversary ditties to them. The Edward Atkinsons, new owners of the tavern appeared to be host with Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Garrott, Mrs. Paul R. Williams, Atty. and Mrs. Ivan J. Johnson III, and Mrs. Mae Myers and Mr. Harvey in attendance. Dr. and Mrs. Walter Davis sent favors.

Louisiana Club In Harvest Fete

The first annual fall tea of the Louisiana Social and Charity Club proved to be quite the affair of the season. Wesley center was beautifully decorated. The theme was "Harvest" fruits and vegetables of various kinds, presenting a very colorful and appropriate setting for the occasion.

Dr. E. I. Robinson, President of N.A.A.C.P. who was presented with a check of $25.00, the first of others to follow as the N.A.A.C.P. is one of the club's favorite charities and is very much included in its long-range plans for the future.

The ladies of the club were perfect hostesses and many friends attended. Pictured are some of the officers and workers who contributed much to the success of the tea.

The Majestic Corsairs met at the home of H. L. Wade, 361½ E. 36th street, on Saturday, November 7 at 8 p.m.

The constitution was amended and plans were made for entertainments during the coming holiday season.

At a previous meeting held at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones, 1215 W. 138th street, the newly elected officers were installed. They are: G. W. Jones, president; W. M. Patterson, vice-president; H. L. Wade, secretary; G. T. Henderson, treasurer; and Robert H. Fisher, business manager. The wives of the members were present as guests.

The retirig president, Roland Hamilton, gave a review of the year's activities. The members are inspired to greater accomplishments for the 1953-54 season.

After the installation ceremony a buffet supper and cocktails were served.

West View Guild President Feted On Her Birthday

An outstanding event was given last week by the West View Guild in honor of the outgoing president, Mrs. Pearl Taylor, who has served for two years.

The celebration also comprised a surprise birthday celebration for the honoree.

The home of Mrs. Verna Dechard was used for the colorful fete. More than 100 fashionably-gowned women with their husbands and escorts enjoyed the occasion.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Deckard, Mrs. L. Dingee and Mrs. Blanche Hall. Assisting them were Mrs. Gayntlle Myles and Miss Evangeline Woodfolk.

A beautifully decorated buffet table carried out the birthday theme. The centerpiece was a two-tiered, elaborately decorated cake.

Jellied turkey salad, homemade assorted cakes and an appetizing punch were served by Mmes. Alice Mason, Yolande Billingsley and Dorothy Carey.

Mrs. Marie Meridith was chairman of the buffet arraingement. She was assisted by Evangeline Woodfolk, Blanche Hall, Margaret D. Jones, Mrs. Senegal, Lois Carr and Ethel Atkinson.

Other hotesses included Mrs. Clara Bailey, Lillian Sweeney and Amy Cloud.

Mrs. Taylor received a huge number of birthday gifts from the members of the Guild.

HAL MILLER and KERRY JACKSON

These "splashin' fashion's" the Delta Pyramids displayed at their "time out for tea" fashion show Sunday at the Pacific Town club still has the gals gasping.

The attire displayed, which ranged from children's clothes to evening wear, was presented between a variety of musical attractions, a dramatic reading (Shirley Biggenbottom) and dances which included the darling of dance, Wanda Stasher and the Bette Martine dancers.

As far as we are concerned the "greatest" (excluding Lynette Cobbs, who modeled a bathing suit) was ten year old Peggy Bagdond's performance at the piano. Much talent. A few of the models we kept our eyes on (as did everyone else) were: Little Town Christian, daughter of Madam Christian, who was mistress of ceremony, Sandra Hudson, Lynette Rodgers, assistant mistress of ceremony, Sandra Bowers, Nancy Banks, Pat Fennell. The Nancy Lee Dancers, and Alma Anderson.

It seems that the KAPPAS really put the show, cause they invited all of the fovelies down to the castle to woo visitors. Many attended, so it must have been a success. Among those present were Mmes. Ruth Dean, Ada Harris, Mary Matthews, Ruth Hamilton, Ethel Atkinson, Lois Carr, Ruby Matlock, Texana Lewis, Carrie Coyle, Sara Anderson, Elvira Brown, Vera Handy, Lucille Bell, Hattie J. HILLCREST CLUB IN GRAND OPENING FRIDAY

PABST DEDICATION, was anything but outstanding. Whoever handled the public relations should take lessons from the gang that handled the Anheuser-Busch $40,000,000 ground breaking out San Fernando Valley way several months ago. Schuyler Nelson and Tom Palmer certainly had a chance to get some good licks in for themselves but instead goofed by not showing to advantage. GORDON HAHN, Councilman, that Negroes living in the 8th District elected over Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, had this to say about the entertainment featuring the sensational Eartha Kitt. "If they'd have sung those songs anywhere else, there'd have been a raid." Quoting a State Department official traveling with the Queen and King party they "liked the show very much." The voters in the 8th district are very indignant about the matter!

LLOYD LA BEACH, popular McKesson and Robbins salesman and former Olympic track star flew to Panama last week after receiving word his father had passed!

ELIZABETH McGEE, just added five new pieces of period furniture to her living room totaling over $5,000. Friends are wild about the place!

SCATMAN CRUTHERS, top rung comic is holding forth nightly at the Club Oasis with a variety revue that will slay you!

LORENZO FLENNOY the tall terrific gent of the ivories is tickling a happy beat at the 400 Club.

PERRY JAMES FULLER, noted New York artist who once resided at the Hotel Alpine, 480 Pine Street, in San Francisco, may have one of his old notes bounch smack in his face. A west coast latin may press a swindle charge against the artist. She is holding his note for a hundred dollars he signed for cash advance for a business venture. After he got the cash he disappeared!

AMOS BLACK, dressed up his fifth street headquarters and let it be known to the political powers that be, he's the vote getter in that neck of the woods! Wouldn't surprise us one bit if Black talked himself into being the downtown number one boy in that district.

MISSING, from the popular bars, parties and etc., is the dapper, smooth talking hotelman Walter Miller. Friends are speaking out loud that he has found a robin-nest and she's pretty as a picture!

Wilshire Ebell Bills the Flute Show

Four enchanting programs—each one completely different—will be presented by the world-famous Salzburg Marionette Theatre in the Wilshire Ebell Theatre in performances scheduled for Thanksgiving night (Thurdsay, November 26), Friday and Saturday evenings, November 27 and 28, and Sunday afternoon, November 29. The celebrated troupe makes its Los Angeles bow under the auspices of the Huttenback Artist Bureau.

A gala holiday crowd will be on hand for the opening night performance of Mozart's fairy-ground for "Magic Flute" was acted by the world's most acclaimed puppets and sung by the world's greatest Mozart interpreters. The musical background for "Magic Flute" was recorded at the 1951 Salzburg Festival and features famed singers of the Vienna Opera, the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra and the Vienna State Opera Chorus under the direction of Rudolph Moralt.

Joan Crawford 'Swingsational' In 'Torch Song'

The premiere for "Torch Song" was held Wednesday, Nov. 18th, at Warner's Beverly. Expertly previewed by lovely Leatrice Porter Bryant, the vehicle provides a glamorous technicolor showcase for the talented and perennially young Joan Crawford.

The cast is made up of such outstanding actors as Michael Wilding, Gig Young and Marjorie Rambeau. Good acting wedded to fine direction and the soft natural look of technicolor, prdduce a picture most everyone will enjoy. Further, the gowns Miss Crawford wears will prove a joy to all female viewers.

The story concerns Jenny Stewart, singer, who also dances (played by Miss Crawford), who plows her way to the top by dint of hard work and hitting first to avoid being hit. She is a terror to all who work with her, until Tye Graham (Michael Wilding) a blind pianist, enters her life by applying for a job as her accompanist. The course of true love is never smooth. Tye Graham chases Jenny, who is hard of heart, but in the end she catches him and everyone is happy.

Currently screening exclusively at Stahley Warner Beverly Theatre, Wilshire at Cannon Drive.

Horton Dancers Plan Reopening On Sat., Nov. 21

The Lester Horton Dancers reopen the Dance Theater this Saturday, Nov. 21, with a suite of colorful new Bal Caribe Dances added to the "Choreo '53" repertoire.

Southern Versus Florida In National Grid Battle

By S. W. AUSTIN

Southern university Jaguar Cats, the pride of the Southwest, will be on display at Tallahassee, Florida, when they clash with the Florida Rattlers in a omst crucial contest between two leading and unbeaten elevens.

Boasting a perfect eight-game record, the redoutable Cats will meet the Rattlers in a grudge battle that probably will determine the National Negro Football Championship. Southern has exhibited a powerful offense and a strong defense, the latter yielding but 7.78 yards per game.

Numerous times during this torrid season scouts of both schools have viewed each other, and after each showing both of these aggressive squads have comeback stronger the following week.

The lumbering Cats had their many woes despite a successful season. A large number of injuries have turned up causing the Jaguar's staff to reshuffle the gridders so as to get the maximum efficiency. During the third week of practice Co-captain Turner Thomas, leading All-American candidate, sustained a broken leg which erased him from the roster for the remainder of the season.

Criticism Based On Upgrading of Negro Clerks

Seizing on President Eisenhower's assertion that every American "has a right to meet his accusers face to face" Mike Fanning, former postmaster, this week asked the chief executive for a review of the charges of "favoritism, incompetence, inefficiency, waste and falsification of records" on which he was discharged last week.

Charges of favoritism revolved around claims that Fanning had upgraded Negroes in about 12 instances, the Eagle learned this week. The other half-dozen similar charges involved members of other minority groups.

President Eisenhower's statement was made in the course of an address to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which was broadcast on television.

Reversed Policy

When he assumed office, Fanning reversed a long standing policy of the local post office to upgrade Negroes and put them in all branches of the service. His actions won nation-wide approval and earned praise for the local office.

Brushing aside the first four charges as politically inspired, Fanning seized angrily on the falsification charge. He branded it a lie and demanded a retraction from the Postmaster General.

He wrote to the President and released a copy of the letter publicly. It read, in part:

"This morning," it began,

South Lauded By Stevenson For Progress

ATLANTA—Praising Negroes for their loyalty and skirting gingerly around the issue of civil rights, Adlai Stevenson, 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, lauded the South for what he called the "enormously improved" position of the Negro in a speech here Tuesday.

"I believe," he said, "and I think in common with the great majority of thoughtful white people of the South, that this improvement will continue, particularly in enlarged economic opportunities for Negro employment and advancement in the South's expanding industries."

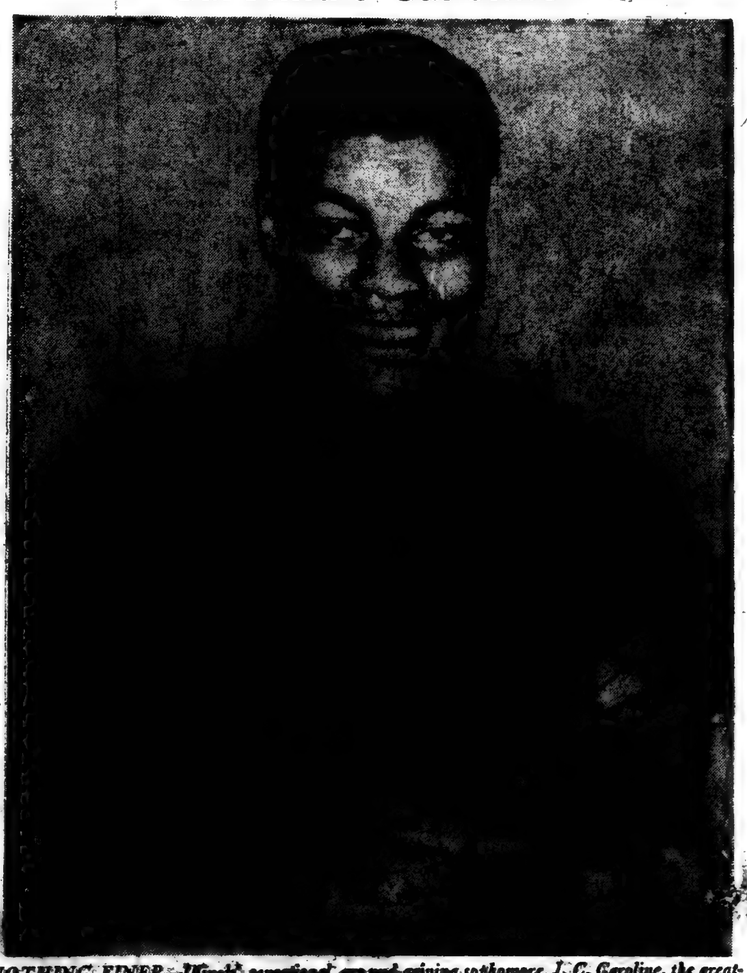
The speech was made to the Georgia legislature during the course of a visit to this city. Stevenson met with Negro Democratic leaders at the Butler Street YMCA Monday. During the course of his speech he took occasion to praise "the achievements of Georgia under the Administration of Governor Talmadge."

Smear Campaign

At another point in his speech Stevenson rapped the administration's current "smear campaign" against Democrats and compared it with the "identical tactic of smearing the Democratic Party as the party of disloyalty" after the Civil War.

The former Illinois governor praised Negroes for their overwhelming loyalty in the face of what he called "familiar reasons" which might have made them 'fair prey for Communism."

The text of Stevenson's remarks concerning Negroes follows:



"What of minorities? Negroes were long our most depressed minority. Happily, their position has enormously improved. I unhesitatingly applaud the progress in the South which, by contrast with the past, is even more conspicuous than in the North.

Army Brass Charged With Aiding Bias

WASHINGTON — Bureaucrats in the Defense Department and the United States Office of Education are thwarting President Eisenhower's directive to eliminate segregation in schools on military posts, Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington bureau of the NAACP charged in a letter to John A. Hannah, Assistant Secretary of Defense.

In his letter, dated November 13, Mr. Mitchell cites reports of plans to build new segregated schools for the children of personnel stationed at military posts near two Texas cities, Perrin and Killeen, the home town of Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mr. Mitchell assured the Assistant Secretary of his confidence in the President and Dr. Hannah whose record indicates that he would not make the government a party to racial discrimination. However, the NAACP official charged, the same cannot be said of some other officials in the Health, Education and Welfare Department who apparently hope that the program of integration will be delayed so long that it will get lost in a political shuffle.

Police Officer On Motorcycle Squad

Jesse Brewer recently was assigned as a motorcycle officer to the Traffic Enforcement Division of the Los Angeles Police Department.

After entering the police department in September 1952, he attended an extensive training period for three months and finished with the second highest rating in a class of 33 who survived the rigorous training. Elected president of the class, he was the first Negro to win that destinction.

Brewer, a transplanted Chicagoan, was a member of the Chicago Park District Police from 1947 until his appointment to the Los Angeles Police Department in 1952.

Officer Brewer served in World War II as a Captain in the 82nd Division and served in two campaigns in Italy.

He attended Chicago Tech College and Tuskegee Institute, where he met his wife, Odessa, who was working as a nurse. Odessa is in temporary retirement while she raises their three boys, Jesse Jr. 8, Jonathan 5, and Kenneth 22 months.

After serving as a traffic officer for nine months, Brewer passed the rigid examination for selection to the motor squad. These candidates are tested psychologically for ability to get along with people, emotional stability, proneness to accidents and many other attributes to insure the selection of courteous and efficient men for one of the most difficult

Housing Topic At Far West League Meet

RIVERSIDE—Minority groups in the far west face a critical housing problem, W. Miller Barbour, western field director of the Urban League told a meeting of housing experts held here last week.

One of the prime problems is that of relocating Negroes who live in temporary federal housing projects all of which will be abandoned by June 1, the meeting was told. Participants in the meeting included Paul Akin, federal mortgage official; James Woods of Woods Construction company and W. R. Bolwell, regional manager of the Prudential Insurance company. Clarence R. Johnson, area [illegible] of the Public Housing Authority, and Floyd C. [illegible] of the FHA acted as consultants.

"This is the first of a series of meetings on the housing problem of [illegible] groups which has become the nation's number one problem," Barbour stated. He explained that local activities will be geared in with the national program of the Urban League.

Mixed Dating Plea Irks Quaker School

Earlham Fires Student Editor Of Newspaper

RICHMOND, Ind.—Earlham College, peaceful Quaker school which has quietly but persistently taught racial tolerance since the days of the Civil War, this week was once more a battle ground between the opponents and proponents of interracial dating and marriage.

The institution flashed into national prominence in the Spring of 1952 when two seniors, one white, the other Negro, announced their plans for a post-graduation marriage. At that time, President Thomas E. Jones, last white president at Fisk University, declared that "the college has regulations against such impetuous things."

Won't Be Downed

But the issue apparently won't be downed. Last week the college's weekly newspaper, "The Earlham Post," carried a front page article protesting rules designed to limit interracial dating, which were passed following the "impetuous" marriage incident.

The school's advisory board immediately sought out the paper's editor, Stephen Wersan, a senior, from New York City, and fired him from his post. The council skirted around the interracial issue, however, and motivated their action on the grounds that he had printed an "editorialized" article by a student not on the Post's staff that opposed the administration's policies with regard to mixed dating on the campus.

Appeal Lost

The advisory board emphasized that Wersan was not dis-

Air Force Accused Of Supporting Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Air Force on Monday denied that it is dropping a Negro lieutenant because he refused to abide by jim-crow practices on a Southern bus.

The authorities claimed Lieut. Thomas Williams, a pilot in training at Craig Air Force Base, Selina, Ala., was just one of 6500 airmen who are being released because of budgetary limitations, and that he was not being dismissed because of the racial issue in which he was involved.

Reprimand Claimed

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, however, accused the Air Force of reprimanding Negro officers who ignore Southern jim-crow.

The NAACP charged that Air Force officials had failed to comply with Supreme Court decisions banning segregation in interstate travel.

Clarence Mitchell, Washington director of the association, cited the case of Lieut. Williams, and asserted that he was dropped because he refused to sit in the rear of a bus going from Florida to Alabama.

Blames Boss

Mitchell named James P. Geode, a deputy assistant Air Force secretary; Maj. Gen. James F. Powell, commanding

Doctor Says Wife Kept His Clothes

The bitter divorce battle between ex-Meharry Dean, Dr. Michael James Bent and his attractive wife, Dr. Vois Brooms Bent, reached another climax with the filing this week by Dr. Bent of a petition against his attractive wife, charging her with refusing to deliver his personal property, and with having driven him and his Attorney Curtis C. Taylor off the premises, when they visited the couples' Berkeley home, on Sept. 23.

The Doctor and his attorney went to request Mrs. Bent to allow him to remove a brief case, containing his naturalization papers, his machette, his service revolver, his personal clothing and the records of his tenure as Secretary of the Meharry Medical College Alumni Association. The petition

Mad Slayer Blasted Three In Shotgun Orgy

The courts this week exacted life imprisonment for the crazed veteran who two months ago killed three prominent members of the Second Baptist church in a senseless and gruesome shotgun orgy.

R. J. Ross, 33-year-old upholsterer, was sentenced to two life terms and one term of five years to life for the Sept. 17 murder of his estranged wife, her father and his own sister.

Case Before Judge

The case was submitted for decision to Judge Thomas L. Ambrose who passed sentence on the former World War II veteran who had been a psychiatric patient of the Veterans administration.

Victims of Ross' mad shooting spree were Mrs. Ollie [illegible] Ross, his wife, who was secretary of the Sunday school of Second Baptist church and a talented school teacher; her father, Elbert Miles, a Sunday school teacher also at Second Baptist; and Ross' sister, Mrs. Nellie Hill.

After the triple killings, Ross, who lives at 421 N. Bonnie Brae avenue, went to the jailer's office at the University Police Station, carrying a Winchester rifle and a partly filled box of .32 calibet Winchester shells.

Gave Self up

"I want to be locked up," he said, "I have just shot three people."

As explanation of the shooting, he said he'd had "nothing but trouble" with his wife and her family, and his sister and mother. He accused them of trying to get his insurance.

Officers found the body of Elbert Miles in the front yard of his home at 317 W. 48th street, that of Ollie Ross in a nearby vacant lot, and the body of Mrs. Hill at her home, 326 E. 59th street.

Blues Singer Vi Dandridge Gets Divorce

Sparkling, vivacious blues singer, Vivian Dandridge, sister of Broadway's current headliner, Dorothy Dandridge, last Thursday obtained a divorce decree from her husband, Horace Stead.

Vivian told Superior Judge Samuel R. Blake that Stead was not only a gambler, but was an unsuccessful gambler at that. She claimed that her husband, a house painter, lost most of the earnings of both of them in games of chance, and in addition pawned some of their belongings to pay his gambling debts.

Miss Dandridge, who was represented by Atty. H. L. Richardson, said she and Stead were married in Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 17, 1951, and separated last Feb. 15.

Vivian and Dorothy got their start in show business during the tough 'thirties. Both were students at Jefferson High school when they formed the Dandridge Sisters Trio, along with Etta Jones. They flashed rapidly into national prominence with Jimmy Lunceford's orchestra, and have remained in the limelight.

Dorothy just completed the hit movie, "See How They Run," following which she appeared at the Mocambo, on Sunset Strip, before jumping off for Broadway.

Mrs. Mason Picked To Head N.C.N.W.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Mrs. Vivian Carter Mason, of Norfolk, Va., was elected president of the National Council of Negro Women at the organization's three-day biennial convention which ended here last week. She succeeds to the post previously held by retiring president, Dr. Dorothy B. Ferebee.

The meeting was attended by some 500 women from affiliated groups and local councils. Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, founder and president emeritus, participated prominently in the proceedings of the convention.

Helen Garland Chosen

Mrs. Helen Garland, of Long Beach, Cal., was elected director of the West Coast Region, No. 6.

The council voted vigorous support for all efforts to eliminate every form of segregation, and pledged itself to institute active educational programs and workshops aimed at the successful achievement of full integration.

It reaffirmed its faith in the United Nations, in U.N. aims and objectives and pledged fuller participation by its entire membership in activities which disseminate information about U.N. throughout the nation.

Opposes McCarran Act

It opposed the Bricker Amendment.

In a resolution on South Africa the convention urged the United States to exercise its strongest efforts in the U.N. and through direct negotiations to convince the Union of South Africa that it should abandon apartheid and adopt policies consistent with principals of the U.N. and with the democratic aims asserted by the free world.

The council vigorously opposed the McCarran Act.

In its housing resolution the Council restated its strong conviction that adequate housing for all segments of the American population is a continuing need and pressing necessity.

West Coast delegates attending the convention included: Mrs. Mattie Grant, president of the Los Angeles Council; Mrs. Azelea Jones, Los Angeles; Mrs. Ruth March, president of the San Francisco Council; Mrs. Lucille Manley, San Francisco, and Mrs. Mary Gregory, Berkeley.

National officers chosen included: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th vice presidents, respectively, Dr. Arenia Mallory, Lexington, Miss.; Dr. Nancy Woolridge, Hampton, Va.; Atty. Marjorie Lawson, Washington, D.C.; Dr. Rosa Gragg, Detroit Mich.; recording secretary, Mrs. Marion Bluitt, Washington, D.C.; treasurer, Mrs. Jane M. Spaulding, Washington, D.C.; parliamentarian, Mrs. Henrine W. Banks, Indianapolis, Ind.

common with the great majority of thoughtful White people of the South, that this improvement must and will continue, particularly in enlarged opportunities for Negro employment and advancement in the South's expanding industries.

"For familiar reasons, American Negroes might have seemed fair prey for Communism. But, trusting in the performance and promises of America like our Negro citizens are overwhelmingly anti-Communist.

"This is a solemn vote of confidence in the Democratic way. It is also of tremendous importance for our Democratic cause in the eyes of the great non-White populations of the world where the malicious and the ignorant fan the anti-White, anti-Western fires.

He said General Powell has reprimanded a Negro officer for "poor judgment" and "dereliction" for not complying with the segregation policy established by the state of Alabama and the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company.

Student Wins Right to Stay At University

BATON ROUGE, La. — Alexander P. Tureaud, Jr., is preparing to return to his classes at Louisiana State University from which he was excluded on November 11. His right to return to the university was indicated by the United States Supreme Court, which on November 16, granted a stay of the Circuit Court's judgment pending determination by the Supreme Court of the validity of the District Court Judge's ruling ordering admission of the student.

Young Tureaud, son of the well known New Orleans civil rights attorney, A. P. Tureaud, was admitted to the university as its first Negro undergraduate on order of the United States District Court. On appeal by the university, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals voided the lower court decision on the ground that the suit should have been heard by a three-judge federal court.

For successful completion of ten 3-hour examinations covering the principles of life insurance organization and operation, diplomas as associates of the Life Office Management Institute have been awarded to Edgar J. Johnson and Mrs. Lolette Davis of Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The courses of study are participated in by more than 5,000 employes of the insurance industry each year. Golden State Mutual along with other member companies of the National Negro Insurance Association participates in the LOMAI courses. The associateship studies are comparable in scope to graduate university work in insurance.

Golden State Mutual employes have set honor records throughout the eight years the company has participated in the industry training.

Mrs. Davis, the firm's supervisor of clerical claim work, tied for national honors in examination No. 6 and Johnson, vice president and secretary, made a similar record in examination No. 3.

Five members of the insurer's staff are now associates in LOMI. Norman O. Houston, president of the company, became the first associate in 1950. He was followed in 1952 by Mrs. Verna Hickman, public relations officer, and Byron Beverly, supervisor home office cashier's division.

Publishers Hear Knight Program

Local publishers were assured that their recommendations for persons to fill state offices would receive careful consideration by Governor Goodwin Knight. That statement was made to a local newspaper man who attended a conference arranged by William Watkins, chairman of the Southern California Central Committee to Retain Knight.

Spokesman for Gov. Knight was Al Kleinberger, general chairman of the Knight campaign committee, who said that patronage will be divided "equitably" on the basis of population.

Alphonse Mills is director of the Central Committee which was described as the "official" Knight campaign group in the local community.

It took 23 years to install the first million; yet 20,000,000 telephones have been installed in the United States since 1946.

50,000,000 Telephones Now Serve the Nation

In the West alone, more than 6,000,000 telephones are at work

1. America's 50 millionth telephone went into service in the White House office of President Eisenhower just a few days ago. Yet, only 77 years ago, America's telephone system consisted of little more than a wire strung through an attic in Boston. Today telephone service binds together the great nation it helped to build. In the 77 years since its invention, the telephone has become an important part of the American way of life . . . a means of chatting with friends . . . an indispensable tool of commerce . . . a vital link in our vast chain of defense.

2. About 5,300 telephone companies serve the United States. Of these, more than 200 are located in the Pacific West. Working together they have made the world's best telephone service available at a reasonable price . . . well within the means of nearly everyone.

3. In the Pacific West we've added telephones even faster than the nation as a whole. Since January, 1946, Pacific Telephone alone has added over 2,225,000 telephones. This has nearly doubled the number at work. We've also improved equipment to make your telephone serve you better.

Pacific Telephone

Each telephone we add makes yours more valuable

Each time a new telephone is installed, your telephone becomes more useful. For each new telephone means you can call more people. More can call you. Thus, every day, your telephone service increases in value, while it remains low in cost.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS ONE OF TODAY'S BEST BARGAINS

OVER THE TOP—Central Avenue Business Division was first over-the-top in local Community Chest campaign. Nat Diamond was chairman. Here are some of the volunteers responsible for outstanding jobs. (Left to right) Joseph Walker, Mrs. Thomas Pinckback co-chairman of South Central Area; Mrs. Mitsuye Iwamoto, of Lafayette PTA, chairman of Section 8, Residential Division 85; Alfred Norman, receiving "Chesty," the Red Feather Oscar, for Diamond from Mrs. Ben P. Griffith, Metropolitan door-to-door chairman, and Mrs. Maxine Tibbs, a co-worker with Mrs. Iwamoto.

Local Groups Aided By Community Chest Listed

Local people made good use of many of the Community Chest agencies as their services were needed last year. Most of the service went for children, but families in trouble and veterans benefited by wise counseling.

Here is the record for Jefferson, and Central-South Park.

A total of 5670 children were treated in the wards or clinics at Children's, California Babies and Orthopaedic Hospitals.

Adults treated reached 2452 served at the following clinics: All Nations, Cedars of Lebanon, Methodist Hospital and Santa Rita Clinic.

Thirty-eight unmarried mothers were cared for at St. Anne's Maternity and Salvation Army Booth Memorial Hospitals.

A total of 163 individuals sought psychiatric aid from the Community Division of the Los Angeles Psychiatric Services—Community and Vermont Division, Child Guidance Clinic and Resthaven.

A great many people were beset with family and personal problems, such as parent-child relationships, family discord, and desertion. In this group 3210 individuals sought help from Assistance League Family Service, Catholic Welfare Bureau, Church Welfare Bureau, Family Service of Los Angeles, International Institute-Family Service, Jewish Family Service, Motion Picture Relief Fund, Salvation Army, Travelers' Aid Society and Volunteers of America.

Specialized personal services were rendered to 2933 individuals by the following organizations: British Benevolent Society, Episcopal City Mission Society, Federation of Jewish Welfare Organizations Rehabilitative Services, Jewish Committee for Personal Service, Legal Aid Foundation and Los Angeles Urban League.

Dependent and neglected children with behavior problems totaled 73 cared for in the following institutions: Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, Boys' Republic, Convent of the Good Shepherd, Hathaway Home for Children, Lark Ellen Home for Boys, Los Angeles Orphanage, McKinley Home for Boys, Pacific Lodge Boys' Home, Rancho San Antonio, Rosemary Cottage, Volunteers of America—Children's Home.

New Head Spurs NAPE Struggles

WASHINGTON—Having completed the sad chore of burying its late national president, Ashby B. Carter of Chicago, the National Alliance of Postal Employees is once again tackling the serious task of fighting for the advancement of Negroes in the U. S. Post Office Department.

NAPE officials estimated that approximately 1,500 alliance members took part in last week's competitive examinations for promotions to supervisors, which were opened for the first time to clerks and carriers under the new "fairplay" edict of Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

Personally Invited

Assistant Postmaster General Norman R. Abrams, in charge of the Bureau of Operations, personally invited new national president, James B. Cobb, to attend the examinations sessions in Washington.

Meanwhile, President Cobb is pondering the problem of naming his own successor for the post of vice president which he held until the death of Mr. Carter on October 28. Under the NAPE constitution in such cases the president names a new officer without the formality of an election.

Choose Washington

President Cobb and Welfare Director William C. Jason, Jr. spent about two weeks in Chicago after Mr. Carter's death in preparing the late Mr. Carter's files for moving to Washington.

It is the feeling here that with the top administrative officers—President Cobb and Secretary-Treasurer Vote D. Dixon—both located in Washington, it will be easier for the new team to blend itself into the policies formulated by the late Mr. Carter. Under his stewardship the NAPE membership grew from 5600 to over 20,000.

The new field organizer, former National President Jerry O. Gilliam of Norfolk, Va., has been given his briefing by the new top man, and is ready to start siphoning into the NAPE the large number of unaffiliated postal employees now outside the NAPE.

Pay Tribute

In paying final tribute to the late leader, President Cobb said: "In August, just eleven weeks ago, Ashby Carter, though failing in health, in appropriate style and intellectual clarity, spelled out to our national convention the road we must tread. Our convention approved and adopted that presentation. There will be no deviation in the National Alliance of Postal Employees from the policy and program enunciated by President Carter and adopted by our Atlantic City convention."

Dr. Jason stated: "Unafraid of courts of law when the settlement of legal issues was necessary, the 'Chief' led our Alliance through each crisis with a cool courage and a faultless vision, attested by his numerous sound and correct administrative decisions. Ever adequate, never going off half-cocked, the Alliance under the 'Chief' has never needed to retreat or recede from any position officially taken."

Churchill Govt. Refuses To Outlaw Jim Crow

LONDON—Discrimination by many British hotels against African, Indian and colored West Indian guests prompted the Labor Party to introduce a bill making discrimination because of color illegal.

The bill, which was introduced last month by Fenner Brockway, was defeated overwhelmingly by Prime Minister Churchill's Conservative Party.

No British government has ever passed a law barring discrimination, on the pretext that no discrimination exists. However, many observers report that sentiment is moving in the other direction since incidents of this sort are becoming quite common.

Police Officer Wins Place

assignments on the job in terms of police-community relations.

The Civil Service Commission has now made it easier for qualified men like Jesse Brewer to take the examination for policeman. It is no longer necessary for the applicant to come to Los Angeles to take the examination. One may apply by mail from any part of the United States and the exam may be taken in one of several large cities throughout the country.

Applicants may be 19 years old at the time of taking the exam, but must be 21 years old before appointment.

There is no relaxation of standards which are so high that only 2.3 per cent of the men who take the written examination eventually receive an appointment and complete cadet training.

The salary starts at $355 per month and in four years reaches a maximum of $417.

The last day for filing for the next exam is January 22, 1954. Additional information may be secured by writing Los Angeles Civil Service Commission, Room 5, City Hall, Los Angeles 12, California.

A 21-minute film study of the Seminole Indians is on tap next weekend as the second in a series of Indian movies which is being offered by the Fern Dell Nature Museum, located in Griffith Park at 5375 Red Oak Drive.

'Discrimination' Lectures Given At 'Forum Hall'

Two public lectures on racial discrimination, its origins and causes and the struggle against it, are being given by the Friday Night Forum in its current series at Forum Hall, 1702 E. 4th St.

Detailed Coverage

The first lecture and discussion, on "The Origin and Cause of Racial Discrimination," will be given on Friday, Nov. 27, and will deal with the history and theoretical aspects of the question. It will cover such points as what race actually is, the role of segregation in race relations and the color question in colonial countries.

December Fourth Next

The second forum, entitled "Final Victory in the Struggle for Equality," to be given on Dec. 4, will discuss the anatomy of the southern Jim Crow system and the effects of industrialization in the South. It will include a discussion of the nature and role of race consciousness and the Negroes in connection with the labor movement.

The speaker for both lectures is Richard Fraser, Marxian Socialist lecturer and student for many years of the race concept in society. All forums begin at 8 p.m. —Advertisement—

Come to my office any day and see, rub shoulders and talk to several hundred of my patients who are under treatment for many of the above disorders.

These patients will tell you with their own mouths what benefits they are deriving.

Why do my patients bring in their loved ones—wife, husband, mother, father, children and friends?

Come in and talk with my patients and let them tell you how they feel and what benefits they are deriving.

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., outstanding indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophilis (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have been suffering with stomach trouble and gas since the last year I met you.

Now that I have come back to you and have completed two weeks' treatment just last week, I feel brighter, stronger and happy again as the result of these treatments.

Therefore, I suggest to those who suffer of same trouble to try Dr. Brinkley's New Yorker Technique, which I sincerely recommend.

This testimonial is not solicited. Respectfully yours, Rt. Rev. Elias Pico."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: Certainly appreciate Mrs. Padella, Mrs. Folendore and Dr. Martin's kindness.

They did wonderfully and did a great deal of good for me.

I pray to God to bless and protect them.

Thankfully with great affection on them, Father Conrad Lebel."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I wish to extend my thanks to you, and your entire staff, especially to Dr. Evans, Mrs. Vickers, and Mrs. Johanson, who were so courteous to me.

After taking your treatment for about 10 days I feel better than I have felt in six years.

I shall not cease to tell my friends about you and your staff, and your great institution.

May the Lord let you live long to keep up the good work. Yours respectfully, Rev. Walter H. Laster."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: Without reservation or hesitation, I can truthfully say that I believe that your technique of treating the human body is a God inspired idea. Because, up until I saw your advertisement in the newspaper, I had just about given up hope for any relief. The Doctors, at many of the leading clinics of this nation, had given me every kind of examination known in the field of medical science, and to no avail. But the first few treatments I received from your office I began getting relief. And I know that it was none other than the Spirit of Almighty God which led me to read your advertisement that day. So, may God crown all your efforts with His choicest benedictions in helping to relieve the perplexities and pains from which humanity is suffering. Fraternally yours, O. L. California Eagle

Published Every Thursday

The Eagle stands for complete integration of Negroes into every phase of American life through the democratic processes.

We favor:

1. FEPC on local, state and national levels.
2. Decent housing for all Americans.
3. Representation in Government.
4. Adequate old age pensions and social security.
5. Collective bargaining rights for all workmen.
6. Development and encouragement of Negro business.

We oppose:

1. Jim Crow in all forms.
2. Communists and all other enemies of democracy.

Look A Little Deeper

The promise of patronage is proving a might attractive lure to local politicos who have been falling over themselves the past few days trying to latch on to what they apparently think is the Knight For Governor bandwagon. A number of them have been distinguished in the past for what they have described as their undying devotion to the party of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

The amazing part of the performance is that nobody knows who the governor's opponent, or opponents, will be on either the Republican or the Democratic tickets and that nobody knows exactly what Knight's platform will encompass.

We are willing to agree that the appointment of Negroes to public office, as promised by the governor, is important. Every such appointment is a symbol of the triumph of the democratic way of life. We don't agree that patronage, or the promise of patronage, is all important.

We would like to know, for example, where the governor stands on civil rights, particularly on fair employment legislation. We would like to know whether his new director of employment is going to continue the present policy of refusing to fill discriminatory job orders in the state employment service.

We would also like to know where the governor stands on old age pensions, on social security, on labor legislation and on other matters that are of prime importance to the average man.

Of course, we know that Governor Knight is a personable and likeable gentleman who is without racial or religious prejudices. But no chief executive can administer all of the affairs of state and it is important for us to know whether or not the reactionary Republican crowd that has dominated his party so long and that has sabotaged FEPC, civil rights and other forward looking legislation is going to be in the saddle under his administration.

It seems to us that it would be well for self-appointed leaders to wait a while and see what the governor's program is and see how he proposes to deal with problems of primary importance to us before they go any further toward committing the Negro vote to him. If that program fails to fill popular needs we're afraid that some of these gentlemen won't be able to deliver the votes they're promising.

Mike Was A Democrat

Everybody who knows anything about anything knows that Mike Fanning got fired because he is a Democrat who took his party's platform seriously. As soon as he was appointed Mike told everybody who would listen that he was going to recognize merit and ability without reference to race and color. He did just that.

The story has been told so many times that there is no need here to point out that he destroyed a color caste system that had doomed Negroes to lower bracket jobs in the local post office.

That kind of activity didn't set well with the old civil service gang that had been running the post office for years and that had dictated promotion policies for decades. That gang has been out after Mike ever since.

Naturally enough, Republicans who had been out of power for two decades wanted Mike's job for some party regular who had given his all to the GOP during the lean days. It was a cinch that these two anti-Fanning groups would get together as soon as possible.

It is interesting to note that complaints charging favoritism in promotions involved the cases of a dozen Negroes out of the eighteen or nineteen charges on this score. In contrast, nothing was ever said or done in the case of former postmasters who had failed or refused to appoint Negroes to positions they deserved.

We don't think for a moment that anything can be done to induce the postmaster general to reverse his decision to fire Mike Fanning. It does seem to us that Negro Republican leaders ought to take a good long look at anybody who is proposed as postmaster. Whoever that appointee is, he ought to be a man who is pledged to follow the policies of fair play that were initiated by Fanning.

We know that Negroes, no matter what their politics, owe a profound debt of gratitude to a man who had the simple courage to live up to the oath he took when he assumed office.

Put Out This Fire

The Fire Commission is still fiddling while the fire of racial prejudice and discrimination burns as brightly as ever in the Los Angeles Fire Department.

The details of Chief John H. Alderson's Jim Crow policy were described to the Commission on October 8, almost two months ago. The Commissioners learned then, if they didn't know before, that Negroes are confined to two fire stations in the Central Avenue area. They must have understood that such segregation breeds discrimination because it means a limitation on the number of Negro firemen who can be hired and because it sets limits on the number of Negro officers who can win promotions.

But the Commission hasn't acted yet. Its sole activity thus far has been that of writing double talking letters in which it assures one and all that it is "studying" the matter.

We don't know why any official body, such as the Fire Commission, needs to "study" racial segregation in a governmental activity. Our courts have said so many times that racial segregation is impermissable that the matter cannot be open to any imaginary doubt as to legality.

The Commission's sole duty in the matter is to order the chief to put an end to his unlawful and unconstitutional practices.

The chief is now trying to muddy the waters by whining that he is the victim of a plot hatched by foes of public housing. That claim is silly and preposterous. The chief knows better than anybody else that his segregation policy was under fire long before the public housing controversy was a public issue.

The truth of the matter is that the chief's stand on housing has nothing whatever to do with the difficulty in which he finds himself. The sole issue is whether or not Los Angeles is going to tolerate racial segregation in a municipal function.

Time For A Change

The chips are down in the battle to end segregation in the nation's schools. The NAACP filed its brief in the Supreme Court cases last week and answering briefs will have been filed by the time this issue reaches the streets.

Arguments on the cases are set for December 7 and the nation's highest tribunal will decide the question some time before next June.

In its long and scholarly brief, the NAACP traces the history of the long fight against racial discrimination and it seems to us to prove pretty conclusively that the framers of the Fourteenth Amendment [illegible] to halt all [illegible] segregation. [illegible] only put a crimp in the Amendment with its 1896 ruling that the states could satisfy constitutional requirement with "separate but equal" facilities.

The result has been that facilities for Negroes have been separate in the South ever since but never equal and now the NAACP asks the Court to correct its mistake it made a half century ago.

Proponents of separate schools have nothing to offer except the long since exploded claim that Americans of differing ethnic origins can't associate together without conflict. Integration in other phases of our national life has robbed that claim of validity and we hope that the Court will put an end to a practice it should never have sanctioned.

Battleaxe and Bread

MORRISTOWN, Tennessee—We Manhattanites have a great way of feeling sorry for folks who live elsewhere—though for the life of me I can't see why—even when they're only across the East River in Brooklyn. Especially do we feel sorry for our sisters and brothers who lives in the South—and when it comes to the rural or small-town South, our pity knows no bounds. But after spending a night in Morristown, Tennessee, I want to assure my fellow-Manhattanites that they're wasting their pity. Certainly, Morristownians don't need it—and most certainly of all the McMahans of Morristown, Tennessee, would think we were crazy if we expressed any pity for them.

Lester Granger

There are a whole mess of McMahans—ten of them besides their father and mother. Seven of the children are girls; one, the oldest of the children, is a student at Berea College in Kentucky. The second daughter is married and has a baby girl; the third is a student at Morristown College, a few blocks from her home. The rest of the youngsters stretch out from high school age to two chunky, bouncy little boys, aged 5 and 7, and each capable of making more racket than a boiler factory. And sometimes they do, both of them.

Mrs. McMahan was formerly a school-teacher, but now, as she puts it, she needs all of her pedagogical training to help keep her tribe in order. Not that they are troublesome youngsters—just the opposite—but they are so infernally alive, all the time, as boys and girls usually are when they are growing up, healthy, happy and full of ginger. When I entered their home, the kitchen seemed as packed as Madison Square Garden used to be for a Joe Louis soiree. It was several minutes before I realized that in addition to eight McMahan youngsters there were several visiting students from Morristown College. Mrs. McMahan didn't mind; she swept them all out of her way with the same casual gesture that she used to manage her own, and went about the business of getting some dinner together for her husband and myself.

Mr. Chester McMahan is my nomination for "Father of the Year"—for any one of the past twenty years. A brickmason by craft, he has worked on most of the big building operations in the vicinity for the past twenty-five years. He belongs to an "integrated" union of 500 to 600 members. There are a couple of dozen other colored union members; he serves as steward on the job where he is now employed—assuming that status automatically by reason of his seniority in the union. Sometimes he goes off to other areas when work is slack in Morristown, but he'd rather not. In Illinois he recently made $3.25 an hour, as compared with his $3.00 an hour at home, but not only did his living expenses away from home eat up more than the extra quarter-an-hour, but he missed his family.

He used to live out in Sevier County, but as the oldest girl got to high school age, he looked at the local schools and found them not good enough. So he moved into town, and never regretted the move. His children are all good students; one finished high school at fifteen, two others have won scholarships. He isn't quite sure how he has done it on his brickmason's pay, but the house is his, and not the bank's; he owns several extra lots in the neighborhood. Chester McMahan would think you were plumb crazy if you sympathized with him for not living in New York—or for living in the South.

And he's right. The purpose of living is to be good, useful and happy. Chester McMahan has achieved his purpose—and the rest of his family are following suit. How many of us in Manhattan can say that we've done the same? In that Morristown home there was serenity of a sort that comes out of security. And not just the security of a job or money in the bank, but the security of a wholesome family life, of a friendly neighborhood, of knowing a crowd of people whose tastes and ambitions are sympathetic. Gosh, how I hate to come back to New York next month!

ON THE BOOKSHELF

THE RENAISSANCE
By Will Durant

The fifth volume in Dr. Durant's massive story of the development of civilization, this book offers a vivid account of what is one of the most thrilling chapters of the adventure of the human spirit, the rebirth of learning in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries. The emphasis here is upon the development of the Renaissance in Italy, and what a picture emerges of violence and learning, murder and glorious art, war and poetry. It was the beginning of the modern age and of many modern problems, such as the individual versus the state, which have never been solved. As one expects of this author, the book is absorbing and told with a gusto fitting its subject.

HIGH JUNGLES AND LOW, by Archie F. Carr

The author, a professor of biology, taught for five years at the agricultural school maintained by the United Fruit Company in Honduras, and out of his love for the people and the land comes a most sympathetic and intriguing book. We have vivid word pictures, that have reminded some critics of such classical nature writers as W. H. Hudson and William Beebe, of the cloud forests, the majestic trees and plants, the effervescent and lively natives.

THE FEMALE, by Paul Wellman

A number of serious studies have been written recently about the behavior of women in general (a subject that seems to provoke discussion among men, be they social scientists or laymen). This, however, is a noval about one woman in particular, a fascinating, ambitious, powerful character from the pages of history. Theodora, who rose from poverty to the luxurious life of a courtesan, who fled in exile only to move on to become empress of Byzantium, is a figure still fascinating after 1400 years. Paul Wellman, skilled in creating a period of the past, depicts a luxurious, civilized epoch and an exciting heroine, fascinating not for her deeds but for her abilities.

THE PASSIONATE HEART by Beatrix Beck

In a sensative presentation of a problem common to our troubled era, this prize-winning French novel tells the story of a woman seeking spiritual understanding. Her way to faith lies in the guidance of a sympathetic priest, but her conversion to religion, she comes to realize, stems not from her love for God but from her love for the priest himself. In its picture of the desires of the spirit and the flesh, here is a delicate, devout story to be enjoyed by those who liked "The End of the Affair."

"IMMIGRANTS ALL"

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

THE FACTS ABOUT SHOPLIFTING

Here is an interesting story related by Officer Ernest Williams and John Lehman, investigating detectives of 77th Street Division.

A few weeks ago Henry De Leon, 29, of 810 E. 97th street, was arrested for stealing a bar of soap from the Greater Avalon Market at 9417 S. Avalon boulevard.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

Because De Leon is an ex-convict, the charge for this minor theft is a felony, petty theft with prior conviction of a felony, and he could, theoretically, be sent back to prison for an eight-cent theft. This technicality in the law was seized upon by some individuals and was so distorted that the real issue was lost amid the loud clamor of these misguided citizens.

Hugh Henschel, the manager of the market, who called the police, has been threatened by letters and by phone and charged with persecuting De Leon.

Without seeking to defend or criticize, we believe that the general public is entitled to the facts and some clarification about arrests for items, which when viewed apart from the total picture, may seem unjust.

Henry De Leon has served a term in the State prison for grand theft and while on parole for this charge was twice sent back to prison for violation of his terms of parole. At the time of his arrest for the current shoplifting charge he had been out of jail only 40 days after serving a one year sentence in the County Jail for burglary.

He and his mother and sister were shopping at the Greater Avalon Market when they were observed by the manager. The mother pushed the cart and the sister picked up a bar of soap, said something to Henry, laughed and handed him the soap which he put in his pocket.

The manager called the police because he felt that he would need assistance since he had encountered trouble with the mother and sister under similar circumstances several days prior.

When the family left the market without Henry taking the soap out and paying for it, Henschel had him arrested.

Henry has since been held to answer in the Municipal Court and although it is theoretically possible, it is unlikely that he will be sent back to prison.

Was it petty of Henschel to have a man arrested for an eight-cent theft?

Henschel, like most store keepers, tries to avoid such trouble. They prefer to keep the good will of the community and generally just warn the thief after catching him.

In the ten days prior to De Leon's arrest, Henschel had caught and turned over to the police three shoplifters. He was forced to change to these tactics because of the huge loss he was suffering in thefts.

He stated that he operates on a one per cent margin—in other words, in order to break even as far as profit and loss is concerned, he would have to sell eight dollars worth of goods to make up for that one eight-cent theft.

Multiply this by the several times a day thefts are committed and often considerably more than a bar of soap, and apply this to every store in town—the loss is staggering.

Let's face it. It is a matter of stopping thefts or going out of business. A theft is no more to be condoned because it is for a dime instead of a dollar.

It may be unfortunate that De Leon is subjected to a felony prosecution for this minor theft, but we submit that the fault is not that of the store manager.

Letters to the Editor

Dr. Mr. Miller:

I am a condemned prisoner, confined on "Death Row" at San Quentin, awaiting execution . . though I've killed no one, nor was I charged with or convicted of killing anyone . . .

In 1947, after enduring long periods of solitary confinement over a good many years, having suffered both physical and mental abuse, I cracked up and, while in a state of hysteria, and acting upon what I felt to be the first law of nature, I threw and hit a prison guard with a cuspidor. Though the guard was not seriously injured, and has stated (as reported by Walter Winchell, over his Sunday evening news broadcast) that he does not wish me to be executed, nevertheless, for that, I stand condemned to die. . . .

I think it worthy of note that, in 1946, Governor Warren commuted the death sentence of a young Negro who had been sentenced to death for the crime of rape, robbery and kidnap. The governor stated at the time that he was doing so because, (1) he didn't believe in exacting the death penalty when no life had been taken; and (2) that he did not believe that the jury would have voted for the death penalty had the defendant been other than a Negro. . . .

I am thoroughly in accord with the governor's opinion, and the action taken by him in that case. However, I think the best proof as to whether I would be here under sentence of death had I been other than a Negro, lies in the fact that, never in the history of the state, until my conviction . . had any man ever been condemned to death for merely an assault . . when no life had been taken. . . .

Frankly, I feel that I have been "sinned against," to use a figure of speech, about as much as—if not more than—I've sinned. I have scars upon my body, face and head—not to mention the scars upon my heart and soul, scars that I'll take to my grave—that will attest to my words. . . I think it might be truthfully said that I am to be put to death not for any crime I've been convicted of in any court of law, but, rather, for the "crime" of believing in and fighting—foolishly, perhaps, at times—for racial equality, the rights and dignity due all mankind—for fighting for survival. . . .

And now, after over six long years, "living" here under the very pall of death, suffering the longings, the heartaches and apprehensions of the condemned, I am to be put to death . . within the next ninety days . . unless I am able to interest you, and enlist your help, and that of many, many others in the cause of justice.

It has been said that the "wheels of justice" grind slowly. I think it might be said also in this instance that they've ground exceedingly fine; and at all points along the road, the grindee has been myself. This is all the more paradoxical when one stops to think that the guard involved in the altercation is not a ghost but, an active, robust human individual.

I feel that this case should be considered from a humanitarian, from a moral approach, rather than from a strict, legal point of view—which in this case closely resembles revenge more than it does justice. I feel strongly that I've paid and paid in full any debt I may have owed to society, and that I am now entitled to a receipt marked: "Paid in full—debt cancelled."

If after reading this missive you should feel, as I hope you (and many others) will that a grave injustice has been and is being done in this case, I would appreciate any help you may be able to give me in this, my hour of great need.

Thanking you very much in advance, and anticipating your reply at your earliest possible opportunity, as time is of the essence.

Yours very sincerely,
WESLEY ROBERT WELLS

Detroit NAACP Hits Segregated Hospital

DETROIT—The proposal to use funds collected in the Capital Gifts campaign for an extension to the Parkside Hospital here is opposed by the Detroit branch of the NAACP because the hospital is a "segregated facility."

Church

Marie Anderson Will Supervise Day of Activity

As a fitting sequel to a highly successful Men's Day Sunday, November 15, the Women of McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, will have their Day next Sunday, November 29. Under the very able leadership of Mrs. Marie Anderson, wife of Pastor E. A. Anderson. The Women of McCoy will present a full day of spirit-filled wo.sh.p. Pastor Anderson will bring the morning message from the subject, "Great Women of the Bible."

Noteworthy Afternoon Program

The 2 p.m. worship, to be held in the beautiful and commodious auditorium of the Grace Lutheran Church, 936 West Vernon at Menlo, will highlight the Day's observance. The renowned Radio Pastor, Elder W. J. Taylor, will deliver the message for the occasion. The Moderator of the Los Angeles District Association, Western Baptist State Convention, Dr. Arthur Atlas Peters will be called upon for remarks. A supporting program will feature renditions by the outstanding television attraction, The Voice of Victory Choir; the masterful soul-stirring Senior Choir of the Paradise Baptist Church, and the pride of McCoy, the Moments of Meditation Choir.

Desired Future Home

It is the prayerful hope of the Pastor and ever growing congregation of McCoy that the site of the afternoon service, the Grace Lutheran Church, will some day be their regular place of worship. This imposing church plant, strictly modern throughout with elaborate educational and recreational facilities, and spacious parking area would very effectively serve the needs of the progressive McCoy Memorial Baptist Church and its imaginative community-minded program.

—Velma Lassiter, publicity director.

THE STATELY GRACE LUTHERAN Church, 936 West Vernon, at Menlo, site of the afternoon worship for McCoy Memorial Baptist Church's Women's Day Observance, 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 29. Pastor E. A. Anderson cordially invites all denominations to participate in this noteworthy program.

'Rock of Ages' Festival Tops Church Events

Rock of Ages Baptist Church at 22nd St., Los Angeles, last Sunday evening, November 22, ended their 30-day entrance services with a musical festival. Guest artists were: The Inez Caston Gospel Choir of the Trinity Baptist Church, whose pastor is Dr. J. L. Caston. These fine singers were accompanied by the Choir of the Olivet Baptist Church, of which the Rev. Bedford is pastor.

Santa Monica Calvary Baptist Dedicates Robes

Members of The Gospel Choir of the Calvary Baptist Church under the capable leadership of the directress, Mrs. Ethel Sykes, purchased new robes which were dedicated last Sunday afternoon in a special dedicatory service held in the Sanctuary of the Church. The program was unique in every way.

Beautifully Designed by Henri O'Bryant of Hollywood

The history of the Choir dates back to its organization in 1940 by Mrs. Ethel Sykes, who is still serving in this capacity. The music for this occasion was furnished by the Churches, Senior Choir, Young Adult Choir, the B.T.U. Chorus and the Gospel Choir, joining in the dedication selection, "Pass Me Not." Leaders from the choirs are as follows: Senior Choir, Mrs. Beatrice Lynch, didectress, Mrs. Hazel Tippins, organist; Gospel Choir, Mrs. Ethel Sykes, directress, Mrs. Evelyn Land Craft, pianist; Young Adult Group, Miss Jewell Williams, directress, Mrs. Carsander Mentah, pianist; B.T.U. Chrous, Miss Lillie Warren, directress, Mrs. Landcraft, pianist. All choirs give an A and B selection, among them such songs as "God Leads His Dear Children," "I've Got a Robe" and "Let's Sing Till the Power of the Lord Comes Down." The History of the Choirs was given by the secretary, Mrs. Albert First.

Outstanding Achievement

The dedications message was delivered by the Pastor, Rev. W. P. Carter who admonished the Choir for the fine work and cooperation in their 13 years of service in the Calvary Baptist Church. Remarks were given by the following persons: Mrs. Blanch Carter, wife of the pastor, Mr. Russell Latimere, president of the Choir and Mrs. Ethel Sykes, directress.

Royalty Crowned

Climaxing the Dedication was the crowning of the King and Queen who had raised the largest sum of money during the contest, sponsored by the Choir. Miss Kern was crowned Queen and the president, Mr. Latimere, was crowned King. Mr. Henri O'Brien crowned the King and Queen, this honor being given him by the choir because of the very fine work done by hic factory in making the beautiful robes.

Mrs. Ida Dooley acted as Mistress of Ceremony.

Louise Bratton To Help Present 'Messiah' Dec. 6

Soloists for the West Adams performance of Handel's Messiah at 4 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 6, were named yesterday by Area Manager Louise Smith Bratton.

"The performance, one of 50 to be simultaneously sung in areas throughout Southern California, will be held at Ward Methodist Church, 1177 W. 25 St.", Mrs. Bratton said.

More than 70,000 people are expected to attend the various performances.

Named yesterday were Cecile Buchanan to sing the soprano lead. Wanda Weiskopf will sing contralto, John Wuerthner tenor, and George Comfort bass.

Termed the greatest sing of its kind in the world, the Messiah sing is sponsored by the Southern California Council of Protestant Churches and the Church Federation of Los Angeles.

For the past six years it has ushered in the Christmas season. The event has grown from participation by 20 churches in 10 areas in 1946 to the present 700 churches in 50 areas.

Sports Roundup

By BRAD PYE, JR.
(California Eagle Exclusive)

MILTON DAVIS BRUINS BIG HERO—

BERKELEY—Milton Davis, the fine UCLA defensive utility back whom a lot of observers (including this writer) predicted wouldn't even make the Bruins' traveling roster—because of the unlimited substitution rule change—has proven these skeptics wrong..

And he proved before 90,000 live customers and millions more via TV in the USC-UCLA clash Sat. in the L.A. Coliseum that he's a mighy fine boy to have around despite the rule change . . . As you know by now Davis is the lad who returned a punt 30 yards (on a quick thinking play) to set up the Bruins first score. As a junior the rangy back was cited on All-American specialist list . . .

BRAD PYE, JR.

Unfortunately, Davis's offensive skill doesn't match his brilliant defensive work and he virtually won't receive the plaudits that would have unquestionably been his had the unlimited sub rule still prevailed . . . Davis has come a long way since he played guard on Bert Watson's powerhouse '46 Jefferson High "B" squad.

We know that Davis never dreamed that he would be playing in the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl game . . . When he entered UCLA he was just another student . . . His only claim to fame was the fact he was a pretty fair quartermiler on the LACC spike team in '49 . . . But today it's a different story . . . He's one of the Bruins' biggest heroes even though he has not scored a point in his entire grid history, if our memory serves us correctly . . . Coach Red Sanders has labeled Davis as the Bruins best defensive back . . .

And to be rated over boys like All-American Pitchin' Paul Cameron, Bill Stits, Bob Davenport et al, in day dept., to our way of thinking is quite an honor in itself.

PYE PICKS—

Cal's Jerry Drew—the ex-Jefferson HS star—collapsed after standing at attention for fifteen minutes in an ROTC drill . . . However, he recuperated in time to perform in the Big Game . . . Sammy Williams—the Cal QB who had to sit this season out because of an injury will definitely be bidding for a berth in spring practice . . . Roy Campanella the MVP winner and some of his other Bum mates have speaking parts in the flick "Poogie's Bums." . . . Wes Robinson, the ex-Bruin frosh cage star now at Cal is ineligible. As of now this is 30.

Globetrotters Planning Tour

Basketball's' much-traveled Harlem Globetrotters will soon add the sixth and last of the continents—Australia—to their lengthening list of conquests.

Owner-Coach Abe Saperstein, at a press conference in Chicago, revealed plans for a Pacific jaunt starting next month that will include the land "down under," a 27-year dream fulfilled.

The Trotters have invaded Europe and northern Africa each of the past four summers, toured South America twice and included Asia on their historic 1952 Around-the-World trek.

From the vast reservoir of manpower at his command, the dynamic Chicago owner of the fabulous Negro basketball aggregation has selected a representative squad that will leave Portland, Ore., via Pan-American Airways on Sunday, Dec. 13, for the Hawaiian Islands, first stop on the journey. The Trotters will be accompanier by the Boston Whirlwinds, headed by the former University of Kentucky All-American, seven-foot Bill Spivey, who will furnish their opposition, and an added array of glittering variety performers.

Preps Open Hoop Play

City prep basketball entered into league contention last Tuesday with no games schedules for Thanksgiving holidays although six loops and 34 teams got underway Tuesday. Pre-season basketball powers, hoping to win titles and enter the city championship playoffs in January, include Southern League's Jefferson, Manual Arts and Fremont, Western's city title defending Los Angeles and University, Valley's Hollywood, Northern's Marshall.

Michigan Leroy Bolden Wins 'Most Valuable Player Award'

The big student blowout in the Westwoods has simmered down to almost icy stillness as Coach Red Sanders turned to the big task of preparing for the mighty Michigan State invasion come January 1, in Pasadena.

Bruins scouts reported that Michigan has a tremendous team with plenty of speed in the backfield plus bags of tricks. The line averages around 200 pounds.

However the scouts pointed out that the key to Michigan success is good coaching plus tremendous manpower. Last week Leroy Bolden was presented with the annual Governor of Michigan award for the "most valuable player" at the football banquet of Rose-Bowl bound Michigan State team.

Bolden, a junior, was the leading ground gainer with 697 yards and top scorer with eight touchdowns. UCLA hasn't set a practice date yet but tentatively the Bruins are slated to be ordered for double drills on Thursday.

Caroline Named on Colliers 64th All-American Choice

J. C. Caroline, Illinois' surprising sophomore called the greatest since Red Grange, was named to a backfield position on the 64th All-America football team appearing in the current Collier's. He is a native of Columbia, S.C., and the only sophomore on the honor team.

A total of 527 members of the American Football Coaches Association took part in the balloting, supervised by Collier's All-America board of famous coaches, including Don Faurot, Missouri, president of the Association; Lou Little, Columbia; Tuss McLaughry, Dartmouth; Bobby Dodd, Georgia Tech.; Dutch Meyer, Texas Christian; Biggie Munn, Michigan State; Ray Eliot, Illinois; Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma, and Lynn Waldorf, California.

New Record

Caroline, a six foot 190-pounder, broke Grange's total yardage record of 1,260 for one season as early as the second Saturday in November. That includes yards on rushes, runbacks of kickoffs, intercepted passes and punts. He also broke the Big Ten conference mark for one season of 721 yards rushing, held by Alan Ameche of Wisconsin.

Caroline, whose initials "J.C." actually serve as his first name, came into the 1953 season unheralded. He gained 192 yards on 24 hauls in his Big Ten debut against Ohio State, which was beaten, 41-20. His coach, Ray Eliot, comments in Collier's:

"I was just as surprised as Ohio State. Caroline looked good in practice but he never exploded as he did against Ohio State and in subsequent games. He's just one of those rare competitors who hits his absolute peak under game tension."

L. A. OPEN GOLF TOURNEY JAN. 8-11

The Los Angeles Jr. Chamber of Commerce announced today that applications were mailed out this week to more than 1500 professional and amateur golfers over the nation who may enter the 28th Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament, Jan. 8-11.

Two days after the initial mailing, Los Angeles golfer Lloyd Mangrum, defending L.A. Open champion, became the first golfer to sign up for the $20,000 annual local classic.

Applications were being sent to all L.A. Open entrants last year, and to all members of Southern California clubs who have a five-handicap or below.

Taliaferro Pioneers

George Taliaferro who just about ran the Los Angeles Rams crazy operating at the quarterback spot for the Baltimore Colts last Sunday became the first Negro player to quarterback a National Football League team.

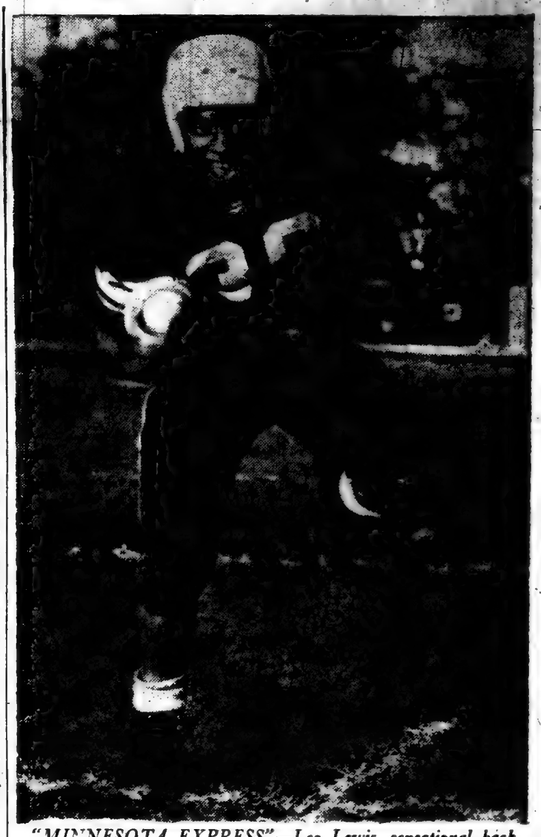
Billy Peacock Nods Torres

Billy Peacock, the North American bantamweight champion, scored a unanimous 10-round decision over rugged Oscar Torres last Monday night at the South Gate Arena. More than 1100 fans greeted the decision with boos that lasted several minutes. However the ring officials saw Peacock winning hands down. It was a free swinging affair with Peacock working his jab overtime and the bull-like attack of Torres made it one of those slambang bouts. This was Peacock's first showing in several weeks. His next outing is slated for the Olympic auditorium.

Bowling News

The big guns of the Sunset Bowling League took aim and fired Saturday night at the Studio Bowl and the pins were moved down in large numbers.

The sharp shooting league members had their eyes on the alley and records of old went up in smoke as new ones replaced them.



K. E. Watts took dead aim for the high game of the evening with a 233 helping the Brown Motor Shop team to wipe out the B and B's lead. By taking all three games they moved themselves into the fifth spot in the standings. Waco Jackson fought hard to stop the big slaughter with his second high game of 222 but his best was useless.

Alvin Griffin and J. Benson put together their best firing skill of 213 and 219 respectively to help the Lee Hi Hats team murder Ted's Service dropping them from second place, while the Central Bar-B-Q's team was shooting down the Sav-Way TV'ers to capture the second place spot.

The Garretts Enterprisers dumped the Red Hut Broilers but suffered the worst of the encounter, losing two out of three games to join the TV'ers in the cellar.

Standings

"MINNESOTA EXPRESS"—Leo Lewis, sensational back of the Lincoln (Mo.) Tigers, wound up the season with a four touchdown spree against So. Carolina State. Lewis is a leading candidate for Little All America honors. He is top scorer among the nation's smaller colleges, ranks third in rushing, and eighth in total offense.

— On the Turf —

GEORGE RAMSEY

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Wee Willie Shoemaker, the champion jockey of the American turf bagged his 450th winner at the border course last Sunday. But in the special match race between Ara Time and Magic Lead at six furlongs, it was Jockey Rogelio Trejos the smiling pugnacious Panamanian who stole the show. Trejos rode his first winner here a couple of years ago. On that afternoon his first winner was Trigolimpo. Later he scored with Real Soon, both good price payoffs. It was in the special match race that Trejos showed a masterful exhibition of horsebacking. Magic Lead broke on top, but Trejos had the better horse and he performed faultlessly to take every advantage of Ara Time's tremendous speed potential.

RAMSEY

Running the first half in 45 seconds and still holding a lead midway in the stretch where Magic Lead moved menacingly just a half length off the last filly, but little Trejor knew Ara Time had plenty left and stung her a couple of times and she pulled away to score by two lengths in the fast time of 1:09 4-5 to equal the track record set by Coiner the early part of the year. Ara Time paid $4.40 and Trejos received one of the greatest ovations ever given a jockey at the border course. Magic Lead was the public choice at forty cents on the dollar. It was a great race. R. C. Ellworth the great California breeder is the owner of the winner while the Presidio Stable owns Magic Lead.

Florida Snaps Southern Win Streak With 33-25 Victory

BRAGG STADIUM, TALLAHASSEE — (Special) — Big, rough 245-pound tackle Sammy "T for Terror" Marshall, of Tampa, ran back an intercepted pass for 88 yards in the fleeting seconds of a hectic grid struggle between the Florida A and M University Rattlers and the Southern University Jaguar Cats to lead the Jake Gaither-coached eleven to a brilliant 33-25 victory before some 8,000 wildly cheering fans here last Saturday afternoon.

Marshall who is rated as Negro football's greatest tackle, raced down the west sidelines behind a screen of blockers to score the touchdowns to clinch the Rattlers second consecutive national championship. Both teams entered the contest with a record of eight wins against no setbacks.

The Jaguar Cats had marched to the A and M four on the powerful running of fullback Bob Dinkins of Shreveport, La., and the passing of quarterback Elridge Mitchell, Memphis. And to the partisan fans it seemed as if Southern would overcome the one point lead held by the Rattlers. After a series of ground plays failed to gain and a five yard penalty was assessed against the Cats, Mitchell elected to pass. This set the stage for Marshall's interception. Al Frazier converted.

MARYLAND CHOSEN NUMBER ONE TEAM

New York-Maryland was undisputed master of college football having knocked Notre Dame off the top spot this week. Maryland, the only undefeated, untied major team in the country, took over first place in the weekly Associated Press Poll of sport writers.

The top 10 (first-place votes and team records in parentheses):

Team	Points

TO OUR PATRONS!!

Effective Dec. 1, 1953, the present 3 tokens for 25c will be discontinued. Tokens will be redeemed by drivers in multiples of three, not to exceed 12 tokens at one time.

We sincerely regret the necessity of this increase. However, increased costs of fuel and fuel taxes, together with other increased cost, now make these changes imperative. In order to continue to render a safe and reliable service to our many patrons it is now necessary that we ask you to recognize the need for these adjustments.

We trust that it will be our pleasure to serve you throughout the years ahead.

Athenians Dance Set For Nov. 26

Many of the city's popular socialites will congregate in the Cosmopolitan Hotel to celebrate Thanksgiving activities with the Athenian Social Club tonight (Thursday) when the club presents its Fifth Annual Thanksgiving Dance. The hours are from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

Music by Phyrom Taylor, Jr., and Combo will be featured in the beautiful Zodiac Room. Vivian Jackson is chairing the affair for this year's big dance.

Assisting her as committee members are Barbara Andrews, Marion Anderson, Harriette Beasley, Willie Esther Martin, Rosalind Bowman, Willie Smith, Yvonne Rhinehart and Betty Jean Taylor.

Attire for the dance will be "After-Five." This affair promises to be one of the season's toppers. Other members of the Athenians are Beatrice Bain, Phyllis Covington, June Denkins, Adrienne Duvernay, Margaret Foster, Georgia Johnson, Peggy Mingleton, Beverly Smith and Phyllis Warren.

ELKS PLAN ANNUAL 'KIDDIE' FESTIVITIES

The completion of the plans for the Elks' Annual Kiddies Party and the distribution of the Yuletide relief dinner are under the competent direction of R. C. Jackson, chairman, and Alvis Johnson, co-chairman of the committee of the Golden West Lodge No. 86. At the last meeting of this committee, a lovely repast was donated by Herman Wells.

— DOLL LEAGUERS CAPTURE SAHARA DESERT —

COLORFUL GAIETY was the motif Doll League Charity Club's annual formal ball held at the Zenda Ballroom Friday. Club members out did themselves using the Sahara Desert as the background of their theme, centered around the Sultan and his dancing harem. Screen star Bill Walker played the roll of the Sultan and 'doll' president, Lula Bendy, shown next to him, played his daughter. More than 2500 people enjoyed one of the top social events of the season. The Nubians were played by Larry King, Bob Hines, Samuel Martin and Paul Thompson. League members who served as dancers were: Fannie De Man, Nellie Brown, Gladyce Clark, Ethel Pickett, Evelyn Royal, Fay Wagner, Ruth Ball, Marguerite Chapman, Louise Collier, Bernice Gilbert, Sydney Jackson, Envolda Morris, Emma Adams, Ann Wheeler, Irene Sharp, Leonore Winkler and Charlotte Bruce. The League collected dolls for their big charity party for needy children which will be held at Lafayette Jr. High school in the near future.

Screen Extras Guild Seeking Young 'Talent'

For the first time in many years, young people who have motion picture ambitions, are for a limited time, to be permitted to join the Screen Extras Guild. This decision was arrived at last week during a meeting at Central Casting Bureau, and the important report turned in by Jasper Weldon, casting agent for Negro extra players acted on.

All Types Considered

Weldon, with his office at 701½ E. 52nd street, has been authorized to accept sufficient applications during the next three weeks to add 25 new members. These will be eligible to work, and be subject to calls as soon as they have become qualified members of the Screen Extras Guild, and in possession of membership cards. One of the reasons for the opening of this valuable opportunity is because most all young members having grown up, the majority of the members are adults, hence for large calls, non-members had to be temporarily used.

Chance of Lifetime

Young men and young women between the ages of 18 and 25 years, who wish to join, can get in touch with Mr. Weldon, AD. 4-4535, or come in person to 701½ E. 52nd street. The applicant will then be sent to the Hollywood offices for confirmation and admittance. There are many pictures in the production plans of most of the studios during the coming year, and prospects for work for colored look good.

To tell you the truth I can't think of a soul I've ever been happier to see after so long a time than eternally ageless Atty. Jack Terry. After all we're only human (they tell us) and at press time all thoughts are on tonight's Black and White formal. This extravaganza staged by the pompous Kappa's should, if reports are correct, be remembered for at least a couple of weeks (average talk lasts about four days).

Speaking of small talk, the AKA's did it up at the Alpha bowling club with a fandango that will soon be forgotten. Don't feel hurt, gals, we're talking about the abundance of junior high school roustabouts that were in attendance. "Anyhooa," it was probably a financial success.

Midnight Ramblings

. . . At the Rubaiyat yee other eve we thought (and wrongly) that it was our duty to help a "much inebriated" former friend of ours to deposit himself into his "shiny new" auto. Much to our surprise the "big-legged woman" sitting behind the wheel, we thought was his wife, wasn't. When we attempted to reconcile our error (calling her the "little woman") she answered by telling us in her petite way, of course, that we were exceptionally obnoxious and, without another word, she drove off into the night.

Postscript: To the interested party, never, never get booted and loose-lipped when you're with that other women, especially that one . . . BOY!

That same night we-un's ran into a great guy who still has enough on the ball to take his wife outf or cocktails. At that same slippery we saw Homer Williams and his spouse, Margi.

SOME OF THE PEOPLE, BUT NOT ALL OF THEM ARE TALKING ABOUT:

Feeling sorry for that AKA from up north who submitted to the unscrupulous charms of a local attorney whose only gift to her is an expanded waist line. She was sidetracked in her efforts to have him do the honorable thing by his also, unscrupulous gal pal, who explained that the best thing for her to do was to catch the "late freight" home. She did.

Seeing soft-spoken and unbroken Rudy Bowen at USC's international festival with beauty, Bernice Wright.

A returnee on the scene, promoter Bobby Reedburg, who tells us that his wifie-to-be is a Bermudian beauty who has appeared in many of the national mags. . . . Wow. . . .

Barbara Mansfield's recent baby shower. . . . Hubby Melvyn is taking a Red Cross child care course. (What's he expecting twins?).

The tummy front, Tommy Keyser's better half, Gwen, was also feted with the usual gifts included in a "showerfull affair."

Appendix-less, Juanita Heard, the love of Fy Taylor's life, who has returned home after a brief interlude with the "doc." . . .

The gal who has always had the male populace guessing (the ones who were interested), Ann Allen has been seen frequently with Air "Forcer" Tommy Sloan. Goody . . . Goody. . . .

Not being able to get together. That semi fabulous RO KA WI club is still debating on the wherefor and when's of their Christmas Hooligan. . . .

That lovely hunk of womanhood, Gwen Peaks, she's staying with the Fink Braxtons . . . poor thing. . . .

Our Authors Study Club Plans '54 History Week Celebration

Looking forward to National Negro History Week, Our Author's Study Club has issued a call for organizations to cooperate in the planning of the annual week.

Mrs. Vassie D. Wright, president and founder of the Club, has just returned from the 38th Annual Meeting of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, which was held in Nashville.

While at the convention Mrs. Wright spoke on "Teaching the History of the Negro to Adults, with Emphasis on the Negro in California.

As the official representative from Los Angeles, Mrs. Wright, who was accompanied by Mrs. Emma Spencer and Mrs. Agnes Jackson, they gave out souvenirs of oranges and poppies from California, while Mrs. Wright read the official resolution from the Los Angeles Supervisors and the official invitation from the Chamber of Commerce to hold the next convention in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Wright was made national director of local branches and clubs.

The Planning Committee of the National Association and Dr. Charles H. Wesley, national president, have instructed all local presidents to follow the plans from the national office.

Dr. Merl Eppse, Head of the History Department at Tennessee State College and member of the Executive Committee, was the general director of the annual meeting.

Dr. John Hope Franklin, of Howard University, was chairman of the program, and presented scholarly programs at each of the sessions.

As a result of the information received, Mrs. Wright has invited all local organizations to cooperate in making the 1954 Negro History Week in Los Angeles a memorable occasion. Organizations interested in obtaining information may do so by calling RE. 6442.

Mrs. Hazel Whitaker Moore is 1954 chairman and Victor Nickerson is the co-chairman. Mrs. Blanche E. Brooks is the secretary.

Don't wait for your demonstration of the new HI-STYLE PLYMOUTH OR THE NEW DRAMATIC DE SOTO, contact me at MAdison 1120, I'll be happy to introduce you to RAY COLE, JOE PALOOKA and WILLIAM LANDCASTER of RENNIE & LAUGHLIN, INC., 1220 E. 7th Street. Their offer is backed by years of satisfactory service to satisfied customers.

Your Opinion Welcomed

Let me hear from you, tell me about what you like to [illegible] Miss Welcome column. Next week I'll have lots to say as my schedule calls for many visits. You may write me at 327 E. Spring Street, Room 426 or call me at MAdison 1120. Have an enjoyable, THANKSGIVING EVERY DAY.

TWO GIRLS AND AN 'EARL'

SOLID SUPPORT is given Earl (Mr. Budweiser) Griffin, by dimpled Dalphine Moore and sexy Vicky Dawson, the two beauties, along with thousands of Californians would like to see Earl handle the public relations job when Anheuser-Busch opens their new Budweiser $40,000,000 plant in Valley San Fernando.

NAACP COCKTAIL DANSANT

COCKTAIL DANSANT, Lillian Montgomery, who heads the Special Activities Committee of the NAACP, gets hearty approval from the jovial group as she explains details of the Sunday afternoon cocktail dansant slated for the swank Beverly Chateau, November 29th.

William Becks Entertain

Dr. and Mrs. William Beck entertained the 'Boni Amici Couple Club and many charming guests Saturday evening in their lovely St. Andrew's home.

The table was beautifully set with fall decorations, and the host and hostess served a delicious dinner.

Drs. G. F. Jackson, A. Williams, and Perry Beal presented to the club a well-planned report, which was accepted by the members. Prizes were won by Dr. and Mrs. Foster, Attorney David Lee, Mrs. Essie Tucker.

The club and its members are looking forward to a Christmas party that is being planned by Mrs. Beck, the party chairman.

specialists say she can shed the cast she's worn since her spectacular accident. H. J.: No, that's the junior edition (Nov. 5th issue)!! Report: Angelique Bratton and her friends may be interested to learn Indian Ambassador's wife Mme. Mehta (recently feted by the former) attended the recent White House reception for foreign envoys.

And Mme. Mehta, in a red and gold sari, wore a ruby necklace which had everybody pop-eyed. She, commenting of her recent trip here, tells friends she has warmest admiration for L.A. women, especially those she met so graciously through Angelique.

Wed. last: Mal Whitfield, his money-making long limbs impeccably tailored as always when he's not flexing them on some world-flung cinder track, striding into the Biltmore Hotel to attend the 2nd annual Bond Club luncheon. Nnless my eyes were tricked by noonday sun glare I do believe Mal has put on weight. He received the Helms Athletic Foundation award from Paul Helms. Mal's sister, Betty Clark, can almost match him for globetrottin' surely.

A note from Bill Crain who lives up S.F. way now. Enterprising Bill is in business for himself, a dealer for advertising specialties, business necessities, etc. Carry on, kid. Ray Mills recuperating by stages from a badly sprained back. The Jackie Robinsons ran into the same unpleasantness house shopping back east that Lena Horne and Lennie Hayton did! Rachel Robinson tells friends its quite hard trying not to be bitter.

Jimmy Clarke rushing (late as usual) to the Phi Beta Sigma Award banquet at the Clark last Frid. stops long enough to tell us he saw Eartha Kitt out Mocambo way. "I'll be eating franks and beans for a month," he sighed happily, "but it was worth it, brother! I Lived, Dad!"

Dec. Calendar: Alice Cunningham birthdays on the 8th; Daisy Brooks on the 29th; Lela Walsh on the 18th; Della McDonald on the 23rd; Velma Orendoff on the 20th and Chappie Bryant on the 15th.

Seeing Ruby and Ernest Shelby at a recent Mon. night party they always impress me as an attractive ideal couple, happily married and well thought of. They have two talented handsome children. They make an interesting well-rounded L.A. family group.

Dining recently with Wesleen Foster (and her ever-sparklin' mother) reminds us again that Wesleen makes an interesting "first" story. She was a staff member in the N.Y. office of BMI music publishers before transferring out here to their Hollywood office. In charge of the amateur music dept. there she's the only tan tone on the staff. Wesleen has wisely resumed her extensive music studies, too. She's another who goes on looking perennially young, keeping in touch with things, etc.

Lenore Winkler: You're SO right. I'm hepped, doll!

Edna and Nick Stewart may be interested to learn a D.C. group hearing of their local successful "No Exit" triumph, put on the vehicle to a packed enthused audience back there. Grady Metoyer, sad after putting his money on SC, took the noon plane home to Oakland Mon. Took it so hard in fact he didn't even go to the after-game party given by that Country Club Dr. couple.

Rough on his hosts. They had dusted off the Steinway vigorously anticipating Grady's promise to do a run-down of songs in his flawless French. More of the Kitt influence, you understand.

Eula Earls Installs Derolocs Officers

The Derolocs Social and Charitable Club met on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Marjorie DeLoney, and Mrs. Eula Earls of the Zenith Club installed newly elected officers. They are: Marjorie DeLoney, president; Ara Parker, vice-president; Versey Hightower, recording secretary; Lucille Seastrong, corresponding secretary; Mildred Curtis, treasurer, and Anna Foster, business manager and reporter.

Sir Debuteers Elect James Lee President

The Sir Debutters Club held its Annual Election of Officers Wednesday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee.

The following members were elected and will assume their duties on December 9th: President, James Lee; vice-president, Clyde Hill; treasurer, Willie Macon; secretary, Nelson Evans; corresponding secretary, Sylvester Atwood; business manager, John Hill; parliamentarian, Robert Spears; historian, Lionel Williams; reporter, Minor Robinson; sergeant-at-arms, Arvid Agnew; sports manager, Miller Lamkin; and Melvin Jeter, Chris Morgan and Harold Washington, members of board of directors.

Diane Club Aids Korean Orphans

DIANE CLUB, pictured above after one of their recent formals, met last week at the home of Mrs. Mae Meyers and bound clothing and goodies for the Korean War Orphans. This was only one of the philanthropies of this hard working and community conscious group for the year. The Diane Club represents some of the most active ladies throughout the city and in their own quiet and unassuming manner, through the brilliant guidance of Celme Elsworth Rose, are an outstanding credit to the community.

ARTHUR ADAMS, goes into the Autum's Record Shop on West Adams Blvd. with a groovy radio show this week. Joe Brooks, topflight publicist, tossed a wild press pawtee for the handsome disc jockey at the Brass Rail announcing his new show originating from the West side record room and all the big record boys were on hand. Spotted Al Sherman from King and Federal, MGM, Victor, Mercury, Allied and Alladin bigwigs. Show is programmed over KRKD nightly from 12 to 4 a.m.

LEGAL EAGLE, had another one of his cases tabled when a certain Bay Area chick showed up knitting booties. He cooly had his gal friend, who isn't knitting at the moment, call on her and informed her that nothing was shaking in the marriage department. Last heard she was boarding a train for Berkeley.

So, lets everybuddy be glad and enjoy a full plate of nourishing food.

ROSE BOWL fever hit more than the Bruins last week. A certain ex-UCLA coed is busy arranging with friends to keep her baby. Her father wired her money for tickets for the Pasadena game and would like to meet some of her instructors while on the coast. She hasn't told him she's married!

FERDINAND WHITE, looted Chicago broker, is among us viisting wifie Charity and his pretty eight-year-old daughter. No doubt slated his trip thinking that Illinois was Rose Bowl bound!

'DANCESATIONAL'

CARMEN DE LAVALLADE, local dancing favorite, is currently starring with the Lester Horton group at the famous Hollywood Dance Theatre. Leona Mosely, the luscious lady who is the intended of thespian Jimmie Edwards, motored into the burg late Sunday night. The gal was so exhausted from her cross-country trip she promptly hit the sack, with a terse "no comment" to newsfolk who sought to interrupt her sweet slumber for a fresh angle on the love life of she and the actor fellow . . . Not since Jo Baker clamped a citizen's arrest on that roisterous, name-calling Texas cattleman in the Biltmore lounge or since local gal Marie Bryant maligned Malan in foggy o' Londontown has a daughter of Ham created as much front page furor as Eartha Kitt. Jaybee received an apology in newsprint from our town at large, and Bryant got palace approval to continue her satire of the South African premiere. Isn't La Kitt due a nod? . . . We've had several phone calls to inquire if the Lomax dame had aroused our feudal instincts as yet. Last week, the 20th Century Herod-is (huh, Abie?) labeled our "No Exit" performance embarrassing. Well, if the "newshen" is embarassed by the loneliness of that tight little island of her opinion, and her face is cherry red, then Lord knows, its only because we tried our frantic best. Party of folks came backstage the other night and quipped that after having duly dug our art and the lady's account ,they felt we had a lot to

Carnival Scene Saturday Nite Is 'Tough Enough'

The Mademoiselle Fashion & Cultural Club, of which MRS. HARRIETT BRANHAM is Business Manager, will operate one of the many amusing carnival booths at the Annual Thanksgiving Ball this Saturday evening, November 28, at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club, the California Legislative Conference, sponsoring organization announced today.

Mrs. Branham is a prominent fashion designer as well as a civic leader. President of the West Coast Educational Forum, Past President of the YWCA Youth Council, Woodlawn Branch, she is also founder of the Club which will participate in the Thanksgiving Bal.

The famous Hall Johnson Choir will appear in concert at the Ball. His program will include 11 musical numbers, three of which will have community singing. A fine dance band will provide the rhythms for the affair which starts at 8:30 p.m.

Admission is $1.50 per person, including tax, and is open to the public.

'KING OF SWING'

'JOE LOUIS' ROCKS another victim to sleep with one of his many devastating 'socks' in the story of his life. The Joe Louis story, currently at the Bill Robinson, starts Saturday at the Lincoln Theatre.

Popular 'Quartet' Drama's Best Bet For Legitimate Set

The Ebony Show Case, which started here a little over a year ago, as a small theater venture, has sprung into national fame during recent weeks with the unanimously acclaimed production, "No Exit."

The play, which is heading into its ninth and final weekend this Friday night, has become the most talked about little theater show in the past decade. Its fame has spread to New York, Washington and wherever theater-lovers gather.

Distinguished Quartet

"No Exit" features a quartet made up of distinguisher actors. The three leads, James Edwards, Maidie Norman and Juanita Moore, are among the most established performers in the field and, in their rendition of the Jean Paul Sartre satire on Hell, combine real artistry and talent to a degree seldom witnessed here.

Chazz Crawford, handsome young actor, who gives every promise of going far in his profession, gives excellent support to the main characters.

New Show Casting

The play is produced by Nick and Edna Stewart, and directed by Norman Budd.

"No Exit" is giving way to a new show, "Three Men on a Horse," which will be opened during the pre-Christmas season. Casting and rehearsals are now in progress.

The week-end shows are scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, at 8:30 p.m., at the theater, located at Washington and Western.

Sports Dance

The Regular Fellows third annual sports dance is planned for Saturday, November 28, 1953, at the Larchmont Hall, 118 N. Larchmont Blvd. Chick Touchstone will provide the music and dancing will get underway at 10 p.m. sharp and last until 2 a.m.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name *Preparation H. The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. *Trade Mark.

NORVA HILL, the pleasant West Jefferson broker, is checking with her doctor and may undergo an operation. Meanwhile she is taking it easy piloting her classy two-toned Pontiac about the city!

GERI NICHOLAS, ex-Fayard wifie, is said to be as close to a popular young lawyer's heart as a wedding band! Friends are saying that the two will be altar bound!

DOLL LEAGUE, tossed their annual ball this year and it was most fabulous. It even brought out Leon Washington and set the stage for what might be the start of a joyous holiday!

DINING OUT, while you are making up your mind, let me suggest that you fellows take the "old lady" out this Thanksgiving and make her happy with "pappy." Winston Von Wertz and Mac Newman's Manhattans will put you in a tasty mood for the Rubaiyat Room's delightful bird! Sam Hudson is offering a delicious meal for the entire family plus dancing at the California Club. Jimmie Harris is beckoning you to 41st and Broadway for his Southern prepared turkey or gumbo and if you're from the Island, they have Sea Food. The Early American Dining Room of the Hotel Cosmopolitan is catering to the Hillcrest crowd and you'll never regret visiting their kitchen on turkey day! Although Horace and Betty Clark are down Le Caribe way, the Magnolia Room is still the home of hospitality and it's tough topping their holiday meals. Dynamite Jackson is offering up special tunes from the talented fingers of Eddie Dudley plus a "bird" as tasty and sweet as one of his tunes. Chubby Johnson, the Town Tavern's big joy boy said, "Thanksgiving and the Tavern are relatives; they just go together," while Dorothy Donegan's Club Morocco boasts of the bird and all the trimmings. Eddie Atkinson's Elbow Bend clan claimed a close kin of the early arrival of the old Quakers so it would be foolish not to drop in, and after this tour Webb's All-Purpose Pharmacy on 47th & Central, to iron out the bread basket.

JOE KING, the young 47th and Central tailor, may have made a few mistakes in his young life but when it comes to cutting a suit or skirt he has no peer!

BERRY BAINES, the westside real estate operator's name is closely related to Paines, which we find him!

SINS, SINS, are catching up with that West Jefferson Tin-Goddess. Not many weeks ago one of her offsprings couldn't stand the moroid household any longer and packed her toys and made off. Last week Junior expressed the opinion that he would like to live until he reaches the ripe old age of 23 and then he would like to die, just to find out what Heaven is like which indicates he has never been around Heavenly surroundings! Mother needs to pay closer attention to what is supposedly hers and leave what she knows not alone, such as putting herself up as Mrs. Tin-Goddess.

HOWARD MOREHEAD, is shooting the pretties for Jets pocket-size magazines on the west coast and Stanley Robertson got sick of his lady boss and joined him to apply the adjectives!

DR. GRADY ORANGE'S cute new receptionist answers to the name of Delores and she's got her future all made up!

CHIEF MARLBROUGH, confirmed the report that he married his pretty model, Anna, several months ago. Friends reported that he owed her so much back wages it was cheaper to marry than to come up with the cash. At any rate they make the nicest couple and his Arlington Avenoo dress shop should do right well with her handling the reins!

EILHU McGEE, Johnny Cornish and Alice Keyes are busier than a Mother with triplets working out details for a Xmas benefit dance, December 20. It calls for a can of food!

SWITCH BOARD, and a well known hotel operator will be asking hubby for a divorce come November 28. She'll claim non-support. This has been hanging fire for years!

JOHN ROBINSON, the culinary expert along Western Avenoo's latest gimmick "Take It and Eat It" is catching on. It's a cafe where you bring what you want cooked and for a slight fee he'll turn you on!

SHOOTING, rumors had it that the pistol packing "redhead" has another man in hand. However, nothing on the line indicates that the westside Sunday night "pawtee" ended up with a shooting as everybody went home happy, sorry to report!

GEORGE PERRY, returned from his Mexico vacation and was handed his walking papers by the Golden State Milk Company. The topflight golfer is making lots as a waiter out Hollywood way!

High Court Urged:

END JIM CROW SCHOOLS

Hearings Opened Monday; Attorney General Joins Foes Of Segregation

WASHINGTON—The eyes of all the world turned toward Washington this week as attorneys on both sides prepared for a show down battle over segregation in public schools. Hearings open Monday in the Supreme Court.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell threw the weight of the federal government behind the NAACP contention that Jim Crow schools violate the Fourteenth Amendment when he filed a brief as a friend of the court in which he asserted that the purpose of the amendment was to "abolish all legal distinctions based on race and color."

The court will hear 11 hours of argument involving segregated grade school laws of South Carolina, Delaware, Kansas, District of Columbia and Deleware.

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP chief counsel, will head a battery of lawyers who told the Court in a lengthy brief filed last week that history demonstrates that the framers of the Amendment intended to outlaw all discriminatory practices. They centered their fire on the "Separate But Equal" doctrine under which the states claim the right to provide separate schools.

In its 240 page brief the NAACP cited congressional debates and statements by the framers of the Amendment to show that all racial segregation denies "equal protection of the law" as guaranteed by that amendment.

The Justice Department joined those who argue that the "separate but equal" doctrine should be set aside when it said in its brief;

"The judicial inquiry, it must be emphasized, is not simply to determine whether there is equality as between schools; the Constitution requires that there be equality as between persons."

The five cases now before the court were argued last December but not decided during the term that ended in June.

LOREN MILLER HELPED PREPARE NAACP BRIEF

Among the lawyers who helped prepare the brief filed by the NAACP in the school cases which will be argued Monday was Loren Miller, head of the NAACP's West Coast legal committee and publisher of the Eagle.

He was one of of more than 150 lawyers and historians who met in New York last month to sift legal and historical material for the Supreme Court argument.

Mass Meet to Close Freedom Seal Drive

The local NAACP branch will close its Freedom Seal Drive with the observance of the re-argument of the five school cases before the U. S. Supreme Court at a mass meeting at Second Baptist Church 3:30 P.M. Sunday, on the eve of this historic battle against racial segregation.

HONORED—The Rev. Atlas Peters, pastor of Victory Baptist church, was praised for his civic contributions by City Council this week. He will be honored a testimonial dinner Saturday. (Story on church page.)

Attorney Joseph Kennedy of San Francisco and president of the Northern California Area NAACP Council, will be principal speaker on a program studded with outstanding local personalities.

Kennedy, himself a distinguished civil rights lawyer, will discuss the significance of a positive or negative decision by the high court. He will also outline the possible program of the NAACP in the event the Supreme Court decides for or against continued racial segregation.

Others scheduled to appear on Sunday's program are: Mrs. Jeanette Ivy and the Mission Chorus of the Morning Star Baptist Church, Rev. B. O. Byrd, minister New Hope Baptist Church, Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, Joseph Richardson and Robert Belton.

More than $3,500 has been taken in to date by the Los Angeles NAACP for the sale of Freedom Seals. All members are requested to send in their contributions before December 6.

Dr. Stratton Exonerated In Abortion

Dr. E. W. Stratton, Jr., prominent local physician, was found not guilty of abortion and conspiracy to commit abortion by Superior Judge Louis Drucker Monday. Dr. Stratton was represented by Attorney Crispus A. Wright.

Dr. Stratton had been charged with aiding and abetting in an abortion performed by Alma Brown, who was found guilty of the charge.

The court said that the evidence was insufficient to convict Dr. Stratton of any crime.

Dr. Stratton testified that Helen St. Julien came into his office last June 26, seeking to get him to perform an abortion and that he refused and charged her $5.00 for her office visit. The girl testified that she had paid Dr. Stratton $135.00, but when the police officers secured his office records, his books showed she had paid him only five dollars.

Reds Try to Stir Revolt, Rosser Says

SAN FRANCISCO — Communists have returned to their 1930 program of promising to establish a separate Negro republic "after the revolution," Louis Rosser, former high ranking Red, told a House investigating committee here this week.

"The Communist party is trying to educate the working people to fight against war and create a situation where if the United States went to war, the Negroes would revolt," Rosser said.

Death Takes Geo. Brown

Death came quietly to pioneer citizen and veteran political leader George Brown, November 27 during his sleep in his home, 9514 Wilmington Avenue. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in St. Martin's Episcopal Church and the body interred in Evergreen Cemetery.

Brown, who came here from his native home of Gelena, Kas. in 1914, entered local political wars almost immediately. He was part of an illustrous political period of Los Angeles. He was a close associate with such leaders as the late J. B. Bass, H. Douglas Green, "Pop" Sanders, John Fowler, Titus Alexander, Fredrick M. Roberts, deceased, and R. G. LaMar, Sr.

The deceased leaves his widow, Mrs. Rosie Brown, a daughter, Mrs. Gwendolyn Smith, two grandsons, Donald and Robert Smith, and four great grandchildren.

Chest Lagging In Local Areas, Funds Sought

"Have you made your Community Chest contribution for the children yet?" Community Chest leaders asked this week.

"Every dollar is welcomed and needed, andeighty cents of each donated dollar goes for the children taken care of in hospitals, clinics, children's homes, through family services, Parent - Teacher Associations, day nuresries and youth organizations such as the Scouts, community houses and settlements," Mrs. Thomas Pinchback said this week.

So far 5334 residents of Upper Western, Jefferson-Adams and Central South Park districts have donated $16,707 towards the $8,754,000 needed to help 164 Red Feather health, welfare and youth services and USO. Only 65 per cent of the area's share of funds needed has been contributed, and approximately 3,000 hoped-fordonations have not as yet been brought in by hard - working neighborhood volunteers.

Children's Needs

Everyone who will help provide for the children's needs is asked to take his contribution, or send it, to one of the nearby Chestheadquarters: 3834 South Western Avenue, REpublic 3-2141, and 4504 South Central Avenue, ADams 3-7104.

"It would be almost impossible to tell our neighbors how greatly their donations are needed," it is stated by Mrs. Pinchback and Mrs. Alva Vistauanet.

"Just let us repeat that by your single contribution, asked once each year in a united appeal of 164 services, you help the homeless child, the hungry one, the sick and crippled little boy or girl. You provide decent supervised recreation for youngsters who might run wild, and for our service men and women wherever they are stationed.

"Make a gift for our neighbors in trouble, their children and our community. Let us do our share to take care of our own."

NAACP Will Elect Officers At Dec. 13 Meet

Following the report of the nominating committee last Sunday, it was announced by Irving Foster that the annual meeting and election of the Los Angeles Branch NAACP will be held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 13, at Second Baptist Church, 24th and Griffith Streets. Dr. E. I. Robinson will head the list of nominees.

All members in good standing 30 days prior to the above date are eligible to vote and run for office, according to Mr. Foster. The following slate of candidates will be submitted to the membership from which to make their choice of officers for 1954:

Police Chief Sued For False Arrest

Postal Clerk Asks Damages For Jailing

Chief of Police William S. Parker, Newton Division Police Captain Charles Mesloh and Detectives Keapon Soderman and Robert Conrad, were named as defendants in suit for damages filed through the law offices of H. Leonard Richardson here Wednesday on behalf of Richard S. Aubrey.

Aubrey, a postal employee and part time newspaperman, charges in his complaint that he was stopped, commanded to get out of his automobile, searched, handcuffed and carted off to jail by Dets. Soderman and Conrad last October 5 without any apparent cause.

The young man who enjoys a fine reputation for his work with youth groups throughout the city, asserts that he was driving along Central avenue in the 4300 block when one of the officers called to him, "Whosecar is that, boy?" He answered that it belonged to him and produced credentials to prove it.

Taken to Jail

Aubrey said he inquired of the officers why they had stopped him. One replied, he said, "It's none of your business." The complaint stated the officers aske me "to remove my coat." "They then examined my arm discovering an inch-long scar." The complaint further stated one of the officers remarked, "You are a hype." They then handcuffed the complainant and took him to jail.

According to the complaint, Aubrey had protested to the police officers that he was a newspaperman and produced a card issued by the police department approved by the chief of police to weekly newspaper reporters. Aubrey states he called several persons attracted to the scene, including news-

Air Force Urged to Halt Backing Jim Crow Rule

WASHINGTON — Through Clarence Mitchell, director of its Washington bureau, the NAACP has appealed to Harold E. Talbott, Secretary of the Air Force, to stop Air Force commanders from reprimanding and suspending Negro officers who refuse to abide by local segregation statutes while in interstate travel.

These statutes, Mitchell pointed out, have been invalidated by a Supreme Court ruling as applied to interstate passengers. Nevertheless, he charged, top officials of the Air Force are seeking to compel Negro servicemen and officers to comply with these unconstitutional laws.

The NAACP official cited the case of Lieutenant Thomas Williams, a pilot in training at the Craig Air Base in Alabama, who, last summer, was arrested by local police in Florida and reprimanded by his superior officer in the Air Force because he refused to moved to the Jim Crow section of a bus while en route from Florida to Alabama. Later he was dropped from the service.

Named by Mr. Mitchell as supporters of this Jim Crow policy were James P. Goode, deputy assistant Air Force Secretary; Major General James F. Powell of Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.; and Colonel John H. Bundy, commander at the Craig base. Colonel Bundy, he charged, was the chief advocate of dropping Lieutenant Williams from the Air oFrce.

"Lieutenant Williams," Colonel Bundy reported, "openly admitted and adamantly maintained the opinion that he did not, and would not, accept the southern states' policy with reference to racial segregation. He further stated that he did not feel obligated to obey the laws with reference to racial segregation when off the base, because he felt they were unconstitutional."

In reprimanding a Negro officer, General Powell said: "Your open violation of the segregation policy established by this railroad company and the State of Alabama is indicative of extremely poor judgment on your part and reflects unfavorably on your qualifications as a commissioned officer."

Special Prayers Sunday For School Victory

CHICAGO—In a one-day Meeting in the Carter Temple C.M.E. Church, the Executive Committee unanimously adopted a recommendation presented by the Executive Secretary, George W. Lucas, Dayton, Ohio, that the member churches of the Council be asked to observe a special day of Prayer on Sunday, preceding the legal argument before the Supreme Court for the elimination of segregation in Public Schools throughout the South.

"The decision of the Supreme Court Justices will be one of the most momentous in the history of our Nation. The full emancipation of Negro people, the help of our democracy at home, and our moral influence abroad are at stake. Southern Governors have already issued threats to defy the decision of the Court if they rule in favor of abolishing segregation. Sadly, some of our Negro leaders are coinciding with the efforts of prejudiced whites to forestall integration in our Public School System. A favorable verdict from the Court will only mark the beginning of the arduous task of accomplishing the goal of non-segregated schools in a non-segregated Society," the Council said in a prepared statement.

"Men who are stubborn in their backward opinion must be converted to the necessity and propriety of practicing full democracy within the bounds of our Nation. Fearful and selfish people of color must be enlightened and motivated to follow the line of progress whatever the cost. Our churches have a tremendous responsibility in this connection.

"Let us pray that God will guide the nine men of the Court to decide in favor of justice and equity and the purpose of God and that He will guide our Nation in reverence and humility to conform to His pattern of freedom for all the children of men."

'He Shouldn't Have Hit Me,' Killer Pleads

"He shouldn't have slapped me."

That was the explanation offered by Roosevelt Hamilton, 10330 Gorman street, when police arrested him last Thursday for the Thanksgiving morning killing of A. J. Anderson, a transient friend.

The pair were indulging in a playful argument over a bottle of vodka in a South Los Angeles liquor store when the bottle dropped and broke.

The angered Anderson slapped Hamilton twice, witnesses said, and Anderson left the store vowing that he would "get even."

Returns With Gun

Just when everybody thought the fracas was at an end, Anderson returned brandishing a .45 caliber automatic revolver anr shot his former friend twice. Death was almost instaneous, police officers said. Hamilton left before police could be called but his freedom was short lived.

Officers went to the drunk files and secured his address. They found him calmly awaiting them at his home when they went there seeking him.

The 45 year old Hamilton was jailed and charged with suspicion of murder by 77th Street police officers.

Police files showed that he had a long record of arrests for drunk.

'Bad Man' Held In Stabbing

Described by police as a "bad man with a knife," Hiawatha Cook, a habitue of the sidewalk along Graham Avenue between 102nd and 103rd Street in the Watts-South Los Angeles area, was arrested last November 25 on charges of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm.

Cook was jailed by detectives from the 77th Division Police after allegedly stabbing Willie G. Collins, of 9537 Bandore Street, nine times with a knife. The victim was taken to General Hospital in a critical condition.

On November 3, Det. Sgt. Vann said, the suspect Cook had stabbed another victim, Abe Williams, of 124½ E. 103rd Street. Williams is still in the hospital. Monday, Det. Vann filed felony charges against the "bad man."

School Case Hearing Monday

ment during the current term, the court asked all parties involved, including the Federal Government, to discuss in briefs and in oral arguments five specific questions. Lawyers representing Negroes, who are appealing lower court recisions upholding the constiutionality of segregation, filed their brief Nov. 9. Delaware also filed its answers to the court's questions on that date.

Fifty-two pages of the 188-page brief were devoted to a review of debates in Congress when the Fourteenth Amendment and related proposals had been up for discussion. Names that flashed in the news during the Reconstruction Era studded the Justice Department's document.

Among them was Henry J. Raymond, publisher of The New York Times, who then was a member of the House of Representatives. Mr. Raymond had voted twice against civil right measures that, the brief asserted, embodied the same principle as the proposed amendment, but said he would support the amendment because he was "heartily in favor of the main object" it was intended to achieve.

Although the Congressional debates made scant mention of school segregation the Justice Department concluded that it was the clear intent of the legislators that Fourteenth Amendment would acomplish its abolition. In this, the Government supported the position taken by lawyers for Negro gdoups.

In five cases pending before the High Court, segregation in the public schools has been attacked as unconstitutional under the fourteenth Amendment. The cases come from South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Thirteen other states require segregation of Negro and white pupils in public schools, and three others permit it.

Harold Gaines' Services Held

Harold Wesley Gaines, 2116 W. Twenty-ninth Street, who died here suddenly Nov. 28 when seized with an evident heart attack, was buried Wednesday in Evergreen Cemetery. Services were held at Peoples Funeral Home.

The deceased was the uncle of Attorney Ivan J. and Mrs. Dorothy Vena Johnson. Others who survive him are James Gaines of Denver, and William Gaines, Topeka, Kas., brothers, Mrs. Ethel Mae Greer, a niece, and Lathean Johnson, another nephew.

Pasadena Hit For Jim Crow School Plan

A long heralded attack on what residents of Pasadena charge is a deliberate scheme to establish segregated schools, will open Saturday morning when school officials and Board of Education members are questioned by Attorney Charles B. Johnson.

What Johnson, who represents the Pasadena NAACP, wants to know is how Pasadena's neutral zone and free transfer plans operate and why they have resulted in segragation of Negro and Mexican pupils in particular schools.

In a petition filed last week, Dr. I. B. English asked for and received court permission for his attorney to question the officials in order to "perpetuate their testimony." He explained in the petition that he proposes to attack the neutral zone and free transfer rules and asserted that the evidence is necessary in order to conduct the suit he proposes to file.

Under direct attack is a situation involving the Garfield and Arroyo Seco schools. The Garfield zone is labeled a "neutral zone" and pupils living there are free to attend any school in the city. Approximately 160 of the white pupils in the district attend the neighboring Arroyo school which is overcrowded and at which half-day sessions are held, Dr. English charges.

However, he asserts, the Garfield school, which can accommodate 400 pupils, is only two-thirds filled because of the transfer system. Pasadena now proposes to spend some $20,000 on additions to the Arroyo school and the suit will charge that this is a waste of taxpayers' money.

Old Age Aid Forum Topic

A qualified speaker from the Los Angeles headquarters of the California Institute of Social Welfare will discuss the $100.00 a month pension for the needy, aged and blind of California, at a meeting to be held at the Legion Hall, 1428 17th Street, Santa Monica, Monday, 1:30 p.m., according to Eugene Allen, spokesman for the Institute.

George McLain, Chairman of the Institute, has launched a campaign to place on the November, 1954, general electoin ballot, a pension measure calling for $100.00 a month, with no other provisions.

The speaker will tell of plans now formulated to circulate the petitions, starting January 18, to secure the 303,687 valid signatures of registered voters required by state law to qualify the measure on the ballot.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends and members of the Institute, and this meeting is free and open to the general public.

paper people, to identify him. He said they did, but to no avail.

At Newton station, Aubrey called Captain Mesloh to check the charges and arrest. He was not booked as a narcotic suspect. In handcuffing their prisoner, the officers are said to have pulled the bracelets so mans circulation. The suit tight as to interfere with the filed by Attorney Richardson giving motif, presented by the each of the defendants for mental suffering, humiliation of mind, shame and public ridicule.

Work preliminary to actual construction of the Crenshaw Boulevard storm drain is now more than two months ahead of schedule, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported this week.

Justice Dept. Says Jim Crow Invalid

Answering Supreme Court inquiries as to the historical intent of the framers of the Fourteenth Amendment, the Department of Justice advanced these propositions in its brief filed last week:

"That the primary and pervasive purpose of the Fourteenth Amendment, as is shown by its history and as has repeatedly been declared by this court, was to secure for Negroes full and complete equality before the law and to abolish all legal distinctions based on race or color.

"... the legislative history of the amendment in Congress is not conclusive.

"That the available materials relatng to ratification proceedings in the various state Legislatures are too scanty and incomplete, and the specific references to school segregation too few and scattered, to justify any definite conclusion as to the existence of a general understanding in such Legislatures as to the effect which the amendment would have on school segregation.

"That it is within the judicial power to direct such relief as will be effective and just in eliminating segregated school systems.

"That if the Court holds that laws providing for separate schools for white and colored children are unconstitutional, it should remand the instant cases to the lower courts with directions to carry out the court's decision as expeditiously as the particular circumstances permit."

James P. McGranery, former Attorney General, filed a brief for the Government last December in which he took the position that segregation in the schools should be abolished and the "doctrine of separate but equal should now be discarded as a negation of rights secured by the Constitution."

McGranery's Position Upheld

It was emphasized at the Justice Department that today's brief did not in any way disturb that position.

PROSTATE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27. Prostate cancer kills more men over 65 years of age than any other form of cancer, says noted urologist at a recent convention.

He further stated prostate cancer was caused by the "massive release of male sex hormones into the blood stream" and stressed that its victims are primarily men past 40.

URGES EXAMINATIONS

"Prostate cancer is one of the most simple diseases to diagnose and could be cured if detected early enough," said this noted specialist. He further states, "That is why I urge every man past 40 to take a rectal examination twice or at least once a year."

NOTE: Personally, I do not treat cancer, tumors, or malignancies.—Brinkley.

INFLAMMATION OF THE PROSTATE: Prostatitis may be acute or chronic. Both forms are usually due to gonococcal infection, also from lifting or straining. The acute form is part of an acute posterior urethritis. It is usually mild in type, but some abscesses may be formed, and occasionally there is extensive suppuration. In chronic prostatitis foci of chronic inflammatory cells are scattered through the glands with varying degrees of fibrosis. The prostate is hard and may be larger or smaller than normal, depending on the amount of scarring which has taken place. In these chronic cases there is often a mixed infection with Bacillus coli, staphylococci, etc.

EFFECTS: Enlargement of the prostate is usually unaccompanied by symptoms. The symptoms, when present, are due entirely to the position of the gland at the urinary outlet. The effects are left on the urethra, the bladder and the kidneys. (1) The prostatic urethra may be elongated, compressed to a mere slit and rendered tortuous. This is the most important cause of obstruction. (2) The bladder cannot be completely emptied because the urinary outlet is lifted up above the surrounding floor and the enlarged middle lobe may exert a ball-valve action. Moreover, the vesical sphincter is rendered incompetent during beginning contraction through being stretched by the middle lobe which grows up from the floor of the urethra. There is, therefore, a constant dribbling of urine, and yet the bladder is never empty. The residual urine is readily infected and cystitis results. The bladder becomes the wall a ribbed appearance. Later, there is dilation, with pouching of the well between the bands producing false diverticula. Owing to the cystitis and the stagnation of urine, phosphatic calculi are often formed in the bladder. (3) The kidneys suffer because of the obstruction and infection. The ureter and renal pelvis on both sides are dilated, so that hydronephrosis is produced. Infection ascends the dilated ureters, and causes pyelonephritis and pyonephrosis. Renal insufficiency now declares itself, nonprotein nitrogen is retained i nthe blood and the patient dies of uremia. The back-pressure on the kidney is associated with arterial hypertension, veen though the kidney damage is only slight. When drainage of the bladder is established, there is a marked fall in the systolic blood-pressure within forty-eight hours. hypertrophied in its efforts to overcome the obstruction, and the thick bands of muscle give which may prevent the development of later, more serious conditions, such as hardening of the arteries, Bright's Disease, with albumen and casts in the urine, or apoplexy with paralysis. Grave symptoms of autointoxication do not appear until after the mechanism of the body, through which nature deals with poisons, destroying and eliminating them, has broken down and failed to accomplish its purpose as a result of the overwhelming amount of work which has been thrown upon it. Hence, the appearance of symptoms of autointoxication indicates that the body has already become crippled and that the matter must receive serious and immediate attention."

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

HERE IS PROOF:

Profits Death: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experiences with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in netrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of them died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

GLAND FAILURE

INABILITY TO REPRODUCE, OLD AGE, HORMONES, TESTOSTERONES, ESTRADIOL: Men and women suffering from premature old age should understand the cause. The testes or MALE sex glands are two glandular bodies in the scrotum of the male which produce at least one hormone, known as testosterone. Usually this hormone is produced in significant amounts as a boy nears puberty. Evidence of testosterone is found in body tissue and is largely responsible for muscular development. It governs the vocal cords, which become longer and the voice takes on a lower pitch. It stimulates the growth of hair on the face and body. Mental and emotional life is also affected by testosterone. The hormone leads to the growth of the prostate gland which is the contributing sex organ is the male. The prostate gland secretes a mucus-like substance which transmits the semen permitting the spermatozoa to live and reach extrusion. The prostate gland often becomes enlarged in men, causing difficulty in starting urination, frequent urination and dribbling. If urine does not flow freely and naturally, infection arises and destruction of kidney tissue follows. The blood is enervated with wastes resulting in uremia.

The liver plays a vital role in the complex physiology of reproduction. Research shows that sterility often results from liver damage due to various causes, including excess of alcohol.

OLD AGE

"Metchnikoff has clearly shown that putrefaction germs are the cause of early degeneracyl, premature old age and death. These germs produce most virulent poisons, many of which resemble the venom of snakes, and when present in the feces in large numbers, they are certain proof of the existence of chronic autointoxication, even though the autointoxication have not yet appeared. A coated tongue, a sallow complexion, dark circles around the eyes, appearance of brown spots, offensive breath and perspiration, the discharge of foul smelling gases from the bowels, putrid stools, a thin inelastic parchment-like skin, dullness of mind, inability to concentrate the mind, mental irritability or depression without cause, cold hands and feet, perspiration of the hands and feet, chronic headaches, attack of blindness or vivid headaches—these and a score of other symptoms are certain indications of chronic poisoning, prompt attention to

"EXPERTS IN AUTOPSY state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stovepipe."

Eminent medical authorites state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems—in fact, practically all the ills of mankind.

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood might be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distention or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found past inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication.

NOTE: (Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors, or malignancies.)—Brinkley.

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

Director Aids Scholar Fund

The Hattie McDaniel Dramatic Memorial Scholarship Fund of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Educational Extension Clubs of California, was substantially increased by the recent contribution of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKnight of Beverly Hills.

McKnight originally produced the radio and television "Beulah Show" which starred the late Miss McDaniel, and is currently producing the television series of "The Life of Riley."

According to Ruby Berkley Goodwin, president of the Los Angeles Chapter, the aim of the Educational Extension Club is to award one or more dramatic scholarships of $300 to young women during 1954 in commemoration of Hattie McDaniel's contribution to the field of dramatic art.

WHY WE GET SICK

THESE ARTICLES ARE REPRINTED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE READERS OF THIS PAPER. Specialists accuse large intestine as breeding ground of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH, and say constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems.

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsies state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such s worms and decades old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said, 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS'."

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, M.D., founder of Battle Creek Sanitarium, world famous authority, says:

"IN THE LAST TWO FEET OF THE COLON is found the seat of the most destructive blockade that has ever opposed human progress.

"One bowel movement a day is very marked constipation.

"Normal bowel action is at least three full evacuations daily.

"Metchnikoff has clearly shown that putrefaction germs are the cause of early degeneracy, premature old age and death. These germs produce most virulent poisons, many of which resemble the venom of snakes, and when present in the feces in large numbers, they are certain proof of the existence of chronic autointoxication even though the characteristic symptoms of autointoxication have not yet appeared. A coated tongue, a sallow complexion, dark circles around the eyes, appearance of brown spots upon the hands or other parts, the so-called liver spots, offensive breath and perspiration, the discharge of foul smelling gases from the bowels, putrid stools, a thin, inelastic parchment-like skin, dullness of mind, inability to concentrate the mind, mental irritability or depression without cause, cold hands and feet, perspiration of the hands and feet, chronic headaches, attacks of migraine or sick headaches — these and a score of other symptoms which might be mentioned are certain indications of chronic poisoning, prompt attention to which may prevent the development of later, more serious conditions, such as hardening of the arteries, Bright's Disease, with albumin and casts in the urine, or apoplexy with paralysis. Grave symptoms of autointoxication do not appear until after the mechanism of the body, through which nature deals with poisons, destroying and eliminating them, has broken down and failed to acomplish its purpose as a result of the overwhelming amount of work which has been thrown upon it. Hence, the appearance of symptoms of autointoxication indicates that the body has already become crippled and that the matter must receive serious and immediate atention."

Medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems —in fact, practically all ills of mankind.

One well known M.D., recognized as a cancer specialist, says: "It was only necessary to interview a large number of cancer patients to ascertain the fact that a toxic state exists before the cancer growth comes. Some patients complain of persistent severe headaches, neuritis, dizziness, spells of transient blindness and the loss of balance or mental vigor for as long as twenty years before the growth is found. In many cases toxic (inward) goitre, pigmentation changes, vascular disease, diabetes, indigestion, colitis, gastric ulcer, muscular weakness or even muscular atrophy interfere with correct health until the growth comes."

"In a great many people, the presence of the poison can be recognized by certain symptoms or tissue changes. In those where the development of the poison is slow or its absorption, especially from the large intestine, is moderate over a long period, the nervous system may show its effects, thus dizziness, sudden and periodic loss of muscle control, neuritis, or other chronic complaints may be the warning symptom. If the toxin is absorbed in higher concentration and in one with sufficient cerebral disadvantage, so serious a condition as insanity or blindness may announce its presence."

"In some people, structural tissue changes follow its action, thus obliterative vascular disease, arteriosclerosis, psoriasis, arthritis deformants, gastric ulcer, exophthalmic (inward) goiter, diabetes, and Addison's disease result directly from its action and, in others, the tendency to develop other infections like tuberculosis can be traced to the cancer causing poison. The absolute correctness of these statements is proven by the cures of all these conditions, obtained by removing the cancer poison from those suffering from these diseases."

"Some of these conditions may persist for years before the cancer growth comes; and it locates at a point where circulatory injury has been sustained, whether from a blow, an operation injury, a muscle spasm or a scar following a disease process."

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distension or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication. (Note: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors or malignancies. —Brinkley.)

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

Constipation is the common sense explanation of "the true cause of disease," say outstanding authorities. Here is a simple, inexpensive method of treatment, that has been eminently successful, in thousands of cases in removing that which causes toxins from the large intestine. Endorsed by outstanding medical authority. Read carefully, reason for yourself. Don't take my word for anything. You may now obtain relief of constipation in 20 minutes. YES, I SAID 20 MINUTES.

Editorial

Home Grown Jim Crow

We hope the editorial writers down at the Daily News and Fire Chief John A. Alderson read the front pages of that newspaper. If they do they will discover that the attorney general of the United States thinks the Fourteenth Amendment was enacted to abolish all racial segregation by governmental authority.

If the attorney general is correct, and we are sure that he is, then Chief Alderson is wrong in maintaining his Jim Crow policy in the Los Angeles fire department. More than that, the Daily News editorial writer who apologized so handsomely for the chief's segregatory policy in the fire department is equally wrong.

In its editorial of two weeks ago, the Daily News condoned racial segregation in the fire department in an editorial that was filled with errors and half truths—errors and half truths obviously inspired, probably furnished, by Chief Alderson.

The pretence in the editorial was that Anderson's Jim Crow policy had not resulted in discrimination. The truth is, of course, that discrimination inevitably trails in the wake of segregation. That is so because no Negro fireman is judged solely on the basis of his ability as he has a right to be. His right to transfer, his right to promotion, his right to serve on the basis of his ability depend on whether or not there is a "place' for him—a place dependent on his race and color.

Laying aside the question of whether or not there is discrimination the fact remains that segregation in and of itself is violative of the federal and state constitutions and does violence to the public policy of this state.

And neither Chief Alderson nor the Daily News can deny that there is racial segregation in the fire department. The Daily News admitted that fact when it said "there are five Negro fire companies in two stations on Central Avenue." As long as "Negro fire companies" exist the law is being violated and the constitutional rights of firemen who happen to be Negroes are being violated.

One of the oddities of the whole matter is that these things have been repeatedly called to the attention of the Daily News. The errors and inaccuracies in its editorials have been called to the attention of Lee Payne, its managing editor. But the spate of letters, telephone calls and protests have gon unanswered. Mr. Payne won't budge from his position or correct this error.

The Daily News has been forthright and honest on this issue of racial segregation in the past. It is discouraging to see it back track in this particular instance.

We are certain of one thing: racial segregation in the fire department is on its last legs. Either the Fire Commission and the chief must end it voluntarily or they are going to have to bow to the edict of our courts. We think it would be far better for all of us to have the department end Jim Crow practices voluntarily than to stir up more of the ill feeings that inevitably attends litigation.

The plain, simple truth about Jim Crow is that it is as objectionable in the Los Angeles fire department as it is in the public schools of South Carolina. And both of them must go.

Beginning Of The End

The government joined the list of opponents of grade school segregation when the Department of Justice filed a brief last week asking the Supreme Court to hold that Jim Crow schools violate the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment.

In essence the brief is a mere affirmation of the claims advanced by the NAACP, claims founded on the solid argument that the framers of the Amendment intended to strike down every vestige of state supported segregation and discrimination in every phase of governmental activity.

As was to be expected, the filing of the brief has raised a mighty howl from the likes of Governor Eugene Talmadge. These Dixiecrats rushed into print to reiterate their old and outworn argument to the effect that the South won't accept a decision outlawing the Jim Crow system. That claim is nonsense.

Predictions of disaster, bloodshed and worse have been voiced every time the high tribunal has heard a case involving overthrow of old racial barriers. The same claims were made in reference to the voting cases, the dining car cases and the professional school litigation. Contrary to these claims the South has taken each of the decisions in stride and there has been no violence or bloodshed.

While we are lauding Attorney General Brownell for the brief he has filed it is worth remembering that the practice of throwing the weight of government against discriminatory practices in Supreme Court cases was originated by the Truman administration. Attorney General Tom Clark, now a supreme court justice, set the precedent when he filed a brief in the restrictive covenant cases. He took a further step when he directed the solicitor general to appear and argue against judicial enforcement of covenants.

The eyes of the world will turn toward the Supreme Court next Monday when the school cases are argued by NAACP attorneys. We are as certain as can be that the Court will heed these arguments and undo the untold mischief that has flowed from former decisions permitting segregation in public facilities. We think that the end of Jim Crow is in sight.

Raise Their Salaries

We agree with police officers and fire men that they deserve a raise in pay to meet rising living costs.

That same kind of a pay increase is long over due for other city employes.

We can't understand how Mayor Poulson thinks that Los Angeles can attract the kind of employes it needs or keep those it has unless it pays them enough to make ends meet.

It isn't any secret that the cost of living has been creeping upward for the past few years and that civil service salaries haven't kept pace with that advance.

The kind of economy that dictates keeping civil service wages at low levels is a false kind of saving that will cost all of us very dearly in the long run.

It is a rare week that the police department doesn't issue an appeal for young, alert and intelligent officers. There is no lack of men who want that kind of employment but all too many of them feel that they can't make the sacrifice that is entailed at present salaries.

We hope that civil service employes continue to press their case and we think that they deserve the support of all those who want good service from public servants.

Chest Needs Your Help

For some reason or another this community is lagging behind in the current Community Chest drive.

As we went to press our quota was only sixty five per cent filled and the Chest drive is entering the home stretch.

We are willing to admit that living costs are pretty high these days and that there isn't much to spare after food, clothing and shelter needs have been met. However the fact remains that most of us can give something.

The thing that is needed to put the Chest over the top is a flood of small gifts. Won't you give what you can? And do it today to help your neighbor who is less fortunate than you are.

Battleaxe and Bread

OKLAHOMA CITY — Yesterday (November 20) I passed through Guthrie, Oklahoma, en route to this city from stops at Tulsa and Langston University.

Lester Granger

In Tulsa a combination of ths colored Chamber of Commerce and the Masonic Grand Lodge is backing an Urban League project — an effort to widen employment opportunities for Negroes in that rigidly segregated oil center.

It's a first-class effort, for Tulsa has for over 30 years maintained an unenvialble reputation as the "most tightly restricted city in America" so far as racial segregation is concerned. It started after the tragic race riot in Tulsa immediately following World War I. The whole Negro business area was burned down. Dozens of comfortable residences went the same way. A number of Negroes were killed, together with some whites. ("Not enough white folks," a veteran businessman declared grimly yesterday, in talking about that tragic riot.)

In the wake of the riot a thoroughly ashamed community began picking up the broken pieces of community living. The reconstruction job was as wrong as it could have been. In an effort to ward off chances of another riot, the powers-that-were elected to set up two separated communities, one white and the other colored. Most folks didn't notice, at first, how serious was the error. Colored businesses of the sort that feed on segregation flourished mightily. A fake prosperity was advertised abroad as an example of Tulsan initiative. Few people recognized that this pattern might nourish a certain kind of business but was bound to starve Negro workers seeking industrial opportunity in a growing indutry center.

Tulsa was the oil industry's capital. Northern financiers poured money into local operations. Today there are 650 oil "companies" in town, even though most of these are one-man-one-well outfits. There are about 10,000 production workers in Tulsa's oil industry. Less than 300 of these are Negroes, though their race comprises a sixth of the city's population. That's what Jim Crow, rigidly enforced in economic affairs for thirty years, has done to Negroes in Tulsa.

Now colored Tulsans are beginning the long, hard road back. They have had their "don't spend your money where you can't find work" campaigns. They have "protested" against hiring practices of companies depending upon local patronage. They have gotten a few jobs this way. But all these activities were only skirmish efforts. The big battle was waiting in the oil industry—for as long as Negroes were excluded from this principal Tulsa industry, there would be no solid, permanent employment bases for their community. So they called in the Urban League, and hired Marion M. Taylor away from the Omaha League to head the job-finding project.

After seven months the Project is just beginning to report results. The first break with a major oil firm (Skelly) was reported at a public meeting two days ago. Another company has announced that it will hire Negro chemists. The Mayor and the fire chief have promised to hire Negro firemen. Tulsa is still Tulsa, but it's beginning to change around the edges. And the heartening aspect of a movement like this is, the farther it progresses the faster it moves and the harder it resists efforts to stop it.

Three years ago, when I stopped in Tulsa to talk Urban League to a civic group, there were a bare dozen to hear me. Two days ago when I addressed that public meeting, there were nearly three hundred, including the original dozen, in spite of an all-day drenching rainstorm. Somehow, I have the feeling Tulsa knows the score now, and that there is no danger of success for any turn-back-the-clock effort.

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

Was Thanksgiving for you merely a day of feast, or was it a meaningful experience where you paused to consider your blessings and give some expression of thanks?

For forty-five Indian boys and girls from the Phoenix Indian School in Phoenix, Arizona it was Thanksgiving Christmas and the 4th of July all rolled into one glorious holiday.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

And for an equal number of American youngsters of other backgrounds—Japanese, Mexican, Negro and Anglo—Protestants, Catholics and Jews, citizens of "Anytown, U.S.A.," it was another opportunity to put into practice the concept of the Brotherhood of Man based on the Fatherhood of God which they had come to know an understand more fully as a result of their recent camping experience.

"Anytown, U.S.A." is an inter-cultural camp conducted by the National Conference of Christians and Jews at Idyllwild Pines, California.

There each summer a group of Jr. and Senior High school youngsters from various backgrounds gather to participate in a camping experience with a purpose-true education for democratic citizenship. Based upon the plan of a model American city, the youngsters form a complete city government consisting of Mayor, Council, educational and social welfare agencies, law enforcement and court systems. They explore the real privileges and responsibilities of citizenship, develop an appreciation of their fellowman, and formulate definite understanding of what makes good human relationships.

As a result of their rich experience, they decided to share ideas and cultures with others and the first choice was the group of Indian students from Arizona who come from various tribes throughout the state to school in Phoenix. For these boys and girls who lived their entire lives in Indian villages, many of whom had not seen a large modern city, and none of them had been farther away from home or school than Phoenix, a trip to Los Angeles would be an everlasting thrill.

They arrived by bus on Wednesday and stopped first at the City Hall where they were personally greeted by Mayor Norris Poulson.

Thus began a whirlwind of experiences which included seeing the city from the 25th floor of the City Hall, trips to the beach, the pier and fun zone, airplane rides, tours of Chinatown, Olvera Street, Radio and T.V. shows, a giant festival of singing and dancing as they gathered at a playground in Hollywood. All this was in addition to the warm family experience resulting from each of the "Anytowners" taking one or more of the Indian youngsters home to live during the holiday visit. Saturday morning found these young people gathered in front of the City Hall again reluctantly saying goodbye, but bursting with pride and joy for what had to them been their happiest Thanksgiving.

The experiment of such a camp as Anytown is of real importance to the police department.

The tangible relationship is seen in the participation of officer Julio Gonzales as a Counselor.

Of equal importance is the support given by such groups as The Southside Neighborhood Council, The Loyola Human Relations Workshop, The L.A. County Conference on Community Relations with which officers Hayward Carter, Ed Henry, Lt. Peter Hagan, Capt. Gilbert Gilmore and other members of L.A.P.D. function as part of a cooperative community spirit.

The department sees in such programs positive steps toward coping with problems of intergroup tensions and conflicts which affect the social and moral health of the community, and ultimately determine the need for police services.

One Man's Opinion

By LEON STEWARD

CAN WE RAISE CHILDREN NOW?

Rearing children appears always to have been a real task. Therefore it would not appear strange in this day of confusion, new gadgets and ultra-busy parents to be confronted with juvenile delinquency. Nevertheless, we wish at this time to tell of some of the parents we have observed right here in Los Angeles in the hope that you will find the answer to the problem of doing a good job right here in Los Angeles.

Leon Steward

We have same friends who for a number of years have lived only a half block from the Nigh Club neighborhood of Central Avenue. This was during the growing up perio dof their several children. There are no finer girls anywhere than are theirs. One is attending high school and one entered college this Fall. We visited that home many times but never ran into any concern for any child's misbehavior at any time. How did they do it? We are not sure thatwe have all of the answers but we will give you a few items which we picked up from time to time.

Mother in the Home

Our first observation was that the mother was always in the home evincing interest in her family of four children, a boy and three girls. She gave the oldest girl music lessons. She usedto tell us that she had had an inteset in sewing since she was a girl. Nobody taught her but she said she learned to "love to sew." Thus she loved to sew for her children. They always looked nice. She also insisted upon their being in Sunday School every Sunday. She and her husband can be counted on for beoing in church as the Sundays pass. He is a very pleasant person, an electrician by trade and an officer in his church. But these people have never had any kind of trouble brought to them by their children. And the children love to stay at home. Very recently the family followed the pattern of many by moving on the west side. And yet no trouble from the children.

Not long ago we had an occasion to visit a man on the west side. The friends who were with us insisted that we be shown his garage. What a garage! It revealed many hours of patient planning and building. The man was a postal employee. He had two boys and a girl. He had time to do just what many others did but he invested his time in the welfare of those three children. He is now a happy grandfather and the garage is left to tell the secret of his ahppiness. While the boys were to small they could only watch their dad work and with all the admiration of their little souls. Later they could participate a little at first and then a lot.

THAT UNIQUE GARAGE

The garage and its environs were something to behold. In its center was a billiards table. At the far end is a rustice fireplace. And by moving panels of the walls one can find a radio, a television, a record playing machine and a piano. Ah, yes, the pastor came around to complain about the billiard table. Just outside the garage is the workshop with every kind of tool, where the boys and their dad produced the garage facilities. Further over is a rock garden which they made together.

SCOUT TROOPS

When the boys grew old enough their dad bucked building restrictions in existance in the Boy Scout Movement and organized a Boy Scout troop for his sons and their playmates. Their mother organized a Girl Scout troop. How could they miss?

Is there any surprise that this troop won prizes on every hand because of the excellence of their equipment? Where are they now? The older followed their dad into the postal service. The younger one is a junior high school teacher. Their sister is now a happy and successful house wife and Mr. and Mrs. "Mike" and Louis Taylor are quite justifiably happy grandparents.

Lest you conclude that our first example is a figment of our imagination, we rush to tell you that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bell reside at 4812 Budlong Ave. They, too are, happy if not yet grandparents.

In conclusion, it would be well to learn before you decide to marry and raise children thatthe job of raising them is not easy but it really pays off. It costs a lot besides the money involved. It takes time, eternal vigilance and devotion. That is the stuff out of which parental love is made.

THE BLACK FOX
By Gerald Heard

Canon Throckton, aspirant for the post of Dean in an 1870 cathedral, makes use of an Arab incantation against a rival. Though he wins his deanship, he I haunted by weird things. At last the evil he has loosened is negated by the power of good. To be read with relish by readers of Henry James' ghost stories, or the philosophic romances of Charles Williams and C. S. Lewis.

NO TIME FOR TEARS
By Charles H. Andrews

No word strikes a parent's ear with more dreaded implications than "polio." It marks the helpless hours of waiting while a child fights for life and the anxiety for the future when a crippled youngster must adjust himself tor ehabilitation and the re-education of his limbs and muscles. Here without sentimentality or alarm, a father tells of the valiant fight of his entire family against discouragement and defeat when polio struck at 10-year-old Chuck.

Once again, in this collection of autobiographical tales, the South Seas exert their fabled fascination. Here, first rate story telling by the co-author of Mutiny on the Bounty is combined with refreshing bits of folklore. Everyone who dreams of fleeing to some distant isle will enjoy these fragments which capture so vividly the mystery of Tahiti and of the strange people to be encountered there.

Testimonial for Rev. Peters

Civic, Church Leaders Join To Honor Victory Baptist Pastor

Plans were nearing completion for a gigantic Testimonial Dinner to honor Dr. Arthur Atlas Peters, pastor of Victory Baptist church, on Saturday, (December 5) in the spacious new social hall of the Victory Baptist Church, 4802 McKinley Avenue.

The church has been observing the tenth anniversary of the pastor which will be climaxed by the Testimonial Dinner. The Dinner Committee, composed of church officials and prominent citizens of the community has spared no pains to arrange one of the finest affairs of the season. Many of the most prominent citizens of the city will speak at the dinner and bring felicitations and greetings.

Among the notables who will be present at the affair are VA representative from the Mayor's Office, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Dr. Jonathan Lyle Caston, President of the Western Baptist State Convention of California and minister of Trinity Baptist Church, Los Angeles; Councilman Gordon Hahn, Dr. E. I. Robinson, President of the Los Angeles branch of the NAACP; Judge Thomas L. Griffith Jr.; Rev. G. L. Hayes, president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance; Mrs. W. P. Carter, Honorary President of the Women's Convention, auxiliary to the Western Baptist State Convention; Kenneth Morris, Secretary of the 28th. Street YMCA; Robert Brecknero of KTTV. Greetings will be extended on the part of the Deacon Board of the church by Chairman W. R. Williams while Joseph Westbrook, chairman of the Trustee Board, will speak on behalf of the Trustees.

Many of the finest artists in the city will participate on the grogram and lend it dignity and charm. The following artists will render selections on the grogram: Mrs. Marguerite Chapman, soloist at Wesley Methodist Church; Mrs. Jean Keele, soloist at Bowen Memorial Church; Mrs. Margaret Pett of Second Baptist Church, James Smalley, soloist at Avalon Christian Church; Cecil Dandy, Director of Senior Choir, McCoy Memorial Baptist Church; Mrs. Fannie Benjamin and Albert McNeil of the Independent Church of Christ; and Clarence D. Hargraves. The Hightower Youth Orchestra will also render selections on the program.

The famed Voices of Victory Radio and Television Choir of 170 voices will also furnish music for the occasion. Principal speaker at the Testimonial Dinner will be a long time friend of the Pastor, Dr. Horace N. Mays, State Director of Christian Education for the Western Baptist State Convention of California.

The universality of Handel's Messiah again will be demonstrated when choirs from more than 700 Protestant churches throughout the southwestern U.S. join in a pre-Christmas concert, Sunday, December 6, at 4 p.m., Clara M. Gatewood said today.

READY FOR SING—Dr. Otto Hirschler directs part of the 100 voice choir that will present Handel's Messiah at Ward Chapel, A.M.E. church, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Cecile Buchanan, seated, will be one of the featured artists.

'Messiah' to Be Heard At Ward Chapel Sunday

Dr. Fred E. Stephens announces that the "Oratoria of the Messiah by Handel" will be presented at Ward A.M.E. Church 1177 West 25th Street at Magnolia, Sunday at 4 P.M.

The Los Angeles Church Federation, Department of Music, Dr. Gordon C. Bachlund, Director is sponsoring this wonderful musical treat and this is the eighth consecutive year of presentation on a city-wide basis. This Festival of Music from the mind and pen of one of the Great Masters is the largest of it's kind in the world and is given simultaneously in all areas of the city each year.

Inter-Racial Accomplishment

Mrs. Louise Bratton, Choir Adams Area Manager, reveals the fact that 100 voices from all Churches in the West Adams district will compose the chorus under the capable direction of Dr. Otto Hirschler, with Mrs. Hazel Henry, pianist and Dr. Jollife at the organ. Soloists for the occasion will be Cecile Buchanan, soprano, Betty Weiscopf contralto, John Wuerthren tenor, and George Comfort bass-baritone. A social hour will follow the Festival in spacious Fellowship Hall of the Church.

Gigantic Undertaking

The morning Worship at Ward this Sunday will be at 8 A.M. and 10:45 A.M. with the Sacrament of Holy Communion being observed. The Pastor Rev. Fred Stephens will preach at both these services. The public is always cordially invited to attend any or all of these services. Promptness assures better and more immediate seating.

REV. J. L. COLLINS' FINAL RITES THUR. AT WESLEY CHURCH

The Rev. J. L. Collins, retired minister who passed away here Monday at age 76, was laid to rest beside the grave of his wife who preceded him in death 10 years ago in Evergreen cemetery Thursday (Dec. 3) at 1:00 p.m.

Well Known Member

The deceased Rev. Collins was a long time member of Wesley Methodist Church here and enjoyed the distinction of Reverend. At the time of his death he was a patient at the Los Angeles Sanitarium, 726 East Adams boulevard.

Surviving him are members of his family, a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Collins Lett; two sons, Nathaniel Collins and Charles Collins, all of this city. The deceased was a native of Oxford, Miss.

Interment at Evergreen

The body was prepared for funeralization by the Peoples Funeral Home. Following services for the dead at Wesley Methodist Church, the body was borne to Evergreen cemetery for burial.

MARION HAROLD

Marion Harold Recital Set For Sunday

The Radio Active Club of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, will present in recital the talented mezzo soprano, Mrs. Marion Harold, Sunday, December 6, at 8 p.m.

This outstanding artist is a product of the public schools of Chicago. She continued her education at Spellman College, Atlanta, Georgia. Mrs. Harold appeared at an early age as a vocalist in church and school choral groups. She was featured vocalist at the Bethesda Baptist Church, Chicago, before coming to Los Angeles six years ago.

This masterful performer stems from a rich musical background. Her mother, Mrs. Daisy Seabrooks, was a noted soprano who gave many successful recitals in her home state of Alabama. The artist's sister, Mrs. Martha Manley, her voice coach and accompanist, is a graduate of the celebrated School of Music of Fisk University, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. The public is invited to witness this event. The Rev. E. A. Anderson is the minister.

McCOY HONORS WOMEN

The Women of the McCoy Baptist Church, 802 East 46 Street, had a highly successful day's observance last Sunday. The morning speaker, Elder W. H. Reed Pastor of the Garden of Prayer Church of God in Christ Waimanalo, Oahu, and the auxiliary representatives impressively developed the theme for the occasion, "To Serve The Present Age."

The 2 P.M. worship held at the stately Grace Lutheran Church, 936 West Vernon At Menlo, was the standout of this annual event. Elder W. J. Taylor Pastor of the Grace Memorial Church of God in Christ delivered a profound message from the subject, "Marching With God." The afternoon auxiliary representatives spoke as effectively as their morning forerunners The Gothic walls of Grace Lutheran reverberated with the spirited renditions of the Voice of Victory Choir, Paradise Baptist Senior Choir, and McCoy's Moments of Meditation Choir.

Hardly a surprise to anyone was the announcement heralding the Women's one sided triumph financially. The Pastor Rev. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. Marie Anderson, leader of the Women, and Deacon Billie T. Ferrell, General Chairman of the Men wish to extend thanks to all who helped to make this year's Men and Women's Day effort an outstanding success.

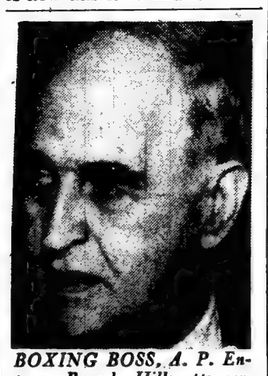
THE BASKETEERS WILL DRIBBLE IT OUT . . .
By BRAD PYE, JR.

BERKELEY—The Coast's gridiron gladiators have all closed shop—save Red Sanders' UCLA Bruins—and the hoopsters will virtually take over and dribble the year on out. However, the UCLA-Michigan State January 1 grid battle will take the spotlight from the cagers temporarily.

In the PCC hoop race Nibs Price's University of California Golden Bears are favorites to cop the marbles. . . . However, we are inclined to lean towards John Wooden's Westwooders. . . . Three year letterman Johnny Moore and sophomore Willie Naulls — the great San Pedro High star — should play important roles in the UCLA Bruins' title bid.



BRAD PYE, JR.

Wes Robinson, a frosh star for the Bruins, who is now enrolled at Cal., will not be able to help the Bears because of scholastic difficulties. . . . USF — school All-American Ollie Matson and Burl Toler made famous—have two basketeers—frosh sensation six-feet-nine Bill Russell and veteran K. C. Jones, who should gain even more laurels for the Dons. . . .

Pye's Pickups . . .

Veryl Switzer—the fine Kansas State halfback—has been selected to play on the East squad in SR's East-West game. . . . At this writing he's the only Negro to be named to either team. . . . The Camp Le-Jeune football team had a halfback by the name of Reggie Lee, who was offered a contract by the Pittsburgh Pirates for pitching duties.

As far as we are concerned Mal Whitfield is the best choice for the James E. Sullivan award. . . . The list of records approved by the AAU this week has Mechanical Mal's name on three of them. . . . This feat alone should make him the No. 1 choice. . . . If you are in the mood to see Northern California's best junior college grid team in action by all means drop in and see the West Contra Costa JC-Pasadena CC Potato Bowl game in Bakersfield Saturday night. . . . The WCCJC outfit features such ex-North-South prep game stars as Doug Peters and Ed Griffin among others. . . . Wilbur Gary, another WCCJC back, is rated a better back than UCLA's Sam Brown, his ex-teammate. . . . Peters and Griffin are reported to be ticketed for Bruinville. As of now this is 25 and 5.

Bowling News

The old maxim of every dog having his day, holds good in more ways than one. In every sport, somtime sooner or later, the underdog exceeds all expectation, especially in the good old game of ten pins.

The maple is still smoking at the Studio Bowl from the activity of those 160 and 170 average bowlers of the Sunset league. These mediocre bowlers went out for revenge after being slaughtered for two successive weeks and struck back with volcanic force.

After the fire died and the smoke cleared away the records showed Bob Williams leading the massacre with a 243 high game ,along with Joe Horn's 143 and Chuck Down's 197. Ted's Service team rolled over the Red Hut Broilers and moved themselves back into contention along with the Lee Hi Hats team who took a shellacking from the Garretts Enterprisers. The attack was led by Earl Jackson's 204 and Frank Garrett with 149.

The Central Bar-B-Cue team offered little resistance to the charging B and B's team behind the brilliant shooting of Kenneth Morris 190 and 202 high games for a two out of three win.

The Sav-Way T.V'ers were a picture of futility under the crumbling blows of Bill Calhoun's 199 and 218 along with K. Watt's 222.

'Bang Bang' Womber Faces Aragon Thurs.

George Gainford's ranking welterweight boxer, Danny (Bang Bang) Womber, will attempt to redeem himself before the Olympic boxing fans this Thursday night. Womber is slated to meet Art Aragon in the 10-round feature event.

Art "Golden Boy" Aragon

Both welterweights have been beaten by Ramon Fuentes, the state's titleholder, and each had a reason for dropping the nod to the busy belting Fuentes.

However, Womber and Aragon are reported to be in top physical fitness and this should be an interesting battle as each fighter will be attempting to regain lost prestige.

Womber is after a return bout with Ramon Fuentes and so is Aragon. This Thursday night's fistic brawl may have a very interesting setting as Fuentes is slated for Southern California Fighter of the Year honors.

Medical Pharmacy Whiz Kids In Pre-Season Tourney

Fred Griffin Medical Pharmacy's quintet fought its way into the championship play for the pre-season tourney with its fourth consecutive victory over the Wright Carpet team last week by dumping the Wright Carpets, 70-63.

The Whiz Kids were never headed once they took the lead in the opening period. It was a fast moving game and not until the last quarter was the game really on ice for the locals when fast-breaking Chas. Reed and Smith started dropping points from all over the court. High point men were Algin Sutton, Powell and Hill. Thompson played a stellar game at the guard position.

This Friday night the championship game will be played at Hollywood high school gym at 9 p.m. This will mark the first time that the Whiz Kids have made the finals in the pre-season, and according to Coach Griffin his boys should bring home their first title. The game is open to the public and the admission is free. Come out and root for the home team.

L. A. RAMS, TANK YOUNGER LENDS A FOOTBALL HAND FOR BENEFIT

Paul (Tank) Younger and Ramona Bruce are two of the more popular Los Angeles figures to join the many thousands in attempting to give the needy kids a really happy Christmas.

The Eastside Welfare Association, headed by Alyce Keyes, Elhiu "Dot" McGee and Johnny Cornish, is sponsoring the party and has scheduled a gigantic Can Dance, December 19, at the Masonic Temple, 4200 S. Avalon.

Younger, who was one of the Rams big ground gainers over the season, considered it a pleasure to join such a worthy cause, and cute Ramona Bruce, winner of Miss Bronze beauty contest, is also an enthusiastic supporter and urges everyone to be on hand.

Tickets for this occasion can be purchased from the California Eagle office by phoning AD. 4-0161.

The committee also announces that social groups planning similar benefits can join the Eastside Welfare Association by bringing a can of food to the dance and the names of needy families.

PRO BOWL SET FOR COLISEUM JAN. 17

The All-Star Pro Bowl Game, greatest Bowl game of them all, will be played Sunday afternoon, January 17, in the Los Angeles Coliseum. This is the fourth annual meeting of the All-Star teams of the Eastern and Western Conferences of the National Football League. The game is sponsored by the Los Angeles Newspaper Publishers Association.

The rivalry between the Eastern and Western divisions of the National League is increasing with every game played. The Western Conference All-Stars lead in the series—two games to one. Sensational plays feature the games from start to finish.

The squads are composed of the sixty most outstanding stars of the National Football League —which means the sixty greatest players in the world! The teams are directed by the coaches of the two Conference championship teams and the players are selected by vote of the League coaches, officials and Los Angeles Sports Editors.

Mail orders for tickets to this game will be filled exclusively by the Mutual Theatre Ticket Agency.

Johnson to 49ers

John Henry Johnson the sensational Pittsburgh California prep star a few season back was signed by the S.F. 49ers last week.

Johnson voted the most valuableplayer in Canada's Western Inter-Provincial Football Union as a member of the Calgary Stampeders this last season.

The ex-St. Mary's Gales star refused to be drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League and reported to the Canadian Football league instead.

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico — Upsets featured the two main events at the border oval last Sunday. In the Ohio Handicap for two-year-olds, Bulltress, the daughter of Bulltrum - Minstrel, came from fifth place at the half mile post to score over My Button and Short Wait by two lengths. The odds-on favorite, Miss Campo, who won her maiden outing by seven lengths, finished a poor seventh. She had all the bad luck in the race. Jockey Taylor Powell broke the daughter of Joe Schenck-Carlottine very poorly from the inside post position. Shaking up the filly, owned by the Aztec Stable, he gradually made up ground on the rail down the back stretch. Then she was shut off at the first turn and forced to take up and never could reach contention. At the finish it was Bulltress first, My Button second and Short Wait third. The winner rewarded its backers $17.80 for $2.00.

The featured Texas Handicap for older horses at one mile and one-sixteenth was won by the outsider, Big Silver from the stable of R. C. Ellsworth, and trained by L. A. Boice. The five-year-old son of Glittertree-Mad Silver, under the handling of Jockey Louis Leon, took the lead at the break and never looked back although his mount had to be shaken up near the finish to stall off the bold threat of Magic Lead. The favorite was catching the winner at the finish, who had just enough to last. Big Silver paid $14.00. This was Big Silver's first win in 15 starts although he ha sbeen close in nearly all his outings.

Jockey Harmatz scored on two winners, Top Bull in the first and Count Rusty in the second, to run his season's total to 36, 11 more than his nearest rival, Jockey Louis Leon. The Daily Double winners received $61.20 when New Faith was the victor of the fourth and Rosana captured the fifth.

Quinella backers of First Lesson and Rudy's Tryst, who finished in that order, collected $45.40. The two features for this weekend are the Tennessee at six furlongs and the Wisconsin, mile and seventy yards. The attendance was 6000. Mutuel handled $188,784. The Tijuana Greyhound Club will close its present season Sunday and reopen for an extended meeting Friday, Jan. 1. Some of the best hounds in the country will be on hand for the re-opening.

Drivers find gasoline cost per mile down 20%

To compare gasoline values now with the "good old days," test drivers at Standard ran popular cars of the 1920's on 1925 gas, '53 models of the same makes on today's gas, and '53 models modified to use 1925 gas. All cars were driven over the same course, on the same amount of fuel till they ran out of gas. The results may surprise you.

Today's gasoline gives you, under comparable driving conditions, 50% more miles per gallon than in 1925! What does it mean to you? Suppose you started on a trip from San Francisco to Lake Tahoe with 12 gallons of gasoline—a route covering all kinds of driving. In the old car with 1925 gas, you'd travel about 131 miles; in the new car modified for 1925 gasoline you'd go 149 miles; but in the new car with today's gasoline, you'd go all the way to Lake Tahoe, 196 miles. Improved auto engines explain part of this—but better gasolines made them possible. You benefit steadily from the competition in research and operating efficiency between Standard and other oil companies. Competition steps up gasoline quality, helps hold prices down. While living costs have risen 54% in the last 28 years, today's gasoline costs you only 22% more a gallon (except for taxes)... gasoline cost per mile has dropped one fifth!

Kappas Black and White Formal Dance Called 'Best Ever'

A "wonderful party" said a lady as she emerged from the seventeenth Black and White Dance of Los Angeles' three chapters of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. Many others of the 1500 guests called it "the best ever" without a challenge from anybody.

Probably it was the fact that one could move from Hotel Cosmopolitan's International Hall, where the Sweethearts of Rhythm played to the tempo of the majority of the dancers to the Zodiac Room, where Georgie Auld's super rhymic orchestra made them dance.

A Queen Is Crowned

At midnight the Kappas under the leadership of Bob Grfeen, who will begin his fifth term as polemarch in January, formed their traditional serpentine and marched throughout the party announcing the assemblage in the International Hall for the crowning of the Queen of the Ball, who had been chosen previously by the undergraduates. Vernon Shields, M.C. of the affair with the aid of the band, announced the occasion and presented Bob Green who led the large circle of Kappa men in singing the Kappa Hymn and the fraternity Sweetheart song. Gerald Strange, polemarch of the Upsilon chapter (UCLA), crowned as queen of the ball Miss Nira Harten an AKA and a senior at UCLA. Dr. Emmett Wyndon pinned on her bosom the "sweetheart pin" of Kappa Alpha Psi. The princes in the court were Bernice E. Wright of USC, Arlene Provost, L.A. State College—Juanita Robinson, UCLA, Judge Pecau, USC, Billie Barrett, a post grad at UCLA and Elaine Bias of Pasadent Jr. College.

This has been a tremendous week. I am sure that you too found a great deal to be thankful for and that Thanksgiving Day meant far more than just a turkey dinner and possibly an opportunity to visit with the family. Let me tell you something of the wonderful people I meet in my work.

Domestic Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. James, 826 E. 117th St., are two of the loveliest folk I have had the pleasure of meeting. Mrs. James is a bit under the weather right now, but I am sure that she will be up and around again real soon. You certainly have my best wishes and prayers, too, Mrs. James. I'll be stopping by again soon. Then there are Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Brunt, 816 E. 117th St.; they were a little busy, but the chat was nice.

Here is a tip — There is perpetual sunshine at 725 E. 117th St. Should you find yourself a little low in spirits, drop by the above address. There you will find Mrs. Myrtle Harris who is rearing five children without the help of a mate and doing it in the most efficient and delightful manner. In fact, Mrs. Harris takes time to engage actively in the P.T.A. and works with the Red Cross each Thursday — and her home is immaculate. The sight of such love not only for her family, but for all mankind as well, cannot help but make your problems vanish. Stop by and say hello — the Harris won't mind and you'll be glad you did.

Stork Report

It's congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, 1120 E. 69th St., where the stork brought the loveliest baby boy last week. Young Mr. B. is a honey. Mom is doing fine, thank you. Of course Poppa B. has just about popped his vest. They are great. Speaking of babies, Mrs. Pratt, 84 8E. 117th St., is expecting a divine bundle on December 29. It goes without saying that husband, Norman, is chewing a few fingernails at this point . . . what with two healthy boys awaiting Santa Claus. Mr. Pratt works for the Southern Pacific Railroad Co.

Hear tell it will be good news for my new friend, Jessie McClendon, soon. Got my fingers crossed, dear . . .

Oh, yes, I met the charming Mrs. Florence Mitchell, 900 E. 116th St. My, but she is a gracious personality . . . just what you would expect of a successful beautician . . . with all of her activities, Florence devotes a great deal of her time to church work .

Friendly Dealers

Please remember my good friends Ray Cole, Joe Palooka, and Bill Lancaster at Renni-Laughlin De Soto-Plymouth dealers, 1220 E. 7th St. They are great. If you are in need of a new car, they are the boys who can give you the best deal in town. Tell them Miss Welcome sent you . . . see what happens . . . you'll be glad.

Santa Monica Notes

Visitors

Visiting Los Angeles this week are Mr. and Mrs. Early Hasaway and granddaughter Joice, of Lees, Texas. They are stopping with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Villars, and will motor to San Francisco to visit another son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Malachiah Baldwin.

Hello Girl

Among the many local girls employed recently in the West Los Angeles Telephone Company is Mrs. Emma Hasaway of 1760 18th St.

The Philip C.M.E. Church of 4th and Bay Streets, of which Rev. M. E. Bradley is pastor, held regular services last Sunday with a large attendance. Their financial drive opened December 1st.

Rev. Manuel Scott is engaged in a great Soul Saving service at the Calvary Baptist Church, of which Rev. W. P. Carter is pastor.

Carver PTA Hits New Hi In Members

The regular meeting of the Carver Jr High School P.T.A. was held in the school library with the president, Mrs. Orie Boone, presiding.

Mrs. Carl B. Foreman, membership chairman, reported a total of 1122 members as a result of the recent drive. This is the largest membership Carver P.T.A. has ever had. Prizes were presented to the following students: Carlene Foreman, first; Brenda Williams, second, and Eldoris Wyatt, third. Home rooms who had gained 100% membership were each given a party and were as follows: Mr. Albert McNeil, B-7 Boys; Mrs. Bunton, Miss Princotto, B-9 Girls; Miss Althea Warren, B-7 Girls, and Mrs. Childs, A-8 Girls. All art work for the drive was done by Mrs. Childs.

Phi Lomathean Club Give Turkey Basket

The Philomathean Art, Literary Charity Club gave baskets to many needy families over the Thanskgiving holiday. Each this occasion as an expression to share with their fellowmen year the club looks forward to the true art of giving thanks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson is Chairman of the Commisary department of the club and Mrs. Loretta Edwards is the club president.

Kappa Alpha Psi Elects B. Green

Officers of the Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity were elected in a meeting at Kappa Kastle recently. Those chosen are: Robert Green, polemarch; Joe Lewis, vice polemarch; Lloyd Thomas, keeper of records; Edgar Bishop, assistant keeper of records; Henry Grayson, keeper of exchequer; Floyd Wilson, strategus; Dr. Thomas Boger, lieutenant strategus; Leon Steward, reporter and Lamar Shipp, historian.

Elected to the board of directors are: Junius Covington and Clifton Walker. Delegates selected to represent the chapter at the national meeting which will be held in Chicago are: Dr. Emmet Wyndon, Robert Green and Leon Steward.

Bill Smallwood

Rumor persists Jo Cooper flies in on the 18th for a visit. Unconfirmed rumor. Altho those who know her wouldn't be too surprised, she being a woman of great impulse. Anita Williams, who hasn't been around here on hometown soil for some time now, returns to the States soon from a stay in Europe. Her ex-husband Duke is traveling with the same group.

George Orendoff lost his mother. Thelma Pryce-Biram and Stella Lane, back east, marveling still over the fact they had not one bit of car trouble during their motor trip between here and Detroit. Nice to learn the top man scholastically in Loyola's first year class is tan tone Ronald Banks with a 94.85 average. Incidentally one of Annabelle Hart-Nibbrig's two scholarly sons, Harold, had a 92 average.

Ruby Berkeley Goodwin finished her book, is off next week to S.F. to be interviewed on teevee about it. The Hugh Beatys came down from Berkeley for the holiday weekend. They returned Monday. Ethel Thomas Smith's mate back from N.Y.

Ted Albritton to N.Y. for the Thurgood Marshall testimonial banquet at the Astor. Ted's boss, Calvert Distillers, picking up all his tabs. Hey, now. Mantan Moreland married again, host in a N.Y. niteclub now. Lottie Gee to be a Febr. bride.

Haven's seen Meredith Hatcher in a long, long time, golly. Doll League received over 1500 dolls this year. Lenore (Doll Leaguer) Winkler nursing a fractured hand received in a tumble on some stairs. Cal Bailey flew in for turkey with Townsel Moore. They were due at the Mocambo later. Townsel having remembered Le Kitt from mutual days (and nites) in Paris. Cal flew back to S.F. later. He will be back here for the Rose Bowl game as usual. Eddie Beal is keeping Cal's View St. studio for him.

Ann Oliver entertaining at home Sund. Wealthy-wealthy Dr. Norman Cotton, known here, died recently in N.Y. His ex-wife is Elinor Layton of London. The Coteaus, when in town, entertain prominent Angelenos through the years. Did anyone from Queen Anne of Sport Canada have event?.

the kitchen. Such mem'ries indeed as indestructible Caterina Jarboro singing about violets while gaily tossing them to her nearest defenseless audience. Ah, me.

Jenette Paront had some real gold braid boys for breakfast Thanksgiving, I must say. Pres. of Liberia's brother, Gen. Alexander Tubman (Harriet Tubman was their aunt, did you know?) and his traveling companion Liberia's Under Secretary of State Rt. Hon. Momley Dukuly. They stopped at the Town House.

This is their first time on U.S. soil. They've been on a diplomatic mission in the Caribbean. Jenette showed them our town by day and by magic night. Later they flew to S.F. before going to D.C. before the long flight home to Liberia.

Pinkie and Byron Webb certainly have that needed something making excellent hosts. A houseful of us did justice Sun. to their famed dinner table and all the trimmings before, during and after. Peggy Williston May sat on my right. She expects her husband home from Korea before Xmas. Corrine Gilead, across from us, had us head-shaking that youthful looking as she is could have a 19-year-old son. A goodlooking lad (Julian), he is a pre-law student at City College. Corrine birthdays on the 22nd; host Byron has his on the 11th and hostess Pinkie has hers on the 4th, by the way!

We think Pinkie, who keeps that svelte figure of hers with no effort, has eyes like Juanita Hall. Nice too unexpectedly seeing Edna Thrower there earlier, with friends. And the Westons and Elsie Porter kept things sparkling, jumpin', 'cept for all, unmentionable last-Monday-in-Nov. pleasures. Even to Peggy's dog admitting off and all the wine had to dinner (no bottles, yuuk, under cork, etc. etc.) it had rolled glamor in swingin'. The place has a bar, too, he points out.

Impression: Recent early hour howdeedo in the Milomo with Billy Sewell, aware of his urbane manner and conservapprobably include Brooks Bros. best traditions. He's the quiet, almost self-effacing type who is doubtless an excellent host to old friends and a good listener.

Santa Cutie topic: The West-of-Crenshaw gal who already has her gift of gifts, Twin clips of sapphires and diamonds quietly, properly fetched to her from Mexico City. Her Santa Cutie returns here in time to escort her to Santa Anita opening.

Xmas parties getting lined up. Unconfirmed rumor has it Marie Bryant and her husband will visit here briefly next summer. Fresh peaches in champagne recently with Verna Hughes, she wondering athirst for something different don't sponsor a fancy headdress ball. Cin in hand we pondered gravely over that awhile. Such civic minded brooding got us nowhere.

So we sighed collectively then popped a fresh bottle of champagne and went onto who in turn usually talk about her. That, frankly, was far more fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Williams (he's the real estate man) of Chicago are house guests of Dr. and Mrs. John Cooper (Rosetta). They holidayed at the Coopers' legendary ranch up S'Berdoo way then came back to their house here from which they've been doin' the town.

Within the fortnight they'll leave for S.F. en the last leg of their trip back home. They may buy here. They've fallen in love with Southern California, naturally.

Elaborate Infant Shower Honoring Eleanor Jordan

With the coming of the Atomic Age, infant showers like everything else have changed. They have deviated vastly from the cookie and punch events of a year or so ago.

One of the most elaborate showers to be given for an expectant mother was co-hostessed by Mesdames Virgie Bertrand and Bessie Pickett, honoring Mrs. Nelson (Eleanor) Jordan.

The West Twenty-ninth Place residence of Mrs. Hazel Simpson was opened wide to some 100 guests or more who gifted the expectant Jordan heir with many beautiful and useful gifts. The modern theme was carried out in the colors of butter yellow and apple green instead of the traditional pink and blue.

Mrs. Simpson received in a Dior original hostess set of shell pink satin one-piece trousers with flowing black velvet pegnoir and matching jeweled velvet slippers.

Effie Wright Becomes Bride

The former Mrs. Effie Wright was married at her home on 43rd Place last week to Oliver J. Duffin.

The bride is the mother of Kenneth Wright of Washington, D. C. Preceding the bride to the altar was her niece, Mrs. Susie Pearson, as matron of honor. The bridegroom, O. J. Duffin, of Washington, D. C., is now honorary president of the National Culinary Association of Tuskegee Institute of Alabama and served several years as president.

Eugene Wright, of Washington, served as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Most Rev. N. S. Curry, of Phillips Temple. A lovely reception was enjoyed by their many friends.

'Mayor' Joe Adams To Head Banquet December Tenth

The 28th Street YMCA's annual Parent & Son Banquet will be held Thursday, December 10, at Lafayette Junior High School's cafeteria and auditorium.

The Parent and Son Banquets are a tradition in this community. In the past, banquets have been given at Carver, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson Junior and Senior High Schools. These banquets are famous for the wonderful food served in huge quantities along with a variety show packed full of top professional and amateur talent.

Credit to Community

Last year's banquet was held at G. W. Carver Jr. High School and better than 400 parents and children attended. Faculty members of the host school cooperated 100% toward making the banquet a success. Mr. L. A. Mazique, Lafayette Junior High School's Boys' Vice-Principal and Chairman of the School's Banquet Committee, has done an outstanding job in organizing his faculty for the banquet.

Top Talent Available

Among those who are expected to perform at the Program are Dorothy Donegan, James Edwards and our local disk jockey Joe Adams along with a host of professional entertainers. In addition to the professional entertainers the choirs and individual performers from Junior and Senior High will render selections.

Tickets for the Banquet may be purchased at any of the Elementary, Junior and Senior High Schools in the Community.

EVANGELINE WOODFOLK ENTERTAINED GUESTS

Miss Evangeline Woodfolk played a very charming hostess Sunday at her West 35th Place home, when she entertained Mr. and Mrs. Deanus Boone, recent bride and groom, at a beautiful appointed breakfast. A lovely pink floral piece of pink roses and asters was used. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. Cullen Fentress. Mrs. Boone is remembered as the former Mrs. Mildred Conyers, a popular local medical social worker and also Far Western Regional Director of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. Mr. Boone is a native of New Orleans.

Wesley Roberts Wells Case Deserves Full Public Consideration

Through San Quentin Convict Doomed For Attacking, but Not Killing, Guard

IS THIS JUSTICE?

SAVE WESLEY WELLS

GOV. GOODWIN J. KNIGHT

A man's life is in the hands of the Governor and the people of California.

The man is to die for throwing a cuspidor!

He has taken no human life.

Is this Justice?

Is this the desire of the Governor and the people of California?

The Constitution requires the Governor to spare a human life where such action will serve the interests of Justice.

The interests of Justice demand that no man's life be taken for a "crime" in which no other life has been taken.

Governor Knight is not bound by previous appeals.

As the Governor, he has the power to commute a death sentence.

The Governor is responsible to the people. And the people by writing to the Governor, can make their desires known.

WESLEY ROBERT WELLS

HE TOOK NO LIFE, STILL HE FACES DEATH

Unless the people of California act now, a man will die in San Quentin because he threw a cuspidor.

Warden F. O. Teets at San Quentin is expected to issue an order for the execution of Wesley Robert Wells in the state gas chamber.

Wells took no human life. The guard he slightly injured with the cuspidor was back at his post five days later.

Wesley Wells could be the first person put to death in the history of California for a simple assault.

Union Pleads for Wells

Los Angeles — The largest Painter's Local in this city, 116, has just voted to send a letter in Wells' support to Gov. Knight in Sacramento.

The legal ground for executing a man who has not taken human life, is a 52-year-old law, section 4500 of the California Penal Code, stating that any life prisoner who com an assault with malice aforethought is punishable with death.

Wesley Wells, a 44 year-old Negro, was judged guilty under this law.

He is not a life prisoner!

At Christmas time of 1944, Wesley Wells was serving time in Folsom Prison on two sentences, the penalties running together. One sentence, given to him in 1942, for attempting to steal a car was one to five years.

The second sentence was passed in August of 1944 and the term had not yet been set. Wells had been attacked by another prisoner and convicted of having a knife during the fight. The judge, advising leniency, had given what the law required, "no less than five years and no more than life."

The Adult Authority did not contact Wells but the prison grapevine got to him and told him—The state's deputy district Attorney Albert Mundt, had written a letter to the Adult Authority:

"It is our recommendation and our suggestion that your Authority not fix a definite term in this case. As long as you fail to do so, his maximum sentence will remain at life, and he will be subject to prosecution under the statute which

LAWYERS JOIN TO SAVE MAN FROM DEATH

Hon. Governor Knight:

The undersigned Negro lawyers address you, in whom the great power of executive clemency has been vested, on behalf Wesley Robert Wells.

We wish to emphasize the legal and moral reasons why the State should not execute Wells.

BECAUSE he killed no one;

BECAUSE he was maneuvered into the position where he could be executed;

BECAUSE he may not have been legally and mentally responsible for his acts when the cuspidor was thrown;

BECAUSE a four to three vote inspires no great confidence in the legal result;

BECAUSE the States' announced reason for the execution, that he is a dangerous man, even assuming it to be true, would not justify taking a human life;

BECAUSE large numbers of people will continue to believe that Wells would not have been executed if he were not a Negro.

JUDGE PLEADS FOR PRISONER

A. A SCOTT
JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT
DEPARTMENT 15, CITY HALL
LOS ANGELES 12, CALIFORNIA

Mr. Robert Ellis
c/o The California Eagle
43rd Place at Central Avenue
Los Angeles 11, California

Dear Mr. Ellis:

November 16, 1953

I note with much interest that your paper is championing the cause of Wesley Robert Wells. I want you and the many readers of your fine paper to know how much in sympathy I am with this unfortunate man.

I have been in touch with him on many occasions and have noted a great change in his outlook on life. Some of his letters are really masterpieces, and I only wish that more people would appreciate this man's attitude toward his fellowmen and his earnest desire to seek forgiveness for whatever wrong he may have done society as a whole.

The present predicament in which he finds himself is a real calamity. I have written him that I will do all within my power to help him, in the hope that in my small way I can help to prevent a human tragedy. I want you to know personally that I will continue my efforts in Bob's behalf, to the end that his life may be spared and once again he can regain his faith and confidence, in seeing that justice is done.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

AAS-lh

Yours sincerely,

A. A. Scott

JUDGE SCOTT sentenced Wells to Folsom Prison in 1942 after Wells' few months of freedom. But Wells told his story of prison life to Judge Scott, who has since helped and brought hope to Wells. The judge will visit Governor Knight in behalf of Wells.

Unions, Church, Civic Groups Write Knight

Ministers, doctors, painters, newsmen, longshoremen—thousands of people are writing to Governor Knight for Wesley Wells' life.

In Los Angeles last week the largest AFofL Painters Local, 116, sent a letter to the governor. In San Francisco, 14 white and Negro clergymen formed a Religious Committee for the Defense of Wells. Included are co-chairman Rev. F. D. Haynes and Rev. R. W. Moon, also Rabbi Saul White, Rev. Howard Thurman, Dr. Dillon Throckmorton.

The big CIO-United Auto Workers at the General Motors plant in Los Angeles, Local 216, sent a letter to Govenor Knight, as did the Southland Jewish Organization. Walter Winchell, who first told the nation of Wells' plight is printing news of him again.

Osmyn Stout, writing for the American Friends Service Committee, says to the Governor: "It is the very earnest hope of this committee that you will see your way clear to commute the death sentence . . . It seems to us to run counter to the Eighth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution which forbids cruel and unusual punishment.

Writes Mrs. Elinor Ashkenazi, Orange Grove Monthly Meeting of Friends: "We find it difficult to believe, in the twentieth century and in California where the penal system has made so many advances, that a man can be executed for throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard.'

Argosy Magazine's "Court of Last Resort" has shown sympathy and interest in Wells.

On October 26 the 12,000 member ILWU Local 6 appealed for Wells.

The Monrovia and San Jose branches of the NAACP have written Gov. Knight.

Norman Houston, State Athletic Commissioner and president of the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company, has informed the EAGLE he is sending a letter for clemency to the Governor.

A Marin City carpenter Alex J. Wheelock, spoke before his AFofL union laborers 291: "Trade unionists have always championed the cause of the oppressed. This is that kind of a case." The local voted to write on behalf of Wells.

San Diego longshoreman Preston Hill told his union: "This is a labor case. Labor understands what frame-ups mean."

Written appeals for Wells have been voted by the following California unions and their memberships: AFofL Carpenters 35, San Rafael, Carpenters Local 1710, Mill Valley, Af of L Laborers, 291, San Francisco, Furniture Workers 576, Los Angeles, and Los Angeles Fur and Leather Workers union.

24 doctors and dentists in San Francisco have appealed for Wells life, issuing a public pamphlet in his defense.

D.A's Letter Laid Basis For Wells' Death Sentence

Albert H. Mundt, chief deputy district attorney, County of Sacramento, prosecuted Wells in 1942, wrote the letter "of recommendation" in 1944, brought charges on the death sentence in 1947 and tried the case.

Mundt, born and raised in the prison officials' colony at San Quentin, was a clerk and secretary of the Adult Authority and the Prison Board before it, as far back as 1934. His name is on Wells' papers from that date.

The following is the full text of his letter to the Adult Authority in 1944.

Dec. 15, 1944

"In re: Wesley Robert Wells 24155-A

"Gentlemen: I have your letter of November 30, 1944 in which you advise that the above named is scheduled to appear before your body during February, 1945, for parole consideration.

The offense for which this defendant was convicted rose at Folsom Prison. You are therefore entirely conversant with all the facts. You should also be conversant with the charcter and dangerous potentialities of Wells.

It is our recommendation and our suggestion that your Authority not fix a definite term in this case. As long as you fail to do so, his maximum sentence will remain at life, and he will be subject to prosecution under the status which makes it a capital offense for a life-term prisoner to commit an assault. I think there can be no question but that this man will eventually take the life of a fellow being if his life is not taken first. He is the type of man who should never be released from prison under any circumstances.

Yours truly,
By Albert H. Mundt
Chief Deputy D. A."
Sacramento, Co., Cal.

It was this letter which shaped Adulth Authority policy and led Wells towards the gas chamber.

23 Southland Doctors To Appeal for Wells

The doctors who will sponsor an open appeal to Gov. Knight and the public for Wells' life includes Ernest F. Alleyne, James M. Franklin, A. S. Leven, Marion S. Sure, J. P. Taylor, Thomas L. Perry, E. Griffen, Milton Z. London, Howard H. Allan, Karl J. Wesley, C. W. Ozier, S. W. Smith, Wm. E. Bailey.

PSYCHOLOGIST REPORTS ON WELLS' CHARACTER

By Dr Murray Korngold
Clinical Psychologist, Associate of American Psychological Assoc.

A correct evaluation of the character of Wesley Robert Wells is important because it is a particular view of his character which is being used to justify the decision to put him to death. Replying to appeals for clemency, former Governor Warren's secretary writes:

. . . a list of offenses committed by Wells . . . shows he has been continuously in trouble from the beginning of his stay in prison. The governor has been advised by the Adult Authority that a commutation of sentence for Wells would mean a condemnation to death of some other prisoner or guard

This writer's view (after study of a good deal of material about Wells and by Wells) is that Wells is, despite his lack of formal education a man of very superior intelligence with an IQ of more than 120. He is extremely sensitive to what goes on around him That he is given to violent outbursts of temper is very evident. However he has a lot to be angry about.

Consider an economically and emotionally starved childhood, years of which were spent in institutions, consider his entire adult life in prison, about six years of which were spent in solitary confinement at various times, consider his many years of brutally discriminatory treatment. However misguided and belligerent his behavior may have seemed to the prison authorities from Wells' own standpoint he was always actuated by the strictest moral conviction.

His most clearcut trait, in fact, is his rigid adherence to the principle of the equality of

For the 2½ years prior to the cuspidor throwing incident Wells was fully awafe that the setting of a definite sentence was being deliberately stalled. In 1947 after several months of solitary confinement he had reached an abnormal state of anxiety and excitement over the terrible uncertainty of his prison status and fell into a state of mind where he was inclined to see enemies on all sides (which was in fact based on his real experience.) He was experiencing torment over the possibly permanent loss of his freedom.

At this time a psychiatrist saw that he was not able to cope rationally with his impossible situation and advised immediate sedation and bed rest. Instead of hospitalization, however, hew as kept in solitary, excited even further by a disciplinary hearing at which he lost control and threw the cuspidor.

To execute a human being for lapse of behavior under such circumstances would be like hanging a man for striking a surgeon who was sawing his leg off without an anesthetic.

In short, one cannot but be profoundly shocked by the determination of the state to carry out such a barbaric penalty.

Mexican Youth Compares His Prison Life to Wells

Is Wells exaggerating about what happened to him in prisons? This letter is written by a Mexican-American college student who was in Preston prison in 1950, exactly 25 years after Wells (who was sent there as a juvenile in March of 1925.)

Governor Knight:

"During my adolesence, I had the misfortune of being in the hands of the law. I was in jail three or four times (since I was ten). On prison paper reports I was called a hardened no good for nothing juvenile.

"I was in Preston Prison, working in the kitchen. I liked to smoke, one of my comrades gave me some cigarettes, and it happened that a guard found out I had tobacco in my possession, so he came up to me, took them and walked away.

"I went into the dining room and saw this guard sneering and laughing at me. That instant I could have put a fist through his mouth but instead I walked up to him and blasted away with some unbecoming profantiy.

"Of course I was taken to "G (solitary) Company." After my body stopped trembling and cooled down I was really sorry. I didn't plan to attack the man, when I saw him there laughing at me. My mind just went haywire. Why should he do that? Why torment me . . . make me so low?

Now, Governor, I am sure that's what happened when Wells threw the cuspidor at the guard.

"There is a reason for everything, Governor. Wesley Robert Wells isn't mean or tough; he is beat.

"I have two kids, and attend junior college. Looking at me you would never think I was stabbed in a prison riot or engaged in prison fights.

"Prison life forces us to be animals. But we have good in us.

"Please see the good in Wells."

Wells Lawyers State Beliefs

Atty. Curtwright States:

Mr. Curtwright is veteran lawyer in the State Capitol.

Sacramento—

My interest in the case of Wesley Robert Wells arises from the fact that I was appointed to represent him by Judge R. Coughlin in Sacramento in 1947 and I have been actively concerned with his defense ever since. During six years as counsel for Wells, I have become well acquainted with him and I feel that as a person he is worthy of the time and effort which we have spent in his behalf.

Against Injustice

By this I mean to say that Wells is unable to tolerate injustice whether that injustice be directed against him or against another. When Wells becomes aware of an injustice, his reaction to it is immediate, violent and unexpected.

One Issue

In my opinion, there is but one issue in Wells' case. I do not believe that it is the law of the State of California or of the United States that a man may get the death penalty by the deliberate refusal of an administrative body of the State to carry out its duties. Had the Adult Authority fixed Wells' sentence, he would not have been subject to the death penalty.

Danger to All

To say that this is unjust is to say the obvious. It is, as I understand it, an immutable principle of the law of this State and of the United States that no person is to be punished for crimes of which he is guilty only by implication. It follows that it is even more unjust to have the implication of crime rest upon the refusal of an administrative body of the State to act.

The principle for which we are contending in the Wells case extends far beyond Wells. If it is the law that the State may put a person to death or to long imprisonment by a failure to act, then the lives and liberties of all citizens are in danger. I have often been asked why during the past six years I have spent so much of time, effort and money in Wells' behalf. The only answer I can give to these questions is, "If they can do it to Wells, they can do it to me."

C. W. Curtwright

Atty. Garry Says

(Charles R. Garry is a leading attorney of San Francisco).

SAN FRANCISCO — I can only say why I have been in the case since 1949, devoting practically half my legal time and my own personal funds to the case.

No matter how you slice it, Wesley Robert Wells would not be sitting in death row today were he not a Negro. Now mind you, I am not saying that the jury and judge who convicted him were guilty of this act. Such a conclusion is too isolated.

Jim Crow

Wells is a victim of the entire "Jim Crow" policy of our prison system since the day he went to prison. How are these facts to be told to the public? How is Wells' side of the story to be told? Who would believe this story of Jim Crow?

Filed Suit

In 1950, I filed an suit against the Governor, Earl Warren, Clinton Duffy and Warden Heinze of Folsom and Director McGee, charging them with permitting racial discrimination in the mess halls of San Quentin and Folsom. The judge in San Francisco threw the case out on the theory that a prisoner loses his civil rights once he goes to prison and the right to be free from racial discrimination is a civil right that he loses.

25 Years

So our prison system is admitted segregation.

Wells has put up with 25 years of that kind of treatment. An ordinary person who would "turn the other cheek" would have taken it. But Bob Wells has responded in the only way he knows how and as a result he is sitting in death row—not because he is bad but because he fights back. Charles Garry

Rev. Rakestraw Urges Mercy In Wells Case

From what I have read of the Wesley Robert Wells' case, there appears to be a gross miscarriage of justice. Even though Wells may not have been a model prisoner, the imposition of the death sentence for the assault of a prison guard with a cuspidor without it resulting in a fatality seems a flagrant incongruity in the course of justice. I heartily join with others who have no intent but to see justice prevail, in petitioning Governor Knight to grant executive clemency to Wesley Robert Wells.

Prisoner 24155-A Tells His Story

Wesley Robert Wells
P. O. Box 24155
San Quentin, Calif.
November 15, 1953

California Eagle:

The State of California is trying to kill me because of my "record." The State points to the record, "I am a menace to Society," they say.

That so-called "record" presents only one side of the story, the side of the prison officials.

The "record" gives no indication of the treatment I've received at the hands of my keepers.. It tells nothing of the times my keepers have caused my blood to flow like wine . . . for being "insolent" . . . for resenting being called out of my name . . .

Beaten at Folsom

No, the "record" says nothing about the captain and lieutenant of the guard at Folsom Prison taking me to "Twelve Post" and beating me soft with a sawed-off baseball bat and a club because, as I was told by them, "You black skunk, you think you are as good a a white man."

I really don't know how many times I've been in the hole, solitary and the dungeon . . . the "record" says 45 times . . . I do know, however, I've paid, and paid dearly for any and every infraction of prison rules I've been guilty of . . . and for many I was not guilty of.

25th Anniversary

Last Tuesday (the 28th) was my twenty-fifth prison anniversary. Twenty-five years ago, at the tender age of 19, I entered San Quentin. I was scared half to death, having heard about how tough the prisoners of San Quentin were, and how mean were the guards. I wasn't there long before I learned that what I'd heard was pretty much true. Men were sent to prison, in 1928, solely for the purpose of punishment . . . for revenge, you might say. There were no radios or state papers in the prison, and the prisoner lost contact with and just about forgot the "outside" world. Little, if any, thought was given to rehabilitation of the prisoner. The only rule the prison officials knew in handling prisoners was the "rule of the club," and the "hole," which only tended to bring out the worst in the prisoner, to arouse the animal instinct in him, and he would, at times, act and react more like some wild beast than a human being.

Survival of Fittest

Yes, San Quentin, as were most prisons of that day, was really tough. I think I might truthfully say that it was a case of "Survival of the Fittest."

For What Purpose?

And now, as I sit here, I ask myself: "To what purpose have I survived? To have my life snuffed out in the gas chamber . . . for reacting "normally" to years of abnormal treatment? . . . Would it not have been better to have succumbed, to have died . . . as many others did . . . from tuberculosis, caused from the damp "hole"? Or to have had some prisoner stick a knife in my back, or to have been killed from a bullet from a guard's gun, ricocheting off the walls? Or to have my head beat in? Or to have gone stark, raving mad? . . . as I've often wondered why I haven't."

Dark Ages

Now, after surviving what might be termed "The dark ages of prisons," it has been and is being said that I am "incorrigible," an anti-social 'killer'." . . . which I am not. But assuming that I am such a beast, how did I become so? I am unable to believe I was born that way, as I do not believe that one man is born good and another is born bad. How, and why, did I become the Frankenstein that "Society" feels that it must now destroy? Was I, when I entered San Quentin, at the age of 19, an "incorrigible anti-social 'killer'?"

Changes in Prison

There has been a great change for the better in prison administration since I first entered prison. Had such been the case twenty-five, or even fifteen, years ago, I wonder if I would be in the predicament I am today. I seriously doubt it. Had the policy been then, as it is today, to help the prisoner to rehabilitate himself, instead of "to break him," I'm sure my life would have been different.

Punishment No Good

The spectacle of the State doing everything in its power to degrade ,debase, and destroy a human being, and then seeking to help him to recover from the effects of his punishment is a fine example of the idiocy of man. No one is ever helped by such punishment as I've received during the twenty-five years I've spent in prison . . . in fact, a person is never helped by any kind of punishment. If some weak person has been made to suffer to the extent that he does not dare to assert himself, even for his rights, it only means that he has been weakened to that extent . . . not made good . .. from the treatment he received. To punish a man . . . to put me to death . . . without heeding whether or not any good can come from it, is pure VENGEANCE.

I Am Hopeful

Though I've been in prison for the last twenty-five years, I am not bitter; I yet have confidence in myself. In short, I am of the same opion as that of Superior Court Judge A. A. Scott, as stated in open court in Los Angeles: "I believe you could and would make good if only given a chance." I do not believe that I am any more or less, no better nor worse than any other man. All that I ask or have ever asked is to be treated with the dignity due a human being; for a fair chance to earn an honest living, and live the life God intended for all men.

Sincerely yours,
Wesley Robert Wells

WESLEY ROBERT WELLS was born in Fort Worth, Texas, in 1908. His father left the home and his mother, Ada Pearl, died. With two sisters, he was shipped to an uncle in Denver.

He Took No Life

makes it a capital offense for a life-term prisoner to commit an assault."

Through the Christmas days and after, weeks and months, Wells knew the Adult Authority was following the letter—waiting for him to get into trouble. In for LIFE—! Not sentenced for life by a judge or jury but by a letter,—by a trick!

That is how Wells became a life prisoner.

Then one morning in April of 1947, he stood before Warden Heinz' desk in Folsom, defending himself against a night guard, Noble Brown, who was charging that Wells had screamed and cursed at him from the cell.

Wells wept and shook, interrupting, — pleading that Brown was lying.

He was put out in the hall. The Warden said that he would get his chance to talk later.

Three guards watched the thin prisoner as he sat in the hallway, trying to calm himself. Then Brown stepped out, grinning. Wells saw the cuspidoor, picked it up, hurled it 20 feet at Brown, as the guards clubbed him unconscious.

The next month Wells was put on trial for his life. Under the law set forth in the letter written to the Adult Authority in 1944, that a life termer committing an assault can be punished by death.

At the trial in his defense he tried to show his nervous state. His proof lay with the chief prison doctor who had examined him two days before his argument with the guard. Dr. Day was ready to testify that Wells was in a state of tension and fear for his life.

But Judge Raymond Coughlin refused to allow Dr. Day to take the stand.

Wells was judged guilty and sentenced to the gas chamber.

His attorneys appealed and the California Supreme Court, all seven judges, declared the trial judge, Coughlin, had made a mistage in keeping Dr. Day from the stand.

But then, four judges to three, the Court decided Dr. Day's evidence would not have changed the jury's mind!

The Court refused to review the case.

The U S Supreme Court refused to review the case.

Governor Warren refused clemency. He pointed to Wells' prison record aand declared him "an incorrigible, dangerous man."

'His Eyes Grip Like a Vise'

Coming down the prison walk Wesley Wells looked small and thin compared to the uniformed guards at his side with their clubs and guns.

He looked at me and his eyes gripped me like a vise. I had to drop my eyes. I didn't know why, but I was shaken.

I looked at his face again and saw the scars all over it, a scar in the skin of his left eyebrow, scars across his nose, his ears and cheeks. His nose had been broken and there were scars on his throat.

When the interview was over ,the guards came to take Wells. He said "Thank You," and looked straight at my eyes. I had to drop my gaze again but suddenly I knew why: his eyes had suffering in their expression, and such determined strength that, it took every bit of me to answer them, to read those eyes, accept what was there.

His eyes are black and they are set in deep, hollow sockets. Intheem is a mixture of loneliness, wisdom, and battle — the look of a man who had fought with life and death and suffering. His eyes hold a challenge . . . 'I have told you the truth. Are you going to do anything about it?'

I have never forgtten the challenge in his eyes.

—A Reporter.

Judge Saves Wells

Judge Goodman declared "By deliberate and designed inactivity the Adult Authority kept (Wells) in an indefinite status for the purpose of making it possible to impose the death penalty upon him . . . . (The Adult Authority) may be called conscientious in an attempt to reach through the criminal process (and indeed to destroy) those whom they regard as undesirable citizens."

So the death penalty was thrown out. But the higher Federal Court overruled Judge Goodman and in November, the Supreme Court again refused to review the case. Wells' lawyers are now taking every last minute legal step to save Wells from being executed for the crime of throwing a cuspidor.

If these legal steps fail, Wells' life will be in the hands of Gov. Knight and the people of our state.

SEPARATE BUT EQUAL—Here are two schools down in Dixie. They are located in the same town. Guess which one is for Negroes and which is for whites. They are the products of the Separate But Equal doctrine enunciated by the Supreme Court in 1896. John W. Davis, representing South Carolina and Virginia, and with his "voice choked with emotion," told the Supreme Court Monday that Negroes might lose more than they would gain if the Supreme Court outlaws grade school segregation. Retorted Thurgood Marshall for the NAACP: the question is whether the states are going to follow their wishes or follow the constitution. Arguments on the cases ended Wednesday.

Fate of Jim Crow in Hands of High Court

Government Joins Segregation Fight

The fate of Jim Crow rests with nine black robed men today.

They are Chief Justice Earl Warren and eight associate justices of the Supreme Court who wound up a three day hearing Wednesday on whether or not the Constitution permits compulsory separate grade schools for Negro children in South Carolina, Virginia, Delaware, Kansas and the District of Columbia.

Marked with drama and permeated with emotion, the hearing saw NAACP attorneys headed by Thurgood Marshall and who were joined by an assistant United States attorney general, charge flatly that the Court has "both the right and the duty to order the end" of compulsory school segregation.

"The 14th Amendment plainly was intended to abolish all types of class legislation. School segregation on its very face involves class legislation," Marshall said.

Fighting a last ditch battle, John W. Davis, one time presidential nominee, pleaded for the states that they have a right to impose racial segregation. He wound up with a fervid declaration that a ban on segregation "might cost the Negroes more than they gain."

Althuogh the specific issue before the Court was school segregation, the real ghost that stalked the court room was the half century old "Separate But Equal" doctrine under which it was held in 1896 that the states could maintain separate facilities for Negroes if such facilities were equal to those maintained for whites.

Justices listened intently as the historic battle raged in the staid court room. Time and again they joined issue with lawyers and pepered them with questions as they made specific points or references. Appearing with Marshall were Spottswood Robinson, Louis Redding, Robert Carter in the Virginia, Delaware and Kansas cases, respectively. The District of Columbia cases were argued by George E. C. Hayes and James Nabritt. Attorneys general of the various states were aligned with Davis while Assistant Attorney General Lee Rankin appeared for the Department of Justice.

Marshall urged the high court to outlaw segregated education as a "sorry heritage from slavery."

Marshall joined Robinson in arguing that any kind of segregation is illegal under the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

The silver-haired Davis, 1924 Democratic presidential candidate and former solicitor general, said neither the Supreme Court nor Congress has the power to order Negro and white children to be "re-assorted or comingled in public schools."

If the court decides differently, Davis declared, the resultes

Pasadena's School Plan Under Fire

1. Pasadena's "neutral zones" in school districts and its transfer plan create racially segregated public schools.

2. Negro students who asked for transfers from districts in which they now attend public schools would "probably be refused."

3. Parents who asked for transfers from public schols on the ground that they wanted their children to attend "white schools" were granted transfers onthose grounds.

Those facts emerged Saturday after lengthy questioning of school board members and school officials by Attorneys Thomas Neusom and Charles Johnson. The inquiries were made as a preliminary step in a proceeding filed by Dr. L. B. English, Pasadena NAACP official.

The belief that the present plan of neutral zones and "easy transfers" create segregated schools was voiced by Mrs. Mildred Cranston, vice president of the Pasadena Board of Education. She explained that the Board felt that it must make rules and regulations that accord with prevailing community sentiment.

President Interview

Dr. Roy Underwriter, president of the Board, was equally frank in saying that Negro students who asked for transfers from schools in their own areas would be refused "at the present time." He too relied on community sentiment as an excuse for this attitude on the part of the Board.

Following introduction of numerous requests in which parents said that they wanted transfers for their children to permit attendance at "white schools," Dr. Claude Hippler, schools official in charge of transfers, admitted that racial

Fire Commission Tells 'New' Policy

The Board of Fire Commissioners will unveil its new policy respecting racial segregation in the fire department when it meets this morning (Thursday) but indications are that it will back up Chief John H. Alderson except for a few minor changes.

Alderson, a firm believer in racial segregation, follows the policy of asigning all Negro firemen to two stations on Central avenue and has refused all requests for transfers to other stations. Negro officers are confined to the two stations.

The segregation practice has been under fire for the past four years and culminated with a formal hearing before the Commission last Oct. 8, when a group of taxpayers threatened suit unless changes were made. Today's decision is the response to that hearing.

The "decision" will follow by more than two months the public hearing of October 8, on a petition filed by local taxpayers represented by NAACP lawyers. The battery of lawyers, headed by Herbert Simmons, presented evidence showing segregation practiced by the Los Angeles Fire Department. Uniformed personnel of discernible Negro ancestry are confined to two stations and are excluded from serving in the remaining 84 stations scattered throughout the city. Chief Engineer John H. Alderson was named by the NAACP as responsible for maintaining and perpetuating a jim crow system.

The resultant discrimination was aired at the hearing in an example in which several Negro firemen were made to waive promotions because they headed the eligible list at a time when when no vacancies existed in the all-Negro manned stations on Central Avenue. The NAACP charged that the "system", is designed and administered so that no Negro following the waiving incident, is permitted to qualify or place high in promotional examinations when no vacancy exists at the segregated station. The "inside oral examination board," composed of ranking officers in the local fire department, grades Negroes in such a manner as to make their composite grade (written and oral) either very low, thus eliminating them from promotional openings or failing.

Jackie Robinson Will Chair Brotherhood Week In 1954

Jackie Robinson will serve as national chairman of community organizations for Brotherhood Week, to be observed Feb. 21-28, 1954, under the sponsorship of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, it was announced Saturday by Thomas E. Braniff, general chairman of Brotherhood Week.

Under his leadership, cooperation in the national observance will be enlisted from women's, youth, veterans, fraternal, labor, industry and farm groups. Theme of the observance is "Let's Get Together for Brotherhood."

Chest Nears Local Quota As Drive Ends

As the weather gets colder, the Community Chest campaign in the South Central Area gets hotter and hotter.

The South Central Area, under the capable direction of Co-Chairman Mrs. Thomas J. Pinchback and Mrs. Alva P. Vistaunet, has reached the 79% mark in its solicitations to date.

"The only thing that separates us from the magical 100% mark is 21%," Mrs. Pinchback said in addressing her top leadership in their weekly report meeting.

"Our latest report figures show that we have collected $14,343 of the $18,225 goal assigned to us for this year's campaign. This last 21% of our quota will and must be found in the assignments that have had no solicitations or those that have had no call backs."

Over at District Eight's headquarters of the South Central Area, an Emergency Committee, headed by Mrs. Lenora Henderson and Mrs. Nellie Alvarez, has been formed to complete any unfinished assignments that may have been left by the volunteer workers.

"We feel that by doing this," Mrs. Henderson said, "we will be able to pick up any subscriptions that have not been called upon or those that need call-backing. By doing this we are quite assured that the necessary money that is needed for the final section is much, their goal will be fulfilled."

Elks Ready Xmas Party

The Christmas Committee of the Golden West Lodge Elks and Hiawatha Temple are completing elaborate plans for the Yuletide Celebration for the Santa Claus Holiday Seasons.

General Chairman is Robt. C. Jackson and Co-Chairman is Mrs. Alva C. Johnson.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Bell is in charge of a very excellent program Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20, at 3 o'clock in the spacious auditorium, which accommodated more than 600 kiddies and their parents last year.

Members of lucky families will be named at the Ball this year from 1 to 4 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 23. All applications for tickets must be sent in not later than Wednesday, Dec. 16.

Cal. Farmers Import West Indian Labor

Approximately 500 West Indian farm laborers will arrive in Ventura next month to work in Ventura county lemon groves. This will mark the first time that West Indian labor has been imported on the West Coast although they have been used extensively in the East.

The announcement by William H. Tolbert, manager of the lemon growing association set off a storm of protest with organized labor charging that the move was one initiated by the growers to beat down wages and better their bargaining position with Mexican workers who have done the work in the past.

Use of West Indian labor in the east has produced a great deal of friction, with the NAACP charging exploitation in both New York and New Jersey. The situation in New York has led to demands that the state enact additional protective legislation.

The Ventura AFL Central Labor Council sponsored a protest meeting on the issue Tuesday in the Ventura hotel.

AFL official said the group will form a representative citizens committee to protest to the government agencies involved.

Ellis S. Coman, secretary-manager of a growers group, said a certification of need for the supplemental farm workers has been written by state and federal agencies concerned with agricultural labor problems.

It is estimated that the harvest season in Ventura County will require 2000 workers. The islanders will cut a 25 per cent chunk out of the normal employment of Mexican Nationals.

Public Law 78, a United States-Mexico agreement on Mexican laborers expires Dec. 31 and there is no indication that it will be renegotiated. It is understood that the Mexican government is trying to increase protections for its workers.

Secretary C. J. Haggerty of the California AFL Federation of Labor charged the use of West Indian labor was "another attempt by growers to exploit a slave labor market and to beat down the Mexican government in its demands."

Growers retorted that the islanders will be paid the prevailing wage now received by Mexican help and explained that West Indian labor was more desirable to the growers because it "gives additional protection against many Mexican Nationals who renege on their bargain when they arrive at United States farms, thus costing the grower large sums for returning the worker to his homeland."

Police Seek Sex Fiend

By EDDIE LEE KING

Kidnap, rape and robbery committed on a 20-year-old student caused city and county peace officers to put out a dragnet for a lonely suspect driving a 1942 Chevrolet sedan with a paper plate on the rear window.

Anna Mae Foster, 20, of 633 E. Vernon Ave., told police that she attended night school at Jefferson High School Monday night. Upon completion of classes at 9:30 p.m., she went to the intersection of Compton avenue and 41st street to await bus transportation home. While at this corner the suspect approached her and stated, "How about a ride home?"

She said "No! I'm waiting for the bus."

With fury in his eyes the suspect jumped out, forced Miss Foster into the car and drove away in a high speed procedure west on 41st, then south, finally ending up in the vicinity of 60th street and Normandie avenue.

Stabs Sweetie, Leaves Knife In Her Body

By EDDIE LEE KING

A savage murder on the streets left Newton Street police wondering what manner of man was Travis Dewberry of 5613 S. Main street, who killed his common-law wife and left his long-bladed knife in the body of his victim.

Early Friday evening, Dewberry and his one-time love, Margie Nell Phillips, 31, visited her aunt at 986 E. 52nd place, when a violent jealous quarrel ensued. In the heat of the argument Dewberry left the house and crossed the street to his car with Mrs. Philips in hot pursuit.

"Get on back in the house to your folk!" Dewberry shouted to his common-law spouse of six weeks, "we're through." But Mrs. Phillips wanted to know where he was going, witnesses reported.

When she refused to return to the house, Dewberry pulled his knife and stabbed her just above the heart. Mrs. Phillips was dead on the arrival of an ambulance.

Dewberry fled the scene leaving the knife hanging in her breast. He went home, gathered up his clothes, disconnected the electric clock, which was stopped at 7:55, and returned to the scene of the crime.

Housing for All Urged By Churches

The National Council of the Churches of Christ threw its support to a dynamic "non-segregated" program to clean up the nation's slums.

The church organization, representing 30 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox faiths, called for slum rehabilitation program through strict enforcement of local, county and State housing laws.

The resolution also urged "more and better housing" for minority groups. It said "ways must be found to increase non-segregated housing and the rehabilitation of housing for nonsegregated use."

"We appeal to all church members to support every sound and reasonable effort to put an end to the exclusion of any person on account of race, color, creed or national origin or ancestry from equal opportunity to rent or purchase living accommodations," it said.

The council also warned against building "new slums" in defense areas. It said this

GOP Congress Asked to Enact Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 3.—Top leaders of the Republican party have been asked to put civil rights legislation on the agenda when they meet with President Eisenhower on December 17-19. The request was in letters from Clarence Mitchell to Speaker of the House Joseph Martin and to Senators Homer Ferguson, William Knowland and Leverett Saltonstall.

Mr. Mitchell reminded the leaders that in 1952, in a pamphlet called "The Republican Party and the Negro," the part said that civil rights legislation was blocked because southern Democrats had control of the committees of Congress. Now, he pointed out, the key committees are in the hands of northern Senators and Representatives.

"When we look at the present roster of committee-chairmen," the letters said, "we see that all of them are from northern states. For example, Senator H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey is chairman of the Labor Committee which holds the fate of Fair Employment Practice Legislation. In addition, all of the members of this committee, except one, have endorsed S. 1831, which would eliminate serious racial discrimination matters under the scope of the National Labor Management Relations Act. Senator William Langer of North Dakota is chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee which will consider Anti-Lynching legislation and related civil rights measures.

Dr. Booker T. Tucker, recently discharged Captain of the Army Dental Corps, was nominated as Chairman of the American Veterans Committee, Seibert C. DoveChapter, at its regular monthly meeting last Saturday. His election is virtually assured at the next meeting to be held January 2nd as no other persons were nominated to oppose him.

Other officers nominated were: Dr. William S. Hendricks, vice-chairman; Johnnie B. Brantley, treasurer; Winston Jernigan, corresponding secretary, and Richard Warren, chaplain.

Cleophus Saunders, retiring chairman, was elected to the powerful position of executive secretary to succeed Attorney Rayfield Lundy.

"I propose to submit to the group a plan for civic action during the next year which I hope will mean much to each and every veteran in this area," Dr. Tucker stated at the meeting.

Pasadenans Admit School Segregation

reasons were considered sufficient in cases in which transfers were asked by parents of white children.

Stuart McComb, superintendent of Pasadena schools, explained that the Board has a seven year plan for elimination of some of the complaints made against the segregatory aspects of the present school rules and regulations. Folowing the pattern of other excuses, Dr. McComb said that he felt that community desires should be consulted in establishment of school districts and zones.

Saturday's proceeding was instituted by Rr. English on the grounds that he plans a tax payer's suit to force elimination of neutral zones and present transfer regulations. Questioning at the hearing elicited the fact that "neutral zones" are maintained in areas in which there is a large Negro population. Students in those zones may transfer to any other school in the city.

One of the neutral zones is maintained in the area in which Garfield school is located with the result that virtually all white students residing in the area have transfered to the adjoining Arroyo school. The Garfield school now has vacant class rooms while the Arroyo school is overcrowded and is conducting half day sessions and staggered classes. Dr. Edw. English's suit will challenge the plan to expand the Arroyo school as a waste of maney.

H. A. Howard Loses Long Fight To Save Swank Home

A near final paragraph was written to the highly controversial court battle that has involved prominent personalities in business and social life of this city for more than four years, when H. A. Howard, one of the principals involved in the struggle for control of the Broadway Savings and Loan Association quit his swank Country Club Drive home moments before the sheriff arrived to oust him.

Howard's ouster from his home at 3208 Country Club drive, came as a consequence of a long drawn out law suit with a series of side legal battles waged over the presidency and control of the loan association, which he was a prime mover in the founding. Officers of the association who had been instrumental in aiding in the indictment of Howard by a federal grand jury in 1949 were reluctant to give out a statement in the matter when interviewed this week.

It was learned, however, that Howard lost his home after repeatedly failing to meet financial obligations connected with the contract to purchase the property made during the time he served the association as president. Howard left the property vacant last Thursday.

Howard was ousted as president of the association following hectic battles by rival factions. His subsesequent indictment by a federal grand jury resulted in him being tried in federal court on 24 counts involving fraudulent misapplication of funds. He was subsequently acquitted.

Dr. H. Claude Hudson, assertedly the leader of the rival faction which eventually elected him president of the $3,000,000 association, positively declared, "Neither myself, nor any member or officer of the association wants to air this matter any further." He added, "there has already been too much publicity attached to this matter."

The home built by Howard for his family in the fashionable Country Club drive district, is reputedly worth upwards of $50,000. In addition to the loss of his home, Howard suffered the loss of a paper he published in Watts and other valuable properties during the lengthy legal battle to have the courts reverse the ouster decision.

Howard still has a $250,000 suit pending against the officers of the association for loss of property, salary and restoration of his position as president of the association.

End of School Segregation Urged

"would not be pleasing."

Rankin told the court the Justice Department adopts the views expressed in a brief filed by former Attorney General James P. McGranery last year.

That brief called racial segregation unconstitutional.

McGranery, last attorney general in the Truman administration, called the 1896 "separate but equal" doctrine wrong "as a matter of Constiutional law, history, and policy." and urged the court to re-examine and overturn it.

Justice Reed asked Rankin if the court has the power to declare segregation unconstitutional.

"It does have the power and it has the duty by reason of the Constitution and acts of Congress and by words of the Fourteenth Amendment," Rankin replied.

Rankin explained in reply to Justices Reed and Frankfurter that the government position was not stated so strongly in its brief because it was then answering a specific question asked by the court.

"Then you think that segregation should be outlawed" Frankfurter asked.

"Yes," Rankin replied.

Justice Jackson commented that should the court decree an end to segregation it might touch off "a generation of litigation."

Sees Lawsuits

Jackson suggested that a lawsuit might result in every school district in the land.

But Rankin maintained that separate schools should be outlawed and that the court should allow one year for the transition to integrated schools, with "reasonable" additional time at the discretion of lower courts.

The court heard arguments last year from the same attorneys It then requested new briefs on specific points in five test cases brought by Negro parents against the segregated schools systems of South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the Distriet of Columbia.

Spectators lined up as early as 3 a.m. for the 50 seats available to the public in the courtroom and a galaxy of distinguished lawyers listened intently as the great constitutional debate raged.

Racial segreagtion was upheld in all of the cases except in Delaware. That state's highest court ordered Negro children admitted to the white schols and they have been in attendance for the past two years.

Kansas federal judges upheld that state's segregatino statute but commented that it seemed to them a plain denial of equal protection of the law. They said that they were bound by prior Supreme Court decisions.

Virginia, South Carolina and District of Columbia courts also upheld school segregation in a series of cases that saw one vigorous dissent by Federal Judge Waites Waring who called segregation a "vestige of slavery."

The Court will decide the cases some time before it adjourns next June.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing subetance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name *Preparation H. The price is only 98c a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly.

Local Postal Carriers Aid Charity Drive

On December 2 the letter carriers of Kearny station walked their mail routes to collect donations for the muscular dystrophy Association.

These men volunteered their services to aid a worthy cause. Throughout the nation a drive was being headed by Dean Martin ad Jerry Lewis in the form of a telethon to urge every one to donate to this wonderful cause.

The carriers of Kearny station wish to thank each person who contributed helping to make this drive a success. This is the second time this year that the carriers have been called upon to donate their services in the form of walking their routes twice to collect funds for a worthy cause. The first was the cerebral palsy drive spearheaded by Bob Hope.

Carrier Patrick Gardiner was the leading carrier. Known to most of his patrons as the whistling postman, he collected the highest amount in both drives. Gardiner also appeared on television to help stimulate the cerebal palsy drive. He wishes to thank all of his patrons who helped him to accomplish this goal.

This program was endorsed by Arthur E. Summerfield. Postmaster . General of the United States. All contributions are deductible from income taxes.

He was born in Salem, Va., and spent most of his life in Los Angeles. He was employed for 20 years b ythe Union Bank. He was a member of Eighth and Towne Methodist Church. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Camilla Leftridge, a sister, Janie Jones, in Salem, Va.; an aunt, Lelia V. Becker, in Cumber, Ky.; several cousins and a host of friends. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Alva A. Shaw. Interment was at Lincoln Memorial.

Housing Change

emergency housing should be built with the view of adding it to "the nation's long-range housing inventory."

It also urgeo that Federal housing programs be co-ordinated under a singal Federal agency. There has been speculation that the Eisenhower administration will break up the present housing setup to place financial operations under the Treasury and the "welfare" programs under the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The council asked for a "national housing program" that would be "well planned. integrated and nonsegregated."

Shame On Pasadena

Pasadena school authorities who admitted Saturday that they had honored requests of parents of white children for pupil transfer from certain schools simply on the ground that the parents wanted the students in "white schools" pretty well proved the contention of the NAACP that school board rules in that community were rigged to establish a system of segregated schools.

Of course, the school officials protested in the next breath that they weren't trying to set up segregation at all. The denials are hollow and unconvincing.

The remarkable aspect of the Pasadena situation is that such segregation runs directly counter to California law—so much so that a federal appeals court judge suggested prosecution of authorities who had segregated Mexican children in Santa Ana schools a few years ago.

Segregation of Negro children in public schools has been forbidden in this state for more than eighty years. There isn't a competent official in this state who won't agree that segregation is bad for all concerned—for all children. They know that it weakens the fabric of our democracy and that it is a decided step backward.

What puzzles us is why Pasadena should want to hold on to an outworn and outmoded system in the face of the law of the state and in the face of the fact that its officials know that the system does no violence to democratic concepts.

The NAACP is quite correct in insisting that unless the system is ended it will file the proper law suits. However it seems to us that such litigation can, and should be, avoided. All that is necessary is for members of the Pasadena Board of education to observe their oaths to uphold the laws and constitution of this state.

Let's Look At This

Citrus growers throughout the state are reported to be weighing the possibilities of importing West Indian laborers as transient and seasonal workers. Ventura growers have already announced that five hundred such workers will arrive in January.

Heretofore, most of that work that has not been done by residents has been performed by Mexican workers brought here under contract with the Mexican government. The whole matter has brought many problems, with complaints and cross complaints on all sides of bad faith and exploitation.

There have been charges that the drive to import West Indian laborers is conceived as a threat to get more favorable terms for growers in their negotiations with the Mexican government. We do not know what truth there is to these charges.

We do know that it would be extremely undesirable if Mexican laborers were played off against West Indian workers. The West Indians are Negroes and we can see endless possibilities of racial ill feeling if the groups are thrown into competition for jobs.

Under the circumstances, we think that the matter deserves serious study and consideration by such groups as the Urban League and the NAACP. Both organizations should consult with growers and labor unions active in the field and do their utmost to se t hat this new plan doesn't involve all concerned in difficulties.

Students Know Best

In the midst of the hue and cry by professional Dixiecrat politicians about the dire results that are sure to flow from the expected Supreme Court invalidation of grade school segregation it is refreshing to note that southern students don't share the concern, or fright, of their elders.

In fact, the student publication at the University of Georgia has been threatened with suppression if it does not stop printing articles favorable to integration in schools.

This attitude on the part of students is nothing new. Students at the Universities of Oklahoma and Texas voiced their approval of admission of Negro students at the very time the attorneys general of those states were telling the Supreme Court that blood would flow in the streets if Negroes were admitted to graduate and professional schools.

Students have proved far better prophets in these matters than their elders. In every instance where Negro students have been admitted the change has been accepted calmly enough by both students and faculties. There has been no difficulty of any kind.

Nor is there any reason to forecast trouble or difficulty if grade schools are opened to students without reference to race or color. Americans have long since accepted the Supreme Court as the final arbiter of the constitution and where it has spoken they have accepted its mandates, even as they have sought to change its decisions or voiced their disapproval of its holdings.

A Supreme Court decision ordering the end of segregation will prove effective and will be accepted, no matter how loudly Jimmy Byrnes and Herman Talmadge may shout against it.

The Churches Are Right

The National Council of Churches in Christ is quite right in throwing its weight behind the drive for more non-segregated housing. For non-segregated housing means that Americans of diverse ethnic and national groups will get a chance to know each other better and out of that knowledge will come a diminution of prejudice.

It is no secret that the most segregated institution in America at the moment ist he Christian church. There are very few churches in this land where racial segregation is not the rule. That goes for churches controlled by Negroes as well as for churches controlled by writes.

Even where churches protest that they do not draw official color lines the fact remains that there are few of them with mixed congregations. Behind that high degree of racial segregation in churches lies the residential segregation. Out of the necessities of the situation, most churches are neighborhood affairs. A church situated in a "white" neighborhood becomes a "white" church, and vice versa.

Because segregation is so deeply ingrained in church affairs, most congregations do not welcome members of other racial groups even where there is a change in the character of racial occupancy in a given neighborhood. Ordinarily, the "white" church casts about wildly to sell its property to a "Negro" congregation and follows its parishioners elsewhere when Negroes move in. This kind of an attitude accelerates the growth of segregated neighborhoods.

The church which proclaims the doctrine of the brotherhood of man has a greater responsibility than otheri nstitutions to see that its doctrine becomes reality. We are glad to see organized churches assume the responsibility that belongs to them.

Jackie Shows The Way

Less than ten years ago, Branch Rickey violated one of organized baseball's most rigid, although unwritten, laws and hired Jackie Robinson.

This year that same Jackie Robinson will head one of the phases of Brotherhood Week for the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The example he has set in sports, the Conference believes, has an effect in other phases of our national life. We suspect that it does and we also think that Jackie's employment and his acceptance by players and fans alike shows what any courageous employer can do to erase a color line.

Editorial

Battleaxe and Bread

FORT WORTH, Texas—Sometimes I'm tempted to think my friends are right when they berate me for driving alone on many of these long trips. As, for instance when I came up with a flat tire at the edge of Memphis, just as it got good and dark. Or when I blew out a tire at the edge of Tulsa and had to change it while slipping and sliding down the grassy side of a ditch.

Lester Granger

And certainly I'm thinking of my friends' advice tonight "in the heart of Texas," because lumbago has laid me low and kept me there for two days. Tomorrow I must drive 550 miles to Kansas City—and I ain't ready!

But I'm hard-headed enough to insist that I'm still not sorry I drove, lumbago and whatever. Flying is quicker, but it's by driving that you can really meet people and see things and be informed about situations. Sometimes these situations are important—and at other times they are merely interesting. For instance, if I'd flown out I would not have travelled the Turner Turnpike, Oklahoma's new 100-mile toll road between Tulsa and Oklahoma City, late one rainy night.

The highway looked so much like the Jersey Turnpike that when I saw the familiar Howard Johnson restaurant I instinctively stopped for coffee and was inside the door before I remembered that this was "down home" instead of at home. Then I decided to brazen it out, when two State troopers looked up at me, and I stepped to the counter and asked for coffee. To my amazement, the waitress drew the coffee, set it down in front of me and asked, "Anything else, sir?" Just like home!

I couldn't wait to tell my friends about it, making like Christopher Columbus, but they quickly put me in my place. Howard Johnson has been doing that, they said, ever since the highway opened. But they couldn't tell me why—or how—this little oasis of cospmpolitanism was maintained in the Kingdom of James Crow.

Nor, if I hadn't had my car, could I have gotten about Fort Worth on my own and noted for myself the changes for the better in that tight capitol of hide-bound segregation. For instance, I was invited to a meal meeting in the principal hotel, which two years ago would have shaken as if in an earthquake at the very suggestion of a brown gentleman breaking bread within its doors.

And last night 150 members of the American Association of Social Workers tendered a dinner in my honor. And a reporter from the Star-Telegram attended to cover the affair. (I haven't seen the results of the coverage as yet.) And the Urban League, under the executive leadership of Velma McEwen, five feet one inch of hustle, has "promoted" a thousand new privately-built dwelling units for colored families.

It's not all roses and jasmine. Even while I write a lower-middle class white neighborhood is seething with fury over its "invasion" by the first Negro family. In spite of a bombing of his car and the bombing of the Negro realtor who handled the sale, Mr. Peters is hanging onto his property and intends to stick it out. And it's true that while the police department has assigned a detail to guard the home, it's the most "lackadaisical" guard within a thousand miles.

But in spite of this running fight of a retreating Old Guard, I have a feeling that progress has at last hit Fort Worth—and I'm proud as punch over the role that the Urban League has played in creating that progress. Contrary to the smug assumptions of some of my friends in such centers as New York, Los Angeles or Philadelphia, these are more than skirmishes, down here in the Southland where there are at best no supportive laws and, at worst, legislation is deliberately designed to defeat the Negro's battle for opportunity. If our northern civil rights laws are making the frontal attack on our enemy, these Southern battles are protecting our rear.

And that's why I turn a deaf ear to the arguments against my long auto trips. There is much to be learned from them—and the lessons grow progressively more heartening.

. . . AND STAY OUT

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

In our column of two weeks ago we carried a story about shoplifting and used a specific case to emphasize our theory.

Some misunderstanding resulted when the story was interpreted by some as a defense of the storekeeper and an attack upon the suspect.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

Our sole purpose was and is to reveal the nature of shoplifting as we feel clear-thinking people with all the facts should view it.

We consider shoplifting an insidious crime because many people, storekeepers as well as shoppers, condone or ignore such thefts because they usually involve items costing very little individually and they fail to consider the potential size of the loss when all such thefts are totalled on an annual basis.

Shoppers often consider a merchant "fair game." They rationalize the theft of a small article os a score-evening maneuver to offset what they may consider unfair pricing or they sometimes just consider it plain expression of resentment against a merchant making "so much" money. On the other side the merchant may refuse to report a theft because it may hurt his business to have a customer arrested.

We see this philosophy as a dangerous thing because it may be the start of an erosion of our standards of right and wrong. This disease may pass from parent to child to friend until a large segment of the community has had its thinking so distorted that by condoning a minor theft now we may encourage a larger theft later.

We used the specific case where John De Leon was arrested when charged with the theft of an eight-cent bar of soap at the Greater Avalon Market.

De Leon and the store owner, Henschel, are merely incidental symbols in the triangle.

De Leon's ultimate innocence or guilt will be determined in Superior Court and we will no doubt lose sight of this particular theft, but the third side of the triangle, the general public, will still be left to wrestle with the real problem . . . whether to condone or condemn shoplifting.

We must, for the sake of our children and our community, condemn theft, regardless of the value involved, and the parties to the act.

Stop, Thief! Puff, Puff

Fifth and Hill Street last week was the scene of the hottest "foot-race" since the All-City Track Meet last spring.

A victim who had his watch stolen by a fraudulent repair man had been looking for his man since March of this year. Last week as he got off the bus, he spotted his man . . . as the victim approached, the suspect recognized him and started to run . . . as they passed Officer Lionel McQuillon directing traffic, he joined the chase . . . a passing squad car joined the party and the four pursuers overhauled their man to the delight and entertainment of a host of early shoppers. We understand that the suspect's comment to the whole affair was, "A man can't even run to catch a street car without the whole city trying to get into the act."

One Man's Opinion

By LEON STEWARD

SO IT WASN'T POLITICAL!

You have been reading about the Republican's efforst to dig up a dead man to "show to the American people, how the Democrats have been coddling Communist spies in our highest political places." Well, if you believe their motives have no part in political a in political affairs and are not deliberately planned to cover their own shortcomings and to end the parade of Democrats who are already marching into Congress in place of former Republican office holders there are plenty of us who do not.

Leon Steward

About a week ago we were reading a story in the famous column of Drew Pearson, which we always find interesting, but which many do not read because, instead of buying the daily newspaper that is for the working man we usually prefer those which are not. Now to get on with Drew Pearson's story. It was in October this year when he reported that the Republican high command had decided to employ a strategy of setting up a time table by which "various skeletons were to be yanked out of the Truman closet beginning about Jan. 1. eral was to be indicted. Several Democrats connected with surplus-ship deals were to be prosecuted. Various alleged links between the Truman-Roosevelt administrations and the Communist party were to be revealed." Pearson relater that Senator McCarthy had been given the green light to go ahead with the investigations, he in the meantime having been relieved by the Republicans of getting his own finances investigated. The Harry Dexter hite case was to become the first big gun shot by the Republicans after Jan. 1 but it was moved ahead of the schedule "because some G.O.P. leaders got panicky over the New Jersey defeat and figured something must be done quickly." Thus Attorney General Brownell broke forth with the first big gun ahead of time to ward off any possible election of a Democrat in California.

Now if you do not see some of the dirtiest kind of polities in these moves, we do. They only reveal to us that the Republicans are planning to keep out such national issues as farm prices, labor unrest, current food prices, taxes and other more important matters which hurt their chances of re-election next year by keeping the Democrats too busy defending themselves to keep the real issues before the American people.

DULLES A FRIEND TO HISS?

The famous columnist also reveals that just as Truman kept White on in high office, Dulles, who is now secretary of state, was exactly in the same position as regard Hiss, who is already serving time. Dulles, who was the chairman of the board of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, urged Hiss to be his successor. This is a letter which Pearson reveals Dulles wrote on behalf of Hiss after he had been advised of Hiss' Communistic connections:

"Dear Mr. Davidow:

"I have your letter of Dec. 23rd. Mr. Hiss was elected president of the Carnegie Endowment at a meeting of the trustees held earlier this month at the same time that I was elected Chairman of the Board. I have heard of the report which you have referred to, but I am confident that there is no reason to doubt Mr. Hiss' complete loyalty to our American institutions. I have been thrown in intimate contact with him at San Francisco, London and Washington and I doubt that the people you refer to in Washington know him any better than I do, or have seen him actually at work meeting alien efforts. I have myself in the past, particularly during the campaign in 1944, been the victim of so-called 'documentary proof' that I was various things that I was not.

"Under the circumstances. I feela little skeptical about information which seems inconsistent with all that I personally know, and what is the judgment of reliable friends and associates in Washington.

"I greatly appreciate the spirit in which you wrote.

"Very truly yours,

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

Delta Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Sorority is indeed grateful to you for the publicity which you gave us during our recent national meeting, here in the city. The pictures and the stories which accompanied them were informative and inspiring to all of us of Chi Eta Phi. We are still receiving many compliments. Many have said that this, our eighth boule', was the most enjoyable they have ever attended. We are confident that this could not have been accomplished except for the assistance Delta Chapter received from such friends as you.

Although a letter is but a small token of thanks, we are sincerely appreciative of the courtesy which you so graciously offered.

Sincerely yours,

EVELYN HENDERSON

Magazine Reports Growth in 1953

The year 1953 has been a prosperous year for Good Publishing Company, the home of the fastest growing Negro magazines on the market—Jive, Bonze Thrills and Sepia Record. This is the only known publishing company which has complete control of the entire operation, from the publishing, editing, printing and distributing.

Bronze Thrills, the oldest of Good Publications, has almost doubled its circulation this year. Jive, too, is growing.

TESTIMONIAL FOR DR. PETERS BRILLIANT COMMUNITY AFFAIR

AMONG THE MANY DIGNITARIES and distinguished guests who honored and paid tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Altas Peters at the impressive Testimonial Dinner which was held in the Undercroft dining hall of Victory Baptist Church on Saturday night, December 5th, celebrating Dr. Peters' tenth anniversary with Victory. The phenominal strides that have been accomplished by working in unity as one christian body in only a decade with steady progressiveness, showing that the spirit of the past is blessing the present and foreshadows the dawn of even a greater future with uch a capable and indispensible leader as their pastor. The charm and brilliance of the lovely Mistress of Ceremonies, Mrs. A. C. Bilbrew was eminently diplayesd throughout the evening with some of the city's most talented personalities taking part in the program entertaining the capacity crowd during the dinner hour. Local and civic organizations were well represented. Included in the group above is Mr. Robert Breckner, Director of KTTV and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Peters, (honoree), Honorable Judge Thomas L. Griffith and wife and Rev. Horace N. Mays, principal speaker of the evening, and wife.

Inspirational Program Scheduled for Next Sunday

Under the inspiring leadership of Chairman Billie T. Ferrell the Deacons of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, are busily planning for their annual observance, Sunday, Dec. 20.

Religiously Significant

The observance this year will feature the old songs of Zion. It is the desire of the planners that the worship provide a high level of spirituality, soul filling and soul winning.

The afternoon program, under the able direction of Vice-Chairman Sherman Jones, will have a representation of deacons from various churches of the city.

Under the leadership of the Rev. E. A. Anderson, the church has scheduled a series of events that will prove interesting to every member of the church. A part of the program contemplates participation of all members in some phases of church activity.

A firm believer in the old adage that "actions speak louder than words," the minister has planned a program in which every member can participate. The program is one for week days as well as Sundays.

The weekly calendar follows:

Monday and Tuesday: Pastor's Bible Class, 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday: Young Women and Men's Auxiliary and Junior Missionary meeting at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday: Men's Chorus Rehearsal at 8:00 p.m.

Wednesday: Regular mid-week Prayer Meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday: Senior Missionary at 3:00 p.m.

Friday: Moments of meditation and Choir rehearsals at 8:00 p.m.

Saturday: Saturday evening prayer band at 7:30 p.m.

All Persons Welcome

In closing Rev. Anderson stated: "Develop the habit of attending some religious services, somewhere, every week. If, however, you have not found the edifice which completely satisfies your religious desires, kindly feel free to worship at McCoy Memorial Baptist Church where its doors and our hearts are forever open to our fellowmen." Velma Lassiter is publicist of McCoy Church.

CHAMBERS DUO IN RECITAL SUN.

Tenn. Minister At Independent Church Sunday

Rev. E. P. Williams, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will preach Sunday at the morning service at Peoples Independent Church, 1025 E. 18th (18th and Paloma) Street.

Rev. Williams, who was born in Oregon, received his elementary and secondary education in Everett, Wash., and holds both the bachelor's and the master's degrees from Fisk University. He is a minister in the Community Church with many years of service to his credit.

He is an active member of the executive committee of the National Council of Community Churches and has won national acclaim for his outstanding work with the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce and the Citizens Civic League. He is a member of the Committee on Education of the Ford Foundation and is an active leader in intercultural activities in Chattanooga.

St. John's Methodist In Handel's Messiah

Handel's "Messiah" will be presented by the St. John's Methodist Church choir in collaboration with several guest choirs in the church auditorium, Century and Wilmington, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Collins, First Unitarian Speaker Sun.

The Reverend H. Holton Collins of Bakersfield, Calif., will speak at a special program to be held Sunday evening, December 13, at 8 p.m. at the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles. The Church is located at 2936 West 8th Street, just East of Vermont.

The subject of Rev. Collins' talk will be "Discrimination Can Be Licked."

Renowned Episcopalian

Rev. Collins, traveling Minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church for over twenty-one years, brings to his subject a wealth of experience in many fields. In addition to his researches in psychology, his interest in good government has culminated in his becoming the first Negro to be elected to the City Council of Bakersfield.

Interdenominal Meeting

The public is invited to attend this exceptional program, particularly to enjoy hearing this outstanding Minister and Civic figure.

Faithful Baptist Church Celebrates Men's Day

Men of Faithful Central Baptist Church, 40th Place and Paloma Street, are celebrating their third Men's Day Anniversary Sunday. They are so doing by spending the entire day in worship and fellowship. The Theme for the day is "Business In Christianity." The day will be highlighted by three separate programs, presented by and participated in by men only. The first service at 11 o'clock Sunday and fattures as speaker, Rev. W. L. Robinson, pastor of the church.

The second service of the day, starting at 3:00 p. m. will feature as guest speaker, Henri O'Bryant. He is a deacon at the Mount Sinai Baptist Church of which Rev. H. B. Charles is the minister. He heads the O'Bryant Uniform Company with offices and factory in Hollywood and, at present, is the only Negro manufacturer of this kind in the city. His company services many churches with robes.

Climaxing the full day of worship wil be the night service starting at seven o'clock.

SUNDAY SINGERS

The Fisher Brothers will be presented in a musical program on Sunday, December 13, 1953, at the 103rd Street Baptist Church, 2056 E. 103rd Street, at 3:30 p.m.

Many outstanding guest artists will appear on the program. If you have never heard the two Fishers Brothers sing, you have certainly missed a spiritual treat.

Moore, Naulls, Taft Add Strength to UCLA Cagers

John Wooden, UCLA Bruins basketball coach, is counting heavily on the services of a trio of sepia stars headed by two-year leterman Johnny Moore, forward and center. Up from the freshmen ranks come Willie Naulls who, in his senior year at San Pedro High, scored 337 points in 12 games for an average of 28.9. Morris Taft transferred to the Westwood campus from Compton JC where he earned high JC honors as a guard last season.

He also won All-City recognition while performing at Poly High. Taft, 6-2 and weighing 179, has the size, speed and ability to help the Bruins. In fact, his first two games this season indicated he will be on the first string.

JOHNNY MOORE

Although the season is young and Taft hasn't got the Wooden style down pat but he is considered a battler on the boards.

In games with West Texas Coach, the Wooden crew turned in a fine all-around performance.

With 11 lettermen returning and a good-looking 15-man team, Woden will be out to regain the Southern Division championship and he'll also be aiming to dethrone Washington as Pacific Coast Conference crown wearers. If any coach can do this, Wooden's the man.

Billy Peacock, North American titlist, is drilling daily for his Dec. 22 bout with Jesse Mongia at the Olympic. Peacock is one of California's leading bantamweight boxers.

WE APPLAUD THE NORMAN HAYES SUSPENSION

BERKELEY—A tragedy happened a week ago last night—Norman Hayes, the highly rated Boston middleweight—became a fisticuff bum before a national TV audience.

Hayes put up such a mediocre show against Garth Panther that his license was suspended immediately after the bout. The young East Coast athlete was granted a three-day pass from his Army camp in order to show up for his whipping at the hand sof Panther.

We know as an Army private Hayes isn't making a mint. On the contrary we also know that he picked up a couple of good bundles before he was inducted. Millions of young men who held less lucrative jobs as civilians managed to survive on their little monthly allowances and it appears now that young Mr. Hayes wil have to do likewise—simply because he committed the cardinal sin of not being in shape. We can't believe he was that desperate for loot that he had to virtually ship his future down the drain.

PYE'S PICKUPS

K. C. Jones, the playmaker for the USF's basketteers who teamed up with soph sensation Bill Russel to upset the PCC favorites—the California Bears—took sick before the Fresno State game Saturday and had to have an emergency operation. He'll be confined to his hospital in Fresno for 10 days. Jones will have to undergo another operation in six weeks and doctors say he'll be out for the season.

Dave Mann, the ex-Oakland hurler and erstwhile OSC footballer, now operating as a lefthalf on theg reat Fort Ord grid team along with All-American Ollie Matson, should be in demand by the pros when his Army hitch has terminated.... Don't be too surprised if the SF '49ers land both Mann and Matson. Matson has said in print that he definitely will not play any more pro ball for the Cardinals and Mann is a free agent.

S/Sgt. Hiner Thomas of the USMC, who was a member of the '36 Olympic boxing squad, and comely Demontry Barksdale will osculate and say "I do" in a pre-holiday ceremony in SF. . . . One of our L.A. cronies writes John Barber, the big L.A. State star basketballer, doesn't have to take a back seat to USF's headliner Bill Russell. How good is that Pasadena CC boy, Lary Ross? It's reported here he's as good right now as the SF '49ers' phenom Charley Powell.

JOHN BARBER LEADS STATE TO CAGE WIN

John Barber, towering six-foot center on the Los Angeles State College basketball team, dropped in 26 points as State defeated San Francisco, 68-63. This was State's eighth straight basketball win and Barber's lowest individual scoring total of the year. Robert Leibe, of San Francisco, was high point scorer for the visitors with 25 points.

GRAMBLING, La. (Special)—Robert McCoy, a six-foot-five freshman with little knowledge of college basketball geometry, outscored celebrated teammate Robert Hopkins here to propel the Grambling Tigers to an easy 86-63 victory over Wilberforce University.

Bowling News

Upsets were the feature of the evening games among the men bowlers at the Sunset League last Saturday night. The second division teams turned back the first division leaders and only the Lee Hit Hats were able to score against the juniors. Ed McFall, Harold Johnson and Milton Pope harmonized their defenses with a 207, 223, and 217, respectively, to sweep a three-game victory.

The second place Ted's Service team wasn't so successful trying to stop the onrushing Brown Motor team. K E Watts and Arthur Harold set the tempo for that team with their 214, 211 high games for a smashing two game win. Garrett bowlers, the sleepers of the league, finally unleashed some power and exploded over the Central Bar-B-Cue team for a two game victory.

Jimmie Hill showed championship form, recording his high game of 212. Along with the efforts of Frank Garrett, 197, the going was easy.

Coming back from last week's setback the Red Hut Broilers team came on strong to defeat the Sav-Way-TVers for a three game win. Teddy Hammond led the scoring with his high game of 218 with a big assist from Bill Kay with 197.

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Dashing Beauty from the stable of Sproul and Maloney, coupled with Split Reward and trained by A. J. Maloney, captured the feature handicap south of the border last Sunday with her stablemate running second. Taking the lead at the half mile post the Beauty opened upon her rivals turning for home and withstood the bold challenge of Split Reward to score a popular victory for the form players.

RAMSEY

Backed down to 7-to-5 in the mutuels the entry, which ran one-two, paid $4.80, $4.60 and $3.40 across the board. The secondary was won by the good mare from the stable of the popular trainer, F. L. Burkholder.

The five-year-old daughter of Be Quaint-Belifoin caught the fleet New Faith who was three lengths in front at the head of the stretch, to win handily by one length. Coupled with Second Glory the winner paid $8.00 as second choice in the beting.

Longshot players had their joy in the second race when the seven-year-old Remember Mama came from far back to wear down pace-setting Carbon Canyon to win going away. She paid in the mutuels for two dollars $34.20. In the last race Safrano rewarded longshot players with a $25.60 payoff. Apprentice Jockey Willy Harmatz, the leading rider at the border course, could only score in one race out of his nine mounts.

Whiz Kids Win The Municipal Cage Title

The Medical Pharmacy Whiz Kids quintet were successful in their bid to cop their first preseason basketball championship. They defeated the Rite All-Stars, 61-47, to earn their first Major Municipal League title.

Coach Fred Griffin was high in praise of his boys' showing as they completely out-fought and out-played the All-Stars. Jumping off to a 21-9 halftime lead and the club used every man on the squad during the final period.

Jackie White was high point man for the Whiz Kids bucketing 15.

The winners were presented with a huge team trophy, currently on display in the window of the Medical Pharmacy, as the symbol of city titlist.

Next foe on the tough Whiz Kids program is San Pedro Dolphins next week.

Green Vs. Vaughn

Charlie Green, ruler of the California middleweight crown, risks his championship in a scheduled 12-rounder Saturday night at the Hollywood Legion Stadium. Green battles Willie Vaughn, who is a nice boy but not in the same class with Belting Charlie.

New Sport Club At South Park

Joe Lewis, Playground Director of South Park and his able assistants, announced the forming of the South Park Athletic Club last week.

The club will interest itself in all types of sport games and will open its doors to the public. One of the important functions of the club will be to enter teams in year round sport activities.

Jackie White will assist Lewis with the new group, which took for their motto "Fair Play."

The officers elected were as follows: Donald Johnson, president; Fred Thompson, vice-president; Emmett Albert Sect, treasurer; Albert Thomas, assistant treasurer; Charles Brown, buiness manager; Napolean Nalls, assistant business manager; James Houston, sergeant-at-arms. Members of the board of directors are Raymond Neal, Jackie White, Joe Lewis. The club meets each Wednesday night and new members are invited.

COLONIC
ENJOY A TRIAL TREATMENT $3
My technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine and rectum
In simple language — it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by a normal effort.
Prof. Ehret says, "Every sick person has a more or less mucus-clogged system, such mucus being derived from undigested and uneliminated, unnatural food substances accumulated from childhood on."
"The actual amount of filth and waste, which is the 'mysterious' cause of your 'trouble,' is almost unbelievable.
"I had fat patients that eliminated from their body as much as 50 to 60 pounds waste, and 10 to 15 pounds alone from the colon, mainly consisting of foreign matter, especially old, hardened feces. The average so-called 'healthy' man of today carries continually with him, since childhood, several pounds of never-eliminated feces. One 'good stool' a day means nothing. 'A fat and sick man is in fact a living cesspool.'"
"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old fecesstones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove pipe."
"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS.'"
Constipation is the common sense explanation of many illnesses, say some of the world's best authorities. Many doctors accuse large intestine as breeding grounds of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH.
Acne, Arthritis, Asthma, Appendicitis, Anemia, Autointoxication, Backache, Bad Breath, Bladder, Blood Pressure High and Low, Body Odor, Bright's Disease, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Circulatory Defect, Constipation, Cystitis, Diabetes, Digestive Disorders, Eczema, Female Troubles, Fevers, Flatulence, Gallstones, Gas, Glaucoma, Goitre, Halitosis, Hay Fever, Heart Derangements, Headache, Insomnia, Itch, Itchy Scalp, Kidney Disorders, Neuralgia, Organic Sexuality, Obesity, Pimples, Premature Gland Failure, Psoriasis, Psychiatric Problems, Rectal Troubles, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Skin Diseases, Smelly Feet, Stomach Troubles, Torpid Liver, Varicose Veins
When you visit my office you will see hundreds of patients under treatment — satisfied patients, many of whom have been pronounced incurable by other doctors. You will see hundreds of testimonials. You will see stamped envelopes from all over the world. Truly an experience and a sight to behold. Why? Because you will see the results that other forms of treatment have not been able to accomplish. Results that can only be accomplished with this type of treatment—Colonics.
Colonics remove the cause of many diseases, disaster, and death. It is positively amazing the results that might be obtained by a series of colonics, when properly administered by experts — specialists who are trained to eliminate that which causes toxic poisons—"the true cause of many diseases."
Come in today and see with your own eyes the benefits that many derive. Enjoy a trial treatment—an experience that you may never forget. Perhaps you will respond as thousands have responded. Many of them had given up hope. Believe me, I would not tell you this if it were not true.
I MAKE NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION, FOR MY EXAMINATION AND TRIAL TREATMENT I CHARGE $3.
The trial treatment consists of an internal bath—commonly referred to as "colonic"—given under the direction of a doctor specialist, supervised by female supervisors and given by nurses thoroughly trained.
The examination includes laboratory test, cardiograph test of the heart, thorough fluoroscopic X-ray study and analysis of case history by competent doctors, D.C., especially trained for this type of treatment. The examination and laboratory test are FREE with the $3 trial treatment.
Remember this! I have a staff of 14 doctors, D.C., specializing in this type of therapy, 60 female supervisors and nurses, 41 private treating rooms — the latest and finest equipment obtainable.
Come in and enjoy a most unusual experience. Rub shoulders with hundreds of satisfied patients. See and talk to my patients and hear of thousands who were benefited. Spend hours reading amazing testimonials. Many from patients who were diagnosed "incurable." See stamped envelopes from all over the world.
I have the world's largest institution of its kind. More than 655,000 various treatments. There is no substitute for experience.
Enjoy this marvelous trial treatment today. Don't forget—the total cost for examination and trial treatment is $3. Yes! I said $3. This $3 pays for everything. There are no extras.

Are You Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?
To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific tests are made.
Here Is Proof
PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."
IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED.
I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

Sequoia Social Club In Formal

More than 500 guests attended the introductory formal of the Sequoia Social Club, Saturday, at the beautifully decorated Masonic Hall, 5906 S. Broadway.

The glittering metallic decorations and red and white Christmas bells swaying beneath the dim lights, with the soft music of Lou Arvizo and his orchestra provided an enchanting atmosphere during the entire evening.

The master of ceremonies, C. L. Lay, introduced the members as follows: Santo A. Lapi, C. E. McAfee, sergeant-at-arms; William Hill, Jr., parliamentarian; R. L. Johnston, Jr., business manager; Wilmer Braxton, treasurer; Bennie Edmond, financial secretary; U. S. Cooper, vice-president, and Nicholas L. Brown, president.

Members entering with canes and wearing homburg hats, were greeted with cheers from their guests.

The president was presented with a gift from the club as well as a gift from Mrs. Brown.

A presentation of two dozen roses was made to Mrs. Mamye Edmond, and orchids went to Mrs. Lorena Richardson as the leaders of their particular organization.

During the wee hours of the morning club members and their wives gathered at the Hi Hat Club for breakfast.

Charity Club Gives Benefit

The Valiant Socialites Charity Club is presenting a musical program for the Christmas Charity Benefit, Friday, Dec. 11, at 8:00 p.m., at the Church of the Living God, 1435 E. 43rd Pl.

Among the outstanding artists who will be heard are: The Bradfords Heralds of Joy Recordings, the Ford Singers, Gist Singers and Mrs. Catherine Windom. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Mamie Green is president.

Members are: Debbie Harri, Betty Brandon, Ella Brooks, Johnny Stevens, Viola Rhetta, Mary Alice Nicholas. Frank Morgan and Sonny Criss will be on hand to furnish the music.

Top Hatters Entertain at Annual Ball

Playing host to nearly 1900 guests and friends, the Top Hatters celebrated their annual social and charity ball on Thanksgiving eve at the Zenda Ballroom. As in the past, the dance was highlighted by the canned food donation, which was turned over to the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

Miss Edythe Carr of the Recondite Entre Nous Social and Charity Club, was mistress of ceremonies. Miss Carr was beautifully attired in a breathtaking full length gown. The members were attired in the latest formal attire, sporting midnight blue Tony Martin tuxedos.

On hand to greet the guests were: Norman Grayson, president; Maceo B. Sheffield, Jr., vice-president; Willie Grayson, recording secretary; Roger Glassco, corresponding secretary; Leo H. Ingram, Jr., treasurer; Edward Greenwood, public relations; Claude Loudd, historian, and members Joseph Dow, Jr., Leonard Jackson, Jr., Augustine Kimmons, Robert P. Long, Edward Pettigrew, James Pratt, Jehue Silas, Jesse C. Stasher, Raymond Walker and Herman Williams.

I wonder now if she finished that book she told us about one gay night while all of us sipped, reminisced, laughed and sipped again with Maurine and Harold Browning.

FACES AND SPACES

The fabulous Jo Cooper dialed us from N.Y. the other a.m. to tell us not to put out her eggnog cup after all. She won't be out for Xmas as she so hoped and planned a few days back. "I'll be busy, doll," she explained, "and spell that busy with a capital B!!!"

GREEK GATHERINGS

Local Phi Beta Sigmas joining in the beaming aimed their general way since a bright chapter added the distinguished white advisor in deep Dixie. If memory serves me it seems the Phi Beta Sigs always get things done in decisive ringing style. Georgia Laster's N. Y. Town Hall debut last Tues. was a success although, alas, it occurred right in the midst of the newspaper strike in that town. Bernice Lawson's daughter studying at Juilliard was among those in the audience.

Alice Cunningham: And thank you.

But, man, have you dug those crazy stars in Wesleen Foster's eyes? Stars, Yep. Take a closer look. They're there all right. And all of a sudden being back in L. A. again isn't so rugged for her!

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Concludes Two-Day Pacific Regional Meet

The three Los Angeles Chapters of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority were host to the Pacific Regional Conference last week with representatives from Arizona, Northern and Southern California. All business sessions were held at the Woodlawn Branch Y.W.C.A.

On Friday morning at 9 o'clock, over 60 delegates and visiting sorors registered for the conference. The Executive meeting of national and regional officers, and chapter Basilei was held immediately thereafter, with Mildred Cater Boone, Director of the Pacific Region, presiding.

Business Reports

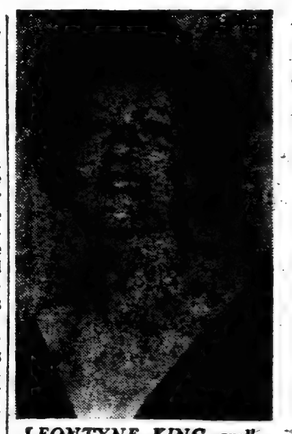
During the morning business session reports were made by the Region's Associate Director, Naomi Williams of Berkeley, and Julia Simmons of San Francisco, Associate Project Director of Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency Luncheon was served at 12 noon, with Thomasina Ayers, basileus of Gamma Sigma eZta Chapter, presiding. A well planned program and the Regional Director's report were the highlights on this occasion.

The Friday afternoon session was devoted to panel discussions. The first panel on "Undergraduates and Their Role in the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority," was moderated by Regional Director, Mildred C. Boone, and the discussion group leaders were: Mamie Maxwell, Myrtle A. Ballard, Eliza B. George, Lenecia Weemes, and Katie Miller. The second panel on "Zeta's New Emphasis for a Six Point Program," was moderated by Lillian J. Fentress, national antapolritis of the sorority, and the discussion group leaders were Mary T. Williams, Naomi Williams, Octavia George, and Elsie Atkins.

On Friday evening, all Sorors, escorts and husbands assembled at the home of Dr. C. W. Hill in Hollywood, for the sorority's Rededication Service and an evening of gaiety. Soror Barbara Bradley, basileus of Zi Alpha Chapter, was in charge of hte evening's festivities.

On Saturday morning, committee meetings were held followed by a very interesting panel on "The Teen-Ager in an Adult World." Associate Regional Director, Naomi Williams, was moderator, and the Panel leaders were: Julia Simmons, Alpha Arnold, Robert Green, Sgt. in charge of the Juvenile Division of the City Department, and John Brewer, Supervisor of the Preventive and Control of Juvenile for L. A. County. Also on this Panel were four teen-agers of Zeta's High School Interest Group, Zelphinians.

Luncheon



At 12 noon, luncheon was served with Pauline Battle, basileus of Beta Eta Zeta Chapter, presiding. Ethel Ingram sang and greetings came from Ashton C. Kitchens, president of the Pan Helenic Council; Mrs. Emily Woody, president of the American Council on Human Rights, and Mrs. Ruby M. Ayers, president of Zeta Amicaes. The Regional perpetual gold cup was awarded to Delta Beta Zeta Chapter of Berkeley for the most outstanding chapter report. Several Archonian Pledge Club members gave musical numbers.

Final Session

The final business session closed late in the afternoon, and again sorors, sweethearts and husbands assembled at the beautiful home of Mrs. Verna Deckard on Gramercy Park, for a delicious Thanksgiving dinner, directed by Lenecia Weemes. A surprise came when the Regional Director, Mildred Cater Boone, was presented with a beautiful orchid from the delegates in appreciation for having conducted one of the greates and most successful Pacific Regional Conferences. She was also presented with a gold placque from her chapter, Gamma Sigma Zeta, for services rendered as past Basileus.

The culinary art on all occasions was furnished by Zeta's caterist of renown, Edna McPherson, who was assisted by members of the Archonian Pledge Club.

Visiting Sorors left in high praise of the hospitality accorded them by the local Committees in charge of Conference planning. The Committees were: Housing, Dorothy Boone and Alpha Arnold; Socials, Lenecia Weemes, Katie Miller and Leathric Turner; Registration, Pearl Williams, Margaret Dean and Katherine Pierce; Finance: Nellie Render and Lucille Brockenbury; Refreshments, Edna McPherson, Edna Mae Moore and Mayme Maxwell; Publicity, Hattie Johnson and Lillian J. Fentress.

LEONTYNE KING, well-known club woman, will head the Women's Division of the Goodwin J. Knight-for-Governor Campaign.

Club Woman Head Division

Leontyne King, nationally known club woman and social leader, has been selected to head the Women's Division of the Goodwin J. Knight for Governor Campaign Committee, with headquarters in the Hotel Watkins.

A long time resident of this community and an active worker in civic and social groups, Mrs. King's extensive work in this community, make her a valuable addition to the Knight Committee. She is the wife of Celestus A. King, Jr., well known businessman.

Her organization work includes the Wilfandel Club, Independent Scholarship Guild, the Knoxville College Alumni Club and many other groups.

Hill Toppers in Regular Meet

Billy Nunn was the very charming hostess to "The Hill Toppers" last Friday in her Montclair apartment. A very interesting as well as enthusiastic meeting was held, because of the big event for the spring.

Jo Holmes, a very efficient and loyal vice "prexy" heads the committee for our first project and will be ably assisted by such outstanding "Hill Topper personalities" as Emma "Joe" Adams, Jeannette Owens, Velma Plummer, Honorene Cochee, Margo Westfield as co-workers.

Mrs. Clara M. Piller, of Chicago, arrived in the city Wednesday morning to be with her sister, Camilla Leftridge for the funeral services of her brother-in-law, William Leftridge, held Thanksgiving Day.

KING OF TOM TOM DRUMS will be beating rhythmic tunes for the needy families when the Eastside Welfare Association stages its December 19 dance at the Masonic Temple 4200 S. Avalon. Cee Pee Johnson and his band will play at the benefit dance. Left to right: Elihu McGee and Cee Pee, Alice Key and Johnny Cornish, members of the Planning Committee of the Association.

FASHIONABLE FEMINITY

Paulette Coleman Garland wears that Italian haircut of hers like any second-look-getting Italian movie actress. She's a striking type, haircut or no haircut via Italy. Her husband's cousin, Clara Fentress, is another type; and I'v econcluded is the busiest career career woman in town going and coming. We used to touch tall glasses occasionally but her designer's drawing board keeps her out of sight these days.

SATURDAY 'RIP'

Recently over a quick nightcap at Joe Adams' Place Pigalle (I like that name!) a few of us talked far into the morning and wondered aloud about unfabulated Jimmy (Lover Man) Davis, how he is and if Paris has been kind to him. Its been a long time since slender intense Jimmy lived and worked in L. A.

Somehow I always thought him a sort of tortured soul in self-moments. Impulsive, impetuous, many didn't really know him, hence their misunderstanding him. Personally I hope he's happy these days doing just what he wishes. And with money to do it with.

Johnny Scott running full-sail into us as we tried running full-sail into the Watkins elevator brought us up short at the sight of the darndest most elegant looking box under his arm. "I'm my own Santa Cutie," he explained. Then showed us a dozen Bronzini ties he had sent out from back east! Upset us so, doggone it, we didn't enjoy the belated reunion upstairs. With Ernestine Sayles. In from Fisk.

GLOBAL GALS

Number of local beauticians who are interested in joining their coworkers who convene in Paris in '54 is growing by a good bound or two. The gals plan big things in a big way, I hear. They are ah andsomely looted group and can well afford it.

Well, gosh, when have we seen Ruth Lee? And Phil Fortier? Lula Evans? Sadie Lung? Charley Robertson, Wendell Franklin? John Lawrie?

There is no denying that the spirit of the Christmas season is upon us. The window displays, the street decorations, and beautiful sermons from pulpits dealing with the advent of the birth of Jesus, are all coming to set the stage for this wonderful occasion.

Holiday Preparation

I noticed quite a bit of housecleaning in my meanderings last week. The doing of curtains, drapes, etc., some discussion of visitors expected and plans for their entertainment; as well as the usual: "I just don't know where the money is coming from." Of course the kids are adding to the list for Santa daily.

Typical Homes

Typical spirit of the occasion was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Simpson, 610 E. 116 Pl. Mrs. Simpson's home was sparkling and her talk of Xmas and three young grandchildren. They are members of Faith Tabernacle Baptist Church and spoke very highly of their Pastor, the Rev. F. Douglas Ferrell. L. T. Antwine's, 425 E. 25th St. will center Christmas activities around their three lovely children. Mr. Antwine is a carpenter. Santa's load will be much lighter when he leaves this residence.

Active Season

Just got a word in with Mrs. Willie C. Sheppard, 750 E. 48th St., as she was hurrying out to fill one of her catering assignments. . . . This is her busiest time of the year so I probably will not get to see her again this year.

Stork Report

Stopped by the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Taylor, 417 Hooper Ave., learned first hand that a junior "T" man is expected in February.

Watts' Wonder Workers

What a delight it was to visit Mrs. Maxine Simpson, 721½ E. 117th St. This young mother is doing an excellent job of caring for her nine months old son. Sorry I did not get to meet Mr. "S"—he must be a wonderful guy . . . Got a real good feeling listening to Mrs. Patsy James, 723 E. 216th St., talk about the Girl Scout program she is developing in Southeast L.A. . . . Ever notice how the people who give so much of themselves seem to prosper? It isn't just looking my friend.

Speaking of prosperity, it was a privilege to meet Mr. and Mrs. James H. Minor, 847 E. 116th Pl. . . . All they need are little 'Minors' for a perfect symphony . . . Maybe Santa Claus can do something about that—hmmmm . . . Best wishes to Mrs. Mable McLean, 837 E. 116th St. Mrs. McLean has been an invalid for three years, but she sees beyond appearances and is one of the sweetest persons I have ever met . . . Your Xmas card list can include another name I betcha—I know your prayer list can . . . Mrs. McLean will be very grateful.

How About My Guys?

Listen friends, I like what I'm doing—don't know what to call it but it's helping others all I can—So don't forget my guys down at Rennie-Laughlin DeSoto-Plymouth dealers, Central Avenue at 7th St., downtown L.A.—Call for Joe Palooka, Bill Lancaster and Ray Cole. Thomas Edison . . . . Jr. Hi Journalist

Since most people don't know about the junior high schools of Los Angeles, I'll tell you about the one I attend, Edison Junior High. I will tell you about some of the fine students. First and always first are some of the fine girls.

Sandra McAfee

She is one of the fine girls, and I mean fine. She is nice and intelligent. Her birthday was November 29. If you want to give her a present, give it to me.

Mary Alice Westbrook

She is another fine girl at Edison. She does good work and other odd jobs around school.

Helen Casey

Helen is a very nice girl from what I hear and she is always looking for something good to do and never gets into trouble, she makes a good example to follow.

Maxine Jackson

This girl is one of the smartest in her class. She got a straight A report card. That is another good example to follow, if you can do it.

Annette Jones

Annette is one of the busiest girls in the school. I mean that she gets about the best jobs around school, for instance she is on hall, cafeteria, etc. Those are some of the best positions, and she has them.

Bobbie Turner

She is a nice girl in many ways. She does things to help others, and she is smart in her classes.

Queene Henry

Queene is just out here from Seattle, Washington, the apple state. She is doing fine out here. She has a sister named Stokkie. She also is getting along fine.

Jo Ann Patton

She is one of the good looking girls at the school. She seems to get along in school very well. That's all for the girls, so let's get to the boys.

Herold Grayson

He is one of the funniestt guys I've met yet. He has a joke every time you meet him, but still he's one of the track stars at our school.

Edward DeVold

Edward is a smart boy. He fills out all the smart jobs around school. He also is a big joker. At lunch we sit around and tell jokes. He tells about the funniest ad the corniest.

Thomas Hibler

This boy is one of our all-around athletes for the Bears; one of our fine after school teams, and he still keeps up with his school work. He's another fine joker.

Now we get to the smart boys.

Frank Lewis

He does good work both in and outside of school. He is smart, intelligent, and he is also a good athlete in track and football.

Elmer Kidd

Elmer is also a good athlete. He is best in basketball, and also is exceptionally good in art.

That's all for this issue. Hope to find you among my readers next week.

The Hounds have journied to the North Pole to ask Santa for Marilyn Monroe before anyone else does. They will return in time for next week's edition.

Enoch Grand Lodge To Hold Xmas Party

The affiliates of Enoch Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. and Isis Grand Chapter, O.E.S., are having their annual Christmas party for the membership Dec. 19, from 8 p.m. until midnight, 10207 Grandee avenue.

The decision was made at the monthly Board of Directors meeting of the Lodge. Board members present were: M. M. Hatcher, Grand Master; Dale Dunham, chairman; Roscoe Williams, Rev. Robert Washington, Chester Bryant, Robert B. Ross, George W. Ross, George A. Fox, Franklin Durham. Future plans for the organization were discussed and approved.

Aquellians Plan Santa Hop

The Aquellians are planning a pre-Christmas dance, "Santa's Swing," Friday night, Dec. 11, at 1926 S. Oxford, from 8:30 until ?. Bids may be purchased from any one of the charming members, Peggy Parks, Pat Smith, Eva Manson, Carolyn Blackwell, Julia Tusan, Carmen Ellsworth, Olivia Hunter, June Champion, Shirley Nicholson or Phyllis McGarrity. Tickets will also be sold at the door for the same price. There will be door prizes of popular records of the winners' choice and the newest in refreshment crazes — Tacos. Music will be furnished by the "Manhattan Swing Combo."

Ross Snyder Lists Holiday Activities

Directors at Ross Snyder Playground announce the coming Christmas events to be held at the playground. Christmas is for all ages, and these events have been planned to captivate the interest of children and adults. Listed below is the schedule of coming events:

Friday, Dec. 18 — Square Dance Round-up, 7:30 p.m. Open to all adults.

Tuesday, Dec. 15—Children's Party, 4:30 p.m. Boys and girls, aged 6 to 12 years.

Johnson, Publicist; Cunlin Boston, Program Chairman; Carl Johnson; Melcie Clinton, General Chairman; Pastor Robinson; Henri C'Bryant, famous Hollywood uniform manufacturer and Men's Day speaker Sunday at Faithful Baptist Church, 40th & Paloma, at 3 p.m. C. T. Child, Finance Chairman; Bertram Rucker. Second row: Rev. W. W. West; James Robinson, Trustee Board Chairman; Charlie Ary Sr., Deacon Board Chairman, and Carl Johnson, Organist.

People and Places

GEORGE PUTNAM, KTTV's noted newscaster, was raving in our living room the other night about how we peasants in this smog belt fail to give police officers the respect they so rightly deserve. The only lack of respect the peasants over here have is for the administration. That lack doesn't extend to individual officers. The administration has always winked at the treatment of its Negro officers. Although there have been a few feeble attempts at integration, the department has a long way to go.

Shapely Laurita Alexander (the Oasis hat-chick) cheats the winter weather with quilted toreador trousers. . . . Troubadour Ernie Andrews, whose 'Make Me a Present of You" is a disclick, will follow through with "All Alone and Lonesome" and overshadow the other hot plate! . . . If a patron should hapen to get unruly while Eddy Dudley is tickling the ivories at Dynamite's, the pianist tells 'em to sit down and try to act kosher! . . . Pillarist Bob Thomas and kute Katie Glass are closer than St. Nick's annual visit.

Overheard at the Siquanon's sweater-gal contest: If you don't measure 34 to 36 inches nowadays, you're considered flat chested! . . . Misty Moon Meandering: We felt like a fifth wheel last Wednesday but stayed up till early yawning at the Lennie Hayton's Ambassador suite chatting with La Lena, her goateed hubby, Jim Edwards, and Leona Mosely (Jim's fiancee). . . . Also on the palm-studded premises we bent elbows with idol of the airlanes Joseph Adams, Geri Nicholas (we'll continue our friendly debate, hon) and Ann Hathaway (who looks real frantic with that "tossed salad" hairdo). . . . The Incomparable Lena Horne had her usual spell-binding effect on an overflow crowd at the Grove!

Frankly admit that the landoffice business at Club Oasis Saturday night put our eyebrows on stilts. Oscar Peterson at Tiffany Club

Canadian-born Oscar Peterson, pianist extraordinary, opened at the Tiffany Club last Friday night much to the delight of the followers of progressive music. Backed by the great bassist, Ray "JATP" Brown, and guitar player Herb Ellis, Pete's presentation of such standards as "Tenderly" and "How High the Moon," left the crowds gasping and begging for more.

Tiffany Hospitality

From a purely personal point of view, it is almost unbelievable that a man of such massiveness with so unsensitive an appearance could produce chords and lightness of touch comparable to what we think would be heard from the "harps of heaven." If you as a music lover are in the market for truly fine piano artistry, don't miss the Oscar Peterson Trio at the Tiffany Club, 3260 W. 8th street.

with the Trinity Baptist Church. The new officers will be installed at a banquet and dance to be held at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in the International Room, Jan. 29. Other officers elected are: Emily A. Johnson, first vice-president; Jesse L. Taylor, second vice-president; Robert W. Lee, secretary; McHenry Norman, Jr., treasurer; Clarence O. English, parliamentarian. Directors include: Andre S. Vaughn and W. J. Fairchild, three-year terms; Willis E. Carson, Onie B. Granville and Joseph Beacham, two-year terms.

Under the guidance of Cluese Reid, retiring president, the board has shown tremendous progress. He has to his credit the Fall Real Estate Sales Clinic and Conference held at the Biltmore Hotel, where the members and fellow brokers discussed and exchanged ideas on the real estate trends to better serve their demanding public.

This year the board lists among its achievements, their financial aid to help an attempt to get United States Supreme Court approval of suits to collect damages for sale of race restricted real property to Negroes.

Other achievements made

was success in gaining employment to members of minority groups in local escrow offices and banks; the establishment of better relationship among real estate brokers in order to insure greater service to the general public; the establishment of a multiple listing service to hurry the sale of a property listed with any member of the board, has gained overwhelming confidence with the general public.

Bothered by bathroom barricades?
HELP YOUR WIFE! HELP YOURSELF!
THIS CHRISTMAS GIVE HER AN AUTOMATIC GAS CLOTHES DRYER

Automatic gas clothes dryer illustrated is the new WEDGEWOOD
Leading makes include Barton, Bendix, Blackstone, Caloric, Crosley, Hamilton, Horton, Kenmore, Roper, Speed Queen, Tamco, Thor, Wedgewood and Whirlpool

Only gas dries clothes so fast—costs so little to run

Why not make every washday a sunny day for your wife? Give her an automatic gas clothes dryer for Christmas.

Delicate fabrics dry perfectly in minutes in an automatic gas clothes dryer—free your bathroom from nightly barricades of lingerie. Even ordinary clothes placed in an automatic gas clothes dryer are ready for storage or ironing in minutes.

An automatic gas clothes dryer provides ideal drying weather any time, day or night, rain or shine. It eliminates backyard lines and heavy baskets. It reduces clothes drying to tossing rinsed laundry in your dryer, setting the control, then removing the sweet-smelling dried clothes.

Visit a dealer or your Gas Company and see the dryer displays.

Insist on an automatic GAS clothes dryer because gas outsells other types here for 3 very important reasons:

1 Gas dries clothes faster than any other fuel—faster even than sunshine.
2 Gas costs so little—dries clothes for less than 2¢ per dryer-full.
3 Automatic gas clothes dryers cost less installed, cost less in the long run, too.

Asthma

"Prior to taking treatments at Dr. L. A. Brinkley's office I was troubled constantly for over 40 years with asthma, constipation, headaches and dizziness. Since taking treatments I have been absolutely free of any distress or the recurrence of the symptoms usually associated with the above condition. John Broothuis."

"I have been afflicted with bronchial asthma for nearly 20 years and suffered almost constantly. I tried every kind of doctor and medicines known but to no avail. One day I heard about the New Yorker Battle Creek treatments and decided to give it a try. It has been almost a year now since I took these treatments and I haven't had a sign of asthma, for which I am eternally grateful to you and your staff. Delbert Burg."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have suffered from bronchitis and asthma since 1942 and have tried several supposed remedies, but I did not get very much relief until I came to you on Oct. 29, 1948, and had your wonderful treatment, and I can honestly say that I have not had any trace of bronchitis or asthma since. Peter Buchanan."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have been bothered with sinus and asthma. Have doctored so much had almost given up ever feeling any better until I took a few treatments at L. A. Brinkley's. My sinus and asthma cleared up almost unbelievably and I felt like a new man. M. G. Rainthorp."

Skin Disease

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After having suffered for years with acne on my face, and had spent hundreds of dollars on skin specialists I decided to try New Yorker Technique. My face has now no signs of acne and I have only the highest praise for the New Yorker Technique. Robert T. Daley."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had been suffering from eczema for 10 years accompanied by high blood pressure and liver disorder.

"After trying one doctor after another I came to your office for treatment without missing one day from work. I began to feel such positive results I was amazed. Hazel Israel."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For 10 years I suffered with a skin disease akin to eczema and psoriasis and tired of trying one ointment and home remedy after another without success. I resolved to try your New Yorker Technique. My skin cleared after only 15 days of treatment. It's over 3½ months since I walked out of your office completely well. M. L. Deaguera."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have had psoriasis for about a year accompanied by high blood pressure and liver disorder.

"However, since taking your treatments, the skin condition is unquestionably better. The alarming high blood pressure and liver condition cleared up... it is an impressive fact. Now, I feel like I was only in my thirties. Ernest Phipps."

Stomach Gas

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering with a nervous stomach and gas for 5 years, and having had two operations with no results. I can truthfully and honestly say that after taking treatments from you for 9 days I feel better than I have in the past 20 years or more. Mrs. Etoy Edwards."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I came to your office in Sept. 1948, I was suffering with gas and pains in my chest, auto-intoxication and constipation. I could not sleep at night and was not able to turn over in bed. I am glad to say to you and let the world know that after taking your treatment I sleep and eat well and do my work with pleasure. W. M. Jenkins."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For over 5 years I suffered from gas and other stomach and intestinal disorders. But with your treatments I felt immediate relief. Mrs. J. Nietzchmann."

"Dr. L. A. Brinkley: I place your treatments among the Greatest Blessings of Mankind. After suffering many years with 'gastric disturbances' that kept me awake nightly, and 'hayfever' in its worst form, I cannot praise you enough for your wonderful work. F. V. Crooksie."

REFUSES $500

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first heard of your treatments I was a very sick man. My disease had been diagnosed by medical doctor as epilepsy. When epileptic attacks would strike me I would be totally unconscious for three days. After the second treatment in your institution, I had an attack but never lost consciousness and was back for my next treatment the following day.

"When I began your treatments my stomach was completely 'shot.' It had become so bad I could hardly put anything into it any more. It was in very bad shape. I had been taking sedatives for seven years. I was in and out of hospitals for the last two years. However, I was afraid to come here because I thought the nurses would be as mean as those in the other hospitals where I had been a patient. If I asked for water I almost got a beating—but far from it, these nurses have been like angels to me. I never received nicer treatment in my life.

"I feel so deeply grateful to you because your treatments have saved my life. After only nine treatments I feel like a new man 100% better in every way. My stomach trouble has completely left me and I have done away with sedatives forever. My gratitude is boundless, and I can only say 'God bless you!'

"I have—and again am offering you—a gift of $500.00 which you still refuse to accept. Words seem inadequate to express my deep and sincere gratitude. I sincerely and truly feel that your treatments have saved my life, and I want everybody to know it. I only wish I were gifted with the ability to put into words what I really feel, but all I can say is 'God bless you' for saving my life. I can never thank you enough for what you have done for me. Sincerely and gratefully. Signature left out purposely. Witness: Mrs. Lucy A. Rubalcava, Dr. S. M. Sassone, D.C., Mrs. E. H. Berghof, Mrs. B. Lamont."

CONSTIPATION

"Dear Doctor: I have suffered chronic colitis, constipation, eleven years, was in the hospital and clinic but got no relief. I came to realize that all diseases originate in the stomach or colon and came to you. Your treatments are wonderful. The pains have vanished and now I enjoy life again. I thanked you once, now I thank you more substantially. G. H. Freeman."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For a period of 6 years I suffered with constipation. I tried every remedy available but nothing gave me relief. But now through your treatments I have restored my health. I express my most sincere gratitude. J. Colon."

"Dear Sir: After being constipated and sick for seven years I heard of the New Yorker Technique. I started your treatments and right away I felt like a different person. It has been more than one year that I took the last one and I still feel in perfect health, younger, full of energy. Joe Urias."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have suffered for years from chronic constipation, and all the complications that go with it. Now I feel well, happy and I am very active. Thanks to your treatments, that were a great pleasure to me. Now I never have to take a laxative and my stomach is in perfect condition. Y. Alegria."

ENJOY A TRIAL TREATMENT $3

Here is a proven inexpensive method of treatment that has been eminently successful in thousands of cases. Endorsed by eminent authority.

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., outstanding indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED?

I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

AMAZING TESTIMONIALS

Hundreds and hundreds for you to read. Many are from patients that have been diagnosed as incurable by other doctors.

Come in and read them by the hour. You will also see more than 200 satisfied patients, each and every day. Truly, an amazing sight to see.

You may come in the morning as early as 7 or nights after work as late as 9. No appointment necessary.

WORLD'S LARGEST

Patients come to my office from all parts of America and foreign countries. Given over 458,000 various treatments.

Come in and enjoy a most unusual experience. Rub shoulders with hundreds of satisfied patients. See and talk to my patients and hear of thousands who were benefited.

Law Suit to Challenge Right Of Segregation

Charging that expenditure of city funds to defend racial segregation policies of the Fire Department would be a "waste of public funds," attorneys for local taxpayers who have been protesting the policy Wednesday asked the City Council to deny the services of the city attorney to the Board of Fire Commissioners and Fire Chief Alderson in any suit that may be filed to eliminate Jim Crow practices in the department.

The request was made in a letter signed by Atty. Loren Miller and filed with Mayor Norris Poulson, members of the City Council and City Atty. Roger Arenberg. Atty. Herbert Simmons, who heads the attorneys who have been pressing the case, said that a suit would be filed "within the near future."

Last Thursday the Board of Fire Commissioners in a unanimously approved resolution gave complete endorsement to the Jim Crow policies of Fire Chief Alderson.

The five commissioners, shutting their eyes to the obvious fact that Negro firemen are confined to the two Negro-operated stations on Central avenue, unanimously expressed "confidence in the policies being pursued" by Alderson.

Denies Discrimination

Dsepite all the evidence presented to the commission, Alderson in a written report stated that "for many years there has been no discrimination whatsoever in the appointment of men, in the promotion of men, in the training of men or in the treatment of men in this department."

The NAACP, represented at the board meeting by Atty. Loren Miller, chairman of the association's West Coast Legal Redress committee, and Field Secretary, Lester Bailey, an-

Whitfield Denies Charges by A.A.U.

Mal Whitfield, Jefferson high school grad who has become the world's outstanding middle-distance runner, this week hooted at charges that he was guilty of violating the amateur athletic code and was promptly cleared by local AAU officials. The charge was made in New York by Dan Ferris, AAU secretary.

"Reports from Europe that I received any prizes that would violate the amateur code are untrue," Whitfield told the Eagle. "I understand the AAU rules thoroughly and I did not take any prizes that would break the rule."

Helms Trophy

Whitfield, who is the brother of the socially prominent Mrs. Horace Clark, is in the city after a long and record-breaking tour and will receive the Helms Athletic Trophy as the outstanding athlete of North America at a dinner tonight (Thursday).

The immediate effect of the charge, if sustained, would be to eliminate Whitfield from consideration for the Sullivan Award, the highest honor for an amateur athlete. Voting on the award is done by the nation's sports editors and there have been many complaints in the past that Southern editors have always eliminated Negroes from the winner's circle. Whitfield said that he particularly wanted to be the "first of my race to get the Sullivan Award."

Charges Made

Ferris charged that Whitfield had demanded $200 to appear in a Stockholm race and had failed to appear for a Washington, D. C., track meet. Other charges apparently revolved around the complaint that he had demanded that some of the prizes offered in European track meets be changed to other articles.

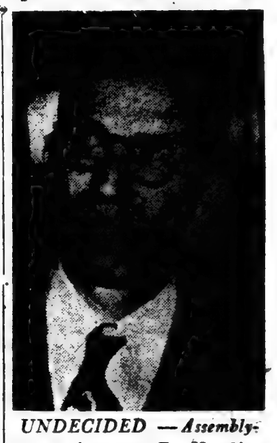
CANDIDATE—Atty. Walter L. Gordon announces candidacy for 62nd A. D., vieing for seat long held by Gus Hawkins.

Throws Hat in Ring In 62nd A. D.; 'Gus' Undecided on Plans

Prominent local attorney Walter L. Gordon this week got out for an early start for next spring's elections with a forthright assertion that he is a candidate for the post of state assembly from the 62nd District.

This is the seat held for the past 19 years by Augustus F. Hawkins.

Hawkins, queried by the Eagle before Gordon had thrown his hat in the ring, stated he was still undecided as to his future plans, and that, as is his custom, he wishes to confer with the people in the area to find out what their thinking is before making a final commitment.



Announcement Soon

He said he expects to make an announcement regarding his intentions shortly after the first of the year.

Gordon, in an official statement Tuesday, said he is a candidate for next June's primary elections, and that though he is a registered Republican, he will seek office on both major tickets.

Gordon's statement, written by his campaign manager, said: "Whereas we have made tremendous advancement under past representatives to the Assembly, Gordon feels that with his great wealth of experience in and out of the courts of the State of California and other courts throughout the United States, and in view of his long residence in this District, he can readily feel the pulse and desires of the people of the community and will do all in his power to accom-

UNDECIDED —Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins will make announcement soon on plans for running for re-election.

Paging L.A.'s City Fathers:- Kitt Hits Tops

Paging Mayor Norris Poulson, and Councilmen Gordon Hahn and Don Allen:

The Saturday Review's annual poll of the best records of the year gave the overwhelming choice for first place in the field of popular music to Eartha Kitt's two recordings "C'est Si Bon" and "I Want to Be Evil."

The selections were made by 86 of the nation's top music critics and record reviewers.

The Kitt hits were among those singled out by some of the city fathers several weeks ago as "off color," "shocking," and marking the "low point" in the entertainment staged at the banquet here for the King and Queen of Greece.

Facts on Discrimination in Los Angeles Fire Dept.

The facts regarding segregation in the city Fire Department, and the resulting discrimination, as established conclusively by the NAACP, are as follows:

Negro firemen are confined to service in two of the 97 fire stations in the city.

WASTE OF TIME

When the jobs in these two stations are filled, any Negro applicant is wasting his time and going through fruitless motions when he makes out an application and takes an examination for firemen. In practice, he will not be hired unless a Negro fireman becomes disabled, retires, is fired or dies.

A Negro fireman in one of the two existing segregated stations can aspire for promotion only when there are higher-ranked jobs available at the Central avenue firehouses. Even if their experience, ability and seniority entitles them to a higher post, jobs in the other 85 stations in the city are closed to them.

RESTRICTS EXPERIENCE

The pattern of segregation also confines the experience of Negro firemen to the equipment available at the all-Negro-manned stations.

The morale of Negro firemen is seriously impaired by knowledge of the fact that it is meaningless for them to compete for promotions-at-large in the department.

Lester Bailey, field secretary of the NAACP, stated that the record shows that as of July 1, 1952, there were only 74 Negro uniformed personnel out of a total of 2577. Of the 1782 firemen, only 55 are Negroes.

In the higher ranks, there are nine Negro auto-firemen out of a total of 261; four Negro engineers out of a total of 185, and six Negro captains out of a total of 293.

While there are six promotional grades above the rank of captain, no Negro serves in any of these capacities.

Dr. Robinson Reelected to Head NAACP

Dr. E. I. Robinson was unanimously reelected to the office of president of the Los Angeles branch of the NAACP Sunday, in one of the liveliest and best attended meetings of the association in months.

In accepting the post for another year, Dr. Robinson rededicated himself to the task of building a better community through the local NAACP.

Other officers elected for the 1954 term are: Atty. Thomas G. Neusom, 1st vice-president; Dr. H. Claude Hudson, 2nd vice-president; Rev. P. D. Lehman, 3rd vice-president; L. B. Thompson, 4th vice-president; C. E. McKinney, 5th vice-president.

Mrs. Zella M. Taylor, who has served the branch as secretary for the past several years, was unanimously reelected, as was Lorenzo Bowdoin to the office of treasurer.

Several new personalitiees were added to the branch's executive committee. They are: Mrs. Estelle Van Meter, Gilbert Anaya, Matt B. Burton, Atty. Carl A. Earles, Mrs. Emily Woody, Phineas Y. Gray, Jr., David F. Wilson, Sr., and Del Coffey.

Reelected to the committee were: W. F. Anderson, Mrs. Sadie Brewer, Mrs. Estelle Kemple, Mrs. Lobella Dingee, Mrs. Dorothea Foster, Mrs. Geraldine Harvey, Rev. J. Raymond Henderson, Mrs. Lillie Montgomery, Woodrow Redo and Malmore Hibler.

ARMSTED CRAFT BELOVED BY MANY QUIETLY PASSES

Armstad Craft, born in Meridian, Mississippi on February 11, 1859, quietly passed away at the age of 94 years after a short illness. Married to Miss Emma Wilson in New Orleans, La. He spent most of his early years in business in New Orleans and rearing his family of eight children. He was an active member of the Baptist church there and until he moved to Los Angeles, was on the deacon and trustee board.

Father of Pastor

In Los Angeles he joined the Pilgrim Church of Christ (Holiness) which is pastored by his youngest son, Rev. I. L. Craft. He suffered a stroke several weeks ago and was confined to his bed until he died. He leaves to mourn his passing, two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Green and Mrs. Ruth Hurskin, one son Rev. I. L. Burglars on Prowl As Holidays Begin

Following a fresh outbreak of burglaries and robberies, police in the 77th division, which takes in the Watts district, warned merchants and residents this week to make sure their places of business and residences were made secure before locking up for the day's end.

Burglary investigating officers Ernie Williams and John Lehman said the coming holidays of Christmas and New Years are times when activity on the part of gangsters dealing in all sorts of crimes is ordinarily expected.

Over the weekend in the Watts-South Los Angeles area the following burglaries were reported, with the capture of two suspects. The professional offices of Dr. Harris Stein, 1620 E. 103rd street and Dr. Charles Sanford, 1618 E. 103rd street were entered and ransacked, evidently by the same person. Nothing of value was obtained. The office of Dr. Kathleen Jones King, 9608 Compton avenue was entered and ransacked by persons evidently seeking narcotics.

Gomez's Market, 1788 E. 108rd street, was broken into and 45 cartons of cigarettes stolen. The Pool Palace, located at 10208 Graham avenue, reported money was obtained by thieves who burglarized the place.

Police early Sunday morning spied the form of a man, later identified as Lee Henderson, atop Bond's Market, 10331 S. Central avenue. When they climbed up to where he was, they found a hole cut in the roof and a long rope with which Henderson apparently planned to lower himself into the building. Henderson reportedly said he was after the store safe.

In the suspect's automobile, police found several suitcases and other travel equipment, including spare automobile parts, and extra gasoline and oil. Henderson assertedly told the officers he intended leaving for Chicago immediately after finishing the job.

Robert Henry was nabbed Monday and lodged in jail as a shop-lifting suspect after witnesses claim they saw him take articles from the counters of People's Variety Store, and Lyon's Store, 1775 E. 103rd street. Police say the man used a shopping bag for his shoplifting.

Elks Launch 'Register and Vote' Drive

Robert H. Johnson, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, has issued a nationwide order for all subordinate lodges and temples to support his registration and voting drive because a voteless people is a helpless people.

The drive in the Los Angeles area is being directed by Adolphus B. Clay, director of Civil Liberties of Golden West Lodge No. 86, IBPOEW, Daughter Billy Gordon, grand assistant directress of Civil Liberties of Southern California, and Vince M. Townsend, junior grand director of the Western States. The entire program will be supervised by Grand Esquire Henry W. Davis, who is the Grand Exalted Ruler's personal representative.

This committee has been successful in obtaining the assistance and cooperation of both the AFL and the CIO. They have chosen as their slogan "50,000 more in '54." Their headquarters will be established in the Elks Temple, 4018 South Central, beginning January 2, 1954. Anyone wishing to become a deputy registrar can call ADams 7578 or REpublic 4-9494.

Top Lawyers Plead For Wesley R. Wells

By BOB ELLIS

Thirty-five distinguished lawyers of Los Angeles sent a plea to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight this week, urging the governor to stop the impending execution of Wesley Robert Wells, San Quentin prisoner who is scheduled to die for the crime of throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard.

Thousands of people throughout California are reacting to Wells's plea from the San Quentin death house: "I have been sinned against more than I have sinned! Tell the governor to spare my life. I have taken no one's life."

Columnist Favors Clemency

Joining such community figures as David Williams, Crispus Wright, Walter Gordon, Jr., and Marshall Denton, Jr., in their sympathy for Wells, Leslie Claypool, political editor of the L. A. Daily News, wrote last Friday: "Superior Judge A. A. Scott of this city, who certainly is no pamperer of criminals, has written a letter to Robert Ellis stating that he believes Wells is entitled to clemency.

"In his letter to Ellis, Judge Scott says, 'I will do all within my power to help prevent this human tragedy.'"

Claypool ended by writing: "A long list of distinguished citizens has written to Govornor Knight urging him to commute Wells' sentence. In view

WESLEY WELLS

Supplement Ready Monday

On Monday, 25,000 more copies of the special Eagle tabloid supplement giving the facts on the case of Wesley Wells will be available at the Eagle office, 1050 E. 43rd place. These can be purchased for 50c per 100 copies.

The previous issue of 40,000 was picked up by interested groups and individuals in three days.

Murder Held Possibility as Woman Dies

A wad of rags found stuffed inside the mouth of a 40-year-old housewife last Saturday led investigators to believe that she may have been murdered.

Police records listed the death of Mrs. Frances Bishop, 306 E. 68th street, as "apparently natural," but an autopsy was ordered. Death was believed caused by a heart attack.

On Wednesday morning, the coroner advised that the autopsy was not completed, and the cause of death had not yet been determined.

Mrs. Bishop was found dead in her home by a relative who was visiting with her.

When the body was examined at the coroner's office in the Hall of Justice, rags were discovered stuffed inside her mouth.

Couple Bucks Poll; Plans To Move to 'White' Area

SAN FRANCISCO—Showing a firm determination to buck prejudice, a Negro couple here this week said they would not yield to opposition from neighbors and sell the home they expected to move into next spring.

The Taylor family—wife, husband and two children—plan to move into tract No. 2 in Winston Manor. This is the same area where last year opposition developed against a Chinese family.

The Chinese yielded to the adverse opinion expressed in a poll of those living in the vicinity. The Taylors, however, have decided they will ignore a similar poll.

The informal sampling of the feelings of nearby residents showed 46 ready to welcome the Taylors, 250 opposed, and 18 as having no opinion.

Those opposed reportedly took the position that purchase of the home by a Negro family would cause property values to drop, one of the persistent myths that has so frequently been shown to be false.

Taylor, a warehouseman, purchased the three-bedroom home in South San Francisco last month. Out of consideration for the serviceman now renting the house, he and his family agreed to defer moving in until next Spring.

Father-Son Affair Success

Hundreds of parents and children attended the 28th Street YMCA's "Annual Parent & Son Banquet" at Lafayette Junior High School last Thursday. It was the largest banquet ever held in terms of attendance.

Sixty-four teachers from John Adams, Santa Fe, G. W. Carver, Thomas Jefferson, Jr. and Sr. High Schools, and Nevin Ave., Wadsworth St., Trinity St., Ascot Ave., elementary schools served 21 turkeys to the guests.

of what appear to be the facts in this case and the noted citizens now aroused, this columnist believes the ends of justice would be served by executive clemency."

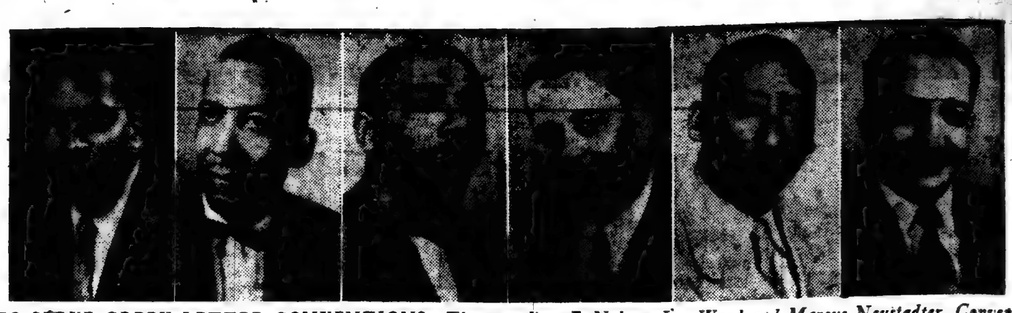
Passing resolutions and urging its members and followers to write the Governor to save Wells last week were the AFL Laborers Local 300 of Los Angeles and the Democratic Workshop meeting at Santa Monica's Presbyterian Conference Grounds, attended by 850 persons.

Under the chairmanship of County Chairman Richard Richards of the Democratic Party, a panel passed this resolution:

"Whereas Wesley Robert Wells faces the death penalty for throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard; and

"Whereas Federal Judge Louis Goodman declared 'Wells was not accorded due process of law under the 14th Amendment . . .'; and

"Whereas the execution of Wells would be a gross miscarriage of American justice;



"The Democratic Workshop recommends to all members, affiliated groups and county central committees, immediate study of this case with a view towards urging Gov. Goodwin Knight to grant executive clemency to Wesley Robert Wells."

Gordon said further that one of the most important needs at the present time is legislation to prevent police officers from unlawfully breaking into and entering the homes of people without first having obtained a search warrant.

Garment Workers Aid Chest, NAACP

Officers and members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union Locals in Los Angeles are contributing $40,0000 to charitable and community organizations and to political education, it was reported last week by ILGWU Vice-President and Pacific Coast Director Samuel Otto.

A meeting of union leaders last Tuesday was told that financial support during 1954 will go to 56 national and Los Angeles organizations.

Two separate funds have been established in Los Angeles, Otto told the gathering. The Los Angeles ILGWU fund for political education, supports activities designed to make the membership and the general public aware of social and political issues.

The fund for labor and community causes provides financial assistance to institutions, charitable, cultural, or community in nature, which make a substantial contribution to improving living conditions for working people.

Isidor Stenzor manager of the Los Angeles Cloak Joint Board; Fannie Borax, manager of the Los Angeles Dress Joint Board, and John Ulene, manager of the Los Angeles Sportswear Joint Council, with Otto, are officers of the funds.

Largest single contribution will go to the Community Chest, which will receive $4,000. Other organizations benefitting include the Community Service Organization, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Jewish Labor Committee.

WHY WE GET SICK

THESE ARTICLES ARE REPRINTED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE READERS OF THIS PAPER. Specialists accuse large intestine as breeding ground of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH, and say constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems.

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsies state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said, 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS'."

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, M.D., founder of Battle Creek Sanitarium, world famous authority, says:

"IN THE LAST TWO FEET OF THE COLON is found the seat of the most destructive blockade that has ever opposed human progress.

"One bowel movement a day is very marked constipation.

"Normal bowel action is at least three full evacuations daily.

"Metchnikoff has clearly shown that putrefaction germs are the cause of early degeneracy, premature old age and death. These germs produce most virulent poisons, many of which resemble the venom of snakes, and when present in the feces in large numbers, they are certain proof of the existence of chronic autointoxication even though the characteristic symptoms of autointoxication have not yet appeared. A coated tongue, a sallow complexion, dark circles around the eyes, appearance of brown spots upon the hands or other parts, the so-called liver spots, offensive breath and perspiration, the discharge of foul smelling gases from the bowels, putrid stools, a thin, inelastic parchment-like skin, dullness of mind, inability to concentrate the mind, mental irritability or depression without cause, cold hands and feet, perspiration of the hands and feet, chronic headaches, attacks of migraine or sick headaches — these and a score of other symptoms which might be mentioned are certain indications of chronic poisoning, prompt attention to which may prevent the development of later, more serious conditions, such as hardening of the arteries, Bright's Disease, with albumin and casts in the urine, or apoplexy with paralysis. Grave symptoms of autointoxication do not appear until after the mechanism of the body, through which nature deals with poisons, destroying and eliminating them, has broken down and failed to acomplish its purpose as a result of the overwhelming amount of work which has been thrown upon it. Hence, the appearance of symptoms of autointoxication indicates that the body has already become crippled and that the matter must receive serious and immediate attention."

Medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems —in fact, practically all ills of mankind.

One well known M.D., recognized as a cancer specialist, says: "It was only necessary to interview a large number of cancer patients to ascertain the fact that a toxic state exists before the cancer growth comes. Some patients complain of persistent severe headaches, neuritis, dizziness, spells of transient blindness and the loss of balance or mental vigor for as long as twenty years before the growth is found. In many cases toxic (inward) goitre, pigmentation changes, vascular disease, diabetes, indigestion, colitis, gastric ulcer, muscular weakness or even muscular atrophy interfere with correct health until the growth comes."

"In a great many people, the presence of the poison can be recognized by certain symptoms or tissue changes. In those where the development of the poison is slow or its absorption, especially from the large intestine, is moderate over a long period, the nervous system may show its effects, thus dizziness, sudden and periodic loss of muscle control, neuritis, or other chronic complaints may be the warning symptom. If the toxin is absorbed in higher concentration and in one with sufficient cerebral disadvantage, so serious a condition as insanity or blindness may announce its presence."

"In some people, structural tissue changes follow its action, thus obliterative vascular disease, arteriosclerosis, psoriasis, arthritis deformants, gastric ulcer, exophthalmic (inward) goiter, diabetes, and Addison's disease result directly from its action and, in others, the tendency to develop other infections like tuberculosis can be traced to the cancer causing poison. The absolute correctness of these statements is proven by the cures of all these conditions, obtained by removing the cancer poison from those suffering from these diseases."

"Some of these conditions may persist for years before the cancer growth comes; and it locates at a point where circulatory injury has been sustained, whether from a blow, an operation injury, a muscle spasm or a scar following a disease process."

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distension or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication. (Note: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors or malignancies. —Brinkley.)

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

Constipation is the common sense explanation of "the true cause of disease," say outstanding authorities. Here is a simple, inexpensive method of treatment, that has been eminently successful, in thousands of cases in removing that which causes toxins from the large intestine. Endorsed by outstanding medical authority. Read carefully, reason for yourself. Don't take my word for anything. You may now obtain relief of constipation in 20 minutes. YES, I SAID 20 MINUTES.

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., outstanding indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED?

I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

Unionist Dedicates City of Hope Wing

DUARTE.—On Dec. 7 at the City of Hope, General President Hugo Ernst of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union dedicated a new hospital wing, built with funds contributed by local unions and the international union following action of their 1949 and 1953 conventions.

The new wing of this national medical center bears the name of the international union and becomes a part of a structure whose growth has largely come about through the efforts of union members. Other wings at the hospital have been constructed by bakers, garment workers and milliners. The Butcher's Union is now engaged in raising funds for another addition.

This year, the City of Hope celebrates its 40th anniversary.

One of the primary reasons organized labor has rallied to the City of Hope is the spirit of fraternalism that exists there. No questions are asked at the hospital regarding national origin, color, creed or religion.

Many representatives of the culinary unions were in attendance from the entire State of California. Representing the Dining Car Unions, Local 456, 465 and 582 were Owen Ratliff, Elbert Epperson, Robert E. Weir and William E Pollard, president of the Joint Council of Dining Car Employees.

Urban League To Seek 4,000 New Members

Lorenzo V. Spencer, chairman of the Membership and Promotion committee of the Los Angeles Urban League, this week issued a formal announcement of the 1954 Urban League membership campaign.

Plans for the recruitment of 4000 additional members have been approved by the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles League, with campaign dates set for January 4-31, 1954.

Spencer further announced that 400 volunteers are needed to assist in signing up the 4000 new members. Volunteers are urged to call the Urban League office, ADams 5128.

Fire Commission Backs Jim Crow

nounced that "a lawsuit is the only course of action left for this organization."

Astonishing Action

Atty. Miller stated: "We are astounded by the action of the Board of Fire Commissioners. It is difficult to believe that the members availed themselves of knowledge of the factual situation existing in the Los Angeles Fire Department in which the discriminatory effects of racial segregation are so much in evidence.

"Rather, the commission permitted the chief engineer to investigate his own practices and then based their decision on his report," Miller added.

At no point in Chief Alderson's report did he deny that racial segregation exists in the department. This is the issue around which NAACP lawyers filed the petition of complaint with the board.

The chief's report stated in part:

Public Hearing

"The department has no knowledge whatsoever as to a man's race, creed or color until he appears for appointment in the department and the department does not refuse appointment because of any of these factors. We do not discriminate in promotions and I have stated repeatedly and I state again that, subject to your approval, it would be my policy to promote any member of this department who passes the necessary Civil Service examination."

The results of the NAACP's investigation were brought out in a public hearing before the Board of Fire Commissioners on Oct. 8 at which time Bailey, appearing as principal witness, charged that "Negro firemen are confined to two of the 87 fire stations located throughout Los Angeles."

The NAACP contends that the practice of racial segregation in the Los Angeles Fire Department is in effect and by design discrimination.

A Shabby Performance

The Board of Fire Commissioners put on a shabby performance last Thursday when its members unanimously "accepted" a report from Fire Chief John H. Alderson and whitewashed the chief's Jim Crow practices. His "report" was no answer to the charge of racial segregation that had been preferred.

The best the chief did in connection with racial segregation was to deny that there was "complete segregation." Apparently he subscribes to the old folk tale that a little Jim Crow, like a little pregnancy, doesn't count.

His pious denials of discrimination won't bear scrutiny. He has discriminated against Negro firemen in the past. He did so when he forced three firemen to waive their places on the civil service engineer's list because he had no vacancy at a "white" station. He did so when he denied Negro firemen the right to transfer to other stations solely because of their race. He did so when he juggled the application of a Negro trainee for two years simply because he had no vacancy at the "Negro" station. All of these examples can be documented.

And Chief Alderson is as ready to discriminate now as he ever was. He has to be in order to maintain his Jim Crow system. What would he do tomorrow if the first 25 applicants, or the first five for that matter, on the civil service list were Negroes in the light of the fact that he has no vacancies at the "Negro" stations?

One of the unanswered questions in the matter is what Mayor Norris Poulson proposes to do. When the matter was first called to the mayor's attention he gave out with a resounding statement to the effect that he would not tolerate segregation or discrimination in any city department. His Fire Commission paid no attention to him. Instead of discharging its duty it has caved in to Chief Alderson and has given its blessings to his Jim Crow policy.

Chief Alderson's arrogance in this matter flows from his long success in flouting legal and constitutional requirements and commands and the public policy of this state. He has grown so used to his discriminatory practices that he has come to look upon them as sacred. He regards himself as above the law. The craven and cowardly action of the Fire Commissioners in upholding his attitude will no doubt encourage him and confirm him in his defiant attitude.

Under the circumstances opponents of the chief's policy can do nothing else except file appropriate legal proceedings and the sooner that can be done the better. We suppose that following the usual practice the city council will be called upon to proffer the assistance of the city attorney to defend such a suit. We hope that when the request is made the Council will take a long look at the bill of goods it is asked to buy. We can think of no greater waste of taxpayers' money than the expenditure of funds to defend racial segregation by a department of the City of Los Angeles.

In the first place, the city has no moral right to defend Jim Crow and in the second place it would only be dumping its money into a lost cause. Our suggestion is that if Chief Alderson and the Fire Commissioners love segregation so much they should be required to spend their own funds to demonstrate their affection for it.

Safe On First

Our Abie Robinson, who presides over the sports page of this newspaper, thinks we ought to say a word here about the employment of Emmett Ashford as a regular umpire in the Pacific Coast League next year. We agree. Emmett's mother was a fixture in the Eagle office for many years and Emmett himself was one of this newspaper's early-day newsboys.

Ten years ago anybody who would have predicted that the League would employ a Negro umpire within a decade would have been marked down for an early trip to the nearest booby hatch. The League wouldn't even employ Negro players then and every request that it do so brought stern answers that any such move would result in riots, bloodshed, violence and every manner of evil.

Next year, Ashford will be calling balls and strikes in the heat of close games and will be thumbing base runners safe or out as the case may be. We're sure that his calls will arouse the usual number of anguished outcries from the players who will insist that he is blind, a robber and a thief. That's the way it is in baseball. Umpires are looked upon as necessary evils by the average player. We'll also bet a small sum that Emmett's decisions will be accepted just as decisions of other umpires are.

And while we're at it we think we ought to hand Emmett a bouquet for his foresight in deciding to become a professional sports official in the face of the hoots and jeers of other fellows who were sure that he was just wasting his time.

It's The GOP's Baby

In the good old days of FDR and Truman, the Republicans used to say that the real reason we couldn't get any civil rights legislation passed by Congress was because the Democrats were firmly in control of committees and were to blame for the failure of such legislation to get to the floor of Congress.

That is all changed now. The GOP is in control of Congress and its stalwarts head the critical committees. More than that, there is a substantial bloc of northern Democrats who are willing to go along on the civil rights issues.

If the Republicans want civil rights legislation they have an excellent opportunity to demonstrate that fact in the forthcoming session of Congress. They can get such bills out of committee and they can force consideration on the floor of both houses.

In view of the fact that the congressional elections are going to be mighty close next year, the GOP had better put some thought on the question of what the Negro voter is going to be offered.

The Republicans are going to have to bear the responsibility for the fate of civil rights legislation this time and it is up to them to determine whether they want to do something for the Negro voter or if they prefer to continue the apparent policy of appeasing the Dixiecrats with whom they have been in an uneasy alliance for the past few terms.

The Best Compliment

The re-election of Dr. E. I. Robinson as president of the local branch of the NAACP, together with most of the members of the executive committee and other officers, is evidence of satisfaction with the work the branch has done under his leadership.

Most of us will agree the local NAACP has done valiant work over a period of many years. Every resident of this city, whether white or Negro, is better today and his rights safer for that work.

The tragedy of the matter is that the membership figure is far too low. The five thousand membership is only a fraction of what the branch should have. That means it can do only a portion of the work that it should do, and would like to do.

We suspect that the greatest compliment that could be paid Dr. Robinson, and the kind of a reward that he would like most, would be a substantial increase in membership so that he can fulfill all of the dreams he has for the Los Angeles branch.

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

FACTS ON YOUTH PROBLEMS

The death of William D. Cluff, following a brawl involving four youths at Seventh and Broadway, last week, was a tragic affair. The activity since then, however, has produced more heat than light.

Emotional Outbursts

Emotional outbursts by various citizens and the inflamatory editorials and news treatment of the incident by some newspapers are evidence of the hysteria which has, for the moment, seized certain segments of the populace.

The cry for action ranged from, "Why was there no policeman at Seventh and Broadway?" to "Turn the policemen loose with lash and club and they can put down this gangsterism." Much of this was tinted with serious overtones of incitation to race hate.

Careful consideration will reveal that these people lost sight of the real issue — the cause of hoodlumism and how and by whom it must be prevented.

Delinquency Cause

This Sunday night escapade of four boys is merely one facet of the growing problem of delinquency. Other phases are seen in the growing use of narcotics, rowdyism in theaters and inter-group tension in school.

This is not only a problem for the police department to be solved by arrests; it is a long-range social problem which must be solved by the total community.

The police department will not yield to suggestions that lawless brutality be used.

Modern Techniques

Neither can they infallibly anticipate isolated cases like the Cluff affair and thus post a policeman at the spot to prevent a crime.

The deployment of officers is handled on the basis of the most modern techniques developed by expert administrators in the field of law enforcement. Factors of total personnal, size of the city, probable need, based on past record of criminal activity in a given location are considered along with others in making the most efficient use of manpower.

Men are assigned to handle the many activities of a modern department such as traffic enforcement, juvenile control, vice control, investigation of crimes, as well as foot and motor patrol. Each activity has its related importance and in making assignments, this is considered against the total job to be done.

What Is the Answer?

Boys and girls who form delinquent gangs are not overnight products. They were molded and shaped over a period of years. They are products of disappointment in their efforts to achieve status, discouragement in the fulfillment of personal goals, dissipation of their talents, and divided homes or disinterested parents.

It is not enough that many people and many agencies are working on a long-range program—there is a job to be done now!

Positive Outlook

Among other things, our youngsters must be sold on a positive rather than a negative outlook. By example, they can be shown the many opportunities available. Stop telling them what things they can't do.

They must be encouraged to merit acceptance; they must discard antagonistic attitudes and behavior and adopt good habits of dress, grooming and speech.

They must be shamed and shown, corrected and counseled.

This is the job of parent, teacher, friend and stranger—this is a pressing and never-ending project.

The Place On The Cross

One Man's Opinion

If you ever take time to read this when it is published we shall feel flattered indeed. It will be on the streets and in the mails just as everyone is agog over Christmas buying and it appears now that we shall be among you. So what do you think of our writing about the Christmas celebration?

Leon Steward

Some years ago — as a young man— we headed our Christmas piece for the California Eagle with this query, "What what you gave them of thy self a part or was it just an exchange of stuff you bought?" Therein lies a provocative idea to pursue.

Looking Back

When we were a lad in high school, [in fact, it was a prep schoop we were in; Southern colleges had to maintain them due to the poor high schools in that section of our country] we recall that we actually did not want our girl friend to buy a Christmas present for us because we preferred that what she gave us should be something which she had made with her own hands. We held to that idea as one should hold to his convictions. However, she seldom obliged.

We still believe such gifts to be preferable, but we do not have the leisure even to go downtown to buy until the very last minute. Thus we must exchange the "stuff we bought." Nevertheless, we now find those things highly acceptable and continue to go on our merry way to every place from the dime store to I. Magnin's satisfying ourselves that we are buying just the thing. And who are we to stake a contrary claim against that idea?

A Weak Substitute

Well, you ask us, what are you doing to lift your giving to the status which you suggest or to save it from the "exchange of stuff you bought" category? Well, we think it too much to ask of people nowdays when they actually do not have the time even to stay home and give their own children the best they have for them and, incidentally, also to give their husbands their best. But so as to not fall too far away from that ideal we take joy in buying several hundred Christmas cards and going through the process of folding, stamping, addressing, adding Christmas seals and mailing them, all with our own brown hands.

You Do It Now

We seldom go downtown to shop because the going is too rough at Christmas time due to the fact that you are down there paying penance for your choice of ways to join in the celebration—the very nature of which is in the giving of things and services. You put yourself on the very cross of self-sacrifice to prove your love for your children, family and friends when you go down to shop late in the month of December —whether you choose to do so or not.

May we make this wish for you at Christmas time? For you who dare to read this piece at any time we wish that you shall have the best that the Christmas season brings, including many," many, many, many things.

West Coast Sales Of Seals High

NEW YORK—West Coast branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have sold more than 3,500 sheets of NAACP Christmas seals, Miss Bobbie Branche, director of the campaign, announced last week.

The national office, she asserted, has thus far received nearly $20,000 from sale of these seals throughout the nation.

Book Reviews

FLORINA AND THE WILD BIRD, by Selina Chonz.

Glorious, full-colored pictures illustrate this story from Switzerland, giving a gay and joyful feeling to the rhyming text. Young children will delight equally in story and pictures.

NOEL FOR JEANNE-MARIE, by Francoise Seignobosc.

Jeanne-Marie is an old friend of the picture-book children, as are the familiar illustrations to be found in these books by Francoise. Patapon, the sheep, worries because he has no shoes to put under the chimney, but Jeanne-Marie buys some for him and Christmas morning is a happy one for all.

THE QUIET MOTHER AND THE NOISY LITTLE BOY, by Charlotte Zolotow.

A fresh, active, funny tale of a noisy child who discovers that it can be annoying to have too much noise. Breezy, colorful pictures that blend with the story. For the nursery and primary age.

STEADFAST TIN SOLDIER, by Hans Christian Anderson.

Not for the picture-book age, but for the child of nine or older who likes fairy tales. An old favorite in a new garb; beautifully illustrated with rhythm and color by Marcia Brown.

THE MISSION BELL, by Leo Politi.

A handsome color picture book and a fine story of Father Junipero Serra and the founding of the California missions. To be read aloud to young children or for fourth and fifth graders as their very own.

SEA SHELLS, by Ruth H. Dudley.

A general book on sea shells and the creatures that live in them. Includes sea life on both coasts of the North American continent, with a chapter on collecting shells. A fine beginning for boys and girls fourth grade and older.

NATURE NOTEBOOK, by Robert Candy.

A browsing book for children and their parents. Concise information and beautiful line and color drawings make this book a treasure.

RIDDLES, RIDDLES, RIDDLES, by Joseph Leeming.

A rather complete book of riddles, conundrums, word games and charades that will delight young and old because it is so "zany."

THE SWIMMING POO L By Mary Roberts Rhinehart

Mary Roberts Rhinehart's first full-length mystery novel in six years, involves the return of the newly-divorced, terror-stricken Judith Maynard to the old Westchester mansion. Complications, such as a body in the swimming pool, a suicide attempt, more murder and some romance follow. Skilful unknotting and unravelling provide a satisfactory ending.

TRACY'S TIGER by William Saroyan

Another version of "Harvey." An invisible black panther (but the hero calls it a tiger) symbolizing love, is the boon companion of Tracy. When he fell in love, the tiger went off on amorous business of his own and Tracy's romance was shattered. Years later the tiger suddenly became visible which put the police on its trail and sent Tracy back to Bellevue. With the aid of a sympathetic police he put the clock back six years and effects a happy ending. More buffoonery from Saroyan's beautiful people, with a mixture of symbolic fantasy and some genuinely amusing moments.

NORTH WITH THE SPRING By Edwin Way Teale

Nobody can say where the springs begins, no one can set his foot on the spot from which start the first seasonal stirrings of birds, the first renewal of life. But on this continent, a nature-lover like Edwin Way Teale can begin a pilgrimage from the tip of Florida in early March and drive his way northward over 17,000 miles of oncoming spring. He writes not only of the season's unfolding, but of the world around him, the growth of a floating island, the regional dialects of birdcalls. This is equally a book for the traveller, the observer, and the stay-at-home, whose heart is alive to the wonder of the far world and the near

Deacons' Day Sunday At McCoy Church

Protestant Churches Plan Combined Xmas Service Sunday

Twelve Protestant churches are cooperating in presenting the third annual Christmas Carol Pageant, to be given at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 20, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, 1715 Santa Ana Blvd., it was announced today.

The pageant will feature two parts, according to Mrs. Arnita Finney, general chairman. One will be the Christmas story, to be told in a series of living tableaux. The other will be singing of familiar carols by a massed choir of 100 children and adult voices.

The South Los Angeles Church Leaders Group is sponsoring the event in cooperation with the Church Welfare Bureau of the Church Federation of Los Angeles. It will be open to the public.

Musical portions of the program will be directed by George W. A. Jones, choir director of Peoples United Community Church, who has drawn from choirs of the cooperating churches for singers. Accompanist will be Miss Gwendolyn Hale, youth choir director of Tabernacle of Faith Church.

The Rev. John A White will narrate the Christmas story. Mrs. Sallie Edwards, of the Church Welfare Bureau, will direct the tableaux presentation.

Cooperating churches include: Beulah Baptist, Great Hope Baptist, Bel-Vue Presbyterian, Macedonia Baptist, Peoples United Community, Village Baptist, Grant's Chapel A.M.E., St. Martin's Episcopal, St. Peter's Community, Hayes Tabernacle C.M.E., Tabernacle of Faith Baptist and Hope Presbyterian.

Rev. McQueen Ordination At St. Phillips Sunday

At the request of the Rt. Rev. Randolph Claiborne, Episcopal bishop of Atlanta, the Rev. Charles Waldo McQueen, deacon, will be elevated to the priesthood by the Rt. Rev. Donald James Campbell, suffragan bishop of Los Angeles, in the service of Ordination at 10 a.m. Dec. 19, at St. Philip's Church, East 28th and Stanford Ave.

State Student

Mr. McQueen, who is taking postgraduate work in Social Education at Los Angeles State College, has been assisting the Rev. I. Randolph Moore at St. Philip's since Sept. 1. He will be presented at the Ordination service by his fraternity brother, the Rev. Jesse D. Moses, instructor in Pasadena City College.

Rev. Moore to Preach

Other clergy assisting in Mr. McQueen's ordination service will be the Rev. Canon Douglas Stuart, the Rev. James H. Jordan, Jr., and the Rev. Roy B. Davis of Los Angeles; the Rev. Alfred E. Norman, Pasadena, and the Rev. Llewellyn Williams, Compton. Fr. Moore of St. Philip's will preach the sermon.

Highly Qualified

Ordained deacon by Bishop Claiborne in 1952, Mr. McQueen was in charge of St. Christopher's, Columbus, Ga., before coming to Los Angeles. He studied for the priesthood at Seabury - Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill. He is also a graduate of Miles College, Birmingham, Ala., and Alabama Teachers College, Montgomery, Ala. During World War II he served in the chemical warfare division of the U.S. army in both European and Pacific theaters. He is married and has two children, aged 7 and 9 years.

Foundation In Sunday Affair

December 20th is the date for the Daisy Wilson Foundation to enjoy an afternoon at Sojourner Truth Home, 2133 South Harvard, greeting old friends and proclaiming the advent of Christmas. Mrs. Daisy Wilson, president of the Foundation, is extending an invitation to everyone who would rejoice in the good old-fashioned way and join in celebrating this joyous holiday.

There will be merrymaking and plenty of home-made cookies with the refreshments. Hours are from 3 until 7 p.m. The purpose of the Daisy Wilson Foundation is to establish a home for the aged.

Bible Class At Faith Church

Dr. B. Clarence Cooke will be the teacher for the Community Bible Hour, Tuesday, 8-9 p.m. weekly at the Greater Faith Community Church, 4001 S. Harvard Blvd. Mesdames Catherine Devore and Marie Crudup will assist in teaching. Unit I. "Old Testament Law and History" of the Teacher Training Course endorsed and accredited by the Evangelical Teacher Training Association of Chicago, is the current curriculum for the Bible Hour.

The registration fee is $1.50 per unit, providing applicant wishes certificate credit. If no "credit" is desired the course is free.

Xmas Service Sunday

The Rev. E. E. Johnson, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, 950 Hemlock Street will deliver his Christmas message Sunday at 11:00 a.m.

The subject is "If Christ Had Not Come." All are invited to come early.

Candle Light Services Slated At Independent

This Sunday, December 20, at 5:30 p.m., a candlelight processional will mark the beginning of another concert of Christmas music at People's Independent Church of Christ, located at 18th and Paloma Streets.

This will be a three-part program, the first being a short cantata, King of Peace, by the Gospel Choir, under the direction of Fannie E. Benjamin, church organist and member of the American Guild of Organists.

The second and third parts will feature the Cathedral Choir, directed by Albert J. McNeil, brilliant minister of music of the church and music department head at Carver Junior High School. The Cathedral Choir will sing excerpts from Saint-Saen's Christmas Oratorio and Handel's Messiah.

Featured soloists are: Helen Stewart and Elinor Miller sopranos; Jeanne Jackson, contralto; Jay Loft-Lynn, baritone, and Gerald Garrett, bass.

The entire music department of the church has combined its efforts to make this a most inspiring service. Mr. McNeil and Mrs. Benjamin have continually brought only the best in music to their listeners.

Barefield In Recital at Mt. Moriah Church

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, 4155 McKinley Ave. Sunday when the Senior Choir will present Robert Barefield of Houston, Texas, in a recital. Barefield's recital is expected to be one of the outstanding contributions of the season. Blind physically, Barefield's rare insight, interpretation and mastery of Music will thrill all listeners.

RANDOM THOUGHTS—

BERKELEY — UCLA'S Rommie Loudd—the highly rated flankman of Jefferson High & L. A. Valley JC fame—could very well be the Bruins' big hero in their test against All-American Leroy Bolden & his Michigan State mates in the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl game.

However, for some reason or other Rommie hasn't played up to his capabilities since becoming a Bruin.

The switch to Red Sanders' single wing system may have had adverse effects. But if this boy and All-America Pitchin' Paul Cameron can connect as often as this writer feels they are capable of doing, they can rack up win No. 2 for the PCC standard bearer . . . Rommie is just a sophomore and we believe before he leaves Sanders' school he'll undoubtedly develop into one of the greatest wingmen in the history of the Westwood campus.

BRAD PYE, JR.

PYE'S PICKUPS—

Our deepest sympathy goes to—Joe Louis, the great ex-heavyweight champ—who lost his mother, Mrs. Lillie Barrow Brooks. She succumbed in Detroit over the weekend. . .

Did you know Coley Wallace—the athlete who fought former Champ Ezzard Charles on TV last night—decked Champion Rocky Marciano three times when they were amateurs?

How cheap can you get? . . . The SF '49ers should gross around $175,000 this year, but they can afford only (so they say) two complimentary tickets to ONLY ONE NEGRO Newspaper . . . Can they spare it . . .

Ollie Matson, the ex-USF All-American, is still picking up honors as an Army PVT. . . . Matson & his Fort Ord mate Dave Mann—the former Oakland pitcher—were named on the All-Army eleven . . . Matson also copped the "Most Valuable Players Award."

Jet Joe Perry—the erstwhile Jordan High & Compton star—carried the ball more than 1,000 yards this season for the SF '49ers & by doing so became the third player to accomplish this feat . . .

We think the PCL signed a good man in Emmett Ashford, one of the most colorful referees in baseball . . . Incidentally, Ashford is the first Negro to operate in organized ball . . . He's also an ex-Jefferson High student . . . We hear that Lewis "Hustler" Williams, the star blocking back on the '52 UCLA squad, is doing a fine job of impersonating Michigan State's All-American Leroy Bolden . . . As of now this is 25 & 5.

PEACOCK, MONGIA WEEKS TOP BOUT

Billy Peacock, North American ruler of the 118 pounders, will be attempting to box Jesse Mongia for his Christmas when they tangle in the 10-round feature event at the Olympic Tuesday, December 21, just four days short of old Santa's visit.

Peacock is gunning for an impressive victory to close out the 1953 season that saw him win and lose his State title as well as rack up a string of 12 straight victories.

Mongia on the other hand isn't asking Saint Nick for the world—just a victory over Peacock and if his wish comes true, January boxing ratings should carry his name high on the list as a world title contenders. At any rate the two young battlers should provide the fans with the year's best action packed drama.

BRUINS REPORT FOR TWO-A-DAY FOOTBALL DRILLS

After a three-week layoff, UCLA's Bruins, 55 strong, resumed practice this week for their Rose Bowl battle with the rugged Michigan State Spartans.

Coach Red Sanders has indicated that the Bruins may have two-a-day drills during some of the 16 days of practice alloted by the Big Ten and Pacific Coast Conferences. The Bruins will continue to drill on their home grounds, Spaulding Field, which Sanders has termed "one of the finest practice fields I've ever seen."

Good Shape

The Bruin team is expected to report in good condition for the resumption of practice. The only man in question is sophomore fullback Bob Davenport, who had his knee placed in a cast for a week immediately following the victory over Southern California.

Doctors explained that Davenport had strained a ligament in his knee and the cast was merely a precautionary measure. They believed that the leg would mend more rapidly in that condition. However, it won't be known how well the brilliant fullback has recovered until he starts to run on the injured leg once the practice sessions begin.

Co-Captain Chuck Doud has a similar injury as Davenport's but the doctors didn't believe it was as serious. The big tackle's knee was not placed in a cast and he is expected to be ready to go full speed against the Spartans. The rest of the team will be in fine shape for the New Year's Day tilt.

First Bowl

As the Bruins go into their first Rose Bowl game since 1947, Sanders has told the team that they will be facing one of the best teams in the nation. "They'll certainly be the team with the greatest speed that we've faced all year. They've got backs that can go all the way on any play."

The Bruins will counter the Michigan State speed with a hard-driving single wing attack of their own. In All-American Paul Cameron they have one of the finest triple-threat backs in the nation, a boy who led the Conference in rushing, scoring, punting and punt returns.

WHIZ KIDS WIN TWO CAGE TILTS

The Medical Pharmacy Whiz Kids basketball team scored an impressive 73-50 cage victory over the highly touted San Pedro Dolphins at the Admiral Leigh Gym. On Thursday night the win happy Whiz Kids took on Cutshall Insurance and easily defeated them 61-45. Coach Fred Griffin is prepping his boys for a tough one with the Kirby Shoes, coached by the renowned Scotty MacDonald, former basketball coach of the Loyola Lions. Other games on slate for Whiz Kids are with Taft Junior College, San Diego, Ensenada, Mexico and the famous Santa Maria Dukes, ranking national AAU team.

The Whiz Kids are hoping for an undefeated season and perhaps a trip to Denver for the AAU tournament.

NINE HOUR WAIT

DIG THE DUCATS—James Payne displayed the first two Rose Bowl tickets sold for the Bruins-Michigan game for the Battle of the Roses in Pasadena January 1. Payne arrived Tuesday at 11 a.m. and was on hand Wednesday at 8 a.m. when the 3500 tickets went on sale. Payne is an actor and has appeared in several stage plays locally.

— On the Turf —

GEORGE RAMSEY

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Apprentice Jockey Willie Harmatz was the whole show South of the Border last Sunday, scoring on four winners to increase his big lead over his rival jockeys. Starting off with Perfect Gift, a field horse in the first race, who was bearing out all the way, the hustling apprentice went to work on the unruly, though Mercury-heeled, 2-year-old maiden who tried to bolt through a gap, strayed nearly to the outside fence on the turn and then ran wide all the way through the stretch.

RAMSEY

The game little Harmatz never stopped battling her. Racing wide down the home stretch he mastered the little filly to gain a two length victory over the odds-on favorite, The Mint, for a mutuel payoff of $11.20. His next winner was the public choice, Oracle Man, in the second race. In the sixth race he brought the R. C. Stable, Short Wait, home in front of Imperial Squaw and the favored Miss Campo for a lush payoff of $11.20. He called it a day in the last race by bringing home the second choice, Gay Marvel. Split Reward, ridden by Jockey Eugene Gifford, an outsider, captured the featured Springfield Handicap, beating such good distance horses as Magic Lead, the favorite, Big Silver, Big Brownie, and others in the fast time of 1:37 for the mile, rewarding his backers with $18.80.

The daily-double combination of Diamond V, winner of the fourth race, and Light Kiss, victor of the fifth, paid $82.00, while the Quniela paid to the holders of Gay Marvel and Cithado, who finished in that order, $25.60.

Santa Anita: Santa Anita Park is to be a busy place the next two weeks with preparations moving ahead to open the 17th and most pretentious racing season on Dec. 26. There is assurance that everything will be in readiness. Only finishing touches are left to be applied to the $1,300,000 third addition to the west end of the grandstand, which will furnish accommodations to some 5,000 more persons. Walkways are now ready in the expanded paddock to reach the new section, which has an escalator for the convenience of visitors. There'll be space for approximately 33,000 cars.

Compton Cagers Joins Tourney

Defending champion Compton College and 1952 runner-up Glendale were among the 16 top-ranked junior college squads entered in the fourth annual Sam Barry Memorial basketball tourney.

Otto Graham Directs East

Otto (The Arm) Graham, unanimous all-pro quarterback, will direct the Eastern Conference All-Stars in the fourth annual Pro Bowl game Sunday afternoon, January 17, in the Coliseum.

Caroline, Bolden Picked for NBC's All-American

Illinois's scoring sensational halfback, J. C. Caroline, who was named to positions on three All-American football teams, and fleet halfback Leroy Bolden, voted Michigan State's most valuable player, were selected last week for posts on NBC Television's 22-man All-American team by a staff of experts who covered intercollegiate football in all parts of the country this season.

BOWLING NEWS

The Angel City Men's League opened their regular Saturday night show at the Studio Bowl. With every bowler, an actor in his own right, riding the range for ten pins, every spare or strike counts to help move their team in the standings.

For a long time the Central Bar-B-Cuers have been trying to find a winning role. Last week with their script loaded with clear sounding cues they latched on and came up with a winning combination.

Floyd Lawrence rolled a steady 230 and veteran Lewis Russ hit his stride with a smashing 210 high games, for a high game series total of 610 and 579 respectively. They closed with a three game win over Brown Motors, which moved the team into the second spot in the standings behind Ted Service who dropped one to the Garrett bowlers.

Sav-Way Tvers scored a clean sweep against the B and B's team. Al May drilled a nifty 208 high game and was ably sunported by Johnnie Gardiner who contributed a 179-200 high game for a healthy total of 597 series.

The Red Hut Broilers turned on the heat and burned up the alleys against the league leading Lee Hi Hats and completely outplayed them as they handed them their season's worst defeat.

Willie Vaughn Newest Threat

Whistling Willie Vaughn became the darling of the Hollywood Legion boxing fans last week, when he defeated Chilling Charlie Green for the State's Middleweight boxing title in a bout that may be rated the "Fight-Of-The Year."

Vaughn had to come off the floor twice to win a clean-cut decision after a slam-bang 10-round slugfest that had 3000 fans in near hysterics.

POLY CAGE TEAM TOPPING LEAGUE

Poly High school is having quite an athletic year, having won league titles in football, and cross-country. The basketball team is leading the league with six straight victories.

The Mechanics Hoopsters have given their Eastern League foes a bad time. They have scored large margins and are almost a cinch to capture the loop crown.

World's Richest Racing Program Gets Underway at Santa Anita

Santa Anita Park in Arcadia, just east of Pasadena and 14 miles from downtown Los Angeles, has everything in readiness to usher in its richest-in-the-world $3,100,000 racing program next Saturday, Dec. 26. To be put on initial display when the gates open at 11 a.m. and the first race starts at 1 p.m. will be $1,500,000 new improvements installed since last season.

The third addition to the west end of the grandstand will provide accommodations and added public services to some 5,000 more persons. Racing facilities are augmented with a spectacular new hillside-infield turf course to be inaugurated opening day with a mile-and-a-half race on the grass.

Five of the all-time high number of 33 stakes are to be presented during the first seven days of the meeting, which will include the New Year's Day holiday when many thousands will be visiting nearby Pasadena's famed Tournament of Roses Parade and Rose Bowl football classic. Opening stakes at Santa Anita are:

Saturday, Dec. 26 — $20,000 Palos Verdes Handicap, six furlongs.

Wednesday, Dec. 30—$25,000 Breeders Trial Stakes, seven furlongs.

Friday, Jan. 1 — $25,000 San Pasqual Handicap, 1 1-16 miles.

Saturday, Jan. 2 — $25,000 Malibu Sequet Stakes, seven furlongs.

Wednesday, Jan. 6—$20,000 Las Flores Handicap, six furlongs.

Poly, San Fernando Tangle For Prep Championship Sat.

Dispite Polytechnic High school's football record of six wins and three losses they earned their right to meet unbeaten, untied San Fernando Saturday in a game that will decide the city championship. Coach Bob Beck, who should win the Prep "Coach-of-the Year" award, for having taken a last team in a rather easy league last year and whipping it into a rip-snorting, well oiled grid machine.

It is true Poly didn't win them all but all during the season the young ball club showed signs of coming to life game after game and when they fought themselves into the finals and handed L. A. High a 19-13 stunning defeat the Mechanic had come through with the big one.

Brady Keys, Poly's 165 pound star hit his peak in the L. A. game and accounted for 274 of the 306 yards that Poly gained rushing. Although San Fernando boasts a more impressive season record they will have to be much better than they were against Manual when they were held scoreless until the last 55 seconds of the game. We think Poly is inspired up enough to win this one for Coach Beck.

New Comeback

CHICAGO — Bob Satterfield, once ranking eastern heavyweight boxer, is launching another comeback. Satterfield is slated to make his debut in Topeka, Kan.

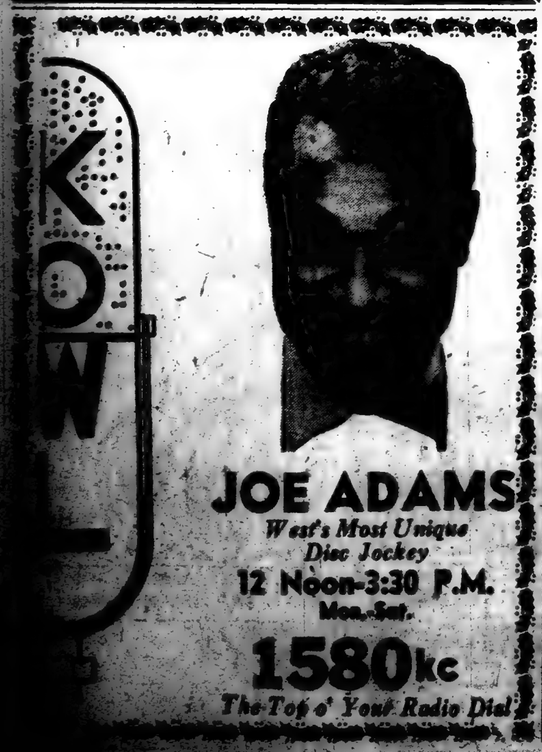
How to reach the phone before it stops ringing



Rrrrinngg—there goes the phone. And before you can get to it from another part of the house, it stops ringing. But—with a handy extension telephone, you can take calls anywhere in the house! This convenience costs just a few pennies a day. And extensions are now available everywhere because they require no outside cables, wires, or central office facilities. For complete details about a new extension telephon in your home . . . call your Pacific Telephone business office.

your party-line neighbor may cut in on your telephone conversation and ask you to release the line. He'll surely appreciate it if you allow him to use the phone. And you may need the same courtesy in an emergency of your own.

Gladys Collins Lott and her brother Nathaniel lost their father. Gilbert Lindsay must have a monopoly on accidents. He was in another one the other day. Reception honoring newlywed Ann Hunter Craig and her bridegroom George will be held this Sunday afternoon. Ann, she of the warm smile and warm heart, was never happier. Andy Razaf birthdayed Wed. (16th). Dave Caldwell loses father.

Add Italian haircuts: Maggi Hathaway Fleming. Her ex-mate Floyd Ray may marry again shortly, too. Travis Lott, out of Good Samaritan, is taking it easy, spends only an hour or so a day in his office. The Curtis Dorseys (Pearl) proudest grandparents in town. Their son Curtis III and his wife Janet have a son. He will be christened Curtis Callahan Dorsey IV.

Lena and Eddie Smith expecting her Dad out from Chi for his annual visit. Eddie, because of exceptional scholarship in accounting at SC, was bid to dine recently with Beta Alpha Psi, the national honorary accounting frat. He'll be eligible for the coveted key in '54. His wife is a social worker.

Mildren Blount bidding adieu to her house guests from Japan who is enroute to N.Y. Mil had several in for cocktails. That's Stuff Crouch creditably holding down that Western Ave. corner selling Xmas trees. Omegas dance Xmas Eve at the Cosmopolitan. Chappie Bryant due home from N.Y.

This would have been Laura Bowman's fiftieth year on the stage had not that stroke put her to bed three years ago. She's alert and able to laugh and reminisce and plan as well. Her mate Leroi Antoine has a bid from Haiti to attend the republic's 150th anniversary in Febr. Arthur Lee Simpkins relaxing at home here til after Xmas. He returns to Europe in the spring.

Where is Virginia Paris? Peggy Williston Mayo's husband got the Oak Leaf Cluster on his Bronze Star in Korea last week. He's flying here to join her. Dorothy Dandridge to undergo surgery? Jimmy Edwards-Leola Mosley wedding set for New Year's Day? To Europe: Herb Jeffries.

Superb informal hosts, Rosita and Schuyler Nelson. I especially admire their personable warmth, wit, conversation which sparkels. They make a good addition to our local scene. Their intimate circle is made up seemingly of excellent conversationalists.

National Council of Negro Women held a reception Wednesday at the Pacific Town Club for Mme. Shanti Kabir, Gen. Sec'y of the Association for Moral and Social Hygiene and wife of the Minister of India. The Council's Xmas party was given last Satd.

The handsome young chap studying lithography at the L. A. Times is Roger Riviere of Haiti. His government is underwriting his career. When he returns home they will build his own plant for him. Roger is typically French.

Not so many Xmas parties this time? Impulsive Ernest Scott did that attention-getting Xmas window over at the Red Hut. It got him a line-up of other such jobs, too. Does anyone ever see George Dowdy? Vacationing: Kate Garcia. But where is she, golly! Tod Duncan due this season? His new accompanist used to ditto for Nelson Eddy.

Edythe K. Owens again earned distinction of being the first in town to get her Xmas cards off as usual. Before Celie DuBissette took her plane home to N'Orleans the other early a.m. we made a nite of it, went straight back to the Tiffany.

There, absolutely mesmerized musically by Oscar Peterson and co. He's having a little trouble with an errant wrist, he told us. "I'm off to Europe for 46 weeks after Xmas," he added. At which point we sat silent, miserable in our mutual envy.

Dallas Atty. Jack Terry off to Detroit for the Alphas. I should say ex-Dallas attorney for Jack returns here instead of back to Dallas. He anticipates returning home to L.A. and his ole buddies. He takes the bar in April.

Mal Whitfield's buddies incensed because the bigotted AAU didn't nominate him for the coveted Sullivan Award. I suspect deep in his heart he feels the slight quite sharply.

Pasadena's Nine O'Clock Club enterain the young-fry on the 19th as is the club's Xmas custom. Dillard Univ. Alumni Club of L. A. give their first annual Xmas party on the 19th.

Wiley College Alumni elected new officers last week. So did the Prairie View Alumni. They are planning an inauguration banquet.

Dr. Jessie J. McNeil of Detroit, visiting Dr. and Mrs. Horace Mays, is a candidate for the Divinity degree at London Univ. in London, England. Mrs. McNeil made the trip west with her eminent husband. He spoke at Calvary Baptist Church last Sunday.

Dr. McNeil is also a graduate of Columbia Univ., the Union Theological Seminary and the Ecumenical Institute in Celigny, Switzerland.

Schoolmarm Josie Bain flew to Atlanta for her mother's funeral.

Elks Complete Xmas Plans

The Christmas Committee of the Golden West Lodge 86 and Hiawatha Temple No. 91 I.B.P.O.E. of W. are completing plans for its Christmas party Sunday, General Chairman is Robert C. Jackson and Co-Chairman is Alvis C. Johnson of Temple No. 91.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Bell is in charge of a one hour program, at 2 o'clock in the spacious auditorium, which accommodated more than five hundred kiddies and their parents last year. Baskets ot needy families will be issued at the hall this year from 1 to 4 p.m., Dec. 23.

Prizes Offered In Christmas Drawing

The Crusaders Choral Ensemble will sponsor a pre-Christmas drawing at the Y.W.C.A., 4260 Woodlawn, Saturday at 8 p.m.

Delta Sorority Dance Set for Zenda Ballrm.

Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority cleared the decks for action at their December meeting at Wilfandel for their annual gala Xmas ball. The holiday-making will be held at the Zenda ballroom on December 28. Bids are now in the mail.

Banquet and Jabberwock

On the heels of the dance looms the sorority's yearly Founders' Day Banquet which will come off in late January, according to chairman Mimi Saunders who reviewed tentative arrangements.

The Jabberwock committee was alerted also by President Geraldine P. Woods to prepare the groundwork for Jabberwock of 1954.

Faculty Sponsors

Alice Robinson was voted faculty sponsor of Upsilon chapter at University of Southern California and Ruth Berry as faculty sponsor of Pi chapter at the University of California, Los Angeles.

Xmas Cheer

Twenty dollars was voted by the group for Xmas cheer to the aged to be dispensed by Maurine Perkinson through Metropolitan South II district office of the Bureau of Public Assistance where she supervies. In addition Soror Emily Woody sold 3000 Xmas seals to the sorority and members for the NAACP to help in their Xmas seal drive. The program of the day presented by Paulyn Garner Glass included an Xmas reading capably done by Joenicey Garner and carol singing by a group of sorors composed of Geraldine Clisby, Dorothy King, Floraline Ingraham, Bernice Clay and directed by Danellen Mabry.

YWCA Clubs

The Poly Hedrons and Clarimondes Young Adult groups are having as their guest speaker at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening Miss Alice Papes, Associate Director, Metropolitan YWCA. Miss Papes will speak on World Fellowship and her work and association in South America. This will also include the showing of articles brought from South America. The meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. Young Adults actively employed and eager to participate in goodwill and fellowship are invited to join the groups.

Three new members were welcomed at the last meeting. They are: Mrs. Eula B. Manning, Addie Daniels, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Earline Williams, Parsons, Kansas. Hostesses for the evening carrying out the spirit of Christmas will be: Mrs. Mae Hicks and Miss Barbara Bradley.

Marjorie Taylor-William Collins United In Impressive Ceremonies

Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah James Taylor of Lecompte, Louisiana, became the bride of William Donald Collins, son of Mrs. Effie Collins, recently in an impressive double ring ceremony in the Trinity Baptist Church, 35th and Cimarron. The nuptial ceremony was read by the Reverend Jonathan L. Caston. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Aubrey Lee Taylor.

The attractive bride wore a lovely gown of ivory satin. The fitted bodice was embroidered with seeded pearls, and the skirt swept back from a pointed waist-line into a train. The fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of pearls. The bride carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Something Old, Something New

Mrs. Christopher C. Thompson, matron of honor, wore a chromespun taffeta gown of antique gold and carried blue chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Toni Adams, Stella Pecot, Eritee Clark and Renee Hatcher wore chromespun taffeta gowns in shades of copen blue, rose, lime and copper, trimmed with white angora embroidery and white matching headpieces. They also carried nosegays of chrysanthemums in blending color tones. Deborah Jenkins, niece of the bride, was flower girl and her nephew, Darryl Jenkins, carried the rings.

Best Man Lends Hand

The groom's brother, James H. Collins, attended him as best man. The ushers were Eddie W. McKinley, Joseph W. Mayfield, Will J. Yeldell and Joel T. Johnson.

Mrs. Inez Caston officiated at the organ for the procession and recession; and accompanied Bobbye Jones, who sang "Through the Years," preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer." Barbara Bronson and Tommie Hitlon sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Frances Alexander.

Gay Bridal Party

After the ceremony, the bride and groom, bridal party and mothers of the bride and groom, received relatives and friends in the lovely home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Redfud. The home was beautifully decorated in chrysanthemums of blended fall shades and autumn leaves. Many lovely gifts were displayed in the master bedroom. The lovely hostesses attending the gifts were Mrs. Effie Gordon, Miss Bobbye Jones, Mrs. Ann Brown, Miss Kathryn Benton and Mrs. Lucille Bartlett.

Popular Pair

The bride graduated from Dillard University, New Orleans, La., 1950, with a B.A. in Sociology. The groom graduated from Tuskegee Institute in 1943 with a B.S. in Education. He is presently attending the University of Southern California, majoring in accounting. He is employed with the Los Angeles Post Office.

The couple honeymooned in Northern California for a week.

Dr. and Mrs. Kimbrough Entertains Diane Club

One of the most elaborate affairs was given last Sunday at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Kimbrough of San Diego. Members of the Diane Club held their Christmas meeting with Quincella Nickerson Kimbrough hostess, ably assisted by her personable spouse.

The entire afternoon was spent in casual lounging with choice cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. Late in the evening a complete dinner was served, consisting of New York cut broiled steaks, baked potatoes with sour cream dressing, fresh green peas with mushroms, imported Roquefort cheese dressing with romaine, hot french bread and spumoni ice cream for dessert, served along with the dinner and imported sparkling burgundy wine.

Coffee, nuts and candy completed a most delicious dinner.

Tots Enjoy Lavish Party

Clara Wright's cute little five-year-old daughter celebrated her birthday Sunday, December 13, at her mother's home. Twenty-four youngsters spent an afternoon of games around a beautiful white Christmas tree and later went on a motorcade to Suker Bros. carnival where they enjoyed exciting rides.

Those attending the party were: Sherida and Frederick Ferrell, Ronnie and Roderick Moore, Jea, Lashon and Vernell Wright, James Choice, Jr., Kenneth Choice, Rhenee Foley, Mariea and Edward Tarver, Tony McMilian, Yuvonne and Tyron Hunt, Shelia Laugrn Dabney, Donna Lightner, Michele and Earl Thomas and Joyce and Buddy Murray.

Will Rogers Park In Yule Program

Will Rogers Park is again presenting its annual Christmas program from the stage of the Community Building at Will Rogers Park on Wednesday, Dec. 23, at 7:30 p.m. The program will feature the Nativity scene with the participants from the St. Lawrence School and the Will Rogers Park Youth groups.

For the younger children, Santa Claus will be there and there will be Christmas stockings and refreshments for everyone who comes. Christmas caroling and group singing by the youth groups is also a feature of the program.

Jefferson Drama Class To Present One-Act Play

The Jefferson High School's drama class, under the capable direction of Mrs. J. A. LeVeque, will present "The Little Match Girl," a story in one act, written by Henri Gehon this Friday evening, December 18, at eight o'clock in the school auditorium.

The popular prep school, widely known for its track team, is getting notices about their well played dramas. Friday night's story deals with charity and love of fellow-men and their concern for their adversity. It's a timely story and certainly should pack the auditorium. Each student should instruct his parents to bring their neighbors.

It's a play that merits the attendance of every member of our community. If such charity and love was practiced as in the world of Little Match Girl today there would be little need for the United Nations.

The cast will include: Joyce Ewing as Frida the Little Match Girl; Donald Bradley, her grandfather; Jan Garrett, the Gentleman; Mary Hornsby, as the lady; Glen Robinson, the working man; Orville Duvernay as Emil; Elenore Russell, Creole Fikes, Alician Berkeley as the Dolls; Virgil Sanchez as "Sugh"; William Holliman as the Old Gentleman; Ruby Jones as Snow, Gloria Pope as Wind, Flossie Boyskins as Cold, Rose Maxwell as Stove, Vondella Richardson as Page, Patsy Ingram as Grandmother and Madalyn Cladwell as Frida's Spirit.

ANTHENIANS, popular young social group, turn over a basket of goodies to a needy family during the Thanksgiving day. The members are setting plans for their Christmas party to be held Dec. 19. Club members are: Joan Harrison, president; Ruth Hoggett, treasurer; Gloria Swanson, reporter; Rena Dunn, secretary. Standing: Advisor Estelle Sherwood, Jerry Nelson, corresponding secretary; Faye Houteman, Florene Towles and Imogene Winston.

VICTORS RECEIVE CHECKS

JOSEPH BEACHAM, manager of Consolidated Realty Board's Soft Ball Team, is shown presenting two checks to Attorneys Carl A. Earles and Thomas G. Neusom. Earles and Neusom are accepting the checks for the sum of $50.00 each, on behalf of the Langston Law Club, which won the first annual soft ball charity tilt from the Realty Board. The charities named by the Langston Law Club to be recipients of these checks were the NAACP Los Angeles Branch, and the 28th Street YMCA.

RUTH GILBERT GORDON, who plays the role of The White Christmas Lady, is shown with her trainbearers, Lonna Smith, Francine Hawkins, Lawrence Smith and Lionell Smith. The play opens Friday, December 18, at the Forum theatre. Madame Katherine Etienne, nationally known ballet figure, will bring her entire cast as one of the many outstanding features that will support the Christmas story to be presented this Friday and Saturday nights, Dec. 18th and 19th.

THE WHITE CHRISTMAS LADY will be presented Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. for the benefit of For America, Inc., Center is Ruth G. Gordon, who will star as White Christmas Lady. Left to right are Mildred Barnard, president founder For America, Inc.; Martha Rhoden, secretary-treasurer of For America, Inc; Robert Barnes, producer, director of "Lady"; Francis Driver, program chairman of the House of Ruth Sorority; Myrtle Brown, hostess, and Interracial leader for For America, Inc. The play will run two days at the Forum theatre, 4050 West Pico Blvd.

Thomas Edison . . . . Jr. Hi Journalist

Hiya! I am again in this week's column! Hope you like it as much as I like doing it. Now about some more outstanding students at Edison. First, we'll start off with some more like girls. First, we have some girls from the Golden Circle.

Rank I — Agnes Ferguson, Chairman; Mary Louise Peterson, Secretary.

Rank II—Dorothy Pennington.

Rank IV—Mary Alaba, Secretary.

Rank V—Janet De Boise, Chairman; Freddie Johnson, Secretary.

Rank VI—Mercedes De Vera, Chairman.

I think say that these girls are proud and grateful to have the honor of holding these particular jobs. They are among the most outstanding jobs for our Edison girls, and I am sure that the sponsors are proud to have such wonderful girls working with them.

Student Body Officers

Now, I'll get to some of the other prominent individuals. First of all, we have the Student Body President, Carolyn Ferguson. Carolyn is one of the smartest girls at the school, I am sure, or she would not hold the job she does. Our students chose her, and they couldn't have made a wiser choice.

Veronicee Hunter is our Student Body Vice-President. Veronicee is also one of our proud students, and our school should be proud of her because she is most worthy of her job.

Cristell Marnegee: Cristell is one of our nicest girls. She is intelligent and has good manners. That is why she gets along with all her teachers. She seems to do very well. This is her first semester here.

Male Call

Now I think I'll write about some Boys. First we'll have:

Ronald Butler: He is one of the fastest track stars we've had at Edison besides Kenneth Davis, who now goes to Fremont.

Billy Hunt: Billy is very quiet and gets along with all of his teachers. He is courteous both at work and at play.

George Williams: I don't know about his work, because I only see him out on the field playing and that's enough for me to know that George should serve as go far in football for he is exceptionally good in this sport.

Clinton Jones: Clinton is at good standing and influences here at Edison. He holds about all of the offices, when an honorable, cheerful, cooperative son. He is a well known boy.

That's all for this week. I hope you have enjoyed my column and will continue to read it every week.

Ruth Gordon Xmas Play Opens Friday at Forum

Ruth Gilbert Gordon is author of The White Christmas Lady, a Christmas fantasy play with a theme of giving and sharing to all mankind. The play will star Mrs. Gordon, formerly Myrtle Hoffman of Villa Arlington who will share the lead role.

The talented Mrs. Gordon is an author, producer, contralto, actress and composer. Sharing the spotlight with the White Christmas Lady will be Robert Barnes, producer, director and for many years associated with motion pictures and television and Madame Katherine Etienne.

The outstanding play will attract a record smashing house of some 1700 and will open Friday and Saturday, December 18, and 19 at the Forum Theatre, 4050 West Pico Blvd.

The funds raised from this show will go to the Veteran's Benefit to help G.I.s and their families win scholarship.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Myrtle Brown, owner of the Brown House, at 2103 S. Harvard Blvd.

Yule Pageant At Ross Snyder

To climax a very active week of Christmas festivities, the Ross Snyder Playground is proud to present its Community Night program on Thursday (tonight) Dec. 17th, in the gymnasium. Approximately 80 to 100 children will participate in the Christmas play pageant "The Magic Hood," which features Christmas songs, Christmas dances by the boys and girls from the regular dance classes, and the dramatic talents of the children's drama class in a very enjoyable Christmas story. Parents and children are invited to attend the program, which begins promptly at 7:30 p.m. Christmas carol singing will also be a highlight of the evening. Each child between the ages of five years and 12 years will receive from Santa Claus a Christmas present claim check, and will be required to return to the playground on Tuesday, Dec. 22nd, at 3:30 p.m. to pick their present.

ALASKA NEWS

Ronnie Owens, who operates one of the smartest Beauty Salons in Fairbanks, Alaska, took time out from her busy routine to pen a few items about the town's most pleasant personalities.

Xmas Play At Carver

A greater number of children each year are being introduced to the truth of the Santa Claus legend while retaining the beauty that will always accompany the thought of Christmas. How fitting at this time when, "Visions of Sugar Plums Dance in Heads" that our community be extended another opportunity to live, dream and experience the gay fantasy of another period in the "Nutcracker Suite," at the Carver Junior high school auditorium Thursday, December 17, eight o'clock.

In this musical story, the timeless Tschaikowsy weaves a simple and beautiful tale of a little girl's dreams in which her Christmas toys and sweetmeats are turned into living characters. By turning a common nutcracker into a hero prince, Mr. Tschaikowsky has managed to end the story with that pleasant situation of good overcoming moderate evil.

Each year the P.T.A. and Carver Junior High School's staff promote these tasteful extravaganzas as year-end showcases for the parents and friends in our community who quite often never otherwise realize the wonderful talents hidden beneath the healthy exterior of our adolescent offspring.

Delta Mothers Meeting Sunday

The Christmas meeting of the Delta Mothers and Sponsors Club to be held on December 20th promises to be a gala one. The program chairman, Alicia Strickland, and the hostesses, Mesdames Brown, Butler, Campbell, Davis, Fortier and Waller, are making great preparations for a very festive occasion with carol singing, gift exchanging, games and interesting guests.

Mrs. Alice Mason, chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the Delta Mothers, represented the group at the Pan-Helenic Conference all Greek outing at the Avalon Community Center, and also the dedication of the new community television station KTHE held at the University of Southern California.

By KERRY JACKSON and HAL MILLER

The partyingest people in the world are U.S.C.s African students who bar no holds when it comes to letting the good times roll, and we mean roll. The other eve the Nigerian students balled the walls down at one of their west Adams residences.

The strangest things happened at this affair but as they are nice people we won't devulge "those" things that happened.

The guests included such notables as Leon McCarty and Coyla Brown, Beverly Pickett and Walker Bruce, Buddy Maxwell, Barbara (big) Bartlett, James Barr, Addisin Hawthorne, Donnie Clay, Barbara Garrott and George Lewis, Bill Thayer, and Charlene Narcisse.

We have always been of the opinion that a cocktail party was an affair where the guests are supposed to be full of high spirit and cocktails. But much to our dismay the Circeans introductory affair awhile back will not be a cherished memory for many of the now disallusioned populace.

Evil eyes, double whammy's and pinched hips seemed to be the thing to do among the married and about to be married couples.

Engagement rings are meant to be given . . . back Doris Towns did it to Grump Smith and at press time no reconciliation is in sight.

Other incidents are hardly printable but the guest list read like who's who: Jimmy and Jackie Daugherty, Suzy Moore and Hubie Knight, Burdell Forrest and Barbara Freeman, Frank and Betty Braxton, Ruth (Peachie Thompson, and Wilbur Webb, Dowell and Jean Lewis, Percy McIntyre, Artyne Sheppard and Hubby were among those who seemingly had a good time.

Can't say we didn't enjoy ourselves but we did feel kinda sorry for the folks involved in those off colored incidents.

Katie Mae Gonder, Billie Jean Weaver, Al Glover, Ann Allen, Ted Schaffer, Walter Smith, Lou and Bonnie Keyser all agreed that the champagne was great.

WHAT'S ALL THIS TALK ABOUT:

Pasadean, Bill Baily and over attractive Pat Anderson.

The mystery surrounding Ernie Lindo's (Pat's former heart-thump) supposed engagement to unpredictable Shirly Lee.

Do You Want to Marry?

BEING IN LOVE is not looking into another's eyes . . . but looking in the RIGHT DIRECTION. So many people are forced to rely on CHANCE as a means of meeting their prospective mates; stumbling around and marrying unwisely for lack of an adequate opportunity to view a wider range of eligible matrimonial prospects. Hence, so many broken homes, divorces, unwanted children and years (sometimes the best years) spent in misery. The KAE WILLIAMS Marriage Foundation will put forth every effort to bring you in contact with a mate of your choice whose interests, habits and personality are compatible to yours and EVERYTHING done with the strictest confidence. Call Kae Williams, ADams 1-9437, and arrange for a private interview or write: Miss Kae Williams, c/o Box 5000, 1050 East 43rd Place, Los Angeles 11, California.

Peter Persil Lewis Celebrates Birthday

Little Peter Lewis entertained twenty-five of his little friends at his third birthday party. The happy scene of his parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Persil Lewis, at 1041 East 16th Street, was enhanced by the holiday motif. Here we see Santa riding his sleigh and being driven by his favorite reindeer.

It is only the little ones who were entertained. Special pictures were taken of the little ones enjoying themselves. Everything went well and the little ones certainly enjoyed themselves.

CHRISTMAS BASKET FUND DANCE SAT. AT MASONIC

LA VELLE JACKSON, a college-bred miss with a lot of knowledge about travels, opened up a nifty travel agency in the lobby of Hotel Clark.

GEORGE H. CROWDER celebrated his sixty-one birthdays on this good earth and it appears he'll be around that much longer. He's active in advertising specialties such as book matches and Union Labels, plus being one of Pasadena's powerful Republicans!

CARRIE THOMAS, a cute sister nearing her eighty-first birthday, certainly could use a Santa Claus. She lives in a room that is clean as a pin, is a regular church goer and impresses us a person that has always lived a good clean life. So if you are figuring on playing Santa, include her. Drop

C. P. Johnson Crew All Ready to Swing For Old Charity

Cee Pee "Tom Tom" Johnson and his groovy music makers, are set to swing this Saturday night at the Masonic Temple, 5200 S. Avalon, for the Eastside Welfare Association's Christmas Basket Fund dance.

Charitable Organization

The Association is expecting to turn music lovers away as numerous top names in the field of radio, screen and TV, as well as the sports world, will be on hand.

Tickets are available at the California Eagle office or any one the leading clubs in the city.

Good Music Assured

Cee Pee assured this writer that he is cooking up a special treat for the dancing gentry come Saturday night.

Johnson trail-blazed the combos a few years ago when he became the first sepia band to open in the leading clubs in Hollywood. Since that time his Tom Tom Drums are as famous as the California smog.

Stellar Crew

Johnson's band includes such music masters as Bill Jennings, one of the smoothest bassists since Duke Ellington's Jack-The-Bear, Wallace Huff on the slides and Gene Phillips as guitarist, formerly with the famous Mills Brothers, and Austin McCoy, Jefferson's great graduate, tickling the ivories.

Funds raised from the dance will purchase food for Christmas baskets for the needy families.

The officials of the Welfare Association are three well known figures in the community and long known for their work for the underprivileged—Alice Keys, sportsman Elihu McGee and Johny Cornish. Be there!

Cleveland Bans Phil Moore Tune About Yuletide

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Phil Moore's "Chincy Old Scrooge," a hep narrative about the famed Dickens' Yuletide character, was banned from the air lanes here last week following protests from the Board of Education.

The song, recorded with the Phil Moore Four, tells the plight of some out-of-cash musicians, who are forced to visit pawnshop owner Scrooge, leaving their instruments to get the cash for a little season's cheer. The wax story finds a happy ending when Scrooge, as in the original tale about him, has a change of heart

Popular Elsewhere

It is interesting to note, that this difficulty has not arisen in other areas for the disk is rapidly gaining as the most played of the many Christmas tunes on the market. Moore stated that he sincerely regretted the Board's attitude about the record. He added that he had never felt that the tune would be a harmful influence.

Meanwhile, here, and elsewhere, the flip side of the disk is gaining popularity, too. With lyrics by columnist Dan Burley, "Blink Before Christmas," is a new version of the famed poem in a language the beboppers are more likely to understand.

Large Cans Wanted At 'Ivy's' Xmas Dance

The Ivy Pledge Club to the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is presenting a Can-Can Christmas Dance. It will be held at the Alpha Fraternity House on December 19, 1953. The time is from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. and the donation will be a can of food. (Size No. 2).

Ivy committees are working hard under the supervision of their president, Diane Watson, to stress admission by cans of food. All cans received will be placed in Christmas baskets and given to needy families.

They are hoping to see the public out in full force.

Noted Soprano To Sing Here

Florence Cole Talbert, one of the nation's few Negro operatic stars, will lend her well-trained soprano voice to the regular music program at the 10:00 a.m. services at the Church of Divine Guidance, West Pico at Norton, this Sunday.

The famed singer is a former Los Angeles school girl. After competing basic voice and literary training here, she studied in the east and later abroad. She is well known and revered here as a native Angelenan.

She has promised Rev. Clayton D. Russell, pastor of the Church of Divine Guidance, to sing the liturgy for the Third Sunday of Advent in several languages. The public is invited to attend.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Christmas carols for commuters will be a musical offering of the Metropolitan Coach Lines' glee club at the company's downtown motor coach and railway terminals during the week before Christmas.

Budweiser Plant Near Completion

Construction of the brew house, heart of the all-new million-barrel brewery rising in San Fernando Valley, is nearing completion. It was announced this week by Anheuser-Busch, Inc., a year to the day after the ground-breaking ceremonies.

All the other units of the new brewery, as well as the architectural landscaping, will be completed on schedule in the spring of 1954 in spite of unusual construction difficulties.

Soon thereafter the $17,000,000 plant will be producing Budweiser at an annual rate of 920,000 barrels, about 90 per cent of which will be sold in bottles or cans. This figures out to some 273,800,000 bottles and cans a year.

SHIRLI QUALLS, shapely Edwards Field army clerk caused raised eye-brows when she piloted a classy two-tone fish-tail about the city over the week-end!

DICK BARROWS, who thrilled thousands of night club goers a few seasons ago with his songs is back in town!

BERT KENNER, operator of the two thriving Union Stations along Western Ave. is about to become a father for the third time!

ERNIE ANDREWS is hitting his stride with romantic songs at the Pigalle, the city's newest hot spot and Joe Adams tosses in a few solid notes as Jackie Glenn provides the steady beat from the 88's which accounts for their packed house.

BILL WATKINS will be playing the role of Saint Nick when his headquarters for Governor Knight passes out a few hundred Christmas baskets!

JAMES B. TURNER, enterprising young UCLA student with a week's vacation, toured the night spots the other eve armed with enough campus posies to win any female!

TRADER JOE is getting a lotta play with a club-cafe and recreational center down on Nickel Avenoo. Personable Barbara Phelps is the charming hostess while Cy Phelps, former Globe-trotter ace, acts as the Maitre'D!

WALTER GORDON, considered one of the top criminal lawyers in the west coast is tossing in his brief case for Gus Hawkins' job as assemblyman for the 62nd District.

GILBERT LIDSAY, a lot of peasants are just a little disappointed in the way he is turning an about face. He says he didn't desert Rev. Clayton Russell and that Russell left them. However Russell's friends countered with, "the doors are open wide on West Pico Street!"

HAM AND EGGERS were cutting up one of its members Sunday morning claiming that she hogs the club's pictures and publicity!

COCOA COLORED CAPRI is ing driven by the attractive Mrs. of Rev. J. C. Austin to the disappointment of the howling Western Avenoo wolves.

THE BLOND waitress at a certain Western Avenoo sip-parlor got a chance to get back at her brownskin rival when she refused to serve her party. The two are vieing for the charms of a well known brown brother.

THE BROOM. The Consolidated Realty Board swept in a bunch of new officers during their regular yearly election. W. G. Brown won the big chair. Wesley Fairchild was elected to the Board of Directors.

THE EX of a big-time radio star who died a few seasons ago is hotter than a foundry furnace. It seems that her boy friend made off with all the loot she had acquired during the recent Pullman Porter convention. She did the work, he did the steering. Now he is whining and dining while she sits home and pines!

ELIZABETH McGEE, who always looks good to Elihu, is recovering from a nose operation!

FRANK TERRY, NBC's man Friday, is sporting that soon-to-be-father look in his eyes these days!

JOHNNY OTIS increased his family one more when his pretty brownskin wife gave birth to a boy Sunday night!

LAWRENCE SWEETWINE is playing Santa down Hotel Clark way from behind the Le Caribe bar. Only you pick up the tab but you won't mind because everyone has a good time with the "Wine"!

MEXICO WAY. Understand the gal friend of the noted singer will be off to the Latin country. Reason being that she is picking up much too much weight!

BILL SEWELL is keeping busy dividing his time between his fast-growing insurance business and his hotel interest!

L. V. JOHNSON, noted Hotel Cosmopolitan barber, is thinking about giving up his shop in the swank hotel lobby. Johnson claims his customers are complaining about the distance!

DYNAMITE JACKSON is getting rave notices for his noonday meals which he prepares himself!

LAVERN JOHNSON is Dynamite's newest waitress who's causing the thirsty sippers to choke up when she switches from table to table!

MALBROUGH is passing out the word about his exquisite, stunning and fashionable annual pre-Xmas sale at his salon, 3407 S. Arlington. If you want to please the war department this year and yet save some loot, drop in and talk it over with Chief Malbrough. He'll solve the gift problem!

Sammy Davis, Jr., romps into Ciro's for the Christmas bill! . . . We were completely fractured at the Ciro's benefit for musician Bobby Ramos when Jerry Lewis auctioned off a kiss to columnist Sheilah Graham (a looker). Jerry went back to his table and screamed, "Thank God Louella isn't here." . . . Dean came quickly to his feet and moaned, "Please don't anyone tell her what he just said!" . . . We're real proud of the way our little Margee McGlory is making the theatrical headlines with her artistry on the Eastern slopes. Scrapple from the apple has it that the doll is booked for Mocambo or Ciro's when she arrives here!

Woody Holand has fluffed off his wax whirling chores. The suave gent is working on his masters at Southern Cal and helping to manage the B & O Likker emporium! . . . Enjoyed chat with Betty Clark, the handsome lady over in the Cosmopolitan politico office who tells us she reads our trash religiously. And for that a deep bow from the waist. . . . Zelda de la Garde and Catherine Jamieson are a pair of cute reasons for the friendly atmosphere of the Bombay Bar. . . . And Vi Bond's cosmetic products are still a smooth item and the good news youth-in-a-jar concoctions are spreading like a forest blaze!

Ministers' Alliance Plans New Policy

The Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance, one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the City of Los Angeles, went on record today in its regular meeting to revamp its program to be more far reaching and to keep in tune with the present day problems.

A committee was appointed to bring in a long range program covering every phase of life of our city. The following composed the committee: Drs. A. Wendell Ross, M. Frederick Mitchell, J. E. Carter, S. M. Mariam, Jessie L. Glover and N. S. Curry.

This committee will make a report at the next regular meeting, Dec. 28th, at the Twenty-Eighth Street branch of the Y.M.C.A.

Jack Haas, Director of Organization, International Ladies Garment Workers Union, AFL, made an emotional appeal to the ministers to urge upon the working people of our constituency to become union members.

The alliance voted to study Mr. Haas' request through its special committee and report its recommendation at its next regular meeting.

The Christmas service, which has been one of the highlights through the years, will be conducted at the A.M.E. Zion Church, Pico and Paloma, of which Rev. S. M. Mariam is pastor.

The Rev. Jessie L. Glover, pastor of St. Matthew Temple A.M.E. Church, will deliver the Christmas sermon. Christmas carols will be interspersed, rendered by noted singers. The public is cordially invited to attend this Christmas service. The program will commence promptly at 11:00 a.m. Christmas Day. Dr. G. L. Hayes is president and M. Frederick Mitchell is reporter for the group.

Prize Offered For Bettering Race Feeling

NEW YORK—The officers and members of the Hotel and Club Employes Union, Local 6, AFL, advises that nominations are still open for the first annual award of $500 for the person or organization deemed to have done the most to promote better race relations during the year 1953 and will continue to be open until Jan. 15, 1954.

The awards will be made on the basis of nominations sent in with supporting evidence to the Awards Committee. Anyone may be nominated except for officers and members of the Hotel and Restaurant Employes and Bartenders International Union and any individuals or organizations whose basic purposes are the promotion of civil rights, race relations, etc. Nominations should be addressed to: Awards Committee, Local 6, 305 West 44th St., New York 36, N. Y.

The first annual award will be announced on Tuesday, Feb. 9, 1954, during National Negro History Week.

Neighbors Don't Like Jackie— Usual Reason

NEW YORK—Jackie Robinson, just appointed national chairman of community organizations for Brotherhood Week in 1954, is having difficulties in finding a suitable home for himself and his family, like a lot of less well-known individuals.

Jackie, the first Negro to crack major league baseball, said on Monday that he plans to purchase a 10-room residence on four acres in an exclusive section of North Stamford, Ct.

When word got around that a Negro was buying the extensive grounds, there were the usual rumblings and indignation meetings.

A group of Stamford ministers, learning of the opposition, issued a statement asserting that "exclusion of any persons solely for reasons of race, creed or national origin could lessen the spiritual, economic and social development of our area."

Robinson said: "We want to get along in the community, but we were mainly looking for a house that would be best for our kids. If the neighbors object, too bad. Who cares."

SECTIONS OF 30-inch natural gas pipe are now being laid near Cactus City by the Southern California Gas Co. to boost capacity of the Texas-California Pipeline. Each 62-foot section (above) weighs three tons. Current project, which calls for installation of 73 miles of large diameter pipe, is scheduled for completion late in January.

GALLSTONES

GALLSTONES are alkaline concretions which form in the gall ducts or gall bladder from the stagnation of thickened bile. It frequently takes years for their formation, during which time the alkaline accumulations pack harder and harder together, allowing the softer part of the bile to flow out and leaving behind these hardened calcareous substances. The blocking of the gall ducts leading to the intestines will produce symptoms often mistaken for other diseases.

Note: Do not depend on X-ray or fluoroscope. 70% of the cases of gall bladder disorders or gallstones are not detectable in this manner. X-ray or fluoroscope to determine the functioning of the gall bladder is highly unsuccessful in many cases—so do not be deceived.

"Fully one-half of the patients which come to me believing they have stomach ulcers, or gastritis, are really affected with some form of gall bladder disorder. I have found a very large number of cases, improperly diagnosed as stomach ulcer by other physicians, which have responded so rapidly to treatment as gall bladder derangement, as to lose all symptoms in a day or two.

"I have had many cases where large gallstones have been removed by my treatment, where no typical gallstone colic had been experienced at all. If the sharp pains and contractions of the gallstone colic are present in their worst form, the patient will be unable to stand or even sit up straight, but will be forced to lie down with knees drawn up to the chest. Even this position does not relieve the pain. I am convinced that these colicky symptoms are not present in most cases and that a serious stoppage of bile or a blocking up of the bile ducts with a gallstone may be present without any such symptoms being in evidence."

"Dr. Brinkley: Your treatments were an answer to my prayer, for without an operation, I have passed a handful or more of stones. I am feeling young and can get back on my feet again. Annette Erickson."

The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four point change in two of these cases. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. The patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and others as well as infections."

ARTHRITIS

ARTHRITIS, RHEUMATISM. Any condition involving inflammation of the bones and joints is called arthritis. Arthritis is not the same as rheumatism. Rheumatism is a condition of inflammation which may affect nerves, muscles, fibrous tissue, or any other tissues of the human body. When it affects bones and joints the condition is called arthritis.

Not all arthritis is the same. There may be sudden inflammation or chronic conditions lasting many years. There may be forms of arthritis in which there is simply a collection of fluid in the tissues, others in which there is over-development of the membranes. Furthermore, inflammation of bones and joints may vary according to the kind of germ associated with the inflammation or with the manner in which the inflammation comes about.

In cases in which there is a sudden inflammation of a joint the first signs are usually pains with limitation of movement, swelling, redness, and feeling of heat in the joint. Moreover, the muscles around the joint may be affected by spasm because they endeavor to limit the movement of the joint. All sorts of germs may be involved in such inflammations, including the typhoid germs, the germ that causes pneumonia, the general pus-forming germs and even those associated with venereal disease. The drugs that have been used in the treatment of arthritis are legion, most of them being employed because they releieve pain.

ARTHRITIS (and other rheumatic diseases) are produced by forms of streptococcic infections. This condition is brought about because the infection has gained entrance to the system through some surface tissue either through the cells of the tissue or between the cells.

"My Dear Sir: It was in April and May, 1948, that I took a course of treatments for arthritis, high blood pressure and constipation, all of which I had suffered with for the past 20 years. Since taking your treatments I am perfectly well and am feeling fine. My health is the very best. Mrs. John E. Johnson."

STOMACH GAS

FLATULENCE: This distressing symptom is without doubt the most common ailment for which patients come to me for treatment. The most characteristic statement I have heard from patients, and from probably 95 per cent of them, is: "I have so much gas!" while the majority, being asked what symptoms they would like to get rid of first, almost invariably reply: "I think the thing that bothers me most is so much gas!"

Besides the autointoxication which is produced by the fermenting foods which make gas, the gas pressure is itself a cause of disease of the ovaries, womb, heart, gall bladder, spleen, and other organs, because of the congestion of the circulation in those organs by the constant pressure exercised upon them by gas pockets.

It is not at all improbable that many cases of heart failure, paralysis, hernia, REPRODUCTIVE GLAND FAILURE and uterine displacement may be due to this hitherto unsuspected cause. That they penetrate the neighboring tissues is an established fact, and it is quite conceivable that their action upon the nervous system through the medium of circulation may lie at the root of many of the cases of neurasthenia that are now so prevalent.

"Dr. L. A. Brinkley: I place your treatments among the Greatest Blessings of Mankind. After suffering many years with 'gastric disturbances' that kept me awake nightly, and 'hayfever' in its worst form, I cannot praise you enough for your wonderful work. F. V. Crooksie."

CONSTIPATION

RELIEF IN 20 MINUTES
AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

Eminent medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems — in fact, practically all the ills of mankind.

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distention or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication.

(Note: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors or malignancies.—Brinkley.)

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For a period of 6 years I suffered with constipation. I tried every remedy available but nothing gave me relief. But now through your treatments I have restored my health. I express my most sincere gratitude. J. Colon."

PASTOR FINDS NEW BABE

Infant Stuffed In Bag; Left in Phone Booth

"I thought immediately of Moses hidden in the bulrushes," the Rev. Elsie Lindstrom, evangelist, said after she discovered a newborn babe abandoned in a telephone booth Saturday morning.

The hour-old infant had been wrapped in a sheet and newspapers and stuffed inside a brown paper shopping bag.

The Rev. Lindstrom, who lives at 630½ E. 42nd place, was going marketing at the Avalon Market, 4307 Avalon Blvd. As she drove up, she noticed a light in the telephone booth and spotted a package in it.

The Lord Speaking

Thinking someone had forgotten a bag of groceries, the Rev. Lindstrom went to investigate. "Strangely," said the evangelist, "the thought occurred to me: 'Don't be surprised if it's a baby.' It was the Lord speaking."

Then she saw blood on the floor, possibly from a package of meat. As she looked closer, she saw a little foot wriggling. Quickly she tore open the bag so the baby could breathe, and called the police.

Rag Tied Over Mouth

A piece of rag was tied across the seven-pound baby girl's mouth, as if, said the minister, to deaden the sound of her crying. Another rag was tied around the tiny neck. Rev. Lindstrom said this seemed to have slipped down from the mouth.

Ambulance Attendant Ray Worthan rushed the baby to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital, where later she was reported sleeping peacefully. She was sent from there to the General Hospital, where on Monday she was said to be a lovely, health baby, getting along nicely.

Dr. J. A. Somerville Gets British Honor

TO RUN FOR ASSEMBLY—Atty. Theodore Schaffer, like his law partner Walter Gordon, is looking for a political future. This week he announced his intention to run for the California Assembly from the 63rd district.

Singled Out for O.B.E. Award By Elizabeth

One of the few Americans, Negro or white, ever to be singled out by the ruling British monarch for special honors, Dr. John Alexander Somerville is being awarded the Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth.

Announcement is being made simultaneously Wednesday morning in London and Washington.

Few Chosen

The honor is being awarded Dr. Somerville because of his work for his native West Indies and for his race relations work in this country.

Among the few Americans to gain similar recognition is President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dr. Somerville is the first Negro to receive the award in Los Angeles.

Little Publicity

Although modest about his achievements, and although his efforts have received little publicity, Dr. Somerville has for long been actively engaged in liaison work on behalf of West Indians. His book, "Man of Color," published two years ago, deals to some extent with the problems of his birthplace.

Born in Jamaica, Dr. Somerville came to the United States in his youth, has been a resident of Los Angeles for the past 51 years, and has been practicing dentistry for the past 46 years.

Married Dr. Veda

In 1912 he married "Dr. Veda," who became interested in his profession, studied and became a dentist in her own right. She has now retired from active work, however.

The only political office Dr. Somerville has held, is that of police commissioner, though he

Segregation Said Morally, Legally Wrong

Two City Councilmen this week sharply criticized the segregation practiced by the city's Fire Department and its chief, John A. Alderson, following receipt of a bill of particulars regarding the two all Negro Central Avenue stations from the local branch of the NAACP.

"I will do whatever I can to help bring to an end the segregation in the Fire Department," stated Councilman Edward Roybal. He pointed out that the Fire Department is the only agency of the city which follows a policy of segregation, and added that he feels that this practise is "impermissible."

Morally, Legally Wrong

Councilman Don Allen declared that segregation is "morally wrong and legally wrong," stating in addition that "There is no moral right for discrimination in any form."

These expressions of opinion were in response to the NAACP appeal to Mayor Norris Poulson and members of the City Council informing them of the issues created by the two segregated fire stations maintained by the Fire Department, and urging that public funds be denied for legal counsel to defend the department in any suit that may be filed to bring an end to the jim-crow practices.

In a letter drawn up by Atty. Loren Miller, chairman of the West Coast NAACP Legal Redress committee, the association declared:

No Choice

"Because racial segregation of civil service employes is so at variance with the public policy of this city, and State and because it runs so directly counter to recent interpretations of State and Federal constitutions, we feel obliged to press for its elimination.

"We are extremely reluctant to resort to the courts in this matter, but the attitude of Chief Alderson and the Board of Fire Commissioners apparently leaves us no choice in the matter.

"We are informed that in the event of court action, the chief and the board will appeal to the Council to secure the legal services of the City Attorney in their defense . . . We do not believe that the City of Los Angeles would be justified in expending public funds for the defense of a policy of racial segregation as pursued by one of the departments of the city."

Petition Denied

The appeal to the Council

Ike Refuses to Halt Death of Guam Victims

NEW YORK—Their last hope of reprieve gone, two Negro air service men, convicted of a crime they protest they did not commit, now await execution in a military compound.

On December 10 President Eisenhower denied the petition of Robert W. Burns and Herman P. Dennis, Jr., for commutation of their death sentences, it was learned this week.

The two, together with another serviceman, were convicted by courts martial of the rape-murder of a civilian employee on the Island of Guam in 1948 where they were then stationed. In response to their appeal, the NAACP took up the case and sought to bring it within the jurisdiction of civilian courts for review and appeal.

Unable to secure relief in the lower federal courts, NAACP attorneys took the case to the Supreme Court on the grounds that the men had not received a fair trial in the courts martial, having been subjected to illegal detention, coerced into making false confessions, denied counsel of their choice, and victimized by perjured testimony and the suppression of evidence favorable to them.

Following denial of this plea, a formal petition was filed with the White House urging commutation of the sentences.

Dr. L. Weekes Gets Prized Position

Well-known Dr. LeRoy S. Weekes has recently received an exceptionally fine appointment as junior attending staff doctor in the service of obstetrics and gynecology at the Los Angeles County General hospital.

DR. LEROY WEEKES

Dr. Weekes was named as a member of the University of Southern California Medical School service.

Fine Opportunity

Up to now, no Negro has ever served at the County hospital on its surgical staff. Much of Dr. Weekes' work at the hospital will undoubtedly be connected with female surgery.

Appointment on the County staff is one of the goals of almost all doctors in the area. It offers one of the best possible arenas for diversified practice, study and research.

Dr. Weekes has been serving on his present assignment since Nov. 6, but no word of it leaked out until this week.

Well Qualified

Dr. Weekes, a member of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology and a fellow of the American College of Surgery, has been practicing in Los Angeles for the past five years.

Married and the father of six children, he was a flight surgeon in the Air Corps for five years during World War II. He took his residency at Freedmans' Hospital in Washington, D. C., following his internship at Provident Hospital in Chicago. He graduated from Howard University Medical School in 1939.

He is also a member of the staff of the Queen of Angels, Cedars of Lebanon and Temple hospitals.

Young Driver Killed Instantly In Auto Crash

Willie Roosevelt Spillers, only 22 years of age, of 210 E. 80th street, was killed instantly Friday when his speeding car skidded 250 feet and was hit broadside by a pickup truck on La Brea avenue north of Stocker street.

The driver of the truck, Yoshita Matsuoka, 32, of 617 Maltman avenue, was seriously injured, and his condition was still considered critical as the paper went to press.

Traffic officers reported that Spillers' car, traveling at an estimated speed of 65 to 70 miles per hour, apparently went out of control when he made a turn into La Brea avenue, and slid across the white line directly into the path of oncoming traffic.

The funeral for young Spillers was scheduled for Wednesday, at 1 o'clock. Conner-Johnson were in charge of arrangements.

Haiti to Celebrate Founding

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti — Many hundreds of Americans will participate officially and unofficially in celebrating Haiti's first 150 years of independence this holiday season.

Festivities commemorating Haiti's valiant fight for freedom, and the acts of her leaders, Toussaint Louverture, Henri Christophe, Dessalines and Petion, will continue from January 1 to January 4.

ATTY. TED SCHAFFER SEEKS ASSEMBLY SEAT

Atty. Theodore Schaffer, one of the best known of the younger attorneys, this week followed in the footsteps of his senior law partner, Walter Gordon, and announced his intention to try for a political career.

Atty. Schaffer, of the law firm of Gordon, Schaffer and Lang, told the Eagle that he plans to file for the post of assemblyman for the 63rd District. Last week, Gordon announced that he will be a candidate in the 62nd District, now represented by Augustus F. Hawkins.

Schaffer, a graduate of Jefferson high school in 1940, and a World War II veteran, is prominent in the young social set of the city, and is active in civic and community affairs.

Elections for the Assembly will be held in June, but filing of petitions takes place the latter part of March.

Atty. Schaffer is running for the office now held by G. Delbert Morris, Republican. In making his announcement, Schaffer stated he would seek election on both Democratic and Republican tickets, although he has always been registered as a Democrat.

He said his decision to run for this office was the result of numerous demands for a more representative assemblyman for the 63rd district. Schaffer said the Republican incumbent has been oblivious to the changing constituency and conditions within the 63rd district.

He will announce a detailed platform in January. However, it is well known that Atty. Schaffer is an aggressive supporter of PEPC.

While at U.S.C., Atty. Schaffer distinguished himself by holding elective seats in the Student Senate and Inter-fraternity Council and by membership in the Trojan Knights and Blue Key, highly regarded honorary fraternities. He was also responsible for establishing a chapter of his fraternity, Kappa Alpha Psi, on the U.S.C. campus. Atty. Schaffer is also a member of Langston Law Club, Pacific Coast Lodge No. [illegible] F.&A.M., Western Knights No. [illegible] and A.M., [illegible] Public Town Club, and is [illegible]

Three GIs of 'Reluctant' 22 Are Negroes

NEW YORK — It was revealed here this week that there are three Negro servicemen among the 22 Americans who have chosen to remain in North Korea rather than return to the United States.

Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, sent cablegrams to the three urging them to "reconsider" their decision and return home.

Jimmy Wright's Ork Arrested in N. Hollywood

Jimmy Wright's mixed band and his Hollywood Flames are finding tough sledding in playing Los Angeles County towns.

Latest incident occurred Friday night, when the ork was stopped short after playing for 20 minutes at the American Legion hall, in North Hollywood, and taken down to the pokey. Wright was booked and freed on $100 bail. The others were not held. Charge against Wright was playing without a license.

Lots of Trouble

The trouble Friday night followed difficulties during the past year in Downey, South Gate, and at the Valley Gardens in West Hollywood.

Heart of the opposition seems to be the fact that while Wright is white, his players and the Flames are Negro.

"Why don't you get a white band?" he's been asked, and then advised: "Then you won't get into so much trouble."

Not Wanted

Once again he's told "We don't want [illegible] musicians out here. What we want to really protect the principle [illegible] some of the musicians we [illegible] with white wives, [illegible] to [illegible] wives."

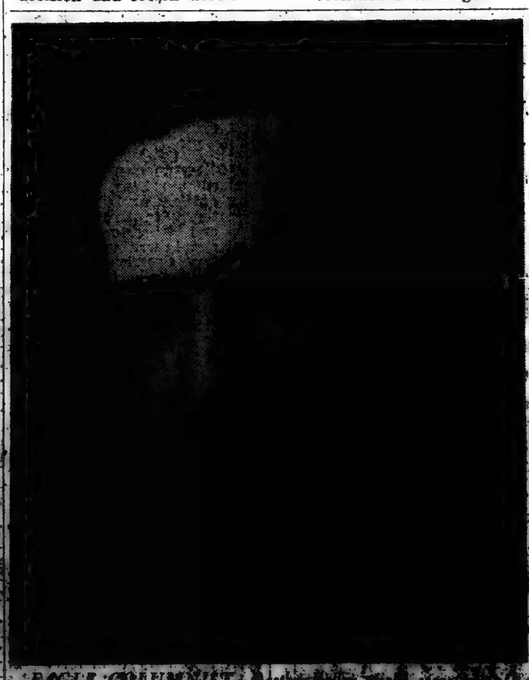
Lester Bailey to be 'Eagle' Columnist

Lester P. Bailey, NAACP field secretary, West Coast Region, beginning with the first edition of the California Eagle for 1954, will become a regular contributor to the opinion columns of this paper, and his column, under the title "The Big Sea," will appear on the editorial page of the Eagle each week. Borrowing his title from a book by that name written by Langston Hughes, Bailey will discuss political, social and civil rights matters as he sees them.



Rounding out seven years as a trouble shooter and organizer for the NAACP, Bailey has been on the scene of many major civil rights cases for the organization. He represented the Association in investigating the Cicero, Illinois, riots of July, 1951.

GALL STONES

GALL STONES are alkgline concretions which form in the gall ducts or gall bladder from the stagnation of thickened bile. It frequently takes years for their formation, during which time the alkaline accumulations pack harder and harder together, allowing the softer part of the bile to flow but, leaving behind these hardened calcareous substances. The blocking of the gall ducts leading to the intestines will produce symptoms often mistaken for other diseases.

Note: Do not depend on X-ray or fluoroscope. 70% of the cases of gall bladder disorders or gall ktones are not detectable in this manner. X-ray or functioning of the gall bladder is highly unsuccessful in many cases—so do not be deceived.

"Fully one-half of the patients who come to me believing they have stomach ulcers or gastritis are really affected with some form of gall bladder disorder. I have found a very large number of cases, improperly diagnosed as stomach ulcer by other physicians, which have responded so rapidly to treatment as gall bladder derangement, as to lose all symptoms in a day or two.

"I have had many cases where large gall stones have been removed by my treatment, where no typical gall stone colic had been experienced at all. If the sharp pains and contractions of the gall stone colic are present in their worst form, the patient will be unable to stand or even sit up straight, but will be forced to lie down with knees drawn up to the chest. Even this position does not relieve the pain. I am convinced that these colicky symptoms are not present in most cases and that a serious stoppage of bile or a blocking up of the bile ducts with a gall stone may be present without any such symptoms being in evidence."

"Dr. Brinkley: Your treatments were an answer to my prayer, for without an operation, I have passed a handful or more of stones. I am feeling young and can get back on my feet again. Annette Erickson."

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., outstanding indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED?

I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

ARTHRITIS

ARTHRITIS, RHEUMATISM. Any condition involving inflammation of the bones and joints is called arthritis. Arthritis is not the same as rheumatism. Rheumatism is a condition of inflammation which may affect nerves, muscles, fibrous tissue, or any other tissues of the human body. When it affects bones and joints the condition is called arthritis.

Not all arthritis is the same. There may be sudden inflammation or chronic conditions lasting many years. There may be forms of arthritis in which there is simply collection of fluid in the tissues, others in which there is overdevelopment of the membranes. Furthermore, inflammation of bones and joints may vary according to the kind of germ associated with the inflammation or with the manner in which the inflammation comes about.

In cases in which there is a sudden inflammation of a joint the first signs are usually pains with limitation of movement, swelling, redness, and feeling of heat in the joint. Moreover, the muscles around the joint may be affected by spasms because they endeavor to limit the movement of the joint. All sorts of germs may be involved in such inflammations, including the typhoid germs, the germ that causes pneumonia, the general pus forming germs and even those associated with venereal disease. The drugs that have been used in the treatment of arthritis are legion, most of them being employed because they relieve pain.

ARTHRITIS (and other rheumatic diseases) are produced by forms of streptococcic infections. This condition is brought about because the infection has gained entrance to the system through some surface tissue either through the cells of the tissue or between the cells.

"My Dear Sir: It was in April and May, 1948, that I took a course of treatments for arthritis, high blood pressure and constipation, all of which I had suffered with for the past 20 years. Since taking your treatments I am perfectly well and am feeling fine. My health is the very best. Mrs. John E. Johnson."

STOMACH GAS

FLATULENCE: This distressing symptom is without doubt the most common ailment for which patients come to me for treatment. The most characteristic statement I have heard from patients, and from probably 95 per cent of them, is: "I have so much gas!" while the majority being asked what symptoms they would like to get rid of first, almost invariably reply: "I think the thing that bothers me most is so much gas!"

Besides the autointoxication which is produced by the fermenting foods which makes gas, the gas pressure is itself a cause of disease of the ovaries, womb, heart, gall bladder, spleen, and other organs, because of the congestion of the circulation in those organs by the constant pressure exercised upon them by gas pockets.

It is not at all improbable that many cases of heart failure, paralysis, hernia, REPRODUCTION GLAND FAILURE and uterine displacement may be due to this hitherto unsuspected cause. That they penetrate the neighboring tissues is an established fact, and it is quite conceivable of the circulation may lie at the root of many of the cases of neurasthenia that are now so prevalent.

CONSTIPATION

RELIEF IN 20 MINUTES

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades old fecesstones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

Eminent medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems—in fact, practically all the ills of mankind.

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distention or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication.

NOTE: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors, or malignancies.)—Brinkley.

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For a period of 6 years I suffered with constipation. I tried every remedy available but nothing gave me relief. But now through your treatments I have restored my health. I express my most sincere gratiture. J. Colon."

H. A. Howard Attends Meet of Phi Beta Sigma

H. A. Howard, western region director of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., will attend the 39th national conclove of the organization to be held in Detroit, Mich., Dec. 27-30. The theme for the 39th anniversary conclave is "The Quest for Freedom."

A member of the national board of Phi Beta Sigma, Howard stated that he plans to take up the matter of what can the fraternity do to help in the war against juvenile delinquency. He also favors changing the conclave from meeting in the winter to meeting in the summer.

Howard plans to return New Year's Day, leaving his train in Pasadena in time to attend the Rose Bowl game.

Bias In Fire Dept.

and the Mayor followed action last week by the Board of Fire Commissioners giving complete endorsement to the jim-crow policies of Fire Chief Alderson.

A petition to the Commissioners was lodged on Oct. 8 by interested citizens, seeking to have the segregation policy ended. The board action last week was their answer to that petition.

In the data supporting its plea to the city officials, the NAACP stated that the policy of racial segregation presents two legal issues: first, the question of the validity of racial segregation by a department of the city of Los Angeles; and, second, the question of whether or not the discrimination that eventuates from such racial segregation violates statutory and constitutional rights.

Following a careful documentation of legal decisions showing that segregation violates both the California Code and the Fourteenth Amendment to the Federal constitution, the memorandum states: "Neither the Board of Fire Commissioners nor its chief engineer and general manager can point to any provision of our constitution, statute, ordinance or charter which implies or suggests that racial segregation is permitted or tolerated by any agency of government."

Pointing out that selection of civil service employes on a racial basis is a plain violation of the letter and spirit of civil service provisions, it then mentions various "devices" through which the Fire Department accomplishes its ends.

WHY · WE GET SICK

THESE ARTICLES ARE REPRINTED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE READERS OF THIS PAPER. Specialists accuse large intestine as breeding ground of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH, and say constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems.

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said, 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS'."

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, M.D., founder of Battle Creek Sanitarium, world famous authority, says:

"IN THE LAST TWO FEET OF THE COLON is found the seat of the most destructive blockade that has ever opposed human progress.

"One bowel movement a day is very marked constipation.

"Normal bowel action is at least three full evacuations daily.

"Metchnikoff has clearly shown that putrefaction germs are the cause of early degeneracy, premature old age and death. These germs produce most virulent poisons, many of which resemble the venom of snakes, and when present in the feces in large numbers, they are certain proof of the existence of chronic autointoxication, even though the characteristic symptoms of autointoxication have not yet appeared. A coated tongue, a sallow complexion, dark circles around the eyes, appearance of brown spots upon the hands or other parts, the so-called liver spots, offensive breath and perspiration, the discharge of foul-smelling gases from the bowels, putrid stools, a thin, inelastic parchment-like skin, dullness of mind, inability to concentrate the mind, mental irritability or depression without cause, cold hands and feet, perspiration of the hands and feet, chronic headaches, attacks of migraine or sick headaches — these and a score of other symptoms which might be mentioned are certain indications of chronic poisoning, prompt attention to which may prevent the development of later, more serious conditions, such as hardening of the arteries, Bright's Disease, with albumin and casts in the urine, or apoplexy with paralysis. Grave symptoms of autointoxication do not appear until after the mechanism of the body, through which nature deals with poisons, destroying and eliminating them, has broken down and failed to accomplish its purpose as a result of the overwhelming amount of work which has been thrown upon it. Hence, the appearance of symptoms of autointoxication indicates that the body has already become crippled and that the matter must receive serious and immediate attention."

Medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems—in fact, practically all ills of mankind.

One well known M.D., recognized as a cancer specialist, says: "It was only necessary to interview a large number of cancer patients to ascertain the fact that a toxic state exists before the cancer growth comes. Some patients complain of persistent severe headaches, neuritis, dizziness, spells of transient blandness and the loss of balance or mental vigor for as long as twenty years before the growth is found. In many cases toxic (inward) goitre, pigmentation changes, vascular disease, diabetes, indigestion, colitis, gastric ulcer, muscular weakness or even muscular atrophy interfere with correct health until the growth comes."

"In a great many people, the presence of the poison can be recognized by certain symptoms or tissue changes. In those where the development of the poison is slow or its absorption, especially from the large intestine, is moderate over a long period, the nervous system may show its effects, thus dizziness, sudden and periodic loss of muscle control, neuritis, or other chronic complaints may be the warning symptom. If the toxin is absorbed in higher concentration and in one with sufficient cerebral disadvantage, so serious a condition as insanity or blindness may announce its presence."

"In some people, structural tissue changes follow its action, thus obliterative vascular disease, arteriosclerosis, psoriasis, arthritis deformants, gastric ulcer, exophthalmic (inward) goiter, diabetes, and Addison's disease result directly from its action and, in others, the tendency to develop other infections like tuberculosis can be traced to the cancer causing poison. The absolute correctness of these statements is proven by the cures of all these conditions, obtained by removing the cancer poison from those suffering from these diseases."

"Some of these conditions may persist for years before the cancer growth comes; and it locates at a point where circulatory injury has been sustained, whether from a blow, an operation injury, a muscle spasm or a scar following a disease process."

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distention or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

Constipation is the common sense explanation of "the true cause of disease," say outstanding authorities. Here is a simple, inexpensive method of treatment, that has been eminently successful, in thousands of cases in removing that which causes toxins from the large intestine. Endorsed by outstanding medical authority. Read carefully, reason for yourself. Don't take my word for anything. You may now obtain relief of constipation in 20 minutes. YES, I SAID 20 MINUTES.

If you suffer from any one of the following disorders, visit my office today. Every minute counts.

Merry Christmas To You

This is the season we always say Merry Christmas to our readers and advertisers. We're glad to say it this year because they have stuck by us through a year that was a little tough at times. And while we're on that subject we're happy to say that things are picking up for us and that it looks as if 1954 will be much better than 1953.

This Christmas as for many years in the past there isn't much Peace on this Earth and Goodwill is at a minimum in the international scene.

The very lack of Peace and Goodwill stresses the need for them. And it is undoubtedly true that never was there a greater yearning for security and for good feeling among men.

Peace and Goodwill won't come because men desire them or yearn for them or look vaguely forward to the time when they will brood over this, our world.

Nor can Peace come or Goodwill come without forthright opposition to the forces that breed the evil and dissention that hangs over the face of the earth.

That means that all men must shoulder their share of the burdens of the fight against racial discrimination, against totalitarianism and against other forces that divide men and set one man against his brother.

The kind of opposition that will prove fruitful is a reasoned and reasoning opposition that keeps us moving toward our own goals. It is true that a democratic society, for example, offers the most to the common man but we must never become satisfied with a mere defense of democracy or with tilting at its Red enemies; we must at the same time keep everlastingly at the task of perfecting our democracy, of eliminating its inequities and shortcomings. That job requires the aid of every last one of us.

If there is a lack of Peace and Goodwill this Christmas each of us can do something to see to it there is more of them in Christmas 1954.

Our Own Neanderthal Man

The Daily News aptly characterized Georgia Gov. Herman Talmadge's threat to abandon the public school system as Neanderthal in an editorial last Saturday. Neanderthal, you will recall, is the name given to a species of men that inhabited the world thousands of years ago and who were low in intelligence and understanding. We're with the Daily News in that characterization of "Hummon's" attempt to escape the almost certain Supreme Court decision ordering the end of racial segregation in public schools.

But while we're at it we would like to point out that the City of Los Angeles also has at least one Neanderthal public official, a gentleman by the name of John H. Alderson, who happens (unfortunately) to be our fire chief.

Mr. Alderson is also neck deep in Jim Crow. He is as determined to hold on to his own brand of segregation as Herman Talmadge ever was. And, like Herman, he says with a straight face that racial segregation doesn't wind up in discrimination.

All that is bad enough but we're used to Chief Alderson's alibi. He has been mouthing it for many years. What we don't understand is why the Daily News gives him left-handed support in that attitude. The Daily News charged not long ago that opposition to Alderson stems from his stand on public housing and in the same editorial painted him as a bright and shining knight in the field of race relations. Organization after organization and individual after individual has tried to get the Daily News to correct that editorial ever since that time. But the Daily News won't budge.

The News is too valuable a newspaper and on the right side too much of the time to let obstinacy stand in the way of its correction of a bad mistake. We hope it will see the light very soon and get out of the company of our Neanderthal fire chief.

Brotherhood And Housing

The ink had hardly got dry on the news that Jackie Robinson was going to head one of the divisions of Brotherhood Week in 1954 before other news leaked out that he was having some difficulty, from frightened and unthinking Americans who opposed his moving into a New York suburban area.

Happily enough, the ministers and other public figures of that community rolled up their sleeves and went to work and most of the opposition to Jackie's move was eliminated. Apparently, he will move into his home without any trouble or difficulty.

At almost the same time citizens of a South San Francisco community were holding frantic meetings and voting by a five to one margin against welcoming a Negro war veteran into their midst. The veteran wasn't dismayed by the vote. He is going to move in just as he had planned.

Chances are that most of the people who got themselves excited about Jackie's move on the East Coast and the people who balloted against the veteran on the West Coast think of themselves as good Christians. Odds are that most of them go to church and that they approve of Brotherhood Week.

What they don't do is to sit down by themselves and look at their own prejudices long enough to see that their practices don't square with their preachments. They would be horrified to know how much aid and comfort they give to the Communists who want to undermine the democratic system by their unthinking attitudes and actions.

What with Christmas week right on top of us and Brotherhood Week just around the corner, this is a mighty good time for a little soul searching for all Americans.

It's Your Urban League

The local branch of the Urban League is out after four thousand members. We hope the League gets that many, and a whole lot more.

The Urban League does a steady day-to-day job in the community. It finds jobs, it keeps an eye on housing, it quietly nags public officials into making our communities better places in which to live — to name only a few of the tasks that it performs.

These aren't very spectacular things and they don't lend themselves to headlines but their doing means that many hundreds and thousands of us are better off for what the League does.

The unspectacular quality of the good and necessary work that the League does shouldn't blind us to the duty we owe to it and the obligation that we have to support it.

League memberships cost the small sum of two dollars per year. That's about four cents a week and a small investment of that kind will pay big dividends.

Here's a New Year's resolution for all of you: Subscribe to an Urban League membership this year.

Battleaxe and Bread

A couple of years ago a distinguished religious leader, Rabbi Philip Bernstein of Rochester, New York, wrote a moving volume entitled WHAT THE JEWS BELIEVE. It was an eloquent statement of the faith that has brought the Jews of the world upward and forward through 3,000 years of the most persistent and brutal oppressions ever applied to members of the human race.

Lester Granger

The Bernstein book makes it easy to understand why this year less than three million Jews in New York City raised nearly 20 million dollars to support their own welfare institutions, beside contributing more generously than most New Yorkers to support non-Jewish and non-sectarian causes as well. This is only typical of Jewish philanthropy in general, for the five to six million Jews of the United States will contribute during 1954 approximately 120 million dollars to aid their distressed brethren in all parts of the world.

Here is an amazing record of the charity which is one of the things in which Jews are taught to believe—as their responsibility, their opportunity and their privilege. It is a record that makes the performance of American Negroes pitiful and shabby by contrast. For our own racial causes, we colored Americans contribute not the widow's, but the beggar's mite. The 1953 campaigns of the NAACP, the National Urban League and the United Negro College Fund, all put together, produced only about two million dollars—and more than half of this amount was contributed by white supporters!

This record becomes even more shabby when it is remembered that 1953 was the Year of Decision on segregation in public school education, the most important single issue which the NAACP has handled in its nearly half-century of existence. There were 12,000 Negro college graduates in 1953, and three-fourths of these came from all-Negro institutions. But all of the living alumni of all the Negro colleges failed to contribute more than a fractional part of the College Fund campaign goal. What is wrong with college graduates who support neither the institutions which gave them degrees nor the organization which seeks an end to segregation in public schools? Or what ails men and women whom the Urban League has put into jobs and who shirk responsibility toward those whom the League might serve in the future, if properly financed?

Possibly the clue to such cynical non-support lies in the very title of the Bernstein book, WHAT THE JEWS BELIEVE. Our writers expound learnedly on "what the Negro wants" or "what the Negro thinks," but evidently no one is sure enough about what the Negro believes to write a book about it. And there is the tragedy that has come to dark-skinned Americans during three hundred years of slavery and racial segregation. We have become a group chiefly composed of frustrated, cynical or defeated individuals. The defeated are convinced that we cannot win; the cynical are indifferent as to whether we win or lose; the frustrated are so confused by racial conflicts, contradictions and tensions as to lose sense of direction and certainty of goal.

"But Jews have more money than Negroes," some will say. Not necessarily, and even if this were true it would not explain the disparity in giving. In 1953 five million Jews gave more than 100 times as much for world-wide Jewish relief as 15 million colored Americans gave for our three major racial programs. And as for "rich Jews," there are not a dozen among Fort Wayne's 2500 Jews, out in Indiana; yet several years ago when I visited that city, the United Jewish Relief campaign had just raised 125 thousand dollars from this small group. Is it possible that the real disparity is not in wealth so much as in spirit? Jews have been trained by their religion to believe and give; we have been encouraged by our experience to want and ask—or demand and protest—without making the supporting sacrifice.

This is why I refuse to become concerned over idle criticism of my own organization—or of the two other organizations that try to do something constructive about the Negro's position in American life. When someone wants to bend my ear about the Urban League—or the NAACP, or the College Fund—I am apt to demand to see his or her membership card or contributor's receipt. There are too many free-loaders who try to get in on the critics' banquet. A qualified critic of any one program has got to be a supporter of another—and I do not mean nickle-and-dime support, either. My experience is that the most vociferous critics of any bonafide program are supporters of none at all. They are great on telling what they want, but they do not know what they believe—and are willing to sacrifice for. God help them, for they will never help themselves.

One Man's Opinion

THE AMERICAN COUNCIL ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Just to show you that a columnist who sometimes finds fault with others can make mistakes of his own we would like to admit at the start that this is the story we intended for last week and last week's was meant especially for the issue on the day before Christmas. Never-the-less, we do hope you will read this piece if, indeed, you find that the words in the title mean nothing to you. Since college sororities and fraternities are so often berated by some who do not belong, it may be well to have some of them find something which they are doing that is meaningful.

Leon Steward

WHAT IS THE ACHR?

It appears the American Council on Human Rights has a program dedicated to utilizing members of the various Greek letter groups in working for the entire emancipation of the Negro from second class citizenship, as his status in American life has been so well described. The organizations cooperating in this admirable project are the Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta, Sigma Gamma Rho and Zeta Phi Beta sororities and Alpha Phi Alpha, Kappa Alpha Psi and Phi Beta Sigma fraternities. ACHR grew out of the National Non-Partisan Council of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Beginning in 1946 it appears that discussions were held among the leaders of the various groups with the view of stimulating cooperation, enlarging the participation and expanding the program. Six of the groups agreed to participate. The Council was then ready to go to work in earnest.

In 1948 offices were opened in their national headquarters in Washington, D. C. and a director and assistant director, both of whom were well trained through experience in government administration and organization procedures. They are the ones who carry out the Council's program.

HOW ACHR WORKS

The emphasis of ACHR has been on national legislation and action by the Federal Government. In Congress, the Council has fought to pass the Fair Employment Practice bill and other civil rights measures and has fought passage of pro-segregation bills such as the Russell-Winstead Amendment to the Draft Act. This is done by personal contact with key Congressmen and Senators; by special appearances before Congressional committees and by carefully prepared communications to the full membership of the House and Senate. It also stimulates public support through the press and other media and by pressure on individual Congressmen by local ACHR councils over the country.

AT GRASS ROOTS

It was not long before the Council discovered the need of local councils to bring pressure upon political representatives right in their own home towns. Some local councils have conducted work shops on local and national problems for the enlightment of their own members and others.

A few of the many accomplishments of ACHR include helping defeat the pro-segregation Amendments of the Selective Service Act offered by Senators Russel of Georgia and Winstead of Mississippi. It prevented passage of a bill introduced by Congressman McMillan of S. C. to frustrate the Interior department's policy of non-segregated swimming facilities in the District of Columbia.

McCoy Deacons' Memorial Event Attracts Throng

Sunday, December 20 was Deacon's Day at the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street. This last addition to the chain of annual observances will long be remembered for its stirring spirituality. The highlight of the day's worship, the 3 p.m. service, featured the Old Songs of Zion, rendered in a manner reminiscent of the "good old days." Deacon Board representatives were present from Pilgrim Baptist Church, Providence Baptist Church, Metropolitan Baptist Church, Greater Cornerstone Baptist Church, and Calvary Baptist Church.

Enlightenment on the very important duties of deaconship was offered by Rev. Walden, associate minister of Calvary Baptist Church, and Pastor E. A. Anderson.

VICTORY DONS NEW ROBES—Members of the Voices of Victory Choir appeared last Sunday in O'Bryant robes in the exciting new shade called birdcage. Deviating from the usual black and wine, Henri O'Bryant, Hollywood designer and manufacturer of 1144 N. Western Ave., fashioned the attractive garments exclusively for Victory. It was one of the largest single orders he ever delivered.

Church Shows Xmas Scene

The Story of the Nativity in life size figures is told on the lawn of Neighborhood church, 47th Place and San Pedro, with characters of Joseph and Mary and the Babe, Christ in the manger . . . the shepherds with their flocks and the Star of Bethlehem. The scene will be lighted following the midnight service . . . music will be furnished by the church choirs.

Beginning at 10 p.m., Christmas Eev., Thursday, Dec. 24, the Sunday school will present a Christmas play . . . "Why Christmas?"

At 11 p.m. the Senior Choir will render special Christmas music with the Christmas message by the pastor, Rev. H. Mansfield Collins.

Moments of Meditation Choir Tops Interracial Program At McCoy's Memorial Baptist

The Moments of Meditation Choir of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, will present an interracial program Sunday, December 27th at 3:30 p.m.

College Students

The Choir's President, Mrs. Clara Bell, promises an afternoon of outstanding entertainment. Representatives from Korean, Chinese and Mexican churches will render musical selections. The "Quarter Tones," an interracial group from John Muir College, Pasadena will be present to contribute their spirited numbers to the program.

Adddress by Adora Veasia

Under the theme of "Christian Fellowship for Racial Equality" addresses will be delivered by Miss Adora Veasia, a student from Africa enrolled at the University of Southern California, and Mr. Willard Johnson of John Muir College, President of the Youth Council of Pasadena. All tre invited to witness this event. The Reverend E. A. Anderson is minister of McCoy Memorial, Velma T. Lassister, publicist.

Church Club In Breakfast

Two tables, placed in the form of a "V" for Volunteers, beautifully decorated with candles and flowers were the setting of a lovely Harvest Tea. This was the first affair given recently by this newly organized club of Ward A.M.E. Church, and was indeed a huge success.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson chairman of th etea, and her committee as well as the club's president, Miss Ella Mae Crosland, worked very hard to realize this success.

The club announced its first breakfast at Ward A.M.E. Church, 25th and Magnolia, on Sunday, Jan. 3, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Under the able leadership of Mrs. Annie Lee Robinson, who is chairman of the breakfast, the club plans to serve some delicious chicken and everything to go with it for $1.00.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

McCoy Memorial Baptist Church
Pastor and Parishioners

The Pastor of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, Reverend E. A. Anderson, wishes a Merry Christmas and a very prosperous New Year to the parishioners and community.

The McCoy Memorial Baptist Church has enjoyed a bountiful year of Kingdom Building in 1953, thanks to the wholehearted support of loyal members and friends.

"You are one and all cordially invited to worship at McCoy, located at 802 E. 46th Street, four door west of McKinley, where the gates swing wide to receive you, the handclasp is firm, the smile is broad, the welcome is warm."

Jacquet, Johnson, Ryland Get Top Tennis Ranking

Earthna Jacquet just missed being ranked as the American Tennis Association number one player. He was edged out of the cream spot by George Steward of Newark, N. J. Jacquet is currently teamed up with Oscar Johnson, Jefferson High school's former tennis great. They defeated top seeded double player in Bob Harmon Westside Invitational two weeks ago. Johnson battled his way into the men's singles and is headed for the finals which take place this Sunday on the Harmon's courts.

Robert Ryland, another Los Angeles player is holding the fourth spot on the A.T.S.'s 1953 national rankings. San Francisco's Lloyd Scott and former Prairie View College star is ninth rank and our Oscar Johnson follows in the eleventh slot. Thus giving Los Angeles three chances of bringing the title home in 1954. In the women's division Althea Gibson leads the parade over Mary E. Fine of Kansas City and Ivy E. Ramsey, Brooklyn, N. Y. In the men's double Delbert Russell and Louis Graves, of Detroit, Mich., set the pace and Robert Ryland of L. A. Calif., and Harold Freeman, of Washington, D.C. are second. Eartna Jacquet, of L. A. and John Chandler of Fernwood, N.J. are fourth while Oscar Johnson who is teamed with John Chandler of Fanwood, N.J. and Harold Freeman hold the fifth and sixth spot in the ranking.

In the junior doubles Lonnie Denson, of Dayton Beach, Fla., and Lloyd Scott Jr. of San Francisco are ranking eighth for their 1953 efforts. Mixed doubles Jane Hudlin, St. Louis, Mo. and Oscar Johnson share the limelight with the A.T.E.'s nine best in the country. The 1953 Ranking Committee comprises of Eleese Thornton, of L. A., Calif., E. Harold Hooper of East Orange, N. J., Quentin H. Vaughan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bradford R. Jameson, New Haven, Conn.; Albert Bishop, Philadelphia, Pa.; William E. Jones, Bato, Md.; Lucille Freeman, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Hubert A. Eaton, Wilmington, N. C. and Richard Hudlin, St. Louis, Mo.

Brady Keys Heads for UCLA

Brady Keys, Poly high's brilliant scatback and definitely headed for all-city honors, will enter UCLA next year.

The modest prep halfback with a B average is taking the required college subjects and close associates contend that Keyes is one of the best liked athletes to be developed in our schools.

All during the season, Key's running has sparked the Mechanics to victories. He possesses a great passing arm and is a standout player in all departments. Experts labeled Keys as a coach's player.

HERB McKENLEY LOSES PRO MEET

MELBOURNE, Australia—Herb McKenley, Olympic sprinter from Jamaica, B.W.I., who turned professional last week, was defeated by nine yards in his heat and did not qualify for the final of the 130-race run last week.

McKenley ran from virtual scratch.

He was clocked in 12 seconds for the distance on a track that slopes a little down hill. Earlier he won one heat of the 75-yard sprint but then was defeated by a yard in the semi-final.

People & Places

PARADE OF STATES. Ella Bays, who copped last year's first place prize in the Woodlawn YWCA annual parade of states, is back again this year. Beatrice Cassell got the natives of her state while Ella took New York. The race will be interesting as both are hard workers!

LA VELLE JACKSON, who opened up her travel agency in the lobby of the Hotel Clark, tossed one of those crazy Le Caribe pawties for the townfolks and already they are rating her the town's number one party giver!

Bowling News

With the Yuletide season upon us the spirit of brotherly love and Good-Will toward men covers even the Saturday night bowlers. In fact that spirit reflected itself not only in the attitude of the bowlers but also in their scoring. The scores posted for the records of the Sunset League hardly show the usual top effort. Alvin Griffin led the scorers by fashioning a fancy 602 for high series honors and a prize of a large turkey. The turkey was donated to some less fortunate person for a happy Christmas dinner. Griffin got some mighty good assistance from Milton Pope's lead off game of 203.

The Lee Hi Hatters were able to shut out the Sav-Wayers for a three game win. Arthur Harold pounded out a 237 for high game to lead the Brown Motor Shoppers to a three game victory over Garrett ENT. Ted's Service team grounded out a two game win over the runner up Central Bar-B-Cue team by putting together their bowling average to move back into the second place slot. Lee Hi Hat is leading in games won with 28 victories and 14 setbacks.

Top Cage Scorer

Jefferson High school cagers are burning up the Southern loop in the first round of the race. The Demos are posting a 6-1 record, and are the city's highest scoring team with an average of 84 points a game.

MONTEBELLO—Lloyd Mangrum pocketed his fourth $1500 Montebello Open Golf Tourney last week. Ted Rhodes, top-ranking sepia golfer, shared the 207 bracket with three others for the fourth place spot.

TOWERING CLUB MEMBERS IN SANTA BABY THEME

Towering Charities Annual Ball Draws Sixteen Hundred Saturday

The Towering Charity and Social Club tossed a most elaborate pre-Christmas ball at the Elks Hall last Saturday night. More than 1600 guests filled the hall and the club members were charming hostesses.

They were beautifully gowned in their club's colors of red and white. Meyer Berliner, popular known Los Angeles furrier, provided the lovely ladies with mink stoles and capes for the evening.

Jeep Smith and his band played "Santa Baby" as they were introduced by dapper Dr. D. Overstreet Gray.

Outstanding Work

The club's charity work has included purchase of a 21 inch television set for the patients at Olive View and they plan to play Santa Claus on their return visit to the hospital.

Wini Orr, topflight newspaper woman, is the club advisor. Addie Murray is the group president and members are: Ora Mae Wilson, Marthal Cook, Thelma Walker, Carrie Hardy, Susie Kelley, Erie D. Polk, Idella Nealy, Tempie Fortman, Myrtle Martin, Jane Bright, Corlas Bell, Beulah Armstrong, Maggie Bedfore and Dorothy Lark.

VISITOR RETURNS

Miss Ann Spencer of Columbus, Ga., planed home Wednesday after several weeks in the city. She was the house guest of Mrs. Nellie Smallwood and her cousin, Mrs. Leonie Butler, in Sacramento, Calif.

Doll League Entertains Eight Hundred Children

The Doll League's annual Christmas party was held Sunday, Dec. 20, at Carver Junior High. More than 800 children were present and took part in the fun.

Chairing the huge affair this year was the personable Sidney Jackson. Appearing on her program were the Jeni Le Gon dancers, Martinez Jefferson, Victor Upshaw, Iris Perkerson and Jeni herself.

Christmas carols were sung, led by Doll Leaguer Margaret Chapman. Genial Bill Walker played Santa Claus for the children.

The Doll League Charity club expressed its thanks to the public and to all participants on the program for helping make the party a grand success.

Alphas Meet In Detroit For 39th Meeting

The 39th General Convention of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., will hold forth December 27th through 31st in Detroit, Michigan. The Commission on Reorganization will recommend sweeping changes in the organization structure. The perennial questions of internal vs. external responsibilities of Alphadom will be debated and resolved. As usual some important social questions will be considered. The meeting site will be the beautiful Horace H. Rackham Educational Memorial Building.

Delegates Samuel P. DeBose and Oscar Lytle of Los Angeles Graduate Chapter, Beta Psi Lambda, are very well qualified to represent local Alpha interests. DeBose is Past President of Beta Psi Lambda and Lytle is presently Secretary. General Counsel Edward C. Maddox of Los Angeles and Far Western Vice-President W. Byron Rumford of Berkeley are among those who are expected to represent West Coast Alphas as well as fulfill their duties first as General Officers.

Christmas Brunch

Miss Evangeline Woodfolk entertained guests after the Delta Christmas dance. It was a delightful affair and her home carried out the Christmas theme in decorations of poinsettias and complete with a Santa Claus. Among guests present were: Mrs. Henry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonne, Mrs. Anna Mae Lefletter and daughter Joyce.

DOLL LEAGUE KIDDIES PARTY—More than 800 kiddies enjoyed goodies and gifts when the members of the popular Doll League Social and Civic club held its annual affair at the Carver Junior High School last week. Shown above are members Nellie Brown, Lulu Bendy, Ethel Pickett and Ruth Ball all playing Santa Claus.

Bill Smallwood

Helen Wright has been ailing. Ditto Lucille Goward. Flew in town for the holidays: Cliff Holland, Carl Jones and Lee Gaines. The latter is visiting Bettye and Mickey Jones. Bettye got a $200 dog, no less, for a Xmas gift. Her grandniece, Cynthia Reed (all of 3½ years old), flew to Dallas for the holidays. Unaccompanied, mind you. Dottie Donegan in N.Y. and glad to be, she confides to ole pals there.

Leroi Antoine entertaained the Haitian Consul at dinner Satd. among others. Antoine and co. open soon at the Flamingo in Las Vegas. Freda and Juan Ray who had kissed and made up decided against such and have gone and busted up again. Edith ("Dit") Stevens reached town from Detroit for a month's visit with the Gilbert Lindsays.

Yuletide Visitors

The Hugh Beatys in town from Berkeley. J. W. Williams gave his wife Esterlyn that new Chevvie for Xmas. Pansy Flowers Saunders leaves for the east after the holidays. Her mother is home here after a trip east. Sunday Morning Breakfast Club had their Xmas party last Frid. night. Evelyn Locket lost her grandmother.

Holiday hostess: A. C. Bilbrew. Theresa Harris Robinson birthdays New Year's Eve. Jenette Parônt driving solo again after her accident some time back. Doris and Carl Jones named their daughter Terry Lyn. Rene DeKnight, instead of holidaying here as are others of the Delta Rhythm Boys, flew east to be with wife Friday who had major surgery recently.

Holiday Hightlights

BVA affair Sun. attracting a large turn-out. Omegas frolic tonight. Cosmopolitan Hotel. Corrine Jones Taylor flew to Germany last week to join her officer husband. Wini Orr got Don Brown's job down on Westlake. Chappie Bryant: home from N.Y. and all aglow. "It was all so stimulating I'm still up in the air in the plane!" she rhapsodizes.

Jimmy Lucas busy with details for his forthcoming recital at Barker Brothers Auditorium. It will benefit the YMCA. Jimmy Garrott got his second contract to design a County project and soon will be getting the third assignment. All of which is reason enough to keep him and wife Helen radiant.

Gosh, in my wanderings I never get to see Lee and Les Hite. And I do miss Betty Hudson Nichols since she married and moved to Salt Lake City! Mrs. Lillian Black entertained her church club last Sun. She's Woody Lewis' grandmother.

Social Whirl

Bill Allen who has about decided to live in S.F. is eastbound for a few weeks. Cosby Turner's thesis was accepted (SC). He's getting his graduate degree in child guidance on a fellowship. Libby Clark busy with that all-out project of hers which she unveils any day now. Good luck, Lib.

National mag to do a spread on Emmet Ashford. Dr. and Mrs. Jack Kimbrough building that magnificent new home of theirs high atop a hill overlooking San Diego. Cal Bailey due in from S.F. for the Rose Bowl hysterics. Pasadena's Tommi Moore no doubt will be sitting at his right. This has been Cal's banner year.

Girl Friends Xmas party at Wilfandel usually is one of the more brilliant Yuletide gatherings. Mamie Anderson continues gravely ill. Ran up on Gert Anderson shopping mink skins. "I'm getting ready for Santa Anita. DO believe me," she added by way of gay explanation. House guests due, too.

Leon Destine arrives Sun. night to participate in the Rose Parade.

That was Elnor Jackson and Edna McCormick, furs over black, expensive perfume and casually dangling gloves, dashing up King's Road to the legendary Space Retreat home of investor Leon Simmons the other night. Cocktails.

Leon's house, defying description, seems to hang in midair as it overlooks the Strip. You have to see it to believe it, actually. Later, Elnor and Edna cut through the Pass, went onto a Xmas party in the valley.

Fran Hunter: Wouldn't it have been great fun had you, Jeep and I spent part of the Holidays in N.H.?

Fond Remembrances

Add rather spectacular Xmas gifts: The dark green Chrysler Imperial Newport good-looking Bill Pecot found under his tree. From a Friend. Bill, stationed nautically at Long Beach, winks an eye our way and says: "Louisian was never like this!"

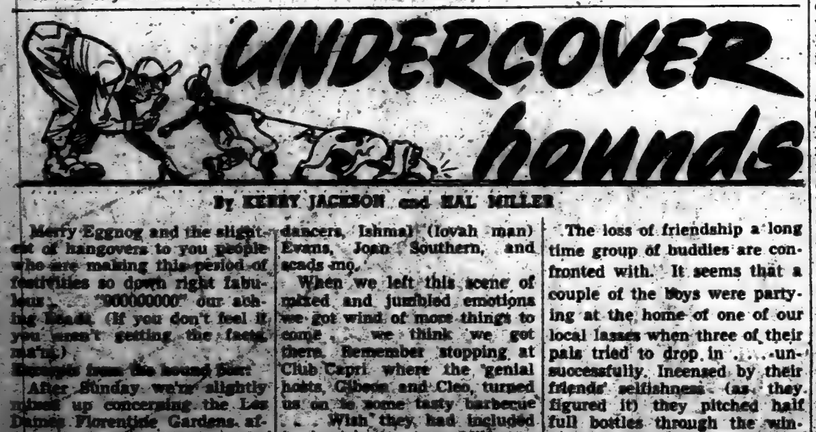
Local sorority mailing a sudden idea: to make Eartha Kitt an honorary member?

Elsie Foster is another who found a gift in her stocking in the spectacular class. A television set.

Leontyne King: Thank you so very much.

Delta Sigma Theta dance at Zenda Mon. night. Plans for their annual Jabberwock are shaping up too.

Recent reunion with Meredith Hatcher fetched some wonderful reminiscences for all of us merrily involved. Meredith always was an able conversationalist. She confesses to being restless. But then who isn't these days?



Consolidated Plan Cabaret Ball Friday

Consolidated Realty Board will present a Cabaret Ball Friday, December 19th, at Park Manor, 607 S. Western Avenue, as the first of a holiday series, leading up to the swank Installation Banquet held annually in the early spring.

Top 'notch' performers have been secured for the floor show backed up by the music of Red Callender and his famous band.

CRB's Installation Banquet last January proved to be one of the most social events, and was held at the Statler. The annual Picnic offered by CRB where many valuable prizes and gifts were distributed was another triumph, as was the Real Estate Clinic CRB sponsored at the Biltmore this year.

Onie Granville, of the firm of Granville and Murray will head the entertainment committee for the Cabaret Ball. Assisting Mr. Granville are: Wave D. Ross, Claude Simpson; Innis Cotton; Joseph Beacham; Robert B. Newman; eGorge McKinney; Flora Reddix; Joseph Rhone and Claude Jolly.

By KERRY JACKSON and HAL MILLER

Merry Eggnog and the slight-est of hangovers to you people who are making this period of festivities so down right fabulous. . . "000000000" our aching heads. (If you don't feel it you aren't getting the facts ma'am.)

Scoops from the hound pen:

After Sunday we're slightly mixed up concerning the Les Daniels Floren'tide Gardens affair. . . . It was obviously wunderfull but it's sorta vague. . . . Got a look at some celebrities though, James Edwards, Chazz (what my name is) Crawford, Lillian Randolph, Lillian Montgomery (who says she reads our stuff religiously); Ted Schaffer and hyvonne Dale, Dorothy Fyefe, Alvin Hill, and wife Gwen, Archie Savage and dancers, Ishma'l (lovah man) Evans, Joan Southern, and acads mo.

When we left this scene of mixed and jumbled emotions we got wind of more things to come . . . we think we got there. Remember stopping at Club Capri where the genial hosts, Gibson and Cleo, turned us on to some tasty barbecue . . . With they had included most attractive Anna Miller.

Also met and talked to mister Lucky Lager, John Brady, who showed us the finer points of his brew.

This same night we passed the Oasis and were surprised to see sportsman Al Glover and Rita Pierson leaving so soon; it was only two a.m. What's this gals about.

The loss of friendship a long time group of buddies are confronted with. It seems that a couple of the boys were partying at the home of one of our local lasses when three of their pals tried to drop in . . . unsuccessfully. Incensed by their friends' selfishness (as they figured it) they pitched half full bottles through the windows, leaving glass and bad feelings all over the room.

This act of violence was the forerunner of a mass outbreak of window breaking as the two pals retaliated by doing the same to their respective homes. The way it seems now, wives and lives are in jeopardy. The moral: Don't leave bottles half full.

Our own way of saying "Thank you" to all the folks who have made this year such a happy one for us.

May good health, good friends and good cheer be with you during the Holiday season and throughout the New Year.

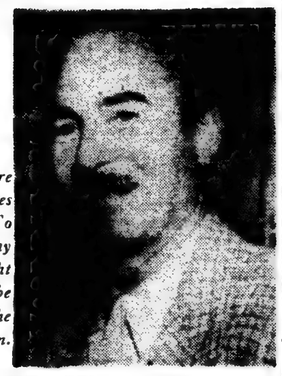
DO YOU WANT MARRIAGE?



The KAA WILLIAMS Marriage Foundation will put forth every effort to bring you in contact with a mate of your choice whose interests, habits and personality are compatible to yours and EVERYTHING done with the strictest confidence. Call Kaa Williams, ADams 1-9487, and arrange for a private interview or write: Miss Kaa Williams, c o Box 500, 1050 East 43rd Place, Los Angeles 11, California.

BEING IN LOVE is not looking into another's eyes . . . but looking in the RIGHT DIRECTION. So many people are forced to rely on CHANCE as a means of meeting their prospective mates; stumbling around and marrying unwisely for lack of an adequate opportunity to view a wider range of eligible matrimonial prospects. Hence, so many broken homes, divorces, unwanted children and years (sometimes the best years) spent in misery. Call KAA WILLIAMS today or write tonight.

LOUISE RAMSEY, attractive coffee-brown, is the reason why suave and looted Walter Miller is finding pleasure in her company!

BILLY REVIS, the Lucky Furniture company mahogany salesman, is sporting new 1954 license plates. His was the first to come out of Sacramento—even before those of California top officials!

CLUB CAPRI, with Cleo Cloman as its number one handshaker, is beginning to click. Ann and John Brady, the Lucky Lager clan, and Eloise and Carl Gipson all raving about the spot!

JERRY BRAUSSARD is tossing 'em at you from behind the bar of the Pigalle. He once toured the east as a top bracket comic!

BOB THOMAS, who pens "On Beat", for the West Jefferson weekly, is up in arms over the fact that we missed getting a chance to drink up on his birthday. It just goes to show you what fools miss by not reading, huh Bob!

BILL BROWN, of the noted Harlem Globetrotters, is such a soft touch for leeches that they don't have to change their story. He was taken again just before he boarded the plane for his basketball tour.

ANTHERIANS' Saturday night coctail session at the Wadsworth address just about wild enough. Guests arrived cold sober and staggered out in the a.m. reeling and rocking.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles will receive bids for furnishing all labor and material for the following work:

KIND OF WORK AND NAME OF SCHOOL

Repainting and refinishing of the exterior and interior of the Main Building and Arcade at the Trinity Street School.

DATE OF BID OPENING

January 7, 954 1

Each bid shall be in accordance with the drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the Maintenance and Operations Branch of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the office of MAINTENANCE AND OPERATORS BRANCH.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract or contracts which will be awarded the successful bidder or bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION

Foremen
All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than 17½ cents per hour more than the hourly rate of the highest classification over which he has supervision as to the SIX BASIC TRADES; and not less than 12½ cents per hour as to the SUB-TRADES, more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices
May be employed in conformity with Section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

Riggers
Same wage scale as craft to which rigging is incidental.

Welders
Same wage scale as craft to whien welding is incidental.

CLASSIFICATION	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$2.70
LABORERS
Laborers, General or Construction	2.65

ELECTRICIANS
Electrician	3.10
PAINTERS
Brush	2.66
Spray Gun or Sandblaster (7-Hour day for above classification)	2.91
- Plus Health and Welfare, etc.

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

WORKING RULES

1. Where a single shift is worked, eight (8) consecutive hours between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. shall constitute a day's work at straight time for all workers.
2. Forty (40) hours between Monday 7 A.M. and Friday 5 P.M. shall constitute a week's work at straight time.
3. All works performed in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week or on Holidays and Sundays shall be paid for at the rate of overtime of the craft involved.
4. Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Counter Clerk of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, by not later than 2:00 P.M. on the date or dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidder or bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the righ to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles.

Mayor Sets Hearing on Fire Dept.

WOMAN'S STRANGLED BODY FOUND IN WATTS STREET

OLGA L... COMP
205 ... AVE
LOS ANGELES 14 CALIF.

Seeks Review Of Jim Crow Whitewash

Mayor Norris Poulson, who has forthrightly expressed himself as unalterably opposed to Jim Crow practices in any of the Los Angeles city agencies, has scheduled a meeting with the Fire Commissioners for Jan. 7, to discuss the continuing segregation policy in the Fire Department.

The official seal was set on that policy for the moment, when on Dec. 10 the commissioners unanimously endorsed the attitude of Fire Chief John H. Alderson, who in the face of repeated protests has insisted upon shunting all Negro firemen into two Central avenue stations.

Sets Date

In a letter to Atty. Loren Miller, chairman of the West Coast NAACP Redress Committee, the Mayor acknowledged receipt of the NAACP protest and bill of particulars, and stated: "I have requested a meeting with the members of the Board of Fire Commissioners on the first available date, which has been set for January 7. Shortly thereafter I hope to have something additional to add to this acknowledgement."

When the issue was brought to public notice in September with the filing of a petition asking the Fire Commissioners for a hearing on the department's discrimination, the Mayor wrote to the commissioners terming the segregation set-up "abhorrent in a democratic nation."

Asks Summary Action

He added: "I trust that your board will take such summary action as may be necessary to completely eliminate any such unfairness."

He also asked that the commissioners advise him as to what disposition the Fire Department made regarding the situation complained of in the citizens' petition.

Following the action of the Fire Commissioners upholding the department's segregation, Atty. Miller, on behalf of the NAACP, called upon the Mayor and the City Council to refuse to permit public funds to be used in defending the Jim Crow set-up.

To File Suit

Atty. Herbert Simmons, who heads the attorneys who have been pressing the case, stated that a lawsuit would be filed "within the near future" to test the department's right to continue separating firemen on the basis of race.

Two city councilmen, Edward Roybal and Don Allen, have taken a clear-cut stand opposing the Jim Crow practices.

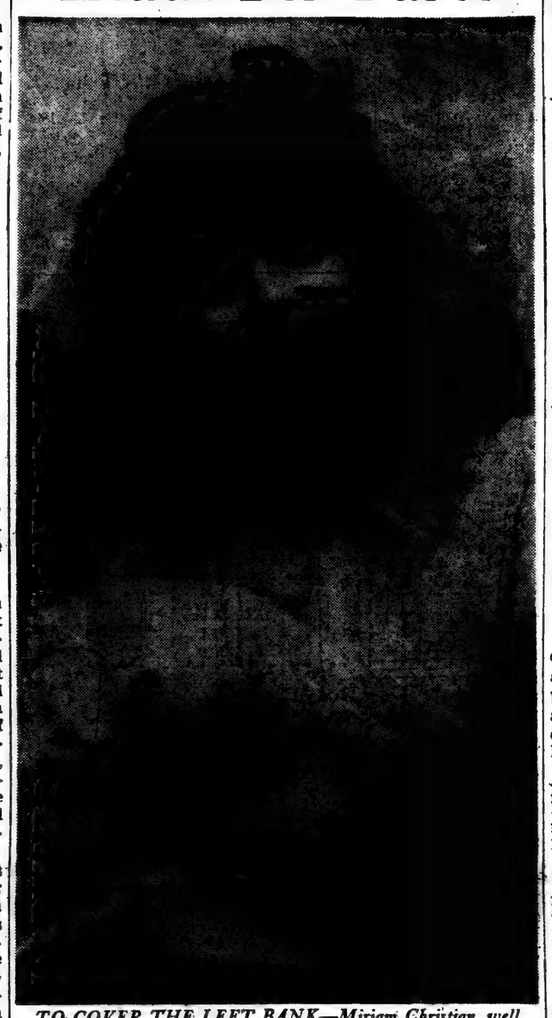
Said Councilman Allen: "There is no moral right for discrimination in any form," adding that it is "morally wrong and legally wrong."

Backs Jim Crow End

Councilman Roybal commented: "I will do whatever I can to help bring to an end the segregation in the Fire Department," pointing out that the Fire Department is the only agency of the city where Jim Crow is practiced.

In presenting the case to the Mayor and the Council, Atty. Miller cited numerous legal decisions outlawing the Negro policy of segregation.

The latter stated in part: "Whatever moral segregation of civil service employees is to be permitted with the public [illegible] and State [illegible] it does not [illegible] of the city's municipal [illegible]



Mayor Can End Jim Crow, Says Roybal

Queried Tuesday on the status of the fight to end the jim-crow set-up in the Fire Department, Councilman Edward Roybal stated:

"In my opinion, responsibility for action would rest with the Mayor's office and with the commissioners the mayor has appointed.

"This group does not have to support Chief Alderson's policy."

'Sambo' Now 'Rebecca' As Inglewood Does Quick Shift

Whisper it softly—

The City of Inglewood, in the southwest of Los Angeles, is entering a float in the fabulous New Year's Day Tournament of Roses. The float will bear the pleasant title "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

But it wasn't intended that way. The float, sponsored by the city, originally was planned around the theme—you guessed it—"Little Black Sambo."

Word leaked out. Members of the community protested to the NAACP. On Tuesday, Dr. E. L. Robinson, president of the local branch, telephoned Carl Nelson, president of the Inglewood Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Robinson was advised that plans had been changed.

Queried by the Eagle, the Chamber of Commerce advised that not only the name but "the whole idea" had been altered in a last-minute switch. Work, it was learned, had not yet been started on the float. Atty. Phil Harris, in charge of arrangements, said the plans were changed because of lack of funds to carry out the Sambo theme.

So, come Friday, winsome Rebecca, surrounded by the beauties of old Sunnybrook, will make her bid for fame.

Dr. F. R. Whiteman Dies in Pasadena

One of the city's best known and best liked physicians and surgeons, Dr. Frederick Roscoe Whiteman, of 1235 Solita Road, Pasadena, died last Wednesday and was buried in impressive rites Monday morning at the chapel of the Angelus Funeral Home.

Many prominent members of the community in which Dr. Whiteman practiced for 31 years attended the services, which were conducted by the Rev. Harold M. Kinsley, who was assisted by the Rev. James Mohr. Burial took place at Evergreen Cemetery.

Dr. Whiteman, who is survived by his widow, Alice, [illegible] School. He also took additional courses at the University of Southern California. During World War I he served for 18 months as a medical officer overseas.

After he established himself in Los Angeles he served as a member of the board of the city's Board Service Commission for seven years.

Couple Found Dead; Victims of Heater Fumes

A man and a woman died early last Wednesday in what appeared to be a suicide pact, but which later proved to be an accident, caused by the deadly carbon monoxide gas from a heater in a closed room.

Dead were Mrs. Florence Blakeney, 46, of 12117 Parmalee avenue, Watts, and Lawrence A. Carr, 48, of 1904 W. 136th street, Compton.

Too Drunk

Both were found Wednesday morning in a bedroom of a motel at 4074 S. San Pedro street, by the owners of the motel, Arthur Nunley and Mrs. Florence Nunley.

Nunley told police he had met the pair Tuesday night at 417 E. 40th place. Carr, he said, told him that he was too drunk to drive home and asked him to rent him a room for the night.

Both Carr and Mrs. Blakeney, he said, seemed to have been drinking heavily. They rented the room about 8:30 in the evening, asking Nunley to awaken them in the morning.

When he tried to arouse them Wednesday, there was no response. Opening the door, he found the two stretched out on the bed.

The coroner listed the deaths as accidental, and estimated that they had been dead since 3 a.m.

Mrs. Blakeney, at first unidentified, was traced through her fingerprints. It was found that her name was Sleecy Hotson, and that she has a daughter, Erline Hawkins, 305 E. 138th street. Mrs. Blakeney was later identified by her husband, Andrew Blakeney.

Funeral services are being handled by Connor and Johnson.

Civil Rights Battles Fought In Courts

As they have in the past few years, the courts continued to make the biggest news in the field of civil rights during 1953 in California and in the nation.

Top ranking judicial action included:

1. A decision of the United States Supreme Court holding that a seller of race restricted property could not be compelled to respond in damages to other signers of the race restrictive covenant.

2. A decision of the Supreme Court that an old 1872 Civil Rights act is still in full force and effect in the nation's capital.

3. A decision by the Supreme Court that the last vestige of the White Primary is illegal.

4. A decision of the California District Court of Appeals, affirmed by the state supreme court, that racial segregation is not permitted in public housing.

5. A three day argument in the Supreme Court in which the NAACP, backed by the Attorney General, argued that racial segregation in public schools is banned by the Fourteenth Amendment.

Little Legislation

There was comparatively little executive or legislative action in the field of civil rights but there were some noteworthy developments in the federal sphere. Segregation in schools or army posts was ordered abandoned, as was segregation in some public facilities in the District of Columbia and in naval installations in the South.

Oregon was the only state to

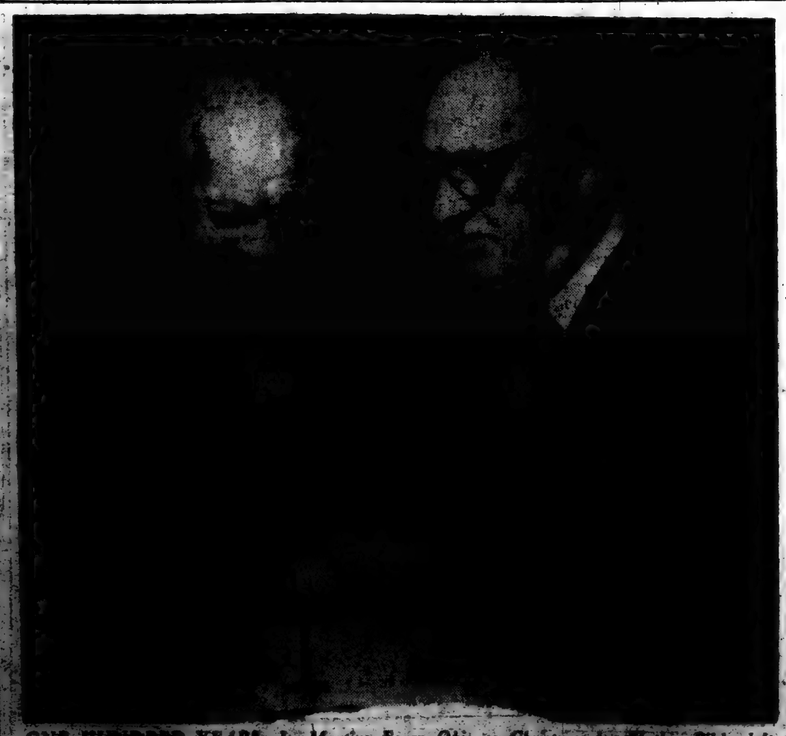
Lynchings Fading; 'Legal' Killings Rise

According to criteria used in the Department of Records and Research, Tuskegee Institute, for the second consecutive year, has no lynchings to report. The five years, 1949-1953, show a total of six lynchings. Lynching, however, is no longer an index of race relations, and Tuskegee is planning a new index for the future.

However, in at least three instances, lynchings were prevented. Reports on these follow:



Lynchings Prevented

On Jan. 17, near Mobile, Ala., Henry Lee Brown, 17-year-old Negro, escaped from sheriff's deputies while being taken to Kilby Prison at Montgomery. Convinced that he was about to be lynched when his handcuffs were removed and the deputies stopped their cars, the prisoner jumped from the car in which he rode and ran into the swamps, while shots were fired at him. He later gave himself up, was tried and acquitted of the charge of slaying a white woman.

In March, near Willcox, Ariz., Arthur Thomas, 29-year-old Negro migrant cotton worker, accused of murdering a white woman storekeeper, was saved from lynching by an officer of the law.

On May 24, at New York City, Edward Cartagena, 42-year-old Puerto Rican, was

B. B. Bratton New Owner of Dunbar Hotel

The well-known Dunbar hotel at 4225 South Central avenue, in the heart of the thriving Central-Eastside business district, this week passed into new hands.

Bertrand B. Bratton, local certified public accountant, is the new owner by virtue of a lease-purchase of the property from the trustees of the estate of the late James C. Nelson, the Security First National Bank.

Bratton, who had previously acted as agent for the trustees, was required to post escrow securities to cover $25,000 on the hotel listed as valued at $147,500. The modern four-story, brick, fireproof building was built in 1928.

The Dunbar hotel was built by Negroes for Negro occupancy. In 1927 Dr. John Somerville and some associates, conceived the idea of erecting first class hotel accomodations for the rapidly growing city.

The lease-purchaser Bratton said the building has been up for sale to cover delinquent taxes for some time. He said in making the purchase he assumed all obligations, and that he plans a full scale remodeling of the building and furnishings.

The late James C. Nelson and his wife, Katherine, acquired the property in 1933 from the Guarantee Trust and Savings Bank. Following the death of his wife, Nelson married the former Mrs. B. Franklin. His will gave his second widow a life interest in the property, with the proviso that upon her death it would go to Celestas A. King IV, a minor.

Choked By Tie On Neck

A gruesome case of strangulation was discovered Sunday night when a woman's body was found lying inert on Lomita boulevard, east of Eubank street.

Police found a man's black silk necktie wound tightly around her neck. She was fully clothed, except for her shoes, but there was no identification on her person.

Killed Elsewhere

A pocketbook was found about four blocks from the scene. There was no identification or money in it.

Police believed the young woman had been killed elsewhere, then transported in an automobile and dumped out on Lomita Blvd.

On Wednesday morning, the dead woman was identified by her husband, Charles William Crockett, 29, as his wife, Eveliner Crockett, 25. The couple lived at 850½ E. Imperial highway.

Found in Street

Shortly before 9 o'clock Sunday night, Elijah Thompson, of 1414 E. Sandison street, Wilmington, was driving with his wife along Lomita blvd. east of Eubanks when he saw a woman face down in the street. From her appearance, he thought she was dead and notified police.

When officers arrived they found Mrs. Crockett had been strangled, a finding that was later confirmed by the coroner. Auto tracks were noted leading in an easterly direction away from the body.

In the pocketbook located far from the dead woman, the only clue to identification was a wooden pencil bearing the name "University Club, 1346 Central avenue."

Jane Doe No. 35

Mrs. Crockett's body was taken to the coroner's office where it was listed merely as "Jane Doe, No. 35."

Police then questioned Hubert J. Donwoodie, a night watchman for the Ethel Corporation, 1201 E. Lomita blvd. Donwoodie said that he had noticed a rusty black 1940 sedan parked on the street at about 5:30 p.m. There were a man and a woman in the front seat, embracing, he said, adding that he thought the woman resembled Mrs. Crockett. He could give no description of her escort.

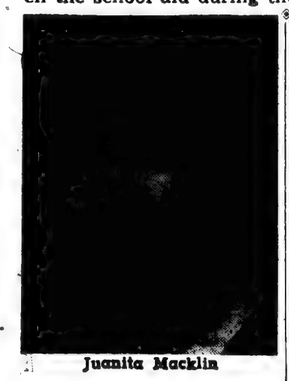
It was not until Wednesday that Mrs. Crockett's identity was established by her husband.

Santa Monica To Celebrate Emancipation

Santa Monicans this week were looking forward to the visit Jan. 3 of Mrs. Tarea Hall Pitman, field secretary of the Northern California area of the NAACP, who will speak at the Calvary Baptist church at 3 p.m.

The meeting is in celebration of Emancipation Week, and Mrs. Pitman's subject will be "Ninety Years of Freedom."

The program is part of the national celebration of the 90th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, made in 1864.



'Eagle' Salutes City's Women

As a salute to the excellent work done by the city's prominent philanthropic clubs, the California Eagle is selecting for special mention the outstanding women leaders of Los Angeles.

Pictures of the 12 women representing the Eagle's choice will be featured in next week's issue of the paper, on the stands January 7.

Opportunity School Thanks Its Friends

The Exceptional Children's Opportunity School in a "Dear Friends" letter expresses its appreciation to the clubs, organizations and individuals who have given the school aid during the year 1953.

Juanita Macklin

Their letter, signed by Juanita Cassius Macklin, executive secretary, states:

"As we turn the last page of the calendar, another year has gone down in history, and before we enter into a new year, the members of the Board of Directors, the staff and the children of the Exceptional Children's Opportunity School wish to take this opportunity and privilege to heartily and sincerely thank each of you from the bottom of our hearts for your kindness and loyalty toward our program during the past year.

Don't Ask Pity

"These unfortunate children of ours are not asking for pity. They are asking for guidance; they are asking us to help them help themselves; they can only learn to think and do through their own experiences.

"The lease on our present home expires June 1, 1954. We are attempting with your help to have the children situated in their own home by that time. We are still short of money for the required down payment on the piece of property selected for their homesite at 122nd and San Pedro streets and as the new year draws near, we are asking one and all to make renewed efforts to better understand the retarded child and to help guide him to self-respect and independence. He can only do this in an environment properly guided in his own experience.

Special Mention

"At this time we wish to make special mention and sincere thanks to the following clubs and individuals who saw to it that these children were not forgotten at Christmas time:

The String of Pearls Club, 6 bedspreads and a new washing machine; Zenith Club, a huge basket of groceries and toys; The Silhouettes, two large boxes of groceries and an 18-lb. ham; The Nimble Fingers Club, eleven large boxes of groceries and 12 new sheets; Mrs. Goodnaugh, groceries, 6 shirts, 7 huge sacks of flour, candy and toys; Fidelity of Service Club, case of peaches and case of pears, and electric iron.

"Thank You"

"To the following clubs and individuals, we wish to say: "Thank you and pray God's blessings for your contribution toward our building fund, and may others who have not yet gotten around to it do so in order that our goal might be reached and these children secure in a home of their own.

Prominent Church Woman Dies on Christmas Eve

On the eve of the day set aside to celebrate the arrival of the Christ Child, Mrs. Leola Lee Douglas died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ruby Sandoz, 716 E. 29th street, at 9:30 p.m.

Born in Beaumont, Texas, Leola Douglas graduated from the Booker T. Washington High School of Houston.

Her religious training began in the Macedonia Baptist Church of Houston where her wholesome influence was particularly felt in the Senior Choir, Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, and Missionary Society.

Moved to California

In 1938 Mrs. Douglas came to California and immediately joined the St. Paul Baptist church, where she continued her multi-auxiliary endeavors. She was especially gifted in handling youth as evidenced by her outstanding success in the Sunday School and Baptist Training Union departments, and her notable tenure as youth counselor.

In 1943, she joined the McCoy Memorial Baptist church, pastored by the Rev. E. A. Anderson. All departments of McCoy would like to claim her as their own, but probably affiliates of the Baptist Training Union, of which she was director from 1947 until her death, can say that this auxiliary was the object of her special attention and affection.

State and District Work

She also served with distinction as executive secretary of the Women's Department of the Los Angeles District Association, Western Baptist State Convention from 1949 to 1953, and executive secretary of the Women's Convention of the Western Baptist State Convention of California.

Mrs. Douglas leaves behind to mourn her passing four sisters: Mrs. Celeste Davis, Mrs. Martha Price of Houston, Texas, Mrs. J. T. Poole, and Mrs. Ruby Sandoz, with whom she resided at the time of her death; a brother, Rev. James Williams of Chicago, Ill.; a son, Harry Treggs, Jr., of San Bruno, Calif.

Two grandsons, Jerry and Jeffry Treggs; six nieces, Miss Sadie B. Sandez, Mrs. Dolores Cottom, Miss Florence Poole, Miss Jewell M. Poole, Miss Celeste Poole, and little Patricia Ann Poole, and a nephew, John Sandoz.

Mrs. Leola Lee Douglas

The funeral will be held at the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46 Street, Thursday, Dec. 31 at 1 p.m. with Pastor E. A. Anderson in charge. Interment will be at Evergreen Cemetery.

COLONIC ENJOY A TRIAL TREATMENT $3

My technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine and rectum.

In simple language — it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by a normal effort.

Prof. Ehret says, "Every sick person has a more or less mucus-clogged system, such mucus being derived from undigested and uneliminated, unnatural food substances accumulated from childhood on."

"The actual amount of filth and waste, which is the 'mysterious' cause of your 'trouble,' is almost unbelievable.

"I had fat patients that eliminated from their body as much as 50 to 60 pounds waste, and 10 to 15 pounds alone from the colon, mainly consisting of foreign matter, especially old, hardened feces. The average so-called 'healthy' man of today carries continually with, him, since childhood, several pounds of never-eliminated feces. One 'good stool' a day means nothing. 'A fat and sick man is in fact a living cesspool.'"

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old fecesstones. The inside walls of the over-distentions are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS.'"

Constipation is the common cause complication of many illnesses, say some of the world's best authorities. Many doctors assume large impactions as "normal" proceeds of laxatives and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH.

When you visit my office you will see hundreds of patients under treatment — satisfied patients, many of whom have been pronounced incurable by other doctors. You will see hundreds of testimonials. You will see stamped envelopes from all over the world. Truly an experience and a sight to behold. Why? Because you will see the results that other forms of treatment have not been able to accomplish. Results that can only be accomplished with this type of treatment—Colonics.

Colonics remove the cause of many diseases, disaster, and death. It is positively amazing the results that might be obtained by a series of colonics, when properly administered by experts — specialists who are trained to eliminate that which causes toxic poisons—"the true cause of many diseases."

Come in today and see with your own eyes the benefits that many derive. Enjoy a trial treatment—an experience that you may never forget. Perhaps you will respond as thousands have responded. Many of them had given up hope. Believe me, I would not tell you this if it were not true.

I MAKE NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION, FOR MY EXAMINATION AND TRIAL TREATMENT I CHARGE $3.

The trial treatment consists of an internal bath—commonly referred to as "colonic"—given under the direction of a doctor specialist, supervised by female supervisors and given by nurses thoroughly trained.

The examination includes laboratory test, cardiograph test of the heart, thorough fluoroscopic X-ray study and analysis of case history by competent doctors, D.C., especially trained for this type of treatment. The examination and laboratory test are FREE with the $3 trial treatment.

Remember this! I have a staff of 14 doctors, DsC., specializing in this type of therapy, 60 female supervisors and nurses, 41 private treating rooms — the latest and finest equipment obtainable.

Come in and enjoy a most unusual experience. Rub shoulders with hundreds of satisfied patients. See and talk to my patients and hear of thousands who were benefited. Spend hours reading amazing testimonials. Many from patients who were diagnosed "incurable." See stamped envelopes from all over the world.

I have the world's largest institution of its kind. More than 685,000 various treatments. There is no substitute for experience.

Enjoy this marvelous trial treatment today. Don't forget—the total cost for examination and trial treatment is $3. Yes! I said $3. This $3 pays for everything. There are no extras.

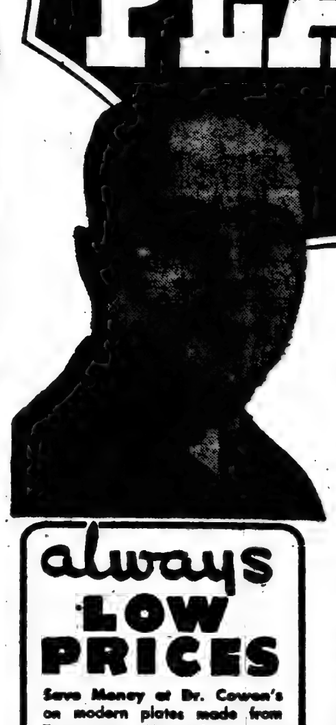
Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. Three patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT and HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED.



I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

'Firsts' Are News As Old Year Ends

As the old year rolls to a close, it is of interest to note a number of new "firsts" and unusual appointments that have been made in the final weeks of December.

In Washington, Mrs. Julia P. Cooper was appointed attorney by Edward F. Mansure, administrator of General Services.

Mrs. Julia P. Cooper

She is the first Negro to be given a legal post in that agency.

Born in Fayetteville, N. C., she received her B.S. from Hampton Institute in 1940 and her LL.B. degree from Howard University in 1951, where she was elected "Chief Justice" of the "Court of Peers," the law student governing body at the university. She has been practicing law in Washington, D. C., since 1951.

Negro Juror in South Carolina

AIKEN, S.C. — Last week the Aiken County Superior Court summoned a Negro, Matthews Davis, to serve on the jury.

He was the first colored man to be called since Reconstruction days.

Woman Heads Chicago NAACP

CHICAGO — For the first time in its history, Chicago's 8,000-member branch of the NAACP has selected a woman as its president.

Mrs. Cora M. Patton, vice-president of the Illinois State NAACP Conference, past president of the association's women's auxiliary, chairman of its Housing committee, received 232 votes.

She defeated Atty. George N. Leighton, last year's president, who received 85 votes.

Named Advisor In Housing Office

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Atty. John A. Hibbler, long time Republican leader, has just been appointed race relations advisor of the regional office of the Public Housing Administration in Fort Worth, Texas.

The post pays $10,800 a year. The Fort Worth office supervises public housing in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Employment in California dropped by 124,000 between October and November to approximately 5,004,000 persons, it was announced last week by William A. Burkett, Director of Employment, and Paul Scharrenberg, Director of Industrial Relations.

Baltimore Hires Negro Firemen

BALTIMORE — Carrying out the integration policy which it initiated in November, the city of Baltimore last week hired 13 additional Negroes as trainees in its Fire Dept.

Last month, breaking with its 100-year-old lily-white tradition, the city hired nine Negro firement, and has assigned all nine to mixed companies.

No Lynchings Reported In '53

rescued from a mob by two umpires of a baseball game and the mounted police. Before several hundred persons watching the game in Central Park, Cartagena stabbed his estranged common-law wife to death. Players and spectators tried to kill him.

New Index

Lynching as traditionally defined and as a barometer for measuring the status of race relations in the United States, particularly the South, seems no longer to be a valid index to such relationships. This is due to significant changes in the status of the Negro and to the development of other extra-legal means of control, such as bombings, incendiarism, threats and intimidation, etc.

Tuskegee believes that a new standard for measuring race relations is needed, one as objective and as factual as were the lynching reports. This standard can best be established in such areas as employment and other economic conditions; in political participation; in education; in law and legislation; in health and perhaps in other fields.

The Institute proposes, in future annual releases, to issue a statement with information as significant for the present times as was the Annual Lynching Letter in the past.

The Department of Records and Research, which has recorded lynchings for the last 41 years, will continue to do so and will furnish such information to those who may request it.

APPOINTED—William L. Thompson was appointed last week to the post of administrative assistant of the new Mount Sinai hospital.

Wm. Thompson Gets High Post At Mt. Sinai

Appointment of William L. Thompson as administrative assistant of the new Mount Sinai Hospital was announced last week by George J. Heltzer, president.

Thompson, a graduate in hospital administration from UCLA and St. Louis University, will assist Walter J. Mezger, hospital administrator.

The appointment was approved as work began on the second floor of the 450-bed hospital, necessitating the completion of numerous administrative detail to keep pace with the construction project, Heltzer said.

Thompson, 32, interned at the University of Iowa Hospital and Loretta Hospital, Chicago, and served as a laboratory technician in the U.S. Army Air Forces Station Hospital at BocaRaton Field, Florida.

In 1951 he was awarded a two-year scholarship to study hospital administration by the Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He was a guest lecturer in 1953 at the University of Iowa School of Hospital Administration and the Homer G. Phillips Hospital School of Nursing.

He is a member of the American Hospital Association and Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

AKA Helps Students Get Holiday Jobs

In keeping with their pledge of service, Alpha Gamma Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority spearheaded and successfully completed plans that resulted this year in needed Christmas employment for almost 90 college students, both Greeks and non-Greeks, on all the major campuses in Los Angeles.

The project, under the auspices of the Scholarship Committee chaired by Helen Broyles Smith working in close connection with Jesse Robinson, official of the Los Angeles Post Office, successfully trained the young college students to be efficient scheme clerks and they worked as a unit in the terminal annex during the Christmas rush.

Members of the Scholarship Committee include: Chairman Helen Broyles Smith, June M. Jefferson, Annie L. Harris, Susie C. Hawkins, Alice C. Long, Willa Lewis, Danetta P. Johnson, Cleopatra Johnson, Helen Jenkins, Constance K. Young, Haroldine B. Brewington, Beulah Marks, Jean McCowen, Rubye Jackson Mills, Cosetta Eubanks Moore, Vermuta R. Dickson, Georgia Payton, Gwendolyn Taylor, Edythe K. Owens, Vivian R. Calhoun, Meltonia White, Ruth Green Robinson, Harriette Williamson, and Lucille Clark Fisk.

Segregation In Fire Dept.

ly counter to recent interpretations of State and Federal constitutions, we feel obliged to press for its elimination.

"We are extremely reluctant to resort to the courts in this matter, but the attitude of Chief Alderson and the Board of Fire Commissioners apparently leaves us no choice in the matter.

"We are informed that in the event of court action, the chief and the board will appeal to the Council to secure the legal services of the City Attorney in their defense. . . . We do not believe that the City of Los Angeles would be justified in expending public funds for the defense of a policy of racial segregation as pursued by one of the departments of the city."

Sacramento Gives Vote to Colley for NAACP Board

SACRAMENTO—At its monthly meeting the Sacramento branch of the NAACP cast its vote for Nathaniel S. Colley, prominent West Coast attorney, to serve as a member of the national Board of Directors.

Atty. Colley has a number of civil rights victories to his credit. He was one of the attorneys of record in the San Francisco housing case, was active in bringing about integration in Sacramento public housing and was successful in opening up an exclusive swimming pool in Sacramento. He serves on the executive board of the West Coast Regional Legal Redress committee of the association.

Among the others voted for by the branch were: Dr. Ralph Bunche, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College.

Santa Monica to Hear Discussion On Pension Plan

A speaker from the state headquarters of the California Institute of Social Welfare will discuss the $100-a-month pension petitions at a meeting to be held Monday, Jan. 4th at 1:30 p.m. in the Legion Hall, 1428—17th Street, Santa Monica, according to Myrtle Williams, former State Welfare Director.

Petitions to place the $100 pension measure on the ballot will start circulating Jan. 18, according to George McLain, chairman of the Institute. A total of 303,687 valid signatures of registered voters is required to qualify the measure for a vote.

British Major Killed in Kenya; 19 Sentenced

NAIROBI, Kenya — Major Earl Wavell, 37, son of the late Field Marshal Earl Wavell, was killed the night before Christmas as he was leading a Black Watch patrol investigating the beheading of an African who sided with the British.

The killing of Wavell followed by two days the wholesale sentencing to death of Kikuyu tribesmen for murders attributed to the Mau Mau at Lari last March. On Dec. 22, eight men were given the death penalty; the previous day 16 others were given the same sentence. Three youths were also convicted of murder but were adjudged too young to be hanged. Forty of the 67 tried were acquitted.

Major Wavell's patrol was ambushed by members of the Mau Mau organization. Wavell fell early in the encounter. An African policeman was also killed, while two others were wounded.

Five Mau Maus were killed, and four captured.

No More Thumbing

Beginning Jan. 15, 1954, it will be illegal for Navy and Marine Corps personnel to hitchhike on the streets and highway of the Eleventh Naval District except at specific pick-up points, it was announced this week by Rear Admiral G. C. Dyer, USN, District Commandant.

Doctor-nurse teams of the city health department will visit 67 schools in January to continue immunizing children against diphtheria and tetanus (lockjaw).

IF YOU ARE SICK

If you are suffering with heart trouble, gall bladder, skin disorders, headaches, insomnia, high blood pressure, overweight, arthritis, rheumatism, premature gland failure, prostate disorder, constipation, anemia, backache, diabetes, or any one of a number of other disorders, READ THIS!

Come to my office any day and see, rub shoulders and talk to several hundred of my patients who are under treatment for many of the above disorders.

These patients will tell you with their own mouths what benefits they are deriving.

Why do my patients bring in their loved ones—wife, husband, mother, father, children and friends?

Come in and talk with my patients and let them tell you how they feel and what benefits they are deriving.

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without, and until certain laboratory tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., outstanding indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED?

I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have been suffering with stomach trouble and gas since the last year I met you.

Now that I have come back to you and have completed two weeks treatments just last week, I feel brighter, stronger and happy again as the result of these treatments.

Therefore, I suggest to those who suffer of same trouble to try Dr. Brinkley's New Yorker Technique, which I sincerely recommend.

This testimonial was not solicited. Respectfully yours, Rt. Rev. Elias Pico."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: Certainly appreciate Mrs. Padella, Mrs. Folendore and Dr. Martin's kindness.

They did wonderfully and did a great deal of good for me. I pray to God to bless and protect them.

Thankfully with great affection on them, Father Conrad Lebel."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I wish to extend my thanks to you and your entire staff, especially to Dr. Evans, Mrs. Vickers and Mrs. Johanson, who were so courteous to me.

After taking your treatment for about ten days I feel better than I have felt in six years.

I shall not cease to tell my friends about you and your staff, and your great institution.

May the Lord let you live long to keep up the good work. Yours respectfully, Rev. Walter H. Laster."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: Without reservation or hesitation, I can truthfully say that I believe that your technique of treating the human body is a God inspired idea. Because, up until I saw your advertisement in the newspaper, I had just about given up hope for any relief. The doctors, at many of the leading clinics of this nation, had given me every kind of examination known in the field of medical science, and to no avail. But the first few treatments I received from your office I began getting relief. And I know that it was none other than the Spirit of Almighty God which led me to read your advertisement that day. So, may God crown all your efforts with His choicest benedictions in helping to relieve the perplexities and pains from which humanity is suffering. Fraternally yours, O. L. Hegmon, Minister, Toliver's Chapel Baptist Church."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first heard of your treatments I was a very sick man. My disease had been diagnosed by medical doctor as epilepsy. When epileptic attacks would strike me I would be totally unconscious for three days. After the second treatment in your institution, I had an attack but never lost consciousness and was back for my next treatment the following day.

"When I began your treatments my stomach was completely 'shot.' It had become so bad I could hardly put anything into it any more. It was in very bad shape. I had been taking sedatives for seven years. I was in and out of hospitals for the last two years. However, I was afraid to come here because I thought the nurses would be as mean as those in the other hospitals where I had been a patient. If I asked for water I almost got a beating—but far from it, these nurses have been like angels to me. I never received nicer treatment in my life.

"I feel so deeply grateful to you because your treatments have saved my life. After only nine treatments, I feel like a new man 100% better in every way. My stomach trouble has completely left me and I have done away with sedatives forever. My gratitude is boundless, and I can only say 'God bless you!'

"I have—and again am offering you—a gift of $500.00 which you refuse to accept. Words seem inadequate to express my deep and sincere gratitude. I sincerely and truly feel that your treatments have saved my life, and I want everybody to know it. I only wish I were gifted with the ability to put into words what I really feel, but all I can say is 'God bless you' for saving my life. I can never thank you enough for what you have done for me. Sincerely and gratefully. Signature left out purposely. Witness: Mrs. Lucy A. Rubalcava, Dr. S. M. Sassone, D.C., Mrs. E. H. Berghof, Mrs. B. L..mont."

Editorial

A Happier 1954

Any fair review of 1953 will mark it as a year when we edged a little closer to peace on the surface of things and remained just about where we were when it was ushered in, as far as the underlying causes of war are concerned.

President Eisenhower finally achieved a truce, uneasy as it is, in Korea. His sensible proposal for a pool of atomic power at least caused the Russians to pause a moment and to agree to talk things over. A Four Power conference is in the cards for the very near future.

Whether the president's atomic energy proposals will bear fruit remains to be seen but the very discussion of such an important matter is heartening after years of obstinacy on the part of the Russian government. The same thing goes for the Four Power conference. We can hope that frank talks may at least clear the atmosphere and that the basis can be laid for future discussions where we can come to grips with the war problem that hovers over us all.

On the domestic front there are many indications that our country is moving toward the elimination of discrimination and inequities between Americans that have been based on race. Everywhere there has been a loosening of color barriers. The Supreme Court is considering the momentous question of segregation in grade schools and there is every indication that its decision will be favorable and will face toward continued judicial overthrow of ingrained customs and prejudices.

Progress is an accelerating social phenomenon and we can hope that the gains we have made in 1953 can be doubled in 1954.

Memo To The Mayor

We are glad to see that Mayor Norris Poulson has decided to confer with his Board of Fire Commissioners in reference to the racial segregation policy so long pursued by Fire Chief John H. Alderson and recently given the Commission's blessings.

We suppose that the mayor's decision to intervene in the matter means that he wants to know the facts and that he is sticking by his statement of a couple of months ago to the effect that he does not propose to tolerate either segregation or discrimination in any city department.

The facts are simple:

1. All Negro firemen assigned to fire stations are assigned to Stations 30 and 14, solely on the basis of their race.
2. All Negro officers in the Fire Department who are assigned to fire stations are assigned to Stations 30 and 14, solely because of their race.
3. Negro firemen are denied the right to transfer as between fire stations except as between Stations 30 and 14, solely because of their race.
4. Negro officers of the Department are denied the right to transfer as between fire stations except as between Stations 30 and 14, solely because of their race.

If that were all that was involved that alone is enough to bear out the charge of racial segregation. The practices we have just enumerated are Jim Crow practices—that and nothing else. The city of Los Angeles has neither the moral nor the legal right to practice such racial segregation in any department of city goevrnment.

Neither Chief Alderson nor the weak-kneed Commissioners deny the existence of such practices. They advance the mealy mouthed, and stultifying argument that there isn't "complete racial segregation" because four Negroes work in the fire prevention bureau and another in the bureau of supply and maintenance. They operate on the theory that a little Jim Crow isn't bad.

The discrimination that is the inevitable result of this admitted racial segregation can be documented just as easily as the segragatory practices can be enumerated.

Mayor Poulson will earn the gratitude and deserve the thanks of all residents of this city who believe in the democratic way of life if he will put his foot down and let his Commissioners and our arrogant Chief Alderson know that he meant what he said when he expressed his opposition to any racial distinctions between civil service employes of the city. We hope he will act and act quickly.

Headline Crime Wave

The constant over-emphasis on the activities of youthful law breakers by the daily newspapers in the past three weeks is reminiscent of what was once a usual practice in the South when the commission of a crime by a Negro set off a wave of newspaper-induced hysteria. Every Negro criminal or alleged criminal was identified as such.

All too often days and weeks of such reporting touched off a clash between the races or eventuated in a lynching. When that happened the newspapers wrapped themselves in self righteousness and deplored the very violence for which they were responsible.

Los Angeles newspapers don't have to put racial tags on most of the youngsters who have participated in some of the most widely reported incidents of the past few weeks. The very names themselves identify the participants as persons of Mexican descent in most cases but where names are lacking the dailies haven't been a bit bashful about describing assailants as "Mexican-Americans."

Where Negroes were described as "rapists" or "attackers" the Los Angeles criminals, or alleged criminals, are branded as "rat packers." Already all too many unthinking people have jumped to the conclusion that all youngsters of Mexican descent are killers who roam the streets seeking whom they can attack. That conclusion is helped along by the current newspaper practice of searching the police blotters and of blowing up to major proportions petty vandalism that ordinarily goes unreported.

The truth of the matter is that Los Angeles is not in the throes of a crime wave at all. It is perfectly true that there have been some robberies and strong arm crimes by young hoodlums who should be caught and punished. It is just as true that normal law enforcement machinery is functioning in this community and that the police, the district and city attorneys' offices and the courts are doing a pretty good job of protecting the law abiding citizens of this community.

It is time to call a halt to these frantic efforts to whip up hatred and ill feeling against persons of Mexican descent. Los Angeles doesn't need, and can't afford, the harvest of hatred that will result unless sanity replaces the headline hysteria of the past few weeks.

Negro History Week

Negro History Week is just around the corner and Our Authors Study Club, which sponsors the [illegible] in Los Angeles, should get [illegible] support in its effort to make [illegible] the biggest ever for [illegible].

[illegible] thing of an anomoly to [illegible] history week and it [illegible] much better if we could just have an American history week that was devoted to a recapitulation of the contributions of all Americans to our great country.

However, all of us know that for many reasons the contributions of Negroes to our history have been slighted and glossed over and it is necessary to take time out to recall those contributions to the attention of all Americans.

Battleaxe and Bread

Time was when the colored brother could tell a good joke on himself and his race and have fun doing so, without worrying about the joke's propaganda effect. It's getting so now, however, that this is a pretty risky business—what with solemn-faced sociologists and psychologists listening in on our private conversation, missing the point entirely and reporting what they hear as "scientific finding."

Lester Granger

This pseudo-scientific claptrap is bad enough when it is restricted to the sociological fraternity. It becomes even more dangerous when popular writers and politicians pick it up and peddle gossipy junk as the real genuine facts of life about Negroes in America.

I am thinking, for instance, of the following quotation from James Baldwin's recent novel, "Go Tell It On the Mountain": "There was not, after all, a great difference between the world of the North and that of the South which (they) had fled; there was only this difference: the North promised more. And this similarity: What it promised it did not give, and what it gave at length and grudgingly with one hand, it took back with the other."

The Baldwin paragraph is well written—almost beautifully so, but it's as false as false can be. There is a whale of a difference between the North and the South, so far as the Negro is concerned. It is true that discrimination exists in New York, Chicago, Boston and San Francisco in as many varieties as are to be found in Atlanta, New Orleans, Charleston and Richmond. But it is also true that racial discrimination in the North is a matter of "free will" activity, while in the South it is backed by and written into the law. There is as much difference between racial discrimination New York or California-style and racial segregation Alabama-style as there is between a scratch of an angry woman's nails and the knife-thrust of a psychotic dope-addict.

How did the fiction develop, then, that, as Mrs. Roosevelt put it several years ago in an address to a group of white Georgia churchwomen, "the Negro is more discriminated against in the North in many ways than in the South." And how could Adlai Stevenson assure the Georgia State Legislature a few weeks ago that "the most notable racial progress in recent years has been made in the South."

This is a froth of an idea which was frothy enough in the first place, created out of more-or-less friendly or semi-humorous bickering between northern and southern Negroes. The colored person living in the South reacted to the constant ribbing of his racial brother who had "escaped to the North" by reminding him that the "Promised Land" was by no means all milk and honey, or the disappointed migrant, finding that some of his dreams of complete equality exploded in his face, reacted with bitterness by exaggerating the actual state of affairs in the North.

All of this was natural and healthy, as long as it consisted of blowing off steam and making light of misfortune by spicing it with salty humor. What's happened now, however, is that the politicians and the fiction-writers have gotten in on the act—and messed it up. The stuff that they are producing is perfectly adapted to the politician's use, as he tries to placate the South by selling the North cheap. The trouble is that the effects are more than political. The South is flattered into thinking it is doing pretty well, when it is making "notable progress" which has been literally forced upon it by northern opinion plus the Supreme Court. No wonder that the Georgia legislators rose to their feet and cheered Mr. Stevenson, and no wonder that the Georgia church-women beamed at Mrs. Roosevelt and applauded her vigorously. But there is no reason for the rest of us to applaud. There is reason for us to take careful stock of our own within-the-family comments and make certain that if the neighbors hear them and go around repeating them they will at least get the facts straight and understand the point that we're trying to make.

One Man's Opinion

THE MARCH OF DOLLARS

We were in a meeting recently where the March of Dimes Campaign during the month of January 1954 was discussed. When a local director of the campaign reported that there seldom was a child whose treatment did not cost thousands of dollars it occurred to me that the spending of the money taken up in these campaigns was indeed a "March of Dollars." And that is what we wish to report to you in this weekly piece.

Leon Steward

As soon as a child, youth or any other person is afflicted wih polio the March of Dimes organization takes entire charge of the patient since few families can give the care or the medication and other training necessary for the rehabilitation of the afflicted person. And if you would like to see the process of this service in action you may phone the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis at DUnkirk 2-2381 and they will direct you to such a place.

A Three Point Attack

It will be recalled that Franklin D. Roosevelt who suffered from this crippling malady, during his lifetime, set up this Foundation and named it the "March of Dimes" so that no one would be too young nor too poor to participate in fighting this scourge to children. It became a Three Point Program. Point one provided for patient care; Point two provided for the education of the people concerning polio; and Point three provided for research to find the nature of and the cure for polio. This year Point Four was added—and very important it is—POLIO PREVENTION.

The fact that the patients are cared for by the Foundation has reduced the cost for one patient to about $3,000.00. Never-the-less some patients cost as much as $40,000 for services. The costs of these services include, beside the doctors and 24-hour nurse care occupational therapeutic instructors who help the person learn the use of his limbs after the polio has crippled him. Those having respiratory attacks must use respirators which cost $2300 each. Many whose legs are affected must use orthopedic equipment which is often specially arranged for a particular patient. In fact there is nothing that is used to combat polio which does not cost big money.

Rather recently a doctor given "March of Dimes" money with which to study about polio treatment came up with a vaccine which promises a short life for the polio germ—if it WORKS! The Foundation has allotted to Point Four—Polio Prevention, 26 million dollars. Seven million dollars was given to provide this new vaccine a trial. Some five million second grade children all over the nation will be given the vaccine. If they fail to become attractive to the polio germ the war is won.

Where Will the Money Come From?

We recall that the Jack and Jill Club of this city raised about 11 thousand dollars last year. But if the "March of Dimes" campaign succeeds with your help or fails because you only had a dime to put into the fund what manner of heart have you? Give dollars! The need has put the cost of fighting polio beyond the possibility of dimes. Let us give like we love children and want every child to have the chance of good health if nothing more. Yes, March of Dimes has now become MARCH OF DOLLARS. Do you not think so?

Police Eye View

By TOM BRADLEY

IT'S NO MYSTERY!

Did you ever tune to the police calls and listen dumbfounded as female voices rattle off in a strange language . . . "13A4, 4301 Jasper Street . . . 459 there now."?

Many questions are asked daily about the police department, and the purpose of the police code is one of the favorites.

Police codes, contrary to popular belief, are not used to make calls secretive. The use of code letters speeds up the actual transmission of a call, enabling the Police to have more air time needed for the efficient coverage of the City of Los Angeles.

At the present time, approximately 221,000 calls are transmitted over the Police Radio each month. This in itself shows the need for short, accurate messages to keep the air clear for emergency calls.

GOOD CHEER

You may obtain a free pamphlet explaining the code system by writing a card or letter to this newspaper, or to Sgt. Tom Bradley, Public Information Division, Room 2203, City Hall.

The New Year holiday season universally represents a time of "Good Cheer!", but unfortunately it has come to mean also the peak period for traffic deaths.

The week between Christmas and New Year results in more than twice as many deaths from traffic accidents as any other week in the year.

In Los Angeles County alone 31 such deaths occurred last year at this time and many of them were the result of holiday drinking.

Don't be a Holiday Fool! He's the boy who gets loaded at the party and staggers out to his car protesting that he can drive better with a drink or two and proceeds to weave menacingly down the highway in a 4,000 pound car with his life and yours at stake.

Don't be a statistic for 1953; be alive and celebrate Xmas of '54 with me!

SAY, PODNER, TRY THIS ONE FOR SIZE

When the guests come over for that party this year, suggest this little game: Pretend that you are back in the days of the roaring west and that your house is the "Last Chance Saloon." Remember how the Sheriff, in order to prevent gunfights between customers who drank a wee bit too much, made the boys check their shootin' irons when they came in? Well, appoint one of the crowd as Sheriff and make everybody check their deadly weapons (the keys to their cars) when they come in, with the understanding that they will be returned when the party is over providing the person is sober enough to drive! This little game may result in a few taking the taxi home, but won't it be a relief to party without worrying about an accident or arrest on the way home?

And now—your Police Department wishes you A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

THE STORY OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA, 1883-1950, by Irving Koldin.

You cannot speak of opera in America without referring to the Metropolitan, which now, thanks to radio, has become a national institution. The musical editor of "The Saturday Review" has written a complete and definitive history of this great opera house, from 1883, that first "golden age," to the present. One realizes how inextricably the musical history of America is intermixed with the Metropolitan by reading but a few of the great names in these pages: Caruso, Schumann-Heink, the de Reszkes, Lucrezia Bori, Scotti, Toscanini—the roll is endless. The story of the financial ups and downs of the Metropolitan is almost as fascinating as the listing of its artistic triumphs. This is a candid and always amusing history.

Civil Rights Gains Chalked Up In '53

enact a civil rights law but a number of cities passed fair employment ordinances throughout the country. Neither the state of California nor any of its cities passed any civil rights legislation.

Meanwhile additional Negroes began attending graduate and professional eschools in various southern states. One of them went to court in Louisiana to get an order admitting him to a combined liberal arts and law course.

The Supreme Court decision involving the sale of race restricted property arose in Los Angeles and the nation's highest tribunal affirmed the decision of California courts banning damage suits for sale of race restricted property to Negroes. The winning litigants were represented by Attorney Loren Miller. The case was supported by the NAACP and the Consolidated Realty Board.

The District of Columbia civil rights act upheld by the Supreme Court had been "lost" for more than 50 years and it was argued that the law itself had been repealed through the failure to include it in a compilation of District laws. The high court held unanimously that the law was in full force and as a result restaurants, hotels and cafes long closed to Negroes opened their doors in the nation's capital.

White Primary

White primary legislation overthrown by the Supreme Court was a hangover from Reconstruction and was enforced by a local Texas political organization called the Jaybird party. The Jaybirds held primary elections for places no the Democratic ballot, and without exception its nominees always won the final races in the Democratic party. It was held that the Jaybird rule barring Negroes from its primaries was illegal and thus the last vestige of the once popular white primary laws of the South went over board.

California had the signal honor of being the first state to outlaw racial segregation in public housing when the District Court of Appeals held in September that a 1942 regulation of the San Francisco Housing Authority confining Negroes to one of the city's low rent projects violated provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment. The case was pressed by the West Coast Legal Committee of the NAACP.

Although no decision has yet been handed down, the most talked about case involving civil rights was the one inovlving public school segregation in four states and the District of Columbia. For three days attorneys for the NAACP hammered away on the theme that the Fourteenth Amendment forbids all racial distinctions by the states. They were joined by Attorney General Brownell in the argument that the 50 year old Separate But Equal rule was invalid.

In a series of counter moves designed to forestall the expected Supreme Court ruling that grade school segregation is unconstitutional, Georgia followed the South Carolina lead and laid plans to abandon public schools. However, Mississippi refused to follow their lead. Any such attempts are expected to result in new litigation both on the part of whites and Negroes.

Marsha Lundy Wins Prize in Dance Contest

Marsha D. Lundy, talented seven-year-old daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Rayfield Lundy, was winner over 30,000 participants in the Evening Herald and Express' talent exposition, it was announced last week.

Young Marsha has made numerous appearances on television, radio and stage. She first televised Amos 'n' Andy played a leading role in the annual Christmas version of the "Lord's Prayer."

Racism Hurts Mission Drive, Minister Says

NEW YORK—America lives in a glass house and American deeds and attitudes on such questions as race relations are plainly visible to an interested outside world, a national home missions conference was told last week. Dr. Stanley I. Stuber of the Japan International Christian University Foundation, asserted that darker skinned peoples striving toward nationhood are "keenly aware of our well cultivated racial prejudices and nothing is hampering the work of our missionaries any more than discrimination practiced by Christians and others here in America." He urged action "to extend the mental and spiritual horizons of our local church members."

A panel of seven authorities at the conference concluded that prejudice against Spanish-speaking Americans in the Pacific Southwest is high. They noted, however, that such prejudice is receding somewhat as the second and third generations of Mexican ancestry learn English, take on American ways, make progress in education and economic status and advance in the professions and in political life.

"Mexican-born families are pushing up into the middle class and even into higher economic brackets throughout the entire Southwest, particularly in Texas," one panel member pointed out. The Rev. E. G. Luna, director of the Mexican Christian Institute in San Antonio, Texas, observed that "unfortunately, one has to be middle-class before acceptance in the churches. I don't know whether that is a rule of the Lord or not."

The home missions conference, held in Buck Hill Falls, Pa., Dec. 13 to 16, was attended by representatives from 23 denominations and sponsored by the National Council of Churches' Division of Home Missions.

Our Authors Study Club Plans Series

Each year "Our Authurs Study Club" sponsors a series of educational activities which portray the cultural and professional advancements made by the Negro race. Business and professoinal organizations have played an important part in this program and a special evening has again been set aside for their participation.

In order to complete the plans for this year's business and professional night they are inviting organizations to send a representative to their next meeting which will be held on Monday, Jan. 4, at the home of Dr. Perry W. Beal, 7 Berkeley Square.

Active Program

Extensive plans have been formulated which should prove of great interest to all participating organizations and it will be to your advantage to attend this meeting or see that a representative participates.

Date: January 4.
Place: 7 Berkeley Square.
Time: 8:00 p.m.
Purpose: To complete plans for the Business and Professional night which is to be held in conjunction with the Negro History Week sponsored by "Our Authurs Study Club."

SCHOOLS WILL PROMOTE HISTORY WEEK CONTEST

At the request of a group from the Southeast Interracial Council, headed by President Mrs. C. D. Hawkins, and spokesman James T. Allen, carpenter and community leader, Superintendent of Schools Stoddard and Assistant Superintendent Maurice Blair, agreed on Friday to allow the Council-sponsored Negro History Week essay contest to be carried on in the city high schools.

The school authorities thereby reversed their original decision to discontinue the contest, which has contributed much to the elimination of prejudice during the last five years. During the discussion with the Southeast Interracial Council delegation, it was pointed out that school textbooks should be revised to include Negro history and Negro heroes should be included among the pictures of national historic figures in the superintendent's office.

Subject of this year's essay is "Contribution of the Negro People to American History." The contest is open only to high school students enrolled during the current year. First prize is $50, plus an individual trophy. The permanent trophy donated by Congressman Clyde Doyle last year goes to the school attended by the prize-winning student. Second and third prizes have not yet been announced.

This year, adults will be given an opportunity to participate in a separate essay contest through the adult evening high schools.

Students whose teachers have not already supplied them with entry blanks may obtain them by writing to Mrs. Cora Johnson, 1356 E. 110th street, Los Angeles 59. The contest closes the first week in February.

ARE YOU SICK?

Read Acts 19:11-12

Sister Marie McDowell of Aberdeen, North Carolina writes: Received my oil and won't be without it from now on. It helped very much. Also helped my sick friend. The doctors gave her up. Now she is doing fine.

Mrs. Alice Mae Davis of Oak Bluff, Massachusetts writes: Dear Bishop: I have paid doctors nearly three hundred dollars to do something for my side. But since I received your blessed waist bandage and handkerchief, my side does not hurt any more. I can sleep at nights now.

New York Minister At Independent Sunday

The Pulpit Committee of the People's Independent Church of Christ is pleased to announce that on next Sunday at 11:00 a.m. in the sanctuary the Rev. Maurice A. Dawkins, Associate Minister to the Community Church of New York City, will preach. The Reverend Mr. Dawkins received the A.B. degree from Columbia College, Columbia University, and the Master of Arts degrees in sacred theology from Union Theological Seminary. He is a candidate for the Ph.D. in religion. He is the Associate Minister and Minister of Education to the Community Church of New York, an inter-racial church.

Rev. Dawkins has served as Associate Minister to the Walker Memorial Baptist Church of New York for two years, and was assigned by the Union Theological Seminary to do his student ministry at the St. Augustine Presbyterian Church. He is currently chairman of the Manhattan Board of the New York Urban League, a member of the Executive Board of the Harlem Committee on Social Planning, and was for three years a YMCA secretary at the Harlem Branch.

He has been recommended to the People's Church by Drs. Joseph M. Evans, Arthur L. Swift, Channing Tobias, and John Haynes Holmes, founder of the Community Church movement in America. Mr. Dawkins is married and has a child.

On New Year's Eve at 9:30 p.m. traditional watch-night services will be held in the sanctuary. The serman will be preached at 11:00 p.m. by Rev. H. Gould Merriwether. The Rev. E. Mason and Senior Deacon Ballantine will preside at baptismal services. Music will be sung by the Cathedral and Gospel Choirs of the church.

Pa. CIO Head Receives Civil Rights Award

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. — In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the elimination of discrimination and segregation in employment, Harry Boyer, president of the Pennsylvania State CIO Council, has received the 1953 civil rights award of the Pennsylvania State Conference of Branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Presentation of the award was made by Dr. Burrell K. Johnson, president of the state NAACP group, at a banquet here on December 10 attended by 250 NAACP and trade union leaders and public officials. Representing the national office of the NAACP, Herbert Hill, labor relations assistant, paid tribute to Boyer's vigorous efforts on behalf of the NAACP civil rights program.

IN MEMORIUM

Pastor E. A. Anderson and the members of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, wish to extend sympathy to Mrs. Mamie Erby recently passed away.

Sports Roundup

By BRAD PYE, JR.
(California Eagle Exclusive)

LOS ANGELES—Tomorrow is bowl day—Take your pick—Sugar, Cotton, Orange, Rose, etc. . . . There is no doubt in our mind, if you're a Pacific Coast or Big Ten fan, your interest will be focused on the granddaddy of 'em all—the World fabulous Pasadena Rose Bowl.

Biggie Munn's MSC Spartans and Red Sanders' battling UC-Bruins will face each other in this one. Each side will have its share of Negro stars—Leroy Bolden—MSC's most valuable back — end Ellis Duckett should prove to be the best of the Spartan's sepia crew.

BRAD PYE, JR.

Whereas on the Bruin's side Rommie Loudd, who is long overdue for a good game, and stellar sophomore guard Hardiman Cureton, the ex-Monrovia High and Valley JC star, are two boys UCLA will be counting on heavily.

Willie Collins, Clarence Norris, Sam Brown, and Anderson should also be a help to the Bruins if called upon. To keep the record straight we pick the Bruins to make it two in a row for the PCC standard bearer by a 20-14 count.

RANDOM DATA—

West Contra Costa JC (Richmond, Calif) stars Doug Peters and Ed Griffin and Berkeley High sensation Carl Gordon motored down for the Rose Bowl game . . . Jimmy Dyer—the erstwhile Jeff High and East Los Angeles JC football great is the only Marine to be selected to play in the Hula Bowl game Jan. 8 . . . One of Dyer's rivals in this game will be UCLA's All-American Paul Cameron . . . Clarence Norris one of the Bruin's Rose Bowlers celebrated his birthday yesterday. We think it's awful nice of Leroy Bolden's mother's fellow employees to foot her bill out here to see her famous son play in the Bowl . . . The UCLA coaches and spectators alike continue to rave about the fine running Lewis "Hustler" Williams did in impersonating the MSC star Leroy Bolden.

BRUINS AFTER CAGE MARBLES TOO—

We've been on the Bruin's cage bandwagon alone and now it's picking up passengers at every stop . . . Nib Price's California Bears—the pre-season favorites after losing to USF lost a lot of followers . . . including this scribbler.

What we've seen of UCLA's Willie Naulls, Johnny Moore and Morris Taft—they are undoubtedly the top sepia trio on the coast.

Bruins Line Holds Key to Bowl Victory

It's UCLA's rugged defense against Michigan State's running game January 1, in the Pasadena Rose Bowl classic.

Experts are rating the game a toss up. Early bettors took the Bruins and got as high as six points some three weeks ago. However, since that time the odds have worked down even as two and two. Local supporters are sticking with the Westwooders because 1—The Westwooders tallied 204 points, while giving up but 48.

Coach Sanders' team was one of the toughest squads in the country to advance the ball against. 2—The Bruins although they played some good games haven't yet played a great one and this one could be their great game.

Michigan big guns are in the backfield headed by the vaunted and talented LeRoy Bolden who appears to be just what the football writers claim, one of the most dangerous runners in the Big Ten loop. He'll be ably supported by Quarterback Tow Yewcic, Evan Slonac, and Billy Wells.

Michigan State boasts a slightly better offensive record than the Bruins; having scored a combined total of 2854 yards on the ground and through the air against nine opponents. The Bruins moved for a total of 2739. Win, lose or draw this game has the ingredients for what may go down as one of the classic's most memorable ones!

Cosmopolitan, Vernondale Golfers Views 1953 As Clubs' Banner Year

By A. "Shoeless Joe" Jaco

With the blowing of taps for the year 1953 the Cosmopolitan Golf Club retrospectively smiles with satisfaction over its accomplishments and growth during this period.

The club has increased its membership, from 48 to well over 100, and more than 50% actually take part in its meetings and activities; which fact makes it a matter of prime importance that the Club start seeking a home of its own.

Pres. J. Cullen Fentress has instituted a program of development which aroused the club from its lethargy and is making it one of the leading organizations of its kind in the nation. His master stroke was the organizing of the ladies auxiliary, which has been invaluable in the sponsoring and promoting of social events. They assist the tournament chairman, Leroy Jennings, by keeping scores and performing other clerical chores before and during tourneys, which relieves the committeemen of many worries, thereby allowing him to shoot a better game.

Fentress, a newspaper man himself, realizing the very important role the press play in the development of any enterprise, reorganized and stressed more efficiency in the public relation and publicity department. As a result the Cosmo Club is more widely known by the golfing public of southern California, than ever before. Cosmopolitan members handicaps are accepted in practically every invitational and open events held in Southern California.

Cosmos have made creditable showings in several major events in the area. Al McDaniels halved for top amateur honors in the Culver City Open, which was quite an achievement. McDaniels also went to the semi-finals in the City Championship tourney held at Rancho. He went down to the course record holder 2 and 1. "Thop" Smith went to the quarter finals in this same event. Lorimer Mathews and Henry Wolfe went to the finals before being eliminated in their respective flights. In the Santa Anita Open, Jess Colbert gained the runner up honors in C flight. In our major Sepia tournaments, Cosmos have snared the bulk of them. Dr. C. A. Bradford got home first in the Elks journey at San Diego. It was "Thop" Smith who took the course apart in the Portland Leisure Hour event, with McDaniels as runner up. Sheldon Ellis was the A flight winner there. The veteran stellar performer, Oscar Cleby, nipped the boys with a Garrison finish in the Vernondale Open. Emory Cain and Lonnie Eberhardt were victors in the Golden State club tournament. As the curtain fell for the season, Willie Rayson got in the winners circle in the San Diego's Paramount Club meet. Oscar Moore was the only winner among the Cosmos who went to the National Open at Kansas City. Moore won D flight Consolation trophy. All in all i thas been a great year for the Cosmo Club and may the Olympians continue to smile upon this worthy group thruout the ensuing year and forever.

Madree Jackson won the pre-Xmas Vernondale tourney held at Fox Hills West course, shooting an 85 (7)-78 to edge out steady swinging Thelma Cowan who had an 82 (3)-79. Madree whohas been woefully off her game this season, has apparently found the range again. With the confidence gained from this victory, she should be heard from regularly in the future.

Cowan, who shot a 44 on the front side, came back with a noteworthy 38, which was almost good enough to catch the winner.

Josie Johnson won B flight with a very creditable 89 (20)-69. "Careful Josie, the handicap chairman has her eye on you." Gladys Mitchell's net 79 was good enough for runner up honors in B flight.

Inez Coleman, popular Milomo waitress, enjoyed her first win by bagging C flight-honors with a net 92. Salud! Inez. Ruth Clisby netted a 95 to finish in the runner up spot here.

This tournament was followed by a joint presentation and Xmas party at Pres. Mae tt Xmas party at President Mae Crowder's home, where the winners were awarded turkeys and the runner ups, antique china cigarette sets. These awards were donated and presented by Bessie Garcia, asister Vernondaler.

F. Donovan, Noted Boxing Fan Stresses Need for Efficiency

It is the anomalous aspects and fallacious phases of boxing ad not television that make its promotion a vexatious problem and a hazardous commercial venture. However, it must be stressed and constantly borne in mind that greater efficiency is the paramount need of professional boxing. The smart, successful fighters, in a given community, always represent a minority and can be counted on the fingers of one hand. The remainder are just tolerated as necessary evils, being merely inept nonentities of the run-of-the-mill type. The latter, failing to thrive or qualify when subjected to the acid test, are subsequently relegated to futile oblivion like their ignoble predecessors, who, too, in their brief career had their innings, and proved themselves impostors, by futilely striving after the unattainable in the realm of boxing. A fighter's innate intelligence is always strikingly reflected in his style of boxing, the counter puncher, especially, being of the admirable, mental type.

Two Categories

Obviously, fighters come in two categories, punchers and boxers, but save in rare individual cases, the punchers can't box and the boxers can't punch. The same abnormal deplorable situation prevails in the realm of baseball; some players can field, but can't hit, and vice versa.

This lamentable discrepancy makes fighters, who in most cases, have in their repertoire or bag of tricks, but a mere smattering of the niceties of ring lore, only about 50% efficient, and when gainfully employed, detracts commensurably from their success, popularity and pulling power at the gate, much to the discomfiture and exasperation of the hapless promoters, who, as a consequence, face bankruptcy because of their charges' lack of the requisites, inseparable from the coveted commercial objectives.

On the other hand, in sharp contrast, the indomitable, phenomenal and versatile fighter, being in a class by himself for general proficiency and commercial value, never fails to impress, and whenever his technique, natural aptitude and prowess are peremptorily challenged and subjected to

Signs Contract

BOB BOYD—First baseman and outfielder, signs his 1954 contract with the Chicago White Sox. In 55 games he batted .297.

Reyes Vs. Skidmore

Oscar Reyes will open the 1954 boxing season at the Olympic Auditorium this Tuesday night when he faces Oakland's Frank Skidmore in the 10-round feature. Reyes let it be known among the boxing gentry that he's after the big boys and he included in his list of 1954 bouts a go with Art Aragon.

Don Grant Wins First Main Bout

Don Grant is one of the hottest middleweights to come up from the junior ranks and make good his bid for the big times. Grant batted Jesse Fuentes into submission in 2:50 of the fifth canto at the Olympic last Tuesday night.

Grant hammered Fuentes to the canvas in the third round as a preview of things to come. He later sent his foe to the deck twice more and Referee Mushy Callahan halted the set to in the fifth. This is young Grant's 11th straight ring victory.

SANTA ANITA—The beautiful Santa Anita course played host to more than 62,000 lovers of the sport of kings on opening day, and the fans sent $2,453,858 through the mutuels. It was the third largest opening day crowd. The previous high of $2,250,394 was set at the start of the 1949-1950 meeting when a record opening-day crowd of 65,542 was counted through the turnstiles. In spite of a 65 cent increase in general admission price, the crowd substantially exceeded last year's first-day turnout of 55,623.

RAMSEY

Longshot players had a field day. Starting off with Tiger Jay in the first race to pay a lush mutuel of $26.40, the highest payoff was on Travertine, a field horse who won the featured Palos Verdes Handicap. Backers of the field received $70.10 for a $2 ducat. The fans were thrilled over the inaugural racing over Santa Anita's new quarter-million-dollar grass track. Little Willie Shoemaker, the world's leading jockey, had the honor of riding the winner over this intriguing new attraction. The race was a mile and one-half. He kept his mount close to the early pace and as they turned for home he gave the gray mare her head in one of his typical rides and won drawing out by three lengths. Empilahada paid $8.20.

The Los Angeles Turf Club, Inc., will honor Shoemaker on Thursday, Dec. 31, by presentation of a special plaque commemorating the 22-year-old jockey's spectacular 1953 record. The features for this week are the California Breeders' Trial Stake to be run Wednesday at seven furlongs and carries an added value of $25,000. On Friday, January 1, the San Pasqual Handicap at one mile and one-sixteenth will be the featured event. It also carries an added value of $25,000. Saturday, January 2, the Malibu Sequet Stakes at seven furlongs will be the main attraction with an added value of $25,000.

CALIENTE IN OLD MEXICO—Apprentice Willy Harmatz, the leading rider of the border course, scored a triple to increase his record of total winners to 49 for the last half of the year. As this Baja California track brought its 1953 season to a close with a surprising mutuel handle of $200,046, more than 6300 fans turned out for the races and the opening of Caliente's future book on the $100.000 guaranteed to the winner Santa Anita Handicap.

GILLIAM NAMED ROOKIE OF YEAR

As expected, James (Junior) Gilliam, who took over Jackie Robinson's post at second base for the Brooklyn Dodgers last spring and proved his worth, was named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Gilliam, who wasn't on the Dodgers' pre-season roster, was voted the most valuable player in the International League in 1952. He batted .278 in 151 games. He drove in 63 runs and included in his hitting, six homers, 17 triples and 31 doubles. His 17 triples led the league.

Brady Keys Named Loop Top Player

Brady Keys, Polytechnic's sensational halfback, has been named the Eastern League's prep player of the year. The fleet-footed back led his team to the city play-off finals, in which Poly almost upset heavily favored San Fernando, 18-20.

Keys, only a junior, the six-foot 165-pounder scored 54 points in 10 games and performed equally well on defense, where he played safety.

Seth Lee gaily off to Berkeley for this last holiday weekend and darn glad to be. Ruth Lee went up earlier and is dancing on all sets in that area, and why not? The Bob Allens (Dotti) set the date for the christening of their son, Tony. End of Jan. His Uncle Bill will be back from the east in time. Kate Garcia grabbed her car and tore out for S. F. for New Year's Eve whoopdeedo.

Cal Bailey who was in town for Xmas returned to his Hotel Fairmont room in S. F. then turned around and flew right back here for the Rose Bowl. Mil Blount poured eggnog Satd. nite for him. Later, Grace Casenave, looking seductive in black, had a houseful of us in, holiday tempo. The Beatys of Berkeley left Tues. a.m. for home. They return next month. The Roy Spencers (Bee) had a gay Xmas morn houseful.

Highlight: Housewarming out Encino way Sun. nite of this newest house of Frank Jackson and Eadward Deason. It was originally an old fashioned carriage house; they've done a fantastic job remodeling it. Champagne, all shades, flowed like crazy all night, folks came and went, suckling pigs got disposed of. One of the most stimulating holiday parties on record, this event!

Co-Host Frank told us he expects to be an uncle sooner than all of them expected. Earl Griffin near the bar reported his L'Tanya has urge to return to Paris, maybe in Febr. If she does, he'll follow her not long after. June Eckstine, decoratively present. I repeat, four-star, all of it.

Seeing Mable Scott around town again even if briefly is mighty nice, yep. Somewhere at some time during the Yule we ran into (or was it around?) Wendell Franklin, who reported he's off to N. Y. for a week soon. Likewise we saw Floyd Ray and he reported he's getting ready to form another band. A beeg one. Going east.

Girl Friends entertained, as annually they do at Xmas. . . Wilfandel, Sun. evening. And collectively they looked like the middle section of Vogue, just off press. Smart, very, every one. And their buffet and sparkling champagne was in the fabulous class, no less. It's always cozily nice seeing ole friends at their affairs, folk you just don't see as the weeks go from Xmas to Xmas. There, Edith Jones Boyd's mother who told us she expected Edith and the baby this past Tues. from N. Y. for a visit. Dr. Ulysees Bourne of Frederick, Md., visiting Dr. and Mrs. Ed Hawkins.

Elsie Foster had her usual Xmas noon party and it jumped. Her club, Doce Amigas, entertained at her house Sun. night. Chics. Atty. Jesse Mann and his mother will learn here their local friends have idea they arrive here in Jan. to buy property. Peggy Williston Mayo's army officer mate boards an L.A. plane in Korea this weekend. Pivot: Mil Blount rushing with friends into the Ebell Theater and casually wrapped in her Xmas gift, a champagne broadtail coat. Hey now!

Add Pivot: Luvercha Bray, diamonds glittering, going to eggnog. Luther Thompson, discharged from Sawtelle, had his gang come by his house Xmas for a rousing drink or so. Ann (Hunter) and George Craig had friends in Sun. for champagne and to see their wedding gifts. Carmelita Black-Lomax has moved to Mexico City permanently she has informed her family.

Gladys Collins-Lott and her brother Nat had a Xmas nite houseful of festive friends. Saw the Nat Coles relaxing at Club Pigalle one night late. Xmas at their house is always a joy for everybody. Byron Edwards, shepherding a party of buddies into the new Moulin Rouge nite-spot out Hollywood way on opening night, his guests. They did the town for some twenty-four hours or more after that.

Ruby Berkeley Goodwin's book got a fairly good N. Y. (daily) press, all things being considered. January Calendar: Maurine Browning birthdays on the 30th. Dr. Tom Griffin dittoes on the 19th. Betty and Mickey Jones have an anniversary on the 21st. J. Cullen Fentress and his wife mark the 16th as their anniversary. Wesleen Foster birthdays on the 23rd. her mother has hers on the 27th. And come to think of it now don't Betty and Jim Scott both have Jan. birthdays?

H. J.: And did the goose hang high in St. Loo?

Impression over a champagne glass at the Jackson-Deason affair: Examining Dotti (Crozier) and Bobby Lewis as they sat together so tremendously decorative in a dramatic antique love-seat under a soft light bracket, they're a handsome pair of young-marrieds, by golly. They should be modeling things by Howard Greer, Jerry Rothschild and such elegant co.

Quick glimpse: Juanita Miller rushing madly trying valiantly to at least look-in on many of their holiday invitations. And, further along, a look as Corrine Osborne drove by, making time to an a.m. eggnog hoedown. Her living room ceiling is quite unlike anything I've ever seen, incidentally. Looks like a stage setting.

What a terrific impact Emma Adams' radiant smile gives! I think she's pretty. The Lurue Moores entertained Sun. Ann Oliver there, and ably portraying her role as one of the better dressed club presidents around town. She swept in, wrapped in yards of fox over a black and white print, diamonds on fire and one of these second-act-curtain hats designed to annoy the other women there. She upset, yep.

There's no woman in town who quite makes the exotic electrifying entrance into a room as does Ouida Williams. And with no effort on her part either. She's a revelation.

I'm off to S. F. now. C'mon, why not? We'll meet at the Top o' The Mark for a martini at 5 p.m., huh?

Authors Club Slates Meet

Our Authors Study Club, Los Angeles Branch of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Lillian Williams, 2425 8th Avenue.

The meeting will be a regular meeting of the club and it is anticipated that a large group of members will be present.

Mrs. Vesta D. Wright, newly appointed national officer of the association in charge of clubs and branches, will present a full report from the national conference held in Nashville.

Mrs. Hazel Whitaker Moore, the History Week Chairman, will give highlights of the preliminary planning for the coming 1954 Negro History Week.

Participants in the skit, "Two Pieces," directed by Mrs. Florence Crooks and recently given at Nelson Methodist Church, will be especially honored at this meeting.

Townsends Fete 16th Anniversary

Attorney and Mrs. Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., the former Lilyan Elizabeth Mansfield, observed their sixteenth Wedding Anniversary Christmas Day, at their home, 3662 South Arlington Avenue.

The day was spent with a re-reading of their Marital Vows and with a small family dinner which was attended by the family of Mrs. Townsend's brother, Bowling Mansfield, his wife, Elizabeth, his two daughters, Judith and Sylvia, and the fiance of the latter, Arthur Osbourne, and Mrs. Bessie Johnson, long-time friend of the Townsends.

After the family dinner, the Townsends were visited by a host of friends and well-wishers. They also received many messages of congratulations on the festive occasion.

The home of the Townsends was beautifully decorated with Christmas colors, lights and tree, and they were the happy recipients of many gifts.

Cooperettes End Fourth Successful Group Year

The officers of the Cooperettes Social and Charity club again had a most successful year.

Officers are: president, Ann Craig; vice-president, Josie Stewart; secretary, Marjorie Parker; corresponding secretary, Christine Glassco; treasurer, Vivian Hill; assistant treasurer, Marie Holmes; business manager, Helen Stewart; sgt.-at-arms, Callie Buford; publicity manager, Beatrice Bradley; parliamentarian, Ophelia Huntley; and historian, Genieve Fisher. Members include: Lilia Durden, Oweda Tyus, Orlean Washington, Mary Jones, Ruth Smith and Geraldine Britt.

Merit has been added to the club name for the various charitable deeds extended. The Cooperettes wish to express thanks to their many friends for patronage they extended this year in helping them to make this possible.

Charity is the club's main objective and during this Yuletide season the club donated new clothing to the Watts area teenage boys and girls through a Foster-Care Unit in the Los Angeles County Department of Charities Christmas Cheer Drive.

Along the lines of social activity, an Indian Summer Spring dance was held in the spacious Elks Auditorium in the month of September. The public's assistance was appreciated at the tea and fashion show held at the beautiful Wilfandel House in May.

In the annual flower hat show held at the Florentine Gardens in November, the Cooperettes won 2nd prize with the theme, "All Nations."

The club also participated in the YWCA Fund Raising campaign and won first place by raising the most money for this renowned organization.

The club was invited to be honored guests at the Morroco Supper Club where the members were royally entertained.

The Cooperettes again thank the public for making the year 1953 a successful one, and sincerely hope the coming year will be even better for both the public and members of the club.

Deltas' Christmas Dance Proves Sparkling Event

Over 1500 people attended the annual Christmas dance given by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority at the Zenda ballroom on Dec. 28. The main room was gaily decorated with snow laden Christmas trees complete with a myriad of red satin bows. Huge columns lining the dance floor were girdled with wide streamers of red ribbon tied in immense bows.

Socially Significant

Seen enjoying all this yuletide splendor were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Nance, Mrs. Thelma Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward White, the Luther Hudsons, Johnetta Starks, resplendent in a metallic topped gown, the J. Hampton Sterlings, Atty. and Mrs. Carl Earls, and the Roger Masons.

Among those dancing blithely were Walter and Terry Hutchinson, Charles and Chestine Brown, Jacob and Doris Hudson, Fred and Wink Christmas, Booker and Thomasina Washington, Jesse and Rita Smith, Herman and Ethel Ingram and Ruth C. Robinson and her escort, Rommie Cole.

Dancesational Affair

Strolling about the ballroom were the Leroy Gills, the Kinckle Spencers, Jean Watkins, Florelle Pierson, pres. of Pi, Danellyn Mabry, Myra Dickerson, Theresa Simms, Bessie Thomas, Evelyn Grace and Floraline Ingraham.

Deep in animated conversation were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Woods, the Rufus Portwigs, Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Williams recently returned from Japan, the Delta Mothers, Mrs. Brewington, pres. of the Delta Mothers' Club, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Duffy.

Some others enjoying dancing were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Foster, Sorors Lillian Payne, Ora Jones, Lucille Wilson, Gaynelle Miles, Helen Lomax, Ernize Mazique, Judith McElroy beautiful in white satin, and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hayes.

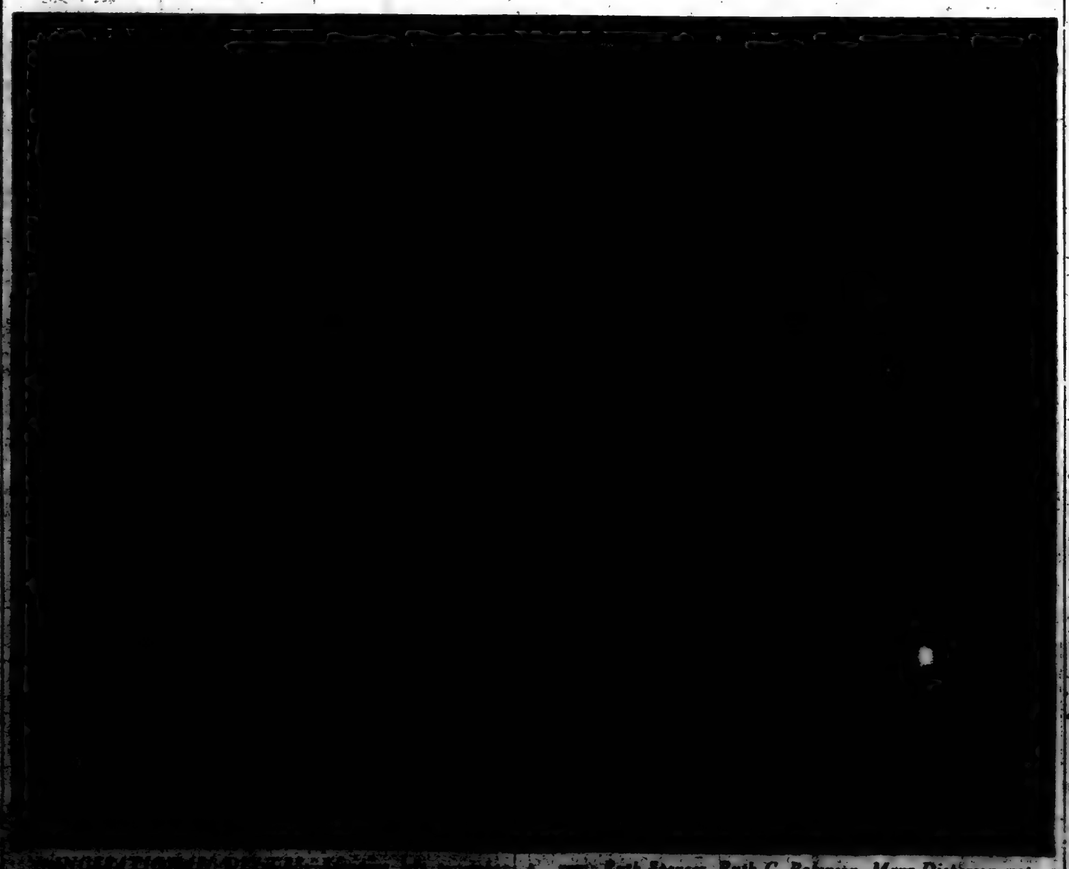
Jovial Gathering

Spotted in the huge holiday crowd were Sorors Vivian Dunning, Lavinia Hilton, Anita Ford, Hilda Allen, Eula Dean Winge. Seen also were Sorors Joan Pierson, Loyce Pleasants and Mary Jane Strong, James and Florence Anderson and Mrs. Ruth Briggs as well as Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Moore and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker.

Charlite Club Posts Proud '53 Achievements

The Charlite Social and Charity club held its last meeting for the year at the home of the president, Mrs. Vivian Bettis, Dec. 26. Inspiring reports for the year were made by the various officers and committee chairmen making the Charlites quite proud of their accomplishments for the year 1953.

The members recently contributed $50 to the Los Angeles Branch NAACP; $50 to the YWCA Camp Fund and $100 to the Braille Institute of America.



This being the last meeting chaired by Vivian Bettis, who has served as club president since the club was organized four years ago, she very graciously thanked the members for their hearty support and cooperation, and encouraged the new president for 1954, Mrs. Janet Hickman, to continue the struggle with the assurance of the ex-president's full support. Mrs. Hickman is the wife of Dr. Maurice Hickman.

Other new officers for 1954 are: Mattie Brooks, vice president; Rebecca Alexander, secretary; Thelma Dailey, financial secretary; Lillian Allen, treasurer; Frankie Ross, business manager; Vivian Bettis, reporter and critic, and Jerri Dunn, chaplain. Mrs. Rose Talley, a local school teacher, recently joined the group.

Immediately after the meeting, the members and a group of friends enjoyed a wonderful Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged among the members and cocktails, dining, and dancing went on and on into the wee wee hours of the morning.

The Charlites wish to thank their many friends for their whole-hearted support during 1953, and wish them one and all a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

DELTAS SPREAD YULETIDE CHEER

Kappas Fete Children At Christmas Day Party

Eager anticipation was on the face of every child that stepped upon the porch of the Castle . . . anxious to see what Santa had planned for him, via the Kappa Spirit.

They were not disappointed.

As they opened the door, the proud enormous, Christmas tree greeted them.

Wanting to be part of the giving at Christmas, each handed his token for the poor to the Silhouette hostess at the door.

Hartwarming stories were told. Games were played. Entertainment was enjoyed. Little Tony Lewis danced gracefully, as if she were one of Santa's prize fairies.

Colorful, delicious goodies were placed on the huge banquet table. Tall red candles were lit, and the children called, called to enjoy a wonderful Christmas feast. Santa must have been proud of Blanch Merriel and Dorothy Baylyff. It seemed they were handpicked by him to supervise the affair.

When the small tummies were filled, Santa was waiting in the hall with gifts. Gifts for all. Under the jolly face of Santa was the smiling face of Jimmy Bayiyff. He was happy to be portraying such a popular gent.

Pictures were taken for Santa's scrapbook. The children smiled for the camera. Willa Jean Lewis and Jewel Randolf smiled, too, for they felt the children enjoyed the games, and entertainment. Helen Smith smiled. As proxy of the Silhouettes, she felt the girls brought another Kappa Children's Christmas Party to a successful end. Happy New Year. Only 365 days until another Kappa Children's Christmas Party.

Mrs. Redd Likes Surprise Affair

Mrs. D. J. Redd, wife of Rev. E. S. Redd, was honored on her birthday, Wednesday night, Dec. 23, with a surprise party, at her home, 2510 Sixth avenue.

Hosting the gala affair were the couple's daughter, Ruth, assisted by her sisters, Dorothy Cloud, Pauline Williams, Frances Peop and brother Harry Redd.

Guests included members of the Mary Missionary Circle and the hostesses' immediate families. Various games were played during the evening and prizes were won by Paul Cassell, Dr. Emily Dean and Clarence Wofford.

Mid-Winter Classes Offered at Y Branch

NOTED TOURISTS FLOCK TO MIAMI

MIAMI — Tourists are finding this winter vacation spot more and more to their liking, according to Thomas Collier, manager of the newly opened Miami Carver hotel.

Onetime considered taboo because of the lack of decent housing accommodations and the restrictions placed on where one could go to amuse himself publicly, Collier said that recent events have changed this pattern considerably. The lessening of tensions between the races, the acceptance of Negroes in many Miami Beach niteclubs and shopping centers and the building of new hotels is definitely responsible for the increased influx of sepia visitors, he added.

"Whenever anyone wants to go over to the Beach to see one of the niteclub shows all he has to do is make reservations and doesn't have to suffer fear of being turned away at the door," Collier stated.

"Ths Beachcomber, Ciro's, Martha Raye's Five O'Clock Club and other top cafes gladly accept Negro patronage. This fact even induced Morris Levy, owner of New York's Birdland jazz spot, here and he told sevtype club here and he told several people that he wouldn't have done so unless Negroes could be welcomed to his club here, in the same manner as they are in New York."

At one time the Mary Elizabeth hotel was the largest hotel catering to Negro tourists. But in the last few years the Lord Calvert and the Carver opened their doors and even large Negro fraternities, sororities and societies are now planning to convene here.

Added to this is the splendid race relations job being carried out without fanfare by Negro civic leaders. Dr. Ira P. Davis, a local dentist and a power in local politics, is constantly in conference with city officials trying to iron out situations that improve the lot of the tourist and make him want to return. He has impressed them with the idea that if Negroes from the 48 states are to be attracted to this "land of sunshine" they must be assured that they won't in any way be embarrassed while spending their dollars.

Mrs. Lillie Jackson Re-elected Head of Baltimore NAACP

BALTIMORE—Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson this week began serving her 18th year as president of the Baltimore branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People which under her leadership has become one of the nation's three largest local units.

Unanimously reelected to the position at the branch's annual meeting on December 1, Mrs. Jackson reported that the Baltimore branch had a membership of 6,570 and had raised $20,000 during the membership drive. She said that the branch will attain a membership of 7,000 or more by the end of 1953.

Houstonians Real Santa For Kiddies

There will always be a Santa Claus as long as there are members of the community-conscious Houstonians Social and Charity club. In a huge Christmas party Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Slauson Playground, they entertained more than 75 youngsters. It was a grand affair for the smiling, bright-eyed children who enjoyed games and an exchange of gifts.

The social and charitable club, long known for its work in the community, also presented several food baskets to needy families. The members included were: Mabel Conners, Frances Williams, Ruby Hogan, Dorothy More, Mae Rose Burrell, Clara Wright, director at Slauson Playground, Lawrence Burrell, president, Don Lee Everett, Ray Moore, Maurice Harrison, Charles Debatro.

The Houstonians plan to adopt this method of spreading Christmas cheer as one of their annual projects.

Pacific Town Club Scene Of Sorority Dinner Party

For one beauteous bevy of popular, winsome Southlanders, the merry holiday whirl crescendoed into a glamorous climax on the night of Dec. 18 at the beautiful Pacific Town Club where Alpha Gamma Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority entertained their husbands and sweethearts at their annual Christmas Dinner Dance.

The Club's dining room, beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif, was filled for the social occasion of the week. A delectable dinner was served at the candle-lighted tables. The picturesque candles which were on each table had been made especially for this occasion by members of the program committee.

Ezra Scott and his popular musicians played for the dancing. The evening will linger for a long time as a delightful memory. The elaborate plans for the affair were handled by the Program Committee. This year's chairman is Mrs. Katherwn Graham. Co-chairman for the dinner dance was Mrs. Vivian Strange. Other members are Gwendolyn Bradfield, Eugenia Scott, Gwendolyn Dusuau, Ida Wigley, Dora Taylor, Benzell Graham, Cullie Lee Gay, Agnes Le Doux, Euvalda Morris, Cleopatra Johnson, Retha Beck, Helen Green, Armenda Nelson, Thelma Tinker, Velma Becks, Norma Earles, Vivian Gray, Jessie McDaniel, Zenobia Allen, Lenore Saulsberry, Elizabeth Harper, Edythe Owens, Verna Dauterive, Katie Wilson, Marie Flenoury, Audrey Jones, Bernice Wright, Kathryn Sims, Danetta Johnson, Mildred Knox, Shirley Green, Clothilde Woodard, Alice Long, Vivian Calhoun, Consuela Frye, Glodeen McClaine, Lillian Butterfield and Essie Tucker.

Women Ask Approval Of School Case Holding

WASHINGTON — The National Council of Negro Women, following program directives emanating from the community workshops conducted at the annual convention held in November in Washington, have issued a special bulletin to all local and junior councils and national affiliated organizations urging them to prepare their communities for a possible decision outlawing segregation in the public schools of the nation.

Intergroup meetings of local leaders of both races, discussion sessions on the whys and wherefores of legal action now in the hands of the Supreme Court, the studied use of information pamphlets issued by the Southern Regional Council on the "Schools and The Supreme Court," were some of the recommendations to the entire membership of the National Council of Negro Women.

Mrs. William Thomas Mason, the newly elected national president of the organization stated today: "Negro and white citizens must prepare for the great change in an orderly, civilized and democratic manner. America has an unprecedented opportunity to take a 'soul size' step in establishing and maintaining one more vital life link, welding together the people of America for mutual progress and protection. Education for democracy and for living cannot possibly be achieved in a segregated school system."

Johnny Lee In New Play At Showcase

One of the nation's top comics, Johnny (Calhoun) Lee, a fixture in both the radio and television versions of the Amos 'n' Andy shows, has a featured role in the forthcoming Ebony Showcase offering, "Three Men On a Horse," slated to open at the popular little theatre, 2182 W. Washington Blvd., on Monday evening, Jan. 4.

Others who have prominent roles in the Ebony comedy are James Edwards, Mauri Lynn, Suzette Harbin, Joel Fluellen, Morris Buchanan, Nick Stewart, Ted Lange, Sammy Gardner and Tallulah Pettigrew.

Nick and Edna Stewart, founders of Ebony Showcase, will produce the rollicking comedy and Ned Glass will direct. The play will be presented nightly at 8:30 o'clock, except Mondays. Popular prices will prevail. Reservations may be made at 2182 W. Washington blvd., or by calling REpublic 6448.

Lee, who will enact the part of "Charlie" in the George Abbott-authored Broadway comedy hit, has starred in top-notch productions for more than a quarter century. These include "Sugar Hill," "The Hot Mikado," starring the late Bill Robinson, Doc Strange's Shows and was one half of the famous comic teams as Miller and Lee, Swan and Lee and Johnson and Lee. He is especially proud of his active membership in the Holman Methodist church here.

Supervisors Name Jan. 5 Carver Day

The County Board of Supervisors this week named Jan. 5 "George Washington Carver Day," and commended the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity.

The resolution, passed Dec. 29, follows:

"Whereas, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity each year designates Jan. 5 as a day to honor the memory of the late Dr. George Washington Carver; and

"Whereas, Dr. Carver's rise to a position of world eminence in science and the humanities from his birth as a slave is an inspiring saga of courage and determination based on his love for his fellow man; and

"Whereas, many of the good things of life which we enjoy today are directly attributable to the unselfish and devoted work of this great man;

"Now, therefore be it resolved by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles that the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity be commended for its annual homage to this great man, and that Jan. 5, 1954, be designated as "George Washington Carver Day"; and

"Be it further resolved that an engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to H. A. Howard, director of the Western Region of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc."

El Centro Club Hears Neusom

EL CENTRO. — "The five cases on segregation in elementary schools now pending before the United States Supreme Court mark the biggest event in the field of civil rights since the Emancipation Proclamation," asserted Atty. Thomas G. Neusom of Los Angeles on Friday night. Neusom was addressing an Equal Education Banquet sponsored by the Young Women's Civic Improvement Club at the Ben Hulse Auditorium, where he shared speaking honors with Mrs. Ruth Kepley, Superintendent of Imperial County Schools.

Mrs. Kepley pointed out that the Pilgrims journeyed to this country for two primary purposes—freedom of religion and to secure an education for their children. She stated that "Education is essential for all people in a democratic system regardless of race, color, or creed."

Mrs. Arbutus Jones was toastmistress and Frank McCoy entertained the guests with piano selections during the dinner. Rev. Franklin Mays gave the invocation and Rev. Walter Gray spoke the benediction.

'Human Circle' Rally Slated

Sunday will be another busy day at Kingdom Church, 2808 Temple St., when Church School under the leadership of the efficient young Superintendent Louis Swayne, will sponsor a "Human Circle" rally, directed by Mrs. Edna Mae Jackson. Each member is asked to bring one or more persons so that members encircle the Church hand in hand.

At 6 p.m. there will be a trial sermon by Hobert Allen, age 11 years, son of the associate pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Herman Allen. Hobert, who is an active member of the church school, has declared his "Divine call" to the church.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Human Relations Meet Scheduled

At the request of Chairman John Anson Ford, the Board of Supervisors this week instructed County Superintendent of Schools C. C. Trillingham to plan a workshop conference on human relations during the early part of 1954.

Purpose of the gathering will be to discuss ways and means of reducing interracial and other frictions between groups within the county's population, including conditions leading to juvenile gang outbreaks. A similar workshop was held in 1945.

The conference will be under the general auspices of the County government's Committee on Human Relations, of which Superintendent Trillingham is a member. In attendance will be various officers of County government involved in handling human relations, education, controlling juvenile delinquency and suppressing crime.

People and Places

WALTER STANLEY gets the year's top billing in this pillar for having the most expensive pasttime. The dapper co-owner of a Texaco station just finished tearing up his second cadillac in that many weeks!

ANGELLE DE LAVALLADE, the ex-California beauty, blew into town the other eve with her youn son, Michael. Both will be in town for a week. Angelle is as radiant as ever and Chicago is most certainly agreeing with her beauty. It's been three years since she's been home! The wolves will get a lot of action with both Althea Polk and Angelle about the city!

FAT STONE just hired Dickie Barrow to team with Ike Royal, the former Ink Spots warbler and pianist. The two will be the smart Club Hillcrest New Year's eve night attraction. Barrows promises to sing in several languages picked up on his recent European and Alaska tour!

MAJOR ROBINSON, Jet's top-flight penner of the widely read New York Beat! Our man Chazz Crawford said he got your message from Garcia!

NEAL BRADFORD, ex-nabber, is operating a likker store at 48th and Central. He especially doesn't want the brothers from Jute Mill to show. However, he will greet the looted brothers. Neal has always been a right guy so drop in and give him a play.

THIEVES broke in and hauled away 150 pounds of dressed turkeys from ex-lightweight kingpin John Thomas' poultry market over the holidays!

B.V.A.'s, the ex-show stoppers, really tossed a jammed-up Christmas party the other eve at the Hotel Cosmopolitan. Big name attractions were Nat King Cole, Sammy Davis, Ernie Andrews, Betty Threadville, Joe Adams, Harry Mills, Archie Savage, Lee Gaines, James Edwards and we lost our notes between bottles! Mills and Davis were made honorary members!

TRICKY DAVIS, perhaps one of the grandest guys you ever want to meet, will be greeting his friends from the Milomo on Western Avenoo! Bal and Bert hired him to bring back the good ole gang! Let's drop in tonight!

DR. J. A. SOMERVILLE, who was singled out for the Order of the British Empire by the Queen, will get a check for $10,000, my British subjects inform me!

ELIHU MCGEE, the big time sportsman, was gifted an imported English-made raincoat by his Elizabeth to take in the outdoor games.

CAMPUS CUT-UPS. A popular College Coed is gone behind LeRoy Bolden, the Michigan footballer. She visits the practice field every day to get a glimpse of him.

ON THE RECORD penned an item the other day to the fact that there are only four Negro-owned newspapers in our fair city and they should get together and form a publishers' association! I might add: to rid the front porches of so much Thursday morning ----- trash!

ALTHEA POLK blew into town to be greeted by some 200 at a cocktail party arranged by her mother and father. The brownskin beauty has caused the summer to come quickly in Alaska for the last two years.

PRODICAL DAUGHTER RETURNS

BIXIE CRAWFORD, dynamic daughter of Juanita C. Macklin, returned to spend the holidays in her own home town. Currently chirping with Count Basie's crew, Bixie's "Wax Works" are among the current best sellers.

THAT MAN SCATMAN IS ON HIS WAY!

SCATMAN WITH "STRINGS" . . . The inimitable Mr. Crothers is one of our choices of performers who are "going places in a hurry" in the new year. His particular brand of showmanship is hard to match, so he's a pretty safe bet.

"Chazz" Crawford's "SOUND TRACK"

These Are the Facts, Mamselle!

Jimmie Witherspoon's "Slow Gin and Fast Women" will grab most of the blues-rhythm money in the early fifty-four! . . . Most refreshing new comedy act: Grin and Bear It! That's Mary Johnson and Byron Ellis. At the Californian. Hey, Sam Hudson, it pays to advertise on these pages! . . . Scat Man Crothers (with a lustra silk hairdo that won't quit) is wrapping up the theatrical rialto with teevee, flickers, and life on the wicked nitery stages. He's the guy to watch while the year is still a baby! . . . Completely floored by Mabel Scott's terrific songstuff at Pigalle the other midnight: Jo Holmes, Dalphine Moore, Johnny Gory, Doris "China Doll" Spencer, Archie Thurston, Dorothy Boone, Buster Beauragard, Roy Glenn, James Edwards, and a multitude. Ernie Andrews was guesting that night, and Mabel told everyone within earshot that this boy is going to be SO BIG in the next year, it's frightening. He'll make a milyun dollars is just what the lady said. Ernie tells folks who are already comparing him with Eckstein that he'd like to "make it" too, but B is still boss! . . . Who didn't try to squeeze in to the Les Dames Florentine affair and the BVA's (those beautiful dolls) Xmas frolic at Cosmopolitan? . . . Oh, oh, the way the spirits flowed, and those good times rolled, we'll bet you needed Calso! . . . Sammy Davis Jr. and Joe Adams honored by the Benevolent gals with honorary lifetime memberships. Two worthy guys who are always so generous with their time, Alyce Key: We think Sammy is the world's greatest living entertainer! We agree! . . . The "messarooney" staged by Curtis Mosby and dance-producer at S. F. supper club, Lon Fontaine brought out the gendarmes. Slander charges may be in the offing!

Petite Sylvia Moon will have a splash in Ebony mag. She's the diminutive show-dool, who is being deluged with fanmail after hte sexy shot in pint size Jet mag. Last week, the songbird posed for a nation-wide beer ad. When Lon Fontaine takes his spectacular "3 Shades of Blue" product into Oasis January 7, La Moon will be featured in his "Tragedy In Paris" sequence! . . . Because of the row kicked up by local big "Wigs" over Eartha Kitt's appearance before royalty here, the dimpled miss is fretting over the title of her forthcoming RCA Victor album titled "Bab Eartha" . . . she shouldn't be concerned atall just because those few had trouble keeping their mnids on the curb! . . . Postal authorities claimed that 20% of St. Nick's mail from the kiddies began: Dear Santa Baby! . . . and that reminds us to reply to the gal who wrote us from Pasadena. Yes, Virginia, there is a Memphis Slim!

Smooth As Silk Items: Harry Belafonte's warbling of "Acorn In The Meadow" from Broadway show Almanac! . . . Pearlie Mae Baily's "I Love That Argentine." . . . Cleo Cloman and Carl H. Gipson's Club Capri, the place to go on the westside. Thanks to those gents for their wonderful hospitality that's as refreshing as a cure for boredom! . . . Kitty White's "Jesse James" waxing! . . . Frantic Fay Thomas, the holiday attraction at the Turban Room. . . . Hey Poison Gardner, Fay is the femme 'terror of the keyboard." . . . Belated congrats to our favorite newlyweds, the James Edwardses for giving Cupid a new lease on life! . . . And posies to another happily married couple who always look as if they're still on the honeymoon: The Charles Burrises (nee Juanita Moore). . . . The Archie Savage new dance trio tops over at this typewriter. The youngsters comprise Marcus Gordon, Sidney Hurston, and Mary Lou Brooks!

Margee McGlory who pens pals in our burg that she's "almost a star" . . . whaddaya mean "almost." . . . An aside ot Major Robinson: Thanks ol

THEATRE

Spanish Dances At Philharmonic New Year's Eve

Antonio and Luisa Triana, authorities on the Spanish Dance, whose recent recital in Philharmonic Auditorium brought cheers from the delighted capacity audience, are preparing a special New Year's Eve dance program to be offered in Philharmonic Auditorium.

Dancesational

Featuring Jeronimo Villarino, guitarist; Olegna Fuschi, pianist; and dancers Sr. W. de Morelli, Juanita Moreno, Elena Luna, Lupita Ysais, Tomas Muro, Elvira Carona and Ana Ramos, the group will offer fiery flamenco and gypsy dances from the Provinces of Granada, as well as popular and traditional dances of their native Madrid and Seville.

Clicking castanets and swirling skirts and tapping heels will dominate Philharmonic Auditorium stage as the group whirls through such dances as "Vida Breno" to the music of Manuel de Falla; "Sacro Monte" by Turina; a Bolero by Ravel; -"L'Arlesiene" by Bizet; "Asturianas" by Matos; and a Polo by Albeniz.

Guitarist Jeronimo Villarino, in addition to his solos, will accompany Antonio and Luisa Triano in the fast flamenco.

Good seats are now available for this one special New Year's Eve performance, which incidentally, will be the only stage show to be given New Year's Eve in the downtown Los Angeles area.

Tickets are on sale at popular prices at the box office and all Mutual Agencies throughout Southern California.

— HOLIDAY TREAT —

LADY DAY IS THE ORDER OF THE NIGHT AT TIFFANY—The "torchants" of the lady who helped make jazz famous is keeping the turnstiles at the Tiffany lounge clicking merrily. Her potent songstuff is the big news at this intimate spot. Small wonder business is booming!

WEST ADAMS HALL NEWEST CLUB CENTER

The grand opening of the newly renovated and enlarged West Adams Center at 5180 W. Adams Blvd. (formerly Jewish Community Center) will take place January 23, 1954. Under new management, the Center is now available for all sorts of organizational functions. A large hall, several smaller ones and a roomy kitchen complete the facilities. All local organizations are invited to make use of the Center's facilities.

A spokesman for the Center stated that the aim of the new management "is to render a real service to the community by making the Center serve the people and organizations within the West Adams community."

Hollywood Film Studios to Cast Nina McKinney

HOLLYWOOD (NPB) — Theatrical and night life circles were all a-buzz here this week with speculation tending in the direction of beauteous cinema-actress Nina Mae McKinney and her probable early return here for screen and television work.

Returns from Abroad

Reason for much of the speculation was heightened by the sudden appearance here in the film capitol of Melvin Woolfork, her dapper ex-husband. Woolfork, who said the attractive Miss McKinney had only recently returned to America from England, has been observed flitting in and out of leading Hollywood agents' offices.

In addition to his busy moments in the film capitol, he has made several plane hops to Las Vegas, Nevada, where he has apparently been conferring with night club owners. Woolfork returned to New York by plane Friday.

Players Stage 'Escape to Nowhere' New Year's Evening

"Escape to Nowhere" opens New Year's night, Jan. 1, 8:30 sharp, at Players Stage, 8220 Sunset Blvd. The exciting, thought-provoking "Escape to Nowhere" by M. Manning, a tragic-comedy of youth, promises to become one of the theatrical highlights of the new year.

Directed by Michael Mark, well known for his sensitive adult productions, "Escape to Nowhere" has an excellent cast of 12 seasoned troupers. Players Stage is a "must" on your list of good theater.

Seats are limited, therefore call HO. 3-5039 for reservations, Thursdays through Sundays. That's HO. 3-5039. Contributions are accepted at the door.

NEW YEAR'S EVE, and if you're going places be sure and drop in at the Club Hillcrest, Lawrence Sweetwine is serving up a special for the Le Caribe crowd. Tipp Saunders, Leonard Maunder, Rowland Hamilton are tossing out the rugs at the Paradise. Mabel Scott is rocking the Club Pigale; Eddie Dudley is cooking up a dandy for Dynamite; Dunbar will get the usual trade; Hotel Cosmopolitan's Circus Room and Bombay Bar are set for a workout; Von Winston Wertz and Mac Newman will need four arms apiece for the Rubaiyat Room jolly crowd; Tricky Davis should attract all the rich and ex-rich of both sexes. Chubby Johnson's Town Tavern should have a crowd as lively as a highscoring football game; Sam Hudson down at the Californian should remove one of the walls for his bunch; Maggie Stone, the blond music-maker, will play to a free spending mob at the Morrocco; Cleo Coleman's West Jefferson Club Capri should rock, and tomato-crazy Red Feather down Manchester way should be a riot.

EARL (MR. BUD) GRIFFIN planed out for St. Louis for the annual salesman's meeting with the Budweiser family!

DR. D. OVERSTREET GRAY is enjoying his usual Christmas vacation loafing around his home with his attractive wife!

TED RHODES, one of the nation's top ranking golfers, is nestling at the Hotel Watkins awaiting the opening of California's major tourney. Rhodes may hit his peak in 1954!

GUS HAWKINS, who is noncommital about running for his old job in Sacramento, is making the rounds and renewing old friends!

WALTER GORDON is serious about launching a political career but will ditch the 62nd race should Gus Hawkins decide to run!

MIXED UP. When an exclusive department store clerk sent the wrong Christmas gift to the wife of a big-time social and playboy figure, wife started divorce proceedings. The gift was intended for the gal friend!

LA VELLE JACKSON is having a tough time bucking the big travel wheels downtown! Seems as though the ofays don't want to accredit her agency because of her brown-skin hue! She plans a last ditch bout with them!

HOWARD MOREHEAD, Westcoast leading news photographer for Ebony and Jet magazines, claims that Gloria Dodson, shapely songstress, is one of the most talented personalities he has come across. The Dodson gal is headed for big times!

RAYFIELD LUNDY, noted barrister, packed his wife and kids off for their vacation. She'll spend the holidays with mother in Seattle!

'SEEING DOUBLE PLEASURE'

PLAN GALA NEW YEARS—Ballinger Kemp, co-owner of the Milomo, and popular sportsman Tricky Davis go over the choice selections being put aside for Thursday, Dec. 31, when the grand old man makes his exit. Davis joined the team of Kemp and Bert Kenner as the club's new host. Davis is expecting a real old-fashioned let-your-locks-down New Year's Eve party, renewing old acquaintances and meeting new ones.

GARMENTS, 'GLOW' BRINGS 'DOUGH' — Henri O'Bryant, center, receives check from Sewell and Rowland, insurance brokers, for damages sustained in $17,000 fire loss when the O'Bryant Uniform Factory was destroyed by fire at 1144 North Western Ave. early in November. Above, Arthur W. Sewell, Steve L. Rowland, Henri O'Bryant and Eugene Perry.

'3 Men on a Horse' To Open at Ebony Showcase Jan. 7

Two of the loveliest and most popular young actresses in the local theatrical colony—Mauri Lynn and Suzette Harbin—have featured roles in the forthcoming Ebony Showcase production, "Three Men on a Horse," scheduled to open at the Ebony Showcase Theatre, 2182 West Washington boulevard, on Thursday evening, January 7.

Miss Lynn, already a singer of note, lately has been adding to her laurels in the dramatic field. She last was seen a year ago at the Showcase in the title role of "Anna Lucasta," in which she exhibited excellent talent as an emotional actress.

Stellar Cast

Miss Harbin, who has appeared in numerous Hollywood films, including a leading role in "Foxes of Harrow," is recognized as one of the most talented actresses among the younger theatrical set. She also appeared in the Ebony Showcase version of "Anna Lucasta."

Other well known names also will be starred in "Three Men on a Horse," the comedy which made such terrific hit on Broadway a few years ago. These include James Edwards, last seen in the movie, "The Joe Louis Story"; Johnny Lee, the "Lawyer Calhoun" of the Amos 'n' Andy shows; Nick Stewart, one of the country's leading comics; Joel Fluellen, featured in numerous movies in the past; Tallulah Pettigrew, Ted Lange, Morris Buchanan and Sammy Gardner.

Advanced Sales

"We are getting many reservatins already from clubs and other organizations," said Nick Stewart, who with his wife, Edna, founded the Ebony Showcase project over a year ago to afford an outlet for Negro actors and actresses and technicians. "We are happy to say we are gaining greater support than ever. We will continue to produce the kind of plays we believe this community desires."

For complete details and reservations, contact Ebony Showcase, 2182 W. Washington Blvd., REpublic 6448.

A colorful textile display will be presented the first two weeks of January at East Los Angeles Junior College.

You Can Win Auto, Trailer At Thrifty's

In keeping with Thrifty Drug Stores' $2,000,000 annual January Clearance Sale, Thrifty customers will have an opportunity of winning one of the two 1954 four-door Chevrolet sedans or a $2,000 house trailer which will be given away at the end of January, it was announced this week by Manny Borun, vice-president of the retail drug chain.

All of the 107 stores in Thrifty's statewide chain and Las Vegas will participate in the contest. Winners of the three big prizes will be announced at Thrifty's big super drug store at the corner of Rodeo and La Brea in Los Angeles on Saturday, February 6.

Complete details on Thrifty's month-long contest can be obtained at your neighborhood Thrifty, or any Thrifty in the chain.

Plan Banquet In Memory of G. W. Carver

The western region of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is making preparations for a banquet program Jan. 5 in commemoration of the late Dr. George Washington Carver, renowned scientist, H. A. Howard, regional director, announced this week.

Born in slavery in 1864, the "peanut wizard" who was a member of the fraternity, died in 1943 following a career of outstanding achievements. He won many distinguished honors from the world's leading scientific societies.

Governor Goodwin J. Knight and Mayor Norris Poulson have been called upon to issue proclamations setting aside Jan. 5 in memory of the noted American Negro.

Along with the Governor and Mayor, members of the City Council and the Board of Supervisors have been invited to be guests at the annual affair to be held at the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company building.

Classes at Polytechnic Evening Adult School are re-opening on Monday, Jan. 4.

POLIO SUNSHINE PARTY A SUCCESS

The Polio Sunshine Association's Christmas party held last Saturday was a huge success. It was held in the dining room of the Great Hope Baptist Church. The children received gifts, fruit and candy. Many donors made the party possible.

Van Ronkel Co.'s Dimitri Vodka Leads L.A. 'Liquid Parade'

Van Ronkel Company's Chuck Kenis, Sales Manager, has announced results of a Dimitri Vodka-Drink Poll conducted by his staff. Seventy-five bartenders were queried.

The Screwdriver ranked first in popularity followed by the Vodka Martini, Vodka Gimlet, Vodka and 7-Up, Vodka Collins, Vodka and Lime, and Vodka and Tonic, in that order.

Superior Liquid

Results of the survey also pointed up the fact that more and more bartenders are recommending Dimitri Vodka because of the indisputable scientific evidence available proving its superior quality.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles will receive bids for furnishing all labor and material for the following work:

KIND OF WORK AND NAME OF SCHOOL: REPLACING GUTTERS AND COPING AS PER EXISTING DETAIL ON THE MAIN FRAME BUILDING AT THE TWENTIETH STREET SCHOOL.

DATE OF BID OPENING: JANUARY 20, 1954.

Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the offide of said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract or contracts which will be awarded the successful bidder or bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION

Foremen—All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than 17½ cents per hour more than the hourly rate of the highest classification over which he has supervision as to the SIX BASIC TRADES; and not less than 12½ cents per hour as to the SUB-TRADES, more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices may be employed in conformity with Section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

Riggers—Same wage scale as craft to which rigging is incidental.

Welders—Same wage scale as craft to which welding is incidental.

CLASSIFICATION	Wage Rate
Laborer, General or Construction	$2.05
Sheet Metal Worker	2.85
Painter, Brush (Plus health and welfare, etc.)	2.66

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

WORKING RULES

1. Where a single shift is worked, eight (8) consecutive hours between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. shall constitute a day's work at straight time for all workers.
2. Forty (40) hours between Monday 7 A.M. and Friday 5 P.M. shall constitute a week's work at straight time.
3. All work performed in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week or on Holidays and Sundays shall be paid for at the rate for overtime of the craft involved.
4. Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH of the Board of Education and shall be sealed and filed with the Counter Clerk of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, by not later than 2:00 P.M. on the date or dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

When the contract price is in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00), a "formal" contract shall be entered into on a form which may be examined in the Contract Office of the Board of Education and surety bonds of a surety company satisfactory to the Board of Education covering an amount approximately equal to seventy-five per cent (75%) of the contract price for labor and material, and one hundred per cent (100%) for faithful performance, shall be furnished.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles, California.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract or contracts which will be awarded the successful bidder or bidders: and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION

Foremen

All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than 17½ cents per hour more than the hourly rate of the highest classification over which he has supervision as to the SIX BASIC TRADES; and not less than 12½ cents per hour as to the SUB-TRADES, more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices

May be employed in conformity with Section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

Riggers

Same wage scale as craft to which rigging is incidental.

Welders

Same wage scale as craft to which welding is incidental.

CLASSIFICATION	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$2.70
LABORERS
Laborers, General or Construction	2.05
Window Cleaner	2.20
ELECTRICIANS
Electrician	3.10
PAINTERS
Brush	2.66
Spray Gun or Sandblaster	2.91

(7-Hour day for above classification)
—Plus Health and Welfare, etc.

The rates of per diam wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

WORKING RULES

1. Where a single shift is worked, eight (8) consecutive hours between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. shall constitute a day's work at straight time for all workers.
2. Forty (40) hours between Monday 7 A.M. and Friday 5 P.M. shall constitute a week's work at straight time.
3. All works performed in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week or on Holidays and Sundays shall be paid for at the rate for overtime of the craft involved.
4. Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond (issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Counter Clerk of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, by not later than 2:00 P.M. on the date or dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidder or bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles.

DATED: Los Angeles, California, December 28, 1953.

HISTORY OF BOXING

astute scrutiny and rigorous appraisal, he invariably wins the exacting, captious fight fraternity's patronage and unqualified endorsement. The typical, despicable and inane performance of all the other abominable, loathsome and incorrigible riffraff, who are like square pegs in round holes, is stamped wit hinadequacy, mediocrity and inefficiency, much to the cash customers' chagrin, harassment and disillusionment.

The ideal fighter, cool, calm and collected, a meticulous stickler for strategical procedure, and the antithesis of the rambunctious, turbulent club fighter, is an alert, hard-hitting counter-uncher who can take it; the ignorant, ineffectively-aggressive and vulnerable novices successively arrayed against the aforesaid futilely essay to their detriment and frustration, to crowd, cope with and vanquish him in the ring; but happily, his poise, wisdom and masterful dominance prove a formidable deterent and each, in his turn, ignominously succumbs to his wily, adroit and relentless maneuvering and the astute wizardry and crafty artistry of his ring generalship.

Those superb, delectable and glamorous fighters, who are valiant exponents of the scientific aspects of boxing are truly an admirable, impressive and competent aggregation; even excluded from identification with this inimitable elite and ring aristocracy, because of their limited fistic prowess, are certain titleholders, themselves. Greatness and proficiency are not always associated with the possession of the title; poor competition and shrewd management have been potent factors in the success of some of our colorless, ill-starred and ephemeral champions.

Forgotten Men

There are, alas, many forgotten men among boxers; as in all other current walks of life the unfortunate and incompetent have a hand in writing their own fistic obituaries. The pathetic preludes and inevitable short cuts to elimination and oblivion are the irreparable defeats encountered in essaying a comeback and while serving in the capacity, as challenger for the title. The club fighters, Fitzy Fitzpatrick, Bob Murphy and Clarence Henry, erstwhile local favorites and an outlet for their wondrous talent, have been exponents of brain, no t brawn; judging, of course, from their high standard of efficiency and their lofty conception, passed on to us, of what best constitutes the ultimate, from the standpoint of consummate skill, in what we are wont to grandiloquently designate, The Manly Art of Self Defense.

And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a

Broadway Dept. Store

Don't Buy Where You Can't Work

Discrimination in the employment of sales girls is going out of style in Los Angeles department stores. One of the exceptions is the Broadway Department Store.

Other department stores have come to the sound conclusion that there is no reason why qualified Negro sales women shouldn't have an opportunity to work at jobs for which they are qualified.

The case of the Broadway Department Store is particularly puzzling.

It has always enjoyed a very extensive Negro patronage. It still does.

Broadway personnel heads will tell you, or anybody else, with a straight face that there is no discrimination of any kind in the store. "Clerks? Well, no, but you see that isn't discrimination. It just sort of happens."

The trouble with that kind of Broadway double talk about discrimination is that it doesn't add up. The lack of Negro sales clerks reflects Broadway policy. That policy is one of exclusion.

In light of the fact that there are so many department stores which have instituted a fair employment policy we don't know of any reason why local shoppers should patronize the Broadway until it has a change of heart.

The store can't claim that it hadn't been told that its policy leaves a bad taste in the mouths of its customers. It has. More than that, it has been importuned to change its policy.

It has made a number of half-hearted promises to do just that. Its promises are empty.

Nor can the Broadway trot out the old horror story that employment of Negro sales clerks will cause it to lose customers. Other stores haven't noted any such loss.

And don't let the Broadway tell you that it can't find the kind of sales persons it needs among Negroes. In the first place, it trains other employes and in the second place there is a reservoir of trained Negro sales clerks who are competent and who would be glad to get a chance at the Broadway.

We think that it is no more than fair to be as good to the Broadway as it is to us. If it declines to employ Negro sales people, we should, in our proper turn, decline to buy its merchandise.

If you buy where you can work you will soon be able to work where you buy.

EARTHA KITT HEADED FOR ALTAR

CITY LIBRARY
LOS ANGELES CITY COLLEGE

HMMMMMMM . . . C'EST SI BON—Luscious Eartha Kitt is riding on top of the world. In town for her opening of "New Faces," she rushed to greet Sammy Lee Davis Jr., who told Eagle correspondent: "This is it. Marriage lies ahead."

Sammy Lee Davis Says They'll Wed; Date Still Not Set

By CHAZ CRAWFORD

Showman Sammy Davis, Jr., let his hair down the other midnight at Ciro's nitery, and told me of his successful love for the sextacular thrush, Eartha Kitt. And he mentioned that the lady returns the compliment.

Sammy contided that the Hollywood whisper that has been given almost as much scope in the press as the town's new wide-screen process, is more than a press agent's dream. He and Eartha are, he declared, serious. They are altar bound, he said, though the date has not been set.

Although the entertainer has been telling scribes there was "nothing to" the rumored romance with the C'est Si Bon girl, he decided that confession was good for the soul, and gave your reporter the lowdown.

Here for "New Faces"

Eartha arrived in town Sunday night to prepare to deliver her schorchant song stuff in the "New Faces" revusical that bowed locally Tuesday night. Right after she landed, she made a beeline for the plush emporium where her guy, along with his dad and uncle (The Will Mastin Trio) are billed as the greatest act in show business. The combo closes at Ciro's tonight, Thursday.

The couple were camera-viewed at Ciro's, and the Eagle carries the first picture taken of the couple in the hand-holding stage.

Sammy had hoped that this reporter would be able to get a quote from La Kitt Monday night but she had spent the day with him on a tour of the movie colony, and was resting up for a rehearsal of her opening in the Biltmore show.

They Clashed

The couple first met a year and a half ago in lil 'ol New York, and Sammy ruefully admits that it wasn't love at first sight. As a matter of fact, he whispered, they didn't care much for each other. He blames that fact on a clash of their personalities. But that was way back when, and they are no longer at swordspoint. As it is now, they are closer than page two is to this front page "exclusive."

When queried as to when he

LAD KILLED BY UNLOADED GUN

Boy, 10, Shoots Playmate in Cowboy Game

The gun-that-wasn't-loaded claimed the life of 10-year-old James E. Webb, 243 E. 110th Street, Sunday night.

"Jimmy" and his young playmates wanted to play cowboy, but they needed a gun to make it all seem real.

Robert Rainey, also 10, of 137 E. 110th Street, remembered his mother's revolver. He had played with it before. He ran to get it.

"I don't want to play if the gun's loaded," said Jimmy.

It Ain't Loaded

"It ain't loaded," replied little Bobby. "Look, I'll show you."

He pulled the trigger. A shot rang out. Jimmy toppled over. "You shot me, Robert," he said.

"I didn't!"

"You shot me for real."

Heart Pierced

Another youngster, William Thedford, had been playing with Robert and Jimmy, but had decided he had had enough, and was on his way home. His back was turned when the shot rang out. When he saw Jimmy lying on the ground, he ran to tell Lee Turner, 235 E. 110th Street, who called the police.

Jimmy, the son of Mrs. Ann

Bishop Jordan Edges Close to South Africa

Bishop Frederick D. Jordan, who has been vainly knocking at the door of the Union of South Africa ever since his appointment last year as bishop in charge of the A.M.E. work there, this week landed in the nearby territory of Southern Rhodesia.

He arrived at Bulawayo, S. Rhodesia, on Thursday, but, together with his wife, Antisha, was there only on a 30-day visitor's visa.

He advised church members here that he plans to make good use of the month's stay for the purpose of setting up the lines of his administration for both the 13th and 17th districts of the church.

Bishop Jordan, formerly pastor of the Ward A.M.E. church here in Los Angeles, left the United States 10 days ago. On Thursday, his female secretary, Pauline Hodges, received cable advice that he had arrived at the Rhodesian city.

Mr. Jordan has been prevented by the Malan government [illegible] South Africa so that he could carry out his appointed work.

As part of their campaign against the native South African race, the Malan regime has placed numerous obstacles in the path of foreign missionaries because of their work for equal rights for the Negroes.

Despite repeated efforts, the [illegible] has been denied a visa [illegible] the country.

Chief Faces Questioning On Fire Department Bias

Fire Chief John H. Alderson and members of the Board of Fire Commissioners, who have consistently denied that there is either racial segregation or discrimination in the fire department, will have a chance to explain their claims Jan. 23.

That opportunity will come when they respond to a court order requiring them to give their depositions. The order was procured by a group of taxpayers headed by Dr. H. Claude Hudson. The Saturday proceeding is solely for the purpose of eliciting facts and no suit has yet been filed to test fire department practices, it was stressed by Attorney Herbert Simmons.

Mayor's Conference

Meanwhile, Mayor Norris Poulson has scheduled a meeting with the Commissioners for today (Thursday) and speculation was rife that he may pressure them to reverse their stand of Dec. 10 when they whitewashed Chief Alderson's practices.

The conference was initiated by the mayor and all observers agree that he can put an end to the long time practice of confining Negro firemen to two stations on Central Avenue. Entire control of fire department policy is lodged in the hands of the Commission by City Charter, but all commissioners were appointed by the mayor and it

Dr. D. O. Gray Probes Dental Research Field

Marking the new approach of young scientists, Dr. D. Overstreet Gray, well known local dentist, combined business with pleasure on his holiday visit to the San Francisco area.

Dr. Gray, member of the attending staff in dental surgery at the Harbor General hospital, took the occasion of his trip to acquaint himself with the latest developments in the fields of pain control and gum injections.

According to Dr. Gray, recent research has opened up new vistas in the field of the control of the pain associated with the practice of dentistry. Considerable work is being done, he said, on the psychological plane, paralleling the work in medicine with psycho-somatic difficulties.

Dr. Daniel Collins, staff member of the Dental College of University of California, has been working in these fields, and Dr. Gray spent a good portion of his vacation informing himself on the new techniques.

Dr. Collins, the only Negro member of the Dental Surgery staff at Berkeley, was Dr. Gray's instructor at Meharry.

Dr. Gray, vice president of the local Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association, is a graduate of Meharry, Lincoln, and Cornell University. Born in Kansas City, Mo., he has been practicing in Los Angeles for the past five years. He lives here at 2112 Victoria avenue.

Four Arrested in Theft of $160,000

WASHINGTON, D. C.—On Tuesday, Washington police arrested James Rufus Landis and charged him and his attractive wife, Mamie, with spiriting the tidy sum of $160,000 in fresh $20 bills from the burglar-proof safe of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

The theft occurred New Year's Eve, under the watchful eyes of a bevy of armed guards and special police, in one of the most carefully protected spots in the country.

Recover $128,300

Arrested along with Landis and his wife was William Giles, 27, who was picked up as an accessory, and Charles Howard Nelson.

Secret Service operators recovered $128,300 of the money stolen.

Arrest of the 29-year-old trusted bureau employe occurred following an early-morning phone call from Mrs. Landis' father, Irving Grant.

At 5 o'clock in the morning, he telephoned police and said he had a "big pile of Treasury money" in his house and he was "scared to death."

Sped to Farm

Troopers sped to the farm where Grant works and found $95,000 in a new metal toolbox.

Grant reportedly told them that the night before his daughter, her husband and a friend drove down in a new automobile, and asked them to bury the money until "it cools off a little."

He said he refused, but changed his mind when one of the men drew a gun. They then gave him $3,000.

Landis was arrested while he was working at his job as checker of distribution in the Engraving Bureau.

Police said Landis admitted the theft.

CRIME EXPERT PLEADS FOR WESLEY WELLS

Dr. Marcel J. Frym, criminologist and appointed member of Attorney General Brown's Advisory Committee for Crime Prevention, has protested to both Governor Knight and Attorney General Brown at the death sentence of Wesley Wells, prisoner in San Quentin scheduled to die for throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard in 1947.

Dr. Frym is one of thousands of Californians now writing the state capital for Wells' clemency. He wrote: "I do not usually respond to requests for intercession in cases of impending execution. But when my attention was called to the case of Wesley Robert Wells, I felt that I should raise my voice."

Dr. Frym, director of criminological research and faculty member of the University of Southern California and Los Angeles State College, also attacked the law under which Wells has been sentenced.

Frym stated: "Our state of California does not need provisions like Section 4500 of our Penal Code in order to maintain discipline even among 'lifers' and I strongly recommend repeal of this provision."

(Section 4500 of the State Penal Code rules that a prisoner undergoing a life sentence may be given capital punishment for committing a simple assault in prison. It is this law which is in use against Wells.)

"The case of Wells is especially tragic," Dr. Frym continued. "This man could have and should have been treated in order to remove the causes of his aggressive behavior."

"I should like to call your special attention," Frym wrote Governor Knight, "to the fact that our California State Department of Corrections is now studying the decisively important problem whether non-conformist behavior of prison inmates is to be considered as a bad symptom or whether a rebellious prisoner quite often is a better risk than one who hypocritically submits to prison discipline while storing up all his feelings of hatred and rebellion for the time after his release.

"There is one more consideration in regard to the unfortunate Wells. I feel that large parts of our population unfortunately still practice racial discrimination. . . . This undeniable fact did play an important role in Robert Wells' mental development. Due to his own individual makeup, the thought of being persecuted because of his race was not completely unjustiifed. I personally feel that we should take this into consideration.

"I therefore most respectfully request the granting of executive clemency to Wesley Robert Wells."

Wells and his lawyers are preparing a petition for clemency and will submit it to Governor Knight in two weeks.

Africans Set For Fight On School Law

where it is a general rule that there is no segregation.

The only church which enforces the color bar is the Africa Dutch Reformed church.

Equality Ruled Out

Dr. Verwoerd, in introducing the bill last year, made it plain that it is his view that non-white children should be taught from childhood not to seek equality with persons of European origin. He insisted that persons who believe in equality are not fit to teach natives.

Another representative of Premier Malan's government said that under the new law instruction to native children must be confined to matters of health, use of the land and care of cattle. And still another spokesman stated that such instruction must be given in native languages. There are no advanced texts or books dealing with technical material in the native languages.

Divide Rule

There are many of these languages. Restriction of teaching to these mediums would prevent members of the different tribes from communicating with each other and would further the well-known policy of divide and rule.

The law is also seen as an effort to force the natives to pay for the education of the non-white children, and thus free the whites from taxes for their support.

Seek Ordinance To Fight Rabies

Members of the Watts Community Health Council have been asked by council president U. S. Griggs to support a Los Angeles city compulsory rabies vaccination ordinance for dogs, which is scheduled to come up for consideration by the City Council Monday, Jan. 14.

In a recent memo to all members, Griggs said, "People truly interested in the welfare of children and animals are interested in the prevention of death and disease. The immunization of dogs against rabies prevents the disease, thereby preventing the spread of this fatal virus infection to other animals and to humans."

WINS FELLOWSHIP — Mrs. Blanche Hayes Clark, Mount Vernon High School teacher, was awarded Alpha Kappa Alpha's foreign fellowship at the sorority's boule in St. Louis. She was given $2,000 for graduate study abroad. She plans to do creative writing.

Seek Enclosed Swimming Pool At Will Rogers

Investigation of the possibility of constructing an enclosed swimming pool at Will Rogers Playground, with the Los Angeles City Board of Education cooperating, was ordered this week by the County Board of Supervisors at the request of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

"By enclosing the swimming pool and by cooperation with the Los Angeles City School District, this could be used as an all-year-round recreation and training facility," Hahn declared.

"I believe by having the young people assume responsibility by active work in Y.M.C.A., Boy Scouts, church and other character building organizations, these young people will never become delinquent and that by providing a place and facilities for young people to engage in wholesome recreational activities, juvenile delinquency can be prevented," he said.

The sum of $220,000, currently budgeted to construct a swimming pool at Will Rogers Playground, was put in the County Budget by Kenneth Hahn.

Bunche Returns From Haiti Trip

A Nobel Prize winner in 1950, he has been on United Nations business as a guest of the Haitian government.

Racketeering Seen If States Abolish Public Schools

NEW YORK—Abolition of the public school system with state subsidies to individual students would lead to all sorts of "educational quackery and racketeering," Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, warned in a report prepared for delivery at the Association's 45th annual meeting here this week.

In South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, he pointed out, threats have been made to shut down the public schools and substitute personal subsidies if the Supreme Court rules that segregation in public education is unconstitutional as contended by the NAACP.

"Unconscionable quacks and racketeers would move in setting up their own debased standards," he said. "The state would be helpless to regulate these private schools, or to establish any standards to protect the state's investment and the school children, because to do so would be to exert state action which would be subject to the jurisdiction of the federal courts.

Segregation Doomed

"If the governors and legislators of these states do not realize what they are proposing they will soon find out," White asserted. "They would do better to join those enlightened southerners who already realize that segregation as a way of life is doomed. Just as we have carried the fight against openly avowed segregation to the highest court in the land, so shall we fight any subtle forms of segregation or any attempts to evade a possible decision of the court by outlawing Jim Crow."

Reporting on the activities of the Association, White cited the legal attack upon segregation as the most important project of the Association during 1953. But legal action, he said, needs to be backed up by a "coordinated program of administrative, legislative, and educational activities at the grass roots level without which court decrees may be ineffective."

Significant gains were made during the year, the NAACP spokesman asserted. Nevertheless, he added, "we must consider and chart our campaign against the evils of racial discrimination which yet remain." Among gains he cited were revival of the Government Contract Committee to assure job equality in federally financed work; the progressive elimination of segregation in all phases of the military establishment; the expanded Negro vote, particularly in the South; the development of a climate of opinion in the South more receptive to the passing of segregation; and the launching of the NAACP Fight for Freedom to achieve complete emanicpation by 1963, the centennial of Lincoln's proclamation.

Housing Jim Crow Cited

Much remains to be done, White said. "Victory in the public school segregation cases, even if it be all that we desire, will have but limited value at the elementary and secondary school levels as long as residential segregation remains. In the field of housing we have made the least gains because our national government is using its funds, to which we also contribute, to expand and freeze segregation. One glaring example is Levittown in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where the builder is using the resources of the FHA to build 20,000 homes, from which Negroes are barred, in that miracle of modern industrial development."

"Thanks to the Negro's somewhat less precarious position in industry, they probably will not be tired first at quite as high a rate as would have happened 45, or even 5, years ago," he said. "Nevertheless, the percentage of unemployment in the event of a recession will in all probability be higher among Negro workers than among other groups of employees."

The legal program of the Association during the year was recounted by Thurgood Marshall, the organization's special counsel, who headed the battery of lawyers who argued the school cases.

is felt that they will respond to a direct command from the mayor to change their policies.

The Saturday depositions will be taken in the office of Attorney Thomas G. Neusom and lawyers are expected to press Chief Alderson for direct statements on his policies of segregating Negro firemen in the two stations and of denying them the right to transfer to any of the city's other 85 fire stations.

Questions Indicated

Other inquiries are expected to be directed toward finding answers to the question of how the number of Negro firemen is kept at the exact figure required for the two Jim Crow stations and on the issue of how the number of Negro officers is kept to the number of Negro officers needed for those two stations.

Another matter that is expected to draw intense questioning is why the requests of 40 Negro firemen for transfers were ignored by the chief.

Taxpayers who joined with Dr. Hudson in filing the proceeding include Mrs. Jack Hardy, Dr. E. I. Robinson and Allan C. Woodard.

BAD HEART

DON'T BE A VICTIM OF WRONG DIAGNOSIS

Many treat and die from heart trouble when in truth and in fact there is nothing wrong with the heart. I have had many patients come to me, having been diagnosed as heart trouble, when in reality there was nothing wrong with the heart. I have removed that which caused gas pressure and reduced the size of the colon which was monopolizing more than its allotted space and seen reactions that were astonishing. The heart trouble left as if by magic. So—regardless of what your diagnosis has been or what the diagnostician has told you or what the electrocardiograph has recorded . . . there is a possibility that your so-called heart trouble is not heart trouble at all. Don't be frightened by the gadget tyro. A tyro misinterprets what he sees. The minute indications of disease he overlooks and usual but perfectly normal appearances he mistakes for some other dreadful condition.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first became a patient at your institution I was quite ill. I was suffering from a heart and liver ailment.

Under the very fine care of your staff I have improved one hundred per cent and as an expatient I can and do recommend your great work to be satisfactory." M. V. Glass.

BLOOD PRESSURE

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE is not a disease, it is merely the symptoms of a variety of conditions. It is most dangerous when above the 150 m.m. Life insurance companies will reject one with this pressure. At 154 m.m. the death rate increases 31.1 per cent; at 164 m.m., 83.3 per cent; at 174 m.m., 104.4 per cent; at 189 m.m., 148.5 per cent; at 200 m.m., 314.7 per cent.

A poorly digested meal, excitement, overexertion or fatigue, no matter how slight, might result in the bursting of a blood vessel. The result may be cerebral hemorrhage, a blood clot on the brain, apoplexy, paralysis, death. Easily corrected if treated in time.

LOW BLOOD PRESSURE: This is the condition which precedes tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer and all disorders where there is great enervation. In every case low blood pressure and enervation precede the above mentioned diseases, and are not caused by them.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I am glad I read of your treatments in the newspapers and I would like to add my testimonial to your list of grateful patients. I was in distress with pains on my back from arthritis, high blood pressure, heart trouble, and believe me that is enough for one person. With treatments that I received, I feel wonderful and even more so, because you have cured me . . . when I am seventy-three—an old woman. I shall be very, very grateful for the kind attention received. I want it known that I am very grateful. Edna E. LeBlanc."

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made.

HERE IS PROOF:

Predicts Death: Noted physicians, M.A., M.D., indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his necessary experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from 8 three or four plus changes in two of these cases. Ninety percent of these died within a week, after the prediction was made. These patients ran a wide variety of diseases, indicating quite clearly [illegible]."

REFUSES $500

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first heard of your treatments I was a very sick man. My disease had been diagnosed by medical doctor as epilepsy. When epileptic attacks would strike me I would be totally unconscious for three days. After the second treatment in your institution, I had an attack but never lost consciousness and was back for my next treatment the following day.

"When I began your treatments my stomach was completely 'shot.' It had become so bad I could hardly put anything into it any more. It was in very bad shape. I had been taking sedatives for seven years. I was in and out of hospitals for the last two years. However, I was afraid to come here because I thought the nurses would be as mean as those in the other hospitals where I had been a patient. If I asked for water I almost got a beating—but far from it, these nurses have been like angels to me. I never received nicer treatment in my life.

"I feel so deeply grateful to you because your treatments have saved my life. After only nine treatments I feel like a new man 100% better in every way. My stomach trouble has completely left me and I have done away with sedatives forever. My gratitude is boundless, and I can only say 'God bless you!'

"I have—and again am offering you—a gift of $500.00 which you refuse to accept. Words seem inadequate to express my deep and sincere gratitude. I sincerely and truly feel that your treatments have saved my life, and I want everybody to know it. I only wish I were gifted with the ability to put into words what I really feel, but all I can say is 'God bless you' for saving my life. I can never thank you enough for what you have done for me. Sincerely and gratefully. Signature left out purposely. Witnesses: Mrs. Lucy A. Rubalcava, Dr. S. M. Sassouk, D.C., Mrs. B. H. Berghof, Mrs. B. Lamont."

STOMACH GAS

FLATULENCE: This distressing symptom is without doubt the most common ailment for which patients come to me for treatment. The most characteristic statement I have heard from patients, and from probably 95 per cent of them, is: "I have so much gas!" while the majority being asked what symptoms they would like to get rid of first, almost invariably reply: "I think the thing that bothers me most is so much gas!"

Besides the satisfaction which is produced by the fermenting foods which make gas, the gas pressure is itself a cause of disease of the ovaries, stomach, liver, gall bladder, spleen, and other organs, because of the congestion of the circulation which is caused by the pressure exercised [illegible]

CONSTIPATION

RELIEF IN 20 MINUTES

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"EXPERTS IN AUTOPSY state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stovepipe."

Eminent medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems—in fact, practically all the ills of mankind.

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distension or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication.

NOTE: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors or malignancies. Brinkley.

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering for many years with constipation and several years extreme dizziness and severe headaches I came to your office for treatments. Am glad to say that dizziness and headaches disappeared at completion of treatments, my constipation was corrected and I enjoy much better health. Sleep much better also. I'm very grateful. Mrs. Carrie M. Reimer."

Greene Re-elected Kappa Polemarch

CHICAGO—Some 700 Kappa men and hundreds of friends and relatives roared into Chicago last week for the 43rd annual grand conclave of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. Dr. W. Henry Greene of Washington, D. C., was re-elected grand polemarch, and Washington, D. C., was selected for the 1954 meeting.

Election was routine except for the dramatic refusal of J. Ernest Wilkins to run again for the post of grand keeper of records and exchequer although numerous brothers pleaded with him to serve one more year. Wilkins sadly told the delegates, "It is not fair to my family, my employer nor to myself to carry more responsibility than I can bear. . . . I am regretfully sorry, but I am forced to decline."

Socially, the brothers took over the city with a series of formals, dances and unofficial parties in the city's best hotels and ballrooms as well as some of Chicago's most beautiful private homes.

Tops in the public service phase of the meeting were a public session with Dr. Lawrence A. Kimpton, chancellor, University of Chicago, as guest speaker, and the continuance of the fraternity's work with the American Council on Human Rights.

Explosive Address

In an explosive address, Dr. Kimpton declared his faith in the integration of races in city communities and declared that his university does not plan to move from its present location although the number of Negroes in nearby communities is increasing.

Dr. Kimpton told his audience: "We view the policy of racial segregation as not only illegal but bankrupt and fruitless."

The Kappas approved the program of the ACHR and voted to contribute $2,500 to its upkeep in conjunction with Delta Sigma Theta, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Zeta Phi Beta and Sigma Gamma Rho sororities and Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. The ACHR, of which brother Elmer Henderson is executive secretary, has as its number one aim in 1954 "preparation for integrated living."

This year marked the first time in 31 years a Wilkins was not elected grand keeper of records and exchequer. J. Ernest Wilkins, Sr., held the office 25 years before the younger Wilkins took over six years ago.

Two Memorials

Two memorials were contributed to the fraternity. The late brother Robert S. Abbott, founder of the Chicago Defender, was awarded a posthumous life membership through his two nephews, John Sengstacke and brother Fred Sengstacke. Former Grand Polemarch W. Ellis Stewart of Chicago presented the membership.

Mrs. Julius Avendorph, widow of a Kappa, presented a lectern to memorialize her late son, Julius Avendorph, Jr., a brother who passed while a student in college. The Rev. Richard C. Keller and Rev. Mills were in charge of the candle-light litany in memory of the departed brother.

The "big deal" socially was the Grand Conclave Ball in the newly modernized Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Sherman downtown, the closed formal where brothers whirled their "Kappa Kweens" around the floor, did the fantastic craze, the bunny hop, hopped to a bit of mamba and samba, and just danced a while.

Other formals included the open dance at the 178th Regiment Armory and a Greek letter frolic at the Parkway Ballroom. Opening social festivities included a "cherchez la femmo" session at the Kappa Kastle and a get-acquainted dance at the Parkway.

All business meetings were held at the KAM Temple, Jewish synagogue.

Business License Taxes Now Due

City Clerk, Walter C. Peterson, has completed the mailing of thousands of notices to business and professional firms advising that their 1954 Los Angeles city business licenses became due on Jan. 1.

A penalty will be added to all annual licenses not paid on or before the close of business on March 1.

A general discussion and refreshments will follow.

The public is invited to attend.

Broadway Federal Shows Huge Increase in Past Year

Congratulations are pouring in this week to the Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association and its dynamic manager, Richard Wright III.

Cause for the congratulations is the excellent growth shown by the company, as indicated by its year-end report.

This report shows total assets as of the close of 1953 of over $8,000,000, an increase of close to $2,000,000 over 1952. The 1952 figure, in turn, at $6,567,000, was more than double the total assets of $3,242,000 shown for 1951.

Dividends to subscribers showed corresponding increases, being approximately $63,000 in 1951, $129,000 in 1952, and $220,000 in 1953.

The Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association, which is active, among other things, in lending money to encourage home ownership, pays its subscribers 3½ per cent, which is above the rate paid by most borrowing institutions.

Its subscribers now number about 2800, with deposits ranging from a few dollars to $10,000 each.

Carrell May Enter Race for Lt. Governor

Tom Carrell, for many years an active Democratic party leader and San Fernando auto dealer, is being advanced by a group of Democrats as a possible Democratic candidate for governor at the next election.

Carrell was named to the Democratic County Committee in 1941 and served eight years. He has been a member of the state Central committee 10 years and is chairman of the 41st Assembly district for the party. He also is chairman of Democrats United in the 21st Congressional District.

Carrell has served as a delegate to the last three national conventions, and in 1952 was treasurer and fund-raiser for the delegation. He also was named to the advisory committee of the Democratic National Committee by Chairman Stephen Mitchell and was a member of the state committee for the Stevenson-Sparkman Clubs campaign in 1952.

The Sins Of The Times

William G. Bonelli's resignation from the Republican Party with its accompanying blast against the Chandler family and the Los Angeles Times is evidence of a growing revolt against what is being branded the Chandler-Times domination of the political and economic life of California. It is apparent that there are many people who believe that the Chandler-Times domination of this state is beginning to approach the grip that the Southern Pacific once held and that was broken by the Progressive revolt led by Hiram Johnson.

We're in no position to judge the truth of the Bonelli charge—which was made earlier by Fletcher Bowron—to the effect that the Chandlers control Southern California through interlocking business and financial interests.

What we do know is that the Los Angeles Times, speaking for the Chandlers, is the most consistent and important enemy of progress in the field of civil rights on the Pacific Coast. In season and out, the Times opposed all of the New Deal-Fair Deal proposals for civil rights. It gave aid and comfort to Southern senators when they filibustered FEPC, anti-lynching and anti-poll tax legislation to death.

The Times inspired and led the fight against fair employment legislation in California. Its behind-the-scenes work killed the proposal for a municipal FEPC in Los Angeles.

The Times-supported congressmen from this area are all bitter-end enemies of civil rights in Congress. Their every action in that respect wins the plaudits and praise of the Times. Their opposition to civil rights proposal in Congress is Times-inspired and Times-backed.

On the other side of the ledger we cannot recall a single instance in which the Times has raised its voice against racial segregation or discrimination, beyond a few polite tut-tuts of disapproval. These words are blotted out by Times deeds. The Times did nothing to combat racial restrictive covenants when judicial enforcement of those covenants was crowding Negroes into the ghettos. More than that, it gave widespread coverage to the proposal of the Los Angeles Realty Board to amend the constitution to permit such enforcement!

The Times was silent when the Los Angeles Bar Association refused membership of Negro lawyers; it has never employed Negroes beyond the ranks of menial labor and it has never mounted a campaign against employer discrimination—and that despite the fact that its voice is strong and powerful among Los Angeles industrialists.

The Times has never seen fit to oppose discrimination in the Fire Department; it has never raised its voice against discriminatory or segregatory practices in schools or in other public facilities.

The short of the matter is that the Times' record on civil rights is the worst of any large northern or western newspaper. It is, as it has been for many years, the spokesman for those who would keep the Negro "in his place." Perhaps the attacks being waged against it will cause it to re-examine a policy that is completely out of step with the prevailing sentiment of this community—and a policy that has done untold harm to every Californian.

No Lynchings In 1953

There were so lynchings in 1953! That is quite a contrast with the record of 50 years ago when there were some 200 in one year.

While we are rejoicing at this lack of mob murder it is well to stop a moment and assess the causes of the decline of this disgraceful American practice.

While there will be those who scoff, we think the prime cause for the decline of lynching is the vigorous and consistent campaign for federal anti-lynching legislation that has been waged by the NAACP for so many years.

During the progress of this campaign, the NAACP consistently laid the record before the American people and before the whole world. The very telling and retelling of the story brought shame and disgrace to the states where mob murder was most prevalent. Thus held up to shame and ridicule, these states took steps to suppress the very mobs they had once encouraged.

It became apparent too that unless the states did act, the federal government would have to step in and the threat of federal action spurred the states to curb their own evils.

Other contributing causes to the decline of lynching are the general advance in education, the fact that world attention has become centered on American racial practices and a tendency on the part of some law enforcement officials to eliminate the necessity for mob action by killing Negro prisoners on the pretense that the prisoners had tried to escape. This latter practice, while it reduces lynching figures, deserves as much condemnation as lynching.

The most important fact to bear in mind is that the decline in lynching came only because some Americans had the courage to campaign against it.

Mr. Nixon Sees The Light

"Every act of racial discrimination or prejudice in the United States hurts America as much as an espionage agent who turns over a weapon to a foreign country."

Those words voiced the considered judgment of the very conservative Richard M. Nixon, Vice-President of the United States. Very few Americans will dispute the truth of what the Vice-President said. A great many will disregard them in practice. Unfortunately, Mr. Nixon, by his own definition, has lent a good deal of aid and comfort to our enemies by some of his actions in the past as, for instance, when he signed an agreement that he would not permit "non-Caucasians" to purchase or occupy his Washington home.

We take it that the Vice-President has repented of his past errors and that his trip to the Orient has opened his eyes. We are glad to see him exhort his fellow Americans to take the same road to repentance and we hope that he will go about the Senate, over which he presides, preaching the same faith to lawmakers whose eyes have not yet been opened. Senators Byrd of Virginia, Smathers of Florida and Ellender of Louisiana come readily to mind as senators who need to learn the truth of the Vice-President's message.

Or if Mr. Nixon has the time he can run up to New York and preach with the Right Hon. Jimmy Byrnes, Eisenhower-selected representative to the United Nations. Mr. Byrnes has made a political career out of prejudice and discrimination. He is on record a dozen times over with the assertion that Negroes deserve the segregation and discrimination forced on them by the prevailing prejudices of the South. He recently induced his state to pass a law providing for the abolition of public education in the event that the Supreme Court overthrows Jim Crow schools.

And, as a Californian, there is work for Mr. Nixon right here in his own bailiwick. The state is overflowing with employers who practice discrimination against Negroes, and other non-white workers. Some of those men are pretty close to the Vice-President, too. Their names are high up on the list of those who financed his political campaigns in the past years.

Of course, there is always our own Fire Chief John H. Alderson who is hurting America every day with his inane discrimination against Negro firemen. Mr. Alderson is so steeped in the sins of prejudice and discrimination that he has actually charmed himself into believing that his way is the right way and that the kind of discrimination he practices deserves commendation instead of condemnation.

Quite seriously, we think that what Mr. Nixon did do is to voice a growing awareness among Americans that it is time to have done with racial prejudices and discriminations that benefit none of us and harm all of us.

The Big Sea

By Lester Bailey

AT WORK WITH THE NAACP

Visited Paramount Studio recently to check a rumor that a a portion of the film "White Christmas" contains a black-faced minstrel skit. Public Relations Director Luigi Luraschi gladly arranged a preview in which I saw no suggestion of the old stereotype. As a matter of fact, it will take some imagination to associate Bing Crosby and Danny Kaye with this sentimental antiquity America seems reluctant to bury with the dead past.

Lester Bailey

But we got a chance to talk about my theme song: better opportunities for Negro artists in the film industry. Said Mr. Luraschi: "The communists make propoganda of the 'problem' films about Negroes when they are shown in other countries."

My counter was: then let's give the world something positive, and difficult to distort . . . Negro actors and actresses in roles awarded on the bases of ability, qualifications, etc. Let our movies strike a note of reality consonant with life in America. Negroes are cropping up everywhere and at every level in our national life. How about letting them "crop up" in similar roles in our movies?

No Illusions

While I will not delude myself to believe (as much as I hope) that Paramount will change its policy "overnight," I will say that Mr. Luraschi seemed most sincere in his concern with and interest in the discussion.

The movie industry needs friends . . . paying friends, and it makes no difference the color of the hand that pushes the dollar bill through the ticket window. We look forward to more (and fruitful) visits with the Mr. Luraschis of our motion picture studios. Meantime, how about a letter on the subject from you ticket buyers?

Policy Change?

Change of hands for the Daily News we hope means a change of policy in publishing news and events affecting directly the lives of more than one-tenth of our local citizens, Negroes. We hope that Clinton D. McKinnon will not climb as far up in the ivory tower on South Los Angeles St. as did his predecessor.

We have been chasing the elusive Mr. Smith for weeks trying to get this "liberal" paper to retract an editorial written by cub reporter Paul Ditzel supporting segregation in the local Fire Department.

We don't expect Mr. McKinnon to inherit and suffer all of Mr. Smith's infirmities, hence this advice: A large number of those sorely needed 50,000 subscriptions can be found among the more than 300,000 Negroes in greater Los Angeles if the News will give coverage to this huge consumer group ignored by local metropolitan dailies.

And A REPORTER

A smart gal from this side of the tracks on the Society Page staff could do wonders for you, Mr. McKinnon. And if a reporter or two, representative of this largest American minority, were added to the News staff (and not throttled), rest assured that you could deliver and sell more and more papers out our way. Time to get started is now Mr. McKinnon, before the mortar sets!

Cairo School Fight

January 28th is the second anniversary of the Cairo, Ill. school fight. They said it wouldn't work, and "they" tried to keep it from working. But two years have now passed and more than 100 Negro children are attending the formerly all-white schools. Would you believe it, there is no "trouble."

There was trouble to begin with, planned and implemented by grown-up children, the white adult citizens of Cairo, Ill. Yours truly was there with

Battleaxe and Bread

Without checking the files I estimate that I've been writing this column for the past six years. Originally I saw no chance of my finding time to do the job, week after week, in view of meetings, desk duties and travel schedules. I still see no such chance, but somehow I get it done from week to week and haven't missed more than a dozen deadlines in those six years—even including my India trip. And originally, too, I saw no chance of coming up fresh each week with a new column subject. I saw myself running dry after a few months of airing my views on this and that.

Lester Granger

As for that notion, how silly can a chap be? My trouble hasn't been in finding subjects; it's been in deciding which to choose of the many that crowd for attention. And a bigger trouble is that those I choose are apt to be not so interesting as those that get away—to paraphrase the fisherman's stock lament.

Didn't Duck Issue

For instance, I reach into my folder of clippings and find the one of November 11, 1953, that reported Frank Stanton's resignation from Phi Delta Theta fraternity because of the group's discriminatory restrictions on memberships. Mr. Stanton, who is president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, couldn't take the fraternity's constitutional stipulation that membership be barred to persons "not of pure Aryan blood." So he stepped out and notified the press of his reasons.

I could have done a lot with that in a column; because Frank Stanton is a representative business leader in a "delicate" type of business. Which is to say that the success of his company depends upon public favor.

A lot of men of equal public stature in less sensitive areas of operation would have been glad to duck around such an issue instead of walking up and kicking false campus gods all over the lot, as did the Columbia Broadcasting head. I wish I had found space for full discussion of his action, because in my book Frank Stanton is solid—and decent.

Disturbed Youngsters

And there was the November report of the Child Welfare League of America, to the effect that a half million children in this country are emotionally disturbed and need special care, while only 1,500 are receiving it.

A rough estimate based on experience in such situations would be that from 100 to 200 thousand of these disturbed children are Negro youngsters, while less than 10 per cent of those receiving adequate care are probably Negro.

Just these bare figures carry horrifying implications. Emotional disturbances in children means neurosis of psychosis in adults; that's as plain as adding up two and two to make four.

But the "great American public" goes round and round in a circle of excitement about "juvenile delinquency" or "dope addiction" or the other visibles of emotional disturbance, while refusing to do anything constructive about the situation that directly feeds into these secondary problems. There's enough material for several columns!

Confederate Party

And, still sticking to November news clippings, there was the story from Rhodesia, in Africa, describing the Confederate Party's platform of racial segregation, South African style.

How appropriate that these British dunderheads, who rank next to Soviet Russia's leadership as the world's most vicious political types, should choose not only the policy but also the name of their American political ancestors who went down to crashing defeat when their policies were tested on the field of battle.

Because just as sure as the proverbial shooting, British whites in Africa are mixing up for themselves the last of the colonial blood baths. Maybe they'll win for a while yet, but they can't keep on winning. And the longer they try to win in the 20th century with a 19th century concept of government, the worse will be their eventual defeat—the bloodier their bath.

Not enough subjects to make good columns? No, not enough columns to handle all the live, vital subjects. And not enough wisdom, either, to suggest the final, definitive answers to the tremendous questions raised. But this column will keep on trying—trying to spotlight significant subjects and at least suggest the direction in which answers may be found. And that's enough of a job for one man. Happy New Year, folks!

Throw Out Life Line

One Man's Opinion

By LEON STEWARD

This is a story of one of this city's finest pastors. And it gives some insight on just how he got his start and why he stuck to a church for some 40 years in this one city. We refer to Rev. Hawley B. Hawes, pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church, of which he has been minister for four decades.

Hampton Hawes was born on a Georgia farm as one of the nine children and the third son of a rather well-to-do farmer. His father died when he was very young, but left a devoted mother and property free of debt. Hampton and his brothers and sisters grew up, as most children do, learning to work, but finding education harder to get than in the cities and towns.

Leon Steward

It was the American Missionary Society of the Congregational Church which gave the Hawes children their first opportunity to study in the classes which the church set up. After three years Mrs. Hawes sent Hawley to Ballard Normal School at Macon, Ga.

Won Scholarship

After completing the eighth grade Hawley was sent to Fisk University for college work. It was at that time that Lincoln University sent scouts to Fisk for athletic scholarships. Dr. Hawes now claims that the scouts saw about the only game in which he starred. Nevertheless, he won the scholarship.

He and Howard Drew, the famous track star, went North together. Young Hawes made good in football, baseball and basketball but, better yet, he graduated in 1910 "Magna Cum Laude" and received his A.M. and ST.B. degrees at the same school three years later. There was nothing unusual in those days about a young man graduating from Lincoln University and remaining to finish theology. However Hawley B. Hawes was one of that number who took his theology seriously indeed, as any who have known him since will attest.

Career Launched

After Hawes' graduation, Dr. John Reynolds, late president of the university, and one of the great pioneers to give their lives to the advancement of young Negroes, saw to it that the young student was sent to Jacksonville, Fla., as a student-paster, but during the same year he called him to go to Westminister mission in Los Angeles. The little one-room church may still be seen attached to the former Westminister Church on 35th Pl. and Denker as a Sunday School room.

There were very few Negroes in Los Angeles in 1913 and there were fewer still on the west side of the city, but this man went to work in dead earnest with such people as he could find. When he detected that people were beginning to move to the west side in larger numbers he already had plans working for making his mission into a church.

A Church and a Reipnete

His mission became a church in 1922, nine years after Rev. Hawes had come into the neighborhood and eight years after he had married Miss Gertrude L. Holman, daughter of the former Mission pastor. It was seven years after that their first born came. They named him Wesley L. Five years later he was joined by a sister, Margaret. Rev. Hawes insisted that a church building situated elsewhere be moved to make room for his congregation. It was done, and Westminister church was a fact.

In 1937, during his absence, Rev. Hawes was chosen moderator of the Los Angeles Presbytery. In 1941 Occidental College awarded him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. In 1944, he was unamiously chosen moderator of the Synod which covers California and Nevada.

Refused Pension

All of this came to a man who was of such singleness of purpose that each event was a surprise. When depression came Dr. Hawes refused his church's pension, bought a larger home, raised and sold chickens to pay for it. It was at this very comfortable quiet abode for the large family where Dr. and Mrs. Hawes raised fruit and flowers in abundance and where Dr. Hawes has constructed his own kind of a patio, where he and a grandchild can often be found together.

In 1915 his son Wesley became ministerial assistant for the state penal institutions. He has a pastorate also.

Gertrude died from a disease contracted in Germany during the second world war. His daughter, Mable Bishop, is an

Assistance Group Tells Aid to City's Needy Families

The Neighborly Assistance Foundation, Inc., now entering upon its fourth year of charitable service, was responsible for the distribution of 34 baskets to deserving needy families during the holiday season. Each basket contained a turkey and more than enough food for four persons. This would mean that full meals were furnished for about 140 persons. The Foundation was assisted this year by a donation of 18 baskets from the Civic Center Lodge, No. 52 F. & A. Masons and by a $50 dollar contribution from the Nimble Fingers Club of which Mrs. W. P. Gladden is president, and Christine Trice is secretary. Contributions of food and funds were also made by Lydia Missionary Circle and the Rosebud Civic and Social Club.

The distribution of baskets is but one phase of the work done by the Foundation. Seeking to measure up to its motto—"Immediate temporary relief when needed most"—the organization is constantly on the alert to respond to the calls that come for aid from various sources. In addition to the granting of limited donation to deserving cases, the officers of the Foundation have in numerous instances interceded for persons who were apparently deserving of state or county aid.

The committee responsible for the assembling and the distribution of the Holiday Baskets were: Mrs. Louise Oliver, Chairman, Mrs. Lilyan Townsend, Mrs. Q. T. Bookman, Rev. David D. Thomas, Rev. Herbert A. Foster, and Rev. Ernest S. Redd.

The Board of directors of the Foundation are: Rev. David D. Thomas, president; Rev. Herbert E. Foster, vice president; Rev. Ernest S. Redd, secretary; Nathaniel George, treasurer; Mrs. Lilyan Townsend, assistant secretary; Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. Louise Oliver, Mrs. Florence Thmoas, Cecil E. Davis, George Nicholson, directors.

Former Showman Holds Services At Zion Temple

Throughout this week and next revival services are being conducted here at Zion Temple Church, 6520 South Normandie Avenue, by the Rev. Robert McMurray of Cincinnati, Ohio, former member of the "Steeplechasers" dancing team of Broadway fame. The young minister, with his wife and two daughters, arrived in Los Angeles last Saturday, to spend several days preaching and evangelizing in the city where he once would have been heralded as a stellar attraction in the theatrical world.

Forsakes Stage

Six years ago McMurray walked away from his 750-dollar-a-week performance to devote his life to Christianity and the proclaiming of its principles. Just as his erstwhile dancing and mimicry attracted thousands to showplaces throughout the country, today as he travels from Coast to Coast on a new mission, he has won many for Christ through his message of good tidings to the souls of men.

Favrite Son

Host pastor to the 27-year-old clergyman is the Rev. Frank R. Bowdan, native Californian, who after an absence of many years, returned here two years ago to take up the pastorate of the South Normandie church. Last Sunday a capacity crowd filled the 600-seat auditorium of Zion Temple to hear the first sermons of visiting Rev. McMurray.

Lucille Giles Heads McCoy Church Program

The Deaconesses of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, will be in charge of the day's worship Sunday, January 10. Mrs. Lucille Giles, Chairman of the Deaconess Board, assures that every effort has been made to bring forth a service outstanding in the annals of these yearly observances.

Rev. Anderson Officiating

In the morning worship Mesdames M. L. Lockhart, Gertie Walker and Eloise Moore will speak on the theme for the day, "The Ministry of the Deaconess in the Church." Pastor E. A. Anderson will bring a special message for the occasion.

Combined Presentation

The Reverend M. L. Scott, Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, his great congregation and choir have been asked to share in the afternoon worship at 3 p.m. Reverend Scott is to deliver the message for this service. The Deaconess Boards of Greater First Baptist church, Victory Baptist, Providence Baptint, and New Hope Baptist have been invited to join in the observance. Inspiring musical renditions can be expected from among others, the Fisher Brothers of the 103rd St. Baptist Church. The public is invited to share in the day's worship.

Church Composer Offered Contract

Churches Join to Aid Fight for Civil Rights

NEW YORK—The issue of civil rights is still a vital political factor, representatives of 21 national Negro church, civic, professional, fraternal and labor organizations warn in a statement made public last week by Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP.

The statement which reviews the status of civil rights during the first year of the Eisenhower administration was developed at a conference of Negro organizations called by the NAACP here on December 4. Approval of the draft was later confirmed by the organizations.

Executive action taken by the administration is combatting racial discrimination and segregation and participation of the Attorney General's office in legal action to curb restaurant discrimination in Washington and public school segregation are cited as steps taken to implemen tthe Republican party campaign pledges.

Legislation Dormant

However, the statement points out, "on the legislative front, the picture has been one of unrelieved gloom. No civil rights measures have yet been reported out of committees in either House or Senate."

Turning to the minority party, the statement notes the "increasing evidences of efforts by certain leaders of the Democratic party to real the breach with the South. In this process," it asserts, "it is alarming to see indications that they are prepared to base unity upon the sacrifice of the civil rights program."

Bi-Partisan Action Sought

The organizations ask both parties to support legislative, executive, pudicial and educational measures to: 1. ban racial segregation in all public accommodations, transportation and publicly-supported institutions and facilities; 2. assure equality of job opportunity; 3. uphold the right to vote unrestricted by local practices or the poll tax; 4. maintain freedom of residence; 5. afford protection against police brutality and mob violence; 6. uphold the merit system in appointments to public office; and 7. develop an aggressive program of democratic action to combat totalitarianism.

In addition to the NAACP, the statement was approved by the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, National Council of Negro Women, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, United Transport Service Employees-CIO, Knights of St. Peter Claver, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, I.B.P.O. Elks, National Alliance of Postal Employees, Negro Labor Committee, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, National Dental Association, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, National Bar Association, African Methodist Episcopal Church, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters - AFL, American Council on Human Rights, Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, Prince Hall Masons, and National Medical Association.

Woodlawn Branch YWCA in Financial Projects in January

The Parade of States, the annual Fund Raising Project sponsored by the YWCA-Woodlawn Branch under the general chairmanship of Mrs. A. C. Harris Bilbrew announces many interesting and entertaining activities for the month of January.

Sunday, January 10 at the Sojourner Truth Home, 2133 S. Harvard, Mrs. Beatrice Cassell, Captain for the State of California will present a Fashion Review and Art Exhibit from 3-7 p.m. Fashions will feature the latest in ladies chapeaus, furs, men's, women's and children's clothings. Art features will be scenes from early California days, ceramics, and sculpture. Miss Hazel Macbeth, member of the Branch Committee Administration will give brief highlights of the progress of California.

The public is invited.

Church Opens Job Bureau

Opening an Employment Bureau with specialization in hiring the handicapped is the Greater Faith Community Center and Church, 4001 So. Harvard Blvd. of which Rev. B. Clarence Cooke is pastor, it was announced this week by Dr. James B. Stafford, President of the Men's Council.

Dan Christian will head the employment service at Greater Faith with office hours daily. Appointments may be made by calling the Church Office, AX 1-6839.

He will also serve as counsellor for those with problems, whether personal or domestic. All problems will be handled with much discretion and in strict confidence. Spiritual and Religious difficulties will be referred to Dr. Cooke.

Carver Day Proclaimed In California

SACRAMENTO — Gov. Goodwin J. Knight last week proclaimed Tuesday, Jan. 5, Dr. George Washington Carver Day in California.

The proclamation of the governor, dated Dec. 29, followed similar action honoring Dr. Carver taken by the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors last week.

Declared Gov. Knight:

"Among the giants of the American past, Dr. George Washington Carver stands with the greatest. No other man so personified the realization of our nation's finest tarditions as did Dr. Carver in his rise from the almost hopeless obscurity of slavery to a well-deserved position of international prominence and respect.

"His 40 years of tireless devotion to the development of Tuskegee Institute in Alabama into one of the finest educational facilities in the world have brought to Dr. Carver the undying gratitude of men and women of good will the world over. His accomplishments in the fields of scientific research and education have benefited not only members of his own race but have helped to make a fuller life for all Americans.

"To further the national program honoring the memory of Dr. Carver on the anniversary of his death, I, Goodwin J. Knight, governor of California, do hereby proclaim Jan. 5, 1954, as Dr. George Washington Carver Day in California, and urge that the people of our State refresh and expand their knowledge of the many contributions this great man has made to the American way of life."

my co-worker, June Shagaloff, of our national staff.

In the space of four days prior to and during the entrance of the first 23 Negro children into the "white" schools four crosses were burned, two homes were shot into and two bombs were thrown, one of which failed to explode.

10 Arrested

To top it off, 10 of us were arrested and charged with "conspiring to endanger the lives and health of certain (Negro) children by inducing them to transfer" to the all-white schools. We were considered for indictment by the first grand jury. The charges against us did not stand.

The grand jury stated that if they could not indict the NAACP represetatives, then they would not indict the men arrested for taking part in the bombings!

Wonder why I remember Cairo?

Las Vegas—Jim Crow

Jan. 7, Las Vegas will hold a hearing on a proposed Civil Rights Ordinance with NAACP's Franklin H. Williams testifying on the moral, legal and sociological factors involved. Vegas, with its bright lights, one armed bandits and fabulous strip hotels, is the most jim crowed city north of Gulfport, Miss. We wish Mr. Williams and the Las Vegas NAACP good luck and success. Maybe we'll see the inside of Mr. Frank (part owner) Sinatra's Sands Hotel yet.

And In L. A.

Jan. 7 in L. A. is the day when Mayor Norris Poulson will meet with the Los Angeles Board of Fire Commissioners on the issue of racial segregation in that department. The Mayor ordered the five member commission back in September to investigate "alleged" jim crow in the fire department. He also instructed the board to eliminate same if found to be in practice.

The board held a public hearing on Oct. 8, at which time the NAACP presented the facts: Negroes are confined to two of the 87 fire stations in Los Angeles.

Two weeks ago the commission heard, accepted and adopted as its own report that tendered to them by the architect of the present system, Chief John H. Alderson. In essence the chief's report said he is segregating Negro firemen "for the good of the service."

Mayor Poulson is now presented with the opportunity to rectify the situation. He can make good vote-getting hay by firing an adamant Board of Fire Commissioners and an anti-Negro fire chief, or he can succumb to the mirage of expediency and go the way of all political flesh. Time has come to "fish or get off the yacht."

Trust that you found something to like about our first column to set sail on The Big Sea. Cuss us and criticize us, but do not ignore this midnight oil.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Find Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

NEW YORK, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, rectums where so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne (R)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.* The price is only 59c a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H.—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly.

Sports Roundup

By BRAD PYE, JR.
(California Eagle Exclusive)

BERKELEY—We're convinced Red Sanders' 1953 UCLA Bruins were by far the strongest PCC unit to face the Big Ten's representative at Pasadena the past eight years. . . . What other PCC standard-bearer has scored more than two touchdowns on a Big Ten team in the Rose Bowl?

EZZ CHARLES IS A GRAND GUY TO MEET

Ezzard Charles, the former heavyweight champion of the world, is a lean mean man in the ring . . , but outside the squared circle he's a kind, humble, generous gent. Coley Wallace, star of the Joe Louis Story, and his other victims will virtually vouch for the above statement.

BRAD PYE, JR.

The millions who watched the recent Charles-Wallace bout on TV are undoubtedly familiar with the former's tiger-like ring tactics.

On the contrary, the USMC Depot of Supplies in S.F. is quite aware of Charles' kindness and generosity. He spent almost three hours the night after his match with Wallace at their boxing smoker signing autographs and refereeing the main event for free. And Charles, like millions of others, who hold the Corps in the highest esteem, declared he was honored and proud to be invited to the Marines' fights. From Col. H. C. Waterman—the Commanding Officer—on down to the lowest enlisfed man the feeling is mutual, Charles old man.

Throughout the preliminary bouts Charles kept Col. F. J. Erwin, OIC of the Depot, pugilists and this scribbler in stitches with his witty remarks. After one bout in which a contestant was cut above the eye and the bout had to be stopped, Charles made the following comment: "That man should be put on report for destroying government property."

It would be difficult to identify the Cincinnati citizen to the boxing profession right off the bat if you met him on the street. . . . His face is virtually unmarked. One could easily mistake him for a college professor or business executive because of his conservative appearance and dynamic speaking voice.

We've met most of the world's fabulous athletes and we mark Charles — the erstwhile champion and in our book the present No. 1 contender—as one of the most sincere and entertaining regular Joe's that we've ever had the pleasure of meeting. The same goes for Charles' trainer, chubby Jimmy Brown, and associate Cliff Mann.

Don Grant Headlines Olympic Boxing Card

By EDW "ABIE" ROBINSON

Don Grant goes after his twelfth straight ring victory this Tuesday night at the Olympic Auditorium when he faces seasoned Esau Ferdinand, ex-ruler of the State middleweight belt. Grant, undefeated in 11 professional bouts, will be making his second start as a main-liner. He easily defeated Jesse Fuentes in his debut as a 10-rounder. Grant scored a fifth round knockout.

The youthful Grant is trained by veteran Duke Hollyway, who has piloted such fighters as Jack Chase, Harold Dade, John Thomas, Chalky Wright, Henry Armstrong to world title holders. Duke has been around the game a long time and stated that Grant has the making of a great fighter.

The Grant handlers will launch their bid in 1954 in hopes of landing the big one for the kid before the year is out. Ferdinand isn't a soft touch by any means and should Grant get by this veteran he may be well on his way.

PRO BOWL BOAST LEAGUE'S GREATS

Otto Graham who'll quarterback the east in the All-Star Pro-Bowl football game January 17 in the Coliseum, has passed for an average of 1.58 miles per season during his eight years with Cleveland Browns. Also on the eastern squad will be Chuck Bednarik, great center, Kyle Rote, Charley Trippi, Bobby Thomason, Pete Pihos, Frank Gifford, Johnny Olszeski and Lynn Chandois.

VERYL SWITZER RUNNING HAILED

SAN FRANCISCO — The Bay Area football fans are hailing Veryl Switzer of Kansas State as one of the most clever running halfbacks to hit Zezar Stadium. It was a stunning defeat for the East as Stanford's Bobby Garsett's passing was equally as effective as Switzer's running and the Western College All-Stars staunch line. More than 62,000 fans watched the West rack up an impressive 31-7 victory.

UCLA Bruins Cagers Face California Bears Friday

Johnny Moore the Bruins high scoring forward is posting 115 points in eleven games this season third behind the Ronnie Livingston UCLA's sparkplug.

Willie Naulls, 6-5 sophomore center sensation who is playing his first year of college basketball, is fourth in the rating with 68 points and second in rebounds with 73. Morris Taft the third sepia player is posting 50 points at the guard position.

The Bruins are sporting a record of nine wins and two losses, and they will open their conference season this weekend, traveling north to meet California in a two-game set Friday and Saturday.

Coach Johnny Wooden's Bruins, pre-season choices of many experts to regain the division title, appear to be ready for the Bears. In the first 11 games of the season, the Westwood crew has bucketed 809 points for an average of 73.5, while holding their opponents to 597 points and a 54.2 average.

Last year, California became the first team to defeat UCLA twice in a row in the UCLA gym. With a strong veteran lineup, the defending Southern Division champion Bears will be out to duplicate their record of last season.

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: The popular Jack P. Malley, assistant price maker to Walter C. Marty throughout the present regime of the Caliente racetrack, will take over as active director of the book ring as well as the Caliente future books on the Santa Anita Handicap and the Kentucky Derby, said General Manager John S. Alessio. Walter C. Marty, who resigned last Monday because of ill-health, held the position of managing director of Caliente for the past seven years. Manager Alessio announced that Marty will continue to serve in an advisory capacity as a member of the board of directors. Two big features will support the ten race program at the border course this Sunday. "The Calcutta", mile and 70 yards, will be the feature, co-feature "The Bombay," six furlongs.

RHODES QUALIFY FOR L.A. OPEN

Ted Rhodes and Charles Sifford qualified for the 28th Los Angeles Open Golf tourney which starts Friday at Fox Hills Country Club. Rhodes, one of the nation's ranking sepia golfers, fired a 75-68 for a total of 143 for the Montebello course.

Over on the Griffith Park Charles Sifford qualified with a 73-72 for 145. Playing on the same green was veteran Bill Spiller, who failed to qualify. The L.A. Junior Chamber of Commerce named 74 exemptions in the forthcoming tourney.

Glamour, Leadership Combined

The old adage that glamour and brains don't go hand in hand was disproved this week as the Eagle cited 12 organizations and their presidents for outstanding achievement during 1953. Each of the honorees has both glamor and quality of outstanding leadership.

In its quest for the 12 outstanding leaders of community organizations, the Eagle put the emphasis on what the organization had done and on how well their presidents had done the job of exerting dynamic leadership.

The fact that the women selected turned out to have their full measure of glamor was a happy coincidence that seems to indicate that leadership and personal charm go hand in hand and smooth the path to success.

Organizations chosen for the 1953 citations reflect all varieties of community activities from the emphasis put on civil rights by the American Council on Human Rights through purely charitable activities of the Doll League to the social work aspects of the duties performed by the Lullaby Guild.

Each of the women who headed these organizations during the past year did her job while shouldering a full load of other civic responsibilitiese and while carrying on her duties in her profession or as a housewife and mother.

The Eagle is proud to cite the organizations and their presidents, both for what they have done, and out of the hope that other women may be inspired to do their best during the coming year to help make our community a better place in which to live.

Activities Of Clubs Described

The many charity and philanthropic clubs in Los Angeles give the city its special climate of warmth and friendliness and help to strangers and those in need.

These organizations are so numerous that it is impossible to give due credit to them all. This year, the Eagle has selected the leaders of a dozen of those outstanding during the past 12 months.

Organizations

These organizations are the Los Angeles Urban League Auxiliary, The Co-operettes Charity and Social Club, the Turnabout Charity Club, Inc., Benevolent Variety Artists, Wilfandel, Auxiliary to the Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association of Southern California, Les Dames, American Council on Human Rights, Jack and Jill, Lullaby Guild, Doll League, and League of Allied Arts.

Urban League Auxiliary

The Los Angeles Urban League Auxiliary was organized in May of 1952 and has as its purpose the promotion, encouragement, and assistance in activities of cultural, civic, and social nature. It is designed to publicize and further the general well-being of the Urban League Movement, locally and nationally. The present active membership is 40 women who broadly represent the Los Angeles communities and also 44 associate members who assist the active members in interpretating the Urban League program.

The Guild has supported the Urban League by bringing into Urban League membership 500 members and better than $1,000. Through the sponsorship of the Bazaar Ball, an additional $500 has been given to the agency during the course of 1953.

Co-operettes

The Co-operettes Charity and Social Club was organized in 1949 and has a membership of 17.

Last year it provided clothing to needy children in the Watts area through a Foster Care unit in the Los Angeles County Department of Charities.

The club also participated in the Y.W.C.A. fund-raising campaign and won first prize for its support.

In the annual flower hat show held last year at the Florentine Gardens, the Co-operettes won second prize with the theme "All Nations."

Turnabout Charity Club, Inc., has been in existence eight years and is composed of 20 members. Major money-raising affairs each year with public support help to carry on projects. Guests at the Christ-

Jack and Jill Annual 'Polka for Polio'

Regular meeting of the Jack and Jill Club was held at the Sojourner Truth Home Monday evening with the president, Mrs. Charlene Johnson officiating. The meeting began with a wonderful program planned by the program chairman, Mrs. Eloia Davis. Mrs. Davis introduced Mrs. Julia Murrell, who presented a panel made up of girls and boys from the High School Group of Jack and Jill.

Interest Inventoried

The teen-agers discussed many problems such as: Teenage Dating, led by Carole Coleman; Party Behavior, Sandy Phoenix; Juvenile Delinquency, Gilbert Faustina; Dope, Donald Grant; and Jack and Jill, Sandy Hoskins. This proved to be a special treat for the parents because they were able to get the teen-agers' thinking on the above problems.

Cotton Calypso Caper

The main business of the evening was the finishing up of plans for the "Polka for Polio" which is being presented by the Jack and Jill of Los Angeles Friday, January 22, 1954, 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the Hotel Cosmopolitan with the theme: "Cotton Calypso Caper." The entire proceeds will go to the March of Dimes. Mrs. Emily Woody, the dance chairman, said a wonderful program would be presented to assure an evening of fun in the tropical setting.

VISIT HOUSTON

The following Los Angeles residents visited Houston, Tex., over the holidays: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Mattye Bedford Lewis, of the staff of the All Nations Social Center, Mrs. Stella Patton Lee, member of the City school system, and Mrs. Celeste Jones Carter of 1323 East Vernon.

Southpark Co-eds Elect Officers

At their final December business meeting the South Park Co-eds held their annual election of officers.

Newly elected to serve the group for 1954 are: Emmett Albert, President; Albert Thomas, Vice-President; Helen Williams, Treasurer; Mary Lou Johnson, Secretary; Elias Welch, Sgt.-at-Arms and Billie Taylor, Reporter.

These teen-age young ladies and gentlemen number among their members many outstanding persons in the athletic world as well as talented arists. New officers will be installed at the Jan. 28 meeting.

VISITORS

Mrs. Ross, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is planning on making her home in our city.

Dr. Charles Thomas, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is spending a few days visiting his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, 467 East 43rd Street.

• • •

Mrs. Joseph Napoleon, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, spent a week and one-half with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Napoleon.

Bill Smallwood

Jay Jackson back on the Defender after so long an absence.

Dr. Ulyses Bourne of Frederick, Md. (he Xmas houseguested with Dr. and Mrs. Ed Hawkins) reluctantly shoved off for home after a busy local getting-around. He's one of the most eligible bachelors east of the Mississippi. His sister, also a medic, is on Howard University Medical School faculty. And the late Rev. Samuel Beane was their uncle, come to think.

Bill Smallwood

The Gilbert Lindseys busy showing the town to their houseguest from Detroit, Edith (Dit) Stevens. Local friends of the Judge William Hasties (Beryl) will learn here she has been ailing but seriously.

Local right eyebrows haven't come down yet among Miriam Christian's best friends and best enemies, hearing she's off to Paris for an indefinite stay. Carry on, girl. Keep 'em teeth-gnashing!

They're still discussing Maggi Hathaway Fleming's silver hair and black sequin dress at the BVA hoedown. Add holiday hosts: George Garner and his mother in Pasadena.

Ruby Berkeley Goodwin's brother Clifford (he helped her write her book) is writing on his own, here. Their brother Tom, he's a lawyer in Berkeley, comes down to L.A. once a month to see their mother.

Doce Amigas had one of the more brilliant parties of the season. Georgia Hardimon is president, Ida McMullon, treasurer, Elsie Foster, secretary. Others: Margery DeCosta, Annamae Woods, Ethel Tabor, Sara Parker, Mary Rhodes, Martha Sheffield, Eliza Johnson, Selena Faulkner and Carolyn Moore.

Godparents

Fay Jackson has a Sherman Oaks address, you knew?

The Eddie Sanford Smiths (Tee) will be the godparents for Tony Allen, Dotti and Bob Allen's cherub. The latter has a Hillman Minx, incidentally. Saw Tee and Eddie in Berkeley at the Beatys during the holidays. Drove their new DeSoto up and did the Bay area in fine style. Kate Garcia was in SF too, guesting with brilliant Jane Bosfield who was an important staff worker during the peace conference in SF.

Saw the Waldo Bethels (Freda) in Berkeley prior to leaving for Mexico City in their new Lincoln Capri. Ceth Lee went up to visit the fabulous Presley Winfields who are off to Europe again soon. And the equally fabulous Aramis Fouches had their annual New Year's Eve party at that spectacular hillside house of theirs overlooking the Bay bridge.

Backslapping

There, the Earl Adamses (Zola), whose beautiful daughter Joan recently presented them with their second grandchild. She's wed to the handsome former USF football ace, John Finney. Regretted, too, not enough time to get to see Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Goodlet's new house which is such a topic in the Bay area. Ditto medic Herbie Henderson, whom we've not seen in a whole age or more.

But we did get to see cute, slender, tan Evangeline Morris, who is a math major at UC but credibly. No sign of Capt. Tommy Long. Locating Tommy seems to be a mystery somehow.

Loud hosannahs and backslapping and memories with contagious, ageless, irrepressible Bus Lee who is the No. 1 man for Calvert up north. Told us he saw Ted Albritton in NY at the testimonial for Atty. Thurgood Marshall. And that Joe Makel flies into L.A. any day now. Bus is married to Angelique Bratton's sister Lilly-Belle. They live in Berkeley now.

Proudest Uncle

Frank Jackson proudest of the new uncles in LA town. His sister-in-law, Jo, presented husband John with a daughter at Queen of Angels Hospital last Wednesday. Much champagne uncorking, naturally.

Corrine Adams Simmons: Thanks and the same to you.

That's Atty. Hugh MacBeth's nephew, Orlando Saunders, who is the only tan tone member of the choir at San Diego's Naval Base. He's a civilian employee, building his own place down there too. Recently was divorced by his wife, a S'Diego social worker.

Tahiti

The Lennie Haydens planning a Tahiti trip?

Why not a local fancy headdress ball?

Seems strange not seeing Arvella Young at Santa Anita this season, by golly! We used to have some lucky good times out there. Since she's permanently living in Kansas now, she may sell her house here.

Virginia Paris' sister calls to reassure us she's still in Australia and doing mighty handsome. Virginia's been there over a year. Has become something of a toast too, both in Melbourne and Sydney. I can hear that laugh of hers now.

Evelyn Burwell: Let's make that soon. I'm getting restless feet again.

Friends of Eadward Deason still talking about his house out Encino way. Looks like a Swiss chalet as you approach it. A grand piano in the well-fireplaced living room which came from Europe.

MORE CLUB WOMEN

mas dance bring gifts to be distributed to needy youngsters at the annual Christmas party.

Most outstanding project is the Toy Loan program, under the auspices of the L.A. County Federation of Community Coordinating Councils. A trained and experienced toyrarian is hired by the Turnabouts. Turnabouts last year were legalized by the Federal Government in Washington, D.C., as a non-profit chartered organization. The club has also "adopted" a 10-year-old girl who has been clothed and cared for by the club for several years.

B.V.A's.

The Benevolent Variety Artists was founded in 1946 by a group of local show girls for the purpose of providing care and support for needy show folk.

It now has a membership of 33 and is the only organization of its type in the country.

Last year it initiated plans to become a national organization and the organization is forging steadily ahead toward its goal to build and maintain a home for aging and ailing performers.

Wilfandel

The Wilfandel Club of Los Angeles was organized in 1944 by two co-founders, Mrs. Fannie Williams and Mrs. Delia Williams, for the purpose of providing the community with a club house that would afford cultural and recreational activities as well as to engage in philanthropy.

Last year the spacious clubhouse was redecorated and the 44 members hope to burn their mortgage in '54. Los Angeles Beautiful cited Wilfandel recently for the extensive beautification of its property.

Its philanthropies last year included aid to the Spastic Foundation and three scholarships, two of which were for European study.

Medical, Dental

The Auxiliary to the Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association of Southern California works diligently on a broad program of community service which includes a study of current legislation, problems of education, health and human relations.

During the past year the auxiliary supported with volunteer service and solicitation of funds the Community Chest, American Red Cross, the NAACP and the Urban League.

It gave financial support to the Community Health Association, the Outdoor Life and Health Association, Sister Kenny Foundation and March of Dimes. Contributions were also given in the form of a scholarship to U.C.L.A. and a donation to the United Negro College fund.

Les Dames

Les Dames Social and Charity Club was organized in 1946 to provide aid for underprivileged children. Last year they broadened their field of service to include health and welfare. Their principal project was a financial contribution to the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

Human Rights Council

The Los Angeles Council of the American Council on Human Rights was organized in Los Angeles in 1949 by members of Alpha Phi Alpha and Kappa Alpha Psi fraternities, and Delta Sigma Theta, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sigma Gamma Rho and Zeta Phi Beta sororities, for the purpose of seeking full political, economic and social rights for all Americans.

Last year the council conducted a vigorous voters registration campaign and sponsored a successful oratorical contest for young voters on the subject "What Does My Vote Mean."

It also helped organize the FEPC mobilization and worked actively with the County Conference on Community Relations.

In April of this year the coun-

MU-SO-LITE CELEBRATES IN GALA NEW YEARS PART

Amid the same warm friendship that has existed since the group first got together back in 1938, the Mu-So-Lites had their night with their annual mid-holiday party.

The spacious home of Mrs. Prudence Cook, 4825 So. San Pedro Street, was the scene. The members are some of the community's most respected members, ranging in occupation from school professors, church, and real estate.

The Mu-So-Lites, long known for their many worthy contributions to the city and community for their charitable work which includes working with our youth, donating sums of monies to various causes and giving up untold numbers of their own time in an effort to bring about a better city in which to live.

The New Year's Eve party was filled with cheers and laughter. Club members welcomed their guests under beautiful holiday decorations and candle lights. Each member was smartly gowned and wearing fun caps.

Highlights of the party were solos by Mrs. Floretta Taylor, reading by Mrs. Estell Butler, and a piano solo by Mrs. Blanche Lane.

Members exchanged gifts and the good times were on hand, as a turkey graced the dinner table, making it a beautiful sight to behold.

Gaylords Hold Monthly Meeting

The Gaylords Social and Charity Club held its regular meeting Sunday at the home of club member Thomas Waller, 1335 E. 55th Street.

Mrs. Ann Waller slipped in southern fried chicken at the conclusion of the club's business meeting.

Members attending the regular session were: C. Harris, Fred and Wiley Wills, Edward Toney, Travis Moultre and John Hall.

The club members listened to a brief talk on publicity and promotion by California Eagle's Edward "Abie" Robinson.

Rose C. Banks Guests Enjoy Dinner Party

Mrs. Rose C. Banks, long time resident of this city and a well-known church figure, entertained six prominent club women Sunday afternoon at her annual dinner in the Hotel Clark's smart Magnolia room.

Mrs. Banks presented each guest with calendar handkerchiefs. The guests later retired to her fashionable 42nd Street home to enjoy tea.

Those attending the festivities were: Miss Millie Proctie, Mrs. Mary Summers, Mrs. Naomi Robinson, Mrs. Genevive Alexander and Mrs. Iola Montgomery. The group expressed complete enjoyment at the close of the affair, which was sparked with gaiety.

Medical, Dental In Elegant Ball

The annual brilliant holiday dancing party given on December 30 by the members of the Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Association and Auxiliary of Southern California, was an elegant ball with hundreds of the city's social elite and visiting guests dancing to the music of Jeep Smith's orchestra.

The Elk's beautiful ballroom was the setting for the stupendous affair, with gay colored balloons, confetti, and serpentine, which gave an air of gaiety.

Serving as dance chairmen were Mrs. John Carney and Mrs. Robert Gantt. Receiving guests were Mrs. Marie Frederick, Mrs. Laura Smitherman.

Cooperettes Hold Election Tuesday

The Cooperettes held their annual election of officers at the home of club member Lilah Durden. The newly-elected officers are as follows: President, Oralean Washington; vice-president, Ophelia Huntley; secretary, Christine Glasco; corresponding secretary, Mary Jones; treasurer, Helen Stewart; assistant treasurer, Marie Holmes; business manager, Ann Craig; publicity manager, Marjorie Parker; historian, Lilah Durden, and sergeant-at-arms, Callie Buford. The board of directors: President, secretary, treasurer, Jennive Fisher, Quida Tyas, Beatrice Bradley, Geraldine Britt, Vivian Hall, Josie Stewart and Ruth Smith.

Cavalrettes In Gay Revelry New Years

Not all of the gay revelry that welcomed 1954 had quelled by Saturday evening when the Cavalrettes contributed their bit to the welcoming of the New Year and the ending of a season of gala celebrations. Relaxing in an atmosphere of quiet gaiety, it seemed that some of Los Angeles' best whist players weren't interested in holding their record until the whisper of prizes had gotten around. The winners: John Moore, No. 1, ash trays to catch the remains of those pleasingly aromatic cigars; Julia Houston, No. 2, a beautiful ceramic piece to add to the colorfulness of her home; and Delphine Elliod, No. 3, coasters for those sizzling cold drinks.

And what a pleasant surprise when the secret pals and gifts were revealed. Frankly, I would like to mention each gift—but they are too numerous. Again this year crystal ware with gold trim, unique shapes, multi purpose and of a Fostoria quality and beautifully painted, unusually shaped ceramic pieces seemed to have been the preferred gifts. The always welcome gifts in toiletries, including the Lanvin products, made their bid. And, to get personal, Mother Esther T. Greenly is the perfect model for the Chinese style dusty pink quilted robe with a trim of plush black velvet, one of her many gifts. The first showing was Saturday night. Everyone was deeply appreciative and pleased with the unstinting quality of the many gifts.

And with the joy some sorrow often comes. Members Mesdames Vostile Gipson and Pauline Richardson were unable to be with us. For Mrs. Gipson an auto accident involving injuries to her sister and hospitalization of her brother-in-law. We share your sorrows, Mrs. Gipson, and hope those members of your family will soon be up and around. And Mrs. Richardson, few were able to "beat down" the virus and cold epidemic and we are pulling for you.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS

Ringing in the new year can prove to be a hard bell to toll if you, like us, tried to make yourself present at all of the long week-end "social affairs."

This period will be remembered (occasionally) as the week when good livers shattered to shreds last year's resolutions and replaced them with vows of a "goody goody" '54. Therefore, during January, conscientious people like Walker Bruce, Sheila Montgomery, Paf Prescott, Mack Morriss, Carolyn Cooley and Gladys Taylor will be staunchly "straight" until—the thrill of being mist is gone.

[illegible] WE REMEMBERED

The Reggie Hooper rating went up a couple of notches recently when they hosted the [illegible] Castle in what could be termed their first "really" successful shindown for Eons. [illegible] it was a great affair [illegible] Social Chairman Sammy [illegible]'s hard work, but [illegible] it didn't go [illegible] MORE HEAD [illegible]

[illegible] were Tommy Daugherty and his gal Friday, Saturday, etc., Mildred Pilkington, Lynette Cobb and boy Johnny, Sandra and Bob Pullove, Niles Garrett, Ellis Dickerson, Paf Anderson and her beau THEOPLEM, Bill Gallay, Tina Anderson (who impressed us no end—look out, Paf) and her love Ted Reed, Walter Givens, Mary and Bob Campbell.

TWEEDSMEN FEEDUM

A semi-private gathering [illegible] of Tweedsmen and their guests got things up at the home of playboy Carl Peterson. (Oh yes, Easy balled). We love the energetic hostess [illegible] getting) Thursday night with people angled [illegible] along with [illegible] their guests. [illegible] Host [illegible] all [illegible] K not?

[illegible] Tweedsgal who will be married within the month . . . why?

Suzy Moore's great personality (tee hee) and Howard Morehead's good taste. The refreshments were great and the people were straight, all adding up to another Tweedsman success.

PEOPLE ARE TALKING ABOUT!

The professional boy who raised so much stuff among the "hubbyhunters." He left town and is probably telling his wife and two kids about the wonderful time he had.

That look on Joan Southern's face when she spilled "juice" on her satin collar.

Army man Herman (Ichabod) Ward's mad pahty.

The coming events concerning Bonnie Luttrell and Nancy Wallace . . . their engagement was broken two months ago but [illegible] is in sight . . . K not?

The Tweedgal who will be married within the month . . . why?

AWARDS MADE—One of the highlights of the Annual Formal Dance of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, New Year's Day was the presentation of fifty dollar ($50.00) and twenty five dollar ($25.00) War Bonds to the Merry-Go-Rounders and La Jovial Social Clubs respectively, as first and second prizes for having had the most attractively, uniquely designed tables at the Annual Alpha Red, White and Blue Revue Benefit Show at the Florentine Gardens, November 8, 1953. Receiving the prizes for these organizations were: Mrs. Jean Watkins, Representative, Merry-Go-Rounders, and Mrs. Ruth Butler, President, La Jovial Club. Shown are: left to right, rear, William Brown, Jr., Vice President, Beta Psi Lambda, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; Gaynelle Miles, Past President, Alpha Auxiliary; Ruth Butler, President, Jovial Club; Jean Watkins, Representative, Merry-Go-Rounders; Atty. Macee Tolbert. Front row: Hibbler, Alphaman; McHenry Norman, Member, Public Relations Committee; Rosemary Hampton, Past President, Alpha Auxiliary; Mary Lou Tolbert, President, Alpha Auxiliary, and Eugene Walton, Vice Chairman, Red, White and Blue Revue Benefit Committee.

EARTHA KITT BIG HIT IN 'NEW FACES' AT BILTMORE

"Chazz" Crawford's

"SOUND TRACK"

While the year is still in three-cornered pants, a scribe whose name rhymes with jazz goes to press over a "tall liquid" and a backdrop of Buddy De Franco's theme from "The Bad and the Beautiful."

Impressions

Of the Will Mastin Trio at Herman Hover's saloon Monday night. And a thank you note to Sammy Davir, Jr., who "gave us the nod." And a vote of confidence to dancer "Aysha" Boone for breaking away from a tryout for a Vegas nitery to link arms with us and make the scene. Sammy's mimicry is so great that he occasionally breaks himself up.

This happened once during his take-off on Jerry Lewis, after which there is "no tomorrow." . . . Sammy Davis, Sr., the "cool one," had to smile broadly at the antics of his offspring. And as for Will Mastin, the uncle who taught Junior the tricks of the trade and put him in the business. Well, he was in stitches! The waiters were table hopping in order to serve the audience, who by this time were in the aisles!

Refill, Please!

Now, Lionel Hampton is providing our backdrop music. It's his spirited arrangement of "Kingfish" and our liquid measure needs replenishing. We remember to mention that humid Helen Humes is providing mirth and melody in the Las Palmas revusical "Great to Be Alive" and holding her blessed own. Helen sends 'em out of the theater humming her torchants!

Encounters!

Dick Richards, who pilots the smooth apparel shops at 540 and 542 S. Broadway. (Uptown, friend) . . . Besides the values on "cloth" at the men's emporiums. (We were thunderstruck!) . . . We had a lift in learning that Dick speaks our jargon. He's about as starry-eyed as this scribbler. Meaning he digs the theatrical rialto, and being an advertiser on these pages, keeps up with our account of the happenings.

Newsgal Willa Booker, who could see us with a mink tee shirt for Xmas, will be thrilled to know we'll keep in touch with Richards, our new-found chum, and make his smart shops headquarters for the "fronts." . . . After all, with a mink tee shirt, who can afford to live a threadbare existence?

After the Ciro's date dropped into Ben Pollack's pizza palace on the strip to get blitzed with his blintzes. Ben tells us that he dropped four grand on Streetcombers Number Two (which did an elfoldo at Jefferson and Vermont after a six-

"THE FASTEST TRAIN IN THE WORLD"

Recording Star Tops Seventeen In N. Y. Revue

Leonard Sillman's new musical revue NEW FACES OF '53 opened Tuesday night at the Biltmore theatre to a capacity house and from every indication not a soul was disappointed. The show is fast moving and has such appealing sparkle and freshness that it is easily classified as unusually high class entertainment.

Talented Performers

The entire cast displays such exceptional diversity and fine talent that picking out stars is difficult. Ronny Graham, June Carroll, Alice Ghostly, Robert Clary and Paul Lynde were all enthusiastically applauded for their performances and the dancing ensembles were thoroughly enjoyable. However, it was apparent early in the show that the audience was keyed up to see the sensational Eartha Kitt.

Kitt Steals Show

Although Eartha sings only two numbers, she is unquestionably one of the most exciting members of the cast. Her rendition of Bal Betit Bal was clever, but "MONOTONOUS," her final number, almost stopped the show. The integrated way in which Miss Kitt fits into the show was particularly pleasing to this reviewer.

An Entertainment Must

You folk who enjoy a good show take my advice and rush down today for a ticket because three weeks should prove too short to take care of the demand. If it doesn't, there's something wrong with this town. —C.R.

Song Writer Joins Suit Against Radio

NEW YORK—Walter Bishop, music composer, critic and publisher, is among the 33 leading American song writers who recently filed a $150,000,000 anti-trust suit against the nation's major radio and television broadcasting companies and their affiliates in Federal Court in New York.

Jack And Jill Dance To Aid March of Dimes

A dance to aid the March of Dimes will be held at the Cosmopolitan Hotel on Westlake Jan. 22. The local Jack and Jill Club, in conformity with the national program to aid March of Dimes campaigns throughout the nation is again sponsoring this project under the chairmanship of Mrs. Emily Woody.

Last year the Jack and Jill dance for the March of Dimes yielded a clear thousand dollars for the children who suffer from polio.

Mrs. Woody declares that the club hardly scratched the surface last year and urges every one to attend the cause this year. Mrs. Charlene Johnson is president of the Jack and Jill club.

IT'S NO SECRET, Der Bingle is in a trap and by the smile on his face he rather likes the situation. The reason being personable and dynamic Lu Cille Horne, author of KOHL's bright show, Sharing Secrets, a program heard daily at 11:30. You guessed it, Bing Crosby will be her guest come Friday, January 8, and the show should be packed with surprises.

Agnes DeMille Group Philharmonic Attraction

Agnes De Mille, unanimously acclaimed as the most important dance choreographer on Broadway today, will personally dance in each of the three performances her dance company will present in Philharmonic Auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, January 8 and 9, it was learned this week.

Versatile Performers

Her dance creations have graced such Broadway musical hits as "Oklahoma," "Bloomer Girl," "One Touch of Venus," "Carousel," "Allegro," "Brigadoon," "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" and "Paint Your Wagon."

In addition her ballets for Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and Ballet Theater include the popular "Rodeo," "Three Virgins and a Devil," "Tally-Ho" and "Fall River Legend."

Her company features such well-known Broadway dancers and singers as James Mitchell, Gemze de Lappe, Lidija Franklin, and Danny Daniels.

A symphony orchestra conducted by Francois Jaroschy will accompany the dancers and singers.

Agnes De Mille will dance in a number titled "Ballet Class," an animated version of famous Degas style pictorials of the dance.

The noted choreographer will also appear in "The Parvenues," one of a series of "Dances of Elegance, 1860-1920," which also takes in the celebrated jazz age following the first World War.

Other numbers depict life during the building of the great transcontinental railroads, and dances from "Paint Your Wagon" and "Brigadoon."

Each of the three programs in Philharmonic Auditorium will be different, it is announced.

Reservations for all performances can now be made at the Philharmonic box office, Southern California Music Company, and at all Mutual Agencies. Popular prices pravail.

The development of Negro drama, by, for, and about Negroes, has been woefully lagging. On Oct. 6, 1953, the first new Negro drama, "A Twig Is Bent," by Jewell Adams, was given its world premiere at the Ben Bard Playhous in Hollywood.

I was fortunate in being associated closely with this play, in following its grassroots development and in the role of director.

I think Miss Adams' play provides a precedent necessary to awaken further encouragement from the untapped millions in Negro audiences.

Those who saw it or heard of it, saw and heard of a play by a Negro writer, for the Negro actor and about Negro people, in a setting totally different from the traditions of the past.

Edith Isaacs, in her book, "The Negro in the American Theatre," says: "Progressive critics wished the Negro's theatre ventures to succeed, complained that although there were Negro theatres, owned and operated by and for Negroes in

Betty Martina 'Prance' Studio To Go Hollywood

Betty Martina, famed Spanish-Moroccan dancer, choreographer and teacher of multi-type native, period and interpretive forms of dancing, is planning to enlarge the scope of her dance studio, at present at 10302 Graham avenue in South Los Angeles, and open a teaching unit in Hollywood.

Al Jarvis Responsible

Since the appearance of four of her students on the Al Jarvis amateur talent show on KECA - TV, each winning a daily first place prize, Miss Martina has been swamped with requests for admission into specialized classes. The TV winners included Ernestine Moreno, Yvonne Bridges (also a winner), April Wiggens and Brenda Jean Mosby.

Desirable Location Sought

Since most of the professional teaching and training requests came from the Hollywood area, efforts are being made by Miss Martina's agents to acquire a suitable site in the film capitol. The training hours are being worked out in a manner which will permit time to continue the school in the SLA area without interference.

Popular Instructor

However, it appears many cannot wait for the Hollywood studio to open. The Ricatti Sisters, a motion picture and night club act, have already engaged Miss Martina to prepare special routines and train them for jobs in the future. The film city branch is slated to open for professional and specialized talent around the first of January.

Enannos Club In Barbecue

The Enannos Social Club held its first highly profitable Bar-B-Que dinner last Saturday night. Club member Ray Brown prepared the delicious ribs. Dinners were completely sold out by 9 o'clock that night.

Flemming Miller is the club's president. Members are: Joseph Hines, Hilliard Green, Carl Green, Cleve Macon, Charles Gentry, Earl Thomas, Ray Brown, Julius Johnson, Eddie Whitaker, Lloyd Henry, Edward Rogers, Walter Miller and Alvin Gatlin.

DUNBAR HUNT, the friendly copper always bring to mind the good old L. A. Jaysee days. Time was when Coty Jean Johnson was the belle of the campus and she had such rivals as: Altthea Taylor, Janice Quong, Ella Mae Graves, Jewel Harris, Helen Lamb, June Bradley, Hattie and Katherine Hopgood, Betty and Thelma Scott, Thelma Wallace, Laura and Thelma Ford, Betty Bratton, Ruth Flood, Vennie Fudge, Catherine Dwight, Lillian Singleton, Mary Johnson, Marie Hopson, Gaynelle Dophine, Helen and Marjorie Bayliff, Dorris Perry, Mae Muse, Dorothy and Marie Thomas, Sydney and Evangeline Foote, Francis Driver, Ginger Smock, Eloise Gaines, Evelyn Weems, Lois Gaines and Dorothy Wells. PRIVATE EYE certainly could have a field day investigating the operations of several Central Avenue business establishments. Some deals pulled behind legitimate licenses in such places as drug stores, dress shops, furniture stores, liquor stores, would make Chicago's notorious Southside in 1929 look as though the boys were dealing in peanuts. They boldly open their doors in the early a.m. bleed the poor suckers until the early p.m. They load the "bread" in the back seat and head for Beverly Hills and other restricted areas. They spent as little as possible in the section that makes it possible for those fashionable homes and Miami in the winter. It seems sad that we won't wake up to the fact that Webbs, Giddings, Lincoln and Central Pharmacies are four of our proudest Eastside possessions and there isn't a prettier sight than the one on Vernon and Broadway. We, as consumers should guide our dollars in 1954 to the honest and reliable stores on the famous ave., those four plus the folks who advertise their wares in our Eagle. More dollars in our community lessens crime, and builds better paychecks. Good living is enjoyed by everyone that works so let's work together more in fifty-four '54!.

TWELVE OUTSTANDING CLUBWOMEN

cil will initiate the first of a series of town meetings on current problems.

JACK AND JILL

The Los Angeles chapter of Jack and Jill, with a membership of 145 members, is the largest of the 56 chapters throughout the United States. The organization carries out a continuous year-round program of youth and child welfare service.

Two of their projects merit particular acclaim. A Dolls for Korea, Europe and Indian Reservations program was carried out by the children in this group. They made and distributed 50 dolls. The L.A. chapter also contributed more than $1,000 of the $10,932.41 that was raised nationally for the March of Dimes.

The second annual Polka for Polio Dance is scheduled for early spring.

DOLL LEAGUE

The Doll League Charity Club is one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the city. It was founded in 1936 by Miss Laura Slayton and a charter was obtained a few years later and drawn by Atty. Crispus Wright. The membership consists of 18 active members and one honorary member.

Major project of the club is the distribution of toys at Xmas time to under-priviledged children through the Los Angeles Public Schools. Over a period of years thousands of dolls donated by the public have been given out along with toys for boys purchased with funds raised during the year by the club.

However the Doll League has not confined its work to children alone. Their activities have included baskets of food and clothing to needy families, contributions to the Sister Kenny Foundation, the Outdoor Life and Health, the Y.W.C.A. and many more such organizations. Purchase of an artificial limb for a young man was also a club project and refurnishing a home destroyed by fire of a mother with eight children.

LULLABY GUILD

The Lullaby Guild of the Childrens Home Society was organized four years ago to stimulate interest in the adoption of minority children. The organization has carried on a broad program of interpretation and as a result there has been a steady increase in the number of potential parents. Last year the Guild initiated a mobile corps to aid the society in providing medical care for the children under its protection. As a result of this service the Guild was cited for outstanding service by social work organizations.

ALLIED ARTS LEAGUE

The League of Allied Arts was organized in 1935 to promote all phases of Negro culture. The League has shown particular interest in encouraging young unknown artists and has provided a number of scholarships. One of the recipients of such a scholarship went to the now world famous dancer Janet Collins. Cultural events sponsored by the League include concerts, lectures, exhibits and book teas have been highly popular.

Among its accomplishment last year was the establishment of a fund for ceramic work at Lafayette Junior High school and the initiation of a series of small cultural events at nominal cost with broad appeal.

Our Authors Study Club Plans For History Week

National Negro History Week for 1954 will be celebrated between the dates of Feb. 7-14. Our Authors Study Club, the Los Angeles Branch of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History sponsors National Negro History Week in Los Angeles. This year the Theme is "Negro History A Foundation for Integration."

All local organizations including religious groups, fraternal groups, educational, social, civic and city and county officials are cooperationg with Our Authors Study Club in making National Negro History Week a City wide celebration.

The combined organizations through the planning committee have worked out a program of events for each day and each evening of History Week. Original paintings by celebrated Negro Artists will be displayed in the Los Angeles Art Institute on Wilshire Blvd. Mrs. Beulah Woodard is chairman of the event.

Negro music will be presented in an Eighteenth Century Mass by the Greater Los Angeles Music Alliance at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church.

The Youth of the city will present an oratorical contest at the Polytechnic High School. The contest is open to all City High Schools and Junior College. This contest has been approved by the Los Angeles Board of Education.

New York, Chicago, New Orleans, Jackson, Memphis, Atlanta, Columbus, Jacksonville, Fla., . . . they all seemed to be devoted to imitating hte white-man's stage and the white-man's acting instead of develop a drama of their own."

ait,saw stage!

At the outset of her play Miss Adams was guilty of "imitating," but with each re-write it began to take proper shape. I'm sure with this completed American Negro play by an American Negro author, there will be those who will continue to feel that we are imitating. That includes Negroes.

I think the time has come when we must find a new tact. Our horizon on things important must be greatly broadened. We must recognize and properly accept the fact htat we are an athnic group with roots and a history-hidden though it is. The past in proper focus is a simportant to us as the future, and certainly nothing to be ashmed of.

The Negro people have a story to tell. Not one that paints us all as angels, nor one that says we are all bad. We have a story to tell that says we love and hate, suffer pain, feel ecstatic, we have great men and small men, heroes and heroines, we have good family life and bad. In fact, we are just normal members of the human race—no more, no less.

ae

There is a great lost audience in the Negro people that can add its box office weight ot an art field sorely in need of help, and with the broad development of Negro drama, the American Theatre scene can only change for the better, democratically as well as commerically.

Miss Adams being first, so to speak, in "breaking the chains that bind," we can only hope that the precedent will stimulate many more Negro writers to follow in her footsteps.

Southern Belles Entertain

The Southern Belles Charity and Social club closed out the old year with a combined party at the Brown House at which 300 guests were entertained.

The club's combined purpose of Charity and social ability is an indication of their elaborate plans for the new year.

The Men of the "Imperial Social Club" was the other group selected by the Belles to join the pleasure. Promptly at 7 o'clock, Miss Elma Pickett introduced both clubs.

The Southern Belles members are Mmes. Lou Edna Dodson, Beatrice White, Carrie Levi, Birdie Dinkins, Lillie Mae Hendrick, Lillis Smith, Gertrude Ross, Rosie Lee Fuller and Essie Thomas.

week run) but says number one's holiday business was good, good, good! . . . Informed us that artist Cal Bailey was down for Christmas, but hied right back to Frisco where "he's getting five for what they paid him two for in this burg" . . . that signifies that Bailey is getting slightly rich!

Another encounter was affable Jess Rand, who navigates the praise relations for the Will Mastin Trio, and who accompanied the group here from Gotham. Shop-talkative Jess mumbled that when an act's on top of the heap (such as his clients') everybody's going to climb on that bandwagon.

In other words, the most important thing is to keep the wrong stuff out of the tabloids and periodicals. Jess whispered that somebody goofed by not throwing a halt to the national mag story that did June Eckstein no good. Poor press relations, the guy calls it. And we made a mental note that this probably ties in with that feud we've been reading about elsewhere. You know, the one between Gert Gipson and June.

Bring Another Drink!
'Cause I'm on the Blink!

The late and great Fats Waller is being aired with an immortal sound that is a little more than a collector's item. It's priceless! The backdrop music for us now is "Hallelujia, I'm a Bum!" . . . but back to the Soundtruck, er we mean Soundtrack! . . . Short, sweet, and snappy-like, we're here to tell you that Maidie Norman (Hi, Maidie!) has been "planted" in the "Susan Slept Here" flicker. Steal the scenes, wonderful you, and Happy New Year! . . . Roy Glenn is in "The Raiders." . . . He'll steal, too, 'cause the gent is meant to be much more than just an "extra man."

Scat Man Crothers fled with Donald O'Connor for their conquest of desert gold in Las Vegas. Roulette will have to take second to their spellbinding shennanigans! . . . Actor-artist Wesley Gayle back from his Jamaican jaunt had us by his "crib" (that's be-bop talk for the place where he lives) to give us a rundown on what took place and to show us his portraiture while in the exotic spot. He'll present the same in his own exhibit at Independent Church in late January. . . . We get a real "charge" from calling piano-vocalist Rudy Render (who just completed a stint as alternate-artist with Lady Day at Tiffany) and screaming, "What's between you and Debbie Reynolds" . . .

ONE FOR THE ROAD, BUT THERE'S NO ROAD, WE'RE HOME

Sounds from the crystal set lend a backdrop of music from "New Faces" and we'll have to straighten our tie and make ready for the offering on tomorrow's eight-thirty p.m. They're chirping "Love Is A Simple Thing" and by this time the glass at our left reveals that this java fiend has hit rock bottom, so we'll have to brew another pot. You didn't think we were living a lush life, did you? . . . The wind up: Buxom Bette Treadville confides that she has snared the Pillsbury Flour role that calls for comedy on tee-vee.

Bette, the singer of a thousand songs makes a departure from the usual with her! . . . And Danny Williams is on the phone to invite us to sneak off to the sneak of the film "Yossa Mossa" that will sneak preview sometime next week at a Japanese film house! . . . Earl Bostic comes through the speaker system with an oldie but as they say on deejay row, a goodie. It's a bit of wax called "Sleep" and don't knock us down. We can take a hint. This is thirty, gentle readers!

Local Typewriter Company Expands

When Albert R. Bernard bought a small typewriter shop at 3703 Vermont avenue, called the Law Typewriter Company, the concern had 56 machines on hand. Today, re-named the Universtiy Typewriter and Adding Machine Company, the same shop has more than 1200 machines in stock.

A year ago Bernard took in an adjoining store for his expanding business and on Jan. 1 he will add still another store as business remains on the upgrade. Bernard, who formerly operated a store at 4729 Broadway, is particularly proud of the fact that he has the exclusive franchise for the Royal line of typewriters in this community.

WHY WE GET SICK

THESE ARTICLES ARE REPRINTED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE READERS OF THIS PAPER. Specialists accuse large intestine as breeding ground of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH, and say constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems.

AUTOPSIES PROVE

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old feces-stones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove-pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said. THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS'."

Dr. J. H. Kellogg, M.D., founder of Battle Creek Sanitarium, world famous authority, says:

"IN THE LAST TWO FEET OF THE COLON is found the seat of the most destructive blockade that has ever opposed human progress.

"One bowel movement a day is very marked constipation.

"Normal bowel action is at least three full evacuations daily.

"Metchnikoff has clearly shown that putrefaction germs are the cause of early degeneracy, premature old age and death. These germs produce most virulent poisons, many of which resemble the venom of snakes, and when present in the feces in large numbers, they are certain proof of the existence of chronic autointoxication, even though the characteristic symptoms of autointoxication have not yet appeared. A coated tongue, a sallow complexion, dark circles around the eyes, appearance of brown spots upon the hands or other parts, the so-called liver spots, offensive breath and perspiration, the discharge of foul-smelling gases from the bowels, putrid stools, a thin, inelastic parchment-like skin, dullness of mind, inability to concentrate the mind, mental irritability or depression without cause, cold hands and feet, perspiration of the hands and feet, chronic headaches, attacks of migraine or sick headaches — these and a score of other symptoms which might be mentioned are certain indications of chronic poisoning, prompt attention to which may prevent the development of later, more serious conditions, such as hardening of the arteries, Bright's Disease, with albumin and casts in the urine, or apoplexy with paralysis. Grave symptoms of autointoxication do not appear until after the mechanism of the body, through which nature deals with poisons, destroying and eliminating them, has broken down and failed to accomplish its purpose as a result of the overwhelming amount of work which has been thrown upon it. Hence, the appearance of symptoms of autointoxication indicates that the body has already become crippled and that the matter must receive serious and immediate attention."

Medical authorities state constipation may be the cause or forerunner of cancer, polio, premature gland failure, nervous collapse, psychiatric problems—in fact, practically all ills of mankind.

One well known M.D., recognized as a cancer specialist, says: "It was only necessary to interview a large number of cancer patients to ascertain the fact that a toxic state exists before the cancer growth comes. Some patients complain of persistent severe headaches, neuritis, dizziness, spells of transient blandness and the loss of balance or mental vigor for as long as twenty years before the growth is found. In many cases toxic (inward) goitre, pigmentation changes, vascular disease, diabetes, indigestion, colitis, gastric ulcer, muscular weakness or even muscular atrophy interfere with correct health until the growth comes."

"In a great many people, the presence of the poison can be recognized by certain symptoms or tissue changes. In those where the development of the poison is slow or its absorption, especially from the large intestine, is moderate over a long period, the nervous system may show its effects, thus dizziness, sudden and periodic loss of muscle control, neuritis, or other chronic complaints may be the warning symptom. If the toxin is absorbed in higher concentration and in one with sufficient cerebral disadvantage, so serious a condition as insanity or blindness may announce its presence."

"In some people, structural tissue changes follow its action, thus obliterative vascular disease, arteriosclerosis, psoriasis, arthritis deformants, gastric ulcer, exophthalmic (inward) goiter, diabetes, and Addison's disease result directly from its action and, in others, the tendency to develop other infections like tuberculosis can be traced to the cancer causing poison. The absolute correctness of these statements is proven by the cures of all these conditions, obtained by removing the cancer poison from those suffering from these diseases."

"Some of these conditions may persist for years before the cancer growth comes; and it locates at a point where circulatory injury has been sustained, whether from a blow, an operation injury, a muscle spasm or a scar following a disease process."

CANCER OF THE BOWELS: Many times one may have cancer of the bowels without early symptoms. Indications when they become noticeable are constipation, perhaps diarrhea or maybe both alternating. If the malignancy appears near the rectum, mucus and blood may be detected in the elimination. The afflicted might have a feeling of distention or that the rectum has not been emptied.

Cancer of the rectum is frequently found just inside of the exit and easily located by the examining physician. Don't be misled, for what appears to be piles or occasional bleeding might be an early indication. (Note: Personally I do not treat cancer, tumors or malignancies. —Brinkley.)

Constipation may be the cause of nervous disorders and insanity.

Constipation is the common sense explanation of "the true cause of disease," say outstanding authorities. Here is a simple, inexpensive method of treatment, that has been eminently successful, in thousands of cases in removing that which causes toxins from the large intestine. Endorsed by outstanding medical authority. Read carefully, reason for yourself. Don't take my word for anything. You may now obtain relief of constipation in 20 minutes. YES, I SAID 20 MINUTES.

Orchid Club In Gay Meet

LaVerne Mayfield entertained the Orchid Club with a delightful pre-Christmas meeting. The club is making plans for a gala charity event before the Lenten season.

Mrs. Mayfield served a full turkey dinner. Several prominent social matrons joined in the after activities. Those who enjoyed the clever games which had been prepared by the charming hostess, in addition to the members, were: Miss Ella Mae Crosland, Dr. Lois Evans, Mrs. Faye Lewis and Mrs. Louise Carnegie. Mrs. Mayfield's house guest, Mrs. Martha Williams, of New York, also joined the fun after the meeting. Prizes were won by Marian Gordon and Ramelle Bagnerise.

The Christmas party and regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Juanita Motley. The club was most happy to have with them at this meeting Mrs. Edith Hendricks, of Elsinore, who is unable to attend meetings frequently because her husband's work keeps them in the vicinity of Elsinore most of the time.

Gifts were exchanged by the members and a lovely after party followed the meeting. The hostess served a delicious chicken dinner with all the trimmings.

The president, Elizabeth Johnson, presented each club member with beautiful Irish linen handkerchiefs as a personal gift and thanks to the members for their loyal support.

Mrs. Motley had invited Louvenia Ford and Etta Mae Estard as special guests to the after party.

The next meeting will be at the home of Juanita Smyles.

Vivian Bettis Entertains

Mrs. Vivian Bettis, popular club woman entertained a group of charming young ladies at her fashionable Piru Street home Saturday afternoon. Starting the new year off with a social bang the group enjoyed a gay time and a tasty lunch was served by the gracious hostess and cocktails were sipped throughout the afternoon. Among the guest were: Mesdames Erma Watson, Billie Miller, Charlotta Peale, Mattie Brookn, Teresa Luesey, Frankie Ross, Elese Boone, Robbie Flemming, Edith (Dit) Stevens, a visitor from Detroit, Michigan, Katie Latham and Lesile Armstead.

Ruby Goodwin On Cavalcade This Sunday

Ruby Berkley Goodwin, author of "It's Good to Be Black," a recent Doubleday publication, will be a guest on "Cavalcade of Books," Sunday, January 10, at 3:30 p.m., over KNXT-CBS, Channel 2.

"Cavalcade of Books," a top television show sponsored by the Great Book Publishers of America, brings the outstanding books published by the recognized publishing houses in the nation, and gives the viewing audience a detailed analysis of the contents of each volume.

Mrs. Goodwin, a resident of Los Angeles, recently returned from San Francisco and the Bay Area where she made radio and television appearances in connection with the book on CBS, NBC and other northern stations. "Cavalcade of Books" is produced by Frances and Jack Case and is directed by Bob Lehman.

Auto Brakes Require Attention

Only one brake system failure on your car is needed to produce a fatal accident, warns the Automobile Club of Southern California. When the brake pedal must be pumped to build up pressure to stop, there are several possible causes. Brakes should always be maintained at peak condition.

FOUNDATION SET FOR BIG EVENT

What is the Daisy Wilson Foundation? You have probably asked the question, so here's the answer:

It is a pledge, a responsibility, an opportunity — all three. The pledge, made several years ago by Daisy Wilson, was to build a home for aged people in memory of her mother and her husband. So, the group, known as Wilson-Andrews Foundation, started several years ago, was re-organized in 1952 under the name of Daisy Wilson Foundation, Inc., to finish the work so dear to their hearts. Since this new beginning the membership has grown from six members to 65, with officers as follows: Daisy Wilson, president; Sallie Ware, vice-president; Mabel Biggers, recording secretary; Thelma Lovett, financial secretary.

Establishing a home for the aged is an opportunity to put Los Angeles in step with other progressivie cities. Los Angeles is no longer a small town, and with its population of 209,500 Negroes there is every reason to expect that those needful of a home for its citizens who have reached the sunset of life will find a place right here. St. Louis boasts of their Ferrier-Harris Home, which just recently celebrated its 50th anniversary. A competent staff of eight persons in addition to the house physician, who is on call and visits the home once each week, serve the residents of Ferrier-Harris.

In the present campaign launched by the Daisy Wilson Foundation the support of Los Angeles' No. 1 go-getter, Fannie Williams, has been enlisted. Mrs. Williams is founder and organizer of many worthwhile organizations, among which is the Wilfandel Club. Thus, two forces have joined together to meet a great challenge. Sunday afternoon, January 31, at Cosmopolitan Hotel, will be your opportunity to share in the big event climaxing this campaign. Watch for further announcement.

Fuel Pump

The fuel pump on your car loses efficiency due to wear and ordinary deterioration, says the Automobile Club of Southern California. It may seem to be working perfectly under ordinary driving conditions but fail completely when operating at high speed or on mountain roads.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles will receive bids for furnishing all labor and material for the following work:

KIND OF WORK AND NAME OF SCHOOL: REPAINTING AND REFINISHING OF THE EXTERIOR AND INTERIOR OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS AND APPURTENANT STRUCTURES AT THE 20TH STREET SCHOOL.

DATE OF BID OPENING: JANUARY 14, 1954.

Each bid shall be in accordance with drawings, specifications and other contract documents now on file in the MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH of the Business Division of said Board, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said drawings and specifications at the office of said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Education has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract or contracts which will be awarded the successful bidder or bidders; and these prevailing rates are contained in said specifications adopted by the Board, and are as follows:

CLASSIFICATION

Foremen

All foremen not herein separately classified, shall be paid not less than 17½ cents per hour more than the hourly rate of the highest classification over which he has supervision as to the SIX BASIC TRADES; and not less than 12½ cents per hour as to the SUB-TRADES, more than the journeyman rate for the craft involved.

Apprentices

May be employed in conformity with Section 1777.5 of the California Labor Code.

Riggers

Same wage scale as craft to which rigging is incidental.

Welders

Same wage scale as craft to which welding is incidental.

CLASSIFICATION	Hourly Wage Rate
CARPENTERS
Carpenter	$ 2.70
LABORERS
Laborers, General or Construction	2.05
Window Cleaner	2.20
ELECTRICIANS
Electrician	3.10
PAINTERS
Brush	2.66
Spray Gun or Sandblaster (7-Hour day for above classifications).	2.91

—Plus Health and Welfare, etc.

The rates of per diem wages for each of the various classifications of work shall be the hereinbefore set forth prevailing rates of hourly wages multiplied by eight (8). Eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work; it being understood that in the event that workmen are employed less than eight (8) hours per day, the per diem wages shall be deemed to be that fraction of the per diem wages herein established that the number of hours of employment bears to eight (8) hours.

WORKING RULES

1. Where a single shift is worked, eight (8) consecutive hours between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. shall constitute a day's work at straight time for all workers.
2. Forty (40) hours between Monday 7 A.M. and Friday 5 P.M. shall constitute a week's work at straight time.
3. All work performed in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week or on Holidays and Sundays shall be paid for at the rate for overtime of the craft involved.
4. Holidays as herein referred to shall be deemed to be New Year's Day, Decoration Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. If any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday following shall be considered a legal holiday.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom a contract is awarded, and upon all subcontractors under him to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages to all workmen employed in the execution of the contract.

Notice is also hereby given that all bidders may submit with their bids, a sworn statement of their financial responsibility, technical ability and experience. Such sworn statement may be required to be furnished before award is made to any particular bidder.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at said MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS BRANCH of the Board of Education; must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bidder's bond (issued by a surety company accredited by the Board of Education) for not less than Five Per Cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles; shall be sealed and filed with the Counter Clerk of the Board of Education, Room 200, 1425 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, by not later than 2:00 P.M. on the date or dates shown above and will be opened and read aloud in public at, or about, said time and in the public hall, second floor, of the above address.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested to do so by the Board of Education.

The successful bidder or bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive any informality in any bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles.

Hot-Rodders

The phone at the complaint board for the L.A.P.D. rang . . . a female voice on the other end said, "There's a jerk in a Jag who's been racing around our block for an hour . . . send someone out here and sack him up!" . . . the radio car which was dispatched found not a Jaguar, but a cut-down hot-rod, loaded with exuberant, if not considerate young adults.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

Did you ever ask, "What makes a hot-rodder tick."

The basic desires for recognition, approval and achievement, whether by society at large or just a car full of admiring, thrilling-seeking companions accounts for the disturbing, daring, and sometimes dangerous antics of many hot-rod drivers.

Seek Outlets

In recent weeks we have detected a strong trend among youth groups of boys and girls for the formation of Car Clubs. These youngstern are bubbling over with energy and are looking for healthy, lawful means of directing it. They are seeking an outlet for social needs as well as creative abilities.

They want adult leadership which will help secure for them legitimate, respected and acceptable status, and enable them to avoid the label of reckless, law-breaking speed demons.

Car Clubs

Because of the questions which are being asked youth leaders concerning Car Clubs, we are devoting this column to the problem in an effort to indicate some steps which have already been taken by the L.A.P.D. We will also explain the procedure for getting advice and help in establishing such clubs in your community.

Following its inception in California in the 1920s, hot-rodding developed so alarmingly that in 1947 the State legislature prohibited by law speed contests upon the highways. By that time street racing had become a nightly occurrence and law enforcement concentrated its efforts to control the hazardous and disturbing practice.

Mere suppression by law was obviously not the answer as the violators continued to operate in defiance of the law.

Organized Clubs

In an effort to meet the needs of our rapidly expanding city with its attendant problems, the Traffic Education Unit of the Police Department established a permanent detail to help organize Hot-Rod Clubs, Teen-age Conferences and Hot-Rod Jamborees with the purpose of de-emphasizing speed and concentrating on a competive spirit toward safety, economy and compliance with the law.

This new spirit of cooperation has aroused mutual interest and respect amony youth, their parents and police officers.

Upon request, the department will provide an officer who will help organize the group, assist them in securing adult leadership, and establish standards for the group as well as outline constructive projects.

Develop Responsibility

There are now many well organized, highly respected Car Clubs throughout the city as well as across the nation. Through their affiliation with these clubs, the teen-agers develop a more complete appreciation of their responsibilities as well as the privileges of good citizenship.

Additional information may be obtained by writing or calling Sgt. Tom Bradley, Room 2263, City Hall, MI 5211, ext. 2612.

We invite your inquiry concerning any question relating to the police department and we will attempt to provide and answer either in this column or in person. If your club or organization would like to have a speaker from the department, a phone call or letter will bring prompt response.

Many Negroes Join Job-Hunting Ranks

A serious unemployment situation has hit Los Angeles Negroes, as layoffs mount in a number of sectors of the economy.

Hardest hit on the local scene are workers in the building trades, needle trades, and service and retail jobs.

As the overall employment situation is showing an important worsening, that affecting Negroes has already mounted to sizable proportions.

Extra Hardships

Causes of the additional hardships suffered by minorities are well-known—lack of seniority, preference in a tight market to hire "white only," and the general relegation of non-whites to non-skilled and semi-skilled jobs which are "expendable" when the economy is slowing up.

The mounting unemployment has already shown signs of becoming a major issue in this year's political campaigns.

Political Issue

Based on figures he has amassed, Paul Ziffren, Democratic national committeeman and Beverly Hills lawyer, in December stated that unemployment was reaching dangerous proportions.

This claim was answered in a public statement by Gov. Goodwin Knight denying that there was any cause for alarm and intimating that Democrats were trying to inflate the issue for political purposes.

Informed sources report that there are 2500 unemployed laborers in the building trades in the Los Angeles area. Centers of unemployment for the laborers are the Valley, Pico, Pacoima, and downtown.

Down-Turn

In the needle trades, there are now 5,000 unemployed in Los Angeles. Most of these are women, with approximately 85 percent reported to be Negroes.

The overall picture on employment in Los Angeles, as shown by the State Department of Employment, indicates the first important downturn occurred in November, although already in October unemployment had declined to the low point for the year.

November figures showed a net loss since the previous month of 24,000 workers. Current unemployment was esti-

Mabel Scott Gives News of Secret Wedding

By "CHAZZ" CRAWFORD

Bombshell of Song, Mabel Scott, now appearing locally, revealed to the Eagle this week her recent marriage to Will Nathan, Jr., a Nashville, Tenn., policeman.

The thrush told this scribe that the happy event took place in the Southern town on Nov. 8, but said they had been secretive about the merger up until now.

Miss Scott has been married twice before, once to drifting blue boy, Charles Brown. Their marriage ended in divorce a couple of years ago.

She met Nathan while on a tour of the South with the "Big Show" production.

He wooed her with flowers and letters and in order to keep her close at hand, he proposed that she fill an engagement at his dad's place in Nashville, known as the New Era Club.

The songstress finally succumbed to his advances eight weeks ago.

Mabel feels that this is the real thing. "He's the greatest there is," she declared in no uncertain terms, and added she could scream it from the housetops!

Man Dies From Heater Fumes

Fumes from a gas heater caused the death Tuesday of John Chealble, at 735 E. 43rd street.

His death was listed as accidental, caused by inhaling carbon monoxide gas, according to the county coroner.

His body was found in a closed room with the gas heater turned on.

Southern Students Revel In Holiday From Jim Crow

TALLADEGA, Ala. — A group of Talladega students and faculty members, returning to campus after 10 days in Havana, were overwhelmed by the total lack of discrimination they experienced.

Said one student:

"When we stepped into bus stations people started talking to us. They didn't take a look at the color of our skin. We were pleased, and we saw people regardless of race living where they pleased.

"But on our return to the States, Jim Crow hit us harder than ever."

City Combed For Kidnaper Of Child, 12

A 12-year-old girl was kidnaped Saturday and police feared she may have been the victim of a sex-mad murderer.

Myris Dolores Pril, of 1818 E. Century boulevard, was snatched up Saturday at 1:30 p.m. outside 1629 E. Palm Lane, Willowbrook, and hasn't been heard from since.

Wide Search

Suspected and sought far and wide by police is James Alexander Jones, 39, of 11128½ S. Alabama street, Willowbrook.

Jones has been tentatively identified as the man who grabbed the young girl and pulled her into his car. Authorities are searching for the 1937 black two-door Chevrolet, license number 6N36306, in which he was seen speeding away.

Previous Record

Jones has a previous record for child molesting. He was arrested on that charge in 1949 and served six months in the County jail.

Police, in expressing the fear that Myris may have been murdered, stated that in most cases where a sex maniac attacks a child, he usually releases her almost immediately, unless his frenzy drives him to kill his victim.

Myris disappeared Saturday afternoon, but her absence did not cause undue alarm until some time later. Jones was known to the family, and the child had frequently played with his 13-year-old son.

About a year ago, however, Myris' parents forbade Jones to visit their home, and warned the child against him. . . .

Meeting to Hear Plea for Life of Wesley Wells

There will be a meeting Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 8 p.m. at the Holman Methodist church, 3320 W. Adams blvd., to discuss the case of Wesley Wells, who awaits death in San Quentin.

Rev. C. White, pastor of the church, has sponsored the meeting.

A widespread campaign has been launched to urge Gov. Goodwin Knight to grant the condemned man a pardon.

Jury Deadlocked In Narcotics Case

A jury last Friday was deadlocked after hearing testimony in the trial of Alfred Avery Reeves, accused of a narcotics law violation.

Superior Judge Mildred L. Lillie ordered the jury discharged and had the case set for a new trial.

James Anderson Joins 'Eagle' Staff

James H. Anderson, well known in state and local labor circles as well as in the NAACP, has just joined the California Eagle as its political editor.

"Jimmy," as he is called by everyone, will keep his fingers on the political pulse of the community and will also maintain a close watch on political developments elsewhere in the city and state. News sifted from his many contacts will be conveyed to readers of the California Eagle in a column, starting this week, entitled "Political Spotlight."

In addition to his activities on the political front, Anderson will serve the paper as director of promotion.

Ike Silent On Civil Rights In Annual Talk

WASHINGTON — Civil rights got no mention from President Dwight D. Eisenhower in his State of the Union message to the Congress last Thursday and set off speculation that the administration doesn't intend to press such measures in this election year.

"Segregation in the armed forces and other Federal activities is on the way out," the president said in his only direct mention of racial matters. "We have also made progress toward its abolition in the District of Columbia. These are steps in the continuing effort to eliminate inter-racial friction."

Democrats were quick to point out that the moves toward elimination of segregation in the armed forces were taken under the Truman administration and that the president, who was then General Eisenhower, was critical of ending segregation in the army. They also pointed out that the test of the District of Columbia civil rights ordinance was begun before Ike took office.

Steps Unspecified

The president did not mention any other of the "continuing steps" that he said were being taken to "eliminate inter-racial friction." He made no mention of fair employment legislation or any of the other measures proposed by the now famous Truman Committee on Civil Rights.

In the controversial field of federal aid to education, the president said merely that

Denies Promising End of Jim Crow

In open defiance of the mayor, Fire Chief John H. Alderson on Saturday emphatically denied that he planned any change in his policy of segregation in the city's Fire Department.

Queried by the Eagle as to whether he had been correctly quoted, the chief replied "No comment." Then he added: "What you're trying to do is create trouble between me and the mayor."

No Agreement

Chief Alderson was quoted in the daily press as saying: "I have made no agreement to a gradual change in six months or in two months or in one year. A change could be made tomorrow or next year or whenever it would be best for the whole department and the people."

He was also quoted: "As for the transfer of Negroes from the two stations, I will stand on my charter right to run the department in the manner in which I feel is best for all the people of Los Angeles."

Promises Jim-Crow End

Mayor Norris Poulson on Thursday again termed segregation "abhorrent" and announced that, following his meeting with them, the Board of Fire Commissioners has decided that "commencing within the next six months" there should "be a gradual correction of these (segregation) practices."

Prior to Alderson's announced intention to retain the jim-crow set-up in the department, the NAACP took steps looking toward obtaining an injunction forcing him and the Fire Commission to end segregation.

Presiding Judge Phillip H. Richards of the Superior Court signed a petition submitted by Atty. Herbert W. Simmons Jr., ordering Chief Alderson to appear to give a deposition on Jan. 23 at 10 a.m. at 1111 E. Vernon avenue.

Seek Prompt Action

At the same time, NAACP attorneys, in a letter to the Board of Fire Commissioners, dated Jan. 9, over the signature of Atty. Loren Miller, asked the commission to establish a new rule at its next meeting "forbidding any and all assignments to duty, whether temporary or permanent, on the basis of race."

The letter also asked for a positive rule prohibiting the granting or denial of transfers on the basis of race, and requested that the commission "direct the Chief Engineer and General Manager of the department to begin implementation of the policy forthwith," and report on the progress made.

By Whatever Name

Mayor Poulson called a meeting of the Fire Commissioners and Alderson last Thursday morning, to review the commis-

The Arrogant Alderson

AN EDITORIAL

Mayor Norris Poulson is entitled to credit for forcing the admission from his Board of Fire Commissioners that there are, to use his words, "unsatisfactory policies in personnel assignments, susceptible of criticism" in the Fire Department. Heretofore Fire Chief John H. Alderson and the Commissioners have insisted that there was nothing wrong and that complaints of racial segregation were figments of imagination.

We do think that the mayor was unduly swayed, and persuaded to delay what should have been an immediate change, by unfounded fears voiced by Commissioners to the effect that "a sudden total change" in policy might impair the efficiency of the Department. These shop-worn fears are trotted out every time a proposal is made to eliminate racial discrimination and, despite the prophets of doom, no such change has ever produced the dire results that have been predicted.

However, it appears that Chief Alderson has no intention of accepting the moderate and gradual proposals for change envisaged by the mayor. He brazenly told reporters that "as for the transfer of Negroes from the two stations, I will stand on my charter right to run the department in the manner in which I feel is best for all the people of Los

Department Store Resists Jobs Plea

Five years is a long time to wait for a job. It's a long time, too, for reputable community agencies to have to dicker with large department stores to try to convince them that Negroes have a right to employment.

Senate Delay Dooms FEPC, Says White

WASHINGTON, D.C. — In a move which it is believed will scuttle all possibility of passing a Federal FEPC law by Congress this year, the Senate Labor committee last week postponed for approximately one month hearings on the employment measure now before it.

The action was made public by Sen. H. Alexander Smith (Rep., N.H.). Hearings were originally scheduled for Jan. 14, but will not be conducted until mid-February or later.

Yet that's the record with regards to the Broadway Department Store in downtown Los Angeles. And the end is not yet in sight.

No Hits, No Runs

Since the beginning of 1949, the Urban League, the Employment Committee of the Los Angeles County Conference on Community Relations, and other civic agencies and groups have been attempting to persuade the Broadway to utilize the abilities of Negro clerks.

To date, the score is a list of vague promises, expression of fears of "customer reaction,"—and refusal to hire a single sales clerk, full time, part time or any time.

Last week the California Eagle opened up a "Don't buy where you can't work" campaign against the Broadway, a large precentage of whose customers are Negroes.

Wide Reaction

Reaction has been widespread, with a number of people telephoning the Eagle office, the Urban League and other agencies. Most of the calls have indicated that people feel keenly that stores which enjoy Negro patronage should employ Negro help.

Some, however, have asked why we singled out the Broadway. Aren't the other stores equally guilty, they ask. The answer is: "No."

It's been an uphill fight with all the large downtown department stores, but the community agencies have hammered away at the issue year in and year out. While the employment situation in the other stores is far from satisfactory, they have at least made a dent in their jim-crow policies and a beginning on an equitable hiring plan.

Stands Pat

The Broadway stands out for having refused to yield on the issue.

According to Wesley Brazier, executive director of the Urban League, and Alfred Norman, its industrial relations secretary, here are the facts:

The May Co., which was one of the first to drop the color bar when it hired a Negro clerk in Dec., 1951, has the best record of any of the large downtown stores.

Since then they have consis-

RICHARD GRAVES

Graves Tells Candidacy for Calif. Governor

Richard Graves, in throwing his hat in the ring for the Democratic nomination for governor of California, declared in a press conference Tuesday that the Republicans are just not liberal and progressive enough for the welfare of the people of the state.

Graves, who has been executive secretary of the League of California Cities for many years and who has changed party affiliations several times, declared himself in favor of FEPC and advocated legislation to prohibit discrimination in employment.

He told reporters: "We cannot wait until all the people are educated to the point where they reject these discriminations, but I believe the government should make an effort to end this discrimination.

"If people are forced to live together, they find it not bad at all.

"I think that the government should prohibit discrimination in employment and that we should work to support legislation along that line, not only in employment but in other fields."

U. A. W. Women To Hammer Out Political Policy

Miss Vesta Elders, assembler at the North American Aviation plant in Downey, left here this week for Washington, D.C., to attend the national Women's Political Action conference called by the United Automobile Workers, CIO.

Miss Elders, who has been on her job since 1945, is shop steward in her department, in the Union's Local No. 887.

Attending the conference will be women from all parts of the country, both workers from the automobile and aircraft plants, and wives of workers. They will participate in the discussions with a view to hammering out a program for the union calculated to meet the political challenge of 1954.

Political activity is no novelty for Miss Elders. She was chosen last March as a delegate to the Women's Advisory Council conference, which was held in Detroit, Mich.

On her return to Los Angeles, Regional Director C. V. O'Halloran appointed her to the Women's Advisory Council for Region 6.

"control and direction of public education policy is a State and local responsbility" and that the Federal government "should stand ready to assist states which demonstrably cannot provide sufficient school buildings." This cryptic statement drew some criticism in light of the fact that state sanctioned racial segregation in public schools is under fire in a series of Supreme Court cases. These states have insisted that their control and direction of education vests them with the right to compel racial segregation.

Labor and civil rights organizations have always insisted that Federal aid to education should be conditioned on state agreements to bring educational standards in line with modern conditions and the NAACP has insisted that no Federal aid should be granted to shore up Jim Crow school systems.

TED SCHAFFER HITS BACK AT LOCAL CRITICS

Atty. Theodore M. Schaffer, who recently announced his intention to run for the State Assembly from the 63rd district, this week hit back at critics who accused him of being politcally inexperienced and personally ambitious.

Schaffer, reaffirming his intention to be a candidate, stated:

"G. Delbert Morris, our big business incumbent; has had poltical experience even in this office itself, but what has he done for his constituents in the 63rd Assembly District, or for the people of the State of California for that matter? . . . Mr. Morris . . . seems . . . inadequate to feel the pulse of the community he was elected to serve."

Declaring that he feels confident that he is "electable," Atty. Schaffer promised a detailed platform in the near future, but declared that he will carry on a vigorous campaign to secure FEPC, greater benefits for labor, the aged and the underprivileged, and to maintain "a constant vigilance over the rights of the 'little man'."

"Dr. L. A. Brinkley: In 3 days I was relieved of gallstones. I sincerely recommend these treatments to anyone suffering of this ailment. V. E. Hauss."

"Dr. Brinkley: Your treatments were an answer to my prayer, for without an operation, I have passed a handful or more of stones. I am feeling young and can get back on my feet again. Annette Erickson."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: Am writing you this letter to let you know how thankful I am to you. I had gallstones, piles, stomach trouble and about everything else. I know I was in terrible shape and now I am cured. Thanks to Dr. Brinkley and his fine help. Edward G. King."

ARTHRITIS

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I was suffering for many years with arthritis and gall bladder trouble. After taking 6 treatments of New Yorker Technique my gall bladder and arthritis trouble disappeared. Mrs. Eleanor Stewart."

"My Dear Sir: It was in April and May, 1948, that I took a course of treatments for arthritis, high blood pressure and constipation, all of which I had suffered with for the past 30 years. Since taking your treatments I am perfectly well and am feeling fine. My health is the very best. Mrs. John E. Johnson."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had suffered for 30 years from rheumatism and arthritis and poison gases. After taking a seven-day treatment at your institution I began to feel such positive results I was amazed. I continued on for one month, and after that time I did not need to continue further. I am now enjoying perfect health. Truman C. Clark."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I am so benefited from your course of treatment that my health is your recommendation to my friends. I had arthritis in arms and shoulders so badly I was unable to dress myself and now to be free from it I have nothing but praise for New Yorker Technique. Winifred Edmonds."

Stomach Gas

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering with a nervous stomach and gas for 7 years, and having had two operations with no results, I can truthfully say that by only taking treatments from you for 6 days I feel better than I have in the past 20 years of more. Mrs. Mary Holmes."

REFUSES $500

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: When I first heard of your treatments I was a very sick man. My disease had been diagnosed by eminent doctors as epilepsy. When epileptic attacks would strike me I would be totally unconscious for three days. After the second treatment in your institution, I had an attack but never lost consciousness and was back for my next treatment the following day.

"When I began your treatments my stomach was completely 'shot.' It had become so bad I could hardly put anything into it any more. It was in very bad shape, I had been taking sedatives for seven years. I was in and out of hospitals for the last two years. However, I was afraid to come here because I thought the nurses would be as mean as those in the other hospitals where I had been a patient. If I asked for water I almost got a beating—but far from it, these nurses have been like angels to me. I never received nicer treatment in my life.

"I feel so deeply grateful to you because your treatments have saved my life. After only nine treatments I feel like a new man, 100% better in every way. My stomach trouble has completely left me and I have done away with sedatives forever. My gratitude is boundless, and I can only say 'God bless you!'

"I have—and again am offering you—a gift of $500.00 which you refuse to accept. Words seem inadequate to express my deep and sincere gratitude. I sincerely and truly feel that your treatments have saved my life, and I want everybody to know it. I only wish I were gifted with the ability to put into words what I really feel, but all I can say is 'God bless you' for saving my life. I can never thank you enough for what you have done for me. Sincerely and gratefully. Signature left out purposely. Witnesses: Mrs. Lucy A. Rubalcava, Dr. S. M. Sassone, D.C.; Mrs. E. H. Berghof, Mrs. B. Lamont."

Constipation

"Dear Doctor: I have suffered chronic colitis, constipation eleven years, was in the hospital and a clinic but got no relief. I came to realize that all diseases originate in the stomach or colon and came to you. Your treatments are wonderful. The pains have vanished and now I enjoy life again. I thanked you once, now I thank you more substantially. G. H. Freeman."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: For a period of 6 years I suffered with constipation. I tried every remedy available but nothing gave me relief. But now through your treatments I have restored my health. I express my most sincere gratitude. J. Colon."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had been suffering for 15 years from constipation and extreme dizzy spells. I came to your office in August, 1948. My first treatment helped me. After receiving the full quota of treatments my eliminations were normal and I felt better physically and mentally. Mrs. Sudie F. Rowton."

"Dear Sir: After being constipated and sick for seven years I heard of the New Yorker Technique. I started your treatments and right away I felt like a different person. It has been more than one year that I took the last one and I still feel in perfect health, younger, full of energy. Joe Urias."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I had liver trouble, constipation and over weight. Your treatments helped me so very much and I lost 14½ pounds in less than 2 weeks. I am feeling so much better in every way. It also helped my eyes. Mrs. J. P. Byrnes."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: I have suffered for years from chronic constipation, and all the complications that go with it. Now I feel well, happy and I am very active. Thanks to your treatments, that were a great pleasure to me. Now I never have to take a laxative and my stomach is in perfect condition. V. Alagria."

"Dear Dr. Brinkley: After suffering for many years with constipation and several years extreme dizziness and severe headaches I came to your office for treatments. Am glad to say that dizziness and headaches disappeared at completion of treatments, my constipation was corrected and I enjoy much better health. Have much better also. I'm very grateful. Mrs. Carrie M. Bedford."

tently maintained a few full-time Negro clerks on their staff.

Best Liked

J. W. Robinson's has used a few Negro clerks among its sales force off and on for the past two years. Similarly, Bullock's, during the recent holiday season hired several Negro cashiers and sales clerks. They reported that one of the best liked among the Christmas help was a Negro high school student.

Eastern Columbia, in its downtown store, used some Negroes in its sales force. Orbach's, at its opening, had some Negroes selling merchandise.

Holdout

But not the Broadway. There's not a single Negro in its sales force. And never has been.

We repeat here what we said in our editorial last week: "We think that it is no more than fair to be as good to the Broadway as the Broadway is to us. If it declines to employ Negro sales people, we should, in our proper turn, decline to buy its merchandise.

"If we buy where we can work, we will soon be able to work where we buy."

Shriners to Bid for 1955 Convention

The Egyptian Temple No. 5, Order of the Shriners, Prince Hall affiliates, will seek the 1955 Grand National convention for Los Angeles, according to an announcement made by William Goward, Illustrious Potentate, at a press party Friday night.

A delegation to attend the Imperial Council session in Atlantic City, N. J., next August 15 to 20, will be armed with strong reasons as to why the Imperial Council should convene in Los Angeles the following year.

Head Delegation

The delegation will be headed by such well-known Shriners as William Goward, Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., and Andrew W. Powell.

The Illustrious Potentate and his cabinet of officers announced their full program for 1954 and also declared they are broadening their program of public relations and closer cooperation with and support of newspapers.

Program for 1954

The eight-point program includes:

The annual Shrine Inaugural Banquet, Friday evening, Feb. 5, Cosmopolitan Hotel, 360 S. Westlake, with guests of honor being the officialdom of Los Angeles City, County and State. One thousand tickets to be sold at $3.50 each, the press and officialdom to be complimentary guests.

Annual Captains' Ball, Friday evening, March 13, Elks Auditorium, 4016 S. Central avenue.

Fashion Show

The Shrine Fashion Show, jointly sponsored by Egyptian Temple No. 5, Egyptian Court, Daughters of Iris, Florentine Gardens, Hollywood, Sunday evening, April 18.

Shrine Ceremonial for Egyptian Temple No. 5, Saturday evening, May 15, Masonic Temple, 1050 E. 50th street.

Annual Cadillac Award and Charity Ball, Statler Hotel, Friday evening, July 19.

Annual Shrine Cabaret Party, Ciro's on Sunset Strip, Monday evening, July 19.

Shrine Bon Voyage Party and Dance, Friday evening, August 6, Elks Auditorium, or other suitable location.

'Our Authors' Plan 1954 History Week

Our Authors Study Club is again energetically planning a series of events for Negro History Week to bring forcibly to the attention of all of Los Angeles a full-scale review of the important contributions colored people have made in American life.

The closely packed week will start off with a mass meeting at Bovard auditorium at the University of Southern California at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 7, and will close with an All States Tea at the Golden State auditorium, Sunday, Feb. 14. Feature of this event will be the crowning of "Miss Negro History Week."

Many Features

In between these two affairs will be an art exhibit, historical survey of Negro composers, youth oratorical contest, a historical review of business, and a pageant, "The Dawn of a New Day."

The planning committee includes Mrs. Hazel Whitaker Moore, chairman of Negro History Week; Victor Nickerson, co-chairman; Mrs. Vassie D. Wright, president-founder of Our Authors Study Club; Leon Stewart, vice-president of the club; and Mrs. Blanche E. Brooks, secretary.

Commendable Task

Annually Our Authors Study Club takes upon itself the commendable task, during Negro History Week, of calling attention to the outstanding achievements of Negroes through the years.

The opening mass meeting on Feb. 7 will have as guest speaker Dr. Charles L. Wesley, president of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, and president of the Central State College at Wilberforce, Ohio.

Mrs. Anna G. Morrow will lead a mammoth chorus of 200 voices.

The meeting will be followed by a reception at the USC YWCA, 36th place and Hoover street, at 5 p.m.

Delay By Senate Dooms FEPC

tary of the NAACP protested vigorously against the delay. Expressing himself as "inexpressibly shocked," White telegraphed to Smith on Jan. 7:

"It is our conviction based on many years of experience that hearings on this measure scheduled as late as Feb. 23 would almost certainly prevent measure from reaching Senate calendar and being voted on in time to prevent a filibuster from killing the bill, especially in an election year like 1954 when Congress will do its best to adjourn early to permit political campaigning.

"We are even more disturbed by the general belief at high Senate levels that the postponement announced in your telegram really means cancellation on a bill which is desperately needed to prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry.

Disaster Feared

"Today's newspapers report that there are now more than 2,000,000 unemployed Americans and that present recession may increase number to 4,500,000 during 1954.

"As you well know, members of minorities form a highly disproportionate percentage of present unemployed and in absence of Fair Employment Practices legislation will form a disproportionate number of those soon to be out of work.

"National Association for Advancement of Colored People urges rescheduling of hearings for Jan. 14. Any other action can only doom Americans to economic disaster solely because of race, color, religion, national origin and ancestry."

Editorial

Our Arrogant Fire Chief

Angeles."

Here is Chief Alderson at his arrogant worst and we think it is typical of the attitude that has led him to defend his Jim Crow system in the face of repeated requests for change. He fancies himself above the law, above the constitution, above the public policy of this city and state. Note how he says "I WILL STAND ON MY CHARTER RIGHTS" and "THE MANNER IN WHICH I FEEL." He has lost sight of the fact that he is a public servant. He has put his whims, and his prejudices above the law, above the mayor, above the commission, above everything.

The insufferable attitude which he has displayed in this instance toward the mayor—and toward whatever action the Commission may take is the same attitude he has always displayed toward citizens who have protested Jim Crow and toward firemen who have had the temerity to question his segregation policies and attitudes.

In the final analysis, blame for present segregation in the Fire Department rests on the Chief. He has nursed it, implemented it, and refined it during his term as chief. He, and he alone, has resisted all efforts at change. He has dressed Jim Crow up in the trappings of efficiency. The voices that cried fear of change at the mayor's conference were the voices of the commissioners but the fears were planted there by Chief Alderson.

It was Chief Alderson who inspired letters and petitions from firemen protesting the termination of fire-station segregation. It was Chief Alderson who planted the idea in the minds of the commissioners that there was nothing wrong with racial segregation and who backed up that idea with the erroneous statement that Negro firemen are satisfied with Jim Crow. He even stopped saying that he never had had any requests for transfers until the current controversy arose.

The truth of the matter is that Chief Alderson has been a faithless public servant in this matter. He has not lived up to the oath he took when he assumed his office. His latest open defiance of the mayor is only the last straw.

We hope that Mayor Poulson will act, and act quickly, to curb this petty bureaucrat who is so drunk with his own power that he thinks he can put his own judgment above that of the requirements of the constitution, the rules of his commission and the policy of the mayor.

Postponement On Death

The decision of the Senate Labor Committee to postpone hearings on fair employment legislation from January 14 to a date "approximately a month later" strikes a pretty sour note. Informed circles believe that it marks a decision of the Republican high command to abandon all attempts at such legislation.

The theory is that the GOP doesn't want to become involved in the inevitable controversy with Dixiecrats upon whom they must depend for support and that it has decided to duck out on FEPC.

With unemployment on the upgrade the need for fair employment legislation is greater than ever. If we don't get some such measures we can be sure that Negroes will furnish a large proportion of the four million jobless predicted for 1954.

Ike Didn't Say Much

President Eisenhower's State of the Union address last week had little that was of special interest to the Negro citizen. It is apparent that Ike conceives his middle-of-the-road policy as calling for the almost total abstention of the federal government in the realm of civil rights.

He did indicate satisfaction with the progress of the armed service's non-segregation policy and with the advance of civil rights in the District of Columbia. However, it is worth recalling that these were actions initiated under the Truman regime and that the most that the administration has done has been to give its blessing to what were already-initiated government policies. It added nothing new.

The case for non-federal participation in the field of civil rights is weaker than it was when the President took office last year. During the campaign he expressed the belief that the states were ready to remedy historic injustices and promised that he would call a conference of state governors to speed up the process.

Contrary to Candidate Ike's predictions the states did not move during the year and the President has not yet called his conference. We had hoped that he might learn that there is little chance for state action in really vital fields of civil rights and that the only hope for progress lies in federal action, or at the least in the threat of federal action.

In another field the President went out of his way to re-emphasize his belief that education is purely a state concern and added a few soft, and meaningless, words to the effect that federal help would be extended only when the states were unable to carry out their programs. Of course, education is primarily a state function but we hardly need proof at this late date that some of them are mightily in need of federal aid.

Helping Each Other

Annual statements published this week by our three Savings and Loan associations — Liberty, Broadway and Watts—show healthy growth on the part of all three. Each of them has earned the confidence of investors and home buyers.

And in each instance these financial institutions have paid dividends for the confidence reposed in them. Negroes of this city may not realize how much they owe to the fact that they have Liberty, Broadway and Watts Savings and Loan Associations to turn to when loans are needed for home purchase and construction.

In those cities where there are no such comparable lending institutions conducted by Negroes, the Negro home buyer is often unable to find funds to buy a home in certain areas of the city. Other banks and lending institutions think that Negroes shouldn't own homes in certain communities. They enforce that attitude by simply refusing to lend the required funds.

Here in Los Angeles our financial institutions not only lend money themselves purely on the character of the borrower and the adequacy of his security but that attitude forces a greater degree of liberality from other lending institutions than those lenders might otherwise show.

Each of the institutions deserves an even greater measure of support than it has enjoyed in the past. Deposits in each of them are insured and we can be sure that the stronger we make Liberty, Broadway and Watts the greater service they can, and will, be to all of us.

The Road To Quackery

Walter White undoubtedly put his finger on the weak spot of the proposal of the Southern states to abandon public schools and substitute personal subsidies in the event the Supreme Court orders the end of racial segregation in the public schools. That threat has been made by both Georgia and South Carolina but as Mr. White points out, the result would be all kinds of racketeering and educational quackery.

There are Southerners who would pay a pretty high price to retain racial segregation but we doubt that many of them would want to exchange present school standards for what they would get if the public educational system is abandoned.

It is interesting to note that Mississippi, where racial prejudice is at a high ebb, recently refused to follow South Carolina's lead and decided to stick with the public school system for the time being. We even doubt that Georgia and South Carolina will ever take the threatened step.

The Big Sea

By Lester Bailey

San Francisco is the dateline this week, and I am more impressed with each visit that this is a city: one of the few in the world and the only other than New York in this country. A city must have a "soul" not identified with its people, but rather with which the people identify themselves.

And what is this soul prerequisite to the status of city? Many things, one of which is an atmosphere that becomes an experience so spontaneously that one is not aware that he has been "captured." An indellible mental picture is carried by those so impressed regardless of where else they go or how long they may remain away.

Lester Bailey

Of Chitterlings

And what does the lowly chitterling have to do with The City? Well hospitality rang my hotel phone the other night and my dear friend and co-worker, Tarea Hall Pittman, invited me across the Bay to Berkeley for a setting of this all too rare delicacy. Do not rare things and hospitality go with The City? Is not the chitterling, too, a contribution to a way of life?

If you will not stretch these fine points with me, at least agree that the "Kentucky Oyster" brings with mention of it pangs of nostalgia for a part of the country many of us called home. Distorted it is, like the spelling I have been coerced into using. Anyone who spells "chit'lins" chitterlings knows little of their history and origin, and of course does not know how to spell his own name.

Tenants Called In

Some of us (and I do) remember the days when refrigeration was a term reserved for the little house out back in the dead of winter. (Ice boxes were found only in the kitchens where we worked.) It was during this season that "hawg killin" was announced in our parts with due ceremony. Cold weather meant that the meat would keep. Pork chops were cut and hams were cured. But not all of our people could eat this high on the pig. Fact is, most were too poor to buy more than a "side" of the salt-cured "fat-back."

But when the "first freeze" came and the wood fires were kindled under the "scalding pots," and the hogs were squeeling their last in the "fat'nin" pens, the folks "up at the big white house" called the Negro tenants and sharecroppers in to get the offal.

Could Eat in Style

Tubs, buckets, etc., were utilized to catch what was thrown away. This consisted of the viscera: the heart, lungs, pancreas, liver, intestines (chitterlings), etc. After a diet of many months as meager as his extreme poverty the Negro could eat in a kind of style. Truth of the matter is that many of us owe our existence to the fact that our foreparents were thus nourished and did not all starve or die untimely of malnutrition as well they might have.

Further, ingenious recipes were concocted by an equally ingenious people. These recipes, in the prepared state, eventually found their way into the dining rooms "up at the big white house."

Times Change

Not only were those "new" dishes a welcome change in a somewhat dull bill of fare, but they brought with them nutrients resulting in a more well-rounded diet. Soon the heart, liver and pancreas were no longer discarded, and the Negro was left with only the heart, "feet," tails and the chitterlings. Commercial butchering developed along with urban centers and so did the hog's future and all of his "lowly" parts. Neckbones, ribs, feet, ears and alas the chitterling can now be secured only across the butcher's counter, and at a price.

The moral of this story, especially to those who are deeply sensitive on the subject is: Never kick a chitterling. If you had a nickel for every mile of them our folks had to eat, you would be as rich as the Armour Packing Company that sells them by the pound in the bright shiny buckets.

Battleaxe and Bread

By now it should be possible for this column to get into the public argument about military aid to Pakistan without my being accused of posing as an "Asian expert" on the basis of a few weeks' acquaintanceship with conditions in India and a few hours in Karachi, Pakistan.

There are a lot of fellows playing a leading part in the discussions whose stay in that part of the world was shorter and knowledge scantier than my own. And besides, the argument has now come down to one of common sense rather than expert knowledge—and that's the commodity that seems to be in short supply in our handling of a highly explosive international issue.

Lester Granger

Whether Washington realizes it or not, most Indians are quick to assume that in our Government's dealings with their own, American racial-superiority ideas are apt to dominate our judgement.

They feel that the U. S. holds India in second-rate esteem because of the color factor. Whether this is true has nothing to do with the fact that as long as they believe it to be true, it IS true, so far as Indians are concerned.

Resent Dictation

Thus they resent all the more furiously what seems to be an American attempt to dictate to a sovereign nation of 360 million people on how they should treat the Soviet Union or Communist China. They'll give us the odds on possession and production of material goods; they'll give us none whatever on intelligence—and I think they're right.

We became righteously indignant when Premier Nehru called for a monster demonstration by all Indians against a U.S.-Pakistan military aid pact. We overlooked the certain prospect that if Nehru had not assumed spokesmanship in such an effort, the Communists in India would have—with great prestige to their movement and with infinitely more bitter characterization of this country.

Shrug Off Charge

We shrug away with bland indifference India's charge that U. S. arms to Pakistan will make that country more intransgient than ever in the dispute over Kashmir—and could encourage her in launching an armed attack on India.

"Nehru is seeing ghosts," our statesmen declare impatiently, and then become indignant when Nehru accuses this country of being neurotically fearful of Russia. We know Russia better than does the Indian premier, we feel; but we are not ready to admit what is certainly true—that he knows Pakistan better than we ever shall.

Pakistan is a sovereign nation, we point out, and has a full right to make any alliances that her wisdom dictates. Whereupon Indians will ask if this "right" also justifies the U. S. in "upsetting an uneasy balance" in Southern Asia at the very time when the two countries were showing signs of getting together on a Kashmir settlement. And so the arguments go, back and forth without settlement.

'Face' Involved

There's little question that Washington must wish it had never started this business, and that "national face" is involved at this point more than military advantage. For if we arm Pakistan and Russia proceeds to arm Afganistan—and if India with her second-largest population in the world withdraws in a huff from cooperation with the West—what military advantage have we gained?

In this connection I think of a remark that Chester Bowles made to me in his New Delhi office the afternoon before I left India nearly a year ago.

He said: "Washington seems to think that it can shove across an armed alliance with Pakistan because India, having no other place to go, must remain within our sphere of influence. But you have been in this country long enough to understand exactly what I mean when I say that India is perfectly capable of deliberately choosing national suicide, once she is convinced that she must do so because of a great moral principle."

It begins to seem that our diplomats are doing their best to confront India with such a moral principle, while daring her to "commit national suicide." What they are overlooking is that 360 million people can easily call our bluff. In so doing, not only would they spell their own doom; they could spell ours at the same time. It doesn't take an expert to see this; it only requires the application of common sense.

One Man's Opinion

By LEON STEWARD

This is a story of a young man whom we have admired ever since we have been acquainted. And when you have read this piece we are sure you will have a desire to join us in this admiration.

When he ultimately found out that his father and mother were not really his own natural parents, he was already secure in the love and concern of a Baptist minister and his wife as he grew up in Pasadena.

He attended grade, junior high and high school where he was on the tennis team and where he also excelled in scholarship. He attended the University of Redlands and graduated in three years with honors in political science; attended Berkeley Baptist Divinity School, 1938 to 1941 and received his B.D.; spent the following two years at Yale University.

In 1942, Bill married and left for overseas as a chaplain, and spent 39 months in Italy and North Africa. While overseas he lost both his father and mother, which indeed meant that he lost the home to which he would return when the shooting was over.

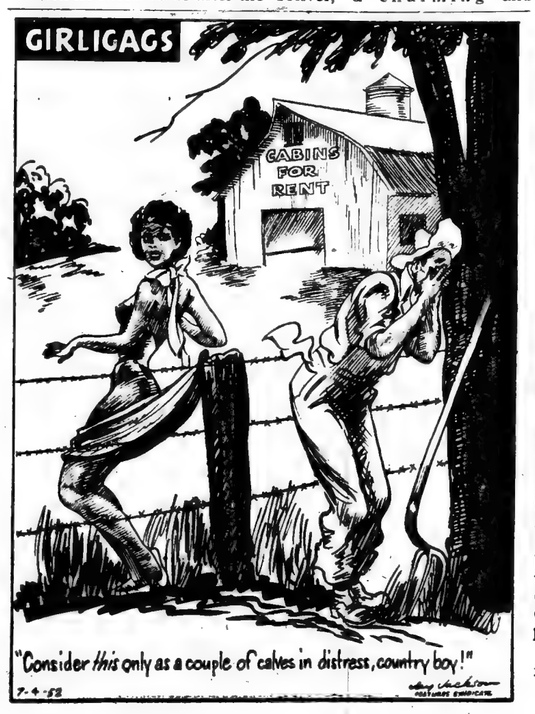
No Open Arms

When he faced home after the ordeals of the fighting, his parents were gone and his wife had moved to Chicago. So he hied himself to Chicago but his wife had no open arms for him.

Bill returned to Los Angeles and attended a Methodist conference in the hope of receiving an appointment. But someone tipped off the bishop that he was a divorced minister. Despite the fact that he had chosen the church and thereby lost his wife, the Church said "No." Surely that was enough to floor our friend. But it did not.

Enters U.S.C.

When U.S.C. opened its doors to pupils in the fall of 1946, Bill was among them. He enrolled in the School of Social Work. During the second term he had impressed his classmates so favorably that they elected him to the position of Student Body President of the social work school. He then decided that he needed to complete a thesis for his master's degree and in September he found also that the County Probation Department was setting up a Trainee program which he entered and completed in July, 1949. Thus he began a career in the County Probation Adult Division of Investigation.



Married Again

On Columbus Day, 1947, with his assurance of employment, William Anthony Dickerson became married to Miss Gladys Toliver, a charming and talented young lady who was born in New Haven, Conn., but who was, at the time, living in ElCentro, Calif. with a Prof. Payne and his wife. Miss Toliver and Dickerson were introduced to each other at a friend's home on the evening she graduated from Nursing School.

No longer had our hero arrived back in Los Angeles than he joined the Bowen Memorial Methodist Church. His first office in the church was Sunday School Superintendent. He held this until elected Church Treasurer.

The Dickersons are proud parents of two children. Robert was born Dec. 26, 1948, while Wendy Marie made her entry upon the scene July 12, 1950.

If you want a real picture of home contentment just drop around and see Bill, pipe in mouth, and these two children at his feet. He is one man who loves baby sitting. What do you think of such a man's future as a father and as a citizen? To say nothing of the wife at his side.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It is with great pride that I am writing you this note to thank you for the wonderful honor you have bestowed on me and my organization, in selecting me as one of the twelve outstanding women. I have never been so thrilled in all my life.

I and the Benevolent Variety Artist, Inc., will do our utmost to continue living up to this great honor.

The B.V.A.s are sincerely grateful for the wholehearted cooperation of the press and public, in helping us to further our aims and to reach our ultimate goal.

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the very complimentary article which appeared in a recent edition of the California Eagle. Many of my patients and friends have commented favorably by phone and in person regarding my recent appointment.

I am usually somewhat embarrassed reading things like this in print, but it was handled with such restraint and dignity that it will be an experience I will long remember.

Let's chalk this up to journalism at its very best.

Do CRAMPS give you that monthly look?

Why let tell-tale misery, "nerves" show in your eyes?

Does your mirror show an older-looking, worn-out, nervous face during your "bad days?" Why let men see that you are suffering from monthly cramps? Try a little Cardui each day as thousands of women do. Let it help build strength and resistance so you have less and less misery each month. Some go through periods without feeling any discomforts at all. Also helps relax jittery nerves—sleep better. Look, feel, act younger, more normal all month. Ask for Cardui. (Say: "card-joo-eye").

Birthday Celebrated By Church

The United Missionary Baptist Church observed its first anniversary last Sunday. The services were held under the auspices of the New Era Baptist Association in the Starlight Baptist Church. The Rev. James I. Hunter preached the anniversary sermon. The history of the church showed that it was organized Dec. 31, 1952, in the Starlight Baptist Church and the first Sunday services were held Jan. 4, 1953, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. Granville W. Reed, preached.

The history also showed that the church had increased very largely in membership and the financial condition was far above expectation. The church had given largely to missions and charity. The church now meets in the Chapel of the Reed College of Religion, 9309 S. San Pedro Street.

Revival Slated

There will be a revival at the King Solomon Baptist Church, Central Ave. and 74th St., of which Rev. O. J. Pedescleaux is pastor. The revival will begin Sunday and will end Jan. 27.

at which time Certificates of Degrees, Certificates of Advancement, Certificates of Progress and Course Cards will be issued. A splendid program has been arranged for this occasion and will be open to the public.

Baptists Will Hold District Meeting Here

The Los Angeles Baptist District Association, one of the auxiliary bodies of the Western Baptist State Convention of California, will convene in its second quarterly session January 19-22 at the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church with Pastor E. A. Anderson as host. McCoy Memorial Church is located at 802 East 46th Street.

DR. J. RAYMOND HENDERSON

The conclave will begin on Tuesday evening, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock, with the presentation of a musical extravaganza featuring the senior choirs and talented musicians of the Association's Churches under the direction of the District Musical Directress, Mrs. Katherine Swanson Lindsay.

Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the Pastor's Conference will be in session, presided over by the Rev. S. O. J. Evans, president of the Conference.

The theme, "Christ and the Crises of Our Age" will be explored by eminent pastors, ministers and laymen.

The District Laymen Department, under the leadership of Billie Ferrell, will be among this session's features. Other departments scheduled to present inspiring and informative programs include: Women's Department of Missions, Department of Christian Education, Young People's Department, Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Department.

Those scheduled to be heard in this Second Quarterly Session include Joe Hardwick in Inspirational Messages; Dr. J. R. Henderson, in a Doctrinal Message; sermons by Rev. D. R. Coefield, Rev. S. O. J. Evans, Rev. John Friar, Rev. L. A. Felix and Dr. A. A. Peters.

The session will be concluded with the presentation of a service planned for the youth under the chairmanship of Willie C. Brown.

Dr. Arthur A. Peters is moderator of the Los Angeles District, and Dr. Jonathon Lyle Caston is president of the parent body.

'Dramatic Moments' Stars At Independent Sunday

Jay Loft-Lynn, in cooperation with the Cathedral Choir of the People's Independent Church of Christ, will present "Dramatic Moments," formerly known as The Sacred Hour with the Stars, and will introduce the Panda Players next Sunday evening at 5:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church at 18th and Paloma Streets.

Loft-Lynn has secured the commitments from the following: Eartha Kitt, star of New Faces, currently at the Biltmore; Arthur Lee Simpkins, tenor, booked recently at The Bar of Music; Lillian Randolph, one of the featured stars in "The Gildersleeve Show;" Louise Beavers, noted star of movies, radio and TV; Amanda Randolph, of "The Amos and Andy Show"; Bill Walker, character actor of radio and TV fame; Oden Brown, Jimmy Edwards, Nick and Edna Stewart, all of the Ebony Showcase cast; Glen Eddy Dudley, Roy Lindsay, Louis Johnson, Marguerite Chapman, Gerald Garrett, Mary Louise Jones, John Lee, Robert Moseley, and Benjamin Pollock. The "14 Bronze Mannequins" will usher.

Floyd Covington will introduce authoress Ruby Berkeley Goodwin, whose book, "It's Good to Be Black," was recently published. Mrs.

Lecturer Will Report On Mission Tour

Mrs. Rosa Page Welch, concert singer and lecturer, will be presented by the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Avalon Christian Church, 4272 Avalon Blvd., on Sunday, at 4 p.m. in a Women's Day program.

Mrs. Welch will sing and she will also give a report of her recent world tour which ended last spring. She visited Japan, the Philippine Islands, India, Africa and other countries. This tour was sponsored by United Church Women, Presbyterian U.S.A. Women, American Baptist and the Christian Churches.

Mrs. Welch is a forceful and interesting speaker. Her message is fused with deep spiritual and religious content and she leaves her audience with a challenge. Her report of her visit to mission stations in India, Africa and other countries and the response of our Christian friends to her message in song will be described.

Mrs. Welch is a member of the Board of Managers, United Church Women, and the Board of Directors of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ.

Members of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the East 28th Street Christian Church, the Cosmopolitan Christian Church, the Western Avenue Christian Church and the 90th Street Christian Church join the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Avalon Christian Church in extending an invitation to the churches and to the public in sharing this Christian woman. Mrs. Don Taylor is president, Mrs. Anderson B. Barnes is reporter, and The Rev. Baxter C. Duke, is minister of the church.

Fellowship Church Plans Annual Events

Visitors, youth and budget were the order of the day at the Church of Christian Fellowship last week. Among the out-of-town visitors were: Mrs. Wilbur Marshall, of Toledo, daughter of Mrs. Mamie J. Duffy; Mrs. Caldwell Henderson of Chicago and Idlewild, who with her late husband assisted Mr. Kingsley in developing Camp Good Shepherd; Mr. Carroll Ellis, head of the largest Negro distributing agency, and one of the builders of Good Shepherd.

The annual meeting, last Wednesday night, featured encouraging financial reports and adoption of plans for expansion. Capt. Vance H. Marchbanks, Sr., is chairman of trustees; Victor Nickerson, treasurer, and Mrs. Minnie Lomax is clerk. Youth Sunday will be observed January 31 with a special speaker and musical program at the morning services. Dan Towler will return as minister of youth when the current exams and the Pro-Bowl game are passed.

Zion Bishops Open Meet

MEMPHIS — The resident bishop of Africa, Daniel Carlton Pope, of Gold Coast, West Africa, is presiding over the mid-winter session of the Bishop's Council of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church at a five-day meeting here Jan. 12-17, at Warner Temple A.M.E. Zion Church.

Much of the inspirational portion of the five-day session is to be devoted to observing the centenary of the birth of Dr. Joseph Charles Price, renowned orator and minister of the A.M.E. Zion Church, as well as founder and first president of Livingstone College, denominational institution at Salisbury, N. C.

COLONIC

ENJOY A TRIAL TREATMENT $3

My technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine and rectum

In simple language — it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by a normal effort.

Prof. Ehret says, "Every sick person has a more or less mucus-clogged system, such mucus being derived from undigested and uneliminated, unnatural food substances accumulated from childhood on."

"The actual amount of filth and waste, which is the 'mysterious' cause of your 'trouble,' is almost unbelievable.

"I had fat patients that eliminated from their body as much as 50 to 60 pounds waste, and 10 to 15 pounds alone from the colon, mainly consisting of foreign matter, especially old, hardened feces. The average so-called 'healthy' man of today carries continually with him, since childhood, several pounds of never-eliminated feces. One 'good stool' a day means nothing. 'A fat and sick man is in fact a living cesspool.'"

"Experts in autopsy state they have found that from 60 to 70 per cent of the colons examined have foreign matters such as worms and decades-old fecesstones. The inside walls of the over-intestines are encrusted by old, hardened feces and resemble in appearance the inside of a filthy stove pipe."

"Leonard Williams, quoted by Dr. W. S. Bainbridge in his article on 'Intestinal Toxemia' (Med. Jour. and Rec. 1925) has said 'THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE A DAILY EVACUATION OF THE BOWELS BUT WHO ARE NEVERTHELESS WALKING SEPTIC TANKS.'"

Constipation is the common sense explanation of many illnesses, say some of the world's best authorities. Many doctors accuse large intestine as breeding grounds of bacteria and deadly toxins that cause sickness, suffering, disease—DEATH.

Acne, Arthritis, Asthma, Appendicitis, Anemia, Autointoxication, Backache, Bad Breath, Bladder, Blood Pressure high and low, Body Odor, Bright's Disease, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Circulatory Defect, Constipation, Cystitis, Diabetes, Digestive Disorders, Eczema, Female Troubles, Fevers, Flatulence, Gallstones, Gas, Gland Failure, Goitre, Halitosis, Hay Fever, Heart Derangements, Headache, Insomnia, Itch, Itchy Scalp, Kidney Disorders, Neuralgia, Organs, Sagging, Obesity, Pimples, Premature Gland Failure, Psoriasis, Psychiatric Problems, Rectal Troubles, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Skin Diseases, Smelly Feet, Stomach Troubles, Torpid Liver, Varicose Veins

When you visit my office you will see hundreds of patients under treatment — satisfied patients, many of whom have been pronounced incurable by other doctors. You will see hundreds of testimonials. You will see stamped envelopes from all over the world. Truly an experience and a sight to behold. Why? Because you will see the results that other forms of treatment have not been able to accomplish. Results that can only be accomplished with this type of treatment—Colonics.

Colonics remove the cause of many diseases, disaster, and death. It is positively amazing the results that might be obtained by a series of colonics, when properly administered by experts — specialists who are trained to eliminate that which causes toxic poisons—"the true cause of many diseases."

Come in today and see with your own eyes the benefits that many derive. Enjoy a trial treatment—an experience that you may never forget. Perhaps you will respond as thousands have responded. Many of them had given up hope. Believe me, I would not tell you this if it were not true.

I MAKE NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION, FOR MY EXAMINATION AND TRIAL TREATMENT I CHARGE $3.

The trial treatment consists of an internal bath—commonly referred to as "colonic"—given under the direction of a doctor specialist, supervised by female supervisors and given by nurses thoroughly trained.

The examination includes laboratory test, cardiograph test of the heart, thorough fluoroscopic X-ray study and analysis of case history by competent doctors, D.C., especially trained for this type of treatment. The examination and laboratory test are FREE with the $3 trial treatment.

Remember this! I have a staff of 14 doctors, D.C., specializing in this type of therapy, 60 female supervisors and nurses, 41 private treating rooms — the latest and finest equipment obtainable.

Come in and enjoy a most unusual experience. Rub shoulders with hundreds of satisfied patients. See and talk to my patients and hear of thousands who were benefited. Spend hours reading amazing testimonials. Many from patients who were diagnosed "incurable." See stamped envelopes from all over the world.

I have the world's largest institution of its kind. More than 655,000 various treatments. There is no substitute for experience.

Enjoy this marvelous trial treatment today. Don't forget—the total cost for examination and trial treatment is $3. Yes! I said $3. This $3 pays for everything. There are no extras.

Are You a Victim of Wrong Diagnosis?

To protect the sick against wrong diagnosis, it is the writer's belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific tests are made.

Here Is Proof

PREDICTS DEATH: Noted physician, M.A., M.D., indisputable authority in the study of blood and laboratory technique, says in writing of his laboratory experience with toxic neutrophils (white blood cells): "The evaluation of toxic changes in neutrophil morphology is extremely valuable in prognosis. The author predicted death of more than 100 consecutive patients from a three or four plus change in two of these factors. Ninety per cent of these died within a week after the prediction was made. These patients died of a wide variety of conditions, including malignant tumors and leukemias as well as infections."

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE STATEMENT — HOW CAN YOU AFFORD TO ALLOW ANY DOCTOR TREAT YOU UNTIL CERTAIN LABORATORY TESTS ARE PERFORMED.

I, the undersigned, order laboratory tests for all my patients under treatment at no extra charge.

THE BRUINS DIDN'T MAKE OUT AT ALL IN BERKELEY . . .

BERKELEY — While Johnny Wooden's Westwood Wonders were apparently wondering what town they were in here on Friday and Saturday nights . . . Nib Price's souped-up California five slipped by with a couple of closies. . . . However, Norris Taft—the ex-L.A. Poly and Compton JCer, and veteran Johnny Moore played admirably.

Willie Naulls, the highly tutored San Pedro High boy, in our humble estimation shouldn't have skipped Freshman Ball. . . . The big crowds undoubtedly excite the young man. . . . We watched him as a prep and we believe with a little more seasoning he should begin to live up to expectation.

PYE'S PICK UPS . . .

Jackie Robinson picks the N.Y. Giants as the team to beat in '54 if Willie Mays returns and they get some hill strength. . . . It says here the Cleveland Injuns offered the Washington Nats $40,000 for Negro outfielder Angel Scull. . . . Sam Jethroe makes his return back to the majors with the Pittsburgh Pirates. . . . Dick Bass, the Vallejo High junior, who scored 31 td's is also quite a basketballer.

Walter J. Mails, the new publicity chief of the S.F. Seals, strikes this scribe as a man that'll bring a lot of old fans back to the 16th and Bryant diamond. . . . A group of major loop writers picked an All-Conceited team. . . . We're happy to report not a single Negro major looper was cited.

Lang Stanley, reputed to be one of the all-time great Jefferson High half-milers, and Maurice Hill, his ex-teammate at Jeff will continue to be teammates as privates in Uncle Samuel's Army come Jan. 15.

As now this is 25 and 5. . . .

DON GRANT WINS 12th WIN IN ROW

Don (Big Red) Grant, newest boxing sensation to come around in a long time, just racked up his 12th consecutive professional victory and his second as a main-liner. Grant annihilated rugged Esau Ferdinand in the Olympic 10-rounder last Tuesday night, to gain a unanimous decision. There were no knockdowns in the bout. However, Ferdinand took such a beating that his handlers tossed in the towel at the end of the ninth canto.

BILLY PEACOCK AL CRUZ BATTLE LOOMS THRILLER

By I. SEE

Joe Stanley's Billy (Sweetpea) Peacock opens up his 1954 boxing season with a very tough assignment this Tuesday night at the Olympic Auditorium. Colorful Al Cruz is assigned to battle the ranking Peacock over the 10-round route and the boxing boys are figuring that Peacock will have a busy time in overhauling the busy beltin' Cruz who won his last bout by the knockout route.

Peacock in his last outing at South Gate didn't exactly look like the lad who ran up a string up 12 consecutive victories before running into defeat. Peacock is said to be launching a serious bid for fistic biggest prize this year. Rumor is that he may go east after this bout and set up his headquarters a little closer to the title holders. However Cruz matter his plans come Tuesday night. At any rate this bout could be a preview of a world champion as both fighters are even as two and two.

BILLY PEACOCK—Headlines Olympic boxing card Tuesday night in what is expected to be an action packed affair with Al Cruz.

THE 19th HOLE, turned out to be the swank Milmo club on Western Ave., Monday night, when Tricky Davis and owners Bert Kenner and Ballinger Kemp tossed a steak party for the golfers competing in the 28th annual Los Angeles Open at Fox Hills. Seated left to right: Freddie James, Joe Roach, Jimmy De Voe, Ted Rhodes, Charles Sifford and Bill Spiller. Standing rear left; Elhiu McGee, Myrtle Fortune, Alyce Key, Bo. Franklin, Carita Harbert, Baby Simmons, Nadine Cole and Emlen Tunnell, the great New York Giant footballer.

Bowling News

Again those maple pounding keglers of the Sunset League met Saturday night at the Studio Bowl. They had malice in their eyes and revenge in their hearts. The bowlers sights was strictly on the ten pins. Harold Johnson of the Lee Hi Hats crew chewed up six ringers in a row for a 231 high game, putting the blanket on the Central Bar-B-Quers second place hopes.

Bob Williams was adding just enough spark with his 218 game and his 530 series was enough to shutout the charging B and B team and hold the second place spot for Teds Service.

Kenneth Morris offered his resistance with a 212 high game and 524 series but his best effort wasn't enough. The tenth frame whirl of the Brown Motors team stunned the king pins and left them reeling on their heels never to recover.

The fancy timber chopping of Tony Moore and Arthur Harold each firing a 207-206 respectively gained a three game for their team. The Sav-Way-TVERS struck for revenge the Garrett Enterprise, stopping them cold for a two game win behind the beautiful defensive bowling of John Garnier and Bill Fay.

BRUINS, TROJANS BIG CAGE BATTLE

Johnny Moore, UCLA stellar basketball player, started with the Bruins this season with indication that this would be his best year on the courts. However a back injury on the Christmas Holiday trip to Denver and Kentucky may be the reason why his scoring is suffering. In two games last week he could only account for 12 points.

TED RHODES, CHARLES SIFFORD CARD 288 IN L. A. OPEN MEET

Ted Rhodes and Charles Sifford will have to come back next year if they hope to cop first place in the big Los Angeles Open tourney. Both finished with the same score in the 28th annual Fox Hills $4000 tournament. Rhodes and Sifford each carded 288 for 72 holes and pocketed $91.43. Lloyd Mangrum, tournament favorite and defending champion, finished one stroke out of the money with 289. Only eight players broke par for the tournament route, this being a big shock to many who believed the pros would take Fox Hills apart.

Veteran Ted Rhodes who learned his golfing at an early age has been in money for the past five years. Although Sifford hasn't appeared in as many L.A. Opens as Rhodes experts are rating him and Rhodes about even and he proved this with his score of 288, the same as Teddy. Both golfers will head for San Diego and the four day tourney. Rhodes stated that he feels certain that his game is on the upgrade and it is just a matter of time before he cracks the big ones.

JEFF, VS. MANUAL FOR CAGE CROWN

The Jefferson High School cage team will be forced to work overtime in an attempt to clinch their league basketball title.

Forward Kaz Shinzato plunked in 30 points to lead Roosevelt to a 64-58 upset win over highly regarded Jefferson. Jeff, however, has already clinched a tie for the crown and they must play and defeat Manual Arts today (Thursday).

Polytechnic assured itself half of the Eastern championship by winning their game

Santa Anita: A. J. Crevelin's Imbros and A. B. Hirschberg's Berseem, which combined in a driving finish in the Malibu Sequet Stakes when Imbros set a new world record of 1:20 3/5 for seven furlongs by a nose, were listed among 23 nominees for the $25,000 added San Fernando Stakes for 4-year-olds, slated for Jan. 16 at Santa Anita Park. The San Fernando, which points the way to the estimated $160,000 Santa Anita Maturity on Jan. 30, is carded for 1 and 1/16 miles.

RAMSEY

Alfred Vanderbilt's Find, winner of three stakes last autumn, is also among the nominees and is expected to make his first start of the Santa Anita meeting in the San Fernando.

Eligibles for the Santa Anita Maturity, nominated for the San Fernando, are Ali's Gem, Beachcomber, By Zeus, Cerise Reine, Correspondent, Golden Abbey, History Book, Joe Jones, who ran a mile in 1:35 flat in the co-feature last Saturday, breaking the track record, Merryman and National Valor.

Wednesday's big attraction will be the $25,000 added Santa Catalina Handicap for 4-year-olds and upwards foaled in California. Trusting, a full brother to the great On Trust, barring any mishap, will start in the Santa Catalina Friday. The Santa Maria Handicap will be the featured event at seven furlongs for fillies and mares three years olds and upwards. It carries an added value of $20,000.

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Soft Time, from the stable of Mrs. R. Robinson and the lightest weighed of the field of ten, won the featured Bombay Handicap south of the border last Sunday. Laying close to the early pace set by Tommy V, the horse closed fast between leaders rounding the stretch turn and closed strongly to outgame Bulltress. Mutuels paid $10.40. Artillerita and Mon Pigeon, coupled as the Mr. and Mrs. H. Norsch and Mrs. L. Jenner entry, ran one-two in the Peru co-feature. As the favorites the entry paid $5.80—5.60—3.60.

WHIZ KIDS WIN TWO CAGE GAMES

The Medical Pharmacy Whiz Kids basketball team got back in action after pocketing the Municipal League title this week by scoring a double victory in their regular AAA league game.

In the first game at Hollywood High School the team fought off the challenge of the tough crew of the Jackson Paint, and scored a 54-46 victory. The game, which featured uncanny ball handling and fine defensive play of Fred Thompson, Charles Reed, John Sandoz, L. Anderson, Chas. Hill, Emil Decouz and Ed Thompson.

In the Wednesday night fray the Whiz Kids turned on the speed and outsped the Sukker Kiddyland composed of former Pepperdine College great cagers of last year. Charles Reed, James Powell and John Sandoz amazed the fans by the expert manner they handled the backboards. One of the most spectacular shots was made by J.

Van Courtlandts In Mid-Winter Formal

The Van Courtlandt Social Club started off the 1954 social season with their annual mid-winter formal last Saturday night at the Elks ballroom. Van Courtlandts are popularly known and are considered in the club circles as one of the top men's organizations of the city.

This year's affair drew a packed house as members and guests enjoyed dancing and toasting the club on to greater things during the remainder of the year. Music was played by the veteran Sammy Franklin's band.

Highlights of the evening's formal was the club's introduction which struck a new note. Wallace Arima and Cliff Hall, two enterprising photographic specialists, succeeded in creating visual sensations which were breath-taking, as each member's photograph in color was projected on a huge eight foot by eight foot screen, fashioned as a fancy picture frame.

The Courtlandts, long known as one of the best dressed groups, made very good subjects for the test attired in white ties and tails. Matching the members' handsome features were their wives. All agreed that this year's formal dance was one of the club's best. Club members are: George Williams, Sylvester Roach, James Edmondson, Harvey King, Flemming Enix, Fred Watkins, Robert Presley, Wallace Burns, Fred Harris, Lutcher Wilson, Albert West, George Ross, Roy Callahan and Ardie Stokes.

Phi Betas Meet At Brown House

Phi Beta Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity will hold its regularly monthly dinner meeting at the Brown House, 2103 S. Harvard Blvd., Saturday, at 6 p.m., Wesley R. Brazier, president of the organization, announced this week.

On the agenda of the meeting will be a report by H. A. Howard, regional director, of the highlights of the recent national convention held in Detroit, and also a report on the Dr. George Washington Carver Day dinner held at the Clark Hotel last week.

A review of the activities of the fraternity during the past year as well as the proposed program for 1954 will highlight the meeting.

All members of the organization are requested to attend the dinner meeting.

YWCA-Woodlawn Branch Presents Recital Saturday

Through the courtesy of Barker Brothers and the Young Women's Christian Association-Woodlawn Branch, the public is cordially invited to a musical concert featuring Mrs. Robert V. Edwards-Lucas, pianist, and James Lucas, tenor, for benefit of the Y.W.C.A. "Parade of States," Saturday, Jan. 16, at 2:30 p.m., at Barker Brothers Main Auditorium, 818 West Seventh St.

Mrs. Lucas, accompanist and featured artist, is the daughter of Mrs. A. C. Harris Bilbrew, and is a product of the Los Angeles public schools, Gray Conservatory of Music and the University of Southern California. For a number of years this talented musician has been a member of the faculty of Los Angeles City College.

James Lucas studied voice under Georgia Burfer, Professor Dave Bedoe and Richard Fluke. He won a music scholarship to Wilberforce University. He is a member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Tickets may be secured during the week at the Branch, 4260 Woodlawn Avenue or on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. from Barker Brothers.

Beauty, Talent To Spark Show

Beauty and talent will win in the show being staged at Cosmopolitan Hotel, Sunday afternoon, Jan. 31, from 3 to 6. The Daisy Wilson Foundation is offering this opportunity to girls betwen the ages of 16 and 21 in the spectacular entertainment planned to climax the awarding of a Cadillac automobile to some lucky person.

"Today's girl must have talent as well as beauty," according to Jay Loft-Lynn, well known artist. Fannie Williams, campaign manager for Daisy Wilson Foundation, believes that Los Angeles girls have both. Casting directors from M.G.M. and 20th Century Fox Studios will be invited to act as judges. POLKA FOR POLIO—Jack and Jill Friday, January 22, 1954, 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the Hotel Cosmopolitan. Little Jeri Woods and brother, Jan, display strong bodies as some sponsors of the Friday night program look on. Shown are: Dorothy Baylyff, Emily Woody, chairman of dance program, and Mrs. Lillian Doty, manager of the Volunteer Division of the March of Dimes. The entire proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY—Rev. John C. Bain and his attractive wife celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last week. The popular couple's young son was on hand for the celebration which took place in his parents home.

'Cotton Calypso Caper' To Aid 'Dimes' Drive

"Cotton Calypso" will be the theme of the second annual "Polka for Polio" to be given by the Los Angeles Chapter of Jack and Jill on Jan. 22 at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, 360 S. Westlake. Leroy Antoine and his colorful island dancers and musicians will be among the entertainers on hand for the evening.

The guests are invited to wear gay cottons to help carry out the happy "Cotton Calypso" idea as they dance so that others may walk. The Calypso Island theme will predominate in the decorations as well as on the program.

The entire proceeds from this dance will go directly to the March of Dimes. This year, with the hope for a vaccine against the dread infantile paralysis so near, more money than ever is needed—not only those crippled and in need of aid from the Polio Foundation, but to help perfect the vaccine to prevent polio's attack on our children.

Mrs. Jarone (Charlene) Johnson, president of the Los Angeles Jack and Jill, and Mrs. Emily Woody, chairman of the dance committee, both urge wide support for the affair.

DOLL LEAGUERS IN REGULAR MEETING

Irene Wright Sharp took over duties as president of the Doll League Charity Club in the first meeting of the new year, at the home of the hostess, Ann Wheeler. Club members are anticipating a busy year with many activities slated on the calendar. Mrs. Sharp will have the help of such efficient officers as: Vice-President Ethel Pickett, Recording Secretary Charlotte Bruce, Financial Secretary Ruth Ball, Treasurer Evelyn Royal, Publicity, Gladyce Clark, Sergeant-at-Arms Lenona Winkler.

National Post Goes to Local School Teacher

Los Angeles won national recognition in Alpha Phi Alpha when local civic leader Samuel P. DeBose was unanimously elected to the post of national vice-president of the fraternity. The convention, which was recently held in Detroit, drew more than 800 Alpha men from every state in the union. Alpha, which is the oldest college fraternity, counts among its members some of America's greatest men. Their program in civil rights has won acclaim in every phase of American life. Thurgood Marshall, who is prominent in that field, was speaker at the public meeting conducted by the frat during the convention.

Parade of States Finales at Hotel

The grand finale of the Parade of States will be held at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Sunday, Jan. 24, at 3:00 p.m. A musical bouquet with representation from the following states will add zest and entertainment to the afternoon:

Texas, Mrs. Jean Keele, soloist; Louisiana, Miss Delores Piper; Georgia, James Smilley. Other states participating on that afternoon will be: Oklahoma, Colorado, California, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland, Washington and Kansas.

THELMA HARRIS, THOMAS KAVE SURPRISE GUESTS WITH ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

An engagement that came as a surprise to 60 or more guests was revealed at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. William L. Parker. The unique game made of Yuletide bells and napkins were passed to each guest and after the bells were crushed, enclosed was a tiny strip of paper which read "Thelma and Tommy" to signalize the engagement of Miss Thelma Harris and Thomas Kave.

Miss Harris is the daughter of Mr. Lacy Harris and the late Mrs. Letitia Harris of Birmingham. She is a graduate of E. H. SUCCESSFUL LOCAL AT LAST

Keep your eyes on Ex-UCLA student body president, Sherril Luke, whose rise to fame in Political circles will be forthcoming . . . remember you read it in this column. . . .

Ted Schaffer is the number one prospect for the "Assemblyman" position in the 63rd district. We don't know about you all, but we're with him. . . .

EXCERPTS FROM THE HOUND BOX

Lovely Donna Rae Brown, who is currently instructing dance classes at Los Angeles City College, garnered a contract from a top "moom" picture company to do solo dance interpretations in a forthcoming movie.

What's this talk about Al Glover and Dorothy Cain being real "Wowsy-palsys." . . .

Playboy Buddy Anderson and Rosemaary Bunn are angry 'wit' each other! Rose, just cause he left you stranded for an hour is no reason for such furor. . . .

Did you hear the mellow voice of Roy Loggins D. Jing on the "Autums on Adams" radio show the other eve. The old boy should get on the proverbial "ball" and get a show of his own.

We hear that our "usta be idle" pianist, Bud Powell, currently holding forth at the "HAIG" is wasted in the grey matter . . . they say that he "GOOFED" on every set. . . . Whatsa matta Bud, ya tempramental. . . .

Wally Pride and Mary Ann Baumann are still living it up . . . we hear. . . .

We'd never have believed that Rhae Tate and Louis (Grunt) Grant would ever get together. Maybe hitching is their next project. . . . HUH?

Florence Smith, Angeleno Thespian is back in town after completing the run of a Broadway show. Escorting the vivacious damsel around this Berg is local barrister, Chuck Fielding.

Jay Loft-Lynn is sponsoring his production of "Dramatic Moments" at the Independent Church this Sunday. Be there it will be quite nice. . . . Lottsa stars. . . .

Your Egotistical columnists get a big kick out of reminiscing over old stuff that we've written, especially the items that informed y'all about "bloomin Love."

'LUFF' LIFE

It seems like only yesterday that David Reed and Toni Adams were seeing "eye to thigh" but it was actually Feb. of 1952. Uly Griggs and Joan Moore were seeing each other pretty frequently at that time. (Wasn't it Toni he was hung behind?) Verlohn (Prowd) Johnson was receiving lots of congratulations on becoming a mama . . . and during Jan. of '52 Bonnie Keyser was expecting a little Lou-Lou . . . things looked real smootchy for John Waller and Yvonne La Chapelle . . . ditto for Don Benjamin and Percy McIntyre . . . Vivian Jones and Robert Armstrong were still chasing each other . . . Sept. 1951 . . . Cecilla Rene was pursuing Rudy Bowen and Barbara Garrott returned to the campus at the University of Redlands . . . Oct. 1951, Gwen Westfield and Alvin Ball were on the splits and Louise Ateman's ship had come in bearing sailor boy, Burnette Harris . . . Nov. 1951, there was a fellow who was 'crackin' from the lack of 'shackin' when his wife decided that she could do better among the "Social Lice." (They're back together now). . . . Hurricane Michelle, the city's top prevaricator (at that time) took out his first and only local gal.

TIME MARCHES

You wouldn't think that all of this happened over two years ago but it did. Now let's look at Nov. 1952. . . . During this time Thomas Greene was stricken pneumonia . . . Willie Naulls was in the process of capturing Yvonne Watson's heart.

ARE YOU MARRIED?

BEING IN LOVE is not looking into another's eyes . . . but looking in the RIGHT DIRECTION. So many people are forced to rely on CHANCE as a means of meeting their prospective mates; stumbling around and marrying unwisely for lack of an adequate opportunity to view a wider range of eligible matrimonial prospects. Hence, so many broken homes, divorces, unwanted children and years (sometimes the best years) spent in misery. Call KAA WILLIAMS today or write tonight.

The KAA WILLIAMS Marriage Foundation will put forth every effort to bring you in contact with a mate of your choice whose interests, habits and personality are compatible to yours and EVERYTHING done with the strictest confidence. Call Kaa Williams, ADams 1-9487, and arrange for a private interview or write: Miss Kaa Williams, c/o Box 500, 1050 E. 43rd Place, Los Angeles 11, California.

THEATRE

'Three Men On A Horse' Set To Open Jan. 19

"Due to circumstances beyond our control, the opening of Ebony Showcases's comedy offering, 'Three Men on a Horse,' has been postponed a week and definitely will open next Tuesday evening, January 19," Edna and Nick Stewart, founders of the popular little theatre project, said in a joint statement issued this week.

Several replacements have had to be made in the original cast, due to previous commitments, explained the directors.

Suzette Harbin will play the role made famous by Shirley Booth in the Broadway production several years ago.

Mary Emma Watson, who created such a sensation as "Shady Sue" in "Right Where You Are" at the Ebony Showcase last year, is another whose talents are expected to lend much to the forthcoming play.

Production of "Three Men on a Horse" marks the initial attempt at farce comedy on the part of the Ebony players and provides the best entertainment value of the season.

Starring in the vehicle are James Edwards, of "Home of the Brave" and "The Joe Louis Story" fame, and Johnny (Calhoun) Lee, of the Amos 'n' Andy show.

Others having featured roles along with Misses Harbin and Watson are: Ted Lange, Morris Buchanan, Sammy Gardner, Frances White, Betty Amos and Nick Stewart.

The production will play nightly, Wednesdays through Sundays. Two nights each week, Mondays and Tuesdays, will be devoted to auditions and rehearsals for new plays.

People and Places

FOR THE TAURUS MOB (April 21-May 21): Mars in your oppostion sign, Scorpio, likely to find many of you in a combative mood. You probably had a taste of this on Jan. 2, and unless you possess an extraordinary amount of patience, a relative, member of the family, is liable to get under your skin at beginning and end of next week. If matter for stern measures adopt them for stern measures, adopt them out, logical manner. Financial outlook reasonably good but constant drain on your resources won't leave much margin of saving. Romance? Sure thing. Take care you don't say yes and regret it later.

LANE NICHOLSON, the Bdwy Club lonely figure now that Tricky Davis is greeting his friends at the Milomo Club and Sylvester Scott is making the joint jump like it never did before, is thinking seriously about inviting the News hawks down to his Vernon and Bdwy spot. Reason being to contradict the ruomors that his bar is gathering dusk. Understand he's gonna spread some green aroun! Well this we gotta see!

JAY LOFT LYNN, the impressario of the theater, happened to be back stage when someone snapped his picture with Eartha Kitt. New he's telling friends she will be one of his guests at his "Sacred Hour with the Stars" this Sunday. Our guess is that the gal will be slumber's away Sunday!

BLEACH BLOND, and she's a nurse at General hospital, and visitors running into this bottle of peroxide say she is one of the nastiest of the Florence Nightingale set!

SATURN STREET ROW, involving an old mother, a young mother and a brand new mother, reached the not-speaking stage. Seems like the old mother and the young mother spread little white lies about the brand new mother and she blew her top!

CHARITY WHITE got it from a good source some chick is planting one of those "she-said-and-she-heard" tales about what this writer was quoted as spieling. Don't believe a word of it!

ETHER WATERS, one of the grandest of our troupers and all-time great artist in show business, said she has never read a bad review about herself! A good item and thought for some of our modern day wonders and the respect they give the pen pushers!

NORVA HILL will follow her partner, Isidora Ann Brown, into her ultra modern West Adams street new real estate office!

EDITH (DIT) STEVENS is the attractive Detroiter taking the local men's eyes off the local gals. She's house-guesting with the Gilbert Linseys!

'Cease Fire' Film Stars Soldiers In Korea Scenes

Hal Wallis-Paramount's "Cease Fire!", the film called the most realistic war picture ever made, premiered Tuesday, January 12 at 8:30 p.m., at the Picwood Theater, Pico Blvd. at Westwood Blvd., West Los Angeles.

Filmed on the battlefield of Korea with personnel from the United Nations Command of Gen. Mark Clark as the stars, the picture took three months to film and shows the activity of a patrol behind enemy lines on what turns out to be the last day of the conflict. Scenes of the truce activity at Panmunjom, and the Joint Operations at work were all shown with Polaroid 3-D and Stereophonic Sound creating an effect that led one reviewer to state that the film "dumps the war right in your lap."

Experienced Cast

The Premiere was sponsored here by General Clark, who appeared on stage following the picture with some of the GI stars, as well as Maj. Raymond Harvey, Congressional Medal of Honor winner and technical adviser of "Cease Fire!"

Servicemen and Actors

The 14 men who make up the patrol were chosen mostly from the 7th Division and represent practically every section of the United States. None of these men had any previous acting experience and their realistic approach of playing themselves adds greatly to the effect of looking over the shoulders of real soldiers under real combat conditions.

"Cease Fire!" will be at the Picwood for an extended run as well as the Vogue and Palace Theaters, and the Century, Gage, El Monte and Van Nuys drive-ins.

Development of Negro Drama

By J. Edward Brooks

Before we go further in this discussion of Negro drama (I hope you readers will take the liberty to write, call, or meet me in person—to agree, disagree or challenge my opinions) I want to say that this column came into being because of my belief that some of us Negro people have an improper conception as to what drama is, our relation to it, as an ethnic group, and where or how we can broaden our artistic comprehension and expression of same.

J. EDWARD BROOKS

In all humility, I hope to provoke some stimulating thought along these lines.

From time to time I will present some historic facts about drama, through guest columns by noted authorities, professional performers, critics, etc. Also, I shall present community opinion and impressions from those persons who, either through personal contact or letters, have indicated a desire to be heard on the subject of Negro drama or a relative theme.

I shall, also, attempt to analyze some plays from their many social, religious, educational, historical or propaganda aspects. In short, this column hopes to encourage, provoke and promote as much constructive controversy and activity, dramaatically, as will guide us successfully to the fruits of a bright new discovery — Negro drama. The California Eagle I thank for the privilege.

VAN COURTLANDT CLUB'S annual winter formal at the Elk's last Saturday night was a tremendous success. Wallace Arima, left, and Cliff Hall, two enterprising photographic specialists, succeeded in creating visual sensations which were breathtaking. Each member's photograph (in color) was projected on a huge 8'x8' screen, fashioned as a fancy picture frame. Phone Hall: RE. 3-6996 or Arima: RE. 7260.

Fire Chief Issues Defy

sion's unanimous approval of the jim-crow set-up in the department, whereby Negroes are confined to two Central Avenue stations.

Following the meeting he issued his statement calling for a gradual change in the policy within the next six months.

Said the Mayor: "In the meeting today I told the Commission and the Chief that by whatever name you call it, it appeared to me that unsatisfactory policies in personnel assignments originating more than 20 years ago were susceptible of criticism and that I was desirous of having this clarified.

Firm Policy

"The members of the Fire Commission, in whom I have every confidence, advise me that they feel a sudden total change in these long-standing policies of assignment of Fire Department personnel might seriously impair the efficiency of the Department, with resulting hazard to all our citizens.

"Therefore, in an effort to conform with my firm policy of securing fair and equal treatment for all, the Board of Fire Commissioners has decided that there should be, commencing within the next six months, a gradual correction of these practices."

IN MEMORIAM..

HOME OFFICE, ANGELUS FUNERAL HOME, 1030 E. JEFFERSON BLVD.
Los Angeles 11, Calif., ADams 5188
John L. Hill, President-General Manager

Taking the opportunity afforded by the closing of our records for 1953, we, at the Angelus Funeral Home, wish to express, along with our deepest sympathy, our appreciation to some 65,000 persons, comprising the relatives and friends of approximately 650 families whom the Angelus has served during the year just ended.

We are grateful for the trust placed in us, for the confidence thus expressed that we would employ our skill, the accumulated know-how of 29 years, every modern device — and, above all, our sympathetic understanding, to allay the sorrow and hardship of bereavement.

Taking this opportunity to thank, not only the families we have been permitted to serve, but the public, the press, the churches, and the ministry for their cooperation through the year, we ask the community through this medium to join in a Memoriam to the following, who, in the past year, have passed on . . .

Poet Laureate Of Liberia Has Book Published

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Melvin B. Tolson, Professor of Creative Literature at Langston university and Poet Laureate of Liberia, was guest of honor at a Literary Premiere celebrating the publication of his book, Libretto for the Republic of Liberia, here at the Liberian Embassy last week.

The volume, an epic commemorating the 100th year of the founding of the Republic of Liberia has been recommended to the Pulitzer Prize Committee.

Fontana Pastor In L. A. Visit Sunday

Rev. Charles E. Williamson, pastor of the First Church of North Fontana, and his people will be the guests of the Salem Baptist Church, 2854 Glassell St., of which Rev. Charles H. Davis Jr. is pastor, Sunday, at the afternoon services, 3:00 p.m.

The choir will furnish the music under their capable director, Joyce Williamson, wife of the minister. Both of these young people are from Los Angeles. They served as assistant to Rev. Ferrell of the Tabernacle of Faith Baptist Church of this city.

ous minded young man with our youth, was George Putman's Sunday night guest over his TV newscast show! Johnny wasn't alone but he was the show's star performer. We are liking that Putman guy more and more each night!

MELBA LISTON, the gal with the horn, just completed a crazy arrangement of Star Dust, the old favorite. Don Johnson and his Society Ork will get to play it first because she's in his band!

PRESS PAWTEES, and the local scribes are voting bartenders T. R. Webb, Dan Pollack, Semmie Staton and Lloyd Brooks as the four with the pouring happiness. They juiced the gang much at the Shriners' get-together the other eve!

JOHN COLLINS, the Vernon and Central Chicken Shack king, departed with wifie the other eve. They will pull into Hot Springs any day now!

BETTY EDWARDS, shapely lass with a keen know-how for business, is attracting the carriage trade to her Betty's Gift Horn (directly across from the Red Hut) on Western. Guys and gals claim that her knack for assembling the sharp items at the right price is the sceret. Drop in and prove my point!

NIGHT CLUBBERS got out the old crying towel because business is as slow as no business. We can only recommend dropping a two by two on these pages because the hottest theatrical news is found on this page in our columns. Don't take our word . . . just ask the guy doing business!

ELBOW BEND is getting set to draw all eastside trade its way. One of hottest little combos in town makes its debut there Friday night!

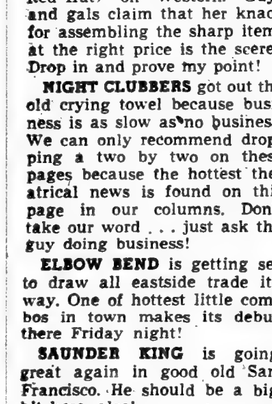
SAUNDER KING is going great again in good old San Francisco. He should be a big hit here, also!

HARRY BERGE is re-opening the Downbeat next month and bringing Al Appling and Sandpaper Slim as his bartenders. Five will get you ten the joint goes if it opens with music!

MABLE BEVERLY, of the Sixth Avenoo social set, recently returned from a holiday season in South America (Texas). In visiting Big 'D' and 'San Angone' for the first time in seven years, Mable was alarmed to learn that most home folks have done their best to go West!

ALMA THORNTON, Pasadena's possessor of pretty pipes, is soon to become Second's soloist.

BOB THOMAS is said to be headed for the altar with Charity Washington. 'Most of the saying is coming from the male set so I guess the females aren't complaining.



LU-CILLE HORNE, who airs a daily program over 'KOWL can really boost her sponsor. Got one of the easiest items for her to peddle. Chittlings!

FRIENDS are asking each other if popular song bird Ernie Andrews is wearing the same size hat since his latest hit song!

UNDERSTAND Myrtle Rector is now featuring a new line of beverage in her Post Street flicker store 'up' San Francisco way. The kind you don't see on the shelves. Could it be the once $30,000 store is down to its last bottle!

TOM BERKELEY, the astute Berkeley barrister, is headed this way to open up a branch office to coin all the loot. His Bay area practice is the biggest!

LOUIS SPAGHETTI is getting rave notices and they are all good for his skill from behind the bar of the Milomo!

"Ease the tension with BEECH-NUT GUM!"

PETITE FEMMES NAME OFFICERS

The Les Petite Femmes held their annual installation luncheon Sunday at the Clark Hotel in the Magnolia Room. Installing officer was Nelson Evans, of the Popular Sir Debuteers Social Club.

New officers are: Evelyn Thierry Williams, president; Mamie Taylor, vice-president; Beryle Wilson, secretary; Cecelia Carr, treasurer; Lela Hurst, business manager and corresponding secretary; Katherine Bowie, publicity; Clara Quinn, chairman of the sick.

Members are Bernice Avery, Melva Combs, Martha Cummings, Ruth Dennis, Marjorie Fraser, Ruby Jones, Clara Marcee, Goldie Moore, Edna Marie Ray.

College Fund Reports '53 Is Best Year

NEW YORK. — Contributions to the 1953 campaign of the United Negro College Fund reached a new high of $1,425,000, it was announced this week in a year-end report by W. J. Trent, Jr., executive director of the Fund.

The amount, Trent stated, is the largest raised for current operating purposes since the Fund was established in 1944.

Over 4,000 business firms and corporations contributed $440,000, and 411 philanthropic foundations gave $275,000. Contributions from individuals amounted to $535,000. Students of 115 preparatory schools, colleges and universities contributed $23,000 through their campus welfare chests.

New Assignment For L. A. Airman

Airman Third Class Eugenia M. Gamble, daughter of Mrs. Alice F. Slaughter, 1525 E. 15th street, was assigned recently to Headquarters Fifteenth Air Force. She will work in the Maintenance Division.

Airman Gamble graduated from Fremont high school. In Jan. 1952 she enlisted in the United States Air Force. After completing her basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., she was assigned to Travis Air Force Base. She remained at Travis AFB, until her transfer to this headquarters.

News Story Helps Locate Hunted Pair

Action by an alerted community following publication of a news story resulted in the arrest Friday of James Alexander Jones in a Santa Barbara rooming house.

He was in the company of the 12-year-old school girl he had snatched from a Willowbrook street last week.

Trial Date Set

On Tuesday, the 39-year-old Jones appeared for arraignment in the Compton Municipal Court on a charge of kidnaping. Hearing of the case was set for Jan. 29.

Although police had feared possible murder at the hands of a sex fiend, young Myris Dolores Pirl, of 1818 E. Century boulevard, was found safe and was taken into the custody of juvenile authorities.

Officers reported, however, that she had been assaulted.

Notified Papers

A news story carried last Thursday in the California Eagle resulted in Jones' capture. Because the alleged kidnaper was a friend of Myris' family, her disappearance at first did not cause undue alarm. When she failed to return, however, fear began to increase that she had been kidnaped, and possibly killed.

The sheriff's office, notified of Myris' disappearance, put out an all-points alarm and also advised community newspapers and supplied them with photographs of the missing girl and her alleged abductor.

Couple Spotted

Members of the Santa Barbara community read the story and identified Jones and Myris from their pictures and the license number of the automobile in which they had driven there.

They notified police who rushed to the rooming house

TO BUILD TEMPLE—Bishop "Daddy" Grace, with 17-member entourage, arrived in Los Angeles this week, planning to erect a million dollar temple here. Jewel-studded, solid gold wrist watch is gift of foreign admirer.

Revival Meet Slated to Spur Movement Here

Bishop "Daddy" Grace, fresh from his purchase of an $18,000,000 apartment house in New York's swank Central Park West section, swept into town Friday with an entourage of 17 persons and promptly summoned "all people" to attend a two- to four-week revival service at his House of Prayer for All People at 1029 E. Vernon avenue. A spokesman said he plans a million-dollar temple here.

While "Daddy" rode a Pullman to the city, his followers came in a four-car caravan headed by his personal Packard limousine which he will use while in the city. He is staying at his Grace Apartments at 231 W. Adams, purchased more than 10 years ago.

Slow But Sure

"Our work is coming slow but sure out here," the spokesman for the fabulous religious leader told the Eagle. "The Bishop hasn't had time to devote to the work here but we are sure that it will be productive as he will speak every night at our temple to get all people together."

Police Officer Holds Fire But Gets His Man

A police officer, shot in the leg Saturday by an apparently crazed man, refrained from using his own firearms, and instead got his man with a flying tackle.

Frank O. Thomas, of 2203 Long Beach boulevard, fired five shots at Det. Sgt. Mervin King at 27th street and Long Beach boulevard. All five shots went wild, but the last bullet ricocheted, sending a fragment through King's leg.

Thomas was fleeing, but King, in good football fashion, made a shoestring tackle at the gun-toting runner. Thomas fell to the ground and was taken into custody.

Arrested along with Thomas was Cornelius Lockett, 27, of 1656 E. 42nd street.

The call to police came from the corner liquor store, where Thomas was brandishing his gun. As police arrived, both men fled.

Thomas, who suffered bruises as he fell, was taken to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital where he told psychopathic detail officers: "I was at Norwalk (state mental hospital) once before and I don't want to go back."

Sgt. Thomas was also treated at Georgia Street for the wound in his leg.

City Seeks to Prevent Quiz Of Fire Chief

Efforts of NAACP attorneys to obtain a deposition from Fire Chief John H. Alderson regarding his claim that there is no racial segregation or discrimination in the Fire Department were delayed Wednesday by the Los Angeles city attorney.

The city's counsel made a motion to quash the subpoena which had been served on Alderson requiring his appearance Saturday morning at the office of Atty. Thomas G. Neusome.

Hearing on the city's motion has been set for Friday in Dept. 25 of the Superior Court, and may bring a postponement of the taking of Alderson's testimony.

The deposition had been sought in an effort to determine the facts as a result of the petition filed by Dr. H. Claude Hudson and other taxpayers, through Atty. Herbert Simmons. The taxpayers have charged that maintaining of segregated fire stations is a "waste of public funds."

Attorneys have explained that the attempt to obtain Alderson's deposition does not mark the beginning of a law suit against the Fire Department. The NAACP will make Alderson's testimony available to Mayor Norris Poulson for use in his program to begin eradication of the department's segregation and discrimination within the next six months.

Mormons Ignore African Natives

CAPETOWN, South Africa—Because of the "Biblical curse on Ham and his descendants", Mormons here, members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, are confining their missionary activities to persons of European stock.

David O. McKay, president of the church, explained that the Mormon church does not accept colored natives on the same basis as Europeans.

Success Story

Student Elected School Historian

This is the success story of a girl who has won the first round in her fight for racial equality.

WON FIGHT—Darleane Cummings, 16, won her fight for equality when last week she was elected Girls' League historian at Narbonne High school.

Her name is Darleane Cummings. She is 16 years old, a native of California, and a graduate of Foshay Junior High school.

Built Home

After she enrolled at Manual Arts, Darleane's parents decided they were outgrowing their small home and made plans to buy a larger one, where her father, Frank Cummings, who was the national model airplane champion in 1947, would have space to build his airplanes, and her mother, Marian, could continue to raise her pheasants.

The Cummings found a lot at 1112 W. 254th street, Harbor City, and built a home.

Hostility

But the first week they moved into their new house, the Cummings were met with hostility. Early one morning, about 2 a.m., a rock was thrown through the rear bedroom window. After that, night after night, mother and father sat up, waiting for the unknown attackers to strike again.

It was rough going for Darleane, too. It was hard for her to make friends. There was an unpleasant incident during her first week at Narbonne High School. That was in September, 1953, just six months ago.

Insults

In the junior and senior high schools combined, there were 2023 students, and only 22 Negroes. Time after time, the sensitive, talented young Darleane came home in tears, hurt at the insulting remarks hurled at her. She finally made friends with three girls. Then they were threatened, warned to stop palling around with Darleane.

Her parents understood what she was suffering, for they had run up against the same thing as they had travelled from city to city flying her dad's model airplanes.

Alone

Her parents had a lot of an-

Dr. Sumner, Professor At Howard, Dies

WASHINGTON — Dr. Francis C. Sumner, 58, professor of Psychology at Howard University, died of a heart attack early last Monday at his home, 1116 Fairmont Street, northwest.

A native of Pine Bluff, Ark., Dr. Sumner had been a member of the faculty at Howard since 1928 and head of the Department of Psychology since 1930.

He was a Fellow in the American Psychological Association and served as abstractor for its monthly publication, "Psychological Abstracts." He had abstracted more than 3,000 manuscripts in German, French, and Spanish for the publication.

Prior to joining the faculty at Howard, Dr. Sumner taught at Lincoln, Wilberforce University (Ohio), Southern University (La.), and West Virginia State College.

ENTERS COURTROOM—Wesley Wells, heavily guarded, [illegible] on death date. Guard at right

Date of Death Set For Wesley Wells

Judge Names April 9 as Day Of Execution

By BOB ELLIS

SACRAMENTO—In this crowded, tense Superior One courtroom, lawyers on Monday battled and lost their try to save the life of Wesley Robert Wells, 44-year-old San Quentin prisoner, who is to die April 9 for the crime of throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard.

An appeal for clemency will be rushed to Gov. Goodwin Knight.

The tall and stout Sacramento lawyer, C. K. Curtwright, pleaded with all his sincerity and emotion: "Your Honor, Wells stands at the edge of death. Great errors have been done to him. What are the courts for? What is law for—but to change errors?"

Hands Manacled

The elderly, small Judge Raymond Coughlin replied: "This court only has the jurisdiction and the right to set the prisoner's sentence."

Wells sat by his lawyers, hands manacled, a brown restraining belt around his body. Ten guards were in charge of him. He wore a light brown jacket, slacks, a white shirt and red tie.

His long-boned face, edged with a goatee, was stern and dignified. His eyes glanced sharply at different figures in the courtroom.

The press table was crowded with reporters from wire services and newspapers — due to

— Narrow Escape —

UNHARMED—Lovely Lena Horne and her music director husband, Lennie Hayton, narrowly escaped injury last Wednesday when their car skidded on icy road near Mojave. Their automobile was demolished.

Fog, Speed Cause Death of Woman

Eighteen-year-old Patricia Langster, of 1268 E. 58th street, was killed early Saturday when the speeding car in which she was a passenger went out of control and struck a telephone pole in Wilmington.

The young girl was dead when admitted to Harbor General Hospital shortly after 4 a.m.

Driver of the car, James Banks, 38, of 950 E. 51st street, was booked on suspicion of manslaughter.

High Speed

Also seriously injured in the accident was Barbara Taylor, 20, of the 58th street address. She suffered a broken arm and possible internal injuries.

Police reported that Banks, his vision blurred by a deep blanket of fog which reduced visibility to 50 feet, was nevertheless traveling at a speed in excess of 80 miles an hour.

Hit Poles

Miss Taylor told police Banks had been drinking and that the car hit a dip in the Pacific Coast Highway at Alameda street, jumped over the curb, hit a telephone pole, then crashed into the building at 1719 Pacific Coast Highway, bouncing back and shearing off a second power pole.

Miss Langster was found to have suffered head injuries and skull fractures. The autopsy report showed that she had not been drinking.

Banks suffered a broken hip in the accident.

An inquest has been scheduled for Jan. 25 at the McNerney Mortuary in Wilmington.

Ike to Speak At Opening of Freedom Fight

WASHINGTON. — President Dwight D. Eisenhower on Thursday agreed to address a meeting in Washington to launch formally the NAACP Fight for Freedom campaign to obtain complete equality for Negroes by January 1, 1963, the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation.

At the same time the President reaffirmed his opposition to the use of government funds for the support of segregation.

Supports Bill

Eisenhower gave these assurances in a White House conference with leaders of the NAACP who called attention to the scandalous housing discrimination at Levittown, Pa., and to the continuing segregation in interstate bus and railroad travel in the South.

Members of the delegation were Arthur B. Spingarn, NAACP president; Dr. Channing H. Tobias, chairman of the board; Judge Theodore Spaulding of Philadelphia, a member of the board; Walter White, executive

Man Drinks From Wrong Bottle; Dies

The unfortunate mistaking of a bottle of camphorated oil for a bottle of castor oil resulted in the accidental death Monday of James Locus, 50, of 1916 E. 105th street.

Immediately after taking about two ounces of the fiery liquid, Locus became violently ill, and was seized with convulsions.

He was rushed to Georgia Street Receiving hospital, but it was already too late. He was dead on arrival, shortly after noon.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bernice Locus.

Kappas Present Jon Robertson In Piano Recital

Jon Robertson, 10-year-old prodigy, will be sponsored by the three chapters of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity on Feb. 28 in a piano concert at Royce Hall on the UCLA campus.

The young pianist has appeared in New York's Town Hall and was also a featured player on the Eddie Cantor show. Jon, who was born in Kingston, Jamaica, is the son of Rev. R. Hope Robertson, pastor of the Philadelphia Seventh Day Adventist church of Long Beach and former pastor of the Wadsworth church of Los Angeles.

Benefitting from this concert will be the Scholarship Committee fund of Kappa Alpha Psi. Serving as general chairman of the concert is Horace Johnson.

A reception will follow the concert and will be held at UCLA. This will be under the supervision of the Kappa's Silhouette club, composed of fraternity wives.

Returns Home

R. G. LaMar, widely known political figure and former newspaperman, stricken ill December 26 and later hospitalized, returned to his home, 700 E. 50th street Friday.

Political Spotlight

By James H. Anderson

The frustration often felt by people when considering the effect of their individual efforts on politics could be dispelled if the individual would join similar efforts of other people in like situations; he could do such day-to-day things as registering to vote at each change of address or when the woman marries; the simple act of encouraging one's friends to become registered voters and to join political clubs or associate with a campaign committee seeking to elect some person to political office. Such activities could create the most astounding change if just a few, not now doing so, would protect their interests by getting active along the above or similar lines. This year the people have within their gift all state assemblemen and senators and governor, attorney general, and members of the U. S. Congress, plus many other state and county officers.

These offices will go to men either because an informed electorate chooses them or because a large number of voters do not consider it important.

SHORT TAKE: Jeff Fowler (the Doc.) is reported to have walked by the Dunbar hotel in the heart of the Eastside Negro district, to set up political headquarters for Governor Knight at the swank Cosmopolitan hotel. The Watkins hotel refused WF operation, it is said. Jeff should know that when you are trying to sell you have to be in the Negro district.

LONG SHOT: If Amos Black is not treated right by those politicians he is currently dickering with he will file and run for governor of State of California. Might get a few votes, it's said.

ANNOUNCEMENTS TO COME: Sam Yorty for U. S. Senate; Mike Fanning for 26th Congressional district, Ethel Bryant, Congressman Yorty's field representative for 62nd asembly district, if Gus doesn't run.

TRIP: Helen Crozier Greenwood's on her way to Sacramento to talk with Governor Knight on behalf of Robert Wells. Goody had better handle Helen carefully or he will end up with one of the hardest working political opponents in Southern California.

MEETING: All Democratic political eyes are turned to Fresno and the State Democratic council meeting Feb. 6 and 7, candidates for State wide offices will be endorsed. We bet Graves will be the endorsed candidate for Governor.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE: Lewis V. Cole, Louie that is, and Charles C. Berkeley's Republican political stew coming to a boil.

SCOOP: Attorney Ted Schaffer will not run for assemblyman in the 63rd district. He discovered he is out of the district by about two blocks! Looks like Leon Thompson, Secretary of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters who has been playing it cool, wil have a clear shot.

DILLS ANNOUNCES: Municipal Judge Ralph C. Dills of Compton today announced his candidacy for State Controller on the Democratic ticket. A lifelong Democrat, Dills will cross-file on the Republican ballot.

Judge Dills who was elected a Member of the California Legislature in 1938 and re-elected for five consecutive terms before his election as Judge is well-known for his active leadership during fifteen years of public service.

As a leading Democratic legislator, Judge Dills successfully sponsored acts in behalf of schools, dairy farmers, veterans, labor, the aged, and small business.

DOYLE TO CAPITAL: Congressman Clyde Doyle of the 23rd Congressional District has returned to Washington for the second session of the 83rd Congress. Doyle, now completing his eighth year in Congress, is continuing to serve on two major Congressional Committees—the Armed Services and Un-American Activities Committees.

Doyle maintains a District Office which is located in the Huntington Park Post Office Building, telephone LOgan 8530.

RECEIVES CARVER AWARD—Dr. Ralph Bunche, United Nations official, presents the 1953 Gold Award of the George Washington Carver Memorial Institute to Paul G. Urban League

Southeast Leads in Membership Drive

Rocketing to top position in the Urban League's drive to recruit 4,000 new members, Division "B" was awarded a trophy Thursday evening at the Wilfandel Club for securing the largest number of memberships to date.

"We are particularly gratified over the warm response of the people of the Southeast area to the 1954 membership drive of the Los Angeles Urban League," stated Ella K. Mays, chairman, who sparked her division into winning position.

Successes

The Urban League, a Community Chest agency, is dedicated to the development of effective community planning, without segregation, in the fields of housing, health, education, recreation and other related public services.

In South Los Angeles, the Urban League has been instrumental in effecting new Central Avenue bus service. Conferences have led to promises to attempt further routing of buses in the Willowbrook community to facilitate traveling to and from Central Avenue on El Segundo blvd. Another route under consideration is the extension of cross town service on West 103rd st. to Avalon blvd. and vicinity.

A Citizen's Committee for the improvement of public transportation in the South Central area is being formed to conduct a community action movement for adequate services and facilities.

The new Willowbrook Health Center—Urban League inspired—provides maternal and child health, checking and referral service for tuberculosis patients, and other health services.

Other recent successful projects of the Urban League include real estate workshops; vocational opportunity campaigns; apprenticeship programs; employment placements such as integration and upgrading of Negro employees to sales and clerical positions in leading department stores in downtown Los Angeles, Hollywood and the Beverly Hills area; and employment and integration of the first Negro in the Los Angeles County Fire Department.

Myris had been grabbed up by a man outside of 1629 E. Palm Lane, Willowbrook, a week ago Saturday. Witnesses had identified her abductor as Jones, of 11128½ S. Alabama street, Willowbrook. Police sent out an all-points alarm, after first ascertaining that Jones has a previous record for child molesting. Their files show that he was arrested on that charge in 1949 and served six months in the county jail.

School Use of 'Leopard' Story Protested by Lundy

By Lawrence F. LaMar

Attorney Rayfield Lundy was prepared this week to take up with the Compton Elementary School District Board the delicate question of the removal of a text book from the General Rosecrans Elementary school library. The lawyer said the book entitled "How the Leopard Get His Spots," is highly objectionable because of its racial slurs.

Lonzo Tucker, of 440 West Cherry street, Compton, brought the book to Atty. Lundy's office after his 10-year-old daughter, Betty Rae Tucker, a fifth grade pupil, came home with it in tears. The book is one of the "Just So" story series by Rudyard Kipling.

The bias element in the book is of the usual planted variety used by race and color propagandists to further the program of racial purism. It vividly points up the question "Can the Leopard Change Its Spots?"

The leopard in the story got his spots from the sun shining through the leaves of trees; where the sun shone on his back he was brown, while the shadows left him black. The Ethiopian, who was pictured along with the leopard, was asked by the beast, "But if I'm all of this, why didn't you go spotty, too?"

plaining and talking to do when she would come home, sad and discouraged. She felt so alone. It was difficult for her to associate with the other Negro girls, all of whom were younger than she, and in junior high.

That was six months ago.

Running for Office

One day last month Darleane came home and announced proudly that she was running for the post of Girls' League historian. Her parents were overjoyed at her courage, but warned her of the possible heartache that would come if she were defeated.

Elections were held two weeks ago. Five girls were running for the office of historian. When the votes were counted, Darleane tied for first place.

Elected

The run-off was last Monday. Darleane was elected—the first Negro in the school's history to hold an office.

Last Thursday the new officers were inaugurated. It was a formal affair. The mother shed tears as her daughter marched down the aisle, so outstanding because of her brown skin. It was a proud and happy moment for her as she heard people around her whispering: "That is Darleane Cummings—and that is her mother."

Darleane's brothers, Frank and Roland, who like their father have won trophies for building and flying model airplanes, have also hurdled their first obstacles. Frank was made president of his English class, and Ronald was appointed to the Health Council Board.

Editorial

We're Facing Depression

It is perfectly plain to all but the professional head-in-the-sand politicians that unemployment is assuming serious proportions in this community. There is plenty, and too much, of joblessness in the state at large for that matter but whenever there is a recession elsewhere it strikes Negroes with all of the force of a depression.

The reasons for the heavy burden exacted of Negro workmen are not hard to find. In the first place, the Negro is a Johnny-come-lately to industry in Southern California. He was all but barred from factories in Los Angeles until the middle stages of World War II. That means that whenever firing or lay-offs are arrived at on a seniority basis the Negro workman, lacking seniority, is first hit.

In all too many other instances the Negro is employed in the luxury trades or in trades that border on luxury. These businesses feel the axe.

Finally, there is the fact that where the workman is unprotected by the union the employer is free to fire on whatever basis he may choose and in many instances the Negro workman goes out because of the latent prejudice that lurks beneath the surface of American life.

Nor is the Negro worker's trouble at an end when he is laid off and is forced to turn to unemployment insurance. There the State Employment Service takes a look at his work record and in nine cases out of ten finds the Negro, whether male or female, has an employment record that includes some time spent as a domestic. At that point the Negro worker—particularly the Negro woman—is told that he will have to accept employment as domestic at low wages or be cut off the unemployment roll. The fact that the domestic work background lies far in the past and that the particular person has since accumulated a skill counts for little.

Unemployment benefits will cushion the shock of what looks like another depression but we hope that neither the federal nor the state government will adopt the attitude that prevailed from 1929 to 1932 when Herbert Hoover and his followers tried to charm unemployment away by pretending that it did not exist. We think that it is time for Governor Knight to face up to the facts and admit that it is time to act, and act quickly, to head off the trouble that looms ahead.

The worker who wants, and needs, a job to feed his family, can't eat, wear or spend rosy optimism and wishful thinking. What he wants and needs is a job.

It Is a Two Way Street

One of the stubborn facts about our community, and any other Negro community in the country for that matter, is that the vast majority of its merchants live in other sections of the city. These men and women make their living from selling merchandise to Negro consumers.

Here, as elsewhere, most of them do employ Negro clerks and other employes. That employment was wrung from the most of them at the cost of many hours of struggle, and in some cases by the threat of boycotts.

Despite the fact that these merchants depend on Negros for their daily livings and for the profits that enable many of them to live in exclusive areas of the city all too many of them are callous and uneoncerned about the problems that confront their customers.

The Urban League and the NAACP, to name examples of our foremost community organizations, get comparatively little help from community merchants. If one of them buys a ten dollar membership in the League or the Association he regards himself as something of a hero. Yet without the work done by these two organizations the Negro workman would be in a pretty bad way. He wouldn't have money to buy very much. The NAACP has broken down color barries erected to keep Negro out of industry and the League has followed up to see that individual Negroes got the jobs that were available when the color barriers were destroyed.

At bottom the prosperity of the community merchant depends on the ability to his Negro workman-customer to find a job at decent wages and it seems to us that these merchants owe far more than they ever give to the community by way of support to the organizations that look out for the welfare of the wage earner.

There is no sound reason why the merchants who have made, and who are making, comfortable livings in this community shouldn't contribute a mimimum of ten thousand dollars between them to the Urban League and the NAACP. Our best guess is that they contribute less than one tenth that amount.

A portion of the blame for this state of affairs undoubtedly rests with our leaders who have never sat down and told the merchants the facts of life. We hope that the time isn't far off when some serious talks are had and some substantial contributions are made.

Task for Democrats

Since 1934 only one Democrat has been able to perform the difficult feat of coming out second best among Negro voters in a race against a Republican for a state wide office. That one exception was Clinton McKinnon, when he ran for senate in 1952. The fault was not with McKinnon's record which was excellent both as a publisher and as a congressman. The trouble was that Negro voters had never heard of him and in their quandary simply cast their votes for William Knowland who had the advantage of being a known incumbent.

Something of the same quandary is now facing the Democrats as they look about for a candidate for governor. The harsh, simple truth is that most Negro voters have never heard of Richard Graves or Lawrence Cross both of whom want to carry the Democratic standard.

The Democrats have the job of telling the Negro voters who these men are and what their records are, and have been. That is a special kind of a job that is going to require some thinking and some intelligent doing. The Democrats need the votes of California Negroes; they can't win without the ballots of these quarter of a million voters. It is time that they began to think about what they can do about getting these votes.

Memorial for E. K. Jones

Death of Eugene Kinkle Jones removes the man more responsible than any other single individual for the success and growth of the National Urban League. When he went to the League in 1911, it had a budget of less than three thousand dollars. When he died it had annual expenditures in excess of a million and a half dollars.

The League has expanded its services from coast to coast while it was born or was confined to New York when Mr. Jones became its chief executive.

We suspect that the best tribute the people of the nation can pay to Mr. Jones will be to extend their support to the institution to which he contributed so much. Los Angeles is fortunate to have one of the best branches of the Urban League and in its executive, Wesley Brazier, has one of the most forward looking and progressive of its directors.

The Los Angeles Urban League is in the midst of its annual drive and this strikes us as a good time to urge that you, all of you, buy a two dollar membership at least. The two dollars you invest in the League will pay dividends far greater than you know. Why not subscribe today?

The Big Sea

By Lester Bailey

WEST COAST NAACP BATTLE CRY

"In this year of 1954, ninety-one years since the Emancipation Proclamation was issued, we view with justified alarm the continued widespread denial of basic and inalienable rights and privileges to large segments of our growing population in the far west.

"While there have been signal achievements in the field of human rights . . . we find that the various minorities represented in our western states, and particularly Negroes, are far behind the general populace in the enjoyment of the opportunities and good things of life offered in our great democracy."

Lester Bailey

So read part of the public statement released by West Coast NAACP leadership Monday, Jan. 11, at San Francisco. Two critical areas, housing and employment, were singled out as instances emergency in nature. Education also rated high priority on the NAACP's "immediate attack" list. Of the former two categories, the NAACP summary declared:

Housing Critical

"In spite of the court decisions outlawing the restrictive covenant and racial segregation in public housing, these two evils are kept alive in most western cities and towns by real estate boards, lending institutions, so-called homeowners protective associations and local public housing authorities.

"High incidence of crime, disease and juvenile delinquency can be correlated with the overcrowding and bad living conditions that are the inevitable concomitants of the exclusion of Negroes, and other non-Caucasians from all but limited sections of our communities.

Unemployment Increase

"The employment outlook for 1954 is very uncertain for the Negro in the western states. Unemployment has increased sharply. The failure of governmental subdivisions to enact Fair Employment Practices Legislation has allowed discriminatory hiring and firing policies to become widespread.

"Only two states have such statutes. Discriminatory hiring techniques still abound in civil service as well as segregation; e.g. Los Angeles Fire Department. In upgrading and cutbacks the Negro especially suffers."

Other areas covered in the summary are health, places of public accommodation, politics, transportation, law enforcement, organized labor, press, radio, TV, motion pictures and anti-miscegenation laws. A detailed report will be released by the NAACP within the next few weeks.

In Attendance

In attendance at the two day emergency conference at San Francisco were the following West Coast NAACP leaders: C. L. Dellums, chairman advisory committee; Dr. H. Claude Hudson, Nat'l Board of Directors; Loren Miller, chairman Legal Redress committee; Rev. Hamilton Boswell, chairman Ministers committee; Franklin H. Williams, secretary-counsel; Tarea H. Pittman, field secretary; Joseph Kennedy, president Northern California area; John H. Dial, Jr., president, Southern area; James T. Hollin, president, Southwest area; William Underwood, president Northwest area; and this writer.

Further declarations of the summary warned:

In this era in which the world finds itself plagued with the burning question of how to bring freedom and all of its benefits to all mankind, we believe that America can no longer deny to its own people that which we hold up as an alternative to the evils besetting the nations and peoples who would, and shall, become independent, nations."

Gradualism Too Slow

Our obligation to fulfill the Emancipation Proclamation and the guarantees of our Constitution—now three generations belated—can no longer be left to evolution and gradualism for solution."

I look forward to giving assistance in drawing up the detailed report and to being out there on the battle front where the fight for civil rights must be won. By the way, you can be there too, if not in person, by sending your contribution to the NAACP at Suite 332, 690 Market street, San Francisco 8, or to your local NAACP branch.

Battleaxe and Bread

Ten or 20 years can seem a long time for a man to serve one organization, but Eugene Kinckle Jones served the Urban League movement for not 20 but 43 years. In such a space of time the organization gets to be an inextricable part of the man, if he believes in it; he himself gets to be an indispensible part of the organization, if he is a very good man. Kinckle Jones was a very good man indeed, and he believed unreservedly in his National Urban League.

This should be surprising to no one who knew the man or his organization, for Gene Jones came to the League during its first full year of operation; he nursed it through its learning-by-trial-and error period; he led it into full professional status, and more than any other dozen people he was responsible for what the Urban League movement has come to be today.

Lester Granger

Many of his friends down in Louisville, Ky., thought him a bit erratic when he gave up a "secure" teaching position to take up some vague, poorly-paid operation in New York called "social work." What social work was, most of them neither knew nor cared.

Small Organization

Gene Jones, by his own later confession, was none too sure himself what his job was—except that there were people who needed help and it was his job to see that they got it. He did his job well; his organization grew—from a one-office, two-worker set-up operating on a $2,500 budget, to the present movement which is established in 30 states, spends over $2,000,000 a year and employs more than 420 workers.

This was Success, measured in ordinary terms. The League's growth could be ranked among the sagas of social work history, but that is not the point of this column.

Success to Others

Our racial records are full of instances of brainy, hard-working men and women who have taken ideas and parlayed them into smashing successes. But the real point of this story is that in making a success of his organization, Eugene Kinckle Jones brought success in a vast variety of ways to hundreds of thousands of his fellows—and did so with never a thought of personal profit or recognition. In fact, he never knew personally as many as one per cent of those whom he helped the most.

How did he do this? By creating opportunities for those who needed them, and by persuading and helping others to take advantage of opportunities when offered. Migrant families during World War I, lost and bewildered and penniless as only migrant Negroes of that day could be in a city like New York; unemployed men seeking work and frustrated workers seeking deserved promotion; young people needing help in choosing and financing training for their careers; old people needing hospitalization or relief—these were only samples of the hundreds of thousands of Negro Americans led toward better living by Eugene Kinckle Jones and the Urban League he was building.

It was no coincidence that as the League organization grew, the status of Negroes in cities improved.

Stubborn—But Kind

He was a kind man, was E. K. Jones, though a stubborn one. He was coolly realistic, and yet he was optimistic. His optimism was not of the Pollyanna variety; he clearly saw the difficulties in a tough proposition, but he looked past these to possible methods of solution and refused to be dismayed merely because of difficulties.

He was a social worker in a day when, as has been stated, most people knew little and cared less about the aims or results of good social work. He was a Negro professional in a day when members of his race were supposed to be the recipients, not the practitioners.

Grief and Pride

By stubbornly determined efforts, on the one hand, and by brilliant performance and patient strategy, on the other, he made his public understand the importance of what the Urban League was seeking to accomplish, and he established a firm and dignified place in the social work profession for his racial fellows.

And this is why, when services for the late Eugene Knickles Jones were held last week at New York's Mount Olivet Baptist church, my feeling of grief over the passing of a good friend and valued mentor was lost in the feeling of pride that a leader had reached his goal and that his strong faith had been rewarded with success. Kinckle Jones was a very good man indeed, and his Urban League believed in him.

One Man's Opinion

By LEON STEWARD

Profile of a Former Actor

This is a story of a gifted singer and actor who now resides in this city, who, after many years on the concert stage and in professional acting roles over the nation, finds himself selling real estate and giving his great singing voice to a small church of his choice.

Oscar Plante first saw the light of day in Tuscaloosa, Ala. His father was of the teaching profession and later moved to Texas, taking his family with him. When Oscar finished high school he attended Wiley College in Marshall, Texas, where his singing attracted attention and was given its first training. He became the baritone soloist of that institution. After graduating Mr. Plante joined the Williams Singers, with whom he toured Europe.

Leon Steward

Ford Motor Co. Baritone

Returning to America, he did further study in music and moved to Detroit where for ten years he was baritone soloist and announcer on the "Sunday Evening Hour" of the Ford radio program.

In 1944 he resigned his position with Ford in quest of the footlights on New York's Broadway. After two years as Hector in "Memphis Bound," a swing version of HMS Pinafore, starring Bill Robinson, the late tap dancer in the Belasco Theatre in N.Y. and the Colonial in Boston, Plante joined Gershwin's Broadway production "Porgy and Bess" as alternate for Crown, the swaggering swell.

Later during the second world war, he toured the army camps from coast to coast several times in the title role "Porgy" and then decided to move to California.

Memories

Mrs. Nell Plante, wife of our hero, doubtless had no little influence concerning their choice of California for their quieter days. California is her home. They came to Los Angeles in early 1946 and bought a home here.

Mr. Plante recalls that he also sang for the Eva Jessye and the Hall Johnson choirs. He and Mrs. Plante, who is also an excellent singer, sang roles in "Finian's Rainbow" and in the "Bloomer Girl" for the Sacramento Civic Repertory theatre. Mr. Plant also recalls that his first television appearance was with the Hall Johnson Choir in 1945. He also appeared in the Pasadena Playhouse in 1951 in a "Street Light Sonata," and in a jungle picture for the movies. He has likewise made movies for the Amos and Andy show.

An Admirable Service

The Plantes have both been members of the Bowen Memorial Methodist church since becoming residents here. No one in that church can say that either one has shown any self importance in that little church.

Mrs. Plante has developed the Bowen choir into one of good standing in the community, while Mr. Plante is a choir member, ever ready to do anything asked of him. Last Sunday his baritone solo was Dett's celebrated "Somebody's Knocking at Yo' Door." It was our pleasure to have heard it and it was a splendid rendition if we ever heard one. The choir which preceded it was also well worth hearing.

Selling Real Estate

At the present time Mr. Plante is very happily selling real estate. He is very happy to serve his church. He is very happy to live in California.

But as he walks and talks one can detect the actor and singer in his every gesture and in even his big broad smiles. He is a member of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity and takes his part in anything that is for the community in which he lives.

HOPE FOR THE TROUBLED

A reassuring explanation, in popular language, of what mental troubles really are (we're far too terrified at the idea of mental illness), what help is available, and how to go about getting it. This is just the sort of practical information one sometimes needs in an emergency.

SATAN IN THE SUBURBS
By Bertrant Russell

Trust Bertrand Russell to come out with something unusual when he turns his hand to fiction. In six stories which range from Victorian plot and treatment to unorthodox science-fiction, he shows the same genius for depicting the unexpected in witty, brilliant terms that he has given to his philosophical writings.

Human Rights Council In Town House Meeting

Sunday is the date for the long-heralded Town House meeting of the American Council on Human Rights, at the Golden State Auditorium, 1999 W. Adams Blvd. The forum will be held from 4 to 6 p.m.

NORMAN O. HOUSTON

with a social hour and refreshments following.

Program Chairman Gwen Dusuau announced that the topic to be discussed is "Integration: What Now?" On the panel for the first Town House meeting, to be moderated by Judge Edwin L. Jefferson, are Mrs. Sallie N. Edwards, national vice-president of ACHR and national resident of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority; Df. James Kirk, chairman of the sociology department at Loyola University; and Norman O. Houston, president of Golden State Insurance Company.

ELMER HENDERSON

Angelenos, according to Miss Dusuau, are in for a special treat when Henderson, national executive director of ACHR, will give the highlights of the problems of integration on the national scale. He has just returned from Europe where he made a study of race relations and Negro troops for the United States State Department.

Bishop Baker Bowen Church Speaker Sunday

Bishop James C. Baker, assisted by the District Superintendent, Dr. George A. Warmer, will conduct the Service of Consecration Sunday at 4 p.m. for the remodeled Bowen Memorial Methodist Church, East 36th and Trinity Streets. Music for the afternoon will be furnished by the Holman Methodist Choir with Mrs. Elaine Craig directing. The Rev. Wm. F. Koehler, former pastor of old Bethel Trinity, will share in the program with other guest ministers.

With Orr, Strange and Inslee as architects and F. J. Curtis and Son as general contractors, the church building has been completely renovated at an approximate cost of $30,000. From Jan. 18 through 31, visiting churches of the city will assist with evening worship services in this reopening and the tenth anniversary of the church. The public is cordially invited.

"A genuine spirit of co-operation plus sacrificial sharing of time, talents and gifts on the part of both members and friends have brought us thus far along," says John C. Bain, minister.

McCoy Baptist Youth Program Sun. Afternoon

The Youth of the McCoy Memorial Baptist Church, 802 East 46th Street, will be featured in an outstanding day of service Sunday, January 24th. The morning worship will be enhanced by the appearance of the engaging African personality, Adora Veasia, a student at the University of Southern California. Reverend Hervy V. Jordan, an associate minister at McCoy and student of West Coast Baptist College a subsidiary of El Monte Baptist College, will bring the message. The theme for the morning service is "Ye Are the Light of the World"—Matt. 5:14.

Rev. E. A. Anderson in Charge

The 3:30 p.m. worship will proceed under the theme, "A Time for Decision." Reverend Nolan Williams, associate minister of Zion Hill Baptist Church, will deliver the message. A supporting program will include an inspirational address by Charles Hollins of Wesley Methodist Church, a reading by Betty Tarver of Fontana, musical renditions by the McGruder Choral group of Pasadena, and the Youth Choir of Zion Hill Baptist Church. The afternoon theme will continue in the 8 p.m. worship, with Pastor E. A. Anderson bringing the message. Special music will be provided by McCoy's Celestial Choir. The public is invited to be present.

All Star Program Proves Success at Independent

The fourth presentation of "The Sacred Hour With the Stars" lived up to this year's name of "Dramatic Moments" at the People's Independent Church of Christ Sunday.

The Cathedral Choir, directed by A. J. McNeil, opened with a silent procession and then proved its laurels as one of the city's best choirs with A. J. McNeil.

Norman Dorine of Covan Studio, choreographer for the Sacred Dance Choir, pantomimed the Lord's Prayer as it was superbly sung by Mary Louise Jones. Then Bill Walker read J. Weldon Johnson's "The Creation" with Ika Royal's dramatic background music. Gerald Garrett sang the original McNeil's composition, "God's Green Earth."

Marguerite Chapman's lyric soprano voice filled the capacity auditorium with the rendition of "The Fool Hath Said There Is No God." Lillian Randolph made the appeal. The Pearls of Harmony musical quartette sang "I Believe" and encored. The Panda Players were introduced and Ruby Berkeley Goodwin was given an ovation when introduced. Jay Loft-Lynn was in charge.

FOUNDER'S DAY AT JOHN ADAMS

Founder's Day was observed by the John Adams' P.T.A. on Tuesday, with a pageant of the history of the school and the P.T.A. The play was written by Mrs. Russell Caldwell, president of the organization.

Adding greatly to the occasion was the music which represented the 1890 and World War I periods, and was directed by Miss Willette Gummow, and the style show presented by the B8 class of Mrs. Marion Loughner.

Past presidents and life members were honored following the program with a luncheon planned by Mrs. Inez Faulk and the B9 girls.

Daddy Grace In L.A. Visit

tion of a quarter-million-dollar temple in Augusta, Ga., "Daddy's" trip here is the culmination of a nationwide tour which has taken him to all parts of the country.

Two quartets which accompanied the Bishop are appearing at the series of meetings and the famed Mattie Shipp is with him to sing her specialty, "Too Close to Heaven." The quartets are the Grace Travelers of Savannah, Ga., and the Bolden Sisters of Charlotte, N. C.

Creates Stir

Bishop Grace's purchase of the New York apartment house caused a stir last fall in New York and led to a ripple of eyebrow raising among other residents of the exclusive section in which it is located.

Details of the plans for the local million-dollar temple have not been "worked out," the spokesman said. He did not disclose the location or when the project will be formally announced. Queried as to plans for the purchase of local real estate, the spokesman professed ignorance.

Audographs, Dictaphones, Ediphones, SoundScribers, and other transcribing machine operation can be learned in less than 45 hours of transcription instruction at Metropolitan Junior College, 1601 S. Olive street on Friday evening starting Feb. 5.

Churches Warned to Speed Fight Against Racial Bias

NEW YORK, N.Y.—America is taking important strides toward improved relations among racial groups, the National Council of Churches declared Sunday. In areas of national life ranging from education to travel discrimination appears to be on the wane, and Americans can take "genuine satisfaction" in the progress made.

Within the churches themselves, however, "significant advances need to be made" toward racially inclusive membership and worship, the Council warned.

In a message addressed to the 35,000,000 members of its 30 constituent denominations on the occasion of Race Relations Sunday, Feb. 14, the Council singled out these areas of progress:

Education: "A long series of court decisions is gradually opening up the universities . . . to all persons."

Housing: "In some cities it is less difficult for a member of a minority group to rent or buy or build a home in an attractive neighborhood."

Employment: "It is becoming easier for a man to get and hold a job regardless of his ancestry."

Travel: "Travel in public conveyances is more congenial for Negroes than it was."

Political rights: "The franchise is denied to fewer persons."

Lynchings: "So rare, we may soon be able to say they no longer take place."

On the debit side, the Council message said that "judged from the perspective of Christian insight, even the progress made in secular life is belated and far from adequate."

Declaring that Christians must practice what is preached, the message called for elimination of racial discrimination within the churches themselves and in church-related institutions such as hospitals, schools and homes for the aged. "The demands of Christian conscience are so clear and unmistakable . . . and the oft-repeated convictions so unequivocal and compelling," the statement declared, "that the genuine satisfaction of partial progress in secular affairs is cancelled out by the continuing condemnation of ourselves for failing to live as children of God, brothers of one another."

Jungle Film at Harmony Church

The public is invited to take a dangerous journey into the darkest jungles of South America where few civilized men have ever traveled — and few returned!

Some of the most unusual primitive people on earth, the Dyuka natives, live deep in the heart of the Dutch Guiana jungle. The natives flirt with sudden death as they transform the deadly poisonous Gassava root into life giving bread.

All this will be dramatically portrayed at the Baptist Training Union, Sunday afternoon, 5:30, at Harmony Baptist Church, 4132 South San Pedro Street, when Jungle Bread, one of the most unusual full color films, will be shown.

Two Women Cited By National Council

WASHINGTON—"The National Council of Negro Women is justly proud of Dr. Margaret Just Butcher, member of the District of Columbia Board of Education and the Education Department of the National Council of Negro Women, and Dr. Arenia C. Mallory, first vice-president of the National Council of Negro Women and principal of Saints Industrial School at Lexington, Miss., for distinguished services in the cause of human welfare," declared President Mrs. Vivian C. Mason this week.

"Dr. Butcher has conducted an intelligent, relentless campaign for better educational facilities for Negro children, arousing the conscience of the citizens of Washington to the degrading conditions surrounding the education of Negro children in the District," stated Mrs. Mason.

Urges Action

"Her research pointed to the maintenance of schools for white children where only a handful of students attended, unjustly burdening the taxpayer, while Negro children are forced into crowded, outmoded buildings frequently within a stone's throw of virtually empty institutions. Dr. Butcher has gone further, she has advocated the mixing of schools now, after proper preparation instead of waiting until forced to by a Court decision."

Dynamic Educator

Dr. Arenia Mallory is a dynamic, forceful educator who has achieved astounding results in her one-woman campaign in the field of race relations in the state of Mississippi, Mrs. Mason declared.

By dedicated service to the people of her state, Negro aand white alike, by a quiet campaign of education, health programs, child welfare, community, and farm projects, Dr. Mallory has lifted the status of the Negro people, she continued.

"Her contributions have been recognized far and wide. Last week a signal honor was conferred upon Dr. Mallory in that the Mayor and Board of Aldermen in Humboldt, Tenn. made her an honorary citizen of that community in a colorful and inspiring ceremony. Her citation listed her achievements as outstanding in the field of education and community betterment."

Altar Society Holds Meeting

A pot-luck luncheon marked the St. Lawrence Church Altar Society's regular monthly meeting last week.

Special guests were Rev. Fergus Lawless, Rev. William Caughlin and Rev. Bienvenido Garcia.

The Altar Society bought and presented the pastor and assistant priests three vestments as a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Katherine Degang is the area leader. Monthly meetings are held the last Thursday of the month. Next meeting will be Jan. 28 at 1 p.m.

Community Heads On Church Forum

The Regalia Committee of the Golden State Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, working with the Progressive Club of the First A.M.E. Church, of which Mrs. Lillian Moore is president, will present a panel of speakers Sunday evening, Jan. 31, at the First A.M.E. Church, under the pastorage of Dr. Alvia Shaw, 8th and Towne Ave., 7:30 p.m.

Bernard Jefferson, Miss Pauline Slater, George A. Beavers, Jr., Paul R. Williams, Augustus Hawkins, and Mrs. Roberta Ross, some of the community's most dynamic leaders in their particular fields, are to present the subject, "The Negro's New Responsibilities in the Light of the Attainment of Greater Freedom." Serving as moderator for the panel will be Archie W. Herbert.

Numerous individuals as well as groups are working diligently to make the program of the evening enjoyable as well as informative. Musical selections will be offered by the J. E. Edwards Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sarah L. Davis; solos by Mrs. Lillian Moore and Mrs. Margaret Pett. Motion pictures of the affair will be taken by the Prince Hall Masons Motion Picture Committee, of which Herbert Jenkins is chairman. A Baby Contest, featuring James Gay, Jr., Candice Seagraves, Ervel Lewis, Michelle De Bias, and Alvia Shaw, Jr., will conclude the course of the evening.

Friends and families of the community are invited to attend this program that they may share in the challenge of the moment as associated with the investigation of this vital subject.

Heading the Regalia Committee in this area are Leon F. Marsh, Sr., Grand Patron and General Chairman; Rev. Geraldine O'Connor, Grand Matron; Martha City, Committee Chairman, and Archie W. Herbert, assistant.

Ministers Will Install Officers

The Progressive Ministers' Alliance of Los Angeles will hold its annual installation of officers' service today (Thursday), at 11 a.m. at the Mt. Olive Second Baptist Church, 9401 omora avenue, of which Dr. A. Moten is pastor. Rev. M. S. Smith, chairman of the program committee, is preparing an unusual program for this special occasion.

The Alliance is extending an invitation to the public in order to inform the community of its establishment, its motives and its attitude in helping to better the city.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as, "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. ®Trade Mark

GIPSON, EX-JEFF STAR, IS LIVENING IT UP WITH THE 'TROTTERS

OAKLAND — Unlike his highly publicized mates Goose Tatum, Leon Hillard, et al—J. C. Gipson, undoubtedly the greatest basketballer Larry Hanson has produced at L.A. Jefferson High—is a "straight man" for Abe Saperstein's world-fabulous Harlem Globetrotters. i.e., Gipson sticks to basketball and leaves the comedy to his mates.

His record of 33 points against the College All-Stars last year is indicative of his play. Coach Hanson, whom Gipson rates as his "favorite coach," should be proud to know his lessons in sportsmanship and fair play has really had a wonderful effect on his ex-pupil.

Brad Pye, Jr.

Algin Surrton and Charles Hill, two ex-mates of Gipson's at Jeff, might be happy to know that J. C. thinks that they too could possibly make the Trotters team. He especially was high on Sutton. He declares, "Sutton is a good ball player. He can hit well from both sides."

J. C.'s mother, Mrs. Alberta Gipson, lives at 1583 E. 41st street in L.A. She is entrepreneur of the "ALBERTA DRIVE INN" located at 278 E. Santa Barbara avenue. J. C. says after his playing days are over he hopes to go into business for himself. J. C., who is only 21 years old, should have quite a load of loot before his playing days are terminated. His present salary before taxes is $800 a month. Not bad for a lad who didn't pick up his high boy in person on Jan. 30 and 31 at the Pan-Pacific. . . .We might add the Goose, J. C. and the new dribbling sensation, Leon Hilliard, et al, are the greatest. Hilliard takes up where his predecessor, the famed Marques Haynes, left off. Believe me, this boy Hilliard is the most. . . . He alone is worth the admission. . . . Although J. C. doesn't take much of a part in the comedy side of the Trotter show, rest assured the new tricks which he has added to his repertoire more than offset this.

Gipson has a part in the Trotters' latest flick, "Go Man Go." . . . L.A. fans will have a chance to see their home-town school sheepskin. . . . Huh! not bad for one who did.

PYE'S PICK-UPS

In next Wednesday nite's Archie Moore - Joey Maxim championship TV go, we pick the champ to win by a close decision. . . . WW says Moore has offered to put $100,000 in his hands if Rocky Marciano will give him a title shot. . . . With this kind of loot Moore may get a crack at the crown before erstwhile champ Ezzard Charles. . . . Down L.A. way the Olympic Auditorium is cooking up a dandy 10-rounder with Zora Foley going against Howard King. Two willing mixers. This bout should keep the Southlanders up and down during the young war.

COLLECTS GOLF POINTS—Although football is his game Ted Rhodes, national ranking professional golfer, demonstrates a shot that he hopes will bring him the top money prize in the forthcoming San Diego Open Tourney which gets underway soon. Shown above, Emmett Ashford, West Coast, first Negro baseball umpire, applies the body english while Pittsburgh's big Ernie Stautner, 49er's Joe Perry, Brown's Len Ford and USC's Ed Pucci look on. The Pros got together last Sunday night at the first annual Sports night at the Hotel Watkins. The event climaxed the annual East-West Pro Bowl game in which the East pocketed a 20-9 victory.

BRUIN CAGERS GIVEN TWO WEEK REST PERIOD

Coach Johnny Wooden's UCLA basketball team, after splitting a 65-68 and 81-63 series with crosstown USC last weekend, went into the two-week final examination period this week with no games scheduled until College of Pacific and Pepperdine meet the Bruins in the UCLA gym on Jan. 29-30.

Guard Ronnie Livingston, the little sparkplug from San Gabriel, continued to hold a narrow scoring lead of eight points with a total of 173 and an average of 11.5 for the 15 games played to date.

Ill with flu last week, "Livvy" managed to grab only 17 points against the Trojans as Don Bragg, the classy forward from San Francisco, and Johnny Moore, the Gary, Ind., center-forward, crept up with 21 and 24 points respectively. Their totals are 165 and 151 respectively.

Rajo Jack Set For Honolulu Racing Series

Rajo Jack, billed as America's oldest active racing driver, and one of the most colorful speed drivers in the country, will head for Honolulu this month for a series of three dirt track races. Jack is 56 years old with many battle scars and blue ribbons from some of the country's leading speedways.

In 1939, Jack took first place in the 500-mile grind at Oakland, racking up the fastest time for that track.

Irvin Gold of Gold's Furniture Store at Washington and Central avenue, will sponsor the Honolulu races.

Jack, like all speed drivers, would like to race the Indianapolis course, but being a Negro he has been denied this chance. However, on more than one occasion the officials of the world-famous track said that Jack could easily qualify if it wasn't for his color.

More than 15 cars will be featured in the Honolulu races, and all cars will come under the supervision of the American Racing Association. Jack will be under the wheel of a job that cost some $50,000. The veteran driver has posted speed marks of 247 miles per hour and lost an eye in a crackup at Oakland 16 years ago.

General Manager

MISTER BASKETBALL, Reece "Goose" Tatum is set to make another coast appearance with the world famous Harlem Globetrotters Jan. 30 at the Pan Pacific.

Harlem Globetrotters At Pacific January 30

If their present winning streak continues, as it doubtless will, by the time the fabulous Harlem Globetrotters hit Los Angeles on Jan. 30, they'll have passed the 200 mark for consecutive wins. And they'll be close to the 100 mark for the current season.

The Negro wizards are scheduled to play their first game here this year at the Pan-Pacific Auditorium on Jan. 30, with matinee and evening games the following day, Sunday.

Three days later, they return to Los Angeles for a single appearance at the Shrine Auditorium on Feb. 3.

Not that it makes any difference— people come to see the Trotters, of course! — but the teams traveling with them this year are the Philadelphia Sphas, the Toledo Mercurys and the Washington Generals, all powerful quintets.

Heading the Trotter roster, from the standpoint of box-office appeal, is the immortal Reece "Goose" Tatum, than whom there ain't no whomer when it comes to entertainment. The Clown Prince provides the antics and the laughter; he is known and loved all over the world.

Of special interest is the sensational 7-foot All-American from Seton Hall, Walter Dukes. Not to be overlooked is the youthful lad from Chicago, Leon Hilliard, who threatens to surpass the great Marques Haynes as a dribbler, and Jefferson High's boy, J. C. Gipson.

Jeff vs. Lincoln in City Cage Quarterfinals Sat.

Coach John Hanson isn't worried about his federal income tax or the peace meeting called by Mrs. Pandit, India delegate to the United Nations, nor is he concerned about California's unemployment problems. The high-scoring Jefferson basketball team accounts for his ulcers and sleepless nights.

Hanson and his crew are currently after their third city title in the six years he's been their guiding genius.

Jefferson has fought its way into contention only because Hanson stressed team play and this formidable attack has made it possible for Jeff to win 16 games while dropping three close contests.

The team's highly competent performance during the season gave opponents using the man-to-man defense against Jeff plenty of trouble. One team that defeated them also caused them to break a four-year precedent of never calling for a time out during a game.

Coach Hanson wasn't overly impressed with the team's somewhat easy victory Saturday and stated that he was scared stiff about the coming battle with Lincoln. Injured Johnny Thomas, the team's number one scorer, has been out of action for the past three games and perhaps will be missing from Saturday's lineup. However, Hanson is calling on such stellar players as Henry Howard, Henry Hairston, Rem Alvarez, Leo Hill, M. Gaines, Harold Brice, William Taylor, Lawrence Williams and G. Newman to turn back Lincolns' bid in Saturday's quarter-finals.

Art Aragon, Chuck Davey Bout Signed

Art Aragon, the West Coast's Golden Boy, will have a golden opportunity to enhance his popularity with the local boxing fans Thursday, Feb. 18, at the Olympic.

Matchmaker Babe McCoy signed the Golden Boy and Chuck Davey to a 10-round slugfest in what should be a very interesting get-together.

Davey and Aragon haven't been turning them away at the box-office in recent bouts, which could indicate that their boxing is beginning to lose the color and drama it once held. Both boxers need to win their next outing and only one can get his mitts raised. With that sort of ingredients involved it could mean the making of an action-packed affair.

Boys' Marble Contest At City Playgrounds

Highly prized "shooters" and "migs" are being put into play this week as more than 100 Los Angeles municipal playgrounds launch their 1954 Boys' Marbles Championships, it was reported by the City Recreation and Park Department.

Winners of neighborhood playgrounds contests in two divisions, midget for lads 13 and under, and junior for boys 14 to 16 years old, will be eligible for the city-wide playground marbles championships which will be staged on Feb. 6, beginning at 10:30 a.m., at Normandie Playground, 1550 S. Normandie street. Director of Special Events Ralph Borrelli announced.

MAJOR STAKES SET FOR ANITA

Major stakes are coming up at Santa Anita to attract the interest of racing followers all over the world. This Saturday there will be the 17th running of the $50,000 filly-and-mare special — the Santa Margarita Handicap at 1 1/16 miles—followed next week by the estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maturity. Then the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby on Feb. 20, the $100,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap on Feb. 27.

PEACOCK BEATEN

Al Cruz tossed a block into the path of Billy (Sweetpea) Peacock with a relentless head title shot. Cruz turned back Peacock with a relentless head attack and decked his foe for a nine count in the eighth round. Peacock left his defense for Cruz in the gym and took a severe beating last night. It may be that the young fighter is softening up as he didn't look like the guy who racked up 12 straight without a defeat during 1953.

JORDAN vs. ALUMNI

Coach Johnny Randolph, Jordan High School Basketball pilot announced the annual Varsity vs. Alumni game for Wednesday, January 27, at the Jordan gym. This year's team placed third in the Marine League, which wasn't bad for a team that lost most of its players through graduation. The Alumni will be headed by such former Jordan greats as Earl Battey, 1953 All-City, James Gamble and Ezra Hill.

SANTA ANITA: Greentree Stable's straight face, a top contender among 21 eligibles for the estimated $160,000 Santa Anita Maturity for its 7th running on Saturday Jan. 24 and his regular rider, nationally-prominent Ted Atkinson, is to follow in a couple days. Trainer George Poole advised Santa Anita's racing secretary, Frank E. (Jimmy) Kilroe, of these plans in a long distance telephone call. Poole declared that a plane has already been chartered for Staright Face and a pony traveling companion and that a morning departure with arrival here between 4 and 5 p.m. This would be confirmed later by prevailing weather conditions. Staright Face, on the strength of two impressive victories in overnight races at Tropical Park, following his season's layoff after starting in the last Kentucky Derby, is coming as probable favorite for the Santa Anita Maturity. The Count Fleet gelding, winner of the 1953 Flamingo, has also been nominated for the $100,000 guaranteed to the winner Santa Anita Handicap will be run Feb. 27 with a weight assignment of 121 pounds. And there is a possibility that a good performance in the Maturity on Jan. 30 might mean remaining or returning again by air to furnish more competition for the big Cap. Trainer Poole and Jockey Atkinson were last here with the famous Greentree Stable season before last and were prominent in the racing. Atkinson holds the record at Santa Anita for riding the most winners in a season with 73 in 1946. His great and notable victory on Hill Gail in winning the Santa Anita derby in 1952 was one of his greatest thrills.

BEAUTIFUL CALIENTE IN OLD MEXICO: Cactus Mike, from the stable of J. W. Myers beat some of the best distance horses south of border in the featured Baltimore Handicap last Sunday. Coming from fourth place at the head of the stretch the 6-year-son of Don Mike-Cactaceous was forced to take up entering the run for the charmed circle game again on the outside to wear down Big Brownie and Big Silver to score a neck victory. Paying the lush price of $14.80. A coup sur. From the stable of Kehl and Musgrove captured the co-feature "The Washington." The daily-double backers of Fair Contest and El Viento received $227.80. Attendance 7,000. Mutuel handled $208,291.

Grambling College Boasting Another Tatum in Cage Ace

GRAMBLING, La.—Basketball fans in northern Louisiana are scurrying about in search of an untapped source of superlatives to describe Grambling's sophomore cage star Robert Hopkins.

The reticent six-ten bombardier is one of the most versatile big men in the game and boasts no shot-making weakness.

In 46 college games, "Lil' Abner" has managed to twist between or around men guarding him for 1,281 points with a variegation of hooks, driving lay-ups, overhand, underhand, backhand and push shots.

A spectacular performer since his first college game in December of 1952, he has hastened the aging process of at least 25 coaches by a couple dozen years.

Players trip each other up every game trying to muzzle him and opposing coaches have tried to double and triple-team him—all to little avail.

Called a "wonder in the bucket and a fast breaker without superior," combatants learn early that he's too tricky and rapid in his assault on the bucket to go for double-team defensive stuff.

The cotter key which keeps Grambling in operating condition, Hopkins patrols the front court as if it were carpeted in red velvet.

As a freshman, he took the ball up for 30 points or more in 16 games and has already maneuvered past the magic number seven times this season.

The nation's second highest scorer with 856 points in 30 games last year, "Lil' Abner's 28.5 average was the highest single-season mark ever posted by a sepia college star.

In fact, he sparkled with such sharpness that bones, muscles and reputation parted company with hardly a whisper.

Worthy of a place on almost any honorary team, the 21-year-old 200-pound loaf wrapped himself in a robe of virtue with Tiger fans Dec. 22 by mashing 55 points against Paul Quinn College.

The splurge was the biggest riffle of his career, though he once dunked 60 points in a one-sided high school game.

NORTH AND SOUTH GOLF MEET FEB. 19

Eagle Honors 'Leaders Of Tomorrow'

JEFFERSON HONOR STUDENTS—Floney Boyakins, chairman of the graduating class; James Willard, student body president and Elaine Gaines, editor of the Jeffersonian, student paper, take time out at Jefferson High School to seek inspiration from Thomas Jefferson, great American after whom their school is named.

Broadway Federal Backs Tribute to Student Leaders

As has now become an established custom in strengthening the bonds which link local business with the community, the Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association of Los Angeles, 4329 S. Broadway, this year, for the seventh straight time, is sponsoring a page in the California Eagle dedicated to outstanding students graduating from the local high schools and junior high schools.

This contribution to the community is made possible through the generosity of the Broadway Federal and Dr. H. Claude Hudson, president, and Richard R. Wright III, manager, of the largest Negro-owned loan association in the world.

Once again we salute the youth of our city as they conclude an important phase of their preparation for life's tasks. We take this opportunity to speed them on their journey, to encourage them to meet the gruelling challenges they will have to face, and to wiss them well.

JORDAN EPHEBIANS—Bernard Spaulding and Dorothy Jett won coveted honors when they were named Ephebians at Jordan High School for the winter class of 1954.

BELMONT LEADERS—Don Norman is president of the Eastern League and Thurma Pankey was named valedictorian of her class. Both are student leaders at Belmont High School.

MANUAL STUDENTS—Hilde Brown Barnum rehearses an original piano composition, which he will play at Manual Arts High School graduation program. Katherine Tarver, a member of the California Scholarship Society, listens and apparently approves.

Hyacinth Club Outlines Plans For Coming Yr.

The Hyacinths met at the home of Mrs. Irma G. Bailey, Sunday, with the topic of conversation the annual holiday celebration held New Year's Eve in Vineyard Avenue.

A program was outlined and tentative dates set for several entertaining events, both charitable and social, for the club and friends during the current year.

Mrs. Bailey, the newly elected president, presented a gift in behalf of the club to Mrs. Armstrong, the outgoing president, as a token of appreciation.

A delicious buffet supper was served. Members and their spouses present included Messrs. Alonzo Means, Bobbie Brackin, Ray Harvey, John D. Haynes, George King and W. Jerome Bailey.

The hostess's guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waller, Mrs. H. A. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Charbonnet, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Smith and M. Carter.

Mr. Waller and Mrs. Bush entertained with several piano selections and Mrs. Brackin, the recent bride, whistled "Ava Maria" and "Trees" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Bush.

Eastern Star Group Holds Annual Dinner

The Matrons and Patrons Council of the Golden Poppy Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held its annual dinner Sunday at the beautiful John G. Jones Masonic Hall, 5404 S. Broadway.

Many friends and visitors attended this brilliant affair. Secret pals were revealed and each received a lovely and beautiful gift. The Council is headed by Mrs. Maude Brown, assisted by the Rev. Mr. C. B. Jackson, Most Worshipful Grand Master, of the Hiram of Tyre Grand Lodge, advisor; Mrs. Louise Butler, vice-president; Mrs. Ramaye Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Arcelia Clark, assistant secretary; Mrs. Bernice Beach, treasurer; Mrs. Viola Crawford, chaplain; Mrs. Estella Harris, senior usher; Mrs. Mayme Edmond, junior usher; Mrs. Ola Mai Norman, parliamentarian.

Among the many guests present were Mrs. Frankie Mae Williams, worthy grand matron; Mrs. A. Patterson, worthy grand patron; Mrs. Bernice Elmore Payne, past grand worthy matron and grand assistant secretary; Mrs. Nettie Moore, past worthy grand matron; William F. Payne, past worthy grand patron. The general [illegible] and her assistants, Mrs. A. Beatrice [illegible] Thompson, Mrs. Anne White, Mrs. Lula [illegible], Mrs. Corinth

Southern Belles In Regular Meet

Mrs. Lillie Mae Hendrick, business manager of the Southern Belles Social Club, was hostess to the club's first meeting of the year at her home on E. 33rd street.

A brief business meeting was held with all chairmen giving annual reports. The president, Mrs. Lou Edna Dodson, presided. The club made a recent donation to the building fund for the School for Exceptional Children.

Games were played with prizes being won by Carrie Levi, Birdie Dinkins and Lou Edna Dodson. Special guests for the evening included the Imperial Social Club, Mrs. Janye Watson and Otto White. The hostess served a lovely buffet dinner. Mrs. Carrie Levi will be the club's next hostess Sunday.

DELTA PLANS ANNUAL EVENT

After a merry whirl of holiday parties, members of Delta Sigma sorority met Saturday at Wilfandel to lay final plans for their annual Founders' Day banquet.

Each year hundreds of local Deltas and thousands nationally gather around the festal board to re-define the sorority's aims and review its past accomplishments. This year's Founders' Day committee is co-chaired by Tycine Webb and Mimi Saunders, who outlined arrangements for this event to be held at the Women's University Club on Feb. 5 at 7 p.m. Reservation deadline is Jan. 29.

Educational Trends

Of special interest at the January meeting was Pauline Glass's presentation of Alma Torrance, who talked intriguingly on educational trends in the Scandanavian countries from knowledge gathered during her trip to Europe in 1951. Reviews on educational trends in other European countries will be made by sorors at subsequent meetings.

Soror Sydnetta Smith and her committee are readying plans for the second Rush Breakfast of the year, according to the report made, and the Urban League membership drive is being handled by soror Gaynelle Miles for sorors wishing membership.

Women of the Year

Delta points with pride to Dr. Geraldine P. Woods, president, and to soror Emily Woody, who heads the Los Angeles American Council of Human Rights. Both were among the 12 women selected by the California Eagel as outstanding for service rendered the community during the past year. Hearty congratulations were given these sorors by the group.

Sorors should call Zenobia Carey at RI. 7-1310, or Cassandra Bradley at RE. 1-3366 for reservations for the Founders' Day banquet. Hostesses for the January meeting were Marian Whitney, chairman; Mary Glenn, Anna Rosa Beverly, Tycine Webb, Thelma Mitchell and Delores Johnson.

CONTINENTALS IN VALENTINE DANCE

The Continental Dance Club is presenting its annual Valentine dance, Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Armenian Dance Hall, 1501 Venice boulevard.

Music will be played by Frank Robles and his orchestra, featuring the latest and best in Latin and American music.

Guest artists will highlight the evening's entertainment. Club members are working hard to make this affair a huge success. The public is invited to attend what is promised to be the season's top affair. Travis Moultree is reporter.

FREMONT'S VALEDICTORIAN—Frederick Walls has won honors for scholarship and athletic achievements during his stay at Fremont High School.

DORSEY EDITOR—Lois Mae Carrington, news release editor of the Dorseygram and editor of the Circle-Atur at Dorsey High School.

POLY OFFICERS—Harmon Floyd, student body president, confers with the vice president, Tommie Joe Banks, as the pair talk over the welfare of Polytechnic High School.

Tuskegee Club Slates Dance

The monthly meeting of the Los Angeles Tuskegee Club was held January 16 at the home of Sergeant and Mrs. William Allen, 1767 West 24th Street.

After an interesting business session a short program was presented honoring Dr. George Washington Carver.

The Club is sponsoring a Sweetheart Dance Saturday night, February 13, 1954, honoring the past service of Captain Alvin J. Neely. The Dance will be given at the Omega House, 2069 Oxford Avenue. Tickets may be secured by calling LO. 6-6545.

Eagle Hails Graduates of High Schools

Leaders of Tomorrow were honored this week as the California Eagle selected and cited students from seven of the city's high schools for their achievements and contributions to the welfare of their schools.

Selected for these honors were: Floncy Boyakins and James Willard, Jefferson; Bernard Spaulding aand Dorothy Jett, Jordan; Don Norman and Thurma Pankey, Belmont; Hidle Brown Barnum and Katherine Tarver, Manuel; Frederick Walls, Fremont; Lois Mae Carrington, Dorsey, and Harmon Floyd and Tommie Joe Banks, Polytechnic.

Jefferson Honorees

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyakins of 4617 Compton ave., Floncy Boyakins is chairman of the graduation class, a member of Who's Who for the past two years and was formerly vice president of the Senior B class and secretary of the Girl's League. She plans to attend Los Angeles City College and will major in Business and Home Economics. The other Jefferson girl honoree, Elaine Gaines, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Gaines of 1234 East 23rd street. The editor of the Jeffersonian, she is also a member of Who's Who and the Girl's Athletic League. She too will attend City College and is interested in physical education and nursing.

James Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Willard, is president of the Jefferson Student Body, winner of the 1953 American Legion award, an Ephebian and a track star. He won the 1953 Outstanding Athletic citation and plans to attend Occidental College.

Belmont Leaders

Thurma Pankey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Pankey of 243 North Madison street, won honors at Belmont High School with her election to the Student Council and is a former vice president of the Girl's League. She is valedictorian of her class and was assistant cheer leader for the Girl's Athletic Association.

Don Norman, the other Belmont honoree, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norman, 324½ North Westlake street and is president of the Eastern League, the association to which his school belongs. He is a former student body historian, sergeant at arms and cheer leader of the senior class. He was a member of the Student Council for five terms.

Jordan Students

Dorothy Jett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jett, 2208 East 103rd street, has been an active participant in all school activities during her stay at Jordan. She has the distinction of being one of two Ephebians chosen at her school and plans to attend UCLA to prepare for a teaching career in mathematics.

Bernard Spaulding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Spaulding of 2255 East 105th street, has also been selected as an Ephebian at Jordan. He has been active in athletics at his school and won fourth place in the Marine League gymnastic finals last year. He too plans to teach and will enter Compton Junior College.

Manual Arts Musicians

Hidle Brown Barnum, son of Mrs. Alma Brown of 242 North Lake street, has won an outstanding reputation at Manual Arts high school for his musical accomplishments. He will play an original composition at graduation exercises and will continue his musical education at City College until next fall when he plans to enter an eastern college. He is currently recording for Imperial Recording company.

Katherine Tarver, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tarver of 1757 West 37th place, is a cabinet aide in the senior cabinet at Manual and is a member of the Guardians, the Coeds and the California Scholarship society. She plans to attend Harbor Junior College to take a course in secretarial science.

Fremont Valedictorian

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Walls of 342 East 118th street have every reason to be proud of their son, Frederick. He is president of the Senior Class, Class valedictorian and was selected for the Ephebian Society. Vice president of the Knights, boys' honorary organization, he was captain of the cross country team for two years. He plans to attend the University of California at Berkeley and will study nuclear physics.

HYACINTHS were hostesses to their husbands and friends when the club tossed its annual celebration party. Members are seated, left to right: Lucille Means, treasurer; Beulah Atwater, business manager; Alberta Dawson, recording secetary; Irma G. Bailey, president; Frances King, Beatrice Harrell. Standing: Ann Harvey, critic; Mary Armstrong, Alice Auther, reporter; Rene Brackin, vice-president; Betty Cunningham, financial secretary, and Thelma Haynes.

THREE GENERATIONS are shown above attending the bridal showers of Miss Josephine E. Jordan, at right showing her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Brooks and mother, Mrs. Henry Clifton some of the many gifts she received. The shower was hosted by Miss Bernice C. Wright, standing, and Mrs. Luvenia Hylton, at whose residence the affair was given.

SOCIALLY FETED during their holiday vacation in the City of the Angels was one of Nashville, Tennessee's most popular families. Ehiai "Muffy" Achlen, seated left, former Dunham dancer; Theodore Achlen, standing, Nashville's leading sportsman and Del Morocco Club owner, with their young daughter. Following a continuous round of activities, the Achlens' were captivated by our hospitality and weather . . . and reluctantly departed Monday.

Beatrice Hamilton, visiting from Chi, shoves off for home on the first. She's at her sister's, Sadie LeSesne. E Pluribus Unum Club met at Ursula Phelps' last Satd. They reelected the same roster of officers. They've plans, too, for a summer formal. Girl Friends met Mon. at Ethel Atkinson's. Time flies: This Pacific Town Club dance at the Cosmopolitan Satd. will be their tenth annual midwinter formal.

Mrs. Leota Lackey of Wilberforce, Ohio, arrives Satd. via Mexico City for a month. She will spend her time between the Bobby Brewingtons (Haroldine is her goddaughter), and the Ivan Harold Brownings. The Gilbert Lindsays splashed cocktails Wedn. for their houseguest, Edith "Dit" Stevens who leaves for her Detroit home.

Bill Smallwood

Nadine Hicks and Pearl Smith combined sisterly efforts last Satd. and hostessed a coffee gathering for numerous auld acquaintances. At Nadine's, Laura Bowman's biography being whipped into shape here. Elois Davis birthdays on the 31st. Chi visitor Martina Rousseau really seeing the town. Evelyn Costello and Catherine Forister, her long-time friends, are ably seeing to it she does.

Incessant Giddyap

Althea Polk Clark, who is having herself one incessant giddyap of a time visiting her LA hometown from Alaska, leaves next week via air. Gladys Collins-Lott will fly to Alaska this summer for a visit with Althea and her husband. The Jimmy Garrotts (Helen) mulling the idea of a leisure motor trip east this summer.

Here on one of their annual trips from Detroit: Dr. and Mrs. Buck West (Dotti Seamon). Dr. and Mrs. John Simmons (Gwen) were Sunday night hosts at her mother's honoring Edith Jones Boyd who is here from N.Y. for a visit. Edith has her two sons with her. They spent Xmas in Mound Bayou with Edith's sister-in-law and her medic husband.

Annual Party

The senior Edward Atkinsons, as they do annually, are having the family birthday dinner for their son Eddie (21st) and Loren Miller (20th). This one will be today (Thurs.).

Hasty glimpse: Mae Turner and Ethel Bell exiting from a Biltmore matinee obviously quite pleased. Bill Allen gives a recital in SF on the 30th. Nice, seeing Willa Garrott active again after her major surgery. Thelma Price-Biram still in Detroit.

Kitty White never fails to absolutely enchant me when she graciously plays and sings at some party or the other. As a sort of I'm-having-fun gesture to buffet hosts Mills-Smith-Lott last Satd. at Ray Mills' she wove her magic around a houseful of us. Petite, dynamic and relaxed, Kitty remains unforgetable.

Handsome Job

Ethel and Eddie Sanford Smith always look effective as a couple. Sun. they dined with a crowd of friends at the initial Hotel Cosmopolitan Cornucopia buffet. And they did a handsome job recently of paintin' ole SF town over a long holiday weekend with the mighty nice help of that new DeSoto Santa Cutie left them.

Distinctly a personality, Rosa Page Welch who has been lecturing in this area of late. Stimulating, in fact. Alphas sponsor Negro Ballet Co. at Sartu on the 31st. Kappa Silhouettes plan a membership coffee. Helen Smith is president. Commendable, efforts of Jack and Jill mothers raising funds for March of Dimes. They are giving a dance at Cosmopolitan Hotel Frid. (22nd). They raised a $1.000 last year.

To Europe

That national mag is hard at it again, singling out the best dressed L.A. woman. How brave. Bishop F. D. Jordan reached South Rhodesia on New Year's Eve, singularly enough. He will stay in South Africa for a bit time providing he trains a native African of the AME church in that country.

To Europe: Arthur Lee Simpkins, come spring. Bill Chase, who when he was a liquor salesman gave some distinctive parties on L.A. visits, goes on the payroll of a S.F. sheet. Now that should be a challenging combination. Bill and S.F. Local buddies of his thought sure he would settle here.

Dandridge Needs Surgery

Doctors have sternly warned Dorothy Dandridge (in N.Y. now) about postponing that overdue surgery any longer. We'll miss Peggy Williston Mayo. Last time we met she was counting days 'til her army chaplain mate Alvin got in from Korea. They are slated to go to DeeCee. He's being stationed in that vicinity.

Kappas Fete Founders Day

Three chapters of Kappa Alpha Psi will celebrate their annual Founders Day Saturday nliht. Elmer Henderson, Washington lawyer who counsels President Eisenhower on racial problems and contacts our law makers in the interest of racial justice as the national executive director of the American Council on Human Rights, will be the principal speaker. Besides the speaker will be Wendell Gladden, one of the founders of the Kappa chapter of this city, will give "Echoes of the Founders." Everett Brandon, president of the Beta Omega Chapter at USC will represent the undergraduates and Dave Williams, a recent graduate who is now teaching and coaching, will represent the recent graduates.

For the third time Founders Day will be held at Kappa Kastle on the corner of 21st and Harvard streets. Wm. V. Shields will be the soloist, according to Joseph Lewis, chairman of the project committee.

Josephine Jordan Feted With Bridal Shower Sun.

The approaching marriage of Miss Josephine E. Jordan, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clifton, to Mr. George Yelder was the inspiration of a personal shower tended by Miss Bernice Catherine Wright on Sunday, January 17, 1954 from 4 to 6 p.m. at 1933 South Hobart, residence of Mrs. Luvenia Hylton.

Against a bridal background of wedding bells and white Chrysanthemums the spacious residence provided a unique setting for the 45 guests drawn from close friends of the bride elect. The fireplace was fashioned into a bridal arch graced by two large white wedding bells. The mantel held blue streamers and silver bells bearing the names of Josephine and George. A massive sky blue net umbrella was placed at the base of the arch and covered the many lovely gifts. The chair for Miss Jordan was designated by a huge cluster of wedding bells and satin white ribbon. The appointed table in the dining room with the delicious menu was a conversation piece. Miniature figurines of the bridal party formed the center piece with white candles and holders. Tiny silver bells dangled on silver streamers from the chandeliers.

The honoree, Miss Jordan, was petite and lovely in a gold French imported knit dress with a circular ribbon knit collar. She wore navy blue accessories. Rhinestone jewelry, gift of the groom, was her only ornament. The charmaing hostess, Miss Wright was stunning in a black crepe dress with gold metallic insets and matching acessories. She also wore gold and black cameo jewelry.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Cora Hilton, Mrs. Eva Brooks, and Mrs. Lucy Ellison. Assisting the hostess with duties were Mrs. Luvenia Hylton, Mrs. Zelda Grubbs, Miss Eddie Mae Armstrong, Mrs. Henry Clifton, Miss Freda Hodge and Mrs. Ouida Lumpkins.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT, of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Alpha Phi Chapter Mildred Thomas turns over office to newly elected president for 1954, Evelyn Brown.

Bishop Alumni Party Honors Attorney James Flourney

The L. A. Bishopites, alumni of Bishop College, entertained James Flournoy, president of the club and new attorney, with a surprise "Congratulation" Party in place of the regular meeting scheduled for Sunday afternoon.

The attractive home of Miss Samantha Huffman of West 57th Street was the scene of the festive celebration, with sisters of the hostess, Mesdames Vivian Roberson and Bennie Lee Wyatt, Westside V.P., serving as co-hostesses. Mrs. Mildred Warfield, Eastside vice-president, who officated as chairman for the occasion, led the congratulatory toast to the president, followed by individual tributes from each member.

Garland Thomas, treasurer of the Bishopites, presented the gift from the group—a Lawyer's Dictionary to help adorn the new office of Attorney Flournoy, is associated with Attorneys Eugene Hall and Refus Carter at 2618½ S. Western Ave.

Hill Topper Guild In Regular Meeting

Velma Plummer was hostess to the Hill Toppers on last Friday evening in the very spacious and beautiful home of her mother.

Plans are under way for a very unique affair in the near future. Our chairman for the affair, the very popular Jo Holmes, came up with some very new and different ideas that had been gathered from here and there by co-workers Margie Westfield and Emma Adams.

With such workers as these at the helm, the Hill Toppers' entire "crew" got into the act, and you just really look for and expect great things in the future. Of course, because of great humility and a sincere desire of pride, we hope to get this year.

[illegible] very happy to welcome back into the fold our [illegible] member, Alma [illegible], also Celeste Carter who [illegible] several weeks visiting [illegible] relatives in Texas.

Newspaperman's Blues

Got me a key when the last line an' head, Have gone into type and the paper's in bed. Climb up the stairs through a doorway of red, And get me "The Thirty Club" Blues.

Got me a key to a ruby door, Find me a dollar and find some more, Hurry away from the city room floor, to get me "The Thirty Club Blues."

Got me a key where the steaks are thick and rare, When handouts are peddled with pleading and prayer, When the program's finished and signed off the air, I'll get me "The Thirty Club" Blues.

Got me a key where the long ones are cold, Find me my gang where the new ones are told, Sweet mama's waiting and supper is cold, But I've got me "The Thirty Club" Blues.

Music and Art Will Dominate History Week

The exceptional accomplishments of Negroes in the fields of music and art will dominate this year's citywide National Negro History Week, it was revealed at a press conference Friday, called by Mrs. Vassie D. Wright, president of Our Authors Study club, which annually sponsors the event in Los Angeles.

Cairo Movies Drop Jim Crow

CAIRO, Ill. — Cairo, scene of bloody violence two years ago when Negro children sought entry into "white" schools, has now become one of the first communities in this Southern Illinois area to admit colored people to motion picture theaters on an unsegregated basis.

In the fall of 1953, Dr. S. W. Madison, subsequently elected president of the local NAACP branch, with several relatives, was refused admission to the local segregated theatre. Local and state officials were immediately contacted and the Cairo branch prepared for court action.

On October 19, after one of the theatre owners pleaded "not guilty," Dr. Madison returned to the theatre and was admitted without difficulty. Subsequently, Negroes have been admitted without incident. All other movies within a 150-mile radius are maintained on a segregated basis in violation of state statutes.

Thrifty Sixteen In Lavish Affair

The main dining room of the Statler Hotel, the music of Frankie Carle, his piano and orchestra and the excellent food and service made a perfect setting for an evenings' entertainment as the Thrifty Sixteen Social and Charity Club honored husbands with a lavish after holiday dinner party last Saturday evening.

Dinner gowns worn by the ladies ranged from imported satin taffeta to chantilly lace.

The men gathered at the home of Sixteener Ella Hampton after the party, and each one made a speech of gratitude on tape recording which will be presented to the club.

Bond's Market Denies Bias In Ad Policies

Owners of Bond's Market, 10331 Central avenue, this week issued a sweeping denial of charges that they had discriminated against Negro newspapers in advertising for their market. Coupled with the denial was a statement calling attention to the market's fair employment policy.

"We have been advertising in what we felt to be the best advertising media for our needs," Sam Goldstad and Lester Weisz, co-owners, said. "We stated to a committee that called on us and advertising representatives of the Negro press that we would develop and pursue advertising in Negro newspapers."

"Our hiring policy is reflected by the fact that our assitant manager, Bernard Lewis, and department manager, "Smitty" Sneed, are both Negroes. Our clerk's staff includes Zelman Anderson, Ann Edwards, Eunice Sneed, Dorothy Bradley and Earsee Holliday, they added.

The store claims to have one of the highest ratios of Negro employes in the area and owners said that they would "continue to give our customers the best service and to do all in our power to eradicate any impression which might have been created and which is contrary to our policy to pursue business practices that accord with the best interests of customers."

Development of Negro Drama

By J. Edward Brooks

Webster defines drama as "a poem or composition representing a picture of human life." Thus, human life sets the pattern for story telling, and controlled, can be as broad or narrow in its delineation as the controller desires. Negro drama being "under control," it should be obvious then why we react to it as we do and some of us write "saxon" white rather than Negro.

J. EDWARD BROOKS

There are many reasons for limiting Negro dramatic development. One, American drama, at its best, is underdeveloped, so say some of our best drama minds. Two, drama created for Negroes (perhaps 99% by 'the other' writers) offers no encouragement or inspiration to present day Negro writers or to the birth of new ones. (Should it?) Three, 'the other' writers, either through fear of controversy and/or economic retaliation, their inability through lack of contact with or uninfluenced knowledge of Negro "human life" and believing Negro drama any more representative of Negro life sterotype of today, is completely uninteresting, unacceptable, therefore, it can't make any money, or limited by "unwritten laws" and "gentleman's agreements" concerning the degree to which Negro "human life" drama can be developed, find themselves stymied and confused. Fourth, we can blame ourselves for the shameful lack of Negro drama by refusing to accept the facts of life—if we are so unhappy with the present story, as written by the white man, then we should satisfy ourselves with our own.

How can you tell a story about a race of people, who through historical omission and or abasement of character, have been beguiled into a false sense of social and economic progress of security and who, as a result, suffer so pitifully from a racial inferiority complex? I suggest by taking the time to establish and recognize our ethnic heritage and great historical background—by admitting that our race progress since 1865 has been individual at best—and remembering that drama "is a poem or composition representing a picture of human life."

What more effective way can be found to bring to life this history, than through the dramatic arts? History books directly affect the intellectual minority, but when dramatized via stage, screen, radio and television, the man in the street reacts.

To eliminate that "unhappiness in the present story," we must use our own energy and ingenuity to initiate and promote a laboratory, where days of trial and error experimentation will and must go on, the net result being stories that are both entertaining and commercial and definitely educational and socially significant. Technical and theoretical help can be had and should be sought from our established white friends, who, also, want to see Negro drama developed to its maximum, much to the benefit of the underdeveloped American theatre.

Let me emphasize, that in the development of Negro drama, we are NOT BEING PREJUDICED, but rather belatedly assuming our responsibility to tell a story we are unhappy with at present, wish to amend, that will do wonders in the field of good human relations.

The material? Romantic, heroic, historical, social . . . Crispus Attucks, Ben Banniker, Phyliss Wheatley, Richa Allen, Sojourner Truth, Ira Aldrige, Nat Turner, Frederick Douglas, Harriet Tubman; or more contemporary, Booker T. Washington, G. Washington Carver, Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

Also, Mrs. Katie Furgerson, born in slavery and living right here in Los Angeles today; and many more. And, remembering this—drama not only represents human life, it also affects human life, of which I shall write more in a later column.

'Sugar Hill' Top Nite Club Thrill

Fontaine Group Heads 'Live' Revue At the New Club Oasis

Featuring Lon Fontaine Dancers, Mickey Champion, George Bledsoe, Redd Foxx and John Anderson's orchestra.

Most outstanding feature at this spot is, of course, the Lon Fontaine Dancers. Blase L. A. will finally have to sit up straight and take notice of Fontaine's gift. The dance-producer lad has taken a quartet of home-grown pulchritude and worked out a trio of sleek routines.

"Breadless"

The numbers are on the order that made Fontaine a show-biz "buy word" on the Eastern seaboard, but probably because of the "shoestring" budget he is working with at the Western avenue boite, they are not up to his usual par. We suspect that "chinchiness" on the part of the Oasis overseers would stifle such efforts as his "Pandora" or "Fantasy in Blues" that show off his creative mind. His "Tragedy en Paree" in the current show comes closest to showing off the know-how that made him the excitable talk of Atlantic City, and box-office in S.F.'s Filmore district.

We know for a fact that it was a twist of the arm right up to the shoulderblade, so to speak, that persuaded the management to even book this act. But it is our sincere hope and belief that they will educate the present owners to manners and morals of the truly bigtime.

Spots Not Crowded

Niteries around these parts have of late tried every gimmick but a flying saucer give-away to attract crowds, but they will continue to attract everything but people until they produce the right flesh, at the right price, and advertise it properly.

Back to the rest of the show that is rounded out this way. Comic Redd Foxx comes on mike with a funny filibuster that would be too blue for channel two but put the crowd in stitches. He's as foxy as ever! Then there was Eleanor Franklin, a vocallure on the pleasingly plump side (who probably subbed for swingsational Mickey Champion who is billed) Eleanor's voice is short of spectacular, but her pipes are pleasing enough, so that with the proper encouragement can be heard above the tinkle of the rather weak sister highballs.

Stellar Show People

John Anderson's ork is real nice. And why shouldn't these all-stars be with a roster that includes Buddy Collette's warm horn, and George Bledsoe's bass (he also warbles prettily). They provide smooth backing for the acts, and fill in well on featured instrumentals.

Biege Beauties

Lon Fontaine and his cuties, who consist of Sylvia Moon, Frances Neeley, Donna Rae and Florine Colette, bring up the finale, who tired but inspired, and also hired give you "Another Closing." These charmers have, with the possible exception of La Moon, all worked a chorus line one time or another, but frown on that sort of thing now, inasmuch as they've all been featured as solo artists too. And we might add, rightfully so!

Attention, Promoters

Well, if they stick with Fontaine, and our nite-club owners get on the ball, they may never have to go back to third carrot from the left. They're really "cooking" now—Chazz.

'DeRose Story' Tells Cicero Riot

CHICAGO (CNFS)—The saga of intrigue entitled, "The Camille De Rose Story," is based upon the Cicero race riot of two years ago. Events developed rapidly after Miss DeRose, who casually refers to herself as "a woman of the world," tried to obtain information about rent control from a Loop lawyer. The result of that simple and casual lawyer-client meeting led to a climax in public and race relations in the much publicized area known as Chicago, U.S.A.

The "Camille DeRose Story" is a tale leading to events not often experienced in smaller communities, or even on the fringes of our teeming cities.

BRIDGE

By KENNETH SCOTT, Bridge Ed.

With the current increase of interest in Bridge playing in Los Angeles, the Y.W.C.A. has just initiated classes both for beginners and for those more experienced, and has asked me to act as instructor.

As a member of the American Bridge Association, and a winner of many trophies over the past 20 years, I have developed a new simplified method of teaching the game. This method enables the student to see step by step how the point count evaluation aids in deciding how to open and bid various types of hands, and also to see how the distribution of various hands shows their patterns.

The student can see the hand play-by-play as he counts and learns the game.

With the national meeting scheduled for Oakland during next August, we hope to have many of our younger players perfecting their game by that date.

The first classes were held at the "Y" last Monday and Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m. The beginners class will be held henceforth on Tuesday nights at 7:30 p.m.

Pointers on bridge playing will be carried in this column in the Eagle every week.

PEOPLE & PLACES

expensive mink but made off with the family jewels!

FOOTBALLER, there was an awful lot of grid players offsides at the Hotel Watkins banquet dinner for the Pro Bowlers last Sunday evening. Von Winston Wertz, Emerson Smith and Bill Watkins did a terrific job for the boys!

DOROTHY BAYLIFF, is working like a beaver to put over the Polka For Polio date at the stand several "way out" chicks are planning to go real native for the Cotton Calypso dance. One gal sent a letter home for one of the native original cotton dresses and plans to wear it!

MILMO, and Town Tavern are hogging all of the Western Avenue cocktail business. Reason being Tricky Davis and Chubby Johnson!

MOOSE RAGLAND, the poor man's friend, is back in bread again and was spreading around with 'joy' the other eve!

THAT EX, of a well known Club Oasis dancer should grow up and stop wrecking his used-to-be career by using her for a punching bag. The result of her latest beating caused her to miss several shows. Her love must be as torrid as some of her dances!

TIP SAUNDERS, the awfully nice mixologist up 55th and Central way, is cooking up a rather neat little Sunday afternoon package with a top west-side dealer in fashions! They may come up with a unique show for the Paradise.

EDDIE DUDLEY, is proving to the nightly habitues of Dynamite Jackson why he is rated as one of the coast's most popular plainsts!

SARAH VAUGHN, is due on the coast for a singing date set for the Tiffany Club. This will be the 'voice's' first trip in three years.

JEAN TURNER, the looted brownskin Texas born and a gift to L.A., is the owner of a smart-looking two-toned Victoria Ford!

BRYANT (BLINKLY) ALLEN, moves his jumping, groovy combo into the swank San Francisco "Say When Club" this week with shapely Anna Marie doing the tunes!

TIM HUNTER, the tall, handsome silver thatched beau brummel of 4200 block on South Central calls Elihu McGee his choice for the award of the finest sport in the country. Hunter should know as his 30 years on the railroad took him all over the country.

RAY MILLS, the genial host at the Red Hut Broiler, certainly should try to let some of his class rub off on his co-worker.

HAZEL WASHINGTON, the brownskin leather-crafter with dollars to match her charms, was the center of attraction in the Rubaiyat Room Sunday eve. Psst! boys, she's married to Lt. Rocky Washington of Gangster Sqad fame!

JOE ADAMS, the toast of the music set, is finding remarkable success in his swank Club Pigalle. Alyce Key is his hostess and the peasants are jamming the joint nightly!

EAGLE — PEOPLE & PLACES.

LE CARIBE, the French room down Washington and Central way is overdue for some live entertainment!

BUB POWELL, the noted wig, is wigging the music lovers out at Haig because they have never paid to hear an artist play that didn't. Understand the keeper of the club is thinking about giving him notice to move!

ELBOW BEND, is turning 'em away nghtly since they brought in Earl Anderza and his combo. They played to standing room only Monday night. It's their Nothing but the blues show. Even soft voiced Eddie Atkinson is humming the downhomers!

BOB THOMAS, is keeping pace with his boss lady by continuing reporting and distorting facts. We have a Paris dated letter signed Miriam Christian!

WINI ORR, introduced one of the top Chef's come out of that sex crazed 'Paris,' he's turning the peasants on with a buffet dinner that will completely slay them. For a Sunday afternoon meal try the Colonial Room in the Hotel Cosmopolitan!

ALTHEA POLK CLARK'S cute little 15-year-old daughter thinks her mother is one of the most attractive brownskins in the world. We know a host of males who agree with her. Ten years from today the male populace will be saying the same thing about her!

ELIZABETH McGEE, eastside damsel, can certainly make on O'Keefe and Merritt come up with some of the craziest greens, and if you are sure we are talking through our chops ask Abie Robinson!

"SPITTOON," everybody is out-of-step but that frustrated West Jefferson "Jive Jezebel." That's easily understood, she's been out-of-step ever since the the Dunbar Hotel days. When she was wooed by Lucifer and started working her way up in the world via the sheets! Result being her front yard looking like the backyard of Juvenile Hall!

SOUND TRACK

sion, or anything. But make it tomorrow night! . . . Hey, sport, that's real sly-chology!

Major Robinson, Mister "New York Beat" of Jet, penned us that he will be here on the twenty-fifth. We're partying the scribe. Call us for information! . . . Jack Wright, who used to be desk clerk at the Watkins is now toiling for the Auto Club, and loves it! . . . Pearlie Mae Bailey was su-poib on the George Jessel TV show last Saturday. Sailing for Paris, with sharp suit and minks and singing "He's Gone." . . . Buddy Colette has been on Groucho Marx's show for over a year! He's a tough customer!

Seen Around Town:

The Follies sign downtown: Tempest Storm and her BOSOM pals. The club that used to be DOWNBEAT with a sign: New cocktail club opening soon at popular prices. We sincerely hope so! . . . We forgot to mention in our review of Oasis show that Lon Fontaine didn't warble. He's on a Miguelito Valdez kick! . . . And Viola Bond: We're sorry we made you dislike us. We were always on your side! We're on our way to the "Thirty Club."

SOMETHING NEW WORLD'S BEST
PSYCHIC READER

Will Tell You Everything You Wish to Know.
There Are No Secrets Hidden.

Do Not Be Discouraged If Others Have Failed To Help You!

During 31 years of practice I have brought together in marriage, also reunited more separated than any other five mediums combined. In fact I make this line of occult work a specialty. Few psychics, no matter how high their standing, really understand this secret magnetic power. During the past year my record for successful work was as follows: reunited 167 separated; brought about 229 marriages; regained love for many; located 28 absent persons; overcame many rivals and hundreds of other problems, such as business, speculations, lawsuits, luck, etc. There is no heart so sad, no home so dreary that sunshine cannot enter by this mysterious force. I have helped thousands of others; why not you? I DO NOT CALL AT YOUR HOME — CALL IN PERSON TODAY!

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.—John L. Procope, Jr., of New York City, became the second Negro within the past 18 months to join the staff of the Marketing Department of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc., advertising agency, which has offices in 12 cities across the country.

Procope assumed his position on January 11th as assistant to Clarence L. Holte, marketing specialist, the first Negro to be named to an executive post by a major advertising agency.

Holte supervises an agency operation which analyzes and interprets Negro markets and develops marketing and merchandising programs for the clients of BBDO. This agency is one of the largest in America. Included among its 163 clients are many of the outstanding corporations in the country.

JOHN L. PROCOPE, JR.

Procope, who is single and a 32-year-old veteran of World War II, has been in the advertising and sales field for the past ten years. He worked for five years as sales representative for the Afro-American newspapers with headquarters in Baltimore, Md., and for more than two years with Associated Publishers, Inc., New York.

Procope is a graduate of Morgan State College, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and the American Marketing Association. His father, John Procope, Sr., is administrator of the Provident Hospital in Baltimore.

Govt. Aids Levitt

In Bucks County, Pa., the group told the President, "a critical housing and employment situation has been created by the vast new development in that area." The exclusion of Negroes from new housing being built in that county with FHA-insured mortgages has seriously restricted job opportunities for Negro workers in the steel and other industries being introduced.

According to a recent report, of 4,480 mortgage loans closed in 1953 for homes built in Levittown, all except five were with some sort of government aid, either GI loans or FHA insurance. None of these homes has been made available by Levitt to Negro families. This builder pursued the same policy of exclusion in his earlier Long Island development.

The presentation in the Bucks County situation was made on behalf of the American Friends Service Committee and the Human Relations Council of Bucks County as well as the NAACP.

Death Date Set For Wesley Wells

the intense interest of thousands of Californians in Wells.

Testimony Barred

Voluntarily seeking to testify for Wells but refused, Dr. Burt E. Howard, Folsom prison psychiatrist, a troubled, elderly man, released this statement:

"If Wesley Robert Wells is executed, I shall feel partly to blame. The cuspidor episode would never have happened if the prison authorities had acted promptly. What I should have done was to have told the warden immediately of my findings—that Wells was in a state of hysteria and fear for his life."

Seven-Year Battle

Wells' three lawyers told of their seven-year battle to save his life. C. K. Curtwright pleaded: "We have been before courts of all kinds, Federal and State. The only court that took the time to listen to us stopped the death penalty and saved Wells."

(He was referring to the Federal court of Judge Louis Goodman which, in 1950, halted the execution on the grounds that Wells had been deprived of his constitutional rights.)

"We are not playing for peanuts, I don't have to tell you," Curtwright spoke to the thin-lipped judge. "I ask Your Honor to overlook our emotion in this matter but there are grave issues and a man's life at stake.

Blot on Justice

"It is time to take off the velvet gloves. I have made the mistake of being too polite. I charge that as early as 1942 Deputy District Attorney Mundt planned to put Wells in the gas chamber.

"This sentence to Wells is a blot on our judicial history—a challenge to all our citizens. If the Adult Authority, by intent, by a failure to act, can place a citizen in a position to lose his life, what is to stop them, or the State Legislature, from doing the same to you and me and every citizen?"

Can Avoid Error

"Just show me where this court has jurisdiction to do anything else but set the date of execution." Judge Coughlin said, to which Curtwright replied: "All courts have the inherent power to void a sentence that is in error.

"All seven judges of the court above this one, the State Supreme Court, ruled this court was in error in not allowing the two prison doctors to testify in Wells' defense. Those men are here now to testify. We plead with you to hear them. They are Wells' only defense. His life depends on their distinguished testimony!"

"I do not have the jurisdiction to hear them," said Judge Coughlin, and he ruled on the same ground that he would not hear Wells speak. Finally he read the record of the case since 1947 and ordered Wells be "administered lethal gas until he is dead" on April 9, of this year.

Prisoners Sa[y] Race Bias Le[d] To Decisions

PANMUNJOM — Two of t[he] three Negro GIs who turned their backs on their country and cast their lot with Communism named racial discrimination as one of the factors that led to their choice.

"The American people know how the Negro is treated in the United States," Sergeant Larrance V. Sullivan of Omaha told reporters. "Definitely this is one of my reasons."

Private William C. White of Plummesville, Ark., was even more emphatic. "I have been a prisoner for three years," he said, "For the first time in my life I have known what it meant to have complete equality for men of all races and colors to work together and to play together." White added that his treatment by the Reds was in contrast to what he had known "where I and other Negro boys were whipped by white policemen because we did not take off our hats to them."

The three were members of the group of 91 American prisoners who refused repatriation at the end of the Korean conflict. The overwhelming majority of Negro prisoners chose to return home and described their treatment by the Reds as an attempt to propagandize them. They agreed that democracy was far preferable to Communism despite all attempts to persuade them to cast their lots with the Reds. The percentage of Negroes choosing to remain with the Reds was about the same as for whites.

Here's what the two turn coat GIs had to say about their choice of Communism:

SGT. SULLIVAN: The American people know how the Negro is treated in the United States. Definitely this is one of my reasons. Of course, my desire to work for world peace is

Minister From Pasadena Dies In Freak Crash

A freak accident in Louisiana Monday took the life of Rev. W. G. Glover, pastor of the Bethlehem Church of Christ Holiness, 470 Blake street, Pasadena.

The accident occurred at Minden, La., as the pastor and his wife, Mrs. Bonnie Mae Glover, were en route to New Orleans on a vacation given them by members of the church.

Rev. Glover had stepped out of his car to clean the windows. As he was wiping them, another auto smashed into his car from the rear. The force of the impact hurled him under the wheels of his own car, pinning him there and crushing him.

When help arrived, he was rushed to the hospital in Minden, but he died on the way.

The body is being returned to Pasadena for burial, with arrangements being handled by Conner-Johnon.

The Rev. and Mrs. Glover had been planning to visit Mrs. Glover's relatives in New Orleans.

The Rev. Glover, 57, was born in Jackson, Miss., and has been in Pasadena since 1947. He and Mrs. Glover lived at 1531 Mentone street, Pasadena.

No Breakfast— Woman Tossed Out of Window

A young woman Sunday noon reportedly was thrown from a second floor room by her lover, who was angry with her because she wouldn't get up and make his breakfast.

Miss Doris Williams, 28, of 457 Towne avenue, was hurled threw the window and landed in the alley below. Her leg was broken, she was badly bruised, and she complained of severe stomach pains.

Frank Thompson, 31, reportedly had tried for a long time to rouse Miss Williams so she could fix some food for him. A little after 11 a.m., he became exasperated, grabbed her from the bed and tossed her out. She was taken to Georgia Street Receiving hospital, and removed to General.

Shot at Point-Blank Range; Witnesses Denounce Assault

Firing at point-blank range, a policeman shot and critically wounded a man at a busy Fifth street intersection Monday evening in what witnesses claimed was an entirely unprovoked assault.

Mathew Roberts, 545 Crocker street, slumped, a bullet hole in his stomach. He had been shot from a distance of only three feet.

Accounts Differ

Witnesses claimed both of Roberts' hands could be clearly seen. The police, however, assert that he was reaching for a knife, and that as the shot rang out the weapon dropped to the ground.

As the Eagle went to press, Roberts was still in critical condition in the prison ward at General Hospital, and it was doubtful whether he would live or die.

The NAACP, which through Atty. Thomas Neusom made an on-the-spot investigation shortly after the shooting occurred, is considering taking action against the police officers, Patrolman J. D. Clements, who fired the shot, and his partner, D. J. Foster, for violation of Federal civil rights.

Why Are You Shooting?

Seven people, interviewed by the Eagle, declared that Roberts was walking down Crocker street, near Fifth, when police caught up with him, grabbed his arm and shoved his back against a wall.

One of the officers, the witnesses said, then pulled out his gun and fired.

"Why are you shooting me?" Roberts reportedly asked.

The witnesses claimed that another officer then put his knee in the wounded man's stomach and handcuffed him.

Police Version

According to the police report, Officer Clements shot Roberts only after he had attempted to pull a knife on him.

This report stated that as police approached, Roberts ran and ducked behind three or four men standing on the corner. When Officer Clements got about three feet from Roberts, he ordered him to take his hands from behind his coat.

RESIDENTS PROTEST RE-ZONING

Owners May Drop Demand For Change

Approximately 100 aroused residents pleaded with the City Planning Committee Tuesday to save their homes from the blight of having a factory in their midst—and probably chalked up a signal success.

Following the hearing, owners of the disputed property reportedly advised Councilman Gordon Hahn that they were willing to drop their plan to build a fire truck plant on West Long Beach avenue, and were prepared to negotiate for the sale of the four-block long strip to the city for the creation of a park and playground.

Telling Arguments

Perhaps the most telling argument before the committee was the assertion that owners of property in Negro areas have no regard for the peace and quiet and well-being of the people who live there, turning these districts into ugly, noisy factory sections, over-run with heavy trucks and litter, while the owners themselves live faraway in Brentwood, Beverly Hills or Hollywood.

They try to stop the migration of Negroes to other areas, stated one resident, and then dump these factories right in our midst, creating serious hazards for our children, and causing grave property depreciation.

The owners had sought a rezoning of the area from a residential zone, C-2 to a manufacturing zone, M-1.

Protest

Speaking in protest against the change were Councilmen Hahn and Edward Roybal, and Gilbert Lindsay, assistant to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Pleading their own case were about a dozen home owners, introduced by John Dial, Jr. These included Arnold Blackburn, George Black, Z. Taylor, John J. Porter, Mrs. Marie Fredericks, George McGee and Robert Z. Hardon.

The "Don't Buy Where You Can't Work" campaign against the Broadway Department Store is already being implemented by a number of customers, according to information received this week.

At the same time, the store has given fresh evidence of its refusal to hire qualified Negroes, while the Los Angeles Board of Education has apparently acquiesced in accepting and filling the Broadway's discriminatory hiring request.

Takes Action

As stated exclusively in the California Eagle in its issues of Jan. 7 and Jan. 14, the Los Angeles Urban League, joined by other community organizations, has been attempting for five years, without success, to persuade the store to utilize the abilities of qualified Negro sales clerks.

On Jan. 20, one of the Broadway's customers, Atty. Richard W. Petherbridge, of El Centro, forwarded his check to the store for the balance due on his charge account, and advised that he was discontinuing purchases at the Broadway.

See Lester P. Bailey's column, "The Big Sea," dealing with FEPC and your pocketbook, on Editorial Page.

In the letter, a copy of which he sent to the Eagle, he stated in part:

Disapproves

"We note in the newspapers that you have been approached by various groups requesting that you terminate a policy of refusing to employ Negroes as sales persons.

"We are concerned about your policy in this regard. If it is your policy to refuse to employ qualified sales persons simply because they happen to be Negroes, then it is our intention to discontinue patronizing your store until this policy is terminated."

Fresh evidence of the Broadway's continuing pattern of discrimination came in the form of a rebuff to one of the city's most highly regarded young students.

Gerald L. K. Smith

ASKS GOD TO BLESS SEN. JOE M'CARTHY

Gerald L. K. Smith, the hate-peddling pastor who fled Los Angeles several years ago after a hot reception by 20,000 pickets, has sneaked back into town and is again attempting to whip his clan into an anti-Semitic hysteria.

In an "admittance-by-card-only" meeting at the Embassy Tuesday night, Smith harrangued his audience with his usual venomous attacks against the Jews. And they liked it.

Insults Eisenhower

All that was new in his refurbished speech was his insulting remarks about President Eisenhower and his warm praise for Sen. Joe McCarthy, for whom he asked God's blessing.

Boastfully he told of his "very close link" with a "highly influential senator" in Washington who, he said, had turned over to him a list of all those who invoked the Fifth Amendment in hearings before Congressional investigating committees. All of them, said Smith, are Jews.

Eisenhower he labeled the "message boy" of Bernard Baruch, whom he branded the mastermind of the "international Jewish conspiracy."

Soft-Pedaled Negro Attack

Although Smith refrained from any attack on Negroes in his Tuesday tirade, one of the "10 high principles" printed on the back of his begging envelopes distributed to the audience states:

"Fight mongrelization and all

Couple Can't Marry Without Listing Race

The state supreme court was asked this week to review a lower court holding that the county clerk has the right to require all applicants for marriage licenses to list their race. Interracial marriage is permitted, however, under the terms of a supreme court decision.

The application for review was made by William J. Roberts and Ruth Stokes who had sought a writ requiring the clerk to issue them a license without inquiring into or listing their racial identities.

Following an adverse decision by the local superior court, the couple appealed to the District Court of Appeal which held last week that racial inquiries and identifications were proper. They were

Ike Promises Equal Housing Treatment

WASHINGTON — Acknowledging that "many members of minority groups have had the least opportunity to acquire good homes," President Eisenhower Monday promised that "policies of the several housing agencies must be and they will be changed to "assure equal opportunity for all citizens to acquire good and well-located homes."

The president's statement was made in a special message to Congress in which he called for additional units of public housing and proposed liberalized credit guarantees to encourage private financing of homes for low-income people.

The presidential message did not mention the question of racial segregation in public housing nor did the President spell out the reforms he proposes in other government housing agencies. At the present time the Federal Housing Administration requires all builders to guarantee that no race-restrictive covenants have been laid on the land since Feb. 15, 1950, and to agree that they will not levy such restrictions during the life of the government guaranteed loan.

However builders and subdividers are still free to refuse to rent homes, built with FHA guaranteed funds, to Negroes or members of other minority groups. Racial segregation in public housing is permitted by the government if local housing authorities deem it expedient.

Last week the NAACP urged the president to direct housing agencies to forbid all segregation in both public housing and in housing built with loans guaranteed by FHA.

The president's statement on housing problems of minority groups follows:

"It must be frankly and honestly acknowledged that many members of minority groups, regardless of their income or their economic status, have had the least opportunity of all of our citizens to acquire good homes. Some progress, although far too little, has been made by the housing agency in encouraging the production and financing of adequate housing available to members of minority groups.

"However, the administrative policies governing the operations of the several housing agencies must be, and they will be, materially strengthened and augmented in order to assure equal opportunity for

Archie Moore Retains Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — In a unanimous decision, Archie Moore, world's light heavyweight champion, defeated Joe Maxim for the third straight time here Wednesday to retain his world title.

Moore scored two knockdowns, one in the eighth coming from a tremendous right hand. The second came in the 11th from a terrific left.

Ring officials scoring were Marty Monroe, Judge E. Irving and the referee.

Court Delays Deposition of Chief Alderson

Technical defects in legal papers led to a postponement of the deposition slated to have been taken of Fire Chief John H. Alderson last Saturday, Herbert Simmons, chairman of the local NAACP legal committee, explained that the defects would be corrected and that a new date will be set for the hearing.

Alderson, represented by the city attorney's office, complained that the papers requested and the information sought was a "mere fishing expedition" and the court ordered the subpoenas recalled.

Simmons explained that he sought to question Alderson in order to establish certain facts under oath as to the policies and practices of the Fire Department. The information obtained would be used in a law suit in the event racial segregation policies were not abandoned under the plan proposed by Mayor Poulson, he said.

Meanwhile the Eagle learned the members of the Board of Fire Commissioners had visited stations to which Negro firemen are assigned and inquired as to the attitude of employes toward racial segregation practices. Commissioners were told in no uncertain terms that Negro firemen object to being assigned to only two stations.

Negro firemen are permitted to serve in only two of the city's 87 fire stations and all Negro officers are confined to those two stations.

Political Spotlight

By James H. Anderson

BAKERSFIELD — The California Republican assembly meeting held at the Bakersfield Inn, Jan. 22, 23 and 24, endorsed Goody Knight for governor; James W. Sillimon, lieutenant governor; Thomas H. Kuchel, U. S. senator; Robert C. Kirkwood, controller; Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state. Took no action on California attorney general. Delayed action on Charles G. Johnson, state treasurer.

L.A. NEGRO REPUBLICANS, as usual, missed the boat by not having representation at the State Assembly meet. Congressional districts like the 26th, 15th, 18th, 17th where most California Negroes live, were represented by Caucasians.

The State Assembly is the place where Republican decisions for the State of California are made. The executive committee meeting held last weekend is often referred to as the smoke-filled room. One hundred sixty-eight delegates registered. Approximately 200 people attend each session.

NEGRO REPRESENTATION from L.A. could have and should have been present. People like Betty Hill, Faye Jackson, Leon Giles, Lewis Cole, not to name many others, were not on hand.

One Negro did attend, John Adams, Jr., of Berkeley. Addressed the meeting Saturday on the subject "Building Membership and Maintaining Interest in Assembly Work."

COMMITTEE might be sorry. The fact-finding committee, whose recommendations are tantamount to election when Republicans win, might be very sorry over the kicking around given Judge Frederick M. Houser. Houser only received nine of the 34 committee votes cast.

This is bound to set off a fight in Southern California Republican circles. Might even cause Republicans to lose the State.

Harold J. Powers, presently serving as lieutenant governor, and Houser announced they are in the race to stay.

Promotional staff Jeanne Turner, Kerry Jackson, friend Libby Clark and your columnist had nice trip. Met Bakersfield's city Negro councilman, Reverend Collins.

SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT RIGHT. Spotlight predicted the announcement of Sam Yorty for U. S. Senate, Jimmy Roosevelt for Congress in the 26th, and Ethel Bryant for Assembly 62nd.

MIKE FANNING — Lots of friends, moneyed politicians, and opponents of Jimmy Roosevelt are urging Mike to file on the 26th. Mike is one of the smartest political minds in this neck of the woods. Will do the right as well as the smart thing.

Ethel Byrant has been elected recording secretary of the 26th Congressional Democratic council; Rosalind Weiner, City Councilwoman, is president.

Helen Crozier Greenwood reports: "Governor Goodwin Knight states he cannot let Wells go free, but that he will not allow Wells to die." Walter Gordon will withdraw from the 62nd Assembly District race and support the Republican-endorsed candidate, Marque Neal, against Assemblyman Gus Hawkins, who will announce his decision to run for re-election soon.

Forum held Tuesday, 8 p.m., Golden State Auditorium, drew a large crowd. Lively audience participation. Attorneys dominated discussion. Charles Fielding and Vince Monroe Townsend directed sharp questions to their brother attorneys, Rayfield Lundy and Walter Gordon, who represented the Republican party position. The Republican team came out second best against the sharp political knowledge of Jimmy Roosevelt, Democratic party advocate. Dr. Vada Summerville, corresponding secretary of the Democratic Women's Forum, was one of the group of one hundred Democratic women leaders of Southern California who heard Richard B. Graves, Democratic candidate for governor, at luncheon Tuesday noon at the Biltmore Hotel.

Elks Publishing Souvenir Book

A handsome souvenir brochure, listing in pictures and story the development of the Pacific States Association of Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, will be distributed at the 24th annual convention of the association at Sacramento in June and later at the Grand Lodge in Chicago.

James M. Stewart, president of the association and grand organizer of the Western region of the order, authorized the brochure which will list Who's Who in Far Western Elkdom. Data and photos of brothers and daughters are being now collected and assembled for publication.

NAACP Region Group to Meet

SAN FRANCISCO — The Regional Advisory committee of the NAACP will meet here Saturday, February 20, at the Fairmont Hotel, to hear the annual report of the secretary-counsel and area presidents.

Democrats To Hold Banquet Honoring FDR

New Deal and Fair Deal Democrats are honoring the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt on the date of his birthday, Jan. 30, at a dinner at the Mona Lisa restaurant, according to John Opie, chairman.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Hugh Tiner, president of Pepperdine College. Co-chairmen for the dinner are Gordon Jeffers and Sibyl Chalmers.

Proceeds of the affair will be contributed to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, one of Roosevelt's favorite charities.

In addition to the speakers, tape-recordings will be heard from Sen. Estes Kefauver (Tenn.), Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Minn.), and Sen. A. S (Mike) Monroney (Okla.).

Among the Democratic leaders who will be present are Mayor Laurence Cross of Berkeley, former Attorney General of Colorado Leslie E. Hubbard, A P. Entenza, member State Athletic Commission, and Mrs. Clara Sherpser of Berkeley.

Jimmy Seeks Congress Seat

James Roosevelt, Democrat, this week announced his candidacy for Congress in the 26th Congressional District.

Roosevelt's announcement was made simultaneously with the release of news that Sam Yorty, presently congressman from the 26th, would run for the United States Senate.

In making his announcement, the eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, said:

"During the past few weeks, people from all walks of life in the 26th Congressional District have been urging me to run for Congress. Because I feel my background and my political beliefs qualify me to serve the people of the 26th District in Congress, I have decided to submit my candidacy to the people.

"I will campaign on the basis of the liberal Democratic philosophy which I have supported all my adult life, and if elected to Congress from the 26th, will do my utmost to put that philosophy into effect.

"There are few Congressional Districts in the nation which are so truly representative of America as the 26th, and if elected, I will be proud to work for the people of the 26th in Congress. Their problems are America's problems; their interests are those of the whole nation."

Career Ranges From Miner To Accountant

An interesting and varied life which has run the gamut from coal miner to accountant was amusingly recalled by Bertrand B. Bratton on Saturday evening when he appeared as "guest personality of the week" on William L. Luke's "Man of Color."

Bratton who has a number of 'firsts' in his long and varied career currently operates a lucrative accounting business at 3011 So. Western Avenue.

His record, a tenure of twelve years of service with the State Board of Equalization is legend. Progressing through the ranks Bratton was a key figure in the Department when he retired in 1944 from his post as Supervising Auditor for the Alcoholic Beverages Tax Unit.

Politics—he ran for Congress in 1944 and for City Council in 1946; civic office—chairman of the Rationing Board—besides affiliation with organizations allied with his chosen field of endeavor; the YMCA, Urban League, Elks, Masons and other worthwhile projects round out Bratton's experiences, contributions and achievements since he took up residence in Los Angeles.

The first Negro CPA in the south—he was awarded his certificate in New Orleans in January, 1925—Bratton recalled with some degree of humor incidents leading to this accomplishment.

"Being a Negro proved an asset. When I went to take the examinations my presence somewhat confused the Board of Accountancy Examiners. I was escorted to a table in the cloakroom so as not to contaminate my fellow-examinees—all of whom were white! I failed one section of the first examination and was invited by one of the local professors to take his coaching course at a cost of $7.00 per lesson. He explained to me that he was coaching several white boys and he could not take me on the evenings when they were there, but if I would come the following evenings I could help him go over their papers and he could coach me privately while analyzing their work.

Native of Bluefield, West Virginia, Bratton is one of five children of the now deceased Isaac Houston and Alverta Ann Carroll Bratton.

He is married to Angelique D. Bratton, member of a pioneer California family who is currently employed as a legal stenographer in the Department of Labor.

Consolidated Realty Holds Installation

The Consolidated Realty Board's annual installation banquet and dance will be held Friday evening in the International Room of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. Dignitaries of the city and state will join with brokers and guests in paying tribute to the Board's selection of officers and their slogan for 1954 — "Greater Service for a Greater Los Angeles."

Mayor Norris L. Poulson will be guest speaker. Judge John F. Aiso will install the 1954 officers of the organization, and Floyd C. Covington, racial relations advisor to the Federal Housing Administration, will act as toastmaster. Arthur Lee Simpkins will be guest artist.

Five hundred guests are expected to attend. A cocktail hour will precede the dinner period and an informal dance will follow. The "Jeepsters" will furnish the music.

The Consolidated Realty Board was founded in 1950 to unite brokers and salespersons in meeting problems incident to a booming business which subjected seller and buyer alike to unethical practices. Another primary purpose was to exercise the influence and aid of an organized group in the broad field of community service.

Licensed dogs outnumbered unlicensed dogs four to one in the development of rabies last year, according to the City Health Department.

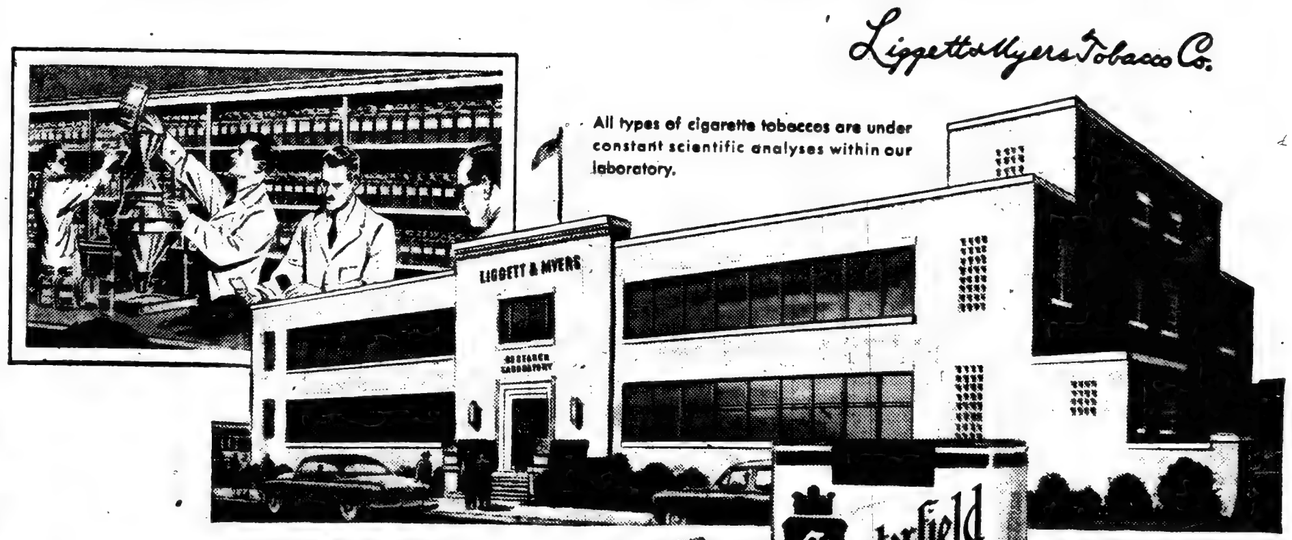
Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. says...

FOR more than thirty years we have used research day in and day out learning about tobaccos and cigarettes in the public's interest.

Continuously we and our consultants have analyzed, experimented with and smoked all kinds of tobaccos... especially Southern Bright, Burley, Maryland and Turkish cigarette tobaccos.

Our own cigarettes and competitive brands have been submitted to the most exacting scientific scrutiny including thousands of analyses of millions of pounds of tobaccos.



From all these thousands of analyses, and other findings reported in the leading technical journals, our Research Department has found no reason to believe that the isolation and elimination of any element native to cigarette tobaccos today would improve smoking.

For four years we have maintained in the smoker's interest an intensified larger scale diversified research program. A half-million dollar 30-ton machine, the world's most powerful source of high voltage electrons, designed solely for our use has tested tens of thousands of cigarettes. This program has already given to us direct and significant information of benefit to the smoking public.

Our consultants include Arthur D. Little, Inc. of Cambridge, Massachusetts, "one of the largest and most reputable industrial research organizations in the country" (From Business Week Magazine) and eminent scientists from leading universities.

Today the public can confidently choose from a variety of brands—by far the best cigarettes ever made by the tobacco industry.

No Army Reprisals For Jim Crow Bus Arrests

WASHINGTON—The Army will take no steps to court martial or otherwise discipline the 50 Negro servicemen arrested and fined in Columbia, S. C., on last Thanksgiving night as the result of an incident in a Jim Crow bus.

This assurance was given this week to Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington bureau of the NAACP, by Hugh M. Milton, assistant secretary of the Army. He also said that the Army had asked the Justice Dept. to investigate the possible violation of the soldiers' civil rights by the Columbia law enforcement officers.

The Army action followed prompt NAACP protest against the mass arrest of the soldiers because one of them refused to move from a seat next to a white woman who invoked the local segregation law. White soldiers on the bus bound from Columbia to nearby Fort Jackson were released, but all Negro Army men, including Lieut. Austell O. Sherard, were held and fined a total of $1,573.

Meanwhile, at Fort Jackson, a new policy on civil arrests of soldiers was announced. This policy provides for the release of military personnel taken into custody by Columbia police to military police at Fort Jackson. No action, except on traffic violations and major offenses may be taken by civil authorities.

Wilson Elected Exalted Ruler Of Watts Elks

John H. Wilson was elected to the office of Exalted Ruler of Joseph B. Bass Lodge No. 1004, Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, by the slim margin of one vote in the annual elections held in the lodge hall Wednesday night at 102nd and Beach streets with top state officials looking on.

Wilson, a mail order salesman, won out over Wilford E. Charles in a closely contested race.

Robert Bently Strather, the retiring head, declined to run for reelection. William Vaile, Grand District Deputy for Southern California, supervised the elections with Sammy Warren Sr.; his special deputy giving him ample aid.

In accepting the new leadership of J. B. Bass Lodge, Wilson promised to provide a program of full participation of the Elks in all phases of community afairs in South Los Angeles. Committees and platform will be announced later.

James M. Stewart, president of Pacific States Association of Elks, and Lawrence F. LaMar, publicity director of the lodge, acted as election wardens during the sessions. Roosevelt Johnson, was elected Esteemed Leading Knight, Earl Davis, Esteemed Loyal Knight, and Alex Smith, Esteemed Lecturing Knight.

Archie Armstrong succeeded to the office of Esquire. Wilford E. Charles, prominent realtor, who was defeated in the race for Exalted Ruler, was reelected treasurer. Kermit Burns was elected secretary and Clay Cunningham, Samuel Hemphill and Gilbert Diamond, were elected trustees.

Others selected included: Marvel Davis, Inner Guard; Jeff Davis, Tiler.

Family Fight Ends in Death Of Man, 25

A family quarrel Tuesday evening ended in the killing of V. Alonzo Clark, 25, of 1107 E. 119th street, by his stepfather, Herbert A. Gibbs.

Gibbs is being held on suspicion of manslaughter. He reportedly ordered the younger man to leave the house following an altercation, and when Clark refused, he fired a couple of warning shots at him with his .38 revolver.

The victim reportedly knocked the older man down, and the two began to fight. While on his back on the floor, Gibbs fired two more shots. Both hit their mark, and the younger man was dead when the ambulance arrived.

Gibbs reportedly began to run, but was arrested by officer Wilbur Brantley, 1113 E. 119th street, an officer in the Juvenile Division at 77th Street station. He had rushed from his home when he heard the first two shots, and witnessed the fighting and the fatal shooting.

L.A. Pioneer Sam Arnold Dies At 88

Final rites were to be recited over the remains of the late Samuel T. Arnold, pioneer resident of this city for the past 40 years, Thursday, in Lincoln Memorial cemetery.

Arnold, 88, died Sunday evening at his home, 1141 East 33rd street.

The deceased, a native of Prescott, Ark., leaves his widow, Mrs. Clarisa Arnold whom he wed 63 years ago, 10 children and scores of grandchildren to mourn his passing. The late Mr. Arnold was the father of 14 children. Four are dead.

Those living include Mrs. Louise Clark, Mrs. Ruth Ball, Mrs. Norvelle Teague, Mrs. Esther Thompson and Mrs. Hazel Joyner and Sam Jr., Clark, John, Raymond and Harold Arnold.

Services were to be held from Walker Temple, 1250 East 25th street, with Rev. Harley Akers officiating. Peoples Funeral Home prepared the body for burial.

Negro Women Protest Bricker Amendment

WASHINGTON — The National Council of Negro Women through its president, Mrs. William T. Mason, this week joined the mounting opposition to the Bricker amendment by addressing a letter to President Eisenhower citing the resolution made against passage of the proposed legislation by the Council in its last biennial convention.

"We are too painfully conscious of the effects upon minority groups in traditional exercise of states rights not to see danger signals in this legislation," Mrs. Mason stated. "This feature alone redoubles our opposition to passage of the Bricker amendment, to say nothing of its other objectionable features."

'Ass'n for Advancement Of White People' Formed

RICHMOND, Va. — In a new twist, but with the same old Ku Klux Klan overtones, whites in the South are now organizing chapters of a "National Association for the Advancement of White People."

The group was chartered in Delaware Dec. 11, 1953, but main sponsors of the movement appear to be Washington residents who are afraid that President Eisenhower is "going too far" in according Negroes equal protection of the laws.

Local chapters of the white people's association are now being formed in Richmond and Norfolk, Va., and in Washington and Baltimore.

One of the significant paragraphs of the charter states that one purpose of the organization is "to protect areas occupied by certain races from encroachment on the part of other races or members of other races, which result in nonstability of real estate in said area."

Instead, Roberts made a grab under his coat.

Told to Halt

He reportedly was told to halt, but refused. It was at this point, according to the police record, that the officer fired his pistol. A three-inch knife is said to have dropped to the ground after Roberts was hit.

The police record further stated that Roberts had walked by a bar at 520½ E. Fifth street about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and, without provocation had slashed the neck of a man standing there.

M. C. Hodge, 431 Rodger Young Village, was standing outside the bar when Roberts is alleged to have sliced him, making a six-inch gash. He was taken to the hospital, treated and released. The suspect reportedly fled.

James Otis Wright, a half-brother of Hodge, saw the assault and put in a call to the police. Wright later pointed out Roberts as the man who had attacked Hodge. It was on the basis of this identification that the police were after Roberts.

The eye-witnesses who told the Eagle of the happenings were: C. W. Davis, 511 Crocker street; John H. Crockett, 219 E. 121st street; Jimmie Wilson, 1806 S. Central avenue; Billy Duncan, 520 Towne avenue; John L. Washington, 118 Weller street, and Robert Lee Bentford, 166 W. 50th street.

represented by Attorney Dan Marshall.

Three years ago the state supreme court voided California's 96-year-old law forbidding marriage between whites and non-whites and held that such a law violated both California and federal constitutions. However, the legislature refused to repeal the law and it is still on the state statute books.

The law requires the county clerk to secure racial information from all applicants for marriage licenses and in effect provides for the denial of a license if such information is not furnished.

Miss Stokes and Roberts complained that the requirement violated the state's public policy and denied them "due process of law and equal protection of the law." In its lengthy opinion, the District Court of Appeal held that the state has a right to require such information for satistical purposes.

Political Spotlight

By James H. Anderson

BAKERSFIELD — The California Republican assembly meeting held at the Bakersfield Inn, Jan. 22, 23 and 24, endorsed Goody Knight for governor; James W. Sillimon, lieutenant governor; Thomas H. Kuchel, U. S. senator; Robert C. Kirkwood, controller; Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state. Took no action on California attorney general. Delayed action on Charles G. Johnson, state treasurer.

L.A. NEGRO REPUBLICANS, as usual, missed the boat by not having representation at the State Assembly meet. Congressional districts like the 26th, 15th, 18th, 17th where most California Negroes live, were represented by Caucasians.

The State Assembly is the place where Republican decisions for the State of California are made. The executive committee meeting held last weekend is often referred to as the smoke-filled room. One hundred sixty-eight delegates registered. Approximately 200 people attend each session.

NEGRO REPRESENTATION from L.A. could have and should have been present. People like Betty Hill, Faye Jackson, Leon Giles, Lewis Cole, not to name many others, were not on hand.

One Negro did attend, John Adams, Jr., of Berkeley. Addressed the meeting Saturday on the subject "Building Membership and Maintaining Interest in Assembly Work."

COMMITTEE might be sorry. The fact-finding committee, whose recommendations are tantamount to election when Republicans win, might be very sorry over the kicking around given Judge Frederick M. Houser. Houser only received nine of the 34 committee votes cast.

This is bound to set off a fight in Southern California Republican circles. Might even cause Republicans to lose the State.

Harold J. Powers, presently serving as lieutenant governor, and Houser announced they are in the race to stay.

Promotional staff Jeanne Turner, Kerry Jackson, friend Libby Clark and your columnist had nice trip. Met Bakersfield's city Negro councilman, Reverend Collins.

SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT RIGHT. Spotlight predicted the announcement of Sam Yorty for U. S. Senate, Jimmy Roosevelt for Congress in the 26th, and Ethel Bryant for Assembly 62nd.

MIKE FANNING — Lots of friends, moneyed politicians, and opponents of Jimmy Roosevelt are urging Mike to file on the 26th. Mike is one of the smartest political minds in this neck of the woods. Will do the right as well as the smart thing.

Ethel Byrant has been elected recording secretary of the 26th Congressional Democratic council; Rosalind Weiner, City Councilwoman, is president.

Helen Crozier Greenwood reports: "Governor Goodwin Knight states he cannot let Wells go free, but that he will not allow Wells to die." Walter Gordon will withdraw from the 62nd Assembly District race and support the Republican-endorsed candidate, Marque Neal, against Assemblyman Gus Hawkins, who will announce his decision to run for re-election soon.

Forum held Tuesday, 8 p.m., Golden State Auditorium, drew a large crowd. Lively audience participation. Attorneys dominated discussion. Charles Fielding and Vinee Monroe Townsend directed sharp questions to their brother attorneys, Rayfield Lundy and Walter Gordon, who represented the Republican party position. The Republican team came out second best against the sharp political knowledge of Jimmy Roosevelt, Democratic party advocate. Dr. Vada Summerville, corresponding secretary of the Democratic Women's Forum, was one of the group of one hundred Democratic women leaders of Southern California who heard Richard B. Graves, Democratic candidate for governor, at luncheon Tuesday noon at the Biltmore Hotel.

A handsome souvenir brochure, listing in pictures and story the development of the Pacific States Association of Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, will be distributed at the 24th annual convention of the association at Sacramento in June and later at the Grand Lodge in Chicago.

James M. Stewart, president of the association and grand organizer of the Western region of the order, authorized the brochure which will list Who's Who in Far Western Elkdom. Data and photos of brothers and daughters are being now collected and assembled for publication.

SAN FRANCISCO — The Regional Advisory committee of the NAACP will meet here Saturday, February 20, at the Fairmont Hotel, to hear the annual report of the secretary-counsel and area presidents.

Democrats To Hold Banquet Honoring FDR

New Deal and Fair Deal Democrats are honoring the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt on the date of his birthday, Jan. 30, at a dinner at the Mona Lisa restaurant, according to John Opie, chairman.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Hugh Tiner, president of Pepperdine College. Co-chairmen for the dinner are Gordon Jeffers and Sibyl Chalmers.

Proceeds of the affair will be contributed to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, one of Roosevelt's favorite charities.

In addition to the speakers, tape-recordings will be heard from Sen. Estes Kefauver (Tenn.), Sen. Hubert Humphrey (Minn.), and Sen. A. S (Mike) Monroney (Okla.).

Among the Democratic leaders who will be present are Mayor Laurence Cross of Berkeley, former Attorney General of Colorado Leslie E. Hubbard, A P. Entenza, member State Athletic Commission, and Mrs. Clara Sherpser of Berkeley.

Jimmy Seeks Congress Seat

James Roosevelt, Democrat, this week announced his candidacy for Congress in the 26th Congressional District.

Roosevelt's announcement was made simultaneously with the release of news that Sam Yorty, presently congressman from the 26th, would run for the United States Senate.

In making his announcement, the eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, said:

"During the past few weeks, people from all walks of life in the 26th Congressional District have been urging me to run for Congress. Because I feel my background and my political beliefs qualify me to serve the people of the 26th District in Congress, I have decided to submit my candidacy to the people.

"I will campaign on the basis of the liberal Democratic philosophy which I have supported all my adult life, and if elected to Congress from the 26th, will do my utmost to put that philosophy into effect.

"There are few Congressional Districts in the nation which are so truly representative of America as the 26th, and if elected, I will be proud to work for the people of the 26th in Congress. Their problems are America's problems; their interests are those of the whole nation."

Career Ranges From Miner To Accountant

An interesting and varied life which has run the gamut from coal miner to accountant was amusingly recalled by Bertrand B. Bratton on Saturday evening when he appeared as "guest personality of the week" on William L. Luke's "Man of Color."

Bratton who has a number of 'firsts' in his long and varied career currently operates a lucrative accounting business at 3011 So. Western Avenue.

His record, a tenure of twelve years of service with the State Board of Equalization is legend. Progressing through the ranks Bratton was a key figure in the Department when he retired in 1944 from his post as Supervising Auditor for the Alcoholic Beverages Tax Unit.

Politics—he ran for Congress in 1944 and for City Council in 1946; civic office—chairman of the Rationing Board—besides affiliation with organizations allied with his chosen field of endeavor; the YMCA, Urban League, Elks, Masons and other worthwhile projects round out Bratton's experiences, contributions and achievements since he took up residence in Los Angeles.

The first Negro CPA in the south—he was awarded his certificate in New Orleans in January, 1925—Bratton recalled with some degree of humor incidents leading to this accomplishment.

"Being a Negro proved an asset. When I went to take the examinations my presence somewhat confused the Board of Accountancy Examiners. I was escorted to a table in the cloakroom so as not to contaminate my fellow-examinees—all of whom were white! I failed one section of the first examination and was invited by one of the local professors to take his coaching course at a cost of $7.00 per lesson. He explained to me that he was coaching several white boys and he could not take me on the evenings when they were there, but if I would come the following evenings I could help him go over their papers and he could coach me privately while analyzing their work.

Native of Bluefield, West Virginia, Bratton is one of five children of the now deceased Isaac Houston and Alverta Ann Carroll Bratton.

He is married to Angelique D. Bratton, member of a pioneer California family who is currently employed as a legal stenographer in the Department of Labor.

Woman Killed Crossing Street

At shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday, in a heavy downpour, Mrs. Fannie Hurt, 50, of 2626 S. Manhattan place, was struck by an auto as she attempted to cross Glendale blvd. at Duane street.

Mrs. Hurt was knocked to the ground, pinned under the wheels of the car, and badly crushed. She was dead when the ambulance arrived.

Driver of the car was Carl F. Rhode, 4081 Veselick avenue. Mrs. Hurt was in the crosswalk when she was hit.

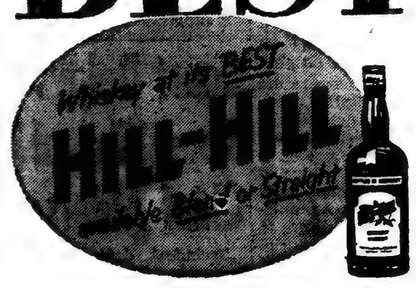
Consolidated Realty Holds Installation

The Consolidated Realty Board's annual installation banquet and dance will be held Friday evening in the International Room of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. Dignitaries of the city and state will join with brokers and guests in paying tribute to the Board's selection of officers and their slogan for 1954 — "Greater Service for a Greater Los Angeles."



Mayor Norris L. Poulson will be guest speaker. Judge John F. Aiso will install the 1954 officers of the organization, and Floyd C. Covington, racial relations advisor to the Federal Housing Administration, will act as toastmaster. Arthur Lee Simpkins will be guest artist.

Five hundred guests are expected to attend. A cocktail hour will precede the dinner period and an informal dance will follow. The "Jeepsters" will furnish the music.

The Consolidated Realty Board was founded in 1950 to unite brokers and salespersons in meeting problems incident to a booming business which subjected seller and buyer alike to unethical practices. Another primary purpose was to exercise the influence and aid of an organized group in the broad field of community service.

Licensed dogs outnumbered unlicensed dogs four to one in the development of rabies last year, according to the City Health Department.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. says...

FOR more than thirty years we have used research day in and day out learning about tobaccos and cigarettes in the public's interest.

Continuously we and our consultants have analyzed, experimented with and smoked all kinds of tobaccos... especially Southern Bright, Burley, Maryland and Turkish cigarette tobaccos.

Our own cigarettes and competitive brands have been submitted to the most exacting scientific scrutiny including thousands of analyses of millions of pounds of tobaccos.

From all these thousands of analyses, and other findings reported in the leading technical journals, our Research Department has found no reason to believe that the isolation and elimination of any element native to cigarette tobaccos today would improve smoking.

For four years we have maintained in the smoker's interest an intensified larger scale diversified research program. A half-million dollar 30-ton machine, the world's most powerful source of high voltage electrons, designed solely for our use has tested tens of thousands of cigarettes. This program has already given to us direct and significant information of benefit to the smoking public.

Our consultants include Arthur D. Little, Inc. of Cambridge, Massachusetts, "one of the largest and most reputable industrial research organizations in the country" (From Business Week Magazine) and eminent scientists from leading universities.

Today the public can confidently choose from a variety of brands—by far the best cigarettes ever made by the tobacco industry.

California Eagle

Published Every Thursday

The Eagle stands for complete integration of Negroes into every phase of American life through the democratic processes.

We favor:

1. FEPC on local, state and national levels.
2. Decent housing for all Americans.
3. Representation in Government.
4. Adequate old age pensions and social security.
5. Collective bargaining rights for all workmen.
6. Development and encouragement of Negro business.

We oppose:

1. Jim Crow in all forms.
2. Communists and all other enemies of democracy.

The Good Housing Goal

President Eisenhower's announced goal of "good housing in good neighborhoods" for all Americans is one that will appeal to all of us. Whether the program he announced will achieve that goal is another matter.

The proposals put emphasis on private building but it is significant that the president asked Congress to up the present public housing program from twenty thousand units to thirty-five thousand units per year. The probabilities are that even his increased figure is too low for the realities of the situation.

The president was certainly on sound ground when he "frankly and honestly acknowledged that many members of minority groups, regardless of their income or their economic status, have had the least opportunity to acquire good homes."

After acknowledging the difficulties that have beset members of minority groups the president promised that "the administrative policies governing the operation of the several housing agencies must be, and they will be, materially strengthened and augmented in order to assure equal opportunity for all our citizens to acquire, within their means, good and well located homes."

We hope that the president understands that racial segregation will have to be abandoned in all public housing, that he proposes to change FHA rules and regulations to provide that no borrower can get FHA guarantees for his loans unless he covenants with the administrative agency that he will not refuse to sell or rent the housing so constructed to any American on the grounds of race, color or place of national origin.

We are convinced that the presidential hopes for relief for minorities will not, indeed can not be, realized unless that program contemplates throwing the weight of federal power against all racial segregation in public housing and in housing aided by government subsidy.

It is, of course, possible to build a limited number of better homes for Negroes in segregated neighborhoods but such a program is only a palliative that won't cure the disease. The underlying reason for the bad housing of minority groups, condemned by the president, is the long persistence of racial residential segregation.

That segregation was aided by the courts which, illegally, enforced race restrictive covenants for thirty years; by FHA which required the insertion of such covenants by all builders for the first decade of its existence; and by builders, subdividers and financial institutions who are still working hand in glove to confine Negroes to defined areas of all of our great cities.

The federal government has neither the right nor the duty to lend its credit to builders and developers through guaranteeing their loans unless they agree to make all such homes available to all Americans on the basis of qualifications and without reference to race. It goes without saying that racial segregation has no place in public housing built with public funds.

Our YMCA Deserves Credit

This is YMCA Week and it offers us an opportunity to remind everybody of what everybody knows about the good job that is being done by our Twenty Eighth Street YMCA.

Institutions like the YMCA don't make "news" in an age when newspapers count it essential to present the more sensational aspects of what's happening. We're just as guilty as our contemporaries of letting days and weeks and months go by without saying a good word for those who do the hard day to day work of training our youngsters.

Kenneth Morris, secretary of the Twenty Eighth Street YMCA, stepped into a tough job when he took over his duties. Through nobody's fault the building as well as the YM program were badly in need of overhauling and modernizing. Mr. Morris has done just that.

There is no way to tell how many lads have been interested in healthy programs and kept out of trouble and out of the juvenile court by what the YMCA has done in the past year, or how many will be kept out of similar predicaments by what it does in the coming year. We do know that the number is considerable and that these youngsters will repay many times over in good citizenship whatever it cost to train and develop them.

The best way to thank the YMCA for what it has done—and we're sure what it would like by way of thanks—is for all of us to take the time to find out what we can do to help it continue and enlarge its program. And, of course, after we've found out what should be done each of us should do what he can do to help it do the job the YMCA wants to do and for which it was founded.

So Much for So Little

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People took in the small sum of $391,341 last year and spent $368,425, leaving a balance of $22,916.

On the basis of a Negro population of fifteen million, the income figures out as an average contribution of 2½ cents for each man, woman and child. Assuming that one-third of us—five million—are adults, the NAACP income would show that each Negro pitched in and gave about seven cents last year.

Those figures are faulty because some of the money, a substantial amount, came from white persons. The harsh truth is that adult Negroes gave less than five cents each, on an average, so that the NAACP could wage its fight for our civil rights and civil liberties.

People who are really concerned about the second-class citizenship of which they complain should be ashamed of the pitiful income on which the NAACP is forced to exist. No group ever got so much for so little as the average Negro gets from the NAACP.

They Chose Slavery

The three Negro prisoners of war who have chosen to remain with the Reds instead of returning to their own country have made a mighty poor choice.

They seek to excuse their action on the ground that they have known prejudice and discrimination here at home. That is true; every Negro has had the same experience. What these GIs don't say is that at least they were free men here at home with every right to try to correct the conditions about which they complain. They don't say either that there have been tremendous changes in the past few years with every indication that there will be more and that, in fact, we're at the threshold of wiping out racial distinctions and discriminations in Amerca.

These GIs will live to learn that there are no civil rights or civil liberties behind the Iron Curtain of Communism. They have lost the priceless right of freedom of speech and belief and press. They may not know it yet, but they have chosen slavery instead of freedom, a species of slavery against which they can neither protest nor hope to escape.

Your FEP Bill Is In Your Pocketbook

SAN FRANCISCO — A solution to Fair Employment Practices is found in your pocketbook or wallet.

While we are confounding the failure of the various legislative bodies to enact equal job opportunity statutes and ordinances, we might look to a method used most effectively in other parts of the country. It is simply: "Don't spend your money where you can't work!"

Los Angeles, as a case in point, has hundreds of department stores where Negroes, if they are employed at all, are engaged 99 and 44 100 per cent of the time as janitors, maids, or in the "behind-the-scene" categories as stockroom personnel, package wrappers, etc. "Out front," as you have noticed, Negroes and other minorities are made conspicuous by their absence.

Lester Bailey

What would happen, for instance, if Negro customers, and all others who believe in equality of opportunity for less practical reasons, were to cease buying of a sudden and simultaneously notify the management of "X" department store when tendering the remaining monthly installments that: "My account is no longer active with your concern and will be terminated with the final payment unless a policy of fair employment practices is forthwith adopted?"

Magic

Exactly this: All of the "problems," "trouble" and other allegedly insurmountable difficulties would disappear overnight! Negro sales personnel, clerks, etc., would appear as if by magic.

Of course such a project must be organized, initially, to succeed. The NAACP, along with other community organizations, might well spearhead the movement. A survey could be conducted to determine the worst offenders or offender.

The Negro press, starved out of the advertisement field by the offending concerns, is sensitive to this problem and ready to do battle. Fraternal, civic and labor organizations could be called upon to "educate" their membership and mobilize them for the effort.

In the churches we would, no doubt, find our greatest ally. The ministers, from their pulpits, could, as if by the stroke of one hand, effect a complete boycott of a given business establishment or industrial concern where Negroes wield sufficient economic influence.

Margin of Profit

The Negro minority, alone, is estimated (as of 1950) to be a 15 billion dollar consumer group! In greater Los Angeles, based on these figures, Negroes spend annually nearly four million dollars. Direct or withhold any fraction of this amount from the annual commodity market and drastic reflections will result.

In many areas, such as the beverage industry, the Negro consumer represents the "margin of profit." His dollar is counted, and counted upon for the survival of many an enterprise.

Unlike the social, economic and political inequities visited upon our largest minority, the Negro's money is legal tender to all and is made to bear no such stigma.

Almost as briefly as this subject is dealt with in this column, can a kind of FEP be brought about in these times of serious employment layoffs and cut backs.

Because the dollar, and not the Play, is The Thing!

'Freedom of Choice'

The most dangerous enemies of interracial progress in these United States are not necessarily the profesionally hysterical Negrophobes. A Gerald L. K. Smith may draw the crowds in St. Louis or Detroit and still not sell his race-hating ideas.

Far more successful, and therefore far more dangerous, are the modern psychologists in salesmanship who mask their anti-Negro objectives under a cover of apparent "sweet reasonableness." They are the ones who get results.

An example is the new organization which voters of Arizona are being asked to buy, Freedom of Choice. This "rehash of Ku Klux Klan philosophy" as the "Arizona Republic" of Phoenix calls the movement, is headed by a bland, suave and clever operator—67-year-old Aldrich Blake, of Laguna Beach, California.

Lester Granger

Brother Blake has been a real estate owner, a writer and a public relations man. Now he's finding greener pastures in a skillful, high-pressure exploitation of racial prejudices.

Same Old Plan

Arizona isn't Blake's first operational area. Several years ago, with the support of State Senator Jack B. Tenney, he offered California voters the same plan, under the name of America Plus.

As previously reported in this column, America Plus very quickly got nowhere at all. It failed to get enough petitioners for it to be considered as a constitutional amendment; in spite of the Tenney backing; it failed to get out of committee as a regular bill. So Brother Blake moved on to Arizona to try his luck there.

Freedom of Choice or America Plus is a simple little plan, on the face of it. It proposes to "guarantee business men, property owners, and employers the right to choose their own guests, patrons, tenants, and employees where such intimate human relationships as eating, drinking, and living together are involved."

Not Home Grown

Seems "reasonable," doesn't it? That is, to a semi-conscious kind of voter who never looks below the surface of his or another's prejudices. But in its apparent "reasonableness" lies the danger. Where it lacks the more obvious characteristics of the Ku Klux Klan, the subtleness of Blake's approach could easily take in some incautious individuals, as well as those most gullible.

Luckily, Phoenix boasts some deep-thinking, far-sighted citizens and 11 of these combined to attack Brother Blake with the following statement:

"This is obviously not a home-grown Arizona movement, but one which is being imported by non-residents in an attempt to foist an alien concept of racial hatred on Arizona citizens.

On Guard

"Moreover, it comes at a time when Arizona, without help from the outside, is making slow, steady progress in interracial and inter-group understanding. This progress is attested by the voluntary desegregation of schools in Phoenix and Tucson and the expanding opportunities in employment and public accommodations for members of minority groups."

The story ends quite happily—for Phoenix at least. For they have nipped this movement in the bud and may very well gain from having had Mr. Blake in their midst. For it is reasonable to assume that these same thoughtful citizens and others who will agree with them as time goes on, will now push for the strong civil rights legislation which Phoenix has long needed. It is now up to other cities to look out for the Blakes and others like him, who will sneak in under the guise of some "reasonable" approach to good race relations.

One Man's Opinion

New Marks for Negro History Week

Yes, new marks are being set by the committee in charge of Negro History Week and a view of the program leaves not a shadow of a doubt that they will succeed if given community support by you and your friends.

Every night of the week Feb. 7-14 is well worth attending but there are at least three big occasions which just must not be overlooked. We refer to Dr. Charles H. Wesley's address, "A New Freedom," which will open the festivities of the week at Bovard Auditorium on U.S.C. campus. Folowing the address a reception for the speaker will be held at the U.S.C. YWCA.

Leon Steward

The second big event will be the week's exhibit of the work of Negro artists at the Los Angeles Art Institute, 2401 Wilshire blvd. Art for this occasion has not only been submitted by local and Bay area artists, but also from such far off places as New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Chicago and other Eastern centers. This truly merits your visiting at some time during the week.

Youth Night

And believe it or not, our third big event to recommend during the Negro History activities is Youth Night at Polytechnic High School on Wednesday night of the week. At that time we shall hear an oratorical contest between high school and college youths.

Each will have dug out the dope on some Negro's achievements and will present it uncoached in critical phrases. Since our schools plan no emphasis on this aspect of history, we do hope that this well send dozens to dig it out for themselves. Their own racial self respect is involved. They indeed are our hope.

Other Important Programs

On Tuesday night the Los Angeles Musical Alliance will present the "Musical Achievements of Negroes." This will consist not only of Paul Johnson's chorus rendering an 18th Century Mass, but will also show off our best singers rendering compositions by Negro people and some sketches of their lives. This should not be difficult to listen to at all.

Thursday is Business and Professions Night at the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Co. building. Here one may see the accomplishments of Negro business and behold the work prepared by our professionals. Both should be of serious interest.

'New Day'

The "Dawn of a New Day," a pageant under the direction of the indomitable Mrs. A. C. Bilbrew, at Independent Church of Christ, will be the Friday night feature and promises to be quite a feature at that. More about it later.

The week will be brought to a close by an "All States Tea" at the Elks auditorium on Central avenue. On this occasion graduates and undergraduates from the various states will describe the achievements of some one from their home state. There will be other features on the program as well.

Dr. Charles H. Wesley

Dr. Charles H. Wesley is not only president of the National Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, but is also the well-liked president of Central States College at Wilberforce, Ohio. Be sure to hear him Sunday afternoon, Feb. 7, at Bovard auditorium of USC.

You will surely benefit from attending any and all of these programs in the interest of learning more about Negroes who have been achieving recognition since long before the Civil War made them politically free.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Pursuant to our telephone conversatfon of Jan. 22, 1954, relative to an article which appeared in the California Eagle on Jan. 14, concerning department store hiring, this communication is an attempt to clarify certain misunderstandings.

It is a policy of the Urban League to provide information when requested by members of the press relative to its projects or activities.

Our office in a telephone conversation provided information requested by you concerning our activities with department stores in the Los Angeles area.

I hope this clarifies both the position of the Eagle and the Urban League in this matter.

Wesley R. Brazier,
Executive Director

Dear Sir:

I take this means to let the public know just who organized and founded the Wilfandel Club. It was in the Eagle a few weeks ago that Mrs. Della Williams was founder and co-founder was Mrs. Fannie Williams. That is not true. Mrs. Fannie Williams organized and founded the Wilfandel Club on November 4, 1945, at her home on 1749 S. New Hampshire street. I called a group of ladies together and organized and founded the Wilfandel Club, and when I asked the members to bring in a name for the club, one was picked by one of the members, who explained her reason for picking the name "Wilfandel" because I was the founder and Della Williams was first president thus joining the two names. I have worked very hard to help pay for the club house and I feel that the public should know the truth—that I, Fannie Williams, am the founder.

Song-Sermon Program Set For Sunday

The Women's Missionary Society of South Main Institutional Baptist Church, 6524 So. Main St., will present Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Flynn of Pasadena in an hour of sermon and song Sunday, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Flynn, a singer and pianist of note, will render vocal and instrumental numbers, supported by other guest musicians. Rev. Flynn will deliver a special message on missions, past and present.

Rev. L. D. Revoal is pastor of the church and Mrs. Lora Taylor is acting president of the women's missionary work. The mission-minded, as well as those who love music, are urged to attend.

Church Plans To Incorporate

Just a scant three months after the Rev. Dr. Clayton D. Russell announced the taking over of auditorium space in the Forum Building at Pico and Morton Ave. as a place of worship, the membership, which has increased to 500, has authorized the Church of Divine Guidance to be incorporated.

In addition to the authorization of incorporation, the body also set a goal of $50,000 to be raised by July 1. The money raised will be used towards the purchase of a permanent home for the church and congregation. Mrs. Gertrude Hicks, well known club and civic worker, will coordinate the drive.

Among the incorporators were listed, Attorney Zenophone Loneg, Dr. Edward Bailey, Mesdames Grace Fegan, Blanche Strickland, Noreen Forney, Charity White and Messrs. Bernard Herndon, George Crawford, Celestus A. King, Sr., and others. Mrs. Mary Duncan is church secretary, and Mrs. Elmira Long is treasurer.

Installs Officers

SANTA CRUZ — At a special meeting of the Santa Cruz branch of the NAACP last Friday night at Trinity Presbyterian church, Franklin H. Williams, regional secretary-counsel, installed the new officers for 1954. Williams spoke to a capacity audience on "The West—a Human Rights Frontier."

New officers include: Mrs. Eva Jane Bowen, president, and Mrs. Harriet Harrison, secretary.

Hamilton Dedicates Parsonage

A consecration ceremony and open house will be held Sunday at 2000 Buckingham road when the Hamilton Methodist church dedicates its new parsonage at that address. Hours are from 4 to 7 p.m. and the public is invited.

Mrs. Mary Grimes will serve as mistress of ceremonies and consecration ceremonies will be handled by Bishop James C. Baker and Dr. George Warmer, district superintendent of the Methodist church. There will be musical selections by Mrs. Dorothy Vincent, John L. Johnson, Mrs. Nancy Scruggs and other artists.

The pastoral family and church officers will welcome guests at the Sunday ceremonies and Thadeaus Hobbes, lay leader in the church, will issue the official welcome. The Rev. John N. Doggett, Jr., pastor of the church, will respond. Mrs. Claribel Ashcraft is chairman of the parsonage committee.

The deadline for filing applications for Policeman for the City of Los Angeles has been extended to Feb. 1, acocrding to Joseph W. Hawthorne, general manager of the Civil Service Department.

J. E. MITCHELL

J. E. Mitchell Honored By Lincoln Univ.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—The founding of Lincoln University 88 years ago was fittingly observed here Sunday.

In addition to the rededication exercises, the campus structure in which the School of Journalism has operated for the past 12 years was officially dedicated and named for the late editor-publisher, Joseph Everett Mitchell, St. Louis.

The citation to Mitchell, read at the ceremonies, states: "Because of his affections for and his work in behalf of the university, the Board of Curators names and dedicates in honor of the late Joseph Everett Mitchell the building in which is taught the virtues and means of reporting and disseminating useful information for the edification of the people."

Zone Change Is Protested

Beach avenue and Honduras street, and 46th street and 48th place, former site of an emergency war housing project.

Sought Zoning Changes

The property was leased in 1940, but in November, 1953, reverted to its owners, members of the Yankee family. Shortly thereafter the temporary buildings were torn down, and the owners sought a zoning change to enable them to erect a factory on the spot.

Adjacent to this property is one of the oldest sections of Negro-owned property in Los Angeles. Many of the residents have lived in their present homes for as long as 25 and 30 years.

There is no playground in the area, and many children have no place to romp except in the streets.

Sign Petition

When the re-zoning petition was heard about, home-owners joined together in the East of Central Improvement association, under the leadership of Dial, president of the NAACP Southern Area Council. Some 350 residents have already signed a petition to prevent the change.

At a meeting Sunday, the group decided to fight the proposal, through the courts if necessary. In the event that the re-zoning is granted, they plan to appeal first to the City Council, and, if they fail to win there, to resort to a legal suit.

ROSE BOWL SERVICES

A committee of 100 laymen on 23 committees, and assisted by scores of additional workers from Southland churches of many denominations, have started plans for the sixth annual Rose Bowl Easter Sunrise Service.

City Mission Holds Service

The City Wide Missions is now holding regular services at 7801 So. Main Street. The Bible School is held each Lord's Day at 10 a.m. There are classes for all ages with efficient instructors. The morning worship begins promptly at 11 a.m. The Musical Department is growing very rapidly under the very able direction of Mrs. Marjorie Tucker, minister of music; Mrs. Gladys Irvin, directress; Mrs. Isabella Martin, President of Chorus; and Miss Geraldine Freeman, pianist.

Sunday, the pulpit will be graced with the presence of Dean Ellie H. Matthews, head of the School of Christ, who will bring the morning message.

The Mission Training Union under the able direction of Rev. Mr. R. D. Kelson, at 6 p.m. is a rare opportunity for workers to become real soul-winners, in this complex and complicated social order. Brother Kelson comes to us as a student doing graduate work at U.C.L.A. with a wealth of information in the field of Missions.

A big outstanding talent program at 7 p.m. will close the day.

Clubs Pledge Support for OLHA Project

Fifty-three representatives from Womens clubs, local and national organizations met with officials of the Outdoor Health and Life Association Sunday to hear President Leonard Stovall tell of plans for future development of a sanatorium that will include facilities for cancer, heart, and other chronically ill patients. So successful was the breakfast the group decided to elect officers and choose a temporary name. They called themselves the "United Breakfast Club," and the following officers were elected: Miss Bessie Barron R. N., President; Mrs. Gwennie Odem, First Vice President; Mrs. Mary Coleman Jackson, Second Vice President; Mrs. Blanche Patterson, Treasurer; Mrs. Priscilla Jackson, Secretary and Mrs. Ruth L. Fisher, Assisting Secretary.

The clubs and organizations taking part in these monthly breakfast meetings will receive first-hand information concerning fund-raising campaigns in which they will participate. They will also be informed about the progress and development of the sanatorium and its financial needs.

Vespers Draw Large Crowds

The Sunday Evening Vesper Service for Edmonds Gospel Temple, at 231 E. 53rd St. is well attended each Sunday. Many are finding solace and comfort for heir physical and spiritual needs in these services.

A spirit filled message is delivered by the Evangelist and pastor, The Rev. Anita L. Edmonds, at each service. Outstand ministers and gospel singers of the city add to the growth of the service. Sunday Rev. Edmonds will speak from the subject "What Time Is It?" Phillips Chapel C. M. E. Church of South Los Angeles will be guests on Feb. 7. Prayer and Bible study for the travelling prayer band of the church will be conducted at 1558 E. 25th street Thursday, 8:00 p.m. The public is invited.

Health Commission Meets Here Thursday

The Board of Health Commissioners, Los Angeles City Health Department, will hold their regular meeting at the Southeast District Health Center, 4920 Avalon Blvd., on Thursday, Feb. 4, at 10:00 a.m., Dr. Pauline O. Robests, Southeast District Health Officer, announced today.

"The Board meets in the various Health Department district health centers," she said, adding that during the meeting the group will discuss local community health problems and programs. "Board meetings are open to the public," Dr. Roberts concluded.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—Representatives of 25 colleges and universities are expected to be present at the National Conference of Teachers of Art in Negro Colleges, which will be held at Lincoln University on April 29, 30 and May 1.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 7, Dr. J. L. Caston, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, and president of the Western Baptist State Convention, will preach. At 3 p.m. the service will be in the hands of Paradise Baptist Church with Dr. A. J. Iverson in charge.

Zion Church Pays Honor to Educator

MEMPHIS—The Board of Bishops and 800 ministers and laymen from all parts of the country of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in observing the centenary of the birth of Dr. Joseph Charles Price, founder and president of Livingstone College, closed a successful session here last week with the dedication of the new Warner Temple A.M.E. Zion Church on Sunday with Bishop William J. Walsl of Chicago, delivering the dedication sermon and Mayor Frank Tobey, giving the welcome for the city of Memphis.

History Week Aid Pledged By Ministers

Upon Invitation of Our Authors' Study Club, presented by Kenneth A. Morris, chairman of the Interdenominational Ministerial and Church Alliance will co-operate in the annual observance of Negro History Week at the Golden State auditorium from February 7-14. To arrange for the participation of the Alliance, the Rev. G. A. Hayes, president, appointed an over-ll committee of Revs. Jesse Glover, E. W. Rakestraw, M. Frederick Mitchell, A. Wendell Ross, S. H. Marion, J. B. Carter and L. D. Revoal.

The committee is charged with the responsibility of providing a booth in which the churches-at-large of the area may display books, msicellaneous products and literature of their respective denominations. It is expected that the churches will give information regarding the Negro church's contribution toward Negro, national and world progress. A sub-committee, headed by Rev. Rakestraw, will handle and arrange for specific exhibits, according to the Secretary, Rev. L. D. Revoal.

Baby Contest To Close Next Sunday

The Lincoln-Washington Club, the February Group of the Avalon Christian Church, is sponsoring a Baby Contest which will end Sunday, at 3:30 p.m. A special program will be presented by the Hightower Orchestra, under direction of Mrs. Alma Hightower. These musicians are outstanding child artists of the city.

Lloyd LaBeach Enters Australia Meet Feb. 5

Lloyd LaBeach, world's record holder for the 100 meter run and at one-time the world's fastest human, will enter the Australia professional meet. He will leave here February 5. Also entered in the big meet is Mel Patton, holder of the world record for the hundred yard dash set in 1948 at the Fresno Relays in which both LaBeach and Patton was clocked at 9.3.

Judges awarded the record to Patton who finished a shade in front of the Panama flyer. Since LaBeach's days he has worked as a salesman for the McKesson and Robbins Wholesale Distributing Company. During his off hours you can catch him on the oval of La Cienega Playground keeping himself in shape.

LaBeach was clocked in 9.7 for the 100 yards dash last week and according to the runners, as far as he knows he's in top running shape but confesses that he felt a little weak after churning the 220 yard run.

The Australia meet will draw national interest as Patton and LaBeach who are arch rivals have completed seven times with LaBeach copping the nod in four meets and Patton three with one being the world record of 9.3 flat. The sprinters will enter three meets at Australia that will cover a distance of 180 yards. Herb McKenley will also enter the meet as well as the cream of Australia runners.

Campanella Signs Pact For $32,000

Roy Campanella who was voted most valuable player in the National League for the second time in three years signed his 1954 contract for a reported $32,000, a big increase over his 1953 paycheck.

Campanella, batted .342, and set a new record for catchers with 142 runs batted in and 41 home runs. The stocky backstop recently underwent a minor operation. It didn't take Campanella and the Dodger office long to reach an agreement. The brilliant catcher who had one of his most sensational seasons with the Bums will be honored Sunday at the New York baseball writers' banquet as Player of the Year. Last Sunday he accepted a B'nai B'rith award, presented by Warren Giles, National League president.

Tom Alston Called Top Fielding First Baseman

Lefty O'Doul, manager of the San Diego Padres, thinks Tom Alston, the 23-year-old first baseman who was acquired from his club by the St. Louis Cardinals for cash in excess of $100,000 and four players, is the greatest fielding first baseman in baseball.

Not Married

The 23-year-old Alston was born in Greensboro, North Carolina, is 6'5" and has a B.S. degree in Physical Education and Social Sciences. He served 23 months in the U.S. Navy from 1945-47 and is not married. His father lives at Greensboro. Alston has four brothers and two sisters.

His baseball record includes three years of college ball where he posted a batting record of .411 in the last season. In 1951, on graduation from college, he joined the Jacksonville, Florida, Eagles, an all-Negro team barnstorming in Canada. In 1952 he played with the Porterville, Calif., Padres, in the South West International League Class C.

His manager was Chet Brewer, former great pitcher who has coached or played with all the great Negro stars now in the majors.

During the latter half of 1952 season, he played for San Diego Padres, after being signed by Bill Starr, Padre's president.

Glad of Chance

Alston has played only two full years of organized baseball, Class C, one-half season, and season and a half open classification. Alston stated, "I'm really excited about the chance to play with the Cardinals. I hate to leave the Padres because Mr. Starr, Mr. Gross, and Mr. O'Doul have been wonderful to me. The fans and the press have made me feel at home. I intend to give Mr. Busch, Mr. Meyer and Mr. Stanky, and the St. Louis fans everything I have!"

For more than five weeks the St. Louis Cardinals have been negotiating with the Padres for Alston and finally closed the deal late Tuesday night.

Alston is a southpaw swinger who batted .297, hit 23 homers and drove in 101 runs for San Diego last season.

DON GRANT

Olympic Auditorium Presents Promising Young Fighters

By Edward "Abie" Robinson

The Olympic Auditorium, the west coast's largest boxing arena and famous for great boxing matches is still keeping Los Angeles boxing on the map at a time when TV boxing has done an excellent job in keeping the fans home.

The Olympic still swings in the largest nightly boxing crowds and every California boxer's burning ambition is to make the Olympic's 10-round feature, when they do they feel certain that they are well on their way up the fistic ladder to fame and fortune. Such greats as: Peter Jackson, Dynamite Jackson, Gorilla Jones, Henry Armstrong, John Thomas, Bax Baer, Maxie Rosenbloom, Baby Arizamendi, Ceferino Garcia, Pedro Montez and Manuel Ortiz have fought there.

Inspire Boxer

Boxing fans in Southern California who attend the Tuesday night boxing shows help inspire a boxer today to do the same great things as the boxers of old. The preliminary boys aren't averaging what the national defense plants are paying but that's where you will find the wealth of California boxing material. During the 1954 boxing season the Olympic is offering some of the most promising boxing prospects and with the necessary backing and support some of them may go on to win world's boxing titles.

Good 175 Pounds

Don Grant, 20-year-old middleweight is the ball-of-fire among the young 175 pounders. He's racked up twelve straight victories since turning professional. Grant amassed an amazing record in a short period because of his natural boxing talents. He scored a 10-round decision over rugged Esau Ferdinand, ex-ruler of the state's middleweight title. Grant did the job so expertly that few realized he was just making his second showing as a 10-round boxer. The kid with limited experience combines natural talents with punching power to make him one of the most promising fighters in his division. He is managed and trained by the veteran Duke Hollyway who claims Grant is a comer because he learns fast and thinks wisely, plus taking his boxing seriously.

Lightweight

Loudie Lightburn, 20-year-old lightweight boxer from Belize, British Hondouras, and late of New York City, is the thrill fighter, having scored five knockouts in seven bouts and is rated as the cream of the newcomers. He's been fighting four years and possesses speed, skill and punching power in both mitts. His manager, Joe Stanley, thinks his boy should make the big time with his crowd-pleasing attack and his willingness to learn. He too is trained by Duke Hollyway who was a big factor in the rise of great coast lightweight boxers.

Cisco Andrade, busy little Latin belter, is perhaps the most promising of all the California lightweights. In 18 bouts he is undefeated and the only mark on his clear record is a home town draw with Freddy Babe Herman in Sacramento. He is managed by the cagey Ralph Gambina, who has piloted many good boxers to national ranking. Andrade started boxing for Gambina before joining Uncle Sam's Army and he continued while in the services. He was considered one of the best looking amateur boxers in these parts. He is a ring general and combines speed, physical fitness and ring savvy to give him plenty of edge over his opponents. His two-fisted attack give him unusual punching power in both hands. Andrade is a combination of both boxer and puncher. He is a real comer.

Classy Latin

Ramon Tiscareno, 21-year-old mild-mannered welterweight boxer, is one of the most popular fighters of the new crop. In ten professional bouts the Olympic fans went wild about his style. He is a terrific puncher, a serious student of his trade and one of the best liked boxers in and out of the ring.

Tiscareno is managed by Manuel Dros, a fellow who is capable of teaching a young fighter all the tricks of the trade. Tiscareno's ring record is 10 bouts with one defeat, and on February 9 he'll get one of his biggest tests when he faces Oscar Reyes. The fans like Tiscareno because he is one boxer who takes his boxing seriously and trains vigorously for each bout. His manager calls him a picture fighter and a manager's dream. Look for Tisceranó to go places in 1954.

Several other young fighters who should rate high up in the boxing circles are J. D. Carter, 130; Al Cruz, 120; Oscar Torres, 120; Dick Finley, 165; Petey Servin, Chu Chu Jimenez, 136, and Zora Folley.

Paige May Prove Big Box Office

Satchel Paige, veteran baseball pitcher, may be the answer to our Los Angeles Angels' attendance problem. Every baseball fan from San Diego to Long Beach, Seattle to San Francisco knows of Paige's baseball feats. He is idolized among the fans here. During the winter league baseball games the fans pack Wrigley field to get a glimpse of the lanky right hander. They no doubt will pack the stands to see him pitch regular games with the Angels. Bill Veeck, Phil Wrigley's go-between and the one who brought Paige into the majors in 1948 at Cleveland, will offer the veteran $20,000 to join the coast club.

Charles Sifford in Money at San Diego

Charles Sifford, ranking sepia golfer and one of the three participating in the rich San Diego open tourney last week, pocketed $150 of the prize money. Sifford carded 75-67-73-76 for a total of 291 giving a tie with five others who posted the same total. Ted Rhodes and Bill Spiller didn't finish in the money.

Xavier College Cagers Leads

Following very closely on the heels of a twin victory over LeMoyne College of Memphis, Tennessee, the Gold Rush quintet, under the direction of Coach James Hawkins, defeated Jackson College of Jackson, Mississippi by a score of 73-16. Dillard University 74-58, and Fort Valley 81-64. The Gold Rush now has an over all record of seven victories against one defeat. The lone defeat came at the hands of Southern University at the climax game of the holiday tournament. Their record in the S.I.A.C. stands at five victories and no defeats.

SANTA ANITA — Shipping in by air of the Greentree Stable's Straight Face from Florida completes an early line-up of nine sure starters and two or three others probable for the seventh running of the Santa Anita Maturity on Saturday. If the $2,000 entry and starting fee is paid on ten the gross value of the top-ranking fixture, exclusively for 4-year-olds, will be $162,400.

RAMSEY

The Santa Anita Derby (Feb. 20), Santa Anita Handicap (Feb. 27), and the San Juan Capistrano Handicap on the turf course (March 6), are other Santa Anita 'Hundred Granders' coming up.

The prospective field over the classic distance of a mile and a quarter follows: Straight Face, who will be the favorite; Joe Jine, By Zeus, Correspondent, Ali's Gem, Merryman, History Book, Golden Abbey, Apple Valley, Cerise Reine, Matinee Idol and Postillion are doubtful starters. The Los Angeles Turf Club expects a crowd of more than 50,000 to witness these four-year-olds, that have been kept eligible since they were yearlings, decide the issue.

The coming of such an established star as Straight Face in a chartered plane on Sunday has aroused wide-spread interest. It recalls the invasion of Calumet Farm's Armed by air for the 1947 Santa Anita Handicap which drew a record attendance of 85,500.

The setting of a new track record by Joe Jones, the first stake-winning son of Stymie; and the sensational victory of By Zeus on the off-rack in the San Fernando Stakes; and the high hopes of Californians for the home-bred Correspondent, Merryman, Ali's Gem, Golden Abbey and Apple Valley are other features.

The country's leading riders have drawn assignments. There is a possibility that there will be a strong filly contender in Cerise Reine, especially if an off-track comes up. Calumet Farm, which has won two runnings of the Maturity in Mark-Ye-Well and Ponder in 1950, have three eligibles in Prospecting and the fillies Bubbley and Lapful.

Beautiful Caliente in Old Mexico: Zigana, from the stable of Dr. H. R. Graves came from far back to capture the featured Paris Handicap with Rudy's Tryst second and Mite Rule third. In the co-feature My Button scored an easy victory over Reservation and La Matraca.

Bowling News

The Lee Hi Hats team, last year's champions, has been playing see-saw with the Ted's Service, those inspired mediocres who have been burning up the league by doing everything unexpected. They did the impossible again Saturday by slugging it out with the champions and winning with nothing but sheer heart and team spirit. Joe Horn's 188-194 games and George Hyson's 190-184 were the deciding blows that flattened the champions and left them reeling on their heels.

The King Pins found themselves on the guilty end of the season's first forfeit by not posting a complete team and made a gift to Garrett Enterprise of three unearned tallies. Despite the effort of Waco Jackon, who shot the evening's high game of 236, the B & B's team was unable to cope wtih the Brown Motor Shop's fast breaking hook ballers. Tony Moore's 203 high and 515 series netted his team a two-out-of-three victory.

John Millon was high point man for the Central Bar-B-Quers with his 193-196 games for a 559 series.

Zetas Depict Founder Day

Members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority observed Founders Day with a colorful afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Verda Donold, 2171 W. 28th Street, last week. Mrs. Alpha Arnold, program chairman of Beta Eta Zeta chapter, presided. An interesting skit, depicting the founding of the organization, was presented by Miss Barbara Bradley, Mrs. Mozell Thompson, Mrs. Ann Young of XI Alpha chapter, and Mrs. Myrtle City of Gamma Sigma Zeta chapter.

Mrs. Ferrol Starks conducted a unique "History Review" by giving each member a miniature booklet of blue and white with the title Founders Day 1951. Inside each booklet was a single question on the history of the organization. Mrs. Mildred Cater Boone, regional director, gave an interesting report on her recent trip to Detroit, where she attended the executive board meeting of the national staff.

Mrs. Katie Miller was in charge of music. Pouring tea was Mrs. Ada Rogers. Mrs. Nellie Render, anti-basilous of Beta Eta Zeta chapter; Mrs. Lillian J. Fentress, editor of the sorority official organ, The Archon, and Mrs. Mildred Cater Boone, director of the Pacific Region, were guests.

DANCE CHAIRMAN—Emily Woody and club member Jewel Randolph illustrate the theme of the Jack and Jill recent Polka For Polio dance held at the International Room of the Hotel Cosmopolitan. The gay and colorful affair was in the atmosphere of the Caribbean.

Bill Smallwood

Betty Hudson Nichols left for her Salt Lake City home Mon. She came to town to nurse her sister, Daisy Brooks, and mate, Harvey, after the auto spill which involved the Brookses.

Wilmer James gave close chums a bad scare with that fall she suffered. She's okay now. La. Pelican Club, one of the town's oldest social clubs dance formally next month.

Rev. Clarence Cobbs in town. That was Jackie Robinson's brother-in-law who got ex-liquor salesman Bill Chase's job. Glimpse: Clara Fentress sweeping into the Jack and Jill affair on the arms of two courtly swains, no less. And that was effective looking Vaino Spencer's glittering jewelry at the Pacific Town Club assembly which attracted all the attention.

Sympathy

There, too, Wesleen Foster and it was her birthday. She and Van Dyked-Otis Bowdoin sat at the bar. Four of Wesleen's buddies wired her "our sympathy at your bereavement. Happy Birthday!"

Mrs. Leota Lackey, visiting from Wilberforce, really hadn't planned including L.A. in her trip. She was in Mexico City but detested the place so that she took the first plane out to L.A. She was formerly Dean of Women at the Ohio school.

Did ex-Dallas barrister Jack Terry get back to town? Edith "Dit" Stevens packing her bags to catch the plane home to Detroit Satd. (30th). She's had a marvelous time of it here but confides she'll be glad to get home neverertheless. Bravo, but loudly, for that recent superb TV job turned in by Albert McNeil and Co.!

Brow-Raising

Energetic Ann Oliver, new president of the Glorious 16 Social and Charity Club, busy as all-get-out getting things shipshape for their Charity Brunch on Feb. 21st. This is the affair at which she is donating some pieces from her brow-raising collection of silver as prizes to members selling the most tickets.

That was ex-Angeleno Bill Lawrie, who lives now in Greenwich Village in N.Y., who gave the distinctive party for Bill Allen just before the latter shoved off for the coast. Bill Lawrie, even when he lived here, has long ago mastered the knack of successful party giving. His guests are stimulating always as I recall.

Visiting

On the coast from Chi. visiting: Mrs. Edreaner Gillespie, widow of the founder and first president of the Liberty Life Insurance Co. She's visiting her cousin in the Bay area. Add weird rumors: Gladys Hampton to open a dress shop in Harlem? Delta Jabberwock in April. Zeta Phi Beta busy with last minute details for their Negro Ballet Co. presentation at Sartu on the 31st.

Quite a turn-out due at the Consolidated Real Estate Board's installation banquet set for the 29th at the Cosmopolitan. Meredith Hatcher, bored stiff with idle days, isn't yawning and foot-tapping any more. She grabbed her Fil hat and went merrily, heigh-ho, back to her office job she left last year.

Eula Henderson, pulling on her gloves after a recent Biltmore matinee, trying to decide between the Milomo and the Auto Show. I couldn't wait on the decision. As it was I was late to say fond hullo to Irene West Thomas in town from N.Y. at the Statler waiting on her medic brother's arrival from Korea.

Emerald and Gold

Irene, she shed a husband recently) was wearing emerald and gold brocade toreador pants. She's daring with her champagne. Put thin slices of cucumber with the green rind and a squeeze of its juice into our glasses. Darn if I didn't like it. I liked her in those fancy pants far more.

WJB at S20: And how are those little breakfast sessions in your kitchen this season? I'm inconsolable.

Ella to Wed?

And who is the Philly medic (known here, they say) rumors have it will wed Ella Fitzgerald?

Evidently Jay Loft-Lynn really outdid himself with his recent annual artists' hour at Independent. Delighted viewers are still tossing descriptives around about it. Jay's become quite the impressario.

Angelenos who through the seasons may have shared some of the foreign and national travel tours of the Adolph Hodgeses will learn here the ex-school teaching pair live now in S.F.

Herb Edwards, here from Boston for a month. We both were somewhat dismayed seeing each other in daylight. We've always met either at crowded parties in N.Y., a particular smoky bar in Chi's Loop and twice at Slim's in Oakland. But by daylight, nay.

I meant to ask Herb if he ever sees Freddy Clark, than which there is no whicher. Even in Boston.

Cooperettes Seat Officers

The Cooperettes Social and Charity Club officers for the year 1954 were formally installed Sunday afternoon in the beautiful dining room of the Watkins Hotel.

Mrs. Craig, the former president, was presented with a beautiful gift and upon turning her gavel over to the new president Mrs. Craig thanked all the members for their support in making the past year such a successful one.

Officers for the year 1954 are: President, Orlean Washington; vice-president, Ophelia Huntley; secretary, Christine Galssco; corresponding secretary, Mary Jones; treasurer, Helen Stewart; assistant treasurer, Marie Holmes; business manager, Ann Craig; sergeant-at-arms, Callie Buford; publicity manager, Marjorie Parker; parliamentarian, Liliah Durden; members of the board of directors are Jennevieve Fisher and Oweda Tyus.

Shrine Dinner Draws Business, Professionals

A cross-section of the community leaders are rapidly procuring reservations this week to the Shriners' Annual Inaugural Banquet, to be held by the Egyptian Temple No. 5, in the main auditorium of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Feb. 5.

This occasion is unique, in that Shriners' guests include officials of the city, county, state and federal government, and the combined public press. Among community leaders who are rapidly procuring the reservations are lawyers, doctors, ministers and outstanding business men, according to Gilbert Lindsay, Deputy County Supervisor and director of public affairs of Egyptian Temple.

Many concert artists, vocalists and instrumentalists, will also appear on the program, including Marguerite Chapman, James Lucas, Mrs. Robert V. Lucas, Mrs. Marie Jordan and Buel Thomas.

CANCELLATION

Mrs. Fannie Williams, campaign manager for the Daisy Wilson Foundation, wishes to announce to the public that the "Beauty and Talent Show" to be staged at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Sunday, January 31, has been cancelled.

Sales of Coffee Cut in Half As Prices Soar

NEW YORK — Retail sales of coffee decreased about 50 per cent in New York last week, according to reports from two retail food associations representing 750 retail shops.

The catastrophic drop was chalked up after the price of coffee jumped to over $1 a pound.

Towering Club In Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of the Towering Charity Club was held last week at the home of the business manager, Beulah Armstrong. The usual business was discussed after which the officers for the year were elected. Installation was planned for the very near future. A delicious repast was served by the hostess and was enjoyed by all.

Dorothy Lark is still on the sick list and all members are hoping she will be back with the club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Maggie Bedford on Feb. 28. Carlis Bell is the club's reporter.

Mount Vernon Student Wins DAR Award

Among the students receiving honor and leadership awards from the Mount Vernon Junior High School was Sandra Hoskins, teen-age daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney L. Hoskins of Victoria avenue.

Sandra was awarded the coveted Daughter of the American Revolution inscribed badge and pin for excellence in leadership and citizenship, a school service citation, and a gold honor scholarship pin.

SANDRA HOSKINS
Plans to enter L. A. High

Sandra's father is a sergeant in the Los Angeles Police Department and a supervisor at the 77th Street Station and her mother is training teacher at the Trinity Street Elementary School.

New Nurses Graduated

TALLAHASSEE—Fourteen sophomore student nurses at Florida A and M University were capped here last Sunday evening during a colorful and traditional capping ceremony.

— Young Moderns Wed —

"SPLICE SLICE" was enjoyed by "Teddy" Edwards and Jeannie Thompson when they celebrated their marriage with a double reception. The couple plans to live in New York City for the present. (See story elsewhere on this page.)

Jeannie Thompson Weds Theodore 'Teddy' Edwards In Bay Area Cermonies

A background of the theatrical Rialto highlighted the marriage of dancer Jeannie Thomspon to musician Theodore M. "Teddy" Edwards in the bay-area! The couple fell in love while playing in the same show in San Francisco. The revue is called "Waterfront Sal" and is now showing at Don Barksdale's Champagne Supper Club. They were married in the bay-area at the home of Frank Garnett's.

Talented Twosome

Jeannie, a winsome interpreter of modern dance moods, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wardell Thompson of L. A. And Teddy, a local boy, besides being an able exponent of modern sounds, is a popular golfer and sportsman.

The bride's wedding ensemble was of pink lace and satin, and she was as beautiful as an Ellington tone poem. Her bridesmaid was the popular singer, Linda Hopkins, and the groom's best man was the stellar trumpet player, Gerald Wilson.

Among the guests who attended the wedding ceremony there were many showbusiness and social notables. A partial list of those follows: Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Walker, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Hopkins, disc jockey Tony Jackson, Miss Memory Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. [illegible] Harold Warden, Lionel [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Mosby, Mrs. J. J. Scraggins, and Mrs. Dorothy King.

The city of the Golden Gate was agog and swinging with the announcement of the nuptials. For to nitelifers it was the marriage of Waterfront Sal to the sensational sax player who provides the musical backdrop for Sal's sultry dance lore. The revusical is still playing to capacity crowds at Don Barksdale's bistro, and the young marrieds are still keeping ringsiders enraptured with their artistry.

The couple did, however, take time off from their jobs to make a jaunt home for a lavish reception on this end. And where you might have figured it would be an anti-climax affair after the San Francisco merger party, you would have been mistaken. They are "camera viewed" here.

Their future plans include a trip to New York for extensive training in their respective arts. May they live and love happily ever after, and may they always be "big time."

Woodlawn Branch YWCA Climaxes States Drive

Under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. A. C. Harris Bilbrew, chairman of the Branch ways and means committee, the climax of the Parade of States sponsored by the YWCA-Woodlawn Branch was held at the Cosmopolitan Hotel on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. Despite the inclement weather a most appreciative audience witnessed the entertaining program offered by outstanding artists of the city, representing their home states. Appearing on the program were:

Miss Delores Piper, Louisiana; Mrs. Mimi Saunders, Washington; Dr. Reginald Franklin Fisher, Pennsylvania-New York; Edward Wright, Oklahoma; Mrs. Jean Keele, Texas; Miss Lulu Saunders, Georgia, and Miss Jackie Daugherty, California.

Serving as accompanists for the artists were Gwendolyn Heyliagar and Marie Peterson. The goal was greatly helped by the diligent work of the following captains: Mrs. Beatrice Cassell, winner of the contest and serving as captain for the State of California; Mrs. Rosetta Overr, second place winner, serving as captain for the State of Louisiana; Mrs. Ella K. Mays, third place winner, serving as captain for the State of Pennsylvania-New York; Mrs. Effie Knox, fourth place winner, for the State of Oklahoma. Supporting captains were :Mrs. Mildred Boone, for the State of Georgia; Mrs. Grace Boyd, for the State of Texas, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Campbell, for the State of Washington.

All workers and the chairmen wish to thank the friends and organizations who helped support them in making these series of events and the climax what it was. Throughout the past few weeks, through these captains and their lieutenants, there have been many outstanding and cultural events given which served as a means of introducing the work and program of the YWCA to the community and friends.

Misses Geraldine Jones and Georgariana Wheatley represented the flowers from the states of California and Louisiana.

MISS WOODFOLK VISITS EAST

Miss Euougeline Woodfolk, returned recently from Farrel, Pa., where she enjoyed a very happy holiday reunion with her family. The family group included Mr. and Mrs. H. Woodfolk, pioneer Pennsylvania residents, Miss Martha Woodfolk, her sister, and her sister and brother-in-law, Lois and Herman Stoval, and their young son Herman III.

The youngster was christened on Sunday, followed by a family dinner for ten.

Many courtesies were shown the Woodfolk sisters. These included a supper, a cocktail party and a bridge party.

Climaxing their visit the senior Woodfolks entertained their daughters at an open house for more than 150 guests, followed with a special after five buffet supper.

Junior Hostesses Air Force Guests

Junior hostesses of the Hollywood Salvation Army, 28th Street YMCA, and San Pedro Y, Mobile Unit were week-end guests of the Special Service Club of the George Air Force Base, Victorville.

The hostesses participated in dancing, games and church activities at the base. Ruth Le Rue, USO directress, was in charge with chaperones Betty Wexter, Julian Slobrdians and Olgal Slobrdan. Hostesses from 28th Street Y included Elsie Ventress, Mattie Lee, Jurrie Emmerson, Laura and Theresa Hill, Pearlie Alexander, Catherine Mosely, Julian M. Brown, Juanita Johnson, Harriett Allen, Fannie Sinclair, Mildred G. Harvey, Sally L. Parhams, Ida Whitfield, Addie Motary and Ruth Motary.

Hostesses will go to San Pedro Y Thursday, Oxnard Air Force Base Friday, and Edwards Air Force Base Saturday.

'Brotherhood' to Be Feted Week Of Feb. 21-28

Preston Hotchkis, founder-president of the Founders' Insurance Company, has accepted the general chairmanship for the Southern California observance of Brotherhood Week, Feb. 21 to 28.

This was announced this week by George F. Wasson, Jr., general chairman of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, sponsors of the annual celebration.

President Dwight Eisenhower is honorary chairman of this year's celebration, which will be the 20th since the event was started in 1934.

THE CAROUSEL GIRLS, who are beginning their fourth year together, are pictured at their installation dinner, held at the Morrocco Supper club, last Sunday evening. Their baby contest, which will close with a tiny tots fashion show, the first Sunday in June, will culminate their drive for funds which will be divided between their two favorite charities, children's summer camp and university scholarship fund. Pictured above, standing: Iona Neal, sec'y; Verna McDaniels, Yvonne Johnson, treas.: Hilda De Roun and Florence Pipkins, chaplain. Seated: Rita McDonald, vice-pres.: Constance Duke, reporter; Vivian Guidry, Cora Eckley, Pres.; Marguerite Stapleton and Serita De Lovette, sec'y.

Standing Room Crowd Attends Human Rights Council Forum

A standing-room-only crowd of professionals, laymen, and civic leaders heard a brilliant and masterful analysis of the problems and responsibilities of integration, Sunday at the Golden State Auditorium, sponsored by the American Council on Human Rights.

The topic, "Integration — What Now?" was very ably handled about by a panel of Los Angeles' Who's Who that included: Mrs. Sallie Nuby Edwards, national vice-president of the American Council on Human Rights and national president of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority; Normon O. Houston, president of Golden Gate Insurance Company; Dr. James Kirk, chairman of the Sociology Department at Loyola University, Judge Edwin L. Jefferson served as moderator.

Highlight of the ACHR's forum was the brief report of the national scene by Elmer Henderson, National Executive Director of ACHR, who flew from Washington, D.C., to Los Angeles for the meeting. Mrs. Emily Woody, Delta Sigma Theta, president, announced that there would be more programs of that nature because of the many requests and the very warm reception on the part of the audience. Gwen Dusuau thanked Loren Miller, Herbert Simons, Ed Maddox, Walter Gorden, Dr. John A. Somerville and Dr. Claude Hudson, who served as special consultants for the Town House meeting.

A delightful social hour followed with refreshments under the direction of Mrs. Edna MacPherson, Zeta Phi Beta. Committee members included Lessie Crossland, Bob Reynolds, Cleopatra Johnson, June Jefferson, Lucille Bonnett, Betty Alston, Weldena Hefflin, Robert Green, Floyd Wilson, Leon Steward, Helen Jenkins, Charles Fielding, Gaynelle Miles, Claudia E. Witmore and Bessie Thomas.

SO. PARK CO-EDS INSTALL OFFICERS

Installation ceremony of this popular South Park teen age club will be celebrated at a dinner-dance in South Park's beautiful audtiorium.

The newly elected officers are: Emmett Albert for President of student body at Jefferson High School; President Albert Thomas, former basketball star at Jefferson High School, vice-president; Mary Lou Johnson, popular co-ed at U.C.L.A., secretary; Helen Williams, outstanding student at L.A.C.C., treasurer; Elias Welch, well known current football star at Jefferson High School, sergeant-at-arms; and Billy Taylor, music major at City College, reporter.

Big plans are under way for a very active and fun filled coming year.

Officers will be installed today (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m., by Sgt. Robert Green of the Los Angeles Police Dept.

Jack and Jill Calypso Benefit Attracts Gay, Colorful Crowd

The Hotel Cosmopolitan was the setting for the "Polka for Polio" given under the auspices of the Jack and Jill Club for the March of Dimes. The hall was decorated in the Haitian flavor, with tropical birds in a bamboo cage hanging from the center of the ballroom. Thatched huts were placed on each side of the handstand, with the bust of a beautiful tropical lady on the curtain, behind the band, meeting the eyes of all guests as they arrived. Banana trees and palm trees finished out the motif.

The dance was a huge success, and all proceeds will be turned over to the March of Dimes. This is a national project of the Jack and Jill Club, which is made up of mothers and children.

The club extended thanks to all the guest artists who appeared. They were: Slappy White, the emcee; Louise Beavers, LeRoy Antoine and dancers; Dryden and associates of the Dryden Dance School on Western Avenue; Rena Lang and her accompanist, Elliott Carpenter; Stepin Fetchit and others.

The club also thanked the community for helping to make this dance a success. The dance chairman, Mrs. Emily Woody, and the president, Mrs. Charlene Johnson, gave special mention to Mrs. Julia Murrell and her committe for the beautiful decorations; Mrs. Gwen Simmons for contributing cigarettes and the Lucy doll; Bob Boyd, of Seagram's; Mr. Sewell for the use of the dance hall; Mrs. Betty Howard, chairman of entertainment; Mrs. Marion Maddox, chairman of hostesses; the press, Los Angeles, for their wonderful support, and all the members for their untiring efforts in making this project a success.

Literary Club Holds Meeting

The Literary and Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Maurine Wallace on Sunday afternoon. The officers are Mrs. Viola Lewis, president; Mrs. Chloe Downey, vice-president; Mrs. Fanny Prince, treasurer; Mrs. Reba Warrier, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ira White, financial secretary; Mrs. Charley Snowden, chaplain; Mrs. Maurine Wallace, literary advisor; Mrs. Clyde Howell, reporter and critic, and Mrs. Billie Clark, program chairman.

Mrs. Hamilton, club guest, responded with a wonderful book review after which the hostess served a delightful dinner.

Hillcrest Club Fetes Fontaine Group

The West Washington "Hillcrest Club" was the scene for much merriment Monday night as Fats Stone, owner of the club, played host to the popular Lon Fontaine Dancers.

Fontaine and his group, which includes Silvia Moon, Frances Neely, Donna Jean and Florine Collette, took time out from their spectacular efforts at the Oasis Club to spend an enjoyable evening with Mr. Stone.

Also honored for doing a great job in uplifting the standards of the southland stage-show material were comedian Slappy White, Ike Royal at the 88, and Dickie Barrow, the Club's stellar vocalist.

EPSILON NU DELTAS HOLD INSTALLATION

Officers for 1954 were installed at the January meeting of Nu Chapter of Epsilon Nu Delta fraternity held at the home of Leon Harrison, with Jason Taylor as host. The outgoing president, Ralph J. Turner, officially installed the new officers. They are: President, Charles Thomas; vice-president, Ernest Neusom; secretary, Garland C. Wollridge; treasurer, James Garland; assistant treasurer, Robert Purnell.

SQUARE DANCERS DINNER SLATED

The Circle Square Dance Association's spaghetti dinner will be held at the Will Rogers Playground auditorium on Saturday from 8 until 11:30 p.m. This affair will be sponsored by the association. All square dance enthusiasts are cordially invited.

Bon Tons Meet

The first meeting of the year of the BON TONS Social and Charity Club was held recently at the home of its president, Lorena Morgan.

Since the Bon Tons last regular meeting they have enjoyed the holidays, exchanged gifts, donated substantially to needy families and to the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

During the business portion of the meeting new by-laws and memberships were discussed. Cleo Wanamaker was welcomed as a tentative new member.

PLAN INSTALLATION —Shown here are members of Douze Migniottes, planning installation of new officers which will take place later on in the month. Members are seated: Clara Boswell, vice president; Ethelene Smith, Business Manager; Dorothy Farley, Corresponding Secretary; Margaret Knox, Treasurer; Elaine Newsome, Charity Projects Chairman; Standing, Marilyn Franklin, President; Vivian Johnson, and Petey Bradford. Included in this year's projects is the introduction of a semi-formal dance. The dance is slated as an annual club affair.

BRIDGE POINTERS

—By—

'Kenny' Scott

The first thing you must learn is the Point Count Table, which gives an Ace the value of four points, the King the value of three points and the Queen the value of two points, with the Jack carrying the value of one point.

When valuing the hand for the purpose of a No Trump bid we consider only high cards. But where a hand is being valued for the purpose of bidding of a suit, distributional values must be taken into account for valuing your hand at a suit bid. Count your high cards then add three points if your hand contains a void. A void is when a hand has no card in that particular suit. Add two points for a singleton, and add one point for a doubleton. A singleton meaning one card in a suit, and a doubleton is when you have two cards to a suit.

Importance of Bidding

When bidding one in a suit, a biddable suit must contain at least four cards that are headed by an honor card Queen high or better. An honor card is a face card and you have four face cards in a suit, Ace, King, Queen and Jack.

With any five cards a biddable suit with two honor cards or more makes a rebiddable suit.

Simplified Method

Next week I will carry you further with more pointers on bridge.

With my new simplified method of play by play bridge, you can see how a large group can follow the various hands and see them matrialize by the correct bid. Already the classes at the "Y" have started opening and bidding hands. The beginners are using the Point Count Table and have found it most interesting. In closing, I invite all to come out to the classes at the "Y" on Tuesday nights at 7:30.

MRS. A. C. BILBREW, well known club woman is writing the pageant for Negro History Week sponsored by Our Authors Study Club.

Ross Snyder Slates Classes in Dancing

After a busy holiday season, dance classes at Ross Snyder playground reconvened Tuesday.

Those interested may call AD. 9750 for registration or drop by the playground any afternoon after 2:00 to enroll. Friday morning classes for Women will resume meeting on Friday. Call Miss Johnson for any further information.

'Three Men On a Horse' Continues to Run

The Broadway comedy hit, "Three Men on a Horse," is proving to be the vehicle which Ebony Showcase's talented players seem destined to prove that the popular little theatre group is here to stay.

Side Splitting

Crowds which have been pouring into the house since the production opened last week have left raving over the hilarious antics of Johnny (Lawyer Calhoun) Lee, Sammy Gardner, Suzette Harbin, James Edwards, Nick Stewart and the rest of the capable cast which have made "Three Men on a Horse" one of the most entertaining stage offerings to hit this town in years.

Conveniently Located

The comedy is really a riot and a perfect remedy for whatever may ail you. It is playing nightly except Mondays and Tuesdays at the Showcase, 2182 West Washington blvd. (at Western) and persons are urged to obtain their reservations early by phoning REpublic 6448. Popular prices prevail.

Appeals to Groups

Special rates are being made to clubs and other organizations who may desire to hold benefits at the popular playhouse. Employes of the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance company have bought out the entire house for Friday, Jan. 29, marking the fourth time during the last year that this group has cooperated in similar manner with the Ebony project.

Las Madrinas Members Lay Annual Plans

Las Madrinas met at the home of Mrs. Viola Dunn, who served a delicious luncheon assisted by co-hostesses Mrs. Mayme Waters, Mrs. Mary Firmes, Mrs. Venye Corporal and Mrs. Amelia Collins. After the busines meeting, which included plans for the annual party for their daughters, the club was entertained by the members whose birthdays occur in January.

Thomas Edison . . . . Jr. HI Journalist

Here I am back again. I am sorry that I missed your favorite column. I hope you've watched for me. I am back, so I will start off with news of some more girls.

Rosa Lee Jefferson — Rosa holds most of our honor jobs such as Hall, G.A.C. officer, secretary of homeroom. This girl is very smart in her classes.

Evelyn Rivers—Here are some of the jobs that Evelyn holds: Hall, Honor Patrol, Vice-President in her 5th period class, Secretary of Homeroom and Vice-President in 3rd period. She has a house full of jobs. I bet you would like to be in her shoes.

Jean Nickelberry — Jean is graduating next semester and will go to Fremont. She hopes to make good there, and we hope you have a nice graduation, you Pathfinder.

Audrey Miller—Audrey is one of the most well known girls at Edison and one of the nicest girls I know. She goes out of her way to help and is always trying to do something for someone.

Now I'll tell you about some more boys.

Robert Harris — Robert is a very bright student and whenever he gets into something he goes to do his best. He led our P.T.A. drive with 58 memberships. That boy really works.

Clinton Walker—This is one of my good friends. He is very good in football and helped our homeroom to go in the play off. He made one of the best catches I've seen in a long time. He is exceptionally good.

Charles Williams — Charles gets A grades in Gym because he is a good track star. He came to Edison from Carver and is in the A9. Watch for his name in any high school to which he goes.

I hope to find you among my readers next week. I will try to be with you ever week now.

'VAUGHN-DER-FUL' SARAH OPENS FRI. AT TIFFANY

"Chazz" Crawford's "SOUND TRACK"

THE "INSIDE" TRACK

Hey Mister Bartender: When they ask for a "Civil Rights Martini" they mean they want one where the gin and vermouth have equal rights! . . . We were real shaken up to hear Rosemary Clooney shout her latest shellac called "My Baby Rocks Me With A Steady Roll." Mrs. Jose Ferrar always struck us as the shy type. She barrels this tune across with the same unconcern for censors as Wynonie Harris did when he was preaching his "Round The Clock" sin piece back in ol' Club Alabam days! . . . Sorry to have missed Lil and Jerry Cumber's ninth anniversary party Friday nite. (Pottery is the gift, friend) . . . Hear tell it was uproarious! Incidentally, the Cumbers say they expect their little heir or heiress in April! . . . We were shocked to hear of the death of Gwen Baer last week. She was the owner of the fabulous Rancho Yucca Loma. From time to time this scribbler has managed to get away from the city's turmoil and relax in that Mojave desert retreat.

Nat Joseph, the sepia "chef of the West" who was Mrs. Baer's great friend and master of cuisine will continue his chores. He and David Manners will pilot the swank lodge. . . . Over at the Pizalle the other midnight pianist Jacquie Glenn did such a great job with Gershwin. Joe Adams was prompted to inquire whether the tune was "Rhapsody In Blue" or "Rhapsody In BROWN" . . . And say look, they're tossing a wham of a press-pawtee over there Monday night to announce the opening of Rudy Render! . . . Her intimate chums will tell you that Sassy still feels very tenderly about George in spite of their recent rift. . . . Scat Man Crothers will headline the Apollo bill the last week in February. That's reputed to be a tough audience, but we believe this boy has "got their change" . . . Isn't there a story and pic about Scat somewhere on the page? Check! . . .

SHHHH! HE'S ON THE BEAT

Talking To Myself: There's an old showbusiness idiom, Chazz, that goes like this. "Never follow a banjo act with another banjo act" and tell that to the competitors where you think it will do the most good! . . . Dame rumor has it that Florida's Copa City nitery would like to have Josephine Baker back for another whirl! . . .

Controversial Josie said to be big business in Europe, and it could be that the Copa man's only interested in having a drawing card. . . . It's about time we got around to complimenting friend Bill Luke on his "Man Of Color" series. Caught the KECA airer last Saturday, and the narrator and his guest, B. B. Bratton were real suave. A credit to the beige belt! . . . Model gal pal called to say one of her colleagues is plenty burned over an item that appeared in another newsies nitery kolyum. Altho' no name was mentioned, she's heard the reporter was referring to her as the chick who is basking in a hastille on a 90 day stretch. And that ain't right atall says the lady. Were playing it cautious too! No names! . . . Red Hut waitress and former showgal Creme Dell said to have come into a sizable sum in the form of an inheritance! . . . Mauri Lynn, the throaty chanteuse is filling an engagement a la Vegas nitery. Lay you odds that Miss Lynn will really score in fifty-four! She's a great talent! . . . And keep your eye on a youngster named Lawrence Stone. Larry's songstuff has a lot of soul! . . . The Mabel Scott-Will Lathan marriage story that broke on this paper's page one a couple of weeks ago was parlayed almost word for word in other places. So here's another "skewp." . . . The couple will adopt a baby girl. Arrangements are being made now by Mr. Lathan in Nashville! . . . Songster Ernie Andrews, who is really a nice gent is said to have an answer (on wax) to folks who say his egos swelling. Seems he has a tune that will kid the pants off his critics, cause it has to do with his hat size! . . . Eartha Kitt news She had her hair cut by Don Loper (the gown designer) for her closing nites at Mocambo, where she fractured the audience when she warbled "Don't You Know It's Rude To Stare?" . . . She became a year older Tuesday, and there was a pawtee for her after Monday night's show. And a Hollywood kolyumnist (Harrison Carroll, to be exact) is fervently denying the Sammy Davis romance. Says La Kitt has a secret love, but she's fraid to call his name. It would stand the town on its ear, claims Carroll, and the guy's family would kick up a beeg fuss! Now, how bout that? . . . Chalk up an error. That's Donna Jean and not Donna Rae who we itemed as a Lon Fontaine dancer last week. But donna go way mad! They both stack up well! . . . The guests

'Sassy' Lassie 'Singsational' Vocal Stylist

Soaring Sarah Vaughan sometimes referred to as "Vaughnderful" Sarah, and then then again as "The Divine One" will bow in tomorrow night at the Tiffany lounge at Eighth and Normandie. This will mark the first appearance of "Sassy" on the coast in three years.

Note Bender

The vocalovely whose ability to bend notes skyrocketed her to fame and riches, has made a European tour since her last stand here, and topples box-office records wherever she 'blows.'

Tiffany Tops

'Jovial' Jack Tucker's Tiffany Club is a comparative 'jewel' in the midst of other of the town's niteries, inasmuch as it is the home of big time artists, and the tariff is compatible to nite-lifers' pocketbooks. (Even if you love coffee).

Welcome Mat Set

Club goers are expected to turn out en-masse tomorrow nite for La Vaughan's opening. And her tremendous following will more than likely keep the premises crowded throughout her two weeks engagement. While on the coast the songstress is scheduled for an appearance on the Colgate TV show, but the eighth street bistro is her exclusive nitery appearance.

Veteran Actor Bob Davis Talented Stage Director Ebony Showcase Manager

Bob Davis, who gained fame as an actor in such film hits as "Knock On Any Door," "Red Ball Express" and "The Long Night," has garnered a measure of renown in an even more difficult field, that of stage directing.

Young Davis presently is stage manager of the Ebony Showcase Theatre, 2162 W. Washington Blvd., during its current production of the sensational comedy hit, "Three Men on a Horse."

This is another indication of the niche Ebony Showcase hopes to carve in local theatrical circles in affording opportunities not only to actors, but also to those whose talents may lie in the technical branches of the business such as directing, producing, writing and the like.

George Shearing Quintet 'Collars' February 5 Set At Embassy Emporium

First of the 1954 jazz concert series under the auspices of impresario Gene Norman will be held Friday, February 5, at the Embassy Auditorium, when the fabulous George Shearing Quintet returns after a long absence.

'88' Artistry

The phenomenal success of the Shearing Quintet, winner of more than forty national popularity polls, is directly attributed to the "touch of genius" of George Shearing. Blind since birth, the 33-year-old pianist is recognized as one of the most talented musicians in the country. Surrounding Shearing is a superlative group of instrumentalists, including Cal Tjader, Jean Theilmans, Al McKibbon and Bill Clark.

Talented Tooters

Rounding out the bill as added attraction will be a group of "Just Jazz" all-stars, featuring Zoot Sims and Wardell Gray, two of jazzdom's top artists, in a battle of saxes. Another successful session scheduled by that dynamic duo of Gene Norman and Ross Burdick.

'Boston Blackie' On Thrifty-KTTV Wed. Nite at 8:30

A trio of new television shows sponsored by Thrifty Cut Rate Drug Stores, can now be seen over television station KTTV.

The programs feature two dramatic mysteries and a talent Thrifty entertainment is the show featuring top amateur performers.

Leading off the week of popular "Stairway to Stardom" show, featuring master of ceremonies, Wally Sherwin, at 10:30 every Tuesday evening.

"Boston Blackie," with his beautiful girl friend and humorous dog, appear on Channel 11 at 8:30 p.m., Wednesdays.

Third big program on the Thrifty-KTTV schedule is the adventurous "Files of Jeff Jones" series. This mystery show is being programmed at 7:30 each Friday night.

porary job at the Broadway.

Miss Pankey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pankey, of 643 N. Madison street, a member of Belmont's elected Student Council, former vice president of the Girl's League and former assistant cheer leader for the Girl's Athletic association, is one of the most brilliant and best liked girls in the school.

Asked for Students

The Broadway had asked for help in obtaining 30 students to assist in the job of taking inventory. It is only a one day job and Thurma is one of the girls who was hired last year.

This year she again applied. The teacher in charge, George Brailsford, tactfully took Thurma aside and explained to her that "they're not taking any colored at the Broadway."

Discreetly

Queried later, Brailsford told the Eagle that he had been advised by school authorities to follow this policy. He said he did not get the order direct from the Broadway, and added that the ban had not been conveyed to him in "dogmatic terms," but that he had been "discreetly" advised that the Broadway did not want any colored students to assist in taking inventory.

The Eagle repeats what it has said before: "We think that it is no more than fair to be as good to the Broadway as the Broadway is to us. If it declines to employ Negro sales people, we should, in our proper turn, decline to buy its merchandise.

"If we buy where we can work, we will soon be able to work where we buy."

all of our citizens to acquire, within their means, good and well-located homes.

"We shall take steps to insure that families of minority groups displaced by urban redevelopment operations have a fair opportunity to acquire adequate housing; we shall prevent the dislocation of such families through the misuse of slum clearance programs; and we shall encourage adequate mortgage financing for the construction of new housing for such families on good, well-located sites."

Police-Eye View

By Sgt. Tom Bradley

SHAKEDOWN

One of the major sources of complaint by indignant, reputable citizens is that they were stopped and questioned by the police.

They often ask, "Why can't the policeman recognize the difference between a law abiding taxpayer and a crook?"

Unfortunately there are no clear-cut distinguishing signs that mark one as a criminal type to separate him from the law abiding element.

This attitude of indignation is understandable when we consider that it is a typical American trait that we feel that we have the right to be left alone, and especially so when we know that we have not done anything wrong.

Sgt. Tom Bradley

A citizen should not be offended if stopped and questioned by a police officer as to his identity and business. The officer's assignment and routine duty often require that he seek identification from people.

On The Job

Consider that the next person he stops may be the burglar he is looking for and the officer's action may save you from being victimized. Be glad that he is on the job. Remember that his job requires that he risk his life, if necessary, to protect the law abiding citizens. Reputable people have nothing to fear from the police.

The officer's training has led him to be alert for certain signs which may indicate reasonable grounds for investigation. An event which transpired in another part of the city, when considered in relation to the circumstances under which he finds a person, may be the cause for the "shakedown." He will err occasionally if he works at all, yet it will usually be an error made in good faith.

Responsibilities

It is generally recognized that "field interrogations" constitute an overwhelmingly large proportion of the beat and patrol officer's activities and the large number of cases successfully "closed" would probably diminish to the point of invisibility without this activity.

It is obvious that as citizens in our modern society we must suffer certain inconveniences and give ground on some of our so-called inherent rights in order that the general welfare can best be served and protected.

Department Policy

If the occasion arises and you are stopped by the police, a prompt and courteous answer to questions will no doubt result in a quick and efficient determination of the facts without embarrassment. A courteous inquiry as to the reason for the inquiry will invariably be greeted with a courteous and reasonable explanation.

These observations are in no way intended to allege that all officers are courteous at all times in their approach. Courtesy is the policy of the department and we believe it to be the rule in most cases. With an increased spirit of cooperation and understanding, the exceptions could very likely also become the rule since courtesy and cooperation will dispel fear, distrust and resentment.

Must Answer

We quote from a case ruled on by the Appelate Court of California in which the arrested person refused to answer questions of an officer who stopped him on the street . . .

"The duty of every good citizen is, when called upon, to give all information in his power to a proper officer of the law; this applies as to information regarding the crime under investigation as well as information of a personal nature affecting one of whom the inquiry is being made, when circumstances are such as to warrant an officer making inquiry."

the main reason. I can't speak out for peace in America without being persecuted.

PFC. WHITE: I have been a prisoner for three years. For the first time in my life I have known what it has meant to have complete equality for men of all races and colors to work together and play together. When I see things like this I am reminded of what happened to me in my own country where as children I and other Negro boys were whipped by white policemen because we did not take our hats off to them.

attempts being made to force the intermixture of the black and white races."

Likewise his magazine, "The Cross and the Flag," which was also distributed, lauds South Africa as the "land of self-respect" because the Malan government is "trying to save the white race from mongrelization" and is "solving the race problem with segregation."

Functions Secretly

Smith apparently has been functioning secretly on the West Coast for some months.

In addition to McCarthy, Smith sings the praises of Gen. Douglas, MacArthur, Sen. Pat McCarran and California's State Senator Jack B. Tenney. But McCarthy is his current hero.

Louder in his hate than in his praise, Smith leveled furious broadsides at all Jews indiscriminately and all Jewish organizations, with some extra venom reserved for the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the Communists, and the United Nations. Also he opposes admission of Hawaii on the grounds that it might be represented by Orientals.

He doesn't have very much liking, either, for Los Angeles' only woman member of the City Council. He speaks of her as "a Jew woman by the name of Rosalind Wiener." For her he harbors a special dislike because she opposed the erection of a monument to General MacArthur, and reportedly quipped that the statue would only serve as "a roosting place for birds."

Redding Runs For Congress

Ned Redding, 48, newspaper publisher and president of the Los Angeles City Public Utilities Commission, today announced he would run for congressman from the 26th District.

In announcing his candidacy, Redding outlined a six-point program as the basis of his platform. He said:

"I am for protection of California's water rights, mineral rights and tidelands.

"I am against discrimination in freight and shipping rates which penalize western industry.

"I favor the broadening of Federal housing laws to give all people, veterans and non-veterans alike, the right to acquire and own a home with a minimum down payment and the security of a long-term loan.

"I believe Communists must be exposed and expelled from all branches of government.

"I am for tax revision downward without crippling our national defense.

"I favor fair and equal employment for all people regardless of race, creed or national origin."

Yorty Enters Senate Race

Samuel W. Yorty, who has represented the 26th District in Congress for the past four years, announced Monday that he will run for the U.S. Senate against the incumbent, Thomas Kuchel.

Yorty outlined a broadly progressive program designed to benefit "all of the people of the State of California." In a highly critical statement, Yorty stressed the fact that his differences with Kuchel are political and not personal.

A life long Democrat, Yorty has established a record in Congress for the support of civil rights and was highly rated by the NAACP for his consistent support of civil rights legislation.

The candidate also took the occasion to point out that he is a long time foe of subversive elements and that he headed the state committee which investigated Un-American activities as long ago as 1939.

The Yorty announcement drew praise in the community and many pledges of support.

Van Ronkel Co.'s Fifteen Years A Success Story

Congratulations to the Van Ronkel Company, distributors and importers of liquors and wines, who are celebrating their 15th anniversary. Jo Van Ronkel's rise to prominence in this field reads like a real "success story"!

He started from the bottom in 1939 and established a one-man business. What makes this all the more noteworthy is that he gave up a successful career as a motion picture director for Universal Studios to strike out as an entrepreneur in the liquor distributing business. Like many talented men, Jo Van Ronkel always dreamed of being in business for himself to assert his ideas and capabilities exactly as he saw fit.

Now, 15 years later, he heads an organization boasting 32 salesmen supervised by three district managers and backed up by a large office and warehouse staff. A one-story green and tan brick structure at 921 S. Hoover, the Van Ronkel Company typifies the ultra modern in beverage wholesale plants. Van Ronkel had top designers create a general office, warehouse, and distributing center in which, at a cost of more than $200,000, have been incorporated the most modern developments in building design, office management technique, customer entertaining and servicing features as well as warehouse and delivery facilities.

The Van Ronkel Company covers Los Angeles and Orange counties and distributes such outstanding brands as Seagram's Seven Crown, Seagram's V.O., Kessler's, Old Taylor, Bellow's Club Bourbon and Partner's Choice, Seagram's Ancient Bottle Gin, Gilbey's Gin, Gilbey's Spray Royal Scotch, Kentucky Tavern, Glenmore, Old Thompson, Dimitri Vodka, Chivas Regal, Almaden and Roma wines and many other fine liquors and wines, both domestic and imported.

The Van Ronkel Company now enjoys the distinction of being one of the most respected ventures in this industry, and Jo Van Ronkel has personally demonstrated great versatility in duplicating the notable success he formerly achieved in a vastly divergent field as a motion picture director.

PEOPLE & PLACES

come another bobby-sox thriller.

JACQUIE GLENN, piano styling at the Club Pigalle is one of the smoothest found any place. Her rhythmic romance on the 88's rate her with the greats. She is defintely good listening!

ALTHEA POLK CLARK is climaxing her torrid month visit with a cocktail pawtee tonight (Thursday). She'll return to Alaska and hubby!

CHARLOTTE PEALE, the New York City lass is calling this home now, since she talked herself into marrying her guy.

CHORINES and some of the best dancing dolls since heydays of the Club Alabam can be found at the Oasis. They answer to the names of Sylvia Moon, Francis Neeley, Florine Collette and Donna Jean and they really can step.

MAE BELLE JACKSON took over the kitchen at the Paradise and swears she can turn you on to a meal like Mother. For a price!

AL'S GROTTO, the Avalon Blvd. eatery is being operated by Alfretta Zeta and she plans to specialize in New Orleans Gumbo!

JOHN THOMAS, ex-boxer is building a terrific poultry business on Avalon. He boast some of the best tasting birds in the city. Drop in sometime!

JACKSON WHEELER'S Friday night TV movie show is good viewing and he certainly gives the boys in the boxing world a good pitch. In fact the smooth talking Wheeler gives a good play to people in all walks of life. George Putnam and Jackso Wheeler are a living room natural!

LUKE JONES, Monroe Tucker, Ramon Fields are the reason for that lively crowd in Tex's Bar-B-Que parlor down Central Avenoo way. They keep the week-end guests jumping till early in the a.m.!

JUANITA WILSON is the cute freckle face barberette operating in the swank Le Coiffeur Western Avenoo tonsorial parlor.

LENA TORRANCE COOPER, beautiful ebony wife of Joe is expecting to add another name to her fast growing family. This will be a second for the couple!

DISAPPOINTED were those dapper young doctors when they entered the gates of Santa Anita. Upon leaving they realized that it was impossible to hand a bill to the horses which ran such a sick race for them!
